YOU CAN BUY a second-hand 10-foot walnut extension table very cheap of tf A. W. SLAYTON.

FOR SALE.—In the village of Tecumseh, five acres of land. Buildings in fair condition. One of the finest small fruit locations in the village. Address M. C. BRAINARD, Tecumseh.

PLANTS! PLANTS! PLANTS!—The largest and finest lot of plants ever grown in Tecumseh: transplanted, stocky, hardy and well rooted; none but the best varieties: ten years' experience. ABNER WILSON. 4w

MUSTANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, tf Tecumseh.

UPHOLSTERING and cane chair reseating done at my shop in the rear of the band room on Railroad street. FRANK R. PAGE.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—The old M. E. parsonage house on Pearl street. A good house in a very fine location. For price and terms of payment call at the premises. apr21-4 S. WHITTIER.

FOR SALE OR RENT:—A brick house with two or six of land on Adrian road, south of old Quaker meeting house, good bargain to right parties. Inquire at J. S. Kinney's furniture store, Tecumseh.

FOR SALE OR RENT—My place of fifteen acres, located in Brownville on Burch street. Will sell on long time and very easy payments. For particulars enquire of James Kingan, near the premises. mar17 8t GILES TURNER.

TECUMSEH HERALD.

TECUMSEH, MICH., MAY 26, 1892.

Local and Miscellaneous

W. F. Anderson of Devils Lake is in town this week.

H. C. Conkling made a business trip to Adrian Tuesday.

The Pastor of the Presbyterian church expects to occupy his pulpit next Sabbath morning.

The Tiffany Iron Works are turning out another large invoice of Ingraham's patent wheat scourers.

Mr Clinton letter failed to arrive this morning, much to our regret. We have not yet learned the cause.

There will be work in the third degree Friday night in the Blue Lodge, after which a supper will be served.

Mrs. Dr. Miller, of Washington D. C. arrived in town Wednesday, to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tefft.

The remains of James C. Murray were brought to Tecumseh Saturday evening and the burial took place Sunday afternoon. An obituary notice and resolutions appear elsewhere.

The meetings at the M. E. Church next week will be of much interest and importance. The public generally are invited to attend and will be amply repaid for the time spent.

Memorial services will be held next Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church, sermon by Rev. O. J. Perrin. Services at the other churches will be withdrawn on that evening.

Mr. A. Conklin of Manchester died yesterday morning. The funeral service will be held to-morrow, Friday, afternoon at two o'clock. Some of his Tecumseh acquaintances will doubtless attend.

Another rain storm Tuesday night settled our two days' drouth, and made mud something for the crossing sweeper to agitate. As one old farmer said: "This weather's turrible on wheat and sich, but fine fer medders."

Miss C. Murray was the fourth charter member of the Tecumseh Lodge Knights of Honor, who has died since the organization of the lodge. He held a certificate of $2.000, the same as the others. This order now has 35,000 members on its rolls.

At the board meeting of the Adrian Board of Purchasing and Improvement committee held Friday night, the decision was reached that a continuance of the band would be kept up by personal solicitation. The company have confidence in their scheme, and will work every point to make it the sucess they believe it deserves.—Adrian Times.

There will be a State Checker Tournament in Detroit on November 16th and 17th at which the prizes will aggregate $200, the first prize will be $100. Now is the time for our local checker players to push up. The winner will have his expenses paid as a participant of the World's Fair Tournament in Chicago in 1893. All interested from the interior will be given reduced rates at Detroit hotels and boarding houses.

The Bi Club took a spin last Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Emery drove over from Adrian Monday.

Mrs Seaton Anderson and son Fay have been visiting her daughter Helen in Detroit this week.

The old novelty store of James Montague still leads the van. Read his new card on the first page.

See the new Wash Fabrics in Llama Cloths, Surah Twills and India Muslins, at ANDERSON & Co's.

P. C. Temple, of Harvey Ill., sends his subscription to the Herald in good season. He says: "We cannot keep house without it."

The Ladies' Society of the Baptist Church will postpone their social one week. It will be held on June 9th, instead of June 2nd.

Our Pioneer resident A. H. Chaplin died Monday of heart failure. Obituary next week. The funeral was held yesterday at 2 p, m.

Miss Libbie Robinson still holds her position in the Vineland N. J. Postoffice. Her Tecumseh friends will be glad to learn of her prosperity.

Married at the Methodist Parsonage, Tecumseh, May 18th, 1892, by Rev. O. J. Perrin, Mr. Edmund Millyard, and Miss Eva Lidester, both of Ridgeway.

The Floral Committee for Decoration Day will meet at the John Usborn building 2 doors east of "Herald" Office next Monday morning where donations of flowers can be sent.

The Tecumseh Table Co., have engaged a space in the main building of the World's Columbian Exposition, and will put on exhibition there a full assortment of their celebrated tables.

The third annual meeting of the Detroit Conference, Woman's foreign missionary society will be held at the M. E. Church in this village next week. The full program will be found elsewhere.

Mrs. John Beckley received word Tuesday of the death of her sister, Mrs. Peter Schreyler, of New Jersey, who was for many years a resident of Ridgeway. Mrs. Beckley started yesterday for the east.

The annual reunion of Co., F. 26th, Mich. Inf. will be held this year at Jehiel Davidson's in this village on Tuesday June 14th. It is expected that Gov. Blair will be present and deliver an address.

Stanley's explorations are equalled, if not excelled, in the person of Mrs. Kate Cleveland who took her father and mother, upwards of eighty years old, and husband, on a trip to California to visit a sister.

The Donation visit for the benefit of Rev. D. J. Lewis, held last Friday evening at his home, was largely attended and resulted in a good supply of money and other articles to supply the temporal wants of his family.

Work has been progressing on the village test well and it is now down to the depth of 195 feet and they are drilling through mudrock. Beneath this strata bedrock is expected to be found with possible traces of water; some salt has already been discovered.

Tom McClure who has been employed in the lumber business at Alma, for some months, put in some good time visiting here this week. Tom has secured a desirable position with a large commercial firm of Pittsburg, Pa., and left for that city Tuesday. The good wishes of a host of friends go with him.

A retired farmer, who has time to try experiments and note the results, says for the last three years he has planted a bean or two in each potato hill and has never seen a bug on the potato tops where beans were grown in the same hill. If this is a protection against the bugs the remedy is simple and will pay for the trouble in the crop of beans.

About 35 enthusiastic Nimrods participated in the amateur shoot of the Tecumseh Gun Club Tuesday. Manchester, Adrian, Dundee, Macon and other towns were represented and much interest was exhibited in the tournament. Twenty prizes were offered, of which 15 were shot off, he remaining five being left for some future date.

The following is a list of the lucky marksmen: B. S. Sudder silver water set $18.00; Mr. Krietner Springfield Sporting Rifle and Reloading tools $12.00; Mr. Hal Silver Fruit Dish $9.00; Elmer Harris Baking Dish $7.00; Guy Davidson Fine Bass Fishing Rod 6.00; Dade Boyd Silk Umbrella 5.00; Mr. Gage Silk Umbrella 5.00; Marsh Mills Smoking Set, 4.00; Mr. Carter, Flobert Rifle 3.50; Hines, Choice Hat, 3.00; Day, Choice Hat, 3.00; John Brown, Box Cigars, 3.00; Mr Allen Box Cigars, 3.00; Dr. Nelson, Box Cigars, 2.00; J. Harris, Clock, 2.00.

Miss Berth Taylor, of Franklin, was brought to the hospital in this city last week, having been seriously ill from nervous prostration. She has done good work as an organizer of White Rose clubs, and is a bright young lady far beyond her years. In fact her present illness is largely due to over work. One of the saddest features in connection with this sad affair is the fact that her mother, Mrs. L. E. Taylor, is at the point of death from the effects of a cancer at her home in Franklin. These good Prohibition friends deserve the sympathy and help of all lovers of home in their great affliction. It would be encouraging to the young lady at the hospital if W. C. T. U. and Prohibition women would pay her a visit with flowers and words of cheer.—Adrian Messenger.

Ed Parker and wife, of Clinton, were in town Tuesday.

Bert Tribou, of Detroit, spent last Sunday at the old home.

Wood Crane & Wood have a change of card in this week's paper.

Wm. H. Ames, of Elkhart is visiting friends and relations in town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, of Lansing are spending a few days in town.

Thursday, June 23d, will be Commencement day at Olivet College.

Rev. James Vincent went to Detroit Monday morning for a week's visit.

Memorial services will be held next Sunday evening at the M. E. Church.

Mrs. Abbie Fisher and daughter Gertrude are visiting in Detroit this week.

People who expect settled weather need not look for it until after the 30th.

Mrs. A. P. Codington went to Detroit Tuesday to attend the W. C. T. U. convention.

Dr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Ann Arbor, have been visiting Tecumseh people this week.

The business houses were all closed Saturday afternoon during the progress of B. J. Bidwell's funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keusch have returned from their wedding trip to Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids.

The Deroit Exposition will be held earlier than usual this year, commencing Aug. 23d and closing Sept. 2d.

Horace B. Fuller, of the Agricultural College, who has been visiting Lavern Heesen, returned to Lansing Monday.

Mrs. Custer, widow of Gen. Custer, is giving parlor readings in Detroit. "Garrison life on the plains" is one of her subjects.

Prof. Wilbnr of Adrian College occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church last Sunday, both morning and evening.

The State Pioneer Society will hold its annual meeting at Lansing on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, June 1 and 2.

John F. Murray of Detroit was in town Sunday to attend the funeral of his brother James, whose remains were brought here for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warnes of Brooklyn returned home Monday, after spending a few days with their mother Mrs. Ellen McCaughen of this place.

Hattie Montgomery, who has been employed in the News Office for several years, has left the craft and taken a position in Temple, McClure & Co's lumber office.

Don't forget the afternoon meeting of the Farmers Social Club, May 27th, at Mr. Everhart's, Come early. There will be a meeting of the Committee on decorations at same time and place.

A project is being perfected at Melbourne, Australia, whereby a large party of artisans of various crafts may be enabled to visit the Exposition at Chicago for study and pleasure combined.

The Anniversary of the establishment of the National Epworth League, was duly celebrated by special services at the M. E. Church last Sunday evening and a very interesting program was presented to a large congregation.

Maxim, the inventor of the Maxim gun, one of the greatest of American inventors, explains in the June Cosmopolitan how it is possible to build without further discussion a flying machine which will travel through the air at the rate of 100 miles per hour; this without the aid of any gas.

All ladies of Tecumseh and vicinity, interested in decorating the graves of our fallen heroes are requested to meet at Usborne's vacant store, Monday May 30th at 8;30 a. m., to assist in preparing the floral decorations. Those donating flowers please leave them as early as possible at the same place. Rosa Mills, Chairman.

The Soldiers Monument at Macon, will be dedicated on memorial day Monday, May 30th., in connection with Decoration exercises. time 2 30 p, m, at the Macon Cemetery when the following programme will be observed.

Called to order by the President of the day.
Music by the Band.
Invocation by Rev. Mr. Guliok.
Vocal Music.
Historiical Address by Hon. George Howell.
Music by the Band.
G. A. R. Dedication Exercises. Address by Prof. White of Jackson.
Decoration of graves with memorial exercises at the Monument.
Hymn America.
Benediction.

Miss Kittie Clark has been elected by the musical class to write the class song for the graduating exercises at Adrian. All poetry forwarded to her for the next two weeks will be thankfully received.—Ridgeway Cor. Herald.

As to thanks Kittie, "don't mention it." We will simply say that we have on hand 15 lbs. of spring poetry that has never been used and a considerable assortment of choice rhymes concerning the feathery fall of congealed aqua pura which we will close out to you "at prices that defy competition." In fact Kittie, if you will call and get it yourself you shall have it for nothing. We had thought of sending it packed in a barrel, to the starving Russians, believing it would be food for reflection, but we had as soon give it to you. If you cannot call personally for it, will ship it to your direction, consigned f. o. b. (free on board) to any place you may name, either in this world or the next. Anxiously awaiting your orders, we remain, dear Kittie, very truly yours, etc., etc.—Adrian Press.

SCHOOL SKETCHES.

Mr. Raymond visited the A room last Thursday forenoon.

English History have completed advanced work and will review.

The work of reviewing will begin in most grades below the high school next week.

The geometry class are imbued with their work. They even stay after school to imbibe it.

The pupils of the Primary and Grammar grades will take part in Decoration Day exercises, at the request of the committee on arrangements.

Five tenth grade students preferred a holiday on Tuesday afternoon, that they might attend the shooting tournament, hence Friday will find them in their accustomed places.

The botanical specimens contributed by Mr. Dewey are all mounted, the class having completed that part of the work last Saturday afternoon. The work of catalogueing will be in order next.

—Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention. GEO. MATTESON

You will make no mistake in using Heck's Peacemaker Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands. HECK & SON.

—Bargains in 2nd. hand Carriages:
Open Buggy, $10.00.
Top Carriages $15.00 to $35.00.
Canopy Top Surry $25,00.
Call and see them. C. A. SLAYTON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call at C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—90,000 Star-A-1, shingle for sale at $3.25 per M. O. P. BILLS.

—I have a fine assortment of Carriages, Surreys, Road Wagons, Carts, Harness, Nets, Dusters, Whips and other horse goods which I would be glad to show you and am able to offer you bargains in this line. C. A. SLAYTON.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch. Give me a call. GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds. CITY BAKERY.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains. NEW LAUNDRY.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices. CITY BAKERY

—I want the farmers to remember I am still in the Mower and Binder trade and still have the agency for the "McCormick" line. The number of Machines sold is a good indication of how the farmers like them. In 1891 the McCormick Co. sold 121,780 machines. Come in and see the machines for yourself. C. A. SLAYTON.

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice. WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town. CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial. BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Try Heck's new brands of flour Peacemaker and Favorite.

Do You Think of Painting This Season?

We Can Show You The Most Handsome And Best Paints Made.

Call and get Prices and Sample Card of Colors. C. A. Wright.

Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.

Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.

Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.

Satterthwaite Bros.

MEN'S FINE SUITS,
YOUTHS' FINE SUITS,
BOYS' FINE SUITS,
MEN'S WORK SHIRTS,
MEN'S WORK PANTS

An immense Spring Stock now on hand at the East End double store.

Everything in the
BOOT & SHOE LINE,
Yours for trade
ALVA SPAYDE.

'92 SPRING! '92

In looking for the latest things in
DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, BOOTS, SHOES, SLIPPERS, HATS, CAPS, LADIES' AND GENTS' FURNISHINGS, call on
HARRIS & HITESHU.

We have the largest and most complete line of BOOTS, SHOES, WALKING SHOES AND SLIPPERS in Tecumseh. New goods in all departments.
PRICES AS LOW AS THE LOWEST.

Call and see us before you buy. No trouble to show goods.
Thanking yon for past patronage and wishing for a continuance of the same, we are
Yours respectfully,
HARRIS & HITESHU.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WIGHTMAN, Attorney at Law Successor to F. B. Wood, Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD. ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Fred'k B. Wood, John E. Bird,
Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLEMENT E. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.

WEAVER & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Practice in all the Courts.
Masonic Temple. ADRIAN, MICH.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—Being now located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to calls in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. (J. W. GOODRICH, V. S.

C. D. SLAIGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON. A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College, Residence, 1½ miles east of Pennington's Corners. All calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY,
J. H. EMERY, Proprietor,
Adrian, Michigan.
This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

RICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL.
Late The Madison.
Cor. of Jefferson Avenue and Randolph Street.
Detroit, Mich.
J. D. RICE, Prop. R. C. SPRAGUE, Clerk.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Three lines of street cars pass the door.
RATES—Meals 25c. Per day, $1.25 and $1.50
Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 14 I. O. O. F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. E. Anderson's store, Chicago street. WM. GRAY, N. G.
R. HOLDWAY, Cor. Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV. J. DEHAAN, Pastor.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching in the forenoon at 10:30; Sunday School at 12 o'clock; Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome.
Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Young People's Meeting. Come one, come all and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—

Special attention given to ladies' and childrens' hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.

—THREE CHAIRS—

Landgraf building, Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN
HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN
PAINTING
AND PAPER HANGING
Call on THEO. P. WOOD, 77 E. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first-class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of
Railroad Street Meat Market!
Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.
GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN
Drugs, : Paints : Oils
AND VARNISHES.
N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded. At the Old Corner Store, RIDGEWAY, IGAN. nov5

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY.
MANUFACTURER OF
And Dealer in
Carriages, Buggies,
SURRIES, SPRING WAGONS,
ROADCARTS
SULKIES, CUTTERS, ETC.
Pearl Street,
TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER,

SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.

LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth, Crowns, Filling and Building-Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

B. F STEINHOFF'S
Dental Rooms.

OVER BAKER & HALL'S.
GAS FOR EXTRACTING.
LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co.'s Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.

EXAMINATION FREE!
Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.
Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.
Remember, office over Avery & Co.'s.
W. D. REED, D. D. S.
Will be at Onsted every Wednesday.

Behind the times

—the woman who doesn't use Pearline; behind in her work, too, both in quantity and quality. With Pearline, work is easier and better. Clothes can be washed without being worn out; cleaning can be done without scouring and scrubbing. All that it does is done without danger; the only danger is in getting something else.

Beware of imitations which are being peddled from door to door. First quality goods do not resort to such desperate methods to sell them. PEARLINE sells on its merits, and is manufactured only by

202 JAMES PYLE, New York

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN, OR WOMAN,

of intelligence and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight, but who has Lost the Most Precious Possession on Earth, viz., GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT require a SECOND TELLING to be induced to become a purchaser

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC
BELTS & APPLIANCES.

Do you know why? Because it is plain to be seen that the TRUTH ONCE TOLD is enough. The Surprising Promptness with which all classes of people respond to our announcements, and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods wherever introduced, conclusively prove that true modesty is always recognized and the quality of merit takes care of itself. Metaphorically our statement is the Button—the Public Press it, and

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES
"Do the Rest."

The extent of Pressure on the button and the success of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" is most satisfactorily shown in the marvelous growth of our business the past 60 days.

Repeated and increasing demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming in from all parts of the country with profuse acknowledgements that so much comfort for $1.00 (the price) is like buying Gold Dollars for ten cents.

The Delicate Organism of Woman subjects her to many peculiar ailments and unfortunate misery. The extreme sensitiveness of her Nervous System very frequently requires artificial stimulus. The Gregg Electric Belt and other Appliances supply this as nothing else can.

The Rugged Constitution of Man, when once broken, becomes pitiable in the extreme, from which there is absolutely no escape without assistance. The Gregg Electric Belts and Appliances in cases of this kind have honestly won their title of King of Remedies.

Rheumatism is conquered, sufferers from Obesity are speedily relieved, Dropsy quickly yields, spinal difficulties and Paralysis disappear, and many other diseases of Men and Women are permanently cured, fully described in complete catalogue for 6c, or elaborate circular free. We guarantee to forfeit twice the price of any of Dr. Gregg's Goods found not to be genuine. We make an elegant little $3 Electric Belt, which is selling very rapidly and which we take in exchange for any higher Power belt (except $5 belt) and credit $3 on the price of new order. Remember the Electric Foot warmers are $1 a pair, worth $10. Address

THE GREGG ELECTRIC CURE CO,
501 Inter-Ocean Building, Chicago, Ill.
and mention this paper. J 14-tf.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS
IS A
HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY
AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS
ONE OF OUR NEW
SEAMSTRESS
SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS
National Sewing Machine Co.
SUCCESSORS TO
JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.
Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

WHEAT IMPROVING.

May Finds the Crop Doing Well—Pastures in Bad Condition.

The Michigan monthly crop report for May shows the condition of crops as follows:

Compared with vitality and growth of average years, the per cent. of condition of wheat in the southern counties is 84; central, 81, and northern, 91. Clover meadows and pastures are reported in bad condition on account of dry and freezing weather in March and April, but there have been heavy rainfalls since May came, which will improve them with warm weather. Apples promise 91 and peaches 88 per cent. of an average crop. About 10 per cent. of the area sowed to wheat will be plowed up on account of winter killing, and about 25 per cent. of meadow and pasture lands. There were 1,069,937 bushels of wheat marketed in April and 13,872,452 in the nine months August-April, or 203,163 bushels more than in the same period last year.

Fought for Her Children.

Mrs. James Mayher went to Jackson from Vermontville six months ago with two children and supported them by wearisome toil. She says her husband drove her away by abuse. The other day Mayher came and by a trick separated the mother and children and sneaked the latter to the depot. She learned of the abduction in time to reach the depot just as her husband was leading her children to the train. She seized a cane from a by-stander and attacked Mayher, giving him one terrible blow which cut a gash in his scalp. He escaped on the train and left the children with her.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by sixty-one observers in different parts of the state for the week ended May 14 indicated that inflammation of the brain, cholera morbus, diphtheria, tonsilitis and pneumonia increased, and typho-malaria fever, cholera infantum and typho-malarial fever decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at thirty-seven places, scarlet fever at fifty-nine, typhoid fever at twelve and measles at sixteen places.

Bullets for Union Men.

A gang of 100 union trimmers armed with revolvers and clubs tried to drive non-union men from the steamer Kaliyuga at Escanaba. The non-union men met the boarders with a volley from Winchester rifles and made them beat a hasty retreat, leaving one of their number, Clark Williams, behind with a broken hip, the result of a bullet wound.

Northern Michigan's Tax Levy.

The total state tax levy for 1892 has been found by the auditor general to foot up $1,149,201.61. The following amounts have been apportioned to the upper peninsula counties:

Alger, $3,139; Baraga, $2,511; Chippewa, $6,179; Delta, $5,023; Dickinson, $7,575; Gogebec, $18,838; Houghton, $50,237; Iron, $6,430; Keweenaw, $3,767; Luce, $2,511; Mackinaw, $2,511; Menominee, $9,184; Ontonagon, $2,511; Schoolcraft, $4,395.

Eclectic Doctors Elect Officers.

The Michigan Eclectic Medical society in annual meeting at Grand Rapids elected the following officers:

President, P. B. Wright, Grand Rapids; vice presidents, Z. L. Baldwin, Lawrence; Mary V. Cosford, Mancelona; C. Edgar Covey, Port Huron; secretary, H. P. Evarts, Oakdale Park; treasurer, J. D. Peters, Grand Rapids; Censors for two years, V. A. Baker, Adrian; E. Blackman, Quincy; J. D. Crum, Owasso.

The Local Option Law All Right.

The supreme court has handed down an opinion sustaining the local option election in Eaton county, and the writ of mandamus to compel the common council of Charlotte to approve the liquor bond of Henry Freisner, notwithstanding the county had voted "dry," was denied. This case settles all questions as to the legality of the law.

Short But Newsy Items.

Two million whitefish were planted at Alpena the other day.

Fire in Marinette last year wiped out $53,651 in property, while at Menominee the loss was but $12,000

It is now practically assured that Marquette will enter a baseball club in the Wisconsin state league.

Capt. William P. Spaulding and E. E. Barnum, of Sault Ste. Marie, have discovered an 8-foot vein of silver bearing quartz back of Bruce, Ont. They are developing it.

Potatoes are selling for eighteen cents per bushel at Charlotte.

S. L. Marvin has been appointed post master at Sun, Newago county, vice L. F. Allen, resigned.

John Birg and Adolph Nebel were drowned in the river at Detroit by the upsetting of a sailboat.

Three men put revolvers to the head of D. J. Minden in his office at Bay City, and forced him to surrender $650.

The twentieth session of the Michigan superintendents of schools was held at Jackson.

George A. Wellman, a deputy sheriff killed by cattle thieves in Wyoming, was a resident of Bay City.

The Soo Paper Company of Niagara Falls, N. Y., will build two lumber mills at the gulf of the Waiskai river, ten miles above Sault Ste. Marie.

Mrs. Sarah McGillis died at Alpena at the age of 94.

Edward R. Benedict, formerly of Coldwater, was struck by a freight train and killed at Harvey, Ill.

Last month 280 tons of sawdust were shipped from Muskegon. The lumber shipment was 19,540,000.

While the tug Cuyler was towing a loaded lighter down the river at Cheboygan a man named Woods fell from the load and was drowned.

The Flint and Pere Marquette steamer No. 5 collided with and was badly damaged by an unknown steamer on Lake Erie.

Loomis battery held its eighteenth annual reunion at Coldwater, thirty of the veterans being present. J. W. Streeter, of Chicago, was elected president.

Ferris S. Fitch, state superintendent of public instruction, reports that over $3,000 has been received from Washington's birthday collections made in the schools of the state for the educational exhibit at the world's fair, and that a total of $7,000 is now available for the use of the committee.

THE METHODISTS.

Editors Elected—Resolutions Against the Opium Trade and Liquor Traffic.

OMAHA, Neb., May 20.—At the Methodist conference the following were chosen editors of the various journals under control of the conference: Northwestern Christian Advocate, Dr. Arthur Edwards; Central Christian Advocate, Dr. Jesse Bowman Young; Northern Advocate, Dr. J. E. C. Sawyer; Pittsburgh Advocate, Dr. C. W. Smith; San Francisco Advocate, B. F. Creary; Southwestern Advocate, Dr. E. W. S. Hammond; Christian Apologete, Albert J. Nast; Haus and Hurd, H. J. Leibhart.

OMAHA, Neb., May 21.—Bishop Fess presided over the session of the Methodist conference. The committee on itinerancy presented a report giving the conference authority to locate ministers with their consent. It also gives the bishops authority to appoint preachers and laymen to do evangelical work.

Dr. Hammond, of California, introduced a resolution declaring that the iniquitous opium habit was making fearful headway on the Pacific coast and that prompt measures should be taken to stamp it out. He spoke vigorously upon the resolution declaring that 63,000 pounds of prepared opium reached the United States from China every year. This prepared opium was of no commercial value excepting for the use of the opium smokers and the prohibition of its importation would not be detrimental to the legitimate trade. The resolution was adopted.

The committee on temperance and prohibition of the liquor traffic presented resolutions holding it to be the duty of the Methodist Episcopal church both to save the fallen and wage incessant warfare against the liquor traffic; that the word of God, the teachings of science and lessons of experience all combine in declaring total abstinence to be the duty of every individual; that the saloon is an unmixed evil, full of diabolism, a disgrace to our civilization, the chief corrupter, of political action and a continual menace to the order of society and the peace and purity of houses; that the people who sustain them directly or indirectly should not receive the suffrage of Christian men; demands no compromise but the unconditional surrender of the traffic; rejoices in the declaration of the supreme court that states may legislate for the benefit of public health and morals; commends the senate for its action and condemns the house for refusing the appointment of a national commission to investigate the traffic. The report concludes:

"We recommend all members of the Methodist Episcopal church who enjoy the elective franchise to so use that solemn trust as to promote the rescue of our country from the guilt and dishonor which have been brought upon it by a criminal complicity with the liquor traffic. We do not presume to dictate the political conduct of our people, but we do record our deliberate judgment that no political party has a right to expect, nor ought to receive, the support of Christian men, so long as it stands committed to the license policy or refuses to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon."

A resolution calling for a constitutional convention to revise and amend the constitution of the church, to be held in Chicago in June 1893, was referred to the next general conference.

FIVE NEGROES HANGED.

They Were Found Guilty of Murder at Chester, S. C.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 21.—Elisha Young, Iky Young, Holman Mabel, Alfred Cressby and Martha Young were hanged Friday in the jail yard at Chester for murder. They are all young and fairly intelligent-looking negroes. Martha Young bore a child to Alfred McAlley last ear, and he, understanding she neglected it, went to her house and took it away with him. The following Sunday Elisha Young, who appears to have been the ringleader, incited Martha and others to attack McAlley at church with stones, he leading the assault with a pistol. The murdered man was soon knocked down, when one of the party crushed his skull with a stone.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEES.

Candidates Who Will Strive to Secure Seats in the Lower House.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 20.—Congressman Brookshire was renominated by acclamation yesterday by the democrats of this (Eighth) district.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 20.—W. A. Spurgeon, of Muncie, was nominated for congress yesterday by the prohibitionists of the Sixth district at New Castle, N. T. Butes, of Winchester, by the farmers' alliance of the same district, and J. Swan, of Benton county, by the third party of the Ninth district at Tipton.

Sensational Street Tragedy.

WICHITA, Kan., May 23.—Judge Isaac G. Reed shot and fatally wounded Isaac Hopper on the main street of Wellington, Sumner county, Saturday evening. Both men were prominent attorneys of the town. The shooting was the result of a quarrel over Judge Reed's attentions to Mrs. Hopper, which it is said have been flagrantly familiar for two years past. Reed's wife lives in Boston. Hopper is rapidly sinking from the effects of his wound.

Ives Still Champion.

CHICAGO, May 23.—Frank Ives, the young Chicagoan, defeated George F. Slosson, of New York, Saturday night at Central music hall in the 800 points 14-inch balk line game of billiards by a score of 800 to 488 and for the second time demonstrated the correctness of his title, "champion of the world."

Both Were Drowned.

ELBING, Kan., May 20.—Irving and Ella Osborne, brother and sister, attempted to cross the Whitewater near this place, and on account of the swollen condition of the stream the buggy was overturned and both occupants drowned.

Sentenced to Twenty Years.

OTTAWA, Ill., May 21.—Joseph Huzo was convicted of murdering Paul Grassat in a saloon fight last December Friday and was sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

FROM HON. M. J. SMITH, GRADUATE OF MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY.

CARLETON, Mich., Aug. 25, 1890.

To whom it may concern: "After an acquaintance with Dr. O. J. Fay extending over a period of eighteen years, I can cheerfully testify to his sincerity of purpose, integrity and high social and professional standing in this, the county of his residence. Having used the New Treatment for Consumption in my family for coughs and colds, I find that it possesses more real merit than any other medicines we have used for these complaints, and heartily recommend its use as a family medicine.

J. SMITH,
Attorney at Law.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $13 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by traveling between Detroit and Cleveland, via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $2.25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making SURE connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. Schantz, G. P. A., Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

SYRUP of FIGS

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

ESTATE OF ELMIRA McCOLLUM.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Monday the 9th day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Elmira McCollum, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Charles Burridge, administrator, upon the estate of said deceased, alleging that the funeral expenses and debts of said deceased and the expenses of administration thus far incurred, have been fully paid, and that he is now ready to close said estate and to render his final administration account, and praying that said account may be allowed, and that the residue of said estate may be assigned and distributed to the persons by law entitled thereto, that he may be discharged and his bond canceled, and for such other order and decree as to this Court shall seem proper.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 6th day of June, next, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)
RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register. M 12

CHANCERY NOTICE.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee. In chancery.

Lucius V. Judson,
Complainant,
vs.
Leonard Carlton,
Malinda M. Carlton,
Cass Miller,
M. May Miller,
Defendants.

Suit pending in the Circuit Court, County of Lenawee, in chancery, at the Court House in the City of Adrian, on the 18th day of April, A. D. 1892.

It satisfactorily appearing to this court, by affidavit on file, that the defendant, Leonard Carlton, is not a resident of this State, but resides at Garden City, in Finney County, State of Kansas.

On motion of Wood & Bird, the complainant's solicitors, it is ordered that the said defendant, Leonard Carlton, cause his appearance to be entered herein within four months from the date of this order, and in case of his appearance that he cause his answer to the complainant's bill of complaint to be filed and a copy thereof to be served on said complainant's solicitors within twenty days after service on him of a copy of said bill and notice of this order; and in default thereof said bill shall be taken as confessed by said non resident defendant.

And it is further ordered that within twenty days after the date hereof the said complainant cause a notice of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed published and circulated in such county, and that such publication be continued therein at least once in each week for six weeks in succession, or that he cause a copy of this order to be served personally on said non-resident defendant at least twenty days before the above time prescribed for his appearance.

VICTOR H. LANE,
Circuit Judge.
WOOD & BIRD,
Solicitors for Complainant.

WOMEN WHO DIE EARLY.

Many of our most beautiful and accomplished ladies die before they reached the prime of life. Of those who live to middle age only one in a hundred is sound: the other one hundred and ninety-nine are sufferers. Why is it? Self neglect. The shattered health can be restored; the home made happy and your life lengthened if you commence at once.

"Rose Buds" have been used for years in the private practice of one of the most eminent physicians of Paris and the following diseases and distressing symptoms yield to them like magic: Ulceration, Congestion and Falling of the Womb, Ovarian Tumors, Dropsy of the Womb, Bearing Down Pains, Rupture at Childbirth, and Miscarriages. One package of "Rose Buds" will make a new woman of you.

(Leucorrhea or Whites are quickly cured by one application.) Price, per package—one month's treatment—$1.00 sent by mail post paid, securely sealed. THE LEVERETNE SPECIFIC CO., 39 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

The young lady without an engagement ring has nothing on hand to speak of.

STRENGTH AND HEALTH.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If la grippe has left you weak and weary, Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on the liver, stomach and kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c. at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Do you chew Jolly Tar Chewing Tobacco? If not—why not? Think it carefully over and then try it. Your dealer keeps Jolly Tar

15 CENTS PER BOX, GUARANTEED.

HYA HEADACHE POWDERS

FOR SALE BY JOHN J. ORR.

THOS. S. SPRAGUE & SON, Attorneys and Solicitors of Patents, United States and foreign. Correspondence solicited. Instruction Pamphlet free. 37 WEST CONGRESS ST., DETROIT, Mich. Established 1865

PATENTS

FARMERS AND THRESHERMEN
Catalogue FREE.
All the Latest Improvements. Cushioned Steel Tire, Return flue-Boiler, ½ Fuel Saver, Traction, Plain or on Skids.

BUY THE NEW HUBER ENGINES
ALL SIZES THRESHERS.

VICTOR HULLERS,
New Imperial Stackers.
G. C. POCKLINGTON,
Agent for southeastern Michigan.
State headquarters, R. Shettler,
Lansing, Mich.

GRANDMA says it is 20 years since she made such good bread as this. She says makes bread like the yeast she used to make herself, and she hopes she will never have to do without it again; and we all hope so, too.

GILLETT'S MAGIC YEAST

Call for it at your Grocer's. It is always good and always ready.

The Wilkes Stallions.

RED ONWARD, 7759,
SIRED BY
Onward, 2:25¼ dam, LAURA S, by ALMONT, 33,
FEE FOR 1892, $50.

CASTILE, 3750
SIRED BY
Madrid, 1835,
dam, Louella, by Alcalde, 103,
FEE FOR 1892, $10.

Call for Catalogue. J. B. HUDSON, TOLEDO, OHIO.

THE CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN"

has attained a standard of excellence which admits of no superior. It contains every improvement that inventive genius, skill and money can produce.

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

These excellent Organs are celebrated for their volume, quality of tone, quick response, variety of combination, artistic design, beauty in finish, perfect construction, making them the most attractive, ornamental and desirable organs in the world for Homes, Schools, Churches, Lodges and Societies.

Catalogues on application, FREE.

Chicago Cottage Organ Co.
228 WABASH AVE.,
CHICAGO, ILL.

PILES A NEW PAINLESS CERTAIN CURE, GIVES INSTANT RELIEF AND LASTING CURE. NEVER RETURNS. TO PROVE IT and to convince you that it will promptly cure any case of Piles, External, Internal, Bleeding, Protruding or Itching, we will send a TRIAL PACKAGE FREE to any address. Send stamps to cover postage & address. THE PYRAMID DRUG CO., Box 42, ALBION, MICH.

CURED FREE

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

COMPENSATION.

In that new world toward which our feet are set,
Shall we find aught to make our hearts forget
Earth's homely joys and her bright hours of bliss?
Has Heaven a spell divine enough for this?
For who the pleasure of the spring shall tell,
When on the leafless stalk the brown buds swell,
When the grass brightens and the days grow long
And little birds break out in rippling song!

O sweet the dropping eve, the blush of morn,
The starlit sky, the rustling fields of corn,
The soft airs blowing from the freshening seas,
The sunflecked shadow of the stately trees,
The mellow thunder and the lulling rain,
The warm, delicious, happy, summer rain,
When the grass brightens and the days grow long,
And little birds break out in rippling song!

O, beauty manifold, from morn till night,
Dawn's flush, noon's blaze and sunset's tender light,
O, fair, familiar features, changes sweet
Of her revolving seasons, storm and sleet
And golden calm, as slow she wheels through space
From snow to roses, and now, dear her face
When the grass brightens and the days grow long

O, happy earth! O, home so well beloved!
What recompense have we, from thee removed?
One hope we have that overtops the whole—
The hope of finding every vanished soul
We love and long for daily, and for this
Gladly we turn from thee and all thy bliss,
Even at thy loveliest, when the days are long,
And little birds break out in rippling song.

—Celia Thaxter, in Boston Journal.

VERVAIN'S MISTAKE.

The Bitter Lesson Learned by a Haughty Woman.

March in the mountains! Freshets roaring down the ravines; great thickets of pines tossing their green crests to and fro in the rush of the tempestuous wind; snow shining off on the plateaus, and pink clusters of trailing arbutus breaking into bloom in southern nooks and sheltered places where last winter's dead leaves had not yet drifted away. And Lucy Vervain, standing in her russet walking dress on the porch of the little mountain inn, wondered if the famous Bernese Alps were grander than these same Catskill heights.

Lucy Vervain was small and slight and brown skinned, but she had large, wistful eyes of so dark a hazel that they seemed to melt into black around the iris, and there were quick roses ready to deepen in her cheeks if any one spoke to her. She was pretty, in her way, like a wild flower, or a little brown-winged bird; and she looked around with a troubled air, as the sound of an excited feminine voice floated out from the one unpretentious little "best parlor" of the inn.

"It's outrageous!" said Miss Clara Vervain.

"I'm very sorry, ma'am," said Mr. Mixit, who kept the house.

"Unendurable!" declared Miss Vervain.

"It does happen sometimes, ma'am, when the streams is high at the spring of the year," the landlord pleaded. "You see there ain't no bridge can stand the freshet, if—"

"And we have got to stay here in this horrid hole of a place until your tumble-down bridge is mended?"

"I don't see any other way for you, ma'am," said Mr. Mixit, meekly.

"It's the most provoking thing I ever knew in my life," said Miss Vervain.

She stalked about the room like a second Lady Macbeth as she spoke; for Clara was as unlike her blushing, shrinking little sister as the tall poppy is to the humble corn-flower. She was handsome and stately, and wore long trains to her dresses and bangles on her wrists, and used perfume on her handkerchiefs and "did" her hair after the latest fashion plates.

"It ain't my fault, ma'am," said the landlord, driven to the very confines of despair. "I can't stop the freshet, nor yet I can't build a new bridge."

"Clara dear, don't allow yourself to be so annoyed," soothed Lucy, coming like a noiseless little gray shadow into the room. "We shall only be detained a day after all, and I am sure it is very pleasant here."

"I am not accustomed to delays," said Miss Vervain, loftily.

"I know, dear, but—"

"And if I am compelled to remain in such a place as this," added Clara, glancing superciliously around her, "I must really insist upon privacy."

"Eh?" said Mr. Mixit.

"That old person in the snuff-colored coat," said Miss Vervain, with a royal motion of her head toward an old gentleman in a wig and spectacles who was reading the paper by a distant window. "I dare say he will do very well in your kitchen or barroom, and I prefer this apartment to myself."

"Oh, Clara!" pleaded Lucy, crimsoning to the very roots of her hair.

The landlord looked puzzled, but the old man himself folded his newspaper, returned his spectacles to their case and rose slowly to his feet.

"Certainly, miss," said he; "certainly If I'm intruding I'll go to the kitchen. There's always room for me there. Eh, Mixit?"

And he trudged with alacrity out of the room, followed by mine host.

"I'm afraid you've hurt his feelings, Clara," said Lucy, piteously

"Who cares for his feelings?" said Miss Vervain, sniffing at her scent bottles. "Mine are much more to the purpose. And I don't choose to associate with every country farmer in the Catskills."

"Clara, dear!"

"Well?"

"We are only a bookkeeper's daughters ourselves."

"As if that signified," said Miss Vervain, scornfully. "We are going to our aristocratic relations, aren't we?"

"But perhaps they won't care to keep us."

"That is neither here nor there," said Miss Vervain. "But you never had any proper pride, Lucy."

Little Lucy Vervain was still pondering with a puzzled brow over the distinction between proper pride and pride that was not proper when the landlord's wife, a buxom dame in madder-red calico and a frilled white apron, came to summon the guests to dinner

"We've only roast fowl, with bread sauce and a little cranberry jelly," said Mrs. Mixit; "but it ain't often as folks stop here over a meal, and I hope, ladies, as you'll kindly pardon any shortcomings."

But Miss Vervain stopped short on the very threshold of the dining-room.

"I should prefer a table to myself," said she, haughtily.

"Ma'am!" said Mrs. Mixit.

"Dear Clara," pleaded Lucy, in an agony of distress, as she saw the red flush rise to the forehead of the old man in a snuff-colored suit who sat at the head of the well-spread board.

"I prefer dining with my sister only," insisted Miss Vervain, delighted with an opportunity of asserting her exclusiveness. "Really, I cannot imagine how people can obtrude themselves in this sort of way."

The old man rose quietly.

"Do I understand, young woman," said he, "that you object to me?"

"Yes, sir, I do object to you—if you compel me to put it in that way," said Miss Vervain.

"Indeed!" The old man lifted his grizzled brows. "I may not be one of your fashionable fops—"

"That is easily to be seen," contemptuously interpolated the young lady.

"But I am clean and decent," added the stranger. "However, I dare say Mrs. Mixit can accommodate me with a plate and knife and fork in another room, if my presence is really obnoxious to the young women."

"Young ladies, sir, if you please," said Miss Vervain, with a toss of her head.

He smiled a shrewd, sagacious smile.

"As to that," said he, "opinions may perhaps differ." And he followed Mrs. Mixit into the kitchen.

Clara Vervain took her seat complacently at the table.

"These people will begin after a while to comprehend the difference between a lady and a shop-girl," said she. "It is quite evident that they are not favored with many travelers."

Half an hour afterward, as the old man in the snuff-colored suit was stepping into his plain little carriage, a soft hand touched his sleeve, and, turning, he found himself looking into Lucy Vervain's troubled brown eyes.

"Well, my dear," said he, kindly, "what is it?"

"I—I only wanted to beg your pardon, sir," faltered the little brunette. "I am sure my sister did not mean to hurt your feelings, and—"

"I am sure at all events that you did not," said the old man, kindly. "And I dare say your sister will be wiser one of these days!"

And thus speaking, he nodded good-humoredly and drove away.

It was nearly dark, however, before the clumsy carry-all which was to convey the two New York ladies to their destination arrived, and they entered it.

"To Cliff hall," said Miss Vervain, haughtily, as she leaned back in the seat, and settled her skirts languidly around her.

"Cliff hall!" said Mr. Mixit, staring.

"You don't never mean as you're going to Cliff hall?" echoed Mrs. Mixit.

"I think we have considerably astonished these good people," said Miss Vervain with a smile, as they rattled away from the door.

"I only hope our Uncle Cliff will receive us kindly," sighed poor Lucy.

Cliff hall was a substantial old mansion built of gray stone, with a succession of terraces falling down the mountain's side, and exquisite groups of statuary half-hidden in the forest trees; and the lights were already beginning to gleam hospitably along its front as they drove up. An old man-servant opened the outside door just far enough to reveal the cheery glow of a wood fire and the deep tints of a crimson Axminster carpet within.

"Is my Uncle Cliff at home?" said Miss Vervain, with an air and a grace.

"Mr. Cliff is—ay, mem," answered the servant, with a strong Scotch accent.

"Tell him his nieces from New York are here—the Misses Vervain," said Clara, as she swept into the antechamber.

As she entered, an old man dressed in snuff-brown rose from before the blazing logs.

"My nieces from New York, eh?" said Caleb Cliff. "They are welcome."

And to Miss Vervain's surprise and dismay she found herself face to face with the old man of the Catskill wayside inn.

"You are astonished?" said he, slightly arching his brows. "So am I. It is not always best to judge by appearances. Sit down Sanders," to the servant, "let dinner be served."

Miss Clara Vervain left Cliff hall the next day, with all her bright anticipations shattered to the dust. But little brown-faced Lucy stayed to keep house for her uncle.

"She's too genteel for us, isn't she?" chuckled old Caleb Cliff, as the carriage drove away which was to carry Miss Vervain to the New York station.

Clara went back to her teaching, and if the bitter tears of repentant mortification can wash out the past, that day in the Catskills would have been erased long ago.

"If I had only known who he was," said Miss Vervain

Alas! this world is full of "*if*s!"—Amy Randolph, in N. Y. Ledger.

—Two Buffalo ladies, having attended a lecture, returned home at about ten o'clock, and on the stoop made the unpleasant discovery that they had forgotten their latch-key. They rang the bell repeatedly, and waited in alarm. After fifteen minutes of waiting and bell ringing the girl opened the door. "Katie, why on earth have you kept us waiting so? Didn't you hear me ring?" cried one of the women. "Yes, ma'am," said Katie, with an air of some confusion, "but I t'ought it was me young man, ma'am, an' me an' him had a fallin' out last Soondah, an' I t'ought I'd taich him a lesson, ma'am."

—We have noticed when a woman asks to be taken to the silk counter she speaks in a much louder voice than when she asks to look at the calico remnants.—Atchison Globe.

THE GREAT FLOOD.

The Losses in the Mississippi Valley Are Immense.

Hundreds Reduced to Poverty—A Great Opportunity for the Charitable—Sad Scenes of Desolation in the Inundated Districts.

IN NEED OF AID.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 24.—The decline in the river, though it has stopped at 35.6, has given the people of the afflicted district an opportunity to estimate the losses of the districts immediately tributary to St. Louis, and the figures are appalling. Here they are: St. Louis county, $5,000,000; St. Louis city, $1,000,000; St. Charles county, $3,000,000; the American bottom, from Alton, Ill., to Cairo, $5,000,000 (this including East St. Louis and vicinity); total, $11,000,000. These figures, astounding as they may seem, are considered by competent judges extremely conservative. In looking at this loss it must be remembered that in all the flooded territory referred to, practically 1,500 square miles, the waters have rendered it in a majority of cases impossible for the farming population to raise a crop this year. In St. Louis at least 15,000 persons have been temporarily thrown out of work by the stopping of factories by the high water. The outlook is perhaps no brighter, but certainly no darker, and it is believed that what has been done by way of protection, supplemented by further work rendered possible by the breathing time given, will suffice to avert further serious damage.

ST. LOUIS, May 23.—Gov. Fifer is seriously considering the issue of a proclamation calling upon the people of Illinois generally to contribute to the relief of sufferers by flood in that state. Thousands of such sufferers, including 850 at Belleville and 2500 at Alton, are not only in need of assistance for the present, but will in numerous cases be dependent upon others for weeks to come, owing to loss of crops and homes, and in some instances the loss of their farming land, which was swept away by the flood. Gov. Fifer will immediately obtain a census of the sufferers in each county where they have taken refuge, in order to determine the exact number of persons who will be burdens upon the various communities for some time to come and to form a systematic plan of relief in which the people throughout Illinois will probably be asked to cooperate.

The Mississippi and Missouri valleys present a melancholy picture of ruin and devastation. For a distance of 15 miles above and below here the valley, to a width of from 4 to 15 miles, is one vast waste of muddy water. On every hand the roofs and upper stories of farmhouses stand as melancholy landmarks of what were once prosperous farmers' houses. Fences, barns and haystacks are gone, and the patient work of years has been destroyed in a single week.

Hundreds of thousands of acres of well-tilled farms, two weeks ago rich in waving grain, are now under 10 feet of water or piled high with mud and driftwood. Their owners or tenants, driven to the upper stories of their farmhouses by the flood, were prisoners there without food to eat or fires to keep them warm, and did not dare close their eyes in sleep.

ALTON, Ill., May 23.—For the last seven days the relief committee has labored unceasingly. Its members dropped their business and gave themselves up to the work of the rescue.

It is impossible to estimate even the immediate loss, but the most serious phase of the trouble is not so much the actual loss to the growing crop as the fact that the distressed farmers, without a cent ahead in the world and with no credit, will have to be supported by public benevolence until next year's crop is harvested, and many of them are ruined forever and will need generous help to place them on their feet again.

Missouri point, a strip 15 miles long by 4 wide, on the Missouri side, between the two rivers, is completely submerged. The great American bottoms, which extend for 90 miles south of here on the Illinois bank and have a width varying from 1 to 10 miles, are under 2 feet of water. This strip of land was famous for its fertility and almost every available foot of it was under cultivation. Four miles northwest of here, at Portage, the Missouri has cut an immense channel into the Mississippi, and fears are entertained that this may be permanent. Another channel has been washed through a half mile below here.

A Costly Blaze.

OSWEGO, N. Y., May 23.—The big fire here Friday night practically wiped out the milling and elevator interest. Only one elevator is left in the harbor, the Northwestern, owned by Gaylord Downey & Co. The fire was the hottest and fiercest since the fire that swept the same site in 1853, and the property destroyed could not be replaced for $500,000.

They Raced Across the Ocean.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The steamers Alaska and Aurania arrived Sunday afternoon from Liverpool. They had a very exciting race across the ocean. Both ships were very near each other and plainly in sight each day. The Alaska, however, kept the lead all the way and came in about an hour in advance of the Aurania.

Many Miles on Bicycles.

CHICAGO, May 23.—A message from Gen. Miles to Gen. Howard was carried by bicycle riders from this city to New York by a 975 mile route in 4 days, 15 hours and 5 minutes. This was 13 hours and 50 minutes more than schedule time. There were nine relays of riders.

Australian Football Team Drowned.

MELBOURNE, May 23.—An open boat in which fifteen members of a football team were being taken across the bay of Port Philip by two fishermen has been found bottom up and all are supposed to have been drowned.

A MEDICAL MAN'S OPINION FROM QUEEN'S COLLEGE, LONDON.

What Dr. J. Bazzett, who has practiced 46 years, says of Dr. Fay's New Treatment for Consumption: "I have used it and seen it used in many cases with the greatest success, and I can recommend it to those afflicted with consumption and all other diseases that it is recommended for.

DR. J. BAZZETT,
Graduate of Queen's College, London.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Clara: I hope you wont bring that Mr. Hatter around to see me. I don't want to see him. Maude: But, my dear, he says he used to play with you when you were a little girl. Clara: That's why I dont want to meet him. It reminds me of the time I wore a home-made cloak to Sunday school.

WILL GRIPPE BE AN ANNUAL VISITOR?

This question is under serious consideration by the medical profession and the public in general are deeply interested in the answer. Its visitations during the past three years have impressed upon people a full sense of its power and danger, and the experience of those years has also taught many things in regard to the nature of the disease. One important thing learned is that sad results often follow long after the disease itself is supposed to be fully over. It is this insidious, lingering effect which just now is being felt through the country. The colds which come so readily with these spring months develops into full fruit the germs left by the disease, and a long siege of sickness, with great danger of fatal results, is apt to follow. To stop this at the start is most important. No remedy on the market or no physicians' prescription is so sure to do this as Hamilton's Cough Balsam. It has been tried in thousands of cases and the manufacturers guarantee full benefits. All lung difficulties are benefitted by this remedy and from its wonderful and speedy relief in cases of Croup and Whooping Cough no household with children should ever be without it. Only 25 cents a bottle. Ask for Hamilton's. Sold by all dealers.

AT BEDTIME I TAKE A PLEASANT HERB DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head

ACHE

Is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

A Perfect Success. VII

The Rev. A. Antoine, of Refugio, Tex., writes: As far as I am able to judge, I think Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic is a perfect success, for any one who suffered from a most painful nervousness as I did. I feel now like myself again after taking the Tonic.

ST. VINCENT'S HOSPITAL, Toledo, O., June 9, 1890.

We used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for epileptic fits in the case of a Mrs. Gorman, and it stopped the fits from the time she commenced taking it. We wish you an extensive sale for this beneficent remedy.

SISTER BRADY, Secretary.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 8, 1890.

I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic in Mrs. Sullivan's case, and it gave entire satisfaction, and she has no end of praise for it, and never forgets to recommend it to the sick and suffering. I have heard others say they used it with the same good results. THOS. KEATING.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

REMARKABLE FACTS.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch, of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Linburger, druggist at San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guarranteed by Baker & Hall. Book of wonderful testimonials free.

Husband: I don't see why you never look on both sides of a case. Wife: I can always trust you to look on the other side.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L. S. & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15, 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 115 Mail.	No. 117 Express.	No. 119 Accom.
Jackson.....Lv	6 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M.
Napoleon	6 30 "	2 25 "	1 15 "
Norvell	6 37 "	2 34 "	1 27 "
Manchester	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 55 "
Clinton	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 35 "
Tecumseh	7 15 "	3 15 "	3 15 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 52 "	4 30 "
Detroit	10 10 "	6 20 "	.....
Toledo	9 15 "	4 40 "	10 25 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 8:00 p. m

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 116 Mail.	No. 118 Express.	No. 148 Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 35 A.M.	6 00 P.M.	.....
Toledo	9 50 "	7 50 "	.....
Adrian	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M.
Tecumseh	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton	11 21 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 00 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 28 "	10 30 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.

A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati Jackson & Mackinaw Ry.

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT APR. 1, 1892.

GOING EAST. No. 3 Pass	No. 23 Pass	No. 21 Pass	Central Time. STATIONS.	GOING WEST. No. 22 Pass	No. 24 Pass	No 2 Pass
	A. M. 12 10	P. M. 4 45	A....Toledo L	A. M. 7 35	P. M. 6 30
	10 35	3 52	Dundee	8 30	8 00
	9 55	3 32	Britton	8 50	8 33
	9 49	3 27	Ridgeway	8 55	8 40
	9 37	3 18	Tecumseh	9 03	8 53
	9 17	3 05	Tipton	9 17	9 14
	9 07	2 57	Sand Lake	9 24	9 25
	8 58	2 51	Onsted	9 31	9 36
A. M.	8 41	2 39	Devils Lake	9 42	9 54	P.M.
9 55	8 35	2 35	Addison Junc	9 47	10 00	4 50
9 50	8 32	2 33	Addison	9 50	10 15	4 53
9 34	8 09	2 17	Jerome	10 04	10 38	5 10
9 27	8 00	2 11	Moscow	10 11	10 48	5 17
9 17	7 46	2 01	Hanover	10 21	11 03	5 27
9 07	7 32	1 52	Wheelerton	10 30	11 18	5 36
8 47	7 04	1 32	Homer	10 50	11 48	5 57
8 36	6 49	1 21	Eckford	11 01	12 08	6 06
8 20	6 27	1 06	Marshall	11 15	12 33	6 24
8 08	6 11	12 54	Ceresco	11 26	12 53	6 36
7 50	5 45	12 36	Battle Creek	11 43	1 25	6 55
	A.M.	12 17	Augusta	12 03	A. M.
		12 09	Yorkville	12 11
		12 02	Richland	12 17
		11 41	Doster	12 34
		11 20	Monteith	12 49
		11 12	Fisk	12 59
		11 06	Kellogg	1 04
		10 55	L. Allegan....A	1 15
A. M.		P. M.		P. M.		P.M.

The freight trains pass Tecumseh station as follows: Going West at 10:48 a.m. Going East at 1:39 p.m.

TRAIN CONNECTIONS.

Direct connection is made at Toledo and Cincinnati with all roads diverging

Trains 21 and 22 make good connections at Monteith and Allegan for Grand Rapids and points north.

Connection is made at Addison with the Ohi division for Cincinnati and all points south.

Good connections at Battle Creek with the C & G. T. RY. for Chicago.

All trains connect at Toledo with the W. & L. E. C. H. V. & T., Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Wabash Ry., Pa. Co, and all railroads diverging. Connections are also made at Dundee with the T. A. A. & N. M., at Tecumseh, Jerome, Hanover, Homer and Allegan with the L. S. & M. S. Ry.

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt.
T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.

B. J. SLATER, Station Agent, A. E. KENNEDY, City Ticket Agent.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as follows:

WEST BOUND.

†No. 51 —Local Mail and Express.....10:25 a m
*No. 53 —Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex. 3:30 p m
*No. 27 —Butler Accommodation.....6:00 p m
*No. 55 —Pacific Express.....11:40 p m

EAST BOUND.

*No. 56 —Atlantic Express.....5:50 a m
*No. 26 —Detroit Accommodation.....4:45 p m
*No. 52 —St. Louis & Boston Express.....7-45 a m
*No. 54 —N. Y. Limited.....9:46 p m

*Daily, †Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information, apply to

CHAS. M. HAYS, Gen. Manager. WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian
F. CHANDLER, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt Agent.

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890
Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North.

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
8 25	A. M. 00	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	P. M. 11 15	P. M. 1 10
	47	.....Dundee.....	10 18	12 30
	08	.....Milan.....	9 48	12 04
	20	.....Urania.....	9 45	11 52
	27	.....Pittsfield.....	9 34	11 42
5 07	6 40	.....Ann Arbor.....	9 32	11 20
5 30	7 55	.....Leland.....	9 07	11 15
5 47	7 06	.....Whitmore Lake.....	8 56	10 02
6 28	8	.....Howell.....	8 17	10 25
7 15	8 45	.....Durand.....	7 10	9 15
		.....	55	7 47
8 00	10 20	.....Owosso.....	6 35	9 05
9 07	11 30	.....Ithaca.....	5 32	7 55
10 15	1 25	.....Mt. Pleasant.....	4 35	6 45
.....	3 35	.....Cadillac.....	10 30	.....
.....	5 20	.....Copemish.....	9 05	.....
.....	6 35	Ar.....Frankfort.....Lv	7 50	.....
	P. M.		A. M.	A. M.

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager.
A. J. PAISLEY, General Pass. and Ticket Agent.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

At the home Mr. and Mrs. A. L. West in Raisin, on the evening of the 17th. inst., occurred the double marriage of their two daughter's, Lulu to James F. Miller and Maude to Edwin E. Grandy. The weather was all that could have been wished for, and a large crowd of relatives and friends were present to witness the marriage ceremony. Shortly after eight o'clock the wedding march was played and both couples marched into the parlor, where, after being duly united for life by Rev. Levi Chase, they received the congratulations and good wishes of the host of friends assembled. The brides were dressed in white and wore roses very neatly interwoven in their hair. The grooms were attired in neat suits of black. At the close of the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served. After a season of feasting and merriment joyfully spent, Mr Miller and wife took their departure for Adrian where a house was already very neatly furnished awaiting their arrival. Mr. Grandy and wife will remain at the home of the bride's parents for the time being as his work is of such a nature as to take him away from home much of the time. Both couples received many valuable and useful presents; among which Mr. Miller received money from his mother, brother and uncle, to the amount of $150. The brides are well known and much esteemed and respected in this community and are young ladies of fine intellectuat gifts and winning ways. Lulu is known as one of the best school teachers in town. The grooms also are well known and much respected and esteemed by all who are favored with their acqaintance. We all unite in extending our congratulations, and hope them a life of happiness and prosperity.

The June North American.

The North American Review for June covers a wide field of the thought and activities of the day; while the list of distinguished writers gives assurence of the interesting and profitable character of the articles. "The Harrison Administration" is discussed, on the one hand in detail and in expressions of warm commendation, by Senator Dawes, of Massachusetts, and Senator Dolph, of Oregon, and on the other hand, with strong condemnation from the standpoint of party principles and policy, by Senator Colquitt, of Georgia. Karl Blind, who has had a share in the councils of the principal revolutions of the period, gives, in his article on "Modern Revolutions and Their Results," many interesting reminiscences. He writes with contentment of results, and his comments on the relations of the French people to the Republic will attract attention. Murat Halstead offers a solution of the silver question in his article analyzing a recent paper in this Review by Senator Stewart, of Nevada, to which is given the title "A Silver Senator Reviewed." Sir J. William Dawson, in "Prehistoric Times in Eg pt and Palestine," indicates the discoveries that have been made in ancient history by modern research and apart from all literary record. "The New York Cleaning House," by its manager, Mr. William A. Camp, explains the origin, the methods and the power of that great financial institution. The Hon. Dorman B. Eaton considers in its fullest extent a political danger to our institutions in "The Perils of Reelecting Presidents."

Why Poets Rave

Over "Spring, gentle spring," is hard to understand by many thousands to whom spring is more a time of trial and suffering than of brightness and rejoicing. Still we believe the poet's idea is the correct one and should be the universal rule instead of the exception. It is largely a matter of health and this can be regulated if proper means are taken. Spring is a trying season for most people and the "breaking-up" which nature goes through means something to them. A good spring medicine is an essential at this time. It tones up the system, raises the spirits and in many cases saves weeks and perhaps months of serious sickness. Just such a medicine is found in Parmelee's Sarsaparilla and Iodide of Potassa Compound. It is a thorough exterminator of all Blood Poisons and is the best remedy in existence for all complaints arising from an impure condition of blood. Why pay $1.00 for a bottle containing only 12 ounces when you can get this for 50 cents in bottles holding full 8 ounces? Be sure and get Parmelee's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all dealers.

Very Much Surprised.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle.

Signed, A. B. Snell.

Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1811.

For sale by Jno. Orr.

Gabriel: Who was that man you turned away a little while ago? St. Peter: I've forgotten his his name now: he had a lawyer with him who offered to prove that he was insane.

Surprise to All.

After using "Mother's Friend" two months I was so speedily and easily relieved that it was a surprise to those attending me. "Mother's Friend" undoubtedly lessens the pains, shortens the time and restores the mother speedily to health. Will recommend it to all expectant mothers, and advise them to use it. — Mrs. J. A. R., Muncie, Ind. Sold by Jno. Orr.

Wife: Dear me, it's a rainy Saturday, and I'll have the children racing about the house all day and breaking things. Husband: What have you usually done on rainy Saturdays? Wife: I generally sent them in to play with the neighbors' children, but all I knew have moved away.

Death of James C. Murray.

The sad intelligence was received here last week of the death of James C. Murray, at his home in Tallapoosa, Ga. Mr. Murray, during his former residence here, made many warm friends, who will deeply sympathize with the family in this hour of their affliction. We clip the following obituary mention from the Tallapoosa Journal of the 19th:

Died—In this city May. 18th, 1892, James C. Murray, aged 45 years.

Mr. Murray came to this city about four years ago from Jamesport, Mo., opened a real estate and brokerage office, since which time he has coducted a very successful and honorable business. Highly educated, of genial disposition and liberal views, he won a warm place in the hearts of all who came to know him. He was first Courmander of James B. Steadman, Post No. 4, G. A. R., of this city, served on the city Council of 1889, and was an honorable member of K. of P.

The deceased had been confined to his residence for several weeks and although those nearest him had some time since despaired of his recovery, the news of his death weighed heavily upon our community generally.

The bereaved wife and daughter have the heartfelt sympathy of our citizens in this hour of trial. That God, in his infinite mercy, will shed light in their sorrowful paths and lighten their burden is the earnest prayer of a multitude of friends.

The funeral service of the Episcopal church was read at the house at 4:30 this evening by the Rev. W. F. Robison, of the M. E. Church South.

The remains leave on the 6:25 west bound express this evening for Tecumseh, Mich., their final resting place.

Memorial Tribute from the Knights of Honor, 879, Tecumseh, Mich., to James Murray, deceased.

We expect the sun to go down in the evening; we expect the flower to wither in the fall; we expect the stream to be frozen in winter; but that the sun should go down at noon, that the flower should wither in the summer, that the storm of life should be frozen before the chill of old age had come upon it, is sad. But this is the case with our departed brother. At the meridian of life, with future full of promise, he was summoned to his master. It may truly be said, God moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform. He has seen fit to take from us, from his family, and from his country, one whom we all loved, and honored, and whose death we all deplore. As a true Knight of Honor, who lived an upright life, death has no terror. He still lives in the hearts of his friends, in the sacred memory of his wife and children, in the bosom of his God. Therefore

Resolved, That we give expression to our sorrow, extend our sympathy to those who loved him and mourn their departed, and keep them in perpetual remembrance, not only upon the pages of our roles, but spread upon the records of our recording secretary's books, thus affirming their loyalty, fraternity and charity. Hallowed forever be his friendship, his patriotism, and his love for liberty. Blessed be his memory enshrined within our hearts and the homes of each until we all meet as Supreme K. of H. in that unbroken home of rest above.

H. W. Stevens,
E. Hause,
J. F. N. Bowen. } Com

The greatest worm destroyer on earth is Dullam's Great German Worm Lozenges, only 25 cents per box. For sale by Jno. Orr.

Professor (lecturing on galvanism): What would be the effect, Mr. Broken, if you should hold a quantity of gold in one hand and of silver in the other? Broken: I should experience a decided shock.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

"George, dear, don't you think it's rather extravagant of you to eat butter with that delicious jam?" "No, love; economical. Same piece of bread does for both."

Buy Dullam's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orr's.

Seminary Teacher: Yesterday I read you the histories of some famous heroic acts; now, Ella, what would you consider an example of a modern deed of heroism? Ella: To refuse a Lieutenant.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

When a boy begins to wash his neck without being told it is a sign he is passing into the ordeal of his first love affair.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

"My friend," said the experienced politician to the young cadidate, "your success does not so much depend on puffing yourself as on blowing yourself. See?"

Read Carefully.

Dullam's German Medicine Co.,—Gentlemen:—For over 4 years I have been afflicted with an eruption of the skin, which became very troublesome and I could get no relief. I was also troubled very badly with constipation, which nothing I tried gave permanent relief to until I took Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Remedy, and since taking I have been entirely cured. For a tonic, blood purifier and general health restorer I can heartily recommend it.

Mrs. Wm. Cobb, Flint, Mich.

For sale by J. J. Orr.

"I'm thinking of getting up a fancy dress ball at which all the guests will have to appear in the costumes worn by the founders of their familes. Wouldn't it be picturesque?" "Hardly. There wouldn't be anything very picturesque about a lot of bricklayers and butchers and innkeepers."

Buy Dullam's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orr's.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED, AND "THE BIG 5."

TWO GRAND TRAINS DAILY BETWEEN THE WORLD'S FAIR CITY AND THE FOOTHILLS.

One Night Out, or One Day Out. Take Your Choice, Business Demands it, and the People Must Have it.

The popularity of "The Great Rock Island Route" as a Colorado line—it having long time since taken first place as the people's favorite between the Lakes and the Mountains—has compelled the management to increase its present splendid service by the addition of a train that is one night on the road from Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs or Pueblo. This train will be known as the "Rocky Mountain Limited," and will be put in service May first. Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m., arriving at above cities in the afternoon of the next day, earlier than any of its competitors. Especial equipment has been built for this train, with the view of making it a LIMITED in every sense of the word, and best of all, there will be no extra charge. The route of this exceedingly fast train is by the Rock Island Short Line, and a few of the large cities through which it passes, are Davenport, DesMoines, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Beatrice, Fairbury, Belleville, Phillipsburg, Smith Center, Colby and Goodland. This makes it a most desirable route, and particularly interesting to the traveler. Another point: The popularity of our dining-car service is still on the increase, and no money spared to make this service what our patrons always say, "the best."

"Our Big 5", will continue as usual, leaving Chicago at 10 p. m. and arriving at Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning, being but one day out, and this fast and popular train goes through Omaha.

Our No. 11 will leave as heretofore at 6 p. m., arrive at Kansas city at 9:00 a. m., and will reach Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning

Our Colorado service is made perfect by this new "Rocky Mountain Limited and the "Big 5," and gives to the traveling public two flyers daily.

Manitou passengers should consult the map and time tables of our line, to fully appreciate the advantages in time saved by taking this route, when on their summer vacation.

John Sebastian,
G. T. & P. A., Chicago.

Best of All

To cleanse the system in a gentle and truly beneficial manner, when the springtime comes, use the true and perfect remedy, Syrup of Figs. One bottle will answer for all the family and costs only 50 cents; the large size $1. Try it and be pleased. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

"Give me a few pennies, sir, to——" "Here! Here's a quarter for you, poor fellow." "Thank you, sir; but-er-this is a Canadian quarter, sir, and I dont take Canadian or mutilated coin."

Scientific American Agency for

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS, DESIGN PATENTS COPYRIGHTS, etc.

For information and free Handbook write to MUNN & CO., 361 Broadway, New York. Oldest bureau for securing patents in America. Every patent taken out by us is brought before the public by a notice given free of charge in the Scientific American

Largest circulation of any scientific paper in the world. Splendidly illustrated. No intelligent man should be without it. Weekly, $3.00 a year; $1.50 six months. Address MUNN & CO., PUBLISHERS, 361 Broadway, New York.

DRS. CATLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of Seth P. Sheldon, deceased,

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Charles Burridge in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michgan, on the 25th day of June, 1892, and on the 25th day of September, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 31st day of March, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated May 25th, 1892.

Ansel P. Coddington,
Horatio Keyser,
Commissioners.

may29

ESTATE OF B. J. BIDWELL.

State of Michigan, County of Lenawee, ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate Office in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 25th day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate Birdsey J. Bidwell deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Elizabeth A. Bidwell widow of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to Lamont C. Bidwell and Laverne I. Bidwell, or to some other suitable persons

It is ordered, That Monday, the 20th day of June, nex, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said Petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said Petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Tecumseh Herald, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy.)

A. E. Baragar, Probate Register. apr28

HELLO

GIVE US TECUMSEH.

Say! Tecumseh! Do you know that WOOD, CRANE & WOOD, of Adrian, have by far the Largest and Finest Stock of Clothing in this part of the World, and their Prices are lower than others? Did you say that you were going to buy some Clothing soon and would try them? That's right; you will not regret it. You can please and fit yourself better, and save money, too. Say! I nearly forgot to mention that they are ONE PRICE and that everything is marked in PLAIN FIGURES.

Tecumseh Price Current.

Corrected Every Thursday Morning

	Wholesale.	Retail.
PROVISION MARKET.
Apples green, per bushel	$1 00	$1 20
Apples dried, per pound	5	8
Beeswax	14	16
Butter	12	14
Eggs, per doz	14	16
Honey, per lb	18	16
Lard, per lb	9	12
Onions, per bushel	1 00	1 20
Potatoes, per bushel	25	40
Beans, per bushel	2 60	2 80
Wool, unwashed	14
Wool, fleeced washed	22
Wool, tub washed	26
Salt, coarse rock, per bbl	1 50
Salt, common, per bbl	90	1 00
Tallow, per lb	3½
Cheese, per lb	12½	16
MEAT MARKET.
Pickled Pork	6	10
Bacon	10	12½
Smoked Ham	12	16
Smoked Shoulders	7	9
Beef, by the side	4½	5
Fat Hogs, per 100 lbs	3 50 to 3 75
Dressed Hogs, per 100 lbs	4 25
Veal, dressed, per lb	5	6
Mutton, dressed, per lb	6	8
Chickens, live, per lb	6	7
Turkeys, live, per lb	7	08
Geese, live, per lb	5	8
Ducks, live, per lb	6
Hides, green	4
Hides, dry	5
Sheep Pelts	25 to 1 75
GRAIN, SEEDS AND HAY.
Wheat—White		$ 85
" Red		86
Corn, shelled		56
Oats		80
No. 1 Clover seed		4 25
No 2 " "		4 00
Choice " "		4 50
Timothy Seed		1 60
Hay, timothy, per ton	8 00 to 9 00
Hay, clover, per ton		7 00
Flour, per sack		1 38
Bran, per 100 lbs	1 00 to 1 25
Middlings, per 100 lbs		90
Corn meal, per 100 lbs		1 60
Chop, per 100 lbs		1 50

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. If you have never used this great cough medicine one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

USE ONLY

Red Crown Gasoline!

In your gasoline stoves

ORIENT or KEYSTONE WATER WHITE KEROSENE OIL

In your lamps.

MANUFACTURED BY

The Standard Oil Co.,

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

For Sale in Tecumseh by the following named dealers.

James Lowry, Satterthwaite Bros.
J. J. Orr, C. A. Wright & Co.
Anderson Bros. W. J. Arnold.
McClure Grocery Co., and Jas. Potter.

Quality of the Highest Standard.

Use nothing in your Gasoline stoves but

RED CROWN GASOLINE.

Use nothing in your Lamps but

ORIENT OR KEYSTONE.

Water White Kerosene Oil.

Contains No Mercury.

ANTI GIVE CONSTIPATION CONSOLATION to all CONSTIPATED. PILLS

For Constipation, Sick Headache, Billious Attacks and Liver Complaints.

DOSE—One to two Pellets each night until the bowels are regular and natural in movement.

JOHN J. ORR, DRUGGIST,
TECUMSEH, MICH.

PRICE, 25c FOR REGULAR SIZE.

Pleasant and Effectual.

Among all the Harvesters

THE

Milwaukee Junior

Takes the Lead.

We claim for these machines that they are lightest in weight and lightest in draft, and for strength, durability and general excellence they stand at the head. Be sure and see them before buying.

The Milwaukee Chain-Power Mower

IS THE BEST IN THE MARKET.

The great and increasing demand for our well-known chain-power Mowers, together with the testimonials received, is conclusive proof of the great estimation in which they are held by agriculturalists and dealers throughout the entire country; the universal verdict being, that for simplicity of construction, strength and durability, ease of handling, closeness and evenness of cutting, freedom from clogging, and lightness of draft, they cannot be surpassed, while for freedom from side-draft they stand unrivalled, being the lightest and most durable of any mowing machine manufactured.

CALL and see this machine set up and ready for running at our rooms and headquarters, between Mark's Drug Store and the City Bakery.

DAVIDSON BROS., Agents,
Tecumseh.

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER

DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S.,
Brick Office on Shawnee St, TECUMSEH, MICH.

Want Something Neat IN THE LINE OF

Artistic Job Printing

IF SO, CALL AT THE Herald Job Rooms.

WE wish to state to our patrons and others that we have added to our already finely equipped outfit a large quantity of Modern Type Faces and other printing material, and assure you that we can do anything in our line in a neat and satisfactory manner.

The Tecumseh Herald.

L. XLIII.--NO. 2. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 2, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2186

Warm Weather Calls

For Fans.

We have just opened an ELEGANT ASSORTMENT of Fine and Medium Priced Fans, which we ask you to look at and Keep Cool.

BUY ONE OF OUR HANDSOME

CHANGEABLE SILK PARASOLS,

AND BE HAPPY

. . . . Anderson & Co.

{ Summer Underwear, in Short and Long Sleeve, from 10c to $1.00 each. }

The Old Store

Still Leads Them All!

Look at Our Specialties

Garwood's Standard Perfumes, Try them.

Sham Holders, 20c a pair.

A Complete Line of Fancy Glassware, China and Toilet Sets.

Laces and Notions in Endless Variety.

Curtain Poles 25c each.

Fine Assortment of Room Moulding.

Picture Framing in Every Style.

James Montague.

"95 A" JEWEL GRAND,

The greatest success in Gasoline Stoves; csll and see them.

For sale by

D. L. WHITENACK & CO.

Another Large Invoice of WALL PAPER! Just Unpacked.

Wm. McCOWEN.

Neighborhood News.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

Auditor Keller was in the village Monday.

Mrs. Chas. Underwood was in Adrian Monday.

Richard Cadmus returned to Harvey, Thursday.

Frank Pocklington returned home Monday night.

Vern Allen, of Toledo, spent Sunday and Monday at home.

Mary Osgood went to North Farmington Saturday morning.

Robt. Hicks, of Tecumseh, called on friends Monday afternoon.

H. J. Williams and George Winship, drove over from Adrian Thursday.

Mrs. Lewis Miller and T. S. Vanduser were in Adrian on business Monday.

The decoration services last Monday afternoon passed off very pleasantly.

W. J. Helm and wife, of Britton, visited Samuel Helm and wife Tuesday.

Mr. Guerney, of Toledo, was in the village last week and tuned several pianos.

Fred Gorton, of Ypsilanti, was the guest of Jennie Osgood Saturday and Sunday.

Ernest Coller, of Tecumseh, spent the evening with friends on north street, Monday.

Mrs. Jehiel Davidson, of Tecumseh, was the guest of Mrs. Lafe Rappleye Monday.

Minnie Barrett closed her spring term of school in the Gilmore District Friday.

Willie Harrington was bitten Tuesday morning by a dog, owned by Chas. Lowe.

Eugene and Bert Harrington of Blissfield visited Wm. Harrington and family Sunday.

Mary Osgood went to North Farmington for a several day's stay Saturday morning.

Mrs. Susan Pilbeam of Cone, was the guest of Mrs. Lafe Rappleye Monday and Tuesday.

Annie Smith, of Macon, visited at her sister's, Mrs. E. Harrison's, several days last week.

Nellie Martin, of Clinton, was the guest of Minnie Barrett from Saturday till Monday night.

About 40 wheelman passed through the village Sunday on their way from Toledo to Detroit.

Clarence Jackson, of Tecumseh, was the guest of Lawrence Rappleye from Saturday till Monday.

Mrs. George Winship of Adrian came over to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jesse Y. Potter Tuesday.

Miss May Withington, of Samaria, was the guest of Emma Miller, from Thursday until Tuesday.

Several from here attended the Detroit Philharmonic Concert at Tecumseh, Thursday evening.

On account of quarterly meeting one week from next Sunday, childrens' day is postponed until Sunday June 19th.

Mrs. S. P. Smith and Jennie Osgood went to North Farmington Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of Lee Sowle.

Mr. Possen and wife, Mr. Lamkin and wife, Ernest and Addie of West Tecumseh were the guest's of Samuel Helm and family Monday.

Through the carelessness of the typesetter, proof reader or "devil", I was made to appear to say a number of things last week that I did not say.

Lee Sowle, whose serious illness we mentioned several weeks ago, died on Sunday, May 29th, at his home in North Farmington, having been sick only a few weeks.

The Epworth League will give a floral and Ice Cream Social in the basement of the Church, Wednesday evening June 15th. A Cordial invitation is extended to all.

There was a large attendance at the memorial service held at the church Sunday morning. The church was tastefully decorated with flags. Rev. Wright and Strickland of Britton assisted in the service.

Mrs. James Pocklington, received a telegram Saturday, announcing the death of her sister Mrs. Sena Potter, nee Coryell, of Rynlander, Wisconsin. The remains arrived Sunday night. The funeral was held at the church Tuesday forenoon. Rev. Wright officiating. The large attendance and numerous floral offerings evinced the high esteem in which she was held. The deceased leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss.

The Concert given last Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Hall Library Association, by A. D. Scammell, wife, and little daughter Marie, was very well attended considering the rainy night. All present were well pleased with the entertainment. We think the one selection Harebell blue, by little Marie was worth the price of admission. Should they ever come to Ridgeway again we have no doubt they would have a crowded house.

CARD OF THANKS

I hereby desire to express my thanks to the friends and neighbors, and all others who were so kind to me and my family during the sickness and death of my husband and for the many tokens of love shown to my deceased companion.

MRS. WM. WRIGHT.

The greatest worm destroyer on earth is Dullam's Great German Worm Lozenges, only 25 cents per box. For sale by Jno. Orr.

BRITTON BUDGET.

Bert Gillen visited in Ann Arbor last week.

A. O. Miller Saturday night. Don't forget it, but come.

W. Lenardson and wife have been visiting in Ohio for the past two weeks.

Samuel Knifin attended the funeral of Lee Sowle at North Farmington Wednesday.

Notwithstanding the busy season the turnout Decoration Day was beyond all expectations.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Campbell, of Flint, Mich., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Fred Calkins, for a few days.

John Gibson went to Toledo Tuesday with a yearling Banker, which he had sold to parties in Curtiss, Ohio.

Wm. Swick is now on the list of cripples. A large stone fell on his knee while laying a foundation under a barn.

By a change in the C. J. & M. time table the train going west in the morning leaves at 8:32, and going east in the afternoon at 3:15.

Wm. Rinn and Matthew Yates are building new fences in front of their dwellings. Let everyone do the same and put down a good walk and see what an improvement it will be. Our friend Joe should be called upon by a special committee and required to do away with that shin-cracker of a thing called a walk, in front of his brick block, and replace it with a new one. Why is it that so many of our citizens are bound to be like a dog's tail—always behind?

Some talk of a booming association being formed in our village. They want to find the man within a half mile of the village who will sell 10 acres of land for less than $4,000,—say for $100 an acre. Where is the man? Let us have a boom. Something in this line must be done and soon, too, or Britton will cease to prosper. Such a suggestion as this may seem superficial, but five or ten years hence some of our worthy landholders will stare in blank dismay and wonder at Britton's forlorn condition. Let Britton do something and punch up her land misers and see the result. AN OBSERVER.

The members of Hendershot Tent Knights of Maccabees will celebrate the anniversary of the Order on Saturday evening, June 11th, by holding a banquet in their new hall. The following named gentlemen have the work in charge: Decoration—E. W. Lenardson. Sink and Calkins; Furniture—Hunter. Tripp and Babcock; Menu—Osgood. Hendershot and Brown. Past Com. Hendershot will act in the capacity of toastmaster. We expect to enjoy ourselves. All members of this Tent, with their families, are requested to be present. We do not want a vacant chair on the evening of June 11. It is expected that some one of the Grand Officers of the State will address a public meeting to be held in this village in the near future, of which due notice will be given.

NORTH-EAST FRANKLIN.

Miss Myrtie Whelan's health is improving.

L. E. Taylor commenced setting celery Monday.

Remember the Lyceum at J. S. Allen's next week Saturday.

Ira Lamkin is no better this week. Rheumatism is the cause of his sickness.

Uncle Lue Mudget visited friends at Addison and Jackson last week.

Mrs. James Leonard, of Napoleon, visited relatives and friends in Franklin last week.

Mrs. Levi Taylor and daughter Bessie, of Somerset, were out visiting at L. E. Taylor's, last week.

Owing to the cold, wet weather, many sheep have been and will be sheared this spring without being washed.

Andrew Fisher and wife, nee Lizzie Rudy, of Riga, visited at Bert Billington's last week Saturday and Sunday.

In this vicinity most of the corn will be planted this week. Still there are some who have not their ground plowed yet.

Miss Bertha Taylor, who is at the hospital at Adrian, is slowly gaining in health. The "Sister" who is caring for her is an excellent nurse.

Geo. Rhusink, a young man of about 21 years, died of typhoid fever at his home, one and a half miles south of Tipton, Sunday morning, May 29. Last winter two of the younger children died of diptheria, and there has been more or less sickness in the family ever since. Not long ago their barn, containing 350 bushels of wheat and a quantity of oats, was truck by lightning and burned. The family seems to have had their share of trouble this year.

Franklin Union Lyceum met at S. N. Munger's, May 14. A short program was carried out, although, owing to the rain, but few were present. A scheme was set on foot by which the society might hold a picnic of its own sometime in August. This will be settled at next meeting, which will be held at J. S. Allen's, June 11th. Below is the program for next time:

Music—Irene and Leon Allen.
Dec.—Herbert Munger.
Dec.—William Hunt.
Charade—Cecil Billington.
Rec.—Lena Witherall.
Song—Inez Allen.
Dec.—Hoyt Whelan.
Sel. Read.—G. W. Allen.
Music—Orchestra.
Rec.—Dora Davenport.
Paper—Leon Allen and Alton Whelan.
Dia.—Alma Whelan and others.
Rec.—Ella Munger.
Speech—Hollis Taylor.
Music—Alice Mitchell.

Buy Dullam's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orr's.

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

C. M. Fellows, of Saline, was in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Lobdell, of Hudson, Ohio, is the guest of Mrs. N. W. Holt.

Albert English went to Tecumseh last Friday on business.

B. G. Lovejoy is repainting Lorenzo Coon's residence, on Jackson street.

Frank Gillett marketed his clip of wool at the Clinton Woolen mills on Saturday.

A. C. Torrey, of Monroe, is spending several days with his son, Orlando, in this village.

Elijah Carr has been very sick but is better. Dr. E. M. Conklin is the attending physician.

Mr. Safford and wife, nee Nellie Hunt, of Jackson, spent Sunday with relatives in this place.

Louis Freeman, of Chelsea, was in town on Sunday for the first time since his recent severe illness.

Mrs. J. M. Lazelle and Prof. D. W. Springer and wife, of Ypsilanti, returned Monday after a short visit in town.

Cren Baldwin and wife, of Riverside, Cal., and Mrs. Zell Baldwin, of Lawrence Mich., are guests at Lyman Baldwin's.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. W. H. Starks, Saturday afternoon.

The month of May will be long remembered, hereabouts, for the unprecedented rainfall which fell during that month.

Children's day will be observed with appropriate exercises by the M. E. Sunday School on Sunday morning, June 20th.

The flag on the Union school building was at half mast, on Friday afternoon, in token of respect for Dr. Amariah Conklin, long a member of the Manchester school board.

The S. W. Farmers' club meets tomorrow at the residence of A. Hitchcock, in Sharon township. The program includes a selection to be read by Mrs. L. S. Hulbert, of Sharon; an essay by Miss Annette English, of Manchester,—Subject: Character-growth; and a paper by Geo. S. Rawson, of Bridgewater, upon the subject for discussion:—Free mail delivery for the rural districts.

FRANKLIN FACTS.

Mrs. L. E. Taylor is very low.

Some mosquitoes and to spare at our house.

Ezra Simmons has put up a long stretch of picket fence the past week.

W. W. Snook was at Mrs. A. B. Wisner's last week laying the cellar and foundation walls of the new house.

A. Cotts has vastly improved the appearance of his farm by clearing out the growth of cherry brush along the roadside.

Work has begun on the Hurry school house. We understand Mr. Cook does the brick and Phil. Penticost the wood work; the material is now on the ground.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

{Village of Tecumseh, Mich.,
{Council Room, May 16, 1892.

Regular session. Present, President Bills; Trustees, Bresie, Bidwell Conklin, Shull and Wright. Absent Burridge and Smith. On motion Trustee Shull was elected Recorder pro tem.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES.

The committee in charge of the test well reported that some obstruction had necessitated the draining of the pipe which had occasioned considerable delay; otherwise the work was progressing satisfactorily.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

The Street Commissioner reported three days labor of corporation team and other labor to the amount of $39.57.

The Marshal reported that the sidewalks about the village were in a bad condition. On motion the report of Street Commissioner was accepted and adopted and action postponed on the report of Marshal until the next meeting.

PETITIONS AND APPLICATIONS.

An invitation to the Village Council to participate in the Memorial Day exercises on May 30 was received and accepted with thanks.

NEW BUSINESS.

The following bills were presented and referred to the finance committee: C. F. Field, printing $18 70; S. C. Stacy, printing $18.70; Geo. Mize, team labor, $3.13; Lorenzo Young, team labor, $3.13; Oscar Packard, labor, $2.81; John McWilliams, labor, $3.75; E. Ames, labor, $4.08; Wm. Kyle, labor, $2.50; Richard Holdway, labor, $2.81; Smith Morse, labor, $1.88; Albert Hyde, labor, $13.00.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The committee reported favorably on all the above bills and orders were directed to be drawn on the treasurer for the several amounts.

The council then adjourned.

JOHN D. SHULL, Recorder pro tem.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. ORR.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

Let Justice Be Done.

EDITOR OF THE HERALD.—In your issue of May 12th and 19th appears a notice reading thus:

My wife, Mary C. Youngs, having left my bed and board without just cause, I shall refuse to pay any bills of her contracting after this date.

LORENZO YOUNG.

That this man Young should have the audacity to drag his wife's name before the public in print, after having treated her in the contemptible and shameful manner that he has, deserves more than a passing notice. What he says in this notice is so manifestly untrue and uncalled for that forbearance ceases to be a virtue; hence the following:

Something over twenty years ago this man came into the township of Macon and hired out as a farm hand. At this time the woman he afterwards married was living with her mother, in comfortable circumstances near where he worked. Soon after this he became acquainted with them, and when the time expired for which he had hired, he sought and obtained a temporary home with them, and continued to keep it until seventeen years ago this present month he induced the woman he has seen fit to advertise, to marry him. From that time until the year 1887, they lived together at the home of his wife's mother, at which time the mother died, her death occuring April 9th of that year.

In August following he decided to move to Tecumseh and into a house owned and occupied by another party. His wife objected at first, but true to her marriage vows finally consented. According to a statement recently made, by this man, trouble soon thereafter began. This wife of his plead and urged him to get another home and take her to it, he steadily refusing. For the last year she has been given to understand that she was not wanted around and has spent a good share of her time with neighbors and friends.

A short time ago the person owning the place where they were living, told her that she must get away from there and stay away, and take what things she had with her or they would be put into the street. Surely something must now be done, and she again beseeches him to get a place and move with her. He refuses. What next? She goes to an attorney and inquires if it is possible that she can thus be driven into the street and her husband allowed to remain. On receiving the affirmative reply, she (hardly knowing what to do) concluded to go to the home of an elderly couple whom she had known a long time and tell them her trouble. In doing this fortune favored her, for these people kindly let her have rooms to move into. She then goes and tells her husband what she has done and asks him to help move her goods. He refuses by saying that he was not able. She sought and obtained other friends to assist her in moving. These are a few facts in connection with this case.

Now let us look at this notice for a moment. That this man's wife has left him is true, and we have already explained how she came to do it, but that she has left his bed is not true, for the simple reason he had no bed to leave. On the contrary, she is the one that has furnished him a bed during these years, and when she was driven away from him took her bed with her. Now, let us see about this board business. That this wife has furnished more than her full share of the living during these years is too well known, and can be verified, to need a word of comment. Further, he says he will pay no debts of her contracting after this date. To those that are unacquainted with the circumstances, this statement is misleading and intended to deceive. The truth is, and he knows it, that he never had one dollar of debt to pay of her contracting. On the other hand she has paid debts of his making. Yes, within the last year, Mr. Editor, we have said more than we intended at first, but no more than the case seems to draw out, and will close by saying, had this man had the sense to have kept still after misusing his wife in the way he has, this article would not have appeared, but that he should add insult to injury, by publishing her, after all she has done for him, we say is a fair exhibition of base ingratitude and should not go unnoticed.

M. J. MARTIN.

AUCTION

Geo. C. Pocklington having rented his farm, will sell at Auction on the premises, one-half mile east of Ridgeway, on Tuesday June 14, 1892, at one o'clock p. m., the following property; 1 pair work horses, 1 two year old Banker, 1 one year old Gipsy Chief, 2 two year old colts, 5 cows, 2 two year old Steers, 3 calves, one bull, 8 months old, 1 sow and 8 pigs, 1 sow with pig, 7 shoats, 1 lumber wagon, nearly new, 1 road wagon, 1 land roller, 2 pair drags, 1 plow, 2 corn cultivators, 1 corn plow, 1 mower, 1 fanning mill, 1 pair bob sleighs, 1 corn sheller, 11 acres of wheat on ground, 5 acres of oats, 8 acres of meadow, 10 acres of corn, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Usual terms of sale.

FRANK DAVIDSON, Auctioneer

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance..... $1 10
If paid after 30 days..... 1 35
If paid after three months..... 1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance..... $1 25
If paid after 30 days..... 1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.
Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.
Rates on general advertising on term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JUNE 2, 1892.

There will be music in the air next week at Minneapolis. The Republican clans are already gathering for the conflict.

In case Blaine heads the ticket, will it be Blaine and Foraker, or Blaine and Alger, or Blaine and Rusk? Probably Alger, for he has the biggest barrel.

Gen. Alger is running his cooper shop now with a full gang of men. If his boom is not in readiness for the Minneapolis Convention next week it will not be his fault.

Having turned another double somersault over the free coinage elephant in the political circus, Senator Hill is now examining himself to find whether he landed on his feet.

The war between Blaine and Harrison for the Minneapolis nomination is becoming very bitter, for it seems now that Blaine is actually in the ring to stay. What the outcome will be, a few days will tell.

The free silver debate is now on in the Senate, a vote having passed last week to take up the bill for discussion. David Bennett Hill dodged. How the Hill men out west must admire the political courage of their political idol!

Will Blaine remain in the Cabinet and yet accept the Republican nomination against his own Chief? Well, Blaine is capable of doing most anything. Even such a piece of treachery on his part would not be surprising.

The poll of the national editorial excursionists is interesting because it shows the republicans divided, with 86 for Harrison and 72 for Blaine; while among the democrats 117 are for Cleveland, 12 for Boies and 7 for Hill. It is the old story, practical unanimity for Cleveland as against all comers.

The Cleveland columns received some heavy additions last week. Georgia, where a square fight was made between the Cleveland and Hill forces, sent a delegation of 26 Cleveland men and 6 Hill men. New Jersey sent a solid Cleveland delegation. Kentucky sent a divided delegation, the prevailing sentiment favoring a Western candidate. Hill was nowhere.

The New York Herald, in a lengthy article on the Republican situation, gives these figures: Mr. Harrison will have 366 delegates, Mr. Blaine 265, Mr. Alger 28, with one original McKinley man from Montana. This leaves in the doubtful list 238 delegates, and it is from these that Mr. Harrison must get the eighty-four or Mr. Blaine the 185 votes which are necessary to secure the much coveted prize.

Speaking of Jerry Rusk's candidacy, the Chicago Herald says: The nomination of Jerry Rusk by the Republicans for Vice President is suggested by a Washington newspaper as "a concession to the agricultural element." Secretary Rusk's connection with the agricultural element has been very close. He has been loaning money to Wisconsin farmers at 12 per cent interest for many years.

"Where is Democracy leading?" asks the New York Recorder, and answers its own question—"By way of tariff reduction to free trade." And this was the advice of the revered Garfield to his fellow Republicans years ago. He said "every revision of the tariff should be in the direction of free trade." No good Republican should find fault with the democracy for leading in the way pointed out by a president of his own party.

When Senator Ingalls had a temporary attack of honesty and really worked himself up to a conviction that he was out of politics, he said, in a speech quoted from by the Des Moines Leader: "Why is it that this once honest and popular money of the people has become dishonest and debased? Who debased it? Who made the silver dollar a dishonest dollar? The Republican party. Stick a pin here and read the history of this outrage." The Kansas statesman told the truth and now it rises up to haunt him after returning to his false political idols.

TO THE POORHOUSE.

How Protection Has Foreclosed the Mortgages on the Farmer.

At the request of Senator Peffer, of Kansas, the Census Bureau has prepared a table making a comparison between agricultural conditions in Kansas and Ohio. Ten selected counties are considered, and the conclusion is that the farmers of Kansas have no great reason to complain, as they are about as well off as those of Ohio. The table is as follows:

COUNTIES.	Per centage of families farming, 1890.	Per centage of farm owners.
Kansas (ten counties)	33.25	18.1
Chase	9.69	19.23
Clay	20.13	18.67
Dickinson	32.58	18.99
Geary	24.91	15.38
McPherson	32.73	16.75
Marion	29.73	17.90
Morris	37.09	10.22
Ottawa	30.86	9.53
Riley	23.55	15.85
Saline	39.65	12.44
Ohio (ten counties)	37.10	24.96
Adams	37.79	18.20
Brown	42.19	17.50
Butler	41.33	30.43
Clermont	36.46	21.89
Clinton	38.34	20.92
Greene	39.78	28.27
Hamilton	30.52	33.51
Highland	31.44	16.85
Preble	37.98	28.19
Warren	4 68	20.89

It must be noticed here that of the total number of farmers in these ten counties of Kansas 33.25 per cent. are renters, while 37.10 per cent. of the farmers in ten Ohio counties are renters.

It is argued from this astonishing showing (over a third of the farmers of Ohio and Kansas landless) that Kansas complained too much, since Ohio is even worse. But now are the Kansas farmers helped by the poverty of Ohio farmers under republican laws? But here is another point for consideration:

Percentage of renters in ten Kansas counties, 1850	33.25
Percentage of renters in ten Kansas counties, 1890	13.13
Increase of percentage of Kansas renters in ten years	20.12

That is, there were more than twice, and nearly three times, as many landless farmers in Kansas in 1890 as in 1880. Here is the like table for Ohio:

Percentage of renters in ten Ohio counties, 1880	37.10
Percentage of renters in ten Ohio counties, 1890	24 96
Increase of percentage in Ohio in ten years	12 14

So it is shown by the figures of the census office that while the increase in the total number of landless farmers in Ohio has been 50 per cent. in ten years of republicanism, the percentage of increase in Kansas has been 152 per cent. Tabulating these instructive figures they will stand thus

	Per Cent.
Increase of landless farmers in Kansas in ten years of republicanism	153
Increase of landless farmers in Ohio, in ten years of republicanism	50
Net increase in Kansas over Ohio in poverty of its farmers	103

The great per centage increase of Kansas poverty is accounted for by the fact that Kansas farmers made a more recent start as landowners. Republicanism has been turning them out of their homes faster than in Ohio, because in 1880, when this comparison began, the per centage of Kansas farmers owning their own homes was much greater than the Ohio percentage. It will be seen, however, that evictions have taken place so rapidly in the last ten years in Kansas that over one-third of the farmers in both states, as shown by these ten sample counties selected by the republican census bureau, are now homeless.

Think of it—an increase of 153 per cent. in the number of homeless farmers in Kansas in only ten years of republican tariff taxes against return cargoes in exchange for farm surplus!

Think of it—over a third of the farmers in the two great republican states of Kansas and Ohio homeless under the republican taxation and finance of thirty years.

And remember that these figures of homeless farmers do not include those who have mortgages on their homes. There is a private mortgage debt of between two and three thousand millions of dollars on homes and farms in the country, and the bulk of it is on the producers of the Mississippi valley.

This is some hint of what republican plutocracy is doing for us.—St. Louis Republic.

THE FARMER AND THE TARIFF.

Under "Protection" the Lion's Share Goes to the Manufacturer—Under the Tariff of 1846 It Went to the Farmer.

Taken as a whole the United States has grown in wealth at an unexpected rate. So far, so good. That is just as we should expect. And under low tariff it was the agricultural interests that not merely profited most by the increase in wealth, but prospered at a rate that distanced all others. Under high tariffs our crops have been as good, our growth in wealth not so great proportionately, to be sure, but still enormous in the aggregate and rapid in rate; but this time it is not the farmer that gets the lion's share. His industry is more productive than ever, but not to him. He is taxed to subsidize the manufacturers. And thus is inaugurated a new sort of partnership—the farmer produces the most of the wealth and the manufacturer gets most of it. The farmer need not be shocked at this. He ought not to be surprised. That is just what the tariff is for. There is no malice about it. The manufacturers simply want all they can get. They don't care where it comes from.

The nearest estimate that can be made of the value of the agricultural wealth of this country is based upon the valuation of farms, farm animals, farm implements and machinery. The ownership of the land, its improvements, the ownership of all the stock upon the farm, the ownership of all the tools and machinery necessary to run it, constitute the farmer's capital. In 1850 the farmers of this country owned $3,967,343,580 of property. In 1860—mark this—they had increased their aggregate wealth from the sum named to nearly eight billions, or, to be more exact, 7,980,493,073, a little more than doubling the original capital in ten years, and showing by calculation a net increase of about 101 per cent. In 1870 they had increased from $7,980,493,073 to $11,124,958,747; not quite 40 per cent. In 1880 they increased from $11,124,958,747 to $12,104,201,538, or only about 9 per cent. Between 1850 and 1860 we had the lowest tariff and the lowest rate of tax collections that we have had in this country for the past seventy years. Between 1870 and 1880 we have had the highest we ever had. Between 1850 and 1860 the farmers of the country more than doubled their wealth, and between 1870 and 1880 they accumulated but 9 per cent. increase.

In 1880, after more than ten years of profound peace and unexampled prosperity, ten years of the largest accumulations of wealth that New England has ever seen, the wealth of her agriculturists fell off from $707,000,000 to $674,000,000, a loss of over $36,000,000; while the same figures demonstrate the fact that the largest relative or percentage gain in agricultural wealth was during the low-tariff period between 1850 and 1860.

JOHN DEWITT WARNER.

A COSTLY EXPERIENCE.

The Result of Thirty Years of "Protection."

An interesting summary of our national experience with the "protection" policy was given by Congressman Harter, of Ohio, in his speech in the house of representatives. When a man has been foolish and has gone into some rash adventure, probably the best thing he can do afterward is to sit down and figure up the cost of his experience, and get as much instruction out of his escapade as possible. Mr. Harter tells us briefly the cost of our attachment to "protection."

As to the growth in wealth. In the free trade low tax period of ten years, from 1850 to 1860, wealth increased 126 per cent. Under the high tax period, from 1860 to 1870, it increased 87 per cent. But under the continuance of the high tax system, in the decade from 1870 to 1880, it increased but 40 per cent., and it is very doubtful whether from 1880 to 1890 it actually increased as much as from 1870 to 1880. And, after showing that the United States, by twenty years of "protection," has reduced her wealth from its normal aggregate over 40 per cent., he went on:

But let us continue these comparisons:

Under low taxes, from 1850 to 1860, population increased 35½ per cent.

Under high taxes, from 1860 to 1880, population averaged to increase in each ten years 26.20 per cent.

Under low taxes, from 1850 to 1860, commerce increased 131 per cent.

Under high taxes, from 1860 to 1880, commerce averaged to increase in each ten years 45.06 per cent.

Under low taxes, from 1850 to 1860, railroad mileage increased 240 per cent.

Under high takes, from 1860 to 1880, railroad mileage averaged to increase in each ten years 69 per cent.

Under low taxes, from 1850 to 1860, capital in manufacturing increased 90 per cent.

Under high taxes, from 1860 to 1880, capital in manufacturing averaged to increase in each ten years 66 per cent.

Under low taxes, from 1850 to 1860, wages increased 17.03 per cent.

Under high taxes, from 1860 to 1880, wages averaged to increase in each ten years 9.04 per cent.

Under low taxes, from 1850 to 1860, farms increased in value 103 per cent.

Under high taxes, from 1860 to 1880, farms averaged to increase in each ten years 23.06 per cent.

Foot up all and here is the general result. The increase of general prosperity and development under ten years of low taxes was 616.53 against an average of only 238.36 under high protective tariff taxation. Now remember, that the tariff under high protection costs the people more, but say only twice as much, and the difference in favor of low tariff taxation is double what the figures just quoted show. Does it not seem to you that any man who votes for protection is in need of a guardian to look after his estate?

GIVE US ALL BOUNTIES.

We Give the Monoplists Their Full Share of Them.

The injustice of the sugar bounty provision of the McKinley law, in its outrageous discrimination against all other classes of workers in the sole interest of the sugar producers and their customers, the sugar trust, is well illustrated by Congressman Scott in his speech in the house of representatives:

"In one field a man raises corn. Across the lane another has a sugar plantation. Though the sugar grower may be rich and the corn raiser poor, the latter is taxed to pay money as a bounty to the former. Corn may rot in the field or be burned as fuel because the foreign market is short and the home market glutted. The price for sugar may secure a handsome profit, yet the McKinley law gives the sugar producer 1¾ and 2 cents out of the treasury as a bounty.

"Why not give 5 cents a bushel as a bounty on corn or 25 cents a bushel on wheat? By doing this these great industries would not languish as they have in the past. There is as much right to do this as to give 2 cents a pound as a donation to the sugar producer.

"It would be as proper also to give each wage-earner 25 cents per day for every day he is employed. It would help to neutralize the burdens on him in the increased price he must pay for food and clothes by the iniquitous tariff taxes. There is no right nor justice in the whole thing, and the law giving a bounty on sugar should be replaced."

Meanwhile the sugar trust is reaping a profit of $2.03⅛ on every barrel of sugar they sell. Their net yearly profits, estimated in a minimum yearly production of 12,000,000 barrels, are $25,503,000. This is 73.08 per cent on the actual valuation of their property.

—The tanners of New York have decided that the trade is in such a depressed condition that it is necessary to curtail the output of sole leather. They are considering a proposition not to wet any hides for a period of three months. If the market has not broadened by that time the tanners will continue to curtail the output until it does. If the next election goes to suit them they will be doubtless petitioning congress for more protection.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

"What is that lunch set out for under that glass case?" asked Bunting at the dime museum. "That is a relic of Edgar Allen Poe." "How so?" "You know he was so poor he missed his meals?" "Yes." "This is one of the meals he didn't eat."

WHAT DOES IT MEAN.

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations, taken according to directions, are gone in a week. Therefore be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

"What is your husband when a woman asks you to guess her age?" "I guess my guess to myself, knock off 30 per cent. and generally come near making myself adored."

A WONDERFUL STATEMENT.

Proprietors of Dullam's Great German Remedies.—GENTLEMEN: I have for the past two years been troubled with a serious and very severe liver and stomach difficulty. Have had advice and medicine from our very best physicians, and only to be temporarily relieved. Some of my friends persuaded me to try your Great German Remedy for the Blood, Stomach and Kidneys, and to my surprise, after using three bottles, I feel like a new man. If you desire you can use my name in print or by reference in any of the Grand Rapids, Michigan papers, or any other papers in the States, to convince the afflicted that it is the best blood, liver and kidney medicine on earth. I feel like a new man. I have lived here over 40 years.

J. M. LIVINGSTON,
Grand Rapids, Mich.

For sale by Jno. Orr.

Mrs. Yerger: Matilda, hurry up with those shoes. What keeps you so long? Matilda: I'se a-comin', mum. I heard you call de fust time, and thought ter save time I'd jess button 'em up for you before you puts e'm on.

MILES' NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

"And Brown is going to run for Congress?" "That's what." "Has he a war record?" "I should say he has. He wrote a history of it."

LANE'S FAMILY MEDICINE MOVES THE BOWELS

Each day. Most people need to use it.

MRS. W. R. FRANCIS

Is the wife of one of the best known pharmacists in New Haven, doing business at 141 Dixwell Ave., and ex-president of the Connecticut Pharmaceutical Association. He says: "My wife was for several years in bad health, due to a complication of disorders. Friends persuaded her to take Hood's Sarsaparilla; she took 6 or 8 bottles and is certainly a great deal better since, in every way."

Mrs. Martha Reed of 1835 Ramsey street, Baltimore, Md., voluntarily says:

"For over 2 years I suffered with a Complication of Diseases

till the summer found me a confirmed invalid, blood poor, appetite gone, bowels out of order, and I was miserable in mind and body. I read of such wonderful cures performed by Hood's Sarsaparilla that, at last, I thought I would try a bottle, as, if it didn't make me better, it could not make me worse. It did make me better, and on my third bottle I found myself almost

A New Woman

I will gladly convince any lady, as I have proved to myself, that purifying and enriching the blood, which Hood's Sarsaparilla does to perfection, is the best Constitutional Treatment, and in many cases, does away with all Local Treatment in the many diseases with which women are afflicted." Try it.

HOOD'S

Sarsaparilla is especially adapted

For Ladies

and will cure difficulties peculiar to the sex. N. B. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HOOD'S PILLS cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents.

Look at This!

. . I AM AGENT FOR . .

Eight of the Best Sewing Machines Ma

ALSO FOR THE CELEBRATED WHITNEY BABY CARRIAGE AND TECUMSEH TABLES.

My Stock is Very Complete and it will Pay to See my Mamm Stock Before You Buy, and Look at our $22.00 BED-ROOM SUIT FOR $18.

THE BEST BARGAINS EVER OFFERED.

J. S. KINNEY

Ely's Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

The New Model Hall Typewrita

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Characte

Remodeled and Improved.

GOOD MANIFOLDER.

The Best Standard Typewriter in the World. Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interchangeable type in all languages, Easiest to learn as rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIEND. Everybody should have their writing done on the Typewriter. It always insures the most prompt attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159.

N. TYPEWRITER CO.,

611 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Seth P. Sheldon, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Charles Burridge in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 25th day of June, 1892, and on the 30th day of September, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 31st day of March, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated May 25th, 1892.

ANSEL P. COMMINGTON,
HORATIO KEYSER,
Commissioners.

may29

ESTATE OF B. J. BIDWELL.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate Office in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 25th day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate Birdsey J. Bidwell, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Elizabeth A. Bidwell widow of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to Lamont C. Bidwell and Laverne I. Bidwell, or to some other suitable persons.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 20th day of June, next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said Petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said Petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy.)
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register. apr28

MORTGAGE SALE.

DEFAULT of payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date March 19th, 1889, executed and delivered by Seth N. Randall to Emma Drake, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1889, in Liber 120, of mortgages, on pages 614 and 615 and upon which mortgage there remains due at the date hereof the sum of three hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents ($399,60), and no proceedings at law or in equity having been taken to collect the same or any part thereof.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained (which has become operative by reason of said default) and by the Statutes of the State of Michigan, in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon, and costs of this foreclosure and sale including an attorney fee as provided by law; I shall, on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house, in the City of Adrian, County of Lenawee Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, viz: The northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three (23), town six (6), south of range five (5) east.

Dated April 11, 1892.

EMMA DRAKE,
Mortgagee.

WOOD & EIRD
Attorneys for Mortgagee. apr14

DRS. CATLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default of Payment having been made of a mortgage made by Edward Rowland and Elsie Rowland, his wife, to Albert Hyde, Sr., bearing date the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1879, of record in office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 100 of mortgages, on Page 34, on which mortgage there remains unpaid at the date of this notice, of principal and accrued interest, the sum of Eight Hundred forty-four and 62-100ths dollars ($844.62), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken for the collection of the same.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the money above named and interest thereon at 8 per cent. per annum to accrue thereon, the costs of this foreclosure and sale, including the attorney fee provided by law, I shall, on the first day of August, A. D. 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan (that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for the said County of Lenawee), all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point in the South line of Logan street, Seventy feet east from the intersection of that line with the East line of Evans street in said Village, thence running South parallel with and seventy feet distant from the East line of Evans street to the alley described in a deed given to Benjamin Farley by Michael A. Patterson and George Spafford; thence East along the North line of said alley seventy feet; thence North to the South line of Logan street aforesaid; thence West to the South line of Logan street aforesaid seventy feet to place of beginning—being the same land conveyed by John H. Mills to said Edward Rowland by deed bearing date December 29, 1879, and comprising dwelling house and premises and blacksmith shop and premises thereon.

Dated May 5th, 1892.

ALBERT HYDE,
Mortgagee.

CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for Mortgagee. may5

ESTATE OF INCREASE S. HAMILTON.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate Office in the City of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 11th day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Increase S. Hamilton, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Frederick B. Wood, praying for the probate of an instrument now on file in this Court, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and that administration of said estate may be granted to petitioner and Ann Elizabeth Hamilton, the executor and executrix in said instrument named, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, that Monday, the 6th day of June next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate Office in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in THE TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)
RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of John Dubois, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Probate Court of said County, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the Township Clerk's Office in Britton, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 11th day of June, 1892, and on the 25th day of October, 1892, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 26th day of April, A. D. 1891, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated Britton, Mich., April 27th, 1892.

JOHN BRITTON,
F. E. MORRILL,
Commissioners.

A MYSTERY EXPLAINED.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical and nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced; usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book, containing many marvelous cures, free at Baker & Hall's. We also sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the finest heart tonics. Cures fluttering, short breath, etc.

Every Month

many women suffer from Excessive or Scanty Menstruation; they don't know what to consult in to get proper advice. Don't confide in anybody but try.

Bradfield's

Female Regulator

a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE, SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION.

Book to "WOMAN" mailed free. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga. Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S

DUSKY

DIAMOND

TAR SOAP

Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing.

Cures Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc. Removes and Prevents Dandruff.

AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP.

Best for General Household Use.

DEAFNESS & HEAD NOISES CURED by Peck's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfortable. Successful where all Remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, 853 Broadway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists is Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough, Weak Lungs, Debility, Indigestion, Pain. Take in time. 50 cts.

ARE YOU CONSUMPTIVE

KIDNEY CORNS. The only sure cure for Corns. Stops all pain. 15c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

A Family Affair

Health for the Baby, Pleasure for the Parents, New Life for the Old Folks.

Hires' Root Beer

THE GREAT TEMPERANCE DRINK

is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening effervescent beverage.

Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

CURE THAT

Cold

AND STOP THAT

Cough.

N. H. Downs' Elixir

WILL DO IT.

Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle. Warranted. Sold everywhere. HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

Why Suffer?

When you can be Cured

Thousands are suffering with Torpid Liver—the symptoms are Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator is a reliable remedy for Liver Disorders. It cures thousands every year; why not try Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator? Your Druggist will supply you.

SINGLE TAX DEPARTMENT.

Who Pay the Taxes?

THOMAS G. SHEARMAN.

An inteiligent correspondent puts, in concise form, the question so often asked in a vague, cloudy manner: "Will not the actual laborers of any country be compelled finally to pay all taxes? Can any plan be devised by which the wealth of the country can be made to bear the burden of taxation?"

These questions can not be properly answered with either yes or no. The actual laborers of any country—including in that term all who do useful work—do, in fact, pay not only all the taxes, but also all the cost of supporting all the people who do not work. They pay the cost of everything. Nor can any plan be devised which will relieve them from this burden. Wealth means nothing at all, except the possession of power to make other people work for us. No property which does not give this power has any commercial value. If I own a house, be it ever so fine, it is not wealth, unless it is so situated that some other person would be willing to do work for me if I will let him use that house. There are hundreds of well-built houses in the western territories or states which are abandoned, because no one will render any work for their use. They are of no market value, and therefore they are not wealth.

But, while no one can devise a plan by which the laborers shall escape from paying all the taxes, it is easy to devise a plan by which they can be saved from paying them twice over. Nature compels them to pay all taxes once, in the rent of land. The landlords long ago invented a plan by which the laborers were forced to pay the taxes the second time. This is called "indirect taxation." The law allows landlords to collect from laborers a rent fully equal to all necessary taxes; and this right, because an inexorable law of nature compels this payment to be made to somebody, and landlords are the people who, also by natural law, are appointed to collect it. But the law allows the landlords to keep all this rent in their own pockets, except such small share of the taxes as they pay in common with laborers; and this is wrong, because the landlords ought to pay every dollar of the taxes, since they have already collected them. Let the public revenue be collected solely out of ground rents, and the laborers will be entirely delivered from the burden of taxation. From more than that no human power can deliver them.

Here it will be asked, as usual: "Can not landlords increase their rent, if it is taxed, so as to make the laborers still pay the taxes over again?" No; it is impossible. Landlords now collect all the rent which it is possible for them to get. If all of it were taken away by taxation, they could not collect it a second time. Suppose the average laborer, earning $500 a year (which is a large allowance), pays $100 for ground rent. Suppose the state takes all of this from the landlord, and then demands another $100 from the tenant and gets it. The state then takes $200 from the landlord, and he demands $300 from the tenant; and suppose—which is impossible—and he gets it. Still the state takes the $300 from the landlord; and he demands $400 from the tenant. Obviously the tenant would be reduced to starvation. Still, suppose that the landlord gets it, just once. The state again takes it all from him, and now he demands $500 from the tenant whose whole income is only $500. How can he make the tenant pay it? The tenant would be dead long before this point was reached; and all other tenants, being subject to the same extortion, would be dead also. No one would be left alive, except a few landlords and tax-gatherers. Rent and taxes would be alike extinct. So far from landlords being enabled to increase rent, in consequence of a heavy tax on rent, they would become more eager competitors for tenants, because they could not afford to keep any land out of use. The idea that a tax upon ground rent can be shifted upon the tenant is one of the most absurd that ever entered the brain of intelligent men.

The single tax upon ground rental values is, a plan which will relieve the laboring classes from all taxes, other than their present rent; and no wit of man can devise any plan which will relieve them from anything more.

A Significant Single Tax Declaration.

The following declaration, which derives great importance from the prominent names subscribed to it, has just been issued:

Believing that public attention is concerned as never before with the solution of the social problems which confront us, we declare our adhesion to the following principles; and we urge upon all American citizens a careful examination of them, with a view to their embodiment in the law:

I.—Taxes should be simple, just, definite and easily collected.

II.—They ought not to restrict production or saving, nor to favor individuals at the expense of the community.

III.—Labor should always be able to find suitable employment; and for this purpose, only the use of land is absolutely necessary.

IV.—A tax on the rental value of land, exclusive of improvements, is direct, equitable and certain; it would encourage production and industry, and hinder the withholding of available land from use. It would take for public purposes only the value created by the public growth, leaving to labor and capital their full earnings, free from all tax.

Therefore, a single tax on the rental value of land alone is the best possible tax.

Among the signers are:

Louis Prang (art publisher), Boston, Mass.; (Hon.) Joseph B. Sargent (mayor), of New Haven, Ct.; A. J. Moxham, (dictator during flood), Johnstown, Pa.; Wm. Loyd Garrison, Boston, Mass.; Eugene V. Debs, (secretary and treasurer Brotherhood Locomotive Firemen), Terre Haute, Ind.; (Rev.) James O. S. Huntington, New York city; H. De F. Baldwin, (secretary Reform club), New York; Thomas G. Shearman, New York city; (Hon.) Tom L. Johnson, (congressman from Ohio); James A. Herne (actor), New York city; Fred. W. Hinrichs (president Young Men's Democratic club), Brooklyn, N. Y.; Poultney Bigelow, New York city; Henry George, New York city; (Hon.) L. W. Hoch (mayor of), Adrian, Mich.; A. B. Farquhar (president Pennsylvania Agricultural works), York, Pa.; (Hon.) Jerry Simpson (congressman from Kansas); Richard Spencer (president Burlington Gas Light Co.), Burlington Ia.; (Hon.) Lucius F. C. Garvin (state senator), Lonsdale, R. I.; Read Gordon, of Gordon & Dilworth, New York; Prof. Robert W. Hall (New York University); Charles S. Prizer (secretary of the Reading Stove works), Orr, Painter & Co.), Reading, Pa.; James R. Garret (real estate lawyer), Boston, Mass.; George A. Miller (professor Metropolitan Law school), Chicago, Ill.; W. O. Foley (cashier Dunbar bank), Dunbar, Pa.; W. E. Anthes (treasurer Anthes Nickel Plating Co., and N. E. Plating works, Boston, Mass.; David Harrower (retired woolen manufacturer), Wakefield, R. I.; R. M. Humphrey (general superintendent Colored Farmers' National Alliance and Co-operative Union), Houston, Texas; Hon. P. B. Winston (mayor of) Minneapolis, Minn.; Gen. Hermann Lieb, Chicago, Ill.; Walter H. Beecher, Cincinnati, O.; J. P. Cranford, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Geo. T. Knight (woolen merchant), New York city; C. B. Fillebrown (wholesale dry goods), Boston and New York; T. Wistar Brown, Jr. (wholesale dry goods), Philadelphia, Pa.; August Lewis (straw goods), New York city; S. B. Riggen (real estate), Portland, Ore.; George Champion (secretary South Park Hay and Grain Co.), Denver, Col.; Hon. James Cockrell (member Illinois legislature), Kinmundy, Ill.; Hon. W. H. Blake (ex-judge and state senator), Swanton, Vt.; H. W. McFarlane (assistant ticket auditor, Chicago & Northwestern railway), Chicago, Ill.; Hon. Mark Bangs (ex-United States district attorney), Chicago, Ill.; Charles H. Walker (agent Nickel Plate line), Chicago, Ill.; Henry A. Robinson (commissioner of labor), Lansing, Mich.

A much larger list of signatures has been obtained; and beside the positive endorsement of the platform, interesting letters have been written to Mr. E. J. Shriver (by whom the preliminary work has been conducted), from such men as Congressmen W. C. P. Breckenridge, C. R. Breckinridge and Michael D. Harter; Bishop Huntington, of Central New York; Rev. D. Rainsford, Lyman J. Gage and William M. Ivins, all of which give a qualified acceptance to a portion of the document.

Exempting Money from Taxation.

James D. Tracy, of Kurten, Texas, asks what we should do, under the single tax, with people who have plenty of money and no land.

Mr. Tracy makes a common mistake in supposing that any one, whether with or without land, has plenty of money. What rich men have is not money, but the power of obtaing money, when they want it and as they want it, from the general stock.

If this power is their labor, if whenever they take money out of the general stock they put something of their own production into the circle of trade, it is a power that benefits others as well as themselves; and, so far from contriving some method of burdening them, society ought to endeavor in all possible ways to relieve them of burdens, and to encourage them in what they are doing. Rich men, no matter how rich they are, harm no one, so long as they render a full return in their own labor for all the wealth they get. No honest man who understands this proposition will dispute it.

But if their power is the ownership of some indespensible thing, which the owner did not himself make nor receive as a voluntary transfer from some one who did make it, so that when they take money out of the general stock of money they put no labor of their own into the circle of trade, they get money for nothing. Hence, since money is a medium of trade, they get the property of other people for nothing. That power is injurious. But we can not diminish it by burdening all people who can command money, regardless of the method by which they command it. If we attempt that, we burden the just and the unjust alike. What we must do is to attack the bad method and strengthen the good one.

It is primarity and principally the ownership of land that enables men to take money out of the general stock without putting its equivalent into the circle of trade; and, if land were taxed according to its value, this power, to the extent of the tax, will be destroyed. —The Standard.

Correct.

We would not limit, in acres or feet, how much land one should own, but this much we would do: We would tax the land according to its value—that is, we would tax vacant land fully as much as the improved land adjacent, exempting all improvements (the products of labor) from taxation.—Chicago Free Trader.

It is right that the community should take for communal uses—for the expenses of government for and by all the people—all of that value which it gives to land. A bare acre of land in Detroit is worth 111.5 acres of farm land in the state of Michigan, says that state's commissioner of labor. It is not correspondingly fertile. Planted in corn, wheat, potatoes, turnips or flowers, it is probable that any one of the 111 acres (or maybe the half acre) would be more productive than the single city acre. Build a cotton-mill on any one of the 111 acres, and you will be able to produce just as much cloth as if you had built the mill upon a Detroit acre, and if you are careful to select one farm acre nearest a coal mine, you might be able to produce cloth a trifle cheaper.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Various Parties Hold Conventions in Several States.

Democrats Meet in Kentucky, New Jersey, Colorado, Idaho and Washington—Prohibitionists Assemble in Ohio and Indiana.

IN KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 26.—The democrats in convention here yesterday adopted a platform which demands a sound and stable currency composed of or reducible in gold and silver coin and declares that the delegates to the national convention go uninstructed except to use their best endeavors for the success of the democracy and its principles. The delegates at large are: Henry Watterson, William M. Reed, James A. McKenzie, William G. Wells, James R. Yindman, W. C. Owen, William Lindsay and John B. Castleman.

IN NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, N. J., May 26.—The democrats in state convention here yesterday instructed their delegation to Chicago to vote for Cleveland for president. The platform condemns the policy of free coinage of silver, and asserts that the democratic party should continue its battle for tariff reform.

IN COLORADO.

DENVER, Col., May 26.—The state democratic convention in session here yesterday named delegates to the Chicago convention. Although the delegates were uninstructed every mention of Senator David B. Hill's name was loudly applauded. Free coinage of silver was indorsed.

IN IDAHO.

POCATELLO, Idaho, May 26. — The Idaho democrats met here yesterday and selected a delegation to the national convention instructed to labor for the nomination of men favorable to free silver.

IN WASHINGTON.

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 26.—The democrats in state convention here yesterday strongly indorsed Cleveland, but refrained from instructing the delegates to Chicago.

IN OHIO.

COLUMBUS, O., May 27.—The state prohibition convention on Thursday nominated the following ticket:

For secretary of state, George L. Case, of Cleveland; judge of supreme court (long term), Thomas C. Crowe, of Champaign; judge of the supreme court (short term), John T. Moore, of Jackson; clerk of the supreme court, Z. C. Payne, of Franklin; member of board of public works, Joseph J. Ware, of Champaign; delegates at large to national convention, H. A. Thompson, Westerville; C. L. Work, Dayton; J. B. Martin, Cincinati; L. B. Logan, Alliance; R. S. Thompson, Springfield; J. B. Helwig, Springfield; Mrs. Henrietta G. Moore, Springfield.

IN INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 27.—The prohibitionists in session here yesterday adopted a platform favoring government control of transportation; a graduated system of taxation; prohibition of the alien ownership of land; exclusion of diseased, pauper and criminal immigrants; election of United States senators by popular vote; establishment of postal savings' banks by the government, and prohibition of speculation in margins. The following ticket was nominated: For governor, Rev. Aaron Worth, of Jay county; lieutenant governor, C. W. Culbertson, Shelby; secretary of state, James McCormick, Princeton. Candidates for congress were selected as follows: Fourth district, Rev. A. J. Grime, Shelby county; Seventh, C. E. Boston, Madison county; Sixth, W. A. Spurgeon, Delaware county.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 28. — The people's party in state convention here yesterday nominated the following ticket: Governor, Leroy Templeton; lieutenant governor, Dr. J. A. Houser; secretary of state, Jesse L. Hobson; auditor of state, Lewis Kaston; treasurer, Townsend Coke; attorney general, E. H. Vernandez; superintendent of public instruction, J. H. Allen; state statistician, C. H. Bliss; reporter of supreme court, W. H. Dewey; supreme court judges, Adam Stockman, Silas M. Sheppard and N. J. Boart.

IN TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 27.—The democratic state convention yesterday adopted resolutions indorsing the candidacy of Grover Cleveland and instructing the Tennessee delegates to the national convention to vote for him.

IN VERMONT.

RUTLAND, Vt., May 27.—The prohibitionists in state convention in this city yesterday nominated E. L. Allen, of Fair Haven, for governor.

Four Children Drowned in the Ohio.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 28.—Intelligence reached here late Friday night of the drowning of four children at Woodville, this county, Friday afternoon. It appears that six boys, ranging in age from 7 to 10 years, were fishing, when the bank caved in and they were thrown into the Ohio river. Two were rescued, but the others were carried down the river by the strong current and drowned.

Convicted of Forgery.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 28.—The trial of C. F. Underhill, ex-president of the Flour City Life association, who was accused of raising a receipt given by Hamilton Wareham, of Grand Ledge, Mich., from $400 to $1,400 and pocketing the $1,000, was ended at this city Friday morning. The jury returned a verdict of forgery in the third degree.

One Man Killed.

DAYTON, O., May 28.—An explosion in the wood pulp mill at the Friend Paper Company's mill at West Carrollton, 6 miles south of here, demolished the building and killed Emery Blood, the assistant superintendent. Henry Stebbins, the superintendent, was slightly injured. Two other employes were hurt.

Killed in a Railway Wreck.

RACINE, Wis., May 28.—At 4 o'clock Friday afternoon two freight cars were wrecked at Western Union Junction, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad. Joseph Knapp and Wallace Finney were killed. Both men were molders and lived at Oshway, Canada.

TO YOUNG MOTHERS.

who are for the first time to undergo woman's severest trial, we offer you, not the stupor caused by chloroform, with risk of death for yourself or your dearly-loved and longed-for offspring, but "Mother's Friend," a remedy which will, if used as directed, invariably alleviate the pains, horrors and risks of labor, and often entirely do away with them. Sold by Jno. Orr.

I HAVE TAKEN SEVERAL

Bottles of Bradfield's Female Regulator for falling of the womb and other diseases combined, of 18 years standing, and I really believe I am cured entirely, for which please accept my thanks.

MRS. W. E. STEPHENS, Ridge, Ga.

WHY IS THE

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN

THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY?

It is a seamless shoe, with no tacks or wax thread to hurt the feet; made of the best fine calf, stylish and easy, and because we make more shoes of this grade than any other manufacturer, it equals hand-sewed shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

$5. 00 Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest calf shoe ever offered for $5.00; equals French imported shoes which cost from $8.00 to $12.00.

$4. 00 Hand-sewed Welt Shoe, fine calf, stylish, comfortable and durable. The best shoe ever offered at this price; same grade as custom-made shoes costing from $6.00 to $8.00.

$3. 50 Police Shoe; Farmers, Railroad Men and Letter Carriers all wear them; fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, heavy three soles, extension edge. One pair will wear a year.

$2. 50 fine calf; no better shoe ever offered at this price; one trial will convince those who want a shoe for comfort and service.

$2 25 and $2.00 Workingman's shoes are very strong and durable. Those who have given them a trial will wear no other make.

Boys' $2.00 and $1.75 school shoes are worn by the boys everywhere; they sell on their merits, as the increasing sales show.

Ladies $3.00 Hand-sewed shoe, best Dongola, very stylish; equals French imported shoes costing from $4.00 to $6.00.

Ladies' 2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 shoe for Misses are the best fine Dongola. Stylish and durable.

Caution.—See that W. L. Douglas' name and price are stamped on the bottom of each shoe.

IF TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE. IF

Insist on local advertised dealers supplying you. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by

SOLD BY

HARRIS & HITESHU, Tecumseh.

LADIES

In delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions or of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to my cure, together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The M. U. Pastilles have stood the test of 18 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $1.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr. H. H. Jackson, 103 State Street, Chicago, Illinois

The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. The name and address will be given any lady asking for the same:

"DR JACKSON,

Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend your M. U. Pastilles to all ladies suffering with female diseases. Having myself been bedfast for ten months and could find no remedy until I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using about two boxes I was well and sound, for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady." ul16-13

It Cures Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Large Bottles, 50 cents and $1.00. It Cures Influenza.

The Celebrated Stallion

GIPSEY CHIEF.

Will make the season of 1892 at the owner's farm, at the Bridgewater Mills, River Raisin.

GIPSEY CHIEF is the grandest sire in Southern Michigan, producing from mares of different blood, more matched colts, than any other stallion. Parties wishing to raise colts uniform in style and color, would do well to look at Gipsey Chief and his get, before booking their mares. He is the sire of the celebrated horse Tipton Boy, record 2:24 1-2, and other fast ones.

GIPSEY'S colts all have fine style and action and find ready sale at good prices. For pedigree and terms, address

CHARLES R. KOERNIG,
River Raisin, Mich.

PHYSICIANS OUTDONE.

My wife has been suffering with female trouble of the severest kind for over three years. I have paid twenty-five dollars during the last three months, and she had no relief. She had doctored continually with the best of physicians.

I bought three bottles each of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure, and can say to-day that she is entirely cured. W. H. DROWLEY.

Sworn to before me on this 23d day of June, 1890. JOHN C. DULLAM, Flint, Mich. Not'y Public, Genesee Co. For sale by Jno. Orr.

He: You know I don't approve of tight lacing in women. I think such constant pressure around the waist is highly injurious. She: I don't think that is what makes it so bad. He: What is it, then? She (toying with her fan): It is because that method is so artificial.

There are more divorces granted in the United States than in all the rest of the Christian world put together. Americans are very discriminative—after marriage.

KING OF THE BLOOD

The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.

Cures all Humors, from a Boil to the worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.

Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.

Its name is its best description as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.

It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.

It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the Surgeon's knife.

It cures DROPSY, general or partial.

It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.

It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.

It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons and establishes a sound constitution

Many certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," which each bottle encloses.

Price $1 per bottle containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses. Sold by druggist medicine.

If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors, BUFFALO N. Y

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.

It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.

The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.

All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.

It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood. By this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame; every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years.

This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates of cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.

Price 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's
Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!

HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan Street, I am prepared to execute

General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds.

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

Satisfaction Guaranteed and Charges Reasonable.

A. J. WHITING.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Ann Pockington deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the Township Clerk's office, in Britton, in Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 18th day of June, and on the 12th day of November, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 11th day of May, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment

Dated, at Britton this 16th day of May, 1892.

JOHN BRITTON,
NORMAN H. ACKLEY,
Commissioners.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

HONORS TO THE NOBLE DEAD.

How Memorial Day was Celebrated in Tecumseh—A Fine Procession and an Interesting Program of Exercises.

The unexpected happened this year, for it failed to rain on Decoration Day. The clerk of the weather was in his most gracious mood. It was quite warm enough for comfort and cloudy enough to conceal the scorching rays of the sun. It was a model day for an outdoor gathering and those interested in the proper observance of this most beautiful of all our holidays made the most of it.

At an early hour in the morning the ladies of the W. R. C. and others gathered at John Usborne's vacant store and soon the flowers began to pour in by the bushel. The variety of flowers was very meagre, but the supply was abundant of a few standard kinds, so there was nothing lacking on that score. Four mammoth wreaths were made for the soldiers' monument, while small wreaths and bouquets by the hundred were fashioned in artistic style for use in the cemetery. When the hour of noon arrived the floral emblems were all in readiness for the afternoon's program. At noon the streets were well-nigh deserted, but at two o'clock, when the procession formed, they were filled with an eager multitude. Shortly after two the procession moved west on Chicago street in the following order:

The City Band, with fifteen men.

Co. C, M. S. T., with over 40 men in the ranks.

Beers Post, G. A. R., with other old soldiers, numbering about seventy-five.

W. R. C. in carriages.

School children from the 1st to 8th grades, who carried the bouquets. Nearly 200 in all.

The Tecumseh Bi Club, numbering about 50 wheels.

Officers of the Day and Glee Club.

Citizens in carriages.

Ben Garlinghouse acted as Marshal in Chief, assisted by C. F. Patterson. The procession made an elegant display, the Bi Club adding very materially to its appearance. The City Band never made better music. The Co. C. boys marched like veterans, while the old vets themselves assumed new life and vigor. The school children caught the infection of the day and made a fine appearance. The procession marched west on Chicago street and thence north on Union to the cemetery. Upon arriving at the cemetery the G. A. R. men separated into squads and proceeded to decorate the graves of deceased soldiers, all of which had been marked with a small flag. Co. C. also performed the same honor to their deceased comrades. The various organizations and the general crowd then gathered about the platform near the front entrance, where the exercises were held and the program was announced by Lester P. Tribou, President of the Day, in the following order:

Music by the Band.

Invocation—Rev. W. H. Babbitt.

Vocal Quartette—Decoration Song—Messrs. J. S. and T. D. Strong, Conkling and Dickinson. Miss Jennie Root presided at the organ with her usual efficiency and the gentlemen of the quartette added new laurels to their previous reputation.

Address—Hon. J. D. Shull. Mr. Shull spoke from condensed notes, and hence his remarks were substantially extempore. We regret that we cannot publish them entire, for they were splendidly received by the assemblage.

Vocal music by the Quartettes—"Call of the Roll on High."

Address—Rev. O. J. Perrin. His remarks were very appropriate and touched the hearts of all present. We present below a brief synopsis of them.

Vocal music by the Quartette—"The Flag without a Stain."

Memorial Service conducted by Beers' Post, led by Com'd'r G. S. VanTyne.

Salute by Co. C.

Music by the City Band.

Benediction—Chaplain Barnes.

Thus ended the exercises at the Cemtery. The procession then reformed and marched back to the village, followed by the crowd. The crowd of spectators was fully as large as usual and the program was one of the best ever presented in Tecumseh on Memorial Day. All who participated felt that the day had been properly observed.

Rev. O. J. Perrin's Address.

We regard this day as one of the most sacred in American history. It is a day of serious reflection, when the most tender and elevating influences descend upon the hearts of the people. There is no eloquence so inspiring as the eloquence of these graves; no flowers of rhetoric so appropriate as these flowers of spring, with which we honor the graves of the patriotic dead. We are proud of our noble land and of our title as American citizens; but our brothers who sleep here not only lived for this nation but they died for it. When the Union was imperilled by civil war these peace-loving citizens were transformed into heroes. When the war broke out foreign nations declared that it would be a failure, because it was alleged that we were so absorbed in speculation and making money that we had no heroism. But when the stars and stripes were assailed and trampled under the feet of traitors, these peace-loving citizens rose to the courage of warriors and soon convinced the world that we were a nation of the grandest heroes the world had ever known. The Spartan band of Leonidas at Thermopylæ was not more heroic and self-sacrificing; the famous charge of the Light Brigade at Balaklava was not more brave; the bold leap of Curtius into the yawning gulf to save his country was not more daring. Do we not owe them the homage we so willingly pay them to-day? They were not only brave soldiers but martyrs also. The devotees of religion gave their lives for their faith. The martyrs of patriotism gave their lives for a principle—the essential unity of the nation at any cost.

The relation of the living to the dead is one of broad meaning. We are the heirs of all the generations that have gone before us. We inherit their works—their examples—as we do their possessions. We are their successors. They teach us grand lessons of both humility and courage, for we learn of them both how little and how great we are. Lying in the dust with which our own will soon mingle, they rebuke our pride and save us from low views of life by reminding us of the immortal value of every good and noble deed.

Our relation to the dead signifies obligation to them. We owe them a debt which we cannot pay, yet there are duties which we can render them. It is to perform one of these duties that has brought us here to-day. They laid down their lives in a public cause. They died for us, and in their dying was the cost of the benefits we live to enjoy. It is required of us that we guard their lives from oblivion and make the story of their sacrifice a mighty power in this land to the end of time.

Appropriate as is this tribute which we pay to their memories on this occasion, it does not comprise our whole duty. We must see to it that their works follow them. We must take up the mantle which has fallen from the noble dead. True, we have no tomb of Elisha with us, but we have a great pyramid of bones which ought to stimulate us.

We belong to a generation of which the flower has perished in the battles of the Republic—as men they perished. No graves were ever so eloquent as these graves. If they could speak to us they would say: "We laid down our young heads for freedom, for country and for God. See to it that these principles shall be preserved and that we shall not have died in vain." I believe our response would be: To this we pledge our fortunes, our sacred honor, and our lives.

List of Graves Decorated.

Lieu. Morris Roberts, Co. F, 26th Mich. Inft.
Capt. James R. Cairnes, Co. B, 9th Mich. Cav.
Lieut. Samuel Kneeland, Co. I, 18th Mich. Inft.
Carter, Mexican War.
H. Packard, 65th Ohio.
George H. Brewer, Co. E, 18th Mich.
Lieut. Abel W. Harding, Co. F, 26th Mich.
Sergt. James McNair, Co. I, 18th Mich.
Col. Wm. McNair, Mexican War.
George W. Rosebrough, Co. I, 55th Ill.
John Culbertson
Alonzo Stearns, 3rd Mich. Cav.
Faron Anderson, 2nd Mich. Inft.
Blood, Mexican War.
Isaac Weigle, Co. K, 52d Ohio.
John Schreder, Mexican War.
David Marshall, Co. G, 4th Mich. Inft.
Martin B. Pennock, Co. G, 4th Mich.
Southworth.
Albert Randall, Co. F, 26th Mich.
Warren Estes, Co. E, 18th Mich.
William Butler, Co. A, 17th Mich.
Bradley Jones.
Milton Wood, Mexican War.
Patchen, " "
John Cupples, Co. I, 7th Mich. Cav.
J. M. Jordan, Co. E, 7th Mich. "
James Morseman, Co. E, 18th Mich. Inft.
Emory Waller, Co. F, 26th Mich. Inft.
Henry Gove.
Thomas McClennahan, Co. K, 188 Pa.
Stephen Mosier, Mexican War.
Major Gillespie, " "
Lieut. Alanson Conklin, Co. G, 1st Mich. Light Art.
Sergt. John McKinney, Co. E, 18th Mich. Inft.
Lieut. John G. Gilbert, Co. G, 25th Mich. Inft.
Wm. McCaughan, Co. I, 18th Mich. Inft.
Abijah Russell, Mexican War.
James R. Wheeler, Co. E, 18th Mich. Inft.
Lieut. Stocking.
1st Sergt. Chas. F. Doke, Co. B, 9th Mich. Cav.
Thomas Griswold, Mexican War.
John Durling, Co. E, 18th Mich.
A. J. Durling, Co. I, 7th Mich. Cav.
Sergt. A. D. Tripp, Co. E, 18th Mich.
Henry Stout, Co. E, 18th Mich.
Gen'l J. W. Brown, Mexican War.
Major Brown, " "
Col. H. Hewitt, " "
Broadhead.
Lieut. J. J. Ladd.
Ambrose B. Curtiss.
Joseph Gilmore.
Col. Stitt, Old War.
Theo. Larue, Co. B, 9th Mich. Cav.
Benjamin Jones, Co. B, 7th Mich. Cav.
B. F. Jones.
Wm. Johnson, Co. B, 7th Mich. Cav.
H. G. House.
James E. Murray.
Seth P. Sheldon, Co. I, 14th Vt. Inft.
Alex Turner, Co. A, 1st Mich. Inft.
George Spicer, Co. K, 18th Mich. Inft.
David Pittman.

Deceased Comrades of Co. C.

Lavern L. Spafford.	Jno. Cummins.
Jno. McKinney,	Geo. McCowen,
Lafe Rowland.	Chas. J. Brewer,
Adj. Wells Merritt,	Will Moir.
James Moir,	W. D. Robbins,
Eugene C. Lewis,	Edward Rowland.
Finley P. Deuel,	Webster Frazier.
Capt. Dudley Sholes.	David Sloan.

George Train.

Drowned in the Raisin.

Blissfield, May 29—Jacob Moore, aged 65 years, and an old resident, left the village for his home a mile up the East River road, about 8 o'clock Saturday evening. He did not get home and his wife started for town Sunday morning to find him. On the river bank about fifty rods from the house she found his hat. She gave the alarm, the river was dragged, and the body found about twelve feet from the shore. The remains were taken to his home. He had evidently waded into the river, as the path is on the bank, which is quite steep at that point, and the fence is down in places. He was in the habit of getting intoxicated, and may have been at this time. The jury rendered a verdict of accidental drowning. Funeral Tuesday.—Adrian Times.

OBITUARY.

Atlas H. Chaplin was born at Hagerstown, Md., Sept. 20, 1806. His father was a large land-holder and slave owner. When Atlas was ten years old his father purchased several hundred acres of land near Steubenville, Ohio, in what was then considered the far west, where the family removed and a part of which is still held by descendants. Here he received a good education and afterwards learned the trade of ship carpenter, which he followed for several years. In the fall of 1836 he came to Tecumseh, which was then a hustling frontier village, and began the business of wagon making, which he conducted for many years. In 1862 he patented the first horse hay rake, engaging extensively in their manufacture, and for some years this business was large and remunerative.

The deceased was an omnivorous reader and possessed a wonderful memory, and thus kept himself thoroughly posted on current history and politics. He could recall most of the important events in his country's history, from memory only, even to giving the exact date of their occurrence. His mental faculties remained strong and unimpaired up to within a few days of his death, when his mind wandered at times, though he still knew and recognized those about him.

He was a hard-working and very active man, and of temperate habits. Business reverses clouded the later years of his life but his courage and hopefulness kept him from yielding to many of the infirmities of age. One noticeable trait of his character was his cheerfulness. Whatever personal or business troubles annoyed him he rarely spoke of them to others and always preserved a cheerful exterior. He cast his first vote for Andrew Jackson for his first term, in 1828. During war times he became a Republican, but after the settlement of the slavery question he drifted away from that party and of late years has been independent in politics.

Undue exposure during the cold, damp weather of April brought on a severe cold which settled on his lungs and caused him much suffering until relieved by death on Monday, the 23d ult., at 12 o'clock noon.

The funeral services were held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Church, on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. Phelps, Rector of St. Peter's Church, and were well attended by many old neighbors and residents of the village. Five children survive him: Mrs. A. F. Church, Mrs. Artemas Rice and his son George, of Tecumseh; Mrs. O. H. Seaman, of Big Rapids, Mich., and Moreland Chaplin, of Cleveland, O.

Wm. Wright was born near the City of York, in Yorkshire, England, Dec. 31, 1814. He was a son of John Wright, who died at the age of 85 years, leaving three sons and two daughters.

The deceased was 77 years, 4 months and 23 days old at the time of his death. He was married Nov. 6th, 1841, to Elizabeth Nettleton, of Yorkshire, who survives him.

In the spring of 1848, forty-four years ago, husband and wife bade farewell to home and friends and came to America, and directly to Michigan. After a few years' residence near Tecumseh they settled upon a farm in the township of Milan, Monroe Co., and which is now occupied by their sons, Joseph and Frederick.

There were born to them six children, three sons and three daughters. William, the eldest, is a resident of Sykeston, North Dakota. One of the daughters resides in Tecumseh, one in Franklin, and one in Milan.

The deceased had resided in the village of Ridgeway for two and a half years. He was always ready at a moment's notice to serve his brother man, being diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord. The universal sentiment is that "a good man hath died." He was an earnest Christian for many years and a member of the Free Methodist Church.

O, friends of mortal years!
The trusted and the true,
Ye are watching still in the valley of tears,
But I wait to welcome you.

Do I forget? Oh no!
For memory's golden chain
Shall bind my heart to the hearts below,
Till they meet to touch again.

Each link is strong and bright,
And love's electric flame
Flows freely down, like a river of light,
To the world from whence I came.

Do you mourn when another star
Shines out from the glittering sky?
Do you weep when the raging voice of war
And the storms of conflict die?

Then why should your tears run down,
And your hearts be sorely riven?
For another gem is in the Savior's crown
And another soul is in Heaven.

I shine in the light of God,—
His likeness stamps my brow;
Through the valley of death my feet have trod,
And I reign in glory now.

No breaking heart is here,—
No keen and thrilling pain;
No wasted cheek where the frequent tear,
Hath rolled and left its stain.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. J. J. Orr, druggist.

"He who takes a wife takes care" was one of Franklin's maxims, but sometimes if he took more care he might get a better wife.

Very Much Surprised.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle.

Signed, A. B. Snell.

Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1811.

For sale by Jno. Orr.

Unsophisticated Parent: Hello there, nurse, what's the baby yelling that way for? I can't read at all. Nurse: He's cutting his teeth, sir. U. P. Well see that he doesn't do it any more or you lose your place.

WEDDING BELLS.

Last evening at the residence of the bride's father, Albert Hyde, Jr., occurred a happy social event by which Miss Mae Hyde became Mrs. Albert A. Blood. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. F. Adkins in his usual pleasing manner, after which congratulations were tendered the bridal pair and a wedding supper followed. The guests in attendance were confined to family relations only, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy C. Blood of Lansing and Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Jonesville being present. The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable presents, which evinced the high regard in which they are held by their acquaintances. Both have always lived in Tecumseh, both have been favorites in our younger circles of society and both have chosen their life's companion wisely and well. It was a quiet home-like wedding and a most appropriate match. Their bridal trip was a journey from the father's house to a neat home on Union street all furnished for their reception, where they began the realities of married life at once. A reception will be given to-morrow evening to the newly married pair and their friends at the residence of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Blood. The best wishes of their friends will go with them on their matrimonial journey.

SCHOOL SKETCHES.

Algebra I. has begun the final review of the year's work.

Miss Clara Farley visited the A room during chapel last Wednesday morning.

Miss Allie Temple is absent from school this week, visiting friends in Lansing.

Latin II. have read Book I. of Cæsar in review and intend to read the second book in seven days.

A large number of the high school pupils were absent last Wednesday afternoon attending the funeral of Miss Eva Rector.

The pupils from the primary and grammar grades did their parts well on Memorial day. About one hundred assisted in the exercises.

A New Line to the Northwest.

Commencing Monday, May 23d, the elegant steamer "City of Marquette" will make regular trips between Frankfort and Kewaunee, Wis., in connection with trains of the Toledo, AnnArbor & North Michigan R'y. Through Express leaving Toledo at 5:45 a. m. daily except Sunday, arrives at Frankfort 5.55 p. m., connecting with "Steamer "City of Marquette," leaving Frankfort 7:00 p. m., arriving at Kewaunee 1:30 a. m.

Holders of first-class tickets are furnished sleeping berths on Steamer free of extra charge and will be permitted to retain berths until morning.

First train leaves Kewaunee 8:55 a. m. for Green Bay, Winona, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis and all points in the West and North West.

W. H. Bennett, G. P. A.

Toledo, Ohio.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

Royal Baking Powder Co., 106 Wall St. N. Y.

AN OPPORTUNITY

IS NOW GIVEN

Children and Persons of Small Means

In Tecumseh and Vicinity

To avail themselves of the advantages of the

NICKEL SAVINGS STAMP SYSTEM

recently introduced by the

Lenawee County Savings Bank

AT ADRIAN.

An Agency has been established with C. A. WRIGHT & CO, the Druggists, who will furnish upon application, Books descriptive of the system

SUMMER HATS

STRAW HATS,
SOFT HATS,
STIFF HATS.

For Men and Boys—All Styles and Qualities.

Hot Weather Clothing An Endless Variety of Styles and Qualities.

Cassimere Suits in All the Latest Styles and Colors for Men, Boys, and Children.

The Largest Line and Lowest Prices at

STRONG & McNAIR'S.

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS

I will sell your choice of my extensive line of

Hanging Lamps

at cost. I can show you the best assortment of

HAVILAND CHINA,

plain and decorated patterns, in dinner and tea sets, also in fancy pieces. Decorated English porcelain in 12 different patterns, and in sets to suit. A fine English decorated chamber set at the very low price of $2.90 for 10 piece set; $4.90 for 12 piece set.

My stock of Fancy Groceries is complete. Our customers say we have the best 50c tea in town. Come and get sample and see for yourself. Will not be undersold.

JAMES LOWRY.

We have never had such a fine array of harvest machines to show farmers as this season. Every one shows inventive skill, strength and symmetry derived from the touch of

WALTER A. WOOD.

The Wood machines, as made for 1892, are winning crowds of new friends. Examine the new chain-drive, and balance-reel, on the Wood harvester. Examine the new spring lift and the new axle extension on the Wood mowers. Examine the Wood hand-dump rakes, virtually self-dumping.

REASONS WHY

FARMERS SHOULD BUY

Walter A. Wood Harvest Machines

BECAUSE they are light of draft.
BECAUSE they are easily operated.
BECAUSE they are simple in construction.
BECAUSE they are THE WALTER A. WOOD.
BECAUSE they have a world-wide reputation.
BECAUSE with care they will last a life time.
BECAUSE great care is taken in their manufacture.
BECAUSE they do not require the aid of an expert.
BECAUSE they contain all the latest improvements.
BECAUSE they can be operated by man, woman or child.
BECAUSE they are made of the best and strongest materials.

M. E. CONKLIN, Agent.

Headquarters at D. L. Whitenack's Hardware.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ST.—In Tecumseh Cemetery, on last decoration day, a pair of spectacles. If any one having found them, will please return to C. A. Burton's office, they shall be liberally rewarded.
E. TINDALL.
tf

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—My wife, Tamer Pocklington, having left my bed and board without cause or provocation, all persons are hereby forbidden to harbor her, or to furnish her with any goods of any kind on my credit. 2w GEO. J. POCKLINGTON.

HAIRDRESSING. Madame Griffin, hairdresser, of Detroit, is at Mrs. Gamble's.—Switches and hair goods for sale all styles of hair dressing. Prices very reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. 1w

WANTED a few old umbrellas and parasols.
F. J. WELLING.

WANTED.—If there is any attorney, real estate or insurance agent in this town who would like the agency for a thoroughly reliable loan association that guarantees prompt action, write to F. H. Chase, Supt., Geneva, N. Y. Advances furnished from Mich. borrowers.

ATTENTION FARMERS.—Before buying a mower see the Johnston, the best mower in the market. For sale by GEO. HOLLOWAY.
Holloway.

FOR SALE.—To make room for another importation we will sell for the next 30 days, 50 Shropshire ewes; eight head milch cows (coming in soon); also five head good horses. For particulars enquire of GRAY & TALLMAN.
Tecumseh, May 19, 1892. 4w

FOR SALE.—12 horse power Engine and Boiler for sale cheap if taken at once. Parties can see engine running at Heesen Bros. & Co's shop.
HEESEN BROS. & CO.

TAKE NOTICE.—My wife, Mary C. Youngs, having left my bed and board without just cause, I shall refuse to pay any bills of her contracting after this date. LORENZO YOUNGS.

TEACHERS AND STUDENTS.—Free—Trip to Chicago and return. Write to Western Michigan College, Grand Rapids, for information.

FOR SALE.—In the village of Tecumseh, five acres of land. Buildings in fair condition. One of the finest small fruit locations in the village. Address M. C. BRAINARD, Tecumseh.

MUSTANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, tf Tecumseh.

UPHOLSTERING and cane chair reseating done at my shop in the rear of the band room on Railroad street. FRANK R. PAGE.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—The old M. E. parsonage house on Pearl street. A good house and very fine location. For price and terms of payment call at the premises.
24 S. WHITTIER.

FOR SALE OR RENT:—A brick house with two or six of land on Adrian road, south of Quaker meeting house, good bargain to parties. Inquire at J. S. Kinney's furniture store, Tecumseh.

FOR SALE OR RENT—My place of fifteen acres, located in Brownville on Burch street. Sell on long time and very easy payments. For particulars enquire of James Kingan, near the premises.
17 8t GILES TURNER.

TECUMSEH HERALD.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JUNE 2, 1892.

Local and Miscellaneous

Summer has come at last.

Circuit Court is in session this week at Adrian.

Pike's circus held forth in Tecumseh last Saturday.

The Mercury reached 86 degrees Tuesday afternoon.

James Updike is putting up a new barn on his village lot.

Mr. Jewett and wife, of Adrian, were guests of Dr. O. Q. Jones last Sunday.

Clement C. Bidwell is still in Tecumseh and will probably prolong his visit several days yet.

Will Bennett has been giving his livery barn a new coat of paint. The corner is looking up.

H. Tansley and wife went to Battle Creek last week to attend the wedding of his brother John.

Mrs. L. M. Kellogg and Mrs. M. P. Dunn were delegates to the W. C. T. U. convention at Detroit, last week.

Seymor Anderson was home from Ann Arbor, the first of the week. He came on his wheel last Saturday, returning Tuesday.

Leroy C. Blood and wife, of Lansing, are in town this week, having come down to attend the Blood-Hyde wedding. They will remain through the week.

Henry Lancaster has been making some improvements on his hotel in Clinton, and the old house looks like a new one. He is having a good run of custom now.

Beck's Mill is turning out some extra fine flour, since their new rollers were put in. The mill has a fine run of custom work now and is kept grinding every day in the week.

The Young People of East Macon, will give another social in the Reformed church on Thursday evening, June 16th, for the benefit of their Sabbath school. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Macon Soldiers' Monument, which was dedicated on decoration day was a handiwork of Marsteller of Clinton. It is a beauty and was sold at a very low figure for a monument of that size and quality.

Work is progressing between showers on the new planing mill of Temple, Moore & Co. The brick are nearly all in the ground for the engine house, and the frame of the main building will soon be erected.

C. R. Smith, of Clinton, is rebuilding the old John Smith homestead for a family residence. It will be an elegant home when finished. Ed. Semark is doing the job, which is a guarantee that it will be well done.

Rev. P. Coddington and wife, Jas. Heck and wife, Rev. F. E. Arnold, Rev. F. Jones, Mrs. Finch and Miss Ellen Fisher were the delegates from the Tecumseh Baptist church to the Lenawee Baptist Association held at Rollin on Tuesday.

Anderson & Co., have a new card this week.

O. P. Bills was a visitor at Detroit Saturday.

John G. Mason, of Adrian, was in town Saturday.

F. J. Landgraf, of Toledo, was on our streets Monday.

Will McClenahan and wife spent Sunday in Blissfield.

Lottie Herning, of Jackson, spent Sunday at Asa Howe's.

Landlord Emery and wife, of Adrian, were in the village Tuesday.

Lamott Lovett, of Oak Park, Ill., is visiting at DeWitt Tallman's.

James Heck and wife are visiting their son Oscar in Rome, this week.

Albert Hayden and wife, of Milan, attended the concert Thursday evening.

Clarence Conkling is home this week from Cleary's business college of Ypsilanti.

See the new Wash Fabrics in Llama Cloths, Surah Twills and India Muslins, at ANDERSON & Co's.

Emmons Sherd, of Leslie, and Wm. Sherd and wife, of Ionia, are visiting at their sister's, Mrs. D. D. Marshall's.

The remains of Mrs. Jesse Potter, formerly of Rhynlander, Wis., were brought to Ridgeway for burial Tuesday.

Mrs. Hulda Howe and grand-daughter, Georgie, left this week for Brownsville, N. Y., where she will spend the summer.

Now is the time to invest in a summer hat. For the best information on that subject, see Strong & McNair's new card.

John Cook and W. S. Morse are doing the mason work on the new school house in the Hurry district, town of Franklin.

Mrs. E. E. Russell, of Jackson, and C. A. Blackmar and wife, of Cambridge, were in town this week to attend the Blood-Hyde wedding.

J. H. Bramble has been putting extensive improvements on his house and painting it over. It greatly enhances the beauty of west Chicago street.

Among the delegates present at the sessions of the W. F. M. S. is Mrs. A. J. Bigelow, of Flint, who has taken this chance to visit her Tecumseh friends and acquaintances.

L. D. Dewey is in the market buying wool. The price paid ranges from 14 to 22 cents, these extremes covering both washed and unwashed. The market opens slowly.

There will be a union meeting of the Young Peoples' Societies of the churches, held in the Baptist church, Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

Will Hall and wife, of Covington, Ky., were visiting relatives and friends in town this week. Will returned to his business Monday, while Mrs. Hall will remain some time with her mother here.

Grace Heck very pleasantly entertained about twenty of her friends at her home on Monday evening. The young ladies remembered it was Leap Year, which added much to the eclat of the occasion.

How to do without "Godey's Lady's Book," is a question the fair sex cannot decide. If they want to be well and fashionably attired, they should consult the fashions in the June number just out.

There will be a meeting of the officers of the Farmers' picnic association, at the HERALD office, Friday evening, June 3, at 7:30 o'clock, to complete the program and hear the report of committees. A full attendance is desired.

The Ridgeway Rambles contained two errors last week, one in the proof-reading and one in the make-up, which caused some criticism at the expense of the correspondent. We cheerfully absolve the correspondent from all blame in the matter.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its June meeting next Sabbath afternoon, at 2:30 in the lecture room of the church. The meeting will be addressed by Linna Schenck, returned missionary from Bulgaria. All ladies are invited.

Puck's front-page cartoon of June 1st, shows the Republican party "shooing" her chickens into the coop of the Minneapolis Convention, over which Mr. Harrison has placed his celebrated hat. The larger part of the brood seem disposed to seek shelter elsewhere.

The large auditorium of the Presbyterian church was crowded last Sunday evening with spectators, who were present to listen to the memorial services. The G. A. R. Post, Co. C, and the W. R. C. attended in a body. Rev. O. J. Perrin delivered an able discourse and he was assisted by Revs. Babbitt, Arnold and Lewis. The music by the Presbyterian choir was superb and the entire services deeply interesting.

Good Music Cheap—The only O. F. March ever Published. "Odd Fellows' Grand March," "Air Ship Waltz," "Oklahoma Waltz" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul" Quartette (with soprano, tenor and alto solos) are beautiful compositions of Isaac Doles. Regular price 40 cents each. By way of introduction Mr. Doles will mail them to any address for 10 cents each, the four for 35 cents on receipt of this notice and stamps. Address, Isaac Doles, Publisher, Indianapolis, Ind., corner 23d and Illinois streets.

The regular monthly meetings of the various Masonic lodges occur this week.

Miss Edith Woodward is spending a few weeks with friends in Detroit and Kentucky.

Miss Florence House, of Clinton, visited relatives in town from Saturday until Monday.

The old overshot wheel has been taken out of the Globe mill and a new Leffel turbine has taken its place. The new wheel will be used for grinding feed.

Remember the Farmer's Union Picnic at Sand Lake on Saturday, June 18th. More particlars and a full program next week.

On Monday afternoon Miss Siva Rector passed away after a long illness. The funeral was held at the Rector home yesterday at 3 p. m. Her demise is a terrible affliction to parents and friends. A more extended notice will appear hereafter.

A new time card went into force on the Mackinaw road Monday. A new Sunday train has been put on between Toledo and Addison. The remaining trains run as before except the morning passenger going west, which passes this station twenty minutes earlier.

Landlord Patterson seems to be equal to getting up a dinner for any amount of people either with or without notice. Last Sunday he fed the 34 wheelmen from Toledo and Adrian besides his regular borders on 15 minutes notice and wheelmen have an appetite too.

Percy Fitzsimmons accompanied the Toledo cycling party, which passed through here Sunday, to Ann Arbor and thence to Detroit. He says that only about one-third of the party made the trip through, the balance being knocked out by break-downs and physical inability to make the trip.

Geo. S. Tiffany has received an appointment which has honors, if not emoluments, attached to it. He has been appointed a member of the committee for Lenawee County to secure exhibits for the World's Fair, and been assigned to the machinery and transportation departments.

A party of 34 Toledo and Adrian wheelmen came through here last Sunday, enroute for Detroit via Ann Arbor. They halted here about two hours and took dinner at the Lilley House. Percy Fitzsimmons joined the party here and went to Detroit with them. Geo. Field, Henry McClure, Raynor Anderson, Will Wescott, and Fred McNair escorted the party a mile or two east and started them on their Ann Arbor trip.

So far in May, eight and seventeen one-hundredths inches of water has fallen, that means 817 tons per acre. The barometer is unusually low, which indicates more.—Clinton Local. There must be some mistake about this as over five thousand witnesses, who attended the great lot sale last week, will willingly swear. At least 817 tons of water per acre fell on the crowd that day and the highwater mark on their pantaloons, showed fully ten inches of rainfall at 5 p. m.—Adrian Press.

Tell me not in mournful numbers, advertising does not pay, for the man is non compos mentis who would such absurd things say. Life is real, life is earnest, and the man who hopes to rise, to succeed in any calling, must expect to advertise. In the world's broad field of battle, in the rush of real life, advertising is the secret of achievement in the strife. Lives of great men all remind us we can make our lives sublime, and by liberal advertising to the highest summit climb.

O. P. Bills and Joe Smith were in Toledo Monday, inspecting Mr. Bills' new steel steamer, the J. D. Ketcham, which has just been launched from the yards of the Craig Ship Building Co., of that city. The steamer, which is built entirely of steel, is probably the largest steel steamer on the lakes and is something new in that line. She will be ready for sailing orders early in July, and will be used in the lumber carrying trade, for which she is specially designed, having a capacity of 1,500,000 feet. We congratulate Mr. Bills and Tecumseh on this new acquisition to the shipping interests controlled here.

The Pastor of the Presbyterian Church invites all the members of his congregation, young and old, to be present next Sabbath Morning at the 10th, anniversary of his pastorate. The discourse will pertain to matters of mutual interest between Pastor and people and the exercises will be appropriate to such an occasion. At the evening service at 7:30, the Historical discourse will be given which was delivered at the laying of the corner stone of the present edifice in July 1866, by S. E. Wishard D. D. then Pastor of the church. It contains items of interest in regard to the early settlement and after progress of Tecumseh.

The final entertainment of the Tecumseh Entertainment Course last Thursday evening was a complimentary concert and was one of the best of the entire course. It was given by the Detroit Philharmonic Club. The four male members of the club are musicians of superior culture and merit and furnish superb orchestral music. The vocal selections by Mrs. Johnstone-Bishop were beyond all praise. She possesses a voice of rich melody and great compass. Every number was greeted with a hearty encore and the audience were loath to have the program come to a close. The concert was a fitting finale to the best entertainment course that Tecumseh has ever been favored with.

Mr. Thos. Ewart, wife and daughter Bertha, of Marietta Ohio, are the guests of Rev. F. Adkins and family this week. Mr. Ewart is an attorney at law and a brother to Mrs. Adkins.

The third annual meeting of the Detroit Conference Woman's Foreign Missionary Society began its sessions at the M. E. Church on Tuesday evening. An interesting program was presented on that evening to a good audience. Notwithstanding the threatening weather, the sessions yesterday were well attended, most of the time being devoted to the routine business of the Society. The evening session was broken into by the storm, but a good program was presented. The business sessions continue this afternoon and evening. The public meeting this evening ought to draw a full house, as addresses will be given by Miss Lenna Schenck of Bulgaria and Dr. Breeds of South America. A full report of the proceedings is necessarily deferred till next week.

—Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention.
GEO. MATTESON

—You will make no mistake in using Heck's Peacemaker Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands.
HECK & SON.

—Bargains in 2nd. hand Carriages:
Open Buggy, $10.00.
Top Carriages $15.00 to $35.00.
Canopy Top Surry $25,00.
Call and see them.
C. A. SLAYTON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call at C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—90,000 Star-A-1, shingle for sale at $3.25 per M.
O. P. BILLS.

—I have a fine assortment of Carriages, Surreys, Road Wagons, Carts, Harness, Nets, Dusters, Whips and other horse goods which I would be glad to show you and am able to offer you bargains in this line.
C. A. SLAYTON.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch. Give me a call.
GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds.
CITY BAKERY.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains. NEW LAUNDRY.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices.
CITY BAKERY

—I want the farmers to remember I am still in the Mower and Binder trade and still have the agency for the "McCormick" line. The number of Machines sold is a good indication of how the farmers like them. In 1891 the McCormick Co. sold 121,780 machines. Come in and see the machines for yourself.
C. A. SLAYTON.

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice.
WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town. CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial.
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at
HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

That tired feeling now so often heard of, is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives mental and bodily strength.

'92 SPRING! '92

In looking for the latest things in
DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, BOOTS, SHOES, SLIPPERS, HATS, CAPS, LADIES' AND GENTS' FURNISHINGS, call on
HARRIS & HITESHU.

We have the largest and most complete line of BOOTS, SHOES, WALKING SHOES AND SLIPPERS in Tecumseh. New goods in all departments.
PRICES AS LOW AS THE LOWEST.

Call and see us before you buy. No trouble to show goods.
Thanking yon for past patronage and wishing for a continuance of the same, we are
Yours respectfully,
HARRIS & HITESHU.

Do You Think of Painting This Season?

We Can Show You The Most Handsome And Best Paints Made.

Call and get Prices and Sample Card of Colors.
C. A. Wright.

Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.

Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.

Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.

Satterthwaite Bros.

MEN'S FINE SUITS,
YOUTHS' FINE SUITS,
BOYS' FINE SUITS,
MEN'S WORK SHIRTS,
MEN'S WORK PANTS

An immense Spring Stock now on hand at the East End double store.

Everything in the
BOOT & SHOE LINE,
Yours for trade
ALVA SPAYDE.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WIGHTMAN, Attorney at Law Successor to F. B. Wood, Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD. ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Fred'k B. Wood, John E. Bird,
Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLEMENT E. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.

WEAVER & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Practice in all the Courts.
Masonic Temple. ADRIAN, MICH.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—Being now located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to calls in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. G. W. GOODRICH, V. S.

C. C. SLAIGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON, A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College, Residence, 1½ miles east of Pennington's Corners. All calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY.
J. H. EMERY, Proprietor,
Adrian, Michigan.
This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

RICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL.
Late The Madison.
Cor. of Jefferson Avenue and Randolph street.
Detroit, Mich.
J. D. RICE, Prop. R. C. SPRAGUE, Clerk.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Three lines of street cars pass the door.
RATES—Meals 25c. Per day, $1.25 and $1.50
Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 141 O. O. F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. E. Anderson's store, Chicago street. WM. GRAY, N. G.
R. HOLDWAY, Cor. Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV. J. DEHAAN, Pastor.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching in the forenoon at 10:30; Sunday School at 12 o'clock; Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome.
Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Young People's Meeting. Come one, come all and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—

Special attention given to ladies' and childrens' hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.

—THREE CHAIRS—

Landgraf building, Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN
HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN
PAINTING
AND PAPER HANGING
Call on THEO. P WOOD, 77 E. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first-class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of
Railroad Street Meat Market!
Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.
GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN
Drugs, : Paints : Oils
AND VARNISHES.
N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded.
At the Old Corner Store, RIDGEWAY, IGAN. nov5

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY
MANUFACTURER OF
And Dealer in
Carriages, Buggies,
SURRIES, SPRING WAGONS,
ROADCARTS
SULKIES, CUTTERS, ETC.
Pearl Street,
TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER,

SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.

LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth. Crowns, Filling and Building-Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

B. F STEINHOFF'S
Dental Rooms.

OVER BAKER & HALL'S.

GAS FOR EXTRACTING.
LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co.'s Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.

EXAMINATION FREE!
Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.
Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.
Remember, office over Avery & Co.'s.
W. D. REED, D. D. S.
Will be at Ousted every Wednesday.

Out of Date

—washing and cleaning with soap and scrubbing. There was to much work in doing it—too much wear and tear when it was done. The birth of Pearline was the beginning of better things. It has lived long enough to prove that it can do no harm; it only needs a trial to prove that it is good.

Beware of imitations, which are being peddled from door to door. First quality goods do not require such desperate methods to sell them. PEARLINE sells on its merits, and is manufactured only by
JAMES PYLE, New York.

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN, OR WOMAN,

of intelligence and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight, but who has Lost the Most Precious Possession on Earth, viz., GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT require a SECOND TELLING to be induced to become a purchaser

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC BELTS & APPLIANCES.

Do you know why? Because it is plain to be seen that the TRUTH ONCE TOLD is enough. The Surprising Promptness with which all classes of people respond to our announcements, and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods wherever introduced, conclusively prove that true modesty is always recognized and the quality of merit takes care of itself. Emphatically our statement is the Button—the Public Press it, and

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES
"Do the Rest."

The extent of Pressure on the button and the success of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" is most satisfactorily shown in the marvelous growth of our business the past 60 days.

Repeated and increasing demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming in from all parts of the country with profuse acknowledgements that so much comfort for $1.00 the price is like buying Gold Dollars for ten cents.

The Delicate Organism of Woman subjects her to many peculiar ailments and unfortunate misery. The extreme sensitiveness of her Nervous System very frequently requires artificial stimulus. The Gregg Electric Belt and other Appliances supply this as nothing else can.

The Rugged Constitution of Man, when once broken, becomes pitiable in the extreme, from which there is absolutely no escape without assistance. The Gregg Electric Belts and Appliances in cases of this kind, have honestly won their title of King of Remedies.

Rheumatism is conquered, sufferers from Obesity are speedily relieved, Dropsy quickly yields, spinal difficulties and Paralysis disappear, and many other diseases of Men and Women are permanently cured, fully described in complete catalogue for 6c, or elaborate circular free. We guarantee to forfeit twice the price of any of Dr. Gregg's goods found not to be genuine. We make an elegant little $3 Electric Belt, which is selling very rapidly and which we take in exchange for any higher power belt (except $5 belt) and credit $3 on the price of new order. Remember the Electric Foot warmers are $1 a pair, worth $10. Address

THE GREGG ELECTRIC CURE CO,
501 Inter-Ocean Building, Chicago, Ill.
and mention this paper. J 14-tf.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS
IS A
HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY
AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS
ONE OF OUR NEW
SEAMSTRESS
SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS
National Sewing Machine Co.
SUCCESSORS TO
JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.
Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

FAT FOLKS REDUCED
Mrs. L. M. Campbell
Argyle, Wis., says:
The accompanying statement of my weight and measurements will show the results of five months' treatment.

	Before.	After.	Loss.
Weight	330 lbs	255 lbs	75 lbs
Bust....	43 in.	33 in.	10 in.
Waist..	42 in.	31 in.	11 in.
Hips....	53 in.	40 in.	13 in.

PATIENTS TREATED BY MAIL. CONFIDENTIAL.
Harmless, and with no starving, inconvenience, or bad effects.
For particulars address, with 4 cents in stamps,
DR. G. W. F. SNYDER, McVICKER'S THEATER, CHICAGO ILL.

WIND'S WICKED WORK.

Scores Killed During a Cyclone at Wellington, Kan.

Many Persons Injured—A Big Section of the Business Portion of the Town Wrecked and Numerous Private Residences Destroyed.

A TERRIBLE BLOW.

WELLINGTON, Kan., May 28.—This city had a visitation Friday night from a funnel-shaped cloud which plowed its devastating track through the business part of the town, with immense destruction of property and heavy loss of life. A storm of wind preceded the cyclone about half an hour. A few minutes after 9 o'clock the cyclone struck the city, coming from the southwest. There were no premonitory signs. Everybody was indoors, and the cloud passed with its destructive rush and awful roar unseen. Jefferson avenue, the principal business street, is lined on both sides for blocks with ruins.

As fast as the injured are found they are being conveyed to the grand army hall, which serves as a hospital, and their number is now increased to sixty-three. The number of the dead is now reported as being fifty. All of the finest buildings are in ruins, and every newspaper office in the city is a wreck. It is now estimated that the number of buildings destroyed exceeds 300 and the majority of them are business blocks.

The property loss cannot be less than $500,000. Those known to be dead are: Leonard Adamson, Mrs. William Asher, Frank D. Campbell, Michael Fanning, laborer; Walter Forsythe, Lieut. William French, of the Salvation Army; James E. Hastie, Ida Jones, dining-room girl at the Phillips house; —— McAdams, X. Silva, —— Sims, cadet, Salvation Army; Mrs. Susan Slasher, burned; Kittie Strahn, unknown man, supposed to be commercial traveler

The injured whose names were learned are: Guy Colby, Edward Forsythe, Mattie Hodges, Carrie Mitchell, Mrs. Murphy, Charles Stone, Richard Weaver, James Lawrence, candidate for attorney general.

Among the missing are: Prof. Mayer, Bert Upson.

A ball was in progress at the Phillips hotel, and the guests were nearly all there when the storm broke. Seven bodies, all unidentified at 11 o'clock, had been taken from the ruins. At midnight another body was taken from the Phillips house so badly crushed that it has not yet been identified. It is supposed to be that of a commercial traveler who was a guest at the house. It is reported that there are three more persons buried in the ruins of Conrad's restaurant, and men are now at work there and at the ruins of the Phillips house, where the mangled body of Ida Jones, a dining-room girl, was found and identified.

It is impossible to obtain reports from the surrounding country. The storm went in a northeasterly direction, and it is feared that it wrought additional damage in its course. The devastation in the country is frightful. What damage was done by the storm before it struck Wellington cannot be learned, for the whirling wind carried down every telegraph wire leading out of the city but one.

To add to the horror, fire broke out in the debris of Cole Robinson's block and Mrs. Susan Slasher was burned to death in that house. A solid block of brick buildings containing half a dozen stores and the Monitor office is in a heap of mortar. Michael Fanning, a laborer, was killed there.

The streets are littered with tin roofing, cloth awnings and broken timbers. The destruction is awful, and every minute adds to the horror of the situation. The Press, Voice, Standard and Mail offices are wrecked. The opera house and dozens of the best business buildings are useless. Fine school buildings and churches are ruined. The cyclone did not do much damage until it reached the center of the town. On Jefferson avenue it destroyed the Lutheran church, but only unroofed the residences. Its most furious work was done within the compass of four squares bounded by Jefferson avenue, Avenue C, and Seventh and Ninth streets. Every building in these two squares was demolished and wrecked. The residences in that locality are not numerous, otherwise the loss of life would have been much greater that it now appears to be. The Phillips house was well filled with guests. The Wellington foundry was demolished and Mrs. William Asher and her sister, Kittie Strahn, who happened to be passing there at the time, were buried in its ruins and killed. Their bodies have been recovered.

At the residence of 'Squire Smith the scene was simply terrible. From all that remains of the premises it would seem that the storm devoted special fury to this spot. But little else than the lot remains and the point of the funnel scooped great holes in the sandy soil. There were seven people at this house and not one of them escaped terrible injuries. Their names may at any moment be added to the already extensive list of the dead.

The scene at the temporary hospital was one such as is rarely witnessed except upon a battlefield. The floor was saturated with blood which gushed from the many wounds of the many persons who were taken there as soon as they could be extricated from the wrecked buildings. There was little effort at order. Everyone was too excited for that. The injured were carried in and placed in the first vacant place that could be found upon the floor. Then the rescuers hurried away to renew their efforts in behalf of those still in the ruins. All the physicians in town hastened to the spot, but there were not enough to attend to all the calls upon them.

Wellington is the county seat of Sumner county, Kan. It has a population of 10,000. Thrifty and enterprising, it is located in the center of a thickly poulated agricultural district, and it is the most prominent town in southern Kansas.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

THE STATE TAX.

The Amount Apportioned to the Counties by the Auditor General.

Auditor General Stone has determined the amount of the state tax for 1892 from the appropriations made by the last legislature. Below is given the apportionment among the eighty-five counties:

Alcona	$1,883 20	Lapeer	17,583 03
Alger	3,139 83	Leelanaw	1,569 91
Allegan	20,094 89	Lenawee	37,677 92
Alpena	7,365 56	Livingston	20,094 89
Antrim	3,767 79	Luce	2,511 86
Arenac	1,569 91	Mackinac	2,511 86
Baraga	2,511 86	Macomb	23,238 76
Barry	18,838 96	Manistee	11,303 38
Bay	33,910 13	Manitou	125 59
Benzie	2,511 86	Marquette	28,302 56
Berrien	22,630 70	Mason	5,651 09
Branch	20,118 81	Mecosta	6,279 88
Calhoun	37,677 92	Menominee	9,184 99
Cass	20,094 89	Midland	2,511 86
Charlevoix	4,395 76	Missaukee	3,767 79
Cheboygan	5,023 72	Monroe	20,722 86
Chippewa	6,279 65	Montcalm	12,559 31
Clare	3,139 83	Montmorency	1,255 93
Clinton	23,862 78	Muskegon	16,527 10
Crawford	2,511 86	Newaygo	5,651 09
Delta	3,023 74	Oakland	27,178 55
Dickinson	7,575 21	Oceana	5,651 09
Eaton	25,118 61	Ogemaw	2,511 86
Emmet	3,767 79	Ontonagon	2,511 86
Genesee	31,398 27	Osceola	5,023 72
Gladwin	2,511 86	Oscoda	1,255 93
Gogebic	18,888 90	Otsego	3,139 83
Grd Traverse	5,651 09	Ottawa	18,838 96
Gratiot	12,559 1	Presque Isle	1,883 90
Hillsdale	27,680 47	Roscommon	1,883 90
Houghton	50,237 23	Saginaw	46,409 43
Huron	10,047 45	Sanilac	10,047 45
Ingham	26,374 54	Schoolcraft	4,395 76
Ionia	23,862 78	Shiawassee	21,350 81
Iosco	6,279 65	St. Clair	25,118 62
Iron	6,439 26	St. Joseph	25,118 61
Isabella	7,535 58	Tuscola	13,187 27
Isle Royal	125 59	Van Buren	13,838 96
Jackson	38,933 85	Washtenaw	28,853 85
Kalamazoo	33,910 13	Wayne	230,628 82
Kalkska	1,946 94	Wexford	5,023 72
Kent	62,796 53
Keweenaw	3,767 79	Total	$1,419,201 61
Lake	1,883 90

STATE FAIR RACES.

The State Agricultural Society Issues the Programme for Each Day.

The State Agricultural society announces the following programme of trotting and pacing races for the state fair, September 13 to 16 inclusive. All entries close Friday, September 2:

Tuesday—3:15 trot or pace, $250; 2:37 trot, $250.
Wednesday—2:40 pace, $250; 2:30 trot, $250.
Thursday—2:45 trot, $250; 2:20 pace, $250.
Friday—3:00 trot, $250; 2:20 trot, $250.

In each race the first horse has $125, the second, $60; the third, $40; the fourth, $25. Mile heats, best three in five, to harness. Entrance, 10 per cent. of purse. Five to enter, three to start.

Michigan Knights Templar.

The grand commander Knights Templar of Michigan held its thirty-sixth annual session at Jackson and elected the following officers:

Grand commander, Jefferson S. Conover, of Coldwater; deputy grand commander, Henry L. Ambrey; Sturgis grand generalissimo, Charles H. Pomeroy, Battle Creek; grand captain general, William E. Jewett, Adrian; grand prelate, Rev. F. A. Blades, Detroit; grand senior warden, E. D. Wheeler, Manistee; grand junior warden, Albert Stiles, Jackson; grand treasurer, H. Shaw Noble, Monroe; grand recorder, William P. Innes, Grand Rapids; grand standard bearer, F. M. Moore, Marquette; grand sword bearer, Robert B. McKnight, Saginaw; grand warder, Eugene P. Robinson, Albion; grand sentry, Alex McGregor, Detroit.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by sixty-two observers in different parts of the state for the week ended May 21 indicated that cerebro spinal meningitis, measles and cholera infantum increased, and inflammation of the brain, diphtheria, pneumonia, typhoid fever, cholera infantum and membranous croup decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at forty places, scarlet fever at forty-seven, typhoid fever at eleven and measles at fourteen places.

Killed Himself and Wife.

Gilbert Rosewell, of Charleston township, a farmer 65 years of age, killed his wife, aged 58, and shot himself. His wife had left him, but returned to notify him to leave the house, which she owned. He demanded that she live with him and on her refusal he beat her to death with a rolling-pin. Mrs. Rosewell had property valued at $1,500 which goes to her son, William Epley.

Woman's Missionary Union.

At the eleventh annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary union in Jackson the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. George M. Lane, Detroit; recording secretary, Mrs. S. L. Ballentine, Port Huron; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. H. Hatfield, Kalamazoo; secretary of young people's work, Mrs. A. S. Packard, Covert; secretary of bureau of information, Mrs. M. E. Mallory, Detroit; treasurer, Mrs. E. F. Grabill, Flint.

Short But Newsy Items.

F. Kruz, an old resident of Lenox, fell into his cistern and was drowned.

A Grand Rapids furniture company shipped a $125,000 outfit to furnish a Chicago hotel. It filled fifty cars.

Mrs. Benjamin Van Laden rescued her six children from a burning building at Iriquois but paid for it with her own life. She was fatally burned.

Muskegon is raising $200,000 for a bonus fund to secure new factories.

Edward P. Ferry, the once wealthy Michigan lumber man, is in a private asylum for the insane in California.

It is reported that more good improved farms have been sold to actual settlers in Isabella county this year than ever before, for prices ranging from $40 to $65 per acre.

Adam T. McCarey, one of the first locomotive engineers on the Lake Shore road, died at Coldwater aged 78 years. He had resided there nearly fifty years.

Mrs. Mary Trowbridge, an aged and respected resident of Kalamazoo since 1855, died suddenly from la grippe.

Two million wall-eyed pike have been planted in the Two Clam lakes.

William Fowles, a brakeman of West Bay City, was instantly killed in an accident at West Branch.

At the eighteenth annual convention in Hillsdale of the State Firemen's association W. P. Perry, of Hillsdale, was elected chief.

A new state bank with a capital stock of $200,000 has been organized at Grand Rapids.

Dr. C. J. Lundy, one of the best-known specialist physicians in Detroit, died at his residence in that city. He was president of the State Medical society.

The fair association at Hillsdale will give $100 to the owner of the three best cabbages on exhibition, and $50 to the second best. It also offers $40 to the owner of the best display of apples.

GET THE REST

Is a good motto to follow in buying a medicine as well as everything else! By the universal satisfaction it has given, and by the many remarkable cures it has accomplished Dr. Fay's New Treatment for Consumption has proven itself unequalled for Consumption and all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest. Do not experiment with any unheard of or untried article which you are told is "as good as Dr Fay's," for its equal does not exist, but be sure to get only Dr. Fay's New Treatment for Consumption. Sold by all druggists, 50c., $1.00 and $3.00 Prepared only by Dr. O J Fay & Co, Chemists, Carleton, Mich.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $18 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by traveling between Detroit and Cleveland, via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $2 25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making SURE connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for Illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. Schantz, G. P. A. Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

ESTATE OF ELMIRA McCOLLUM.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Monday the 9th day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Elmira McCollum, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Charles Burridge, administrator, upon the estate of said deceased, alleging that the funeral expenses and debts of said deceased and the expenses of administration thus far incurred, have been fully paid, and that he is now ready to close said estate and to render his final administration account, and praying that said account may be allowed, and that the residue of said estate may be assigned and distributed to the persons by law entitled thereto; that he may be discharged and his bond canceled, and for such other order and decree as to this Court shall seem proper.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 6th day of June, next, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)
RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register. M 12

CHANCERY NOTICE.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee. In chancery.

Lucius V. Judson,
Complainant,
vs.
Leonard C Ilton,
Malinda M. Carlton,
Cass Miller,
M. May Miller,
Defendants.

Suit pending in the Circuit Court, County of Lenawee, in chancery, at the Court House in the City of Adrian, on the 19th day of April, A. D. 1892.

It satisfactorily appearing to this court, by affidavit on file, that the defendant, Leonard Carlton, is not a resident of this State, but resides at Garden City, in Finney County, State of Kansas.

On motion of Wood & Bird, the complainant's solicitors, it is ordered that the said defendant, Leonard Carlton cause his appearance to be entered herein within four months from the date of this order, and in case of his appearance that he cause his answer to the complainant's bill of complaint to be filed and a copy thereof to be served on said complainant's solicitors within twenty days after service on him of a copy of said bill and notice of this order; and in default thereof said bill shall be taken as confessed by said non resident defendant.

And it is further ordered that within twenty days after the date hereof the said complainant cause a notice of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in such County, and that such publication be continued therein at least once in each week for six weeks in succession, or that he cause a copy of this order to be served personally on said non-resident defendant at least twenty days before the above time prescribed for his appearance.

VICTOR H. LANE,
Circuit Judge.
WOOD & BIRD,
Solicitors for Complainant.

WOMEN WHO DIE EARLY.

Many of our most beautiful and accomplished ladies die before they have reached the prime of life. Of those who live to middle age only one in a hundred is sound: the other one hundred and ninety-nine are sufferers. Why is it? Self neglect. The shattered health can be restored; the home made happy and your life lengthened if you commence at once.

"Rose Buds" have been used for years in the private practice of one of the most eminent physicians and surgeons of the age, and the following diseases and distressing symptoms yield to them like magic: Ulceration, Congestion and Falling of the Womb, Ovarian Tumors, Dropsy of the Womb, Bearing Down Pains, Rupture at Childbirth and Miscarriages. One package of "Rose Buds" will make a new woman of you.

(Leucorrhea or Whites are positively cured by one application.) Price, $1 per package—one month's treatment—sent by mail post paid, securely packed. THE LEVERETTE SPECIFIC CO., 24 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

ELECTRIC BITTERS.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum and other affections caused by impure blood.—Will drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers.—For cure of headache, constipation and indigestion try Electric Bitters.—Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price 50c and $1.00 at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Say Mister
give me a plug of
JOLLY TAR PLUG
TOBACCO.
No MONKEYING

but give me the genuine JOLLY TAR PLUG
I've chewed it and when I find a good thing I hang on to it. JOLLY TAR
CAN'T be beat.

15 CENTS PER BOX, GUARANTEED.

HYA HEADACHE POWDERS

FOR SALE BY JOHN J. ORR.

THOS. S. SPRAGUE & SON, Attorneys and Solicitors of Patents, United States and foreign. Correspondence solicited. Instruction Pamphlet free. 27 WEST CONGRESS ST., DETROIT, Mich. Established 1865. PATENTS

FARMERS AND THRESHERMEN
Catalogue FREE.
All the Latest Improvements. Cushioned Gears. Steel Tire. Return flue-Boiler. ½ Fuel Saved. Traction, Plain or on Skids.

BUY THE NEW HUBER ENGINES.
ALL SIZES THRESHERS.
VICTOR HULLERS,
New Imperial Stackers.
G. C. POCKLINGTON,
Agent for southeastern Michigan.
State headquarters, R. Shettler, Lansing, Mich.

Gillett's

MAGIC YEAST

Quickest

Best

The ONLY YEAST making Bread which Prevents and Cures Dyspepsia

STRENGTH AND VIGOR FOR YOUTH AND OLD AGE

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S

STRENGTHENING CORDIAL AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

Antidote for Loss of Appetite, Loss of Flesh and Weakness; pleasant to the taste and a favorite tonic with the ladies. Price $1 per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. H. McLean Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo

THE CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN"

has attained a standard of excellence which admits of no superior. It contains every improvement that inventive genius, skill and money can produce.

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

These excellent Organs are celebrated for their volume, quality of tone, quick response, variety of combination, artistic design, beauty in finish, perfect construction, making them the most attractive, ornamental and desirable organs in the world for Homes, Schools, Churches, Lodges and Societies.

Catalogues on application, FREE.

Chicago Cottage Organ Co.

223 WABASH AVE.,

CHICAGO, ILL.

PILES A NEW PAINLESS CERTAIN CURE. GIVES INSTANT RELIEF AND LASTING CURE. NEVER RETURNS. TO PROVE IT and to convince you that it will promptly cure any case of Piles, External, Internal, Bleeding, Protruding or Itching, we will send a TRIAL PACKAGE FREE to any address. Send stamps to cover postage & address. THE PYRAMID DRUG CO., Box 49. ALBION, MICH. FREE

CURED

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are giving a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

TEACH SHORT-HAND. YOU DO THE REST

Thorough, complete, practical course by MAIL. Are now filling positions in all parts of the United States. Circulars free. Address, C. A. SHARP, STENOGRAPHER, ADRIAN, MICH.

A LOVE TEST.

Why Arthur Remained Steadfast in Adversity.

Arthur Ferris was tall, blonde, handsome, and twenty-eight. He was also the possessor of a long head, inherited from the maternal side of the house. He was likewise a dutiful son.

It was the two latter circumstances that had, on more than one occasion, saved him from making a triumphant ass of himself. Just fancy! If it had not been for his long head, it is more than likely that he would have fallen desperately in love with that bewitching governess of the Hastings, with whom he had spent several weeks in the mountains one summer five years ago. But he had given himself time to think, and had fled between two days, much to his later satisfaction.

Then there was that dear little Miss Dixon, whom he had met at the seaside. It had been a glorious evening—that last. They were sitting on the veranda, where they might see and yet be unseen. The soft, dreamy strains of a Strauss waltz floated out from the ball room. There was the pale, silver light of the moon, the murmuring ripple of the waves on the beach—and all that sort of thing, which you have read about so many times that you have learned to skip it in the novels.

Well! Elsie was going away—too, too soon. They had talked in sighs and murmurs for half an hour; Arthur's left hand clasped Elsie's dimpled right one, his right arm was about her waist; both hearts beat vigorously, as hearts will on such occasions, and Arthur had just opened his mouth to tell Elsie what she had been waiting for for two weeks, when there was a step close at hand, a rustle of skirts, and the cooing voice of the maternal Ferris said:

"I beg your pardon, but will you please excuse Arthur a few moments? There are those miserable business affairs that must be attended to in time for the late mail."

And thus was he saved a second time. For Elsie had not a cent, and neither had he—at least, not many of them. There were several other occasions when his own long head, or his mamma's, had helped him out—for Arthur was somewhat susceptible. But it is not of these I have to tell.

His time had come. The in-every-way-desirable young person had presented herself. True, she was not so young as she had been; but, then, that was a mere trifle. She was just his own age, of as good a family as his own, and an heiress of considerable degree. She was not—well, not exactly handsome, and was rather inclined to what is politely called plumpness; but Arthur's mamma and Arthur's long head give their approval—and Arthur did not care who she might be, so long as she possessed the above qualifications, particularly the one involving a very neat fortune in her own right.

Besides, Arthur was getting a bit desperate. In fact, he had so far exceeded his own salary and the maternal allowance (which, by the way, was as large as Mrs. Ferris could afford) that nothing short of a miracle, or a matrimonial alliance, such as he had been so long seeking, could save him from getting into very deep water.

And thus it came to pass that this winter found him engaged to Miss Bernice Field, much to the satisfaction of his mother, who was visiting in New York, and to whom he had, like the dutiful son he was, sent the gratifying news at once.

He was disappointed, however, on one point. He had pleaded artfully for an early wedding, but Miss Field had set her foot down with much firmness and said he must go through a long probationary period—all of which Arthur failed to understand. He had always been noted for his persuasive powers, and had flattered himself that Bernice, with her gentle, clinging, bud-like ways, would succumb at once.

Now, be it known that Miss Bernice Field had not arrived at years of discretion for nothing. Neither had she, a not unprepossessing young person, with nearly a half-million in her own right, passed through the experiences of ten seasons without gathering unto herself much knowledge of the ways and wiles of wicked man. She had had, as might have been expected, offers to a high number; but, thus far, the gentlemen concerned had failed—by reason of their unanimous desire to touch her purse—to touch, in the first place, the all-important key to it, which was hidden away in her plump bosom. And Miss Bernice Field was worldly-wise in her day and generation.

She was certainly in love with Ferris—there could be no doubt of that. It is quite as certain that she was very seriously in love with him; but, with the wisdom born of experience, she did not let him know one-half of what she felt for him.

If anyone had told Ferris that he was just now in a very shaky position, he would have scoffed. His chum, Ed Cross, who was spending the winter at the house during Mrs. Ferris' absence, had once suggested that "there's many a slip," but Arthur merely shied a shoe at him, and whistled serenely.

It was in this frame of mind that, one evening in February, he ran lightly up the steps of the Field mansion to call on her whom Cross unfeelingly referred to as his "little lady love." It was warm, and the front door stood ajar. The little footman was not in his accustomed place, so Ferris, with the air of one who knew just where he was going, stepped inside. From the open door of Papa Field's study came the sound of voices in earnest discussion, and one of them spoke his own name.

He halted, irresolute, as would any one else under like circumstances. Papa Field was speaking:

"Of course, my dear, you are your own mistress, and I can only advise you. It seems to me, however, that you have done a very foolish thing to engage yourself to this young Ferris. True, he seems an exemplary young fellow, and he comes of an excellent family; but it is well known that he has only a small allowance from the estate in addition to a beggarly two thousand dollars' salary. How do you know that it is you and not your money that he wants? It is a brutal question, I know, but it is one you have probably asked of yourself a half-dozen times, concerning other young men."

Arthur, out in the hall, standing in much the same attitude a child assumes when speaking its first "piece" in school, winced, but waited for the answer. It came, in serious, thoughtful tones, which plainly indicated that Miss Bernice, also, had considered this very matter:

"No-no, I am sure you misjudge him, papa. Of course I understand how he is situated financially, and—and all that. But I am sure he is honest and honorable, and that he—he cares for me very much. There are a thousand ways by which I can learn much that you cannot, and—"

"Yes, yes; I understand. But suppose you should put him to the test; do you think he would come through—all—or—unscathed, as it were? Suppose you should tell him that I had lost all your money and mine in unfortunate speculation—that we were beggars, and had not a dollar we could call our own? Are you afraid to try him?"

There was a brief silence. Then:

"I don't like to tell a falsehood, papa; but it would be only a 'white lie,' and perhaps for the best. Yes, I'll try him to-morrow night."

"That's my dutiful girl. Now run along and let me work."

There was a sound of a kiss, and the perspiring young man in the hall hastened to get out of the house. He wanted time to think, but the first thing that entered his head, as he reached the sidewalk, was a fanciful picture of the petite Miss Field, with her one hundred and sixty pounds of avoirdupois, "running along," and he smiled broadly. Then he walked rapidly over to the next street to catch a cab to his club, there to hold a pow-wow with Cross.

On the steps he hesitated a moment. "Had I better go back now?" he thought. "No; she won't have her little tale of woe ready, and might be put out if I call to-night. I might give myself away, too. Better have time to get my speech prepared." And this astute young man went in and proceeded to make himself comfortable.

The next evening, with his usual light heart and good spirits, he rang the door bell of the Field mansion. Yes, Miss Field was in, Peter said. Ferris went into the drawing-room and sat down, running rapidly over in his mind the various tender speeches he had prepared for the emergency. Bernice was a long time coming, he thought, for one who expected him.

Presently she entered—slowly—heavily. Her head bent low over her ample bosom and her breath came short and fast. Ferris went forward to meet her, his arms outstretched. He was something of an actor himself, and he knew it.

"Bernice! Darling! What is the trouble with my little girl?" (Another good stroke. Miss Field liked to be called "little.")

"Oh! Arthur! Arthur! I don't know how to tell you. It is too dreadful! Papa—"

"What! Has your father been—"

"Oh! no, not that, but—but worse! Arthur, we are—beggars!"

And Miss Field, delivering these last words with wonderful impressiveness, hung her head and sobbed bitterly behind her lace handkerchief.

Then it was that Ferris, like the young man of action that he was, put his arm as far round his tearful fiancee as possible, and, with some difficulty, led her to a seat and pulled her head down on his glossy shirt front.

He was very, very sorry, as she must know. But it was nothing. Her father would recoup himself—he had many influential friends. As for her, had she not him—her Arthur? He would not, he once interrupted her to say, permit her, through a sense of false pride, to cast him off now, when she most needed him. No, never!

He had three thousand a year. It was not much, he knew, but they could live on it. And did she suppose, for one instant, that he had expected to live on his wife's money? No! A thousand times, no!

"We will have a real quiet little wedding, dearest, and, after it is over, we will go quietly to our own little cottage in the suburbs, which you and I will get ready in the meantime, and there we will be the happiest couple in the world. What! Bernice, am I to understand that you laugh at my cherished plans?"

For Bernice had leaped to her feet and was laughing heartily.

"Why, you foolish boy, I was only teasing you a bit. Don't you think I'd make a good actress? Papa and I haven't lost a—"

Here was Mr. Ferris' opportunity. She had doubted him; oh, cruel blow. If she could not trust him now, how could she have any faith in him when they were married? Perhaps, after all, it were best—

And he strode haughtily to the door.

But this was not part of Miss Field's programme, and she did what any very-much-in-love female would do under like circumstances, so that, in a very few seconds, two people were sitting on a divan in a very lover-like attitude, indeed.

An hour or so later, a young man, walking briskly down the street, was reflecting on the vagaries of chance and his own good luck.

If Peter had been at the door—if he had been ten minutes later—if he had sneezed in the hall—if—

"It was an awfully close shave," he reflected, and he stopped and shook hands with himself, much to the amazement of the policeman on the corner.—R. L. Ketchum, in San Francisco Argonaut.

—Reciprocity.—Mrs. Upperson Walker—"Do go and see Dr. Pulser and tell him all about your case. What's the use of having a doctor if you can't trust him?" Mr. Upperson Walker—"Ah that isn't the trouble. I'm afraid he won't trust me!"—N. Y. Truth.

ENORMOUS LOSSES.

The Flood Damage in Five States Aggregates $32,000,000.

Illinois and Missouri Suffer Most Heavily —Towns Wiped Out in Arkansas— Many Persons Perished — Farms Laid Waste.

MILLIONS GONE.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 26.—D. D. Anthony, of Waterloo, telegraphed the governor making a statement of the devastation in Monroe county caused by the floods. He finds on inspection that about 50,000 acres of tillable lands were overflowed—32,000 acres of wheat, 14,000 acres of corn and 4,000 acres of potatoes, oats, hay, etc. He says that about 559 families are left homeless, about two-thirds of them being without means and totally destitute.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 27.—State Treasurer Wilson estimates that there are from 12,000 to 15,000 persons in Illinois who have suffered from floods and need help. Between Cairo and Memphis there are 700,000 acres of land under water, and the crops that are covered are estimated as follows: Wheat, 125,000 acres, $2,000,000; corn, 100,000 acres, $1,500,000; cotton, 100,000 acres, $3,000,000; land washed away, 1,800 acres, $18,000; homes destroyed, $75,000; cattle drowned, $75,000. Total, $6,668,000.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Special advices to Bradstreet's from regions affected more seriously by floods point to an aggregate loss in five states of $32,000,000, which includes damage to railway property, destruction of or damage to levees, to farm buildings, machinery, live stock and crops, as well as loss on other property. Louisiana and Arkansas have lost less in this respect than has been reported, and Illinois and Missouri probably more. Losses in Iowa and Kansas have been greatly exaggerated.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 28.—The story of flood, suffering and destruction in the valleys of the White and Arkansas rivers has not been half told. There is not a thousand acres of dry soil left in Desha county. The towns of Hollendel, Chicot City, Red Fork and Pendleton have been wiped off the earth, and not a living being is at any of them. All have been rescued and are now on high ground, but actually starving, so difficult of access are they to the relief steamers. All the big plantations for 40 miles in the Arkansas valley are utterly ruined.

The first batch of mail in six days from Benton county was received here Thursday. It relates the story of the most appalling disaster that ever occurred in north Arkansas. The waterspout which visited the suburbs of Siloam Springs last Friday resulted in the loss of three lives and the destruction of property worth $100,000. About 9:30 o'clock in the evening the rain began to fall and by 10:30 o'clock all the low land in the town was submerged by water, which swept everything in its course. At Hico, an eastern suburb of Siloam Springs, nine buildings were washed away, and Mrs. Martin and her six children, as their dwelling went to pieces, hung to the limbs of trees until they were rescued. All the lower portion of the town was swept away. When the waterspout struck Dr. Swallow's house the members of the family, being very old, had retired for the night. It bore down all resistance, taking the doctor and his wife and mother down the stream and drowning them. Dr. Swallow was a Frenchman and had retired from business. He leaves a daughter and a son in Kansas. His property consisted of several thousand dollars in notes, $500 in cash and a beautiful residence, all of which were swept away by the flood.

As the river falls the terrible work of the flood is plainly seen here. Dozens of valuable farms are ruined, the water washing out ditches on some and on others leaving sand ranging from 2 to 5 feet in depth. All fencing has been carried away. No estimate of the loss can as yet be made. It will run far up into the thousands. The work of relieving the sufferers continues, but reports of half-starved people are still being received. The river is still falling.

SHREVEPORT, La., May 28.—Three crevasses occurred Friday below the city in the same levee, inundating a large tract of the finest farming land in the world. The water poured through the breaks with a roar that could be heard for miles. The loss by the three breaks will be not less than $500,000. Three million dollars will scarcely cover the loss to property and crops in the upper Red river valley by this year's floods.

Hired a Man to Kill His Enemy.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 27.—Samuel Vaughan has been found guilty of murder in the first degree as an accessory before the fact and the death sentence passed upon him. The date of his execution has not yet been fixed. Vaughan hired one Thomas Hamilton to kill Andrew Gage in Madison county. Vaughan and Gage had been for some time involved in a civil suit, in which Vaughan feared he was getting the worst.

Died at the Age of 115.

JOLIET, Ill., May 28.—Mrs. Johanna Mertens, who has been in St. Joseph hospital for years, died Wednesday, aged 115 years. Ireland was her birthplace. She was the oldest person in Will county.

Fearful Ravages of Cholera.

CALCUTTA, May 27.—Cholera continues its ravages in Serinagur, one of the capitals of Cashmere. The population of the city is about 51,000. Deaths are occurring at the rate of 500 daily.

Fruit Crop Destroyed.

LONDON, May 27.—The fruit crops in the south of England have been greatly damaged, if not destroyed, by a terrific storm that passed over that section.

Killed by a Passenger Train.

DANVILLE, Ill., May 27.—While walking the track John Leddy was run down and fatally injured by an Eastern Illinois passenger train.

SAVED A GIRL IN THE FIRST STAGE OF CONSUMPTION.

CARLETON, Mich., Aug. 29, 1890.

Dr. O. J. Fay & Co.:

Gentlemen.—This is to certify that I, the undersigned, have been troubled with weak lungs and take cold easily. I have used Dr. Fay's New Treatment for consumption and can say that it is the best medicine I have ever used for the lungs, and would recommend it to all afflicted with lung trouble. I have also used it for a small girl who was considered in the first stage of consumption and it cured her.

LUKE DUNN,

Chairman Board of Supervisors, Monroe County.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

"So you went to sing in the choir?" "What part?" "Well, went in as first bass, but they changed it to shortstop when they heard my voice."

HAVE YOU READ THIS BEFORE?

It will do no harm to read it again. You cannot read it too often. We cannot say too much of the merits of Parmelee's Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure. If you are at all affected with Dyspepsia or any disorders of the Liver or Kidneys you should try this remedy. Sold by dealers.

ARE YOU TANNED, FRECKLED, OR SUNBURNT.

Use Hamilton's Oriental Balm. It removes all blemishes. Perfectly safe. Prepared by E. M. Parmelee Medicul Co., Dansville, N. Y. Sold by dealers.

Parmelee's Pile Suppositories are warranted to cure. Never known to fail. Hundreds of sufferers testify to their virtue. 50 cents a box. Sold by dealers.

DO MOSQUITOS KILL OTHER INSECTS?

We don't know. We do know that Parmelee's Household Ointment is the best thing in the world to apply for Insect Bites. Burns, Cuts, Chapped Hands, etc. For Ulcers and Salt Rheum is sure to effect a cure. It is guaranteed to do this. Price for large box 25 cents. Sold by dealers.

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

ACHE

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

St. Vitus Dance Cured. VIII

SAN ANDREAS, Cal., Feb., 1889.

My boy, 13 years old, was so affected by St. Vitus Dance that he could not go to school for two years. Two bottles of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic restored his health, and he is now attending school again.

MICHAEL O'CONNEL.

DELHI, Ohio, Feb., 1891

A young man, 28 years old, is subject to a rush of blood to the head, especially at the time of the full moon, and he at such times raves and is out of his mind. Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic helps him every time.

REV. W. SCHOLL.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.,

596 Northwest St., Oct. 8, 1890.

After doctoring four months for nervous trouble and finding no relief, a friend recommended me to try Koenig's Nerve Tonic. I used only two bottles, and I thank God now I am so hearty and well that I can again attend to my business, which is by no means an easy one.

L. LEONHARD.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

HUSBAND'S MISTAKE.

Husbands too often permit wives and parents their children, to suffer from headache, dizziness, neuralgia, sleeplessness, fits, nervousness, when by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine such serious results could aesily be prevented. Druggists everywhere say it gives universal satisfaction, and has an immense sale. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Snow & Co., of Syracuse, N. Y.; J. C. Wolf, Hillsdale, Mich.; and hundreds of others say "it is the greatest seller they ever knew." It contains no opiates. Trial bottle and fine book on Nervous Diseases, free at Baker & Hall's.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L. S. & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15, 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 118. Mail.	No. 117. Express.	No. 149 Accom.
Jackson.....Lv	6 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M.
Napoleon	6 50 "	2 46 "	1 16 "
Norvell	6 57 "	2 54 "	1 27 "
Manchester	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 55 "
Clinton	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 35 "
Tecumseh	7 15 "	3 15 "	3 15 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 52 "	4 30 "
Detroit	10 10 "	6 20 "	.....
Toledo	9 15 "	4 40 "	10 35 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 2:00 p. m

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 116. Mail.	No. 118. Express.	No. 148. Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 25 A.M.	6 00 P.M.	.....
Toledo	9 50 "	7 50 "	.....
Adrian	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M.
Tecumseh	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton	11 21 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 00 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 28 "	10 30 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.

A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati Jackson & Mackinaw Ry.

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT APR. 1, 1892.

GOING EAST. No. 3 Pass	GOING EAST. No. 23 Pass	GOING EAST. No. 21 Pass	Central Time. STATIONS.	GOING WEST. No. 22 Pass	GOING WEST. No. 24 Pass	GOING WEST. No 2 Pass
	A. M.	P. M.		A. M.	P. M.
	12 10	4 45	A....Toledo L	7 35	6 30
	10 35	3 52	Dundee	8 30	8 00
	9 55	3 32	Britton	8 50	8 33
	9 49	3 27	Ridgeway	8 55	8 40
	9 37	3 18	Tecumseh	9 03	8 53
	9 17	3 05	Tipton	9 17	9 14
	9 07	2 57	Sand Lake	9 24	9 25
	8 58	2 51	Onsted	9 31	9 36
A. M.	8 41	2 39	Devils Lake	9 42	9 54	P.M.
9 55	8 35	2 35	Addison Junc	9 47	10 00	4 50
9 50	8 32	2 33	Addison	9 50	10 15	4 53
9 34	8 09	2 17	Jerome	10 04	10 38	5 10
9 27	8 00	2 11	Moscow	10 11	10 48	5 17
9 17	7 46	2 01	Hanover	10 21	11 03	5 27
9 07	7 32	1 52	Wheelerton	10 30	11 18	5 36
8 47	7 04	1 32	Homer	10 50	11 48	5 57
8 36	6 49	1 21	Rekford	11 01	12 06	6 08
8 20	6 27	1 06	Marshall	11 15	12 33	6 24
8 08	6 11	12 54	Ceresco	11 26	12 53	6 36
7 50	5 45	12 36	Battle Creek ..	11 43	1 25	6 55
	A.M.	12 17	Augusta	12 03	A. M.
		12 09	Yorkville	12 11
		12 02	Richland	12 17
		11 41	Doster	12 34
		11 20	Monteith	12 49
		11 12	Misk	12 59
		11 06	Kellogg	1 04
		10 55	L..Allegan....A	1 16
A. M.		P. M.		P. M.		P.M.

The freight trains pass Tecumseh station as follows: Going West at 10:43 a.m. Going East at 1:39 p.m.

TRAIN CONNECTIONS.

Direct connection is made at Toledo and Cincinnati with all roads diverging

Trains 21 and 22 make good connections at Monteith and Allegan for Grand Rapids an points north.

Connection is made at Addison with the Ohi division for Cincinnati and all points south.

Good connections at Battle Creek with the C & G. T. RY. for Chicago.

All trains connect at Toledo with the W. & L. E. C. H. V. & T., Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Wabash Ry., Pa. Co, and all railroads diverging. Connections are also made at Dundee with the T. A. A. & N. M., at Tecumseh, Jerome, Hanover, Homer and Allegan with the L. S. & M. S. Ry.,

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt.
T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.
B. J. SLATER, Station Agent.
A. E. KENNEDY, City Ticket Agent.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO

TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as ollows:

WEST BOUND.

†No. 51 —Local Mail and Express.....10:25 a m
*No. 53 —Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex. 3:30 p m
*No. 27 —Butler Accommodation..... 6:00 p m
*No. 55 —Pacific Express.....11:40 p m

EAST BOUND.

*No. 56 —Atlantic Express..... 5:50 a m
†No. 26 —Detroit Accommodation..... 4:35 p m
*No. 52 —St. Louis & Boston Express..... 7:45 a m
*No. 54 —N. Y. Limited..... 9:46 p m

*Daily, †Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information, apply to

CHAS. M. HAYS, Gen. Manager.
WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian
F. CHANDLER, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt Agent.

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890
Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
8 25 A. M.			P. M.	P. M.
	00	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	11 15	1 10
	47	.....Dundee.....	10 18	12 20
	08	.....Milan.....	9 18	12 04
	20	.....Uranis.....	9 48	11 52
	27	.....Pittsfield.....	9 34	11 42
5 07	6 40	.....Ann Arbor.....	9 22	11 30
5 30	7 55	.....Leland.....	9 07	11 15
5 47	7 6	.....Whitmore Lake.....	8 55	10 02
6 28	8	.....Howell.....	8 17	10 25
7 18	8 4	.....Durand.....	7 10	9 15
.....	.....	.....	55	7 45
8 00	10 20	.....Owosso.....	6 35	9 05
9 07	11 31	.....Ithaca.....	5 39	7 50
10 15	1 25	.....Mt. Pleasant.....	4 35	6 45
.....	3 35	.....Cadillac.....	10 30	.....
.....	5 20	.....Copemish.....	9 05	.....
.....	8 35	Ar.....Frankfort.....Lv	7 50	.....
	P. M.		A. M.	A. M.

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager.
A. J. PAISLEY, General Pass. and Ticket Agent

Clinton Column.

CLINTON, MICH., JUNE 2, 1892.

W. W. Demuth is improving.

Ed. Semark went to Toledo Monday.

Frank McClure now receives a pension.

E. VanDeMark went to Chelsea Tuesday.

Miss Anna Kirchgessner is home from Tecumseh this week.

C. S. Burroughs and wife drove over to Ypsilanti Tuesday.

Born, Thursday, May 26th, to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Clark, a girl.

Work is now progressing rapidly on E. B. Smith's residence.

Mrs. Oscar Westfall, of Grand Rapids, is visiting at Will Ratner's.

Eight Tecumseh bicyclists came up on their wheels last Monday.

D. M. Bainbridge went to Muskegon last Saturday to visit his niece.

Mrs. Frank Morey, of Detroit, visited at David Henderson's last week.

Miss Emma Hause, of Ridgeway, has been visiting friends here this week.

J. F. Hicks is putting lightning rods on George Hotrum's new residence this week.

Mrs. Adam spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Stevens in Tecumseh.

The Episcopal church bell was hung last Saturday. The belfry will soon be completed.

Mrs. Muir Strang, who has been visiting her mother here, returned to Flat Rock Monday.

The Baptist social will meet at J. Watson's next Tuesday afternoon. All are cordially invited.

A. G. Burton and Mrs. Hattie Johnston attended the funeral of Dr. Conklin at Manchester last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston and children and Miss Grace Hendrickson, of Detroit, have been spending several days at Rev. Stalker's.

The Baccalaureate sermon for the class of '92 will be delivered by Rev. A. W. Stalker at M. E. church on Sunday evening, June 5th.

There is another change of barrage masters at the L. S. & M. S. depot. We have not learned the name of the present incumbent.

Jacob Nase is building an addition on to Alonzo Clark's store, occupied by H. M. Heal. It will serve as a dining-room and kitchen.

The graduating class of '92, consists of five members, Frank G. Becker, Pres. Chas. F. Allen, Vice Pres.: Emma Cotton, Sec.: Lizzie Tate, Treas. and Edward Miller.

Mesdames M. E Corey, Hardenburgh, and E. S. Tate, and J. F. Hicks and wife, of Tecumseh, were present at the organization of the Eastern Star Chapter last Friday evening.

Mrs. A. A. Mattison, of Middleville, was here last week and organized an Eastern Star Chapter. The regular meeting will be Wednesday evening, on or before the full moon.

Miss Lence Jones left Freese's store last Saturday for a vacation of several weeks, as her health has suffered from close confinement in the store. She has held this position for ten years.

Decoration Day exercises were conducted as previously announced, the most unusual feature being that there was no interruption in the shape of rain. A large number of people attended the exercises at Tecumseh in the afternoon.

A concert will be given Tuesday evening, June 14th, under the supervision of Mr. Let E. Tucker, of Detroit, for the purpose of raising funds toward the purchase of a piano for the hall. All the musical talent of Clinton will be represented and no doubt the concert will be a model of its kind. Let everyone go and make it a financial success as well.

After an illness of over a year Miss Eva Rector died Monday morning at her home two and a half miles south of here. She was taken to Battle Creek this spring for treatment, but the relief gained was but temporary and her sufferings for the last few weeks have been extremely severe. She was a young lady of unusual talent and lovable disposition and her loss will be keenly felt among her associates. Her parents have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. The funeral was held at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

It is desired by the Lenawee County committee on Women's work at the Columbian Exposition to form an auxiliary committee in each town in the county for the purpose of preparing an exhibit. It is hoped that many will become interested in this work and thus make Clinton's exhibition at the World's fair one of the finest from the county. Any lady desirous of exhibiting fine needle work, anything in high art, or bric-a-brac of unusual worth or history, are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. E. R. Smith on Friday evening, June 3d.

Members of the Alumni—Three meetings have been called to arrange for our yearly meeting, banquet, etc. So few responded, the time was so short, and most of those who had been appointed to assist in the literary program being at a distance, it seemed best to omit for this year that feature of our usual entertainment, hoping that increased interest would be manifested next year. It seemed, however, to be the desire of the few who met, to have at least a banquet, and so we have decided to call one more meeting, Friday evening, June 3d., at Mrs. J. R. Blanchard's, hoping that all who can will feel sufficiently interested to be present and aid in making the necessary arrangements for a supper and whatever accompaniments may seem proper and best. By order of Pres. Mrs. J. R. BLANCHARD.

The program presented by the Graduating class of '92, Thursday, June 9th, will be as follows:

Overture, a. Polish Dance, Scharwenka; b. "Curious Story," Heller.—J. D. Hause.
Invocation.
Oration, "Our Nation's Progress,"—Chas. F. Allen.
Vocal Solo, "Golden is the Sky Above"—Minnie Humphrey.
Class History—Frank G. Becker.
Vocal Duet, "Sweet Pleasures on the Waters,"—Lulie Billmeyer and A. J. Monagin.
Prophecy—Emma Cotton.
Piano Solo—Lizzie Tate.
Oration, "Life."—Edward Miller.
Vocal Solo, a. "Afterward," Mullen, b. "The Kiss," Arditi—Mrs. L. W. Kimball.
Essay, "We Learn, Not for School, But for Life,"—Lizzie Tate.
Presentation of Diplomas—W. D. Van Tuyle.
Quintette,—Messrs. Bostedor, Ward, Halladay, Corwin, Mills.
Benediction.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED, AND "THE BIG 5."

TWO GRAND TRAINS DAILY BETWEEN THE WORLD'S FAIR CITY AND THE FOOTHILLS.

One Night Out, or One Day Out. Take Your Choice, Business Demands it, and the People Must Have it.

The popularity of "The Great Rock Island Route" as a Colorado line—it having long time since taken first place as the people's favorite between the Lakes and the Mountains—has compelled the management to increase its present splendid service by the addition of a train that is one night on the road from Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs or Pueblo. This train will be known as the "Rocky Mountain Limited," and will be put in service May first. Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m., arriving at above cities in the afternoon of the next day, earlier than any of its competitors. Especial equipment has been built for this train, with the view of making it a LIMITED in every sense of the word, and best of all, there will be no extra charge. The route of this exceedingly fast train is by the Rock Island Short Line, and a few of the large cities through which it passes, are Davenport, DesMoines, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Beatrice, Fairbury, Belleville, Phillipsburg, Smith Center, Colby and Goodland. This makes it a most desirable route, and particularly interesting to the traveler. Another point: The popularity of our dining-car service is still on the increase, and no money spared to make this service what our patrons always say, "the best."

"Our Big 5" will continue as usual, leaving Chicago at 10 p. m. and arriving at Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning, being but one day out, and this fast and popular train goes through Omaha.

Our No. 11 will leave as heretofore at 6 p. m., arrive at Kansas city at 9:00 a. m., and will reach Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning.

Our Colorado service is made perfect by this new "ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED and the "BIG 5," and gives to the traveling public TWO FLYERS DAILY.

Manitou passengers should consult the map and time tables of our line, to fully appreciate the advantages in time saved by taking this route, when on their summer vacation.

JOHN SEBASTIAN,
G. T. & P. A., Chicago.

THE TRUE LAXATIVE PRINCIPLE

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

"A God-send is Ely's Cream Balm. I had catarrh for three years. Two or three times a week my nose would bleed. I thought the sores would never heal. Your Balm has cured me."—Mrs. M. A. Jackson, Portsmouth, N. H.

I have had nasal catarrh for ten years so bad that there were great sores in my nose, and one place was eaten through. I got Ely's Cream Balm. Two bottles did the work. My nose and head are well. I feel like another man.—C. S. McMillen, Sibley, Jackson Co., Mo.

IT SHOULD BE IN EVERY HOUSE.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of la grippe, when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at J. J. Orr's drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

More people, adults and children, are troubled with costiveness than with any other ailment. Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will cure costiveness and prevent the diseases which result from it.

Every bottle of Arnica & Oil Liniment sold is warranted by the proprietors to give satisfaction or money will be refunded.

Survival of the fittest. Downs' Elixir has outlived every other cough remedy simply because it is the best.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, June 5th, '92, the C. J. & M. Ry. will run a special low rate excursion to Devils Lake and return. Trains leave Tecumseh at 8:44 a. m. standard time; returning arrives at Tecumseh 5:38 p. m. Fare 40 cents for the round trip.

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, G. P. A.
B. J. SLATER, Agent.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

Remaining uncalled for in the Postoffice at Tecumseh, Mich., May 19, 1892.

Alfrey, Harry	Hutchins, Julia
Anison, Mrs. E.	Mills, Mrs. G.
Brown, Mrs. Chloie	Powell, Jno.
Casey, A. B.	Westcott, Cora
Hayden, W. S.	Wheeler, Mrs. H.

Persons calling for letters in the above list will please say "Advertised."

ALBERT D. LAWRENCE, P. M.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Summary of the Business Transacted in the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—A bill was passed in the senate yesterday appropriating $50,000 for a public building at Owosso, Mich. A joint resolution was reported directing the president to proclaim a general holiday commemorating the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America on October 12, 1892, and another proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the election of United States senators by popular vote.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Bills were reported in the senate yesterday appropriating $100,000 and $15,000 respectively for public buildings at Muscatine, Ia., and Muncie, Ind. The bill to provide for the punishment of violations of the treaty rights of aliens was discussed.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—In the senate yesterday a bill was introduced by Senator Peffer to increase the currency, to reduce the rates of interest and to establish a bureau of loans. Senator Stewart's free coinage bill was discussed.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The silver bill was laid before the senate yesterday but discussion was postponed. A bill was passed to reclassify and prescribe the salaries of railway postal clerks, the rates ranging from $800 for first class to $1,800 for seventh class. Adjourned to Tuesday next.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—In the house yesterday a bill was introduced to admit free of duty glass windows imported for the use of churches. The senate amendments to the river and harbor bill were non-concurred in.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The sundry civil bill was taken up in the house yesterday, the first item being the government exhibits at the world's fair, and provisos were adopted that in no event shall the exhibits made by the government be open to the public on Sunday, and that no intoxicating liquors shall be sold on the grounds of the exposition. An amendment was adopted reducing the salary of the director general to $8,000, and that of the secretary to $3,000.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—In the house yesterday a bill was introduced to amend the act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies. The sundry civil appropriation bill was further considered.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—In the house yesterday a bill fixing the rate of postage of semi-weekly and tri-weekly publications mailed at certain free-delivery offices was favorably reported. The sundry civil appropriation bill was passed and the post office appropriation bill was discussed. The bill eliminating from the pension rolls the names of persons not residents of the United States was reported adversely.

BANK PRESIDENT KILLED.

Charles E. Montgomery, of Lincoln, Neb., Shot Down in a Hotel.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 27.—Charles E. Montgomery, president of the German national bank, was shot and killed while at breakfast at the Lincoln hotel by William H. Irvine, a real estate broker and a former partner of the murdered man. Irvine claimed that his wife and daughter had been led astray by Montgomery. He surrendered to the police. The dining-room of the hotel was thronged at the time of the tragedy by people from all over the state who are in attendance upon the exercises of the quarter centennial celebration of the admission of Nebraska to the union.

A CLOUDBURST.

It Creates Havoc and Death in the Village of Kinsman, O.

KINSMAN, O., May 26.—A waterspout burst over this village yesterday destroying buildings, stocks and crops, and drowning J. B. Robbins and his wife and two children, K. Stewart and his son and J. D. Campbell and wife. Large numbers of horses and cattle were swept away, and the total loss will reach $20,000. The banks of the river are crowded with excited sightseers and searching parties are overhauling the driftwood, believing that all of the dead have not been found.

Jeff Davis' Clock.

PETERSBURG, Va., May 27.—A large and handsome clock which had hung in the chamber of Jefferson Davis while he was president of the confederate states was taken from the executive mansion in Richmond on the day of the evacuation by a union soldier and by him sold in Richmond. Wednesday the clock was purchased by Morris Levy, a wealthy Jew of this place, who will send it to the world's fair.

In the Death Grip of Machinery.

AURORA, Ill., May 27.—James Jameson, employed at the Montgomery flour mill, met a most horrible death Wednesday forenoon. He was oiling some gearing, when his arm was caught and his body was drawn against the machinery, where he was held until he bled to death, no one being within sound of his voice. His body was not discovered until several hours after his death.

Clearing House Business.

NEW YORK, May 28.—At the leading clearing houses in the United States the exchanges during the week ended yesterday aggregated $1,146,805,698, against $1,231,899,737 the previous week. The increase as compared with the corresponding week of 1891 was 12.1.

Lynn Shoe Manufacturers Fail.

LYNN, Mass., May 27.—J. C. Fox & Co., shoe manufacturers, have filed a voluntary petition in insolvency. Their assets are $3,500 and their liabilities $28,000.

Death of an English Jurist.

LONDON, May 27.—Hon. Sir Charles Parker Butt, president of the probate, divorce and admiralty division of her majesty's high court of justice, is dead.

Death of a German Politician.

BERLIN, May 27.—Maximilian Von Forckenbeck, the burgomaster of Berlin, is dead. He was one of the best known politicians in Germany.

HELLO

GIVE US TECUMSEH.

Say! Tecumseh! Do you know that WOOD, CRANE & WOOD, of Adrian, have by far the Largest and Finest Stock of Clothing in this part of the World, and their Prices are lower than others? Did you say that you were going to buy some Clothing soon and would try them? That's right; you will not regret it. You can please and fit yourself better, and save money, too. Say! I nearly forgot to mention that they are ONE PRICE and that everything is marked in PLAIN FIGURES.

Tecumseh Price Current.

CORRECTED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING

PROVISION MARKET.	Wholesale.	Retail.
Apples green, per bushel	$1 00	$1 20
Apples dried, per pound	5	8
Beeswax	14	16
Butter	11	14
Eggs, per doz	14	16
Honey, per lb	18	16
Lard, per lb	9	12
Onions, per bushel	1 00	1 20
Potatoes, per bushel	25	40
Beans, per bushel	2 00	2 30
Wool, unwashed	14
Wool, fleeced washed	22
Wool, tub washed	25
Salt, coarse rock, per bbl	1 50
Salt, common, per bbl	90	1 00
Tallow, per lb	3½
Cheese, per lb	9	14
MEAT MARKET.
Pickled Pork	6	10
Bacon	10	12½
Smoked Ham	12	16
Smoked Shoulders	7	9
Beef, by the side	4½	5
Fat Hogs, per 100 lbs	3 50 to 3 75
Dressed Hogs, per 100 lbs	4 25
Veal, dressed, per lb	5
Mutton, dressed, per lb	6	8
Chickens, live, per lb	6	7
Turkeys, live, per lb	7	08
Geese, live, per lb	5	8
Ducks, live, per lb	6
Hides, green	4
Hides, dry	5
Sheep Pelts	25 to 1 75

GRAIN, SEEDS AND HAY.
Wheat—White	$ 85
" Red	86
Corn, shelled	56
Oats	30
No 1 Clover seed	4 25
No 2 " "	4 00
Choice " "	4 50
Timothy Seed	1 65
Hay, timothy, per ton	8 00 to 9 00
Hay, clover, per ton	7 00
Flour, per sack	1 38
Bran, per 100 lbs	1 00 to 1 25
Middlings, per 100 lbs	90
Corn meal, per 100 lbs	1 50
Chop, per 100 lbs	1 50

SURPRISE TO ALL.

After using "Mother's Friend" two months I was so speedily and easily relieved that it was a surprise to those attending me. "Mother's Friend" undoubtedly lessens the pains, shortens the time and restores the mother speedily to health. Will recommend it to all expectant mothers, and advise them to use it. Mrs. J. A. R., Muncie, Ind. Sold by Jno. Orr.

USE ONLY

Red Crown Gasoline!

In your gasoline stoves

ORIENT or KEYSTONE WATER WHITE KEROSENE OIL

In your lamps.

MANUFACTURED BY

The Standard Oil Co.,

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

For Sale in Tecumseh by the following named dealers.

James Lowry. Satterthwaite Bros.
J. J. Orr. C. A. Wright & Co.
Anderson Bros. W. J. Arnold.
McClure Grocery Co., and Jas. Potter.

Quality of the Highest Standard.

Use nothing in your Gasoline stoves but

RED CROWN GASOLINE.

Use nothing in your Lamps but

ORIENT OR KEYSTONE.

Water White Kerosene Oil.

Contains No Mercury.

ANTI GIVE CONSTIPATION CONSOLATION to all CONSTIPATED. PILLS

For Constipation, Sick Headache, Bilious Attacks and Liver Complaints.

DOSE.—One to two Pellets each night until the bowels are regular and natural in movement.

JOHN J. ORR, DRUGGIST,
TECUMSEH, MICH.

PRICE, 25c FOR REGULAR SIZE.

Pleasant and Effectual.

Among all the Harvesters

THE . . .

Milwaukee Junior

Takes the Lead.

We claim for these machines that they are lightest in weight and lightest in draft, and for strength, durability and general excellence they stand at the head. Be sure and see them before buying.

The Milwaukee Chain-Power Mower

IS THE BEST IN THE MARKET.

The great and increasing demand for our well-known chain-power Mowers, together with the testimonials received, is conclusive proof of the great estimation in which they are held by agriculturalists and dealers throughout the entire country; the universal verdict being, that for simplicity of construction, strength and durability, ease of handling, closeness and evenness of cutting, freedom from clogging, and lightness of draft, they cannot be surpassed, while for freedom from side-draft they stand unrivalled, being the lightest and most durable of any mowing machine manufactured.

CALL and see this machine set up and ready for running at our room and headquarters, between Mark's Drug Store and the City Bakery.

DAVIDSON BROS., Agents,
Tecumseh.

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER

DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S.,
Brick Office on Shawnee St. TECUMSEH, MICH.

Want Something Neat IN THE LINE OF

Artistic Job Printing

IF SO, CALL AT THE Herald Job Rooms.

WE wish to state to our patrons and others that we have added to our already finely equipped outfit a large quantity of Modern Type Faces and other printing material, and assure you that we can do anything in our line in a neat and satisfactory manner.

The Tecumseh Herald.

VOL. XLIII.—NO. 3. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2187

Warm Weather Calls

For Fans.

We have just opened an ELEGANT ASSORTMENT of Fine and Medium Priced Fans, which we ask you to look at and Keep Cool.

BUY ONE OF OUR HANDSOME

CHANGEABLE SILK PARASOLS,

AND BE HAPPY.

. . . . Anderson & Co.

Summer Underwear, in Short and Long Sleeve, from 10c to $1.00 each.

The Old Store

Still Leads Them All!

Look at Our Specialties

Garwood's Standard Perfumes, Try them.

Sham Holders, 20c a pair.

A Complete Line of Fancy Glassware, China and Toilet Sets.

Laces and Notions in Endless Variety.

Curtain Poles 25c each.

Fine Assortment of Room Moulding.

Picture Framing in Every Style.

James Montague.

"95 A" JEWEL GRAND,

The greatest success in Gasoline Stoves; csll and see them.

For sale by

D. L. WHITENACK & CO.

And See

E. W. LENARDSON,

You Want A Bicycle.

BICYCLES ARE CHEAP WITH HIM.

WHETHER THE GENDRON OR COLUMBIA.

Get My Prices Before Purchasing Elsewhere.

Yours Very Truly,

E. W. Lenardson.

Neighborhood News.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

Quarterly meeting next Sunday.

Rev. Yager was in Detroit Monday.

Fred Curry is the owner of a new velocipede.

Vote Miller is home on a two weeks' vacation.

Eva Hindes came home from Detroit Tuesday.

Miss Barbara Commer spent Sunday at her home.

Fred Miller, postal clerk, spent Sunday with his mother.

Miss Lavinia Dodd is the guest of Mrs. Morgan Florance.

Children's day will be observed one week from next Sunday.

Kittie Clark came home from Adrian Friday, returning Monday.

Charles Hiscock came home from Albion Saturday, returning Monday.

Will Andrews and wife were the guests of Mrs. Wm. Andrews Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Andrews has in her possession a chest that was purchased in 1766.

Our Bi Club is soon to have another accession—our postmaster, Charles Culbertson.

Daniel Linn and wife visited friends at Stoney Creek from Saturday till Monday.

The party of fishermen which went to Wampler's Lake Monday reported a fine catch.

Mrs. Wm. H. Osborne and Mrs. Hicks, of Tecumseh, called on friends in the village Monday.

Miss Clara Temple has purchased a fine new Krœger piano of C. J. Wooley & Co., of Toledo.

Vern Allen came home on the excursion train Sunday morning, returning in the evening.

Rev. Yager and wife and Miss Lucinda Yager attended the W. F. M. meeting held at Tecumseh last week.

Dr. Loree and wife, Dr. Nelson and wife, T. H. Temple and Charles Foote were Adrian visitors last Wednesday.

Bernice Waring is visiting at Mrs. Dr. Loree's. The Misses Agnes and Mary Eaton were also her guests on Sunday.

We are sorry to learn that Montie Florance has had to give up his position in Lenardson's store on account of poor health.

Do not forget the Floral and Ice Cream social given by the Epworth League in the church parlors on next Wednesday evening, June 15th. Everybody is invited to come.

Mr. Denslow and wife, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., visited Mrs. Lydia Hall and family last week. Mr. Denslow was formerly a partner of the late Rufus T. Bush. In visiting our library and church it very vividly reminded him what a noble and generous life may do in benefitting a community.

Died, at North Farmington, Mich., May 29, 1892, Lee L. Sowle, formerly of Ridgeway, aged 24 years.

"The old must die and the young may." So it was with our departed friend, God did not see best that he should remain with us long. In the morning of life, with a future full of promise, he was summoned to his reward. It was the will of God to take from the family circle one whom we loved and whose death we deplore.

Scarcely fifteen months ago he bade us good-bye before taking his southern journey. The climate did not agree with him, however, and he returned home, hoping to regain his health.

A letter received from a friend with whom the greater part of his time was passed while South, says: "We always and everywhere found him the same honest, true Christian gentleman, ambitious to have a place and position that would command respect; energetic, reliable and trustworthy, always courteous and thoughtful for others." Surely this voices the sentiment of all who knew him.

Fatigued with his long journey his request was, "Let me rest." After a few weeks under the protecting care of kind friends he passed quietly away to that rest that knows no weariness.

NORTH-EAST FRANKLIN.

Lyceum at J. S. Allen's Saturday.

Mrs. Addie Bunting is visiting friends here.

School will close in most of the districts this week.

Oliver Mull went to Jackson Sunday and returned Monday.

Owing to the wet weather several farmers will not plant corn this season.

Albert Deming has again traded horses, this time with Chris. Schmidt, of Clinton.

John Babcock and wife, of Gratiot county, are visiting friends and relatives here.

C. E. Hampton, of Fowler, Indiana, Mrs. H. W. Woods, of Hillsdale, and Levi Taylor and wife, of Somerset, were here to attend the funeral of Mrs. L. E. Taylor.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. ORR.

BRITTON BUDGET.

Matthew Yates has put up a barn on his place.

M. L. Gillen was on the sick list the first of the week.

Ed Bauchman is remodelling George Packard's house.

Joseph Hunter is putting up a number of barns on the prairie.

Several new patent telephones have been put up about town.

The C. J. & M. runs excursions to Devils Lake on Sundays.

L. C. Hoagland passed Sunday last with friends at Blissfield.

W. Lenardson and wife returned from their visit in Ohio Monday.

A good bay or black horse for sale Enquire at Lenardson & Son's.

Will Carpenter, of Monroe, is visiting at John Greenfield's for a few days.

John Britton has purchased the Beckler brick block east of the railroad.

All repairing promptly attended to now at the new shoe shop in the Daykin block.

Henry June has taken another boarder—a little girl, one week old. All doing well.

Mrs. Dr. Hendershot is visiting her parents at Dunkirk, Ohio, for a few weeks.

Go and see E. W. Lenardson if you want to buy a safety—Columbia or Gendron.

Rain and mud, with now and then a sprinkling of sunshine, seems to be the order of the day.

Rev. Strickland, of Coldwater, will occupy the pulpit of the Christian church the coming year.

GrantOusterhout and Henry Eaton have new safeties. They purchased them of Lenardson & Son.

The A. O. Miller company played to a $32 house Saturday night, notwithstanding the stormy weather.

The road scraper improved our street most wonderfully last Monday. Pathmaster Underwood is a hustler.

Mary Bowerman, of Blissfield, a former teacher in our schools, visited friends in the village last week.

Charlie Ross and another Charlie took a boat ride in a tub while the flood was on last Friday and they both went under, too.

The high school scholars, under the efficient management of Prof. Bowerman, are preparing for the closing exercises.

Members of the Dramatic Club should bear in mind the monthly meetings, on the first Monday of each month, and endeavor to be present.

Haight & Calkins have a large supply of the best Manilla binding twine. Give them a call when you want a plow or any other farm implement.

The sneak thief whose fingers clove to that bicycle wrench lying on Lenardson's counter had better return it, as he is suspected. The sooner he acts the better, or he will be exposed.

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

Ed Smith, of Clinton, was in town last Saturday.

The high school pupils will picnic at Wompler's Lake next Saturday.

W. H. Henion is remodelling the interior of his residence west of the village.

The ladies' aid society of the M. E. church met with Mrs. Tracy Wednesday afternoon.

Report says that William Kern has purchased D. Ambler's little farm west of A. K. Gage's farm.

The remains of Dr. Conklin were removed from the vault in Oak Grove to Sharon cemetery on Monday.

Mrs. A. C. Aylesworth was seriously injured on the head by the kick of a colt on Sunday. She was unconscious for several hours.

Myra Spafard arrived home from New York City on Thursday of last week. She has spent several months there with her aunt, Mrs. Scott, pursuing her art studies.

J. P. Lapham returned from Ann Arbor, where he has been to receive medical treatment for a throat difficulty, on Sunday, accompanied by his wife, W. B. Rushton and George Johnson. He is very low at this writing.

Rev. Cope delivered the address which he did not deliver on Decoration day because of the storm, before Comstock Post on Sabbath morning. The Presbyterian church was well filled with attentive listeners and the address was one worthy the occasion.

MACON MUSIC.

George Stimpson and wife, of Saline, spent Sunday with Baron Pennington and wife.

Joe Howell, who has been teaching in Sparta the past year, returned home last Saturday to spend the summer vacation.

Rev. Gulick went to New Jersey last week to attend the general synod, so there were no services at the Reformed church last Sunday, but during this month there will be services in the evening at 7:30.

The W. C. T. U. monthly tea meeting will be held at the home of Miss Charlotte Oven, on Friday afternoon of this week. A full attendance is desired, as there is some business to be transacted and reports read.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

FRANKLIN FACTS.

Corn planting is indefinitely postponed.

The roads are getting dangerously washed out.

Fishing is the universal occupation of the moment, the fish getting most of the fun.

Philo Mills is suffering from a severe cough, a legacy left him by grip. His school, the Bradley, will close in two weeks, if indeed he is not forced by his health to give it up sooner.

In an old memorandum of the year 1883 we find under date of May 21 this entry: "Cold rain and snow to-day; some corn planted," and May 22d "Still snowing by flurries, no snow on the ground." From this time on until July 5th, we find that it rained nearly every day, sometimes light showers, sometimes two or three per day. We also find further on under date of Sept. 8, "Heavy frost, vines all killed, corn much injured." Sept. 9, still heavier frosts; corn killed in many places.

On Saturday evening, June 4th, Mrs. L. E. Taylor, who has been suffering so many long months with cancer, passed gently from life. The funeral services were conducted at the M. E. church at Clinton, Tuesday, at 11 o'clock, a. m. Mrs. Taylor was richly endowed intellectually and, better still, possessed a great, loving heart, ready to sympathize with all humanity. She was a friend to all and her dear memory will live always in our hearts.

Raisin Valley Institute.

The annual reunion of the old time students of Raisin Valley Institute was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Knight in Adrian township on Thursday, June 2d. About 125 were present, dinner being served on the grounds. President Reynolds called the meeting to order, Rev. Patchen offered prayer, Rev. L. C. Chase read the letters from those absent, including a letter and a poem from Aunt Laura Haviland, and Jas. Colvin, of Raisin, F. C. Rector, of Clinton, Mrs. Edwards, of Adrian, Mrs. C. D. West, of Madison, and others made short addresses, while the "Chronicle" was read by Miss Carrie Colvin, of Raisin. The following program was prepared for the meeting of '93, the selection of place being left with the officers.

Prayer.
Music.
President's address.
Reading of minutes of last meeting.
Letters from correspondents.
Essay by Mrs. F. C. Rector.
Report of committee on resolutions—Mrs. C. D. West and A. G. Hall.
Poem by Mrs. Amelia B. Irland.
Reminiscences by L. D. Watkins.
Contribution from Cicero Torrey.

The dues of members were increased to 50 cents, and the officers for next year named as follows:

President—Rev. L. C. Chase, Raisin.
Vice President—Mrs. Walter Fuller, Palmyra.
Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. H. Camburn, Adrian.
Committee on resolutions—Mrs. West, Madison; A. G. Hall, Raisin.
Committee on program for '93—Mrs. Alfred Edwards, Mrs. Chester VanDoren, Mrs. Amelia Irland.

The cake offering to Aunt Laura was a fruit cake, baked by Mrs. A. Pope, of Palmyra, and was turned over to Mrs. H. Camburn, to be kept until Aunt Laura calls for it.

Several shots at the meeting were made by Clarence Frost with his Kodak and the association adjourned after enjoying a pleasant occasion.

Miss Cora Smith, daughter of E. J. Smith, editor of the Press of this city, was connected as stenographer, bookkeeper, etc., with the firm of Rice & Robinson, located at Titusville, Pa., one of the largest refiners and soap manufacturers in the United States. The firm's works were totally destroyed by the terrible flood and fire of Saturday night and Sunday, and Mr. Smith has naturally been greatly worried about his daughter's safety. Word was received to-day, however, that she was safe from harm, and we congratulate Mr. Smith on the receipt of such welcome intelligence.—Adrian Times.

Phin S. Hunt, of Grand Rapids, and Will E. Metzger, of Detroit, originated the great Michigan relay race from Grand Rapids. The race started Monday morning from Grand Rapids at 5 o'clock, and the route, touching Ada, Lowell, Clarksville, South Cass, Rosina, Danby, Mulliken, Grand Ledge, Lansing, Okemos, Williamston, Webberville, Fowlerville, Howell, Brighton, Whitmore Lake, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Denton Canton, Wayne, Inkster, Dearborn, Detroit, and made thro' slush and mud, in 15 hours and 13 minutes. It was a grand success in every particular, and especially in showing up the "beauties" of Michigan roads.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Try it.

Dr. Geo. Howell for Lt. Governor.

In connection with a very accurate cut of the gentleman concerned, the Detroit Tribune prints the following well deserved words of commendation:

Among the names that will be presented to the coming Republican state convention for the office of lieutenant-governor is that of Dr. Geo. Howell, of Lenawee county. Dr. Howell, who is a brother of ex-Judge Andrew Howell, of this city, is a native of Michigan and of the county in which he resides, a graduate of the medical department of the university, and is actively engaged in the practice of medicine. After completing his medical studies his professional work received his exclusive attention until 1882, when he was chosen a member of the state legislature from the first representative district of Lenawee county, to which office he was re-elected two years later. In 1886 Lenawee county, which then constituted the fifth senatorial district, again returned the doctor to Lansing as state senator, thus affording him six years of continuous legislative service.

As a citizen Dr. Howell is highly respected and esteemed by all who know him. His reputation for ability as a legislator is an enviable one, and his record as a loyal and aggressive Republican is without a blemish. In view of his wide acquaintance throughout the state, his strong personal following, and his excellent record, the friends of the doctor believe that his nomination for lieutenant governor would be a particularly happy one for the party.

For Music Lovers.

Brainard's Musical World for June contains a fine portrait and interesting sketch of Crouch, the author of the famous old song "Kathleen Mavourneen," and a large amount of other choice reading matter. It also contains "Kathleen Mavourneen" for piano by Richards; "Berceuse" (Cradle Song for the piano) by Renard; and "The Water Lily" arranged for the piano by Otto Dressel. Besides these three piano pieces it contains the latest popular success, "Song of the Nightingale," as sung by Marie Tempest in "Tyrolean." The music in this number is alone worth $2.00. Mailed post-paid for 15 cents in stamps, or three back numbers mailed for 25 cents. Published monthly at $1.50 per year.

The Musician's Guide (Spring Edition 1892) contains, besides 212 pages of musical information, biographies of 150 musicians, with 25 portraits, a "Teachers' Guide" and other valuable features, three new songs, My Kathleens Coming Back," "Last Night" and "That is Love," and two piano pieces, "Sounds from the Ball-room" and "Stolen Kisses' —Gavotte. Mailed free for 8 two-cent stamps, or the World and Guide, containing the above 9 songs and pieces, mailed for 12 two-cent stamps. Address, The S. Brainard's Sons Co., Chicago Ill.

FARMERS' UNION PICNIC.

Owing to the rainy weather and extreme backwardness of the season, the officers deem it inadvisable to incur the expense of getting up a program. But the Union Picnic will be held on the day already selected, Saturday, June 18th, at Putnam's Grove, Sand Lake. Everybody, who can spare the time, is invited to come and spend a day in rest and recreation, boating and fishing.

Bring your families along and let your dinner baskets be well filled. A day of pleasure is in store for all who may attend.

E. C. COOK. President
L. M. WALDRON. Secretary

About the pleasantest drive out of Adrian is between this city and Tecumseh, and especially is it pleasant in these spring evenings. The road north from the Quaker church is the hardest, smoothest, and most picturesque in point of beautiful farms, pleasant farm homes, etc., that this "richest county in the world" affords. And with a little side trip as an offshoot from the main excursion, just take a spin thro' the celery district. Just now those acres are slightly disfigured from too frequent inundation, but enough of the beauty is there to afford the country road tourist, or bicyclist, a novel sight.—Adrian Times.

Reduced Rates to New York City.

On July 5, 6 and 7 the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y will sell tickets to New York City and return at one Lowest First-class Fare. Send to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O., for free copy of folder of information. The The Lake Shore is the only line to New York without a ferry transfer.

A LITTLE GIRL'S EXPERIENCE IN A LIGHTHOUSE.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and half bottles was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance	$1 10
If paid after 30 days	1 25
If paid after three months	1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance	$1 25
If paid after 30 days	1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.

Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.

Rates on general advertising on term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JUNE 9, 1892.

Coming events cast their shadows before and it looks more and more like Cleveland AND a Western man.

Blaine's resignation from the Cabinet last Saturday has forced the fighting and the war is now red-hot between the factions.

Cleveland gave the best definition of Reciprocity that has yet been given in his Providence speech. "Reciprocity," said he," is the homage that protection pays to tariff reform."

The New-York Press last Sunday had ten portraits of James G. Blaine, and no two bore any resemblance to each other. Either Mr. Blaine or the artist is a man of wonderful versatility.

As this page goes to press the Minneapolis Convention is in session with the prospect of a long and bitter contest between the Blaine and Harrison forces and the final nomination of a compromise candidate.

It is war to the knife now between Grandfather's Hat and the White Plume. It makes but little difference, however, which wins. If the Democrats display proper wisdom at Chicago they can sweep the decks.

"Further appeals to Cleveland sentiment are unnecessary," says the Kansas City Times. "The nomination is in the hands of the ex-President. Mr. Cleveland should be able to judge the prospects in New York. If he sees a majority before, he must accept the nomination. If he has doubts, he alone can weigh them. The Democrats of the country have tendered him their support and await his judgment about acceptance."

The action of the Anti-Snap convention at Syracuse, N. Y. last week has not ignited Cleveland's chances in the least. The Convention sent a full delegation to Chicago to emphasize their protest against Hill methods. At the same time it pledged support to the Chicago nominees, whoever they might be, and adopted in full the electoral ticket chosen at Albany. There will be but one Democratic electoral ticket in New York and both factions are now pledged to support it.

The Springfield Republican sizes up the N. Y. state Democracy in this fashion: If you don't believe that Hill's chances are vanishing at an accelerated ratio, read the New York Sun. It is as cocksure of his nomination as it was of Butler's election in 1884, and argues as convincingly in favor of it as it did to prove Boss Tweed an honest man. In the role of devil's advocate the Sun is thoroughly at home, and never so vigorous as when the moral sense of the country is getting thoroughly aroused in condemnation of the cause it advocates.

The New York World says: The claim of the Republican platform that our large exports this year are due to a tariff devised and enacted avowedly to hamper and prevent foreign trade is sufficiently cool for the season. It is no new thing for the high protectionists to attribute to the tariff taxes all the prosperity of this country, including big crops and little babies. But it is something rather new to claim for the tariff credit for an unusual foreign demand for our food stuffs, caused by short crops and famine abroad. There is danger of overworking the theory of the fructifying effect of taxes on the people's necessaries.

The Chicago Tribune, which is recognized as the leading Republican paper in the Northwest, appeals to the Republican Senate to pass the House bill for free wool and cheaper clothing. It says: "Let the Senate meet the issue squarely, and say plainly whether it proposes that the American manufacturer shall be put on an equal footing with foreign competitors by having mixing wool as cheaply and as freely as they have them, or whether the present system shall be maintained, and he shall be compelled to substitute cotton and shoddy for wool in order that the consumer may have seemingly cheap goods." It is a rare thing to find so much excellent advice expressed in one sentence. The Shoddyites must show their hand.

DEMOCRATIC REAPPORTIONMENT.

The Fairest Congressional Districts That the State Has Had.

They Are Compact, Have Common Interests, and Are Nearly Equal in Population.

The reapportionment of the congressional districts made by the democratic legislature of 1891 is the fairest that has been made in the history of Michigan. The republican press persistently talks about the "great democratic gerrymander." It takes but the briefest glance at the earlier apportionments of the state to demonstrate that the new division is by far more fair and proportionate than any ever made by the republicans of Michigan. The republican press has a practice of claiming everything done by the republicans to be good and of constantly decrying all the things done by the democratic party.

The people of Michigan, wearied with the mal-administration of the republican party at Lansing, voted the democratic party into power in 1890. Its administration of the state offices and its legislative acts have been commendable. It has kept its pledges to the people. It has enforced honesty and economy in the conduct of the public business. It has passed many laws for the benefit of the people—notably the law to popularize presidential elections by bringing them nearer the people and choosing presidential electors by districts. This was accompanied by a reapportionment that literally shines by contrast with its republican predecessors. The democratic party of Michigan is charged with endeavoring to steal the presidency by the district plan. This charge comes with little grace from a party that actually did steal one president. The district plan makes it possible for the democrats, prohibitionists and members of the people's party, who are in an immense majority over the republicans in Michigan, to choose a proportionate part of the electors of Michigan. This great majority is to be no longer a voiceless minority.

An examination of the following tables shows the absolute fairness of the new districts from which the congressmen and presidential electors are to be chosen. This is the apportionment that has been so freely denounced as a "horrible gerrymander" and contrasted with the "fair" republican apportionments of other years. This kind of partisan talk may be readily believed and accepted by republicans who have not examined the figures, and to independent voters and democrats there may seem to be some force in the partisan denunciation of the new electoral law and the democratic congressional apportionment.

A glance at the map of the new congressional districts will show that the last apportionment is by far the most just and equitable we have ever had. The new districts are so constructed that the interests of associated counties are identical. They are compact and easy of communication. The shameless gerrymanders made by the republicans in Ohio, Iowa and other states and which have been followed by the democrats in some states found no favor in Michigan.

Congressional apportionments are made every ten years, and are based on the United States census. We will notice, for comparison, the last three apportionments made in the years 1872, (by the republicans) 1882, (by the republicans) and 1891 (by the democrats). The apportionment of 1891 made by the democratic legislature was based upon the census of 1890, which gave the population of the state at 2,093,889, which, divided by 12, the number of congressional districts, gives 174,491 as the ratio of population for each. We give below the population of each district, the departure from the ratio, the per cent. of departure in each, and the average for the whole:

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL APPORTIONMENT, 1891.

DISTRICT.	Population.	Departure.	Per Cent. of Departure.
1	173,841	650	00.37
2	192,879	18,388	10.53
3	172,319	2,172	01.24
4	181,879	6,388	03.66
5	171,051	3,440	02.05
6	160,539	10,048	09.02
7	181,435	6,944	03.98
8	172,242	2,249	01.28
9	148,626	25,865	16.54
10	154,491	19,900	11.28
11	167,929	6,562	03.99
12	180,658	6,167	03.58
Total departure		114,973	67.38
Average departure		9,581	05.61

LAST REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL APPORTIONMENT, 1882.

DISTRICT.	Population.	Departure.	Per Cent. of Departure.
1	166,444	17,922	11 84
2	156,538	7,736	5 19
3	164,966	16,184	10 85
4	150,569	1,757	1.18
5	178,066	29,354	19 08
6	164,784	15,972	10 74
7	154,302	5,580	3 75
8	165,290	16,478	7.59
9	125,919	39,722	15 85
10	131,151	37,091	25 37
11	104,527	44,285	29 76
Total departure		21,091	146 01
Average "		19,100	13 27

It will be observed that the greatest departure from the ratio by the democrats is 16.54 per cent., and by the republicans, was 29.76 per cent.; that the average departure by the republicans was two and a half times that by the democrats and that the greatest difference between any two districts in the democratic apportionment is between the Second and Ninth districts, which is 44,252, and in the republican apportionment of 1882 the greatest difference was 73,559 between the Fifth and Eleventh. It will be remembered that the old Fifth, which was given a population of 178,066 or 19 per cent. above the average, had twice been carried by the democrats, while the Eleventh, which was reliably republican, had but 104,527 or 29.76 per cent. below the average. Comparing these two districts, it will be seen that 73,539 more people were required to elect a democratic congressman in the Fifth than to elect a republican in the Eleventh.

The apportionment by the republicans in 1872 was also open to severe criticism. The total population of the state in 1872 was 1,184,282 and the ratio of district population was 131,587.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL APPORTIONMENT, 1872.

DISTRICT.	Population.	Departure.	Per cent. of Departure.
1	119,008	12,519	09.51
2	146,204	14,617	11.11
3	146,201	14,614	11.11
4	144,272	12,685	9.64
5	149,235	17,738	13.48
6	168,077	31,490	23.93
7	123,048	8,537	6.49
8	98,669	32,918	25.02
9	93,891	37,696	28.64
Total departure		182,816	138.93
Average "		20,313	15.43

The greatest departure from the ratio in the apportionment of 1872 was 37,696, which was 28.64 per cent. above the ratio. The greatest difference between any two districts was between the Sixth, which afterward elected democrats to congress and which had a population of 168,077, and the Ninth, Jay Hubbell's district, with a population of 93,891, being 37,696, or 28.64 per cent. below the ratio. The difference between these extremes was 69,186. The difference was almst three-fourths the entire population of the republican Ninth district. The average departure from the ratio in 1872 was three times as great as by the democratic apportionment of 1891. And yet republican papers have coolly called the latter an unprincipled partisan gerrymander for the purpose of "stealing" congressional and presidential electors.

The three apportionments may be contrasted in brief as follows:

YEAR.	Party Making Apportionment.	Total Departure.	Average Departure.	Percent. of departure.
1872	Republican	182,816	20,313	15.43
1882	Republican	211,091	19,190	13.27
1891	Democratic	114,973	9,581	5.61

Republicans talk about shoestring districts in Michigan as ridiculous. Does the reader remember the old Tenth district which spread over nearly one-fourth of the state and extended from Genesee county to the straits? And the Eleventh, which straddled the broadest part of Lake Michigan? The three counties of the lower peninsula which were attached to the Eleventh had about as much community of interest with the upper peninsula as they had with Alaska.

We do not claim that districts are or can be absolutely equal in population, but the democratic apportionment comes a great deal nearer to the requirements of justice and conforms better to the spirit of the constitution than did its republican predecessors.

The people are just. It will take something more than empty partisan claims to prove the charges against the democratic party. The figures are against the republicans. They do not lie. The truth of history is against the republicans. The people will return the judgments of the republicans upon their own work and their own heads.

$7,000 IN SIX MONTHS.

Democratic Management of Oil Inspection Makes That Saving.

More Work Done, Less Expense Incurred, and Seven Thousand Dollars Made for the Taxpayers.

The fulfillment of party pledges is the true test of political honesty. It is easy to forget anteelection pledges when placed in power, as the record of republican administrations in Michigan prove. And this lack of observance of them makes fidelity to them the more commendable.

The record of the present democratic state administration in every department is a complete fulfillment of the economy and efficiency promised the people on the platform of 1890. The work of the state departments is being more expeditiously transacted, with fewer employes, with greater efficiency and at a saving of thousands of dollars to the taxpayers.

Further illustration of this is shown in the department under State Inspector John O'Brien's supervision. The democratic force of oil inspectors commenced business July 1, 1891, and their report for the six month sending December 31, 1891, makes a remarkable showing when compared with the previous six months of the department under republican management. Briefly summed up, the respective reports show results as follows: H. D. Platt and deputies, for the six months ending June 30, 1891,

Inspected	136,375 barrels
Rejected	216
Collected in fees	$17,740 55
Expended	11,427 52
Turned into the treasury	$5,436 47

John O'Brien, democratic state oil inspector, and deputies for the six months ending December 31, 1891,

Inspected	187,506 barrels
Rejected	1,836
Collected in fees	$24,375 78
Expended	10,888 01
Paid into the treasury	$12,572 27

Thus it will be seen that in the first six months under democratic management the net cash from fees collected for the inspection of oil was $7,135.80 more than for the preceding six months under republican management. The democratic inspectors performed much more work than the republican and did it at less expense. The expense of the democratic inspection was but a fraction over 94 per cent. of the fees collected, while the expense of the service under republican management was a trifle over 64 per cent. of the fees collected. Surely such economy and efficiency must be very satisfactory to the taxpayers. The taxpayers can congratulate themselves that their money is being honestly used for legitimate purposes, instead of being squandered for luxuries for the personal use and enjoyment of officials. As investigation of the records of the democratic administration proceeds, every honest and unprejudiced mind is forced to concede that the demands of the people are being met and the promises made by the democratic party for economy and reform are being fulfilled in every department. And the grand central doctrine of the democratic party—reduced taxation to the lowest point consistent with efficient government, honestly and economically administered—is being practiced by the officials now in charge of the government of this state.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

THERE is always a sort of freemasonry among college graduates. They know better than other people do how much there is that they don't know.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN.

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations, taken according to directions, are gone in a week. Therefore be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

SCHOOL BOARD Teacher (trying to explain what a brother-in-law is): Now look here, you have a sister. Tommy: Ah, it's no good, she ave three young men already. You wouldn't be in it! (Gets the stick).

A WONDERFUL STATEMENT.

Proprietors of Dallam's Great German Remedies.—GENTLEMEN: I have for the past two years been troubled with a serious and very severe liver and stomach difficulty. Have had advice and medicine from our very best physicians, and only to be temporarily relieved. Some of my friends persuaded me to try your Great German Remedy for the Blood, Stomach and Kidneys, and to my surprise, after using three bottles, I feel like a new man. If you desire you can use my name in print or by reference in any of the Grand Rapids, Michigan papers, or any other papers in the States, to convince the afflicted that it is the best blood, liver and kidney medicine on earth. I feel like a new man. I have lived here over 40 years.

J. M. LIVINGSTON,
Grand Rapids, Mich.

For sale by Jno. Orr.

FATHER: So May referred you to me, eh? Well sir, so you drink? Suitor: Er—sometimes. Father: This is some time. Come out with me. It is no harm breaking a New Years pledge to toast your daughter's happiness.

MILES NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

JUDGE to young women charged with shoplifting: Where do you live, young women: in the North End or Back Bay? Defendent: Why do you wish to know? Judge (imocently: How am I to tell whether this is plain shoplifting or kleptomania?

LANE'S FAMILY MEDICINE MOVES THE BOWELS

Each day. Most people need to use it.

Why is HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

Such a great success, and why is it impossible for other Sarsaparillas and blood purifiers to compete with this great medicine? Because

No Other Sarsaparilla or blood purifier gives as much medicine for the money as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla has the careful personal supervision of the proprietor in all the details of its preparation, as has Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla has the merit to secure the confidence of entire communities and hold it year in and year out, as has Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla can produce from actual cures such wonderful statements of relief given to human suffering as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla possesses the Combination, Proportion and Process Peculiar to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and which makes Hood's Sarsaparilla in curative effect Peculiar to Itself.

No Other Sarsaparilla combines economy and strength as does Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the only preparation of which can truly be said, 100 Doses $1.

No Other Sarsaparilla has effected such remarkable cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla, of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, blood poisoning and all other blood diseases.

No Other Sarsaparilla has equalled Hood's Sarsaparilla in the relief it gives in the severest cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Heartburn, and other stomach disorders.

No Other Sarsaparilla overcomes That Tired Feeling. Restores the Appetite, and "Makes the Weak Strong," like

Hood's Sarsaparilla

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's do not be induced to take any other.

Hood's Pills cure Biliousness

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER

DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S

Brick Office on Shawnee St. TECUMSEH, M

ORANGE BLOSSOM

A POSITIVE CURE FOR

ALL FEMALE DISEASES.

SOME SYMPTOMS: A tired, languid feeling, low spirited and despondent, with ... ent cause, Indigestion, headache, backache, bearing down ... across lower part of bowels, with great soreness in region of ovaries, Tumors, Bla... ty, Frequent urination, Leucorrhœa, Constipation of bowels, piles. With all these ... patient nervous and irritable. THE ORANGE BLOSSOM TREATMENT remove... by a thorough process of absorption.

A LOCAL APPLICATION Perfectly harmless, which every lady can use, here... icines taken internally will never relieve the many ... female weakness. The remedy must be applied to the parts to obtain permanent re...

A PLAIN TALK TO LADIES in our circular. Ask your druggist for one, or ... cent stamp to home office for sample box and ...

EVERY LADY CAN TREAT HERSELF.

O. B. Pile Remedy. $1.00 FOR ONE MONTH'S TREATMENT. O. B. Stomach Po...
O. B. Catarrh Cure. —PREPARED BY— O. B. Kidney Co...

J. A. McGILL, M. D., & CO., 2 & 4 PANORAMA PLACE, CHICAGO, I...

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

ALONZO G. FISHER, Wholesale Agent, 67 Washington St., Chicago, I...

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York Price 50 cts.

The New Model Hall Typewriter

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Char...

Remodeled and Improved, ...

GOOD MANIFOLDER.

The Best Standard Typewriter in the W...

Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interc... able type in all languages, Easiest to le... rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHE...

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIE... every body should have their writing done o... Typewriter. It always insures the most pr... attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159.

N. TYPEWRITER CO.,

611 Washington St., Boston, M...

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Seth P. Shelton, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Charles Burridge in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 25th day of June, 1892, and on the 25th day of September, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 25th day of March, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated May 25th, 1892.

ANSEL P. CODDINGTON,
HORATIO KEYSER,
Commissioners.

may26

ESTATE OF B. J. BIDWELL.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate Office in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 25th day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate Bardsey J. Bidwell deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Elizabeth A. Bidwell widow of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to Lamont C. Bidwell and Laverne I. Bidwell, or to some other suitable persons.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 29th day of June, next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said Petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said Petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy.)
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register. apr28

MORTGAGE SALE.

DEFAULT of payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date March 15th, 1888, executed and delivered by Seth C. Randall to Emma Drake, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1888 in Liber 120, of mortgages, on pages 614 and 615 and upon which mortgage there remains due at the date hereof the sum of three hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents ($399.60), and no proceedings at law or in equity having been taken to collect the same or any part thereof.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained (which has become operative by reason of said default) and by the statutes of the State of Michigan, in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon, and costs of this foreclosure and sale including an attorney fee as provided by law, I shall on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the court house, in the City of Adrian, County of Lenawee Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, viz: The northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three (23), town six (6), south of range five (5) east.

Dated April 11, 1892.

EMMA DRAKE,
Mortgagee.

WOOD & CIRD
Attorneys for Mortgagee. apr14

DRS. CATLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-9 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default of Payment having been made in a mortgage made by Edward Rowland and Mary Rowland, his wife, to Albert Hyde, Sr., bearing date the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1880, and of record in office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 100 of mortgages on Page 34, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due and unpaid at the date of this notice, of principal and accrued interest, the sum of Eight hundred forty-four and 62-100ths dollars ($844.62), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken for the collection of the same,

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the money above named and interest thereon at 8 per cent. per annum, to foreclose thereon, the costs of this foreclosure and sale, including the attorney fee provided by law, I shall, on the first day of August, A. D. 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder at the east front door of the court house in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan (that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for the said County of Lenawee), all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point on the south line of Logan street, Seventy feet from the intersection of that line with the west line of Evans street in said Village, thence running South parallel with and seventy feet distant from the East line of Evans street to an alley described in a deed given to Benjamin Wesley by Michael A. Patterson and George Crawford; thence East along the North line of said alley seventy feet; thence North to the South line of Logan street aforesaid; thence West along South line of Logan street aforesaid seventy feet to place of beginning—being the same premises conveyed by John H. Mills to said Edward Rowland by deed bearing date December 29, 1...; and comprising dwelling house and pump and blacksmith shop and premises thereon.

Dated May 5th, 1892.

ALBERT HYDE,
Mortgagee.

CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for Mortgagee.

ESTATE OF INCREASE S. HAMILTON.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate Office in the City of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 11th day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Increase S. Hamilton, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Frederick B. Wood, praying for the probate of an instrument now on file in this Court, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and that administration of said estate may be granted to petitioner and Ann Eliza Hamilton, the executor and executrix in said instrument named, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, that Monday, the 6th day of June next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate Office in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted;

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in THE TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)
RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of John Dut... deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Probate Court of said County, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the Town Clerk's Office in Britton, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 11th day of June, 1892, and on the 25th day of October 1892, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 26th day of April, A. D. 1891, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated Britton, Mich., April 27th, 1892.

JOHN BRITTON,
F. E. MORELL,
Commissioners.

Height of Cruelty.

Many women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often victims of ill health, they are considered ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, dropsical swelling of ankles, oppressed breathing, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the remedy for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequaled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvellous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by Baker and Hall.

Every Month

Many women suffer from Excessive or Painful Menstruation; they don't know who to confide in to get proper advice. Don't confide in anybody but try

Bradfield's Female Regulator

a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE, SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION.

Book to "WOMAN" mailed free. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga. Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S DUSKY DIAMOND LAUNDRY SOAP.

Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing. Cures Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc. Removes and Prevents Dandruff.

AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP. Best for General Household Use.

DEAFNESS & HEAD NOISES CURED by Peck's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfortable, successful where all Remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, 853 Broadway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp disease & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists

CONSUMPTIVE Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough, Colds, Lungs, Debility, Indigestion, Pain, Take in time. 50 cts.

CORNS. The only sure cure for Corns. No pain. 15c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

A Family Affair

Health for the Baby, Pleasure for the Parents, New Life for the Old Folks.

Hires' Root Beer

THE GREAT TEMPERANCE DRINK

is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening, effervescent beverage.

Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

CURE THAT Cold AND STOP THAT Cough.

N. H. Downs' Elixir WILL DO IT.

Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle. Warranted. Sold everywhere.

HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

Why Suffer?

When you can be Cured

Thousands are suffering with Torpid Liver—the symptoms are Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator is a reliable remedy for Liver Disorders. It cures thousands every year; why not try Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator? Your Druggist will supply you.

PROTECTION IN ENGLAND.

The Aristocracy Grew Wealthy While the People Were Forced Into Abject Poverty.

A very common but utterly erroneous idea prevails in this country that Great Britain only gave up the system technically called protection when by means of this system she had attained conditions of great prosperity and a substantial commanding position in manufactures and commerce.

The very reverse is true. The protective system was given up by Great Britain under the pressure of pauperism and bankruptcy in which it culminated in the years immediately preceding 1842, when Sir Robert Peel presented and carried his first great measure for the reform of the British tariff.

The origin of customs in England was in the time of Edward I. Thenceforward duties were added and multiplied, each rate being devoted to a specific purpose until in 1784 as many as fifteen separate duties were levied upon the same article. In 1787 William Pitt carried through an act of consolidation, without reducing the number of articles taxed; this measure left 1,200 articles subject to duty, and in order to bring the act into force 3,000 resolutions were required in the house of commons. In 1797, however, the laws relating to customs filled six large folio volumes unprovided with an index. The great subsequent wars rendered nugatory all Pitt's efforts to relieve commerce. Between 1797 and 1815 600 additional acts were passed and in fifty-three years of the reign of George III. the total number of acts relating to duties on imports was 1,300. At length taxes became so numerous that nothing was left untaxed; even premiums offered for the suggestion of fresh subjects for taxation failed to stimulate invention.

In 1824, under the lead of Huskisson, several of the crude materials necessary to British industry had been put into the free list, of which the most important was wool. This change had worked great benefit to both wool grower and manufacturer; the price of domestic wool advanced, while the manufacturer was enabled to reduce the cost of goods through the opportunity given him by freedom from taxation on imported wool to buy, sort and mix his wool in the most effective manner.

The first decisive step in tariff reform was brought about by the appointment of a parliamentary committee at the instance of Mr. Joseph Hume. The condition of the country was then desperate. The most concise account of the case is given in Noble's "Fiscal Legislation of Great Britain," but all authorities—liberal and tory alike—are substantially at an agreement upon this point. It is written that "every interest in the country was alike depressed. In the manufacturing district mills and workshops were closed and property daily depreciated in value; in the seaports shipping was laid up useless in harbor; agricultural laborers were eking out a miserable existence upon starvation wages and parochial relief; the revenue was insufficient to meet the national expenditure. The country was brought to the verge of national and universal bankruptcy.

The protective system, which was supported with a view to rendering the country independent of the foreign sources of supply, and thus it was hoped fostering the growth of a home trade, had most effectually destroyed that trade by reducing the entire population to beggary destitution and want. The masses of the population were unable to procure food and had consequently nothing to spend upon British manufactures. Part of the burden of taxation rested either upon necessary articles of food or else upon articles which were necessary component materials in British industry.

At that very time when the protective system culminated in the desperate conditions of Great Britain in 1840 it will be observed that it was the end of a period of profound peace which had lasted over twenty-five years in which the personal wealth of the upper classes in Great Britain had become immense. When presenting his first measure of the tariff reform, Sir Robert Peel remarked, after stating the deficit and the financial difficulties, to be met, "you will bear in mind that this is no casual and occasional difficulty. You will bear in mind that there are indications among all the upper classes of society of increased comfort and enjoyment, of increased prosperity and wealth, and that concurrently with these indications, there exists a mighty evil which has been growing up for the last seven years and which you are now called upon to meet." This evil was the increasing poverty and destitution of the great mass of the working people. The remedy was sought in a re-destribution of the burden of taxation. The tariff then covered 1,200 separate subjects of taxation of which 17 yielded 94 per cent. of the revenue—the rest were petty obstructions to commerce imposed for the purpose of protection with incidential revenue. That purpose was not, however, avowed in these exact terms at that time, as it has lately in this country by the advocates of McKinleyism.

In the first measure Sir Robert Peel wholly abated or reduced the duty upon a consistent plan on 750 articles and also caused an income tax of 7d on the pound to be put upon classified incomes which is a fraction less than 3 per cent. —all incomes below £150 being exempt. From this income tax he anticipated a revenue of £3,770,000 in the first year. It yielded £5,100,000, conclusively proving that under the previous system while the poor had been rapidly reduced to pauperism the rich had become richer.

Like causes produce like effects. Under the pretext of protection to the miners of this country and especially of Pennsylvania, a duty had long been maintained upon the import of foreign iron ores. It is now 75 cents a ton, which is precisely equal to the labor cost of producing a ton of iron ore in Pennsylvania, according to the sworn statements of the iron masters of Pennsylvania, by whom its iron mines are worked. The result of this system in the last census year, a year of the greatest activity known, was that 4,416 iron miners and workmen secured an income of $359 each, amounting in all to $1,141,239. There are iron masters in the state of Pennsylvania whose single incomes in a single year have exceeded the whole sum earned by the protected iron miners.

The effect of the first measure of tariff reform in Great Britain—that of 1842—was not immediately perceptible, the evil effect of the previous conditions being very deep seated; but before 1845 the beneficial influence upon every branch of industry, agriculture, manufactures and commerce alike, had become so manifest that little opposition was met to Peel's second great act of tariff reform of 1845 by which 430 articles, consisting of the crude and partly manufactured materials which entered into the processes of domestic industry, were put on the free list; the duties on the lessening number of dutiable imports being at the same time reduced and adjusted to those new conditions. In 1846 the Irish famine forced the abatement of all taxes on food by orders in council, subsequently followed by the repeal of the corn laws.

In 1847 Sir Robert Peel left office, but the immense benefits to every branch of British industry rendered it a comparatively easy matter to bring the tariff substantially to its present condition in 1758, coupled with the repeal of the navigation laws under the lead of Mr. Gladstone. Since that date the people of the United States have been forbidden by their own acts to compete with Great Britain in the construction and use of ocean steamships, while the commercial flag of Great Britain dominates every sea under the benencent influence of freedom from all restrictions and by virtue of the protection which is given by the exemption from taxation on all the materials used in construction and in the subsistence of the vessels.

EDWARD ATKINSON.

"THE GAME IS UP."

A Case of Plain Robbery—What the High Tariff "Manufacturer" Thinks of the Extortions Practiced By the Tariff Protected Sugar Trust.

The Philadelphia Manufacturer, the organ of the High Tariff Manufacturers club, of Philadelphia, has the following on the exactions practiced by the sugar trust under the protection given it by the McKinley tariff:

"Congress has provided that many millions of revenue heretofore obtained from sugar duties shall be diverted from the public treasury and be given to the people. The trust, under the shelter given to it by congress for a wise and fair purpose, proposes in turn to divert a portion of this money from the pockets of the people to the pockets of the members of the trust.

"Brethren, we say to you that if the protective system is to be employed for such purposes as this, the game is up. No champion of that system can succeed, even if he were willing to try, in commending to the people, at one and the same time, the protective system and the sugar trust. It is quite impossible to expect the nation to regard with enthusiasm, because it proposed to reduce the price of sugar, a law which enables the sugar trust to defeat that intention. What the purpose of the act is, consumers do not so much care. The thing that appeals most strongly to them is the actual fact that sugar prices have actually fallen; now, if sugar prices shall again advance under the manipulation of a protected conspiracy against the people, it will be useless to commend consumers to the purpose of Mr. McKinley. They will conclude, and rightly conclude, that if the whole benefit of the lower duties is not to come to them, it should go once again into the treasury of the United States. The opponents of the protective system will have placed in their hands, at the most critical moment in the history of American protection, a potent weapon with which to assail the protective theory; and we venture to say that there is small reason to doubt that the result will be overwhelming defeat for the protective system. Openly, in view of every man in the nation, there will be unanswerable demonstration that the free traders do not lack justification for their oft-repeated allegation that the protective tariff is used by manufacturers for the purpose of enriching themselves at the cost of their fellow citizens. The formation of the trust is, indeed, a challenge issued to the people. The latter, through their representatives in congaess, have decreed that sugar shall be cheapened. The trust, on the contrary, declares that it shall not be cheapened. There can be no doubt of the conclusion of this conflict of interests if the people shall be thoroughly roused; but there is some reason for fearing that the consequences may involve other than the offending parties. The sugar trust places the entire manufacturing interest of the country in jeopardy by its action, and in behalf of that interest we enter protest against the course that it is pursuing.

"Protesting, however, is likely to be of small service in averting the peril in which protected industry has been placed by this combination. There can be no safety but in action, and it may be conjectured that there would be few expressions of grief from protectionists if a republican senate should join with a democratic house in sending to a republican president, just as soon as the sugar trust has made its monopoly complete, a bill placing all grades of refined sugar upon the free list. The protectionists who defend protection upon grounds of public interest have no concern to apologize for it when it is perverted to the interest of a few private individuals. In truth, such abuse of the system ought to encounter prompt resistance from the sincere friends of home industry, for the man who misuses the tariff in such a manner is a more dangerous enemy of the system than the most active of the apostles of free trade. The question for consideration would appear to be, shall the sugar trust be permitted to use protection for the overthrow of protection?"

—It will be noticed, by close observation of the daily list of wage reductions, that they occur mostly in the protected industries. How long will the American voter be a silent spectator of this farce of a high tariff to raise wages.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Work of the National Lawmakers in Senate and House.

A Daily Summary of the Proceedings in the Senate and House — Bills Passed and New Measures Introduced.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—In the senate yesterday the time was occupied by Senator Sherman in a speech against the free coinage of silver bill.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—It was agreed in the senate yesterday that no vote should be taken on the free coinage bill until after the 14th of June. The new senator from Virginia, Gen. Eppa Hunton, took the oath of office.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—In the senate yesterday bills were passed to hold terms of court in the district of Montana, providing for two additional associate justices of the supreme court for the territory of Oklahoma, and creating two additional land districts in Montana. Adjourned to the 6th.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—In the house the post office appropriation bill was considered. A resolution was adopted revoking all leaves of absence except those granted on account of sickness. The committee on elections by a vote of 7 to 2 decided the contested election case of McDuffie against Turpin from the Fourth Alabama district in favor of Turpin (dem.), the sitting member.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—In the house yesterday a bill was reported limiting the amount of wearing apparel and personal effects that may be admitted free of duty. The post office appropriation bill was further considered.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Mr. Hatch reported the agricultural appropriation bill to the house yesterday. In committee of the whole the post office appropriation bill was further considered.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The house yesterday further considered the post office appropriation bill and an amendment was adopted prohibiting the postmaster general from making contracts hereafter under the provisions of the act to provide for ocean mail service between the United States and foreign ports.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The post office apppropriation bill was passed in the house on Saturday Among the items inserted was one appropriating $52,000 for a branch office on the grounds of the Columbian exposition.

TRAINS IN COLLISION.

Four Men Killed and Twenty-Six Colored Excursionists Injured.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 6.—News was received here of a terrible accident which occurred on the Owensboro & Nashville railway about 9 o'clock Sunday morning near South Carroll, Ky., in which four persons were killed and a number injured. A colored excursion train consisting of three coaches and a baggage car which left Owensboro, Ky., at 7:30 o'clock collided with the regular northbound passenger train. Twenty-six persons, mostly colored excursionists, sustained injuries. As near as could be learned the accident was caused by Engineer Fahey disobeying orders in going beyond Stroud station, where the excursion was to sidetrack for the passenger train. Both engines were completely demolished. The negroes of Owensboro are wild with excitement because of exaggerated reports of the number of the killed.

WORLD'S FAIR SOUVENIRS.

A Plan to Make Use of the Mutilated Silver Curreney in the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Representative Durborow called at the treasury department and had a long talk with Secretary Foster with regard to the minting of the souvenir half dollars for the world's fair. Secretary Foster said that he would willingly lend every aid in his power to the proposition to make use of the mutilated coin now in the treasury for the purpose of these special pieces. Altogether there is about $14,000,000 of this mutilated coin, but about half of this is in dollars or quarters and dimes. The $7,000,000 worth of half dollars is what will be probably used for the purpose. This money while not actually an asset is carried as such on the books of the treasury, and to make use of it in the way indicated will make it an available asset, while it is unavailable at present.

Killed by the Cars.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 3.—Three persons died Thursday from the effects of injuries on the Northwestern railroad near here. Tim Callaghan, aged 26, was struck by a midnight train, dying at noon. Frank Harmon, aged 51, was injured in the morning south of town and died at night. He leaves a family at No. 224 South Center avenue, Chicago. An 8-year-old son of Mr. Moran was killed by a fast train at Highland Park about 4 p. m.

Wall Paper Makers Combine.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 4.—The long-talked-of combination of wall paper manufacturers became an accomplished fact Friday afternoon when a certificate was filed with the secretary of state incorporating the National Wall Paper Company, with a capital of $14,000,000, divided into $100 shares. The company is to manufacture and deal in wall paper and other interior house decorations.

Going Around the World.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Frank G. Lenz, a wheelman, starts from this city today on a trip around the world on a bicycle. He expects to reach New York again by June 4, 1893. The distance he will cover is 22,000 miles.

Died Reading a Newspaper.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Margaret White, 65 years of age, residing at 4209 School street, was reading a newspaper when she fell from her chair dead.

Awful Work of Cholera.

LONDON, June 4.—A dispatch to the Times from Calcutta says that thus far there have been over 3,000 deaths from cholera at Serinagar.

To Young Mothers.

who are for the first time to undergo woman's severest trial, we offer you, not the stupor caused by chloroform, with risk of death for yourself or your dear baby, and all the after suffering, but "Mother's Friend," a remedy which will, if used as directed, invariably alleviate the pains, horrors and risks of labor, and often entirely do away with them. Sold by Jno. Orr.

I HAVE TAKEN SEVERAL Bottles of Bradfield's Female Regulator for falling of the womb and other diseases combined of 15 years standing, and I really believe I am cured entirely, for which please accept my thanks.

MRS. W. E. STEBBINS, Ridge, Ga.

WHY IS THE W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY?

It is a seamless shoe, with no tacks or wax thread to hurt the feet; made of the best fine calf, stylish and easy, and because we make more shoes of this grade than any other manufacturer, it equals hand-sewed shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

$5. Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest calf shoe ever offered for $5.00; equals French imported shoes which cost from $8.00 to $12.00.

$4. Hand-sewed Welt Shoe, fine calf, stylish, comfortable and durable. The best shoe ever offered at this price; same grade as custom-made shoes costing from $6.00 to $8.00.

$2.50 Police Shoe; Farmers, Railroad Men and Letter Carriers all wear them; fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, heavy three soles, extension edge. One pair will wear a year.

$2.00 fine calf no better shoe ever offered at this price; one trial will convince those who want a shoe for comfort and service.

$2.25 and $2.00 Workingman's shoes are very strong and durable. Those who have given them a trial will wear no other make.

Boys' $2.00 and $1.75 school shoes are worn by the boys everywhere; they sell on their merits, as the increasing sales show.

Ladies $3.00 Hand-sewed shoe, best Dongola, very stylish; equals French imported shoes costing from $4.00 to $6.00.

Ladies' 2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 shoe for Misses are the best fine Dongola. Stylish and durable.

Caution.—See that W. L. Douglas' name and price are stamped on the bottom of each shoe.

IF TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE. Insist on local advertised dealers supplying you. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by

SOLD BY HARRIS & HITESHU, Tecumseh.

LADIES

In delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions or of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to my cure, together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The M. U. Pastilles have stood the test of 15 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $1.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr H. H. Jackson, 103 State Street, Chicago, Illinois

The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. The name and address will be given any lady asking for the same:

"DR JACKSON,

Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend your M. U. Pastille to all ladies suffering with female disease. Having myself been bedfast for ten months and could find no remedy until I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using about two boxes I was well and sound, for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady." ul16-1y

DO YOU COUGH DON'T DELAY TAKE KEMP'S BALSAM THE BEST COUGH CURE

It Cures Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Large Bottles, 50 cents and $1.00. It Cures Influenza.

The Celebrated Stallion

GIPSEY CHIEF.

Will make the season of 1892 at the owner's farm, at the Bridgewater Mills, River Raisin.

GIPSEY CHIEF is the grandest sire in Southern Michigan, producing from mares of different blood, more matched colts, than any other stallion. Parties wishing to raise colts uniform in style and color, would do well to look at Gipsey Chief and his get, before booking their mares. He is the sire of the celebrated horse Tipton Boy, record 2:24 1-2, and other fast ones.

GIPSEY'S colts all have fine style and action and find ready sale at good prices. For pedigree and terms, address

CHARLES R. KOERNIG, River Raisin, Mich.

Physicians Outdone.

My wife has been suffering with female trouble of the severest kind for over three years. I have paid twenty-five dollars during the last three months and she had no relief. She had doctored continually with the best of physicians.

I bought three bottles each of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure, and can say to-day that she is entirely cured. W. H. DROWLEY.

Sworn to before me on this 23d day of June, 1890. JOHN C. DULLAM, Flint, Mich. Notary Public, Genesee Co. For sale by Jno. Orr.

He: You know I don't approve of tight lacing in women. I think such constant pressure around the waist is highly injurious. She: I don't think that is what makes it so bad. He: What is it, then. She (toying with her fan): It is because that method is so artificial.

There are more divorces granted in the United States than in all the rest of the Christian world put together. Americans are very discriminative—after marriage.

KING OF THE BLOOD

The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.

Cures all Humors, from a Common Pimple to the worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.

Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.

Its name is its best description as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.

It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES, and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.

It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the Surgeon's knife.

It cures DROPSY, general or partial.

It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASES.

It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.

It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons and establishes a sound constitution.

Many certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," in which each bottle is enclosed.

Price $1 per bottle containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses. Sold by dealers or medicine.

If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you. It will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors, BUFFALO N. Y.

DR. TRASK'S MAGNETIC OINTMENT.

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.

It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.

The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.

All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.

It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood. By this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame; every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years,

This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates of cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.

Price 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!

HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan Street, I am prepared to execute

General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds,

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

Satisfaction Guaranteed and Charges Reasonable.

A. J. WHITING.

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES. OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured. A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.

OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Third Annual Meeting of the Detroit Conference W. F. M. S. of the M. E. Church.

The third annual meeting of the Detroit Conference Women's Foreign Missionary Society, of the M. E. Church opened at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, May 31, Mrs. Wm. Lake, of East Saginaw, presiding.

After the hymn, "Glory to His Name," sung by the choir, Rev. O. J. Perrin read a Scripture lesson, the 72nd Psalm and part of the 16th chapter of Romans, and followed with prayer.

Another hymn, "At the Cross," by choir and congregation. The address of welcome was something unique and was sweetly rendered in song by Mrs. Arthur Harding and Miss Harding, of Tecumseh. The response was given by Mrs. M. E. Randall, of Bay City.

The hymn, "Wonderful Story," was sung as solo and chorus.

Address—Miss Franc Baker, of Morenci,—a pleasant and instructive outline sketch of the General Conference at Omaha.

Singing—"Sound the Battle Cry!"

Paper, "To Whom it May Concern"—Mrs. Carrie C. Faxon, of West Bay City.

The President requested the ladies entertaining delegates to give them plain fare and try to be in attendance at the business sessions.

Rev. Perrin made some announcements.

Singing—"The Morning Light is Breaking."

Benediction pronounced by Rev. Perrin, followed by social hour.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Memorial hour—Led by Mrs. L. Barnes, of Tecumseh.

Singing—"Shall we gather at the River?"—followed by a few touching remarks by Mrs. Barnes.

The Scripture lesson was the 46th Ps. Prayer by Mrs. Wm. Benson, of Adrian, was tender and comforting.

Hymn—"The Shining Shore."

Bay City Dist. reported two deaths—Mrs. Elizabeth Bell and Mrs. Jane Rice.

Detroit Dist.—Corresponding Secretary not arrived.

Adrian Dist.—Mrs. Cushman reported the death of Mrs. Beyer, of Ann Arbor.

Rollin Center—Mrs. Cole reported the death of two members—Sister Haire and Sister Todd.

Miss Baker spoke of the death of the mother of our President, Harriet A. M. Calkins, of South Lyons.

Flint Dist.—Mrs. Waldron reported one death—Lucy A. Kesley, of Milford, a life member of the Society. Brother Perrin, former pastor, spoke a tribute of praise of Sister Caster. Mrs. Banghart reported two members—Mrs. Thos. Simmons and Mrs. John Tasell, of Flint.

Port Huron—None reported.

Saginaw Dist.—Mrs. Lake reported no deaths in that district, but said, in speaking of the death of her mother, "All I am in this work I owe to my mother."

Mrs. Barnes, in closing, spoke of two deaths last year in the auxiliary society of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Waldron moved that a message of sympathy be sent to Sister Fish, of Flint, who is detained at home to take care of her mother.

The hour closed by singing No. 277—"There's a Land that is Fairer than Day."

COMMITTEES NAMED.

Courtesies—Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Perrin.

Enrollment—Mrs. Steinhoff, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Cushman.

Resolutions—Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Garrett and Mrs. Bigelow.

Press—Rev. Perrin.

Literature—Mrs. Alice Page and Mrs. Rosenbury.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Rev. Yager, of Ridgeway, led the devotional exercises.

Fraternal greeting from Presbyterian church by Mrs. E. B. Wood; Friends' church, Mrs. M. Wood; Home Missionary, Mrs. Gamble; W. C. T. U., Mrs. Stewart. Mrs. Lake, of Saginaw, responded with a few appropriate remarks, followed by Mrs. Ninde, of Detroit, who in her reply said that these bands of women were to hasten the coming of the Lord. Miss Baker, Cor. Sec'y, gave an interesting report of work done. Miss Gamble, of Detroit, read the Conference treasurer's report. Over $4,200 have been raised for the first two quarters. Miss Gamble, Branch treasurer, reported over $3,000 raised for the last two quarters. Mrs. A. Stalker, of Clinton, read a paper on "Hindrances," which the President pronounced splendid and which opinion was indorsed by the hearers. The session closed by singing "Rock of Ages." Rev. Yager pronounced the benediction.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The exercises began by a voluntary singing, "Savior, like a Shepherd Lead Us." Mrs. Ninde, of Detroit, led the devotional exercises.

Miss Schenck, of Bulgaria, was then introduced and gave a very interesting talk on the country and people; also work done by the missionaries. A girl dressed in Bulgarian costume was introduced.

"As We've Sown, so shall We Reap," was then sung, after which Mrs. Ninde, of Detroit, spoke on how we should be prepared for work by conversion, consecration, information, instruction, supplication and contribution. Dismissed.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Consecration meeting, led by Mrs. Alice Page, of Adrian.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Mrs. Bigelow, of Flint, took charge of the workers' hour. Mrs. Johnson, of Ann Arbor, told how they were raising money for a scholarship in Lucknow University, as a memorial to Miss Hattie Curr, missionary. Mrs. Conklin, of Adrian auxiliary, says they have 503 barrels out and expect to raise considerable money. Mr. Drees, of South America, and Rev. Stalker, of Clinton, were introduced and each made a few appropriate remarks. A pleasing paper entitled, "Wise-Hearted and Willing-Hearted," was read by Mrs. A. J. Bigelow, of Flint. The following officers were then elected:

President—Mrs. Lake, Saginaw.
Rec. Sec.—Mrs. C. C. Faxon, Bay City.
Cor. Sec.—Miss Baker, Morenci.
Treas.—Mrs. E. W. Preston, Detroit.

A paper on "Systematic Giving" was read by Mrs. Randall, of Bay City, followed by a few remarks by Mrs. Ninde, of Detroit, and Mrs. Grinnell, of Bay City.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Rev. Lewis, of the Friends' church, led the devotional exercises.

Bible reading by Mrs. Ninde, Detroit.

A paper by Mrs. Grinnell, of Bay City, on McKay of Uganda was very good. Recess.

Miss Schenck and Mr. Drees, the missionaries, were called to the platform and made a few appropriate remarks.

A paper—"Do Your Best"—was read by Mrs. Mary Town, of Rollin Center.

The enrollment committee reported 74 present.

Resolutions were read but had to be corrected. Trustees same as last year. The secretary read the afternoon minutes, which were approved. The exercises closed by singing the Doxology.

THURSDAY EVENING.

The meeting began by a voluntary. The devotional exercises were conducted by Dr. Barnes, of Tecumseh. Mr. Drees, of South America, then told of work done there. Miss Baker thought, in order to have everything right, we must have a collection.

Meeting dismissed by Mr. Drees.

ANNIVERSARY SERMON.

Last Sunday was the tenth anniversary of the settlement of Rev. W. H. Babbitt as Pastor of the Presbyterian church. The morning sermon was devoted to a review of the past ten years. We take pleasure in presenting to our readers a synopsis of the discourse.

Strangers are welcome to our special anniversary service, but this Decennial discourse is especially dedicated to those who worship here statedly and who pray for the peace of this Jerusalem. The good understanding which began here ten years ago between this pulpit and these pews has at least held its own. One secret of this lasting agreement has been that the speaker has not tried to be anyone but himself; without trying to imitate some celebrated and successful person he has simply tried to stir up the gift bestowed on him by his God. This is the surest way to achieve success. Another reason that a welcome has been found in your hearts is that the purpose of your minister's settlement among you was not that he might seek his own fortune, but that he might bring to you the good glad message of the gospel. He came not seeking yours but you; not to get his pay for doing a certain round of official duty, but to help on the work which brings men into loving relation with their God. This is why he has had steady and hearty support all these years. This has been a peaceful pastorate. Storms have raged in many places in the social and religious world but here we have dwelt in unity. Our peace has been more than a truce between battles. It has been a laying aside of controversies—a cheerful yielding of personal preferences. "Let brotherly love continue," is what we have sought to make our motto and we have sought to live together as members of the same loving household ought to do. The growth of a church consists partly in receiving new members and partly in the development in the christian life of those already in its pale.

The number of new members received into this church since June 1882 is 201. As these have been received at intervals of three months, the average has been 5 every quarter, or 20 every year. Only two out of forty communion seasons have passed at which some new members have not been welcomed. The number received on confession of their faith is 116. These have been mainly young people, but a few of mature years have been of the number. The rest of the 201 have come by letter from other churches. The number of members who have died in ten years is sixty-four and many have gone to live elsewhere. In this period many christians have come into a fuller, richer life and not a few of them through the discipline of affliction. Christian growth is a wonderful thing and the only thing that can satisfy our spiritual cravings or brighten the horizon of the future. The church in the world is a divine institution. It is "the pillar and ground of the truth." In the last ten years advance has been made in the unity and fraternity of different denominations. Unity is best promoted by being loyal to one's own church, where his christian vows are registered. Nothing should be permitted to rival the church in the esteem of its members. It should be prayed for, labored for, sacrificed for. Looking at the obstacles that oppose the church, and are enemies to faith and consistent christian living, one can hardly help trembling for the ark as he looks into the future. Under God everything depends on the faithfulness of our church members to the duties belonging to them. May those in the church, and those standing on the borders of the Kingdom, see their duty to the Son of God, the only Savior, in clear and scriptural light, and be moved to do it.

OVER THE RIVER.

Died, at the home of her parents near Tecumseh, Mich., on Monday morning, May 30, 1892, Eva May Rector, eldest daughter of Frank and Frances C. Rector, aged twenty-six years.

Five years ago the happy household of Mr. and Mrs. Rector contained four children—three daughters and a son. Death first invaded this pleasant circle December 7th, 1888, when the youngest daughter, Minnie, was taken after a protracted illness. For many weeks the sympathy of friends was elicited in view of the sore sickness of this dear child, and many an earnest prayer went up to Heaven for her recovery. Yet, when it pleased God to take her home to Himself, there was comfort in the thought that she was ready to go and be with Him.

And now, with the former loss still fresh in mind of a dear daughter removed in the bright promise of her early youth, the mystery of another and a similar affliction has entered into the experience of this family. The former experience of watching and waiting, of hoping and fearing, has been repeated, only in this case the period of suspense and trial has been longer. But it has left its tender memories, as well as drawn forth its tender sacrifices. Concerning the courage and the fortitude of the patient sufferer there is but one opinion among those who have been aware of the way in which she bore herself. They have been remarkable. In sufferings that were oftentimes intense there was neither murmur nor complaint. There was a patient readiness to do everything that was decided upon for her benefit. The inquiries of her friends as to how she was met with cheerful response and her solicitude during her sickness seemed to be more for her loved parents and other friends than for herself. The explanation of all this is to be sought and found, not simply in her natural disposition, but in the sustaining grace of the God and Savior in whom she had put her trust.

It was in April, 1883, that Eva and her sister next in age stood forth and took upon them the vows of a Christian profession. Of the covenant into which she then entered she [illegible] unmindful. Of the fact [illegible] sufferings being ended, she [illegible] her Heavenly rest, there c[illegible] doubt. So let those who love [illegible] cherish her memory comfort themselves with the thought that she is lifted far above all grief and pain. And let them resume their daily cares and duties, conscious that another voice is uttering its appeal to them to live for God and to trust in Him, even when He causes them to walk in darkness. W. H. B.

Memorial Resolutions by the W. R. C.

Mrs. John Durling, a soldier's widow and an old resident of Tecumseh, died May 11, 1892, at her residence. She had been for many years a worthy member of the M. E. church. This is the third time the W. R. C. has been called to mourn the death of a beloved member, therefore

RESOLVED—That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the friends of our dear sister, and that this memorial be recorded in the secretary's book, thus perpetuating her name on our records, as well as her precious memory in our hearts.

MRS. L. BARNES,
MRS. W. E. JORDAN, } Com.
MRS. S. SWEET.

International Convention Y. P. S. C. E.

The eleventh International Convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held in New York City, July 7 to 10, inclusive, and for this event the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y. will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates on July 5, 6 and 7. Send to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O., for free copy of folder of information.

Buy Dullam's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orr's.

VERY MUCH SURPRISED.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle.

Signed, A. B. SNELL.
Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1811.
For sale by Jno. Orr.

SCHOOL SKETCHES.

Commencement invitations will be out soon.

General English III. has completed the reading of Johnson's Rasselas.

The political economy class is trying to subdue Free Trade and Protection.

The Virgil class have completed the sixth book and will review the rest of the term.

Miss Florence Burlingame called on the A room during Chapel Wednesday morning.

Fred Rector visited the school Tuesday; he was a tenth grade student during the winter term.

Rev. O. J. Perrin was calling on the different departments in the high school last Tuesday forenoon.

Mrs. Emily Hall and Miss Mamie Haight, of the class of '90, called on the A room Wednesday morning.

Miss Anna Harding of class of '91 was a visitor last Thursday morning; also Miss Edith Gamble on Friday morning.

A Free Copy.

Of a folder containing information about the reduced rates, route, tickets, etc., to the Convention of Christian Endeavor at New York, July 7 to 10, sent to any address on applying to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., L. S. & M. S. R'y. Cleveland, Ohio.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St. N. Y.

AN OPPORTUNITY

IS NOW GIVEN

Children and Persons of Small Means

In Tecumseh and Vicinity

To avail themselves of the advantages of the

NICKEL SAVINGS STAMP SYSTEM

recently introduced by the

Lenawee County Savings Bank

AT ADRIAN.

An Agency has been established with C. A. WRIGHT & CO. the Druggists, who will furnish upon application, Books descriptive of the system

SUMMER HATS

STRAW HATS,
SOFT HATS,
STIFF HATS.

For Men and Boys—All Styles and Qualities.

Hot Weather Clothing An Endless Variety Styles and Qualities

Cassimere Suits in All the Latest Styles and Colors for Men, Boys, and Children.

THE LARGEST LINE AND LOWEST PRICES AT

STRONG & McNAIR'S

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS

I will sell your choice of my extensive line of

Hanging Lamps

at cost. I can show you the best assortment of

HAVILAND CHINA,

plain and decorated patterns, in dinner and tea sets, also in fancy pieces. Decorated English porcelain in 12 different patterns, and in sets to suit. A fine English decorated chamber set at the very low price of $2.90 for 10 piece set; $4.90 for 12 piece set.

My stock of Fancy Groceries is complete. Our customers say we have have the best 50c tea in town. Come and get sample and see for yourself. Will not be undersold.

JAMES LOWRY.

We have never had such a fine array of harvest machines to show farmers as this season. Every one shows inventive skill, strength and symmetry derived from the touch of

WALTER A. WOOD.

The Wood machines, as made for 1892, are winning crowds of new friends. Examine the new chain-drive, and balance-reel, on the Wood harvester. Examine the new spring lift and the new axle extension on the Wood mowers. Examine the Wood hand-dump rakes, virtually self-dumping.

REASONS WHY

FARMERS SHOULD BUY

Walter A. Wood Harvest Machines

BECAUSE they are light of draft.
BECAUSE they are easily operated.
BECAUSE they are simple in construction.
BECAUSE they are THE WALTER A. WOOD.
BECAUSE they have a world-wide reputation.
BECAUSE with care they will last a life time.
BECAUSE great care is taken in their manufacture.
BECAUSE they do not require the aid of an expert.
BECAUSE they contain all the latest improvements.
BECAUSE they can be operated by man, woman or child.
BECAUSE they are made of the best and strongest materials.

M. E. CONKLIN, Agent.

Headquarters at D. L. Whitenack's Hardware.

ADJOURNED SALE!

The Sale of Lots of the Adrian Improvement Company will be Continued on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15,

In Croswell Opera House,

In the City of Adrian; commencing at SEVEN O'CLOCK IN THE EVENING. All purchasers at this Sale will be entitled to participate in the FIRST DRAWING, in which will be included the Most Valuable Property owned by the Company. On this date will be due the of the First Purchasers. Payments will be received at the office of the Company during the day, and at the Opera House during the evening. DON'T FAIL TO COME.

SECOND PAYMENT

THERE IS MONEY IN ADRIAN FOR YOU

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HAIRDRESSING. Madame Grimm, hair-dresser, of Detroit, is at Mrs. Gamble's.—Manufactures and has for sale all styles of hair goods. Prices very reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. 1w

WANTED a few old umbrellas and parasols. 3w P. J. WELLING.

ATTENTION FARMERS.—Before buying a mower see the Johnston, the best mower in the market. For sale by GEO. HOLLOWAY, Holloway. 6w

FOR SALE.—To make room for another importation we will sell for the next 30 days, my shropshire ewes; eight head milch cows coming in soon; also five head good horses. For particulars enquire of GRAY & TALLMAN. Tecumseh, May 19, 1892. 4w.

FOR SALE.—12 horse power Engine and boiler for sale cheap if taken at once. Parties can see engine running at Heesen Bros.' saw shop. HEESEN BROS. & CO.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—The old M. E. parsonage house on Pearl street. A good house in a very fine location. For price and terms of payment call at the premises. S. WHITTIER. mar14

FOR SALE OR RENT.—A brick house with two or six of land on Adrian road, south of old Quaker meeting house, good bargain to right parties. Inquire at J. S. Kinney's furniture store, Tecumseh.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—My place of fifteen acres, located in Brownville on Birch street. Will sell on long time and very easy payments. For particulars enquire of James Kingan, near the premises. GILES TURNER. mar17 8t

MUSTANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, tf Tecumseh.

CHINA ASTER PLANTS.—A large and fine assortment. Will sell them at twenty cents per dozen. Call at residence of Mrs. C. J. Bacon, Union St. J. L. WHITE.

ASTONISHING.—Any young man or young lady, meaning business, can learn of something of practical value to him by enclosing a stamp at once—don't wait—to C. A. SHARP, Adrian, Mich

TO THE LAKES.—I have a large covered wagon suitable for conveying parties to the Lakes. Special trips made on any day desired, at reasonable rates. DELL HUBBARD.

TECUMSEH HERALD.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JUNE 9, 1892.

Local and Miscellaneous

Al. Heesen was at home over Sunday.

The political storm center hovers over Minneapolis this week.

Farmers' Union Picnic, at Sand Lake, next week Saturday, June 18th.

The frame of Temple, McClure & Co's new planing mill is up and the building is now being enclosed.

The Farmers' Union Picnic will be held at Sand Lake on Saturday, June 18th. See the official notice elsewhere.

The next encampment of the State Militia will be held at Island Lake, beginning Aug. 18th and ending the 22d.

The C. J. & M. road have put on a Sunday train between Toledo and Devils Lake. The first train ran last Sunday.

The reunion of Co. F., 26th, Mich. Inf., will be held at Jehiel Davidson's Tuesday. Preparations are making for a grand time.

Raisin Valley Seminary will soon be connected with the Commercial Telephone line. The poles are all up and the wire is now being stretched.

The Right Reverend Thos. F. Davies, D.D. Bishop of Michigan, will visit St. Peter's church on Tuesday June 14th. Confirmation services will be held at 7:30 p. m.

Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins will return on Thursday evening, June 9th, from Detroit, where the doctor has been attending the sessions of the American Medical Association.

Puck's political cartoons this week (June 8th) are of especial interest on account of the present and the approaching conventions. They foreshadow the nomination of Cleveland and Harrison.

P. W. Adams and wife, of McDonough, Del., are spending a couple of weeks with relatives and acquaintances in Tecumseh. They will go to Lansing to visit Mrs. Adams' parents before returning home.

Mr. Howells intends spending his summer in a quiet nook in New England, devoting a large portion of his time to the writing of his novel of American girl-life, to be published in the Autumn in The Ladies' Home Journal.

The bandmen's reunion, held at Adrian last Sunday, was participated in by over seventy-five old band men. The following Tecumseh guests were present; Messrs C. Hayden, W. J. Ingersoll, H. B. Lowe, W. T. Eccles, W. H. Spaulding, C. A. Rowland, Will Ross. They laud the banquet in words of the highest praise.

Dr. D. W. Loree, of Ridgeway, will give a lecture in the hall at Holloway, Friday evening, June 17, under the auspices of the P. of I. Subject: "The body politic a living organism, subject to morbid attacks, bad habits, and freaks of fancy, as any other living structure." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The reception last Friday evening at Chas. H. Blood's, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Blood, was a most enjoyable affair. Notwithstanding the threatening weather over seventy-five guests participated in the festivities, and the bride and groom of two days before were again reminded of how many warm hearted friends they possess in Tecumseh. We rather like this innovation from the usual custom. It divides the expense and responsibility of the wedding reception and enables the wedded pair to meet all those friends who would gladly congratulate them on such a festive occasion. The fashion ought to become more general.

Clinton is raising funds to buy a piano for the town hall.

Rev. F. Adkins preached at Fenton, Mich., last Sunday.

E. W. Lenardson has a new card on the first page. Read it.

E. M. Coller recently sold an organ to the Clinton Masonic Lodge.

Clinton proposes to have an old fashioned rousing Fourth of July Celebration.

Mrs. Geo. S. Train, of Bryan, Ohio, was the guest of Miss Lucy Train last week.

Mrs. E. E. Russell, Jackson, is spending the present week with Tecumseh friends.

Some genius has got up a hand cart sprinkler for lawns. It ought to have a big run.

Rev. Frank Arnold has closed his engagement with the Baptist church of this village.

Miss Loana Davidson returned from Traverse City last Friday, where she has just closed her term of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Newbern arrived in town from Cleveland Saturday. She will remain here with her parents most of the summer.

Scove Walker went home Saturday, returning Monday night, accompanied by Dr. O. B. Tefft. They enjoyed some good bass fishing in Fay's lake.

Norman Matteson brought to our office last week a young turkey, just hatched, that had four perfectly developed legs. It is a feathered curiosity.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. C. M. Tilton is fully recovering her health. She returned last week from a visit at Ann Arbor, with her daughter, Mrs. Prof. Cheever.

We are indebted to Prof. Fred Hathaway for a copy of the current catalogue of the Hudson public schools. Prof. Hathaway, we understand, has been engaged another year.

Harry Snell arrived home last Friday from Tallapoosa, Ga., accompanied by Mrs. James C. Murray and her little daughter. Mrs. Murray will make her home at her father's, for the summer at least, and perhaps permanently.

Let all district pathmasters turn out and see how soon we will have nice smooth roads.—Ridgeway Cor, Herald. Another way to have nice, smooth roads is to turn out the district pathmasters.—Adrian Press.

We understand that John R. Clark will address his old Tecumseh friends on Sunday, June 19th, at three o'clock P. M., in the Opera House. Let everybody turn out and give our former townsman a royal welcome.

C. A. Sharp, of Adrian, was in town Monday and reports "Shorthand by Mail" in flourishing condition. Mr. John Heaney, Jr., late of Holloway, and well known among the young people here, was a pupil of Mr. Sharp's and is now nicely located in a large Coal office in Columbus, Ohio.

Our old friend John R. Clark, will close his lecture season at Mason, Mich., June 17th and expects to visit Tecumseh at that time. He will be here over Sunday, the 19th, and may remain two or three days. He has engagements for sixteen summer lectures at the various assemblies during July and August.

Editor Kempton of the Addison Courier is receiving many compliments for the sermon he recently delivered in place of the absent pastor. The elder now knows where to find a "sub" when he desires to go fishing. O, no, no!—he wouldn't go fishing Sunday. What were we thinking about?—Adrian Press.

There is a matter of local history that ought to be settled. Willard Stearns and the Times both claim the honor of exposing Tom Navin's conspiracy to swamp the town for a large sum in connection with the water works bonds. Both are positive that the other had a very small finger in the pie—if any at all. One or the other is right or wrong. But which is it? The Republican and Democrat national conventions will please suspend operations until this momentous question is adjusted.—Adrian Messeger.

An exchange remarks that "leap year gives young ladies a gentleman's chance of making love." But no respectable young man will have anything to do with a young lady who takes a position on street corners, and not only winks as the gentlemen pass by, but likewise expectorates tobacco juice on their coat tails. Nor would it look well for a dozen or more young ladies to loaf around in front of a church for hours on Sunday nights sparring and dancing a tra-la-la on the sidewalk in order to kill time until the congregation is dismissed and then buckle onto a man to escort him home.—Chelsea Standard.

On Wednesday, August 17th, will be held a grand Prohibition rally on the Free Methodist camp meeting grounds, on the Wabash railway, a mile and three-quarters south-west of Britton. Mrs. Marion B. Baxter is booked as one of the speakers and arrangements are being made for others of national reputation. This promises to be one of the largest meetings of the campaign and the attendance will be something phenominal. The Free Methodist annual camp meeting will close the day before and the tenters will stay over for this occasion. The use of the large tabernacle has been kindly donated for the meeting by the quarterly conference.—Adrian Messenger.

F. D. Hillman was in town over Sunday,

C. M. Dickinson was in Toledo Tuesday.

Walt Burridge has a new Franklin type writter.

Blissfield is talking up a Fourth of July celebration.

Wm. Bresie and family are sojourning at Devils lake.

The water in Devils Lake is at the highest point on record.

Our High School Commencement will occur on Thursday, June 23d.

What arrangements are making for our Alumni Reunion this year?

The American Medical Association is in session this week in Detroit.

Geo. S. Tiffany returned Tuesday from a business trip down in Ohio.

Mrs. Jas. Heck went to Toledo, Tuesday, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Munn.

Rev. F. O. Dickie of Charlotte will occupy the Baptist pulpit next Sabbath.

Our report of the S. W. Farmers' Club arrived too late for insertion this week.

Rev. Frank Arnold preached his farewell sermon at the Baptist church last Sunday.

The races at Milan were postponed, on account of the rainy weather, until June 25th.

Alva Spayde has something to say about hot weather clothing in a change of card this week.

The W. C. T. U., will meet every Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock during the month of June at Mrs. Wm. Ide's.

This is Commencement week at Hillsdale College. Louis Hardenburg of this village is a member of the graduating class.

O. P. Bills was in Toledo last Tuesday on business. His new steamer will start on her business trip in about two weeks.

Drs. Catlin, North and Jenkins are attending the session of the American Medical Association held in Detroit this week.

The Adrian Improvement Company will hold an adjourned lot sale on Wednesday, June 15th. See their announcement elsewhere.

J. M. Hicks, of Eaton Rapids, is stopping in town a few days for the purpose of taking treatment of Dr. Jones for a throat difficulty.

The Brooklyn foundry is again open for business. It has been rented by H. R. Bevier of Jackson, Col. King donating the rent for the first six months.

Will H. Hayden has sold out his livery business to B. J. Garlinghouse. Ben. took possession yesterday and will conduct the barn in his old time prompt and satisfactory style.

The remains of Mrs. Jerusha Estes were brought here for burial from Traverse City last Saturday. Accompanying them were Jno Horton and Chas. and Harvey Estes.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will hold a social in the church parlors, June 15th; business meeting at 4 p. m. Mrs. Smeltzer's committee will serve supper from 5 1-2 till 6 1-2.

Alva Spayde has recently put in his store a new invention called a revolving dust proof hat case. It is a very neat article of store furniture, besides being a handy way to display hats and caps.

S. P. Hosmer returned Saturday from New Mexico, where he has been looking after some land which he possesses in that region. Mr. H. found the land and is much pleased with the prospects of the country.

The Michigan Condensed Milk company, controlled by Gen. Alger and M. S. Smith, of Detroit, has located a plant at Howell. The citizens raised a bonus of $5,000. The plant will cost $25,000 and will employ from fifty to seventy-five hands.

The People's party of Lenawee county will hold a convention at the court room on June 11th, 1892, at ten o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the State convention June 16th, at Lansing. Each township and ward will be entitled to five delegates. B. E. NILES, Co. Chairman.

Last Sunday occured the funeral of Abijah Packard who died Thursday of last week of neuralgia of the heart. At the time of the father's death his daughter Myra was very ill and succumbed Monday. The funeral was held yesterday at the Friends church. Mrs. Packard has also been very ill but is reported as much better.

Last Saturday at eight p. m. Mrs. L. E. Taylor of Franklin, after a struggle of many months duration, gave up the unequal contest and quietly passed over to the other shore. The funeral services conducted by Rev. A. W. Stalker, were held at the M. E. Church in Clinton Tuesday forenoon. A fuller notice of this gifted and noble woman will appear in a future issue.

J. S. Horton, of Grand Traverse Co., a former resident of the township of Raisin, who accompanied the remains of Mrs. Estes to this place, was a caller at the HERALD office Monday. He says the outlook for crops generally is better in that section of the state than here. They have not suffered so much from excessive rainfall. He returned Monday evening.

—Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention.

GEO. MATTESON

—You will make no mistake in using Heck's Peacemaker Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands. HECK & SON, —Bargains in 2nd. hand Carriages: Open Buggy, $10.00. Top Carriages, $15.00 to $35.00. Canopy Top Surry $25.00. Call and see them. C. A. SLAYTON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call at C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—90,000 Star-A-1, shingle for sale at $3.25 per M. O. P. BILLS.

—I have a fine assortment of Carriages, Surreys, Road Wagons, Carts, Harness, Nets, Dusters, Whips and other horse goods which I would be glad to show you and am able to offer you bargains in this line. C. A. SLAYTON.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch, Give me a call. GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds. CITY BAKERY.

—Largé assortment of Chenille Curtains in New Colors, at low prices, at Stebbins' Furniture Rooms, Adrian.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains. NEW LAUNDRY,

—Call and see the New Styles in Oak Chamber Suits at Stebbins'.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices. CITY BAKERY

—I want the farmers to remember I am still in the Mower and Binder trade and still have the agency for the "McCormick" line. The number of Machines sold is a good indication of how the farmers like them. In 1891 the McCormick Co. sold 121,780 machines. Come in and see the machines for yourself. C. A. SLAYTON.

—New Patterns in Open Stock Decorated Dinner Ware at Stebbins Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice. WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Haviland & Co's Decorated China Dinner sets, at very low prices, at Stebbins' Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town. CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Large stock of Ladies Desks, Music Cabinets, Book Cases and Secretaries at low prices at Stebbins' Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—New styles in Sideboards, Dining Tables and Chairs at Stebbins' Furniture Rooms, Adrian.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial. BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

The worst cases of scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases of the blood, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Warm Weather Has Come

I Have Added to my Stock a Large Invoice of

Ladies' Hand-Sewed Shoes,

Mens' Working Shoes,

Ladies' Walking Shoes.

Men's and Boys' Fine Shoes,

Misses' and Children's Shoes:

In Endless Variety and Suited for Warm Weather Wear.

Summer Coats and Vests And Summer Outing Shirts. A Large and very Handsome Assortment. Come to headquarters to get your Warm-Weather Clothing.

Yours for Trade,

Alva Spayde.

'92 SPRING! '92

In looking for the latest things in DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, BOOTS, SHOES, SLIPPERS, HATS, CAPS, LADIES' AND GENTS' FURNISHINGS, call on HARRIS & HITESHU.

We have the largest and most complete line of BOOTS, SHOES, WALKING SHOES AND SLIPPERS in Tecumseh. New goods in all departments. PRICES AS LOW AS THE LOWEST.

Call and see us before you buy. No trouble to show goods. Thanking yon for past patronage and wishing for a continuance of the same, we are

Yours respectfully,

HARRIS & HITESHU.

Do You Think of Painting This Season ?

We Can Show You The Most Handsome And Best Paints Made.

Call and get Prices and Sample Card of Colors.

C. A. Wright.

Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.

Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.

Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.

Satterthwaite Bros.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WIGHTMAN, Attorney at Law Successor to F. B. Wood, Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD. ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Fred'k B. Wood, John E. Bird,
Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLEMENT K. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.
WEAVER & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Practice in all the Courts.
Masonic Temple. ADRIAN, MICH.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—Being now located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to calls in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. G. W. GOODRICH, V. S.

C. L. SLAIGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON. A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College. Residence, 1½ miles east of Pennington's Corners. All calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY. J. H. EMERY, Proprietor, Adrian, Michigan.
This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

RICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL. Late The Madison.
Cor. of Jefferson Avenue and Randolph Street. Detroit, Mich.
J. D. RICE, Prop. R. C. SPRAGUE, Clerk.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Three lines of street cars pass the door.
RATES—Meals 35c. Per day, $1.25 and $1.50
Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 141 O. O. F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. E. Anderson's store, Chicago street. WM. GRAY, N. G.
R. HOLDWAY, Cor. Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV. J. DEHAAN, Pastor.
SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching in the forenoon at 10:30; Sunday School at 12 o'clock; Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome.
Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Young People's Meeting. Come one, come all and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—
Special attention given to ladies' and childrens' hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.
—THREE CHAIRS—
Landgraf building, Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN PAINTING
AND PAPER HANGING
Call on THEO. P. WOOD, 77 E. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first-class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of
Railroad Street Meat Market!
Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.
GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN
Drugs, : Paints : Oils
AND VARNISHES.
N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded. At the Old Corner Store, RIDGEWAY, JGAN. nov5

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY
MANUFACTURER OF
And Dealer in
Carriages, Buggies,
SURRIES, SPRING WAGONS,
ROADCARTS
SULKIES, CUTTERS, ETC.
Pearl Street,
TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER,
SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.
LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth Crowns, Filling and Building-Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

B. F. STEINHOFF'S
Dental Rooms.

OVER BAKER & HALL'S.
GAS FOR EXTRACTING.
LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co.'s Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.
EXAMINATION FREE!
Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.
Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.
Remember, office over Avery & Co.'s.
W. D. REED, D. D. S.
Will be at Onsted every Wednesday.

Taking Things Easy
is simply taking Pearline to do your work. In the laundry or about the house it is a servant in itself. It takes away drudgery as well as dirt; it brings comfort as well as cleanliness. You can use it on anything with safety; you can use it on everything with profit.
Beware [illegible] which are being offered as "the same as" or "just as good as" Pearline. They are not. Pearline is never peddled; if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, or tells you his methods or his powders are the same as Pearline, he is trying to sell you what he can get the most profit on, and you are the victim. PEARLINE is manufactured only by JAMES PYLE, New York.

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN, OR WOMAN,
of intelligence and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight, but who has Lost the Most Precious Possession on Earth, viz., GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT require a SECOND TELLING to be induced to become a purchaser
DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC
BELTS & APPLIANCES.
Do you know why? Because it is plain to be seen that the TRUTH ONCE TOLD is enough. The surprising promptness with which all classes of people respond to our announcements and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods wherever introduced conclusively prove that true merit always receives and the quality of merit takes care of itself. Emphatically our statements—the Button—the Public Press it, and
DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES
"Do the Rest."
The extent of Pressure on the button and the success of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" is most satisfactorily shown in the marvelous growth of our business the past 90 days.
Repeated and increasing demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming in from all parts of the country with profuse acknowledgements that so much comfort for $1.00 the price is like buying Gold Dollars for ten cents.
The Delicate Organism of Woman subjects her to many peculiar ailments and unfortunate misery. The extreme sensitiveness of her Nervous System very frequently requires artificial stimulus. The Gregg Electric Belt and other Appliances supply this as nothing else can.
The Rugged Constitution of Man, when once broken, becomes pitiable in the extreme, from which there is absolutely no escape without assistance. The Gregg Electric Belts and Appliances in cases of this kind, have honestly won their richest Laurels. [illegible]
Rheumatism in every form, suffered from Obesity are speedily relieved, Proper quickly yields, spinal difficulties and Paralysis disappear, and many other diseases of Men and Women are permanently cured. Fully described in complete catalogue for 6c. or elaborate circular free. We guarantee to forfeit twice the price of any of Dr. Gregg's Goods found not to be genuine. We make an elegant little $3 Electric Belt, which is selling very rapidly and which we take in exchange for any higher power belt (except Sciatic) and credit $3 on the price of new order. Return of the Electric Foot warmers are $1 a pair, worth $10. Address
THE GREGG ELECTRIC CURE CO,
501 Inter-Ocean Building, Chicago, Ills
and mention this paper. J 14-tf.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS IS A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS ONE OF OUR NEW SEAMSTRESS
SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS
National Sewing Machine Co.
SUCCESSORS TO
JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.
Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

AN AWFUL DISASTER.

Fire and Flood in the Oil Regions of Pennsylvania.

Cloudbursts Rend Oil Tanks—Their Contents Take Fire and the Country About Oil City and Titusville Filled with Flames—Many Lives Lost.

SWEPT BY FLAMES.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 6.—The oil regions of Pennsylvania were visited Sunday by a disaster of fire and water that is only eclipsed in the history of this country by the memorable flood at Johnstown just three years ago. It is impossible at this hour (midnight) to give anything like an accurate idea of the loss of life and property, as chaos reigns throughout the devastated region and a terrible conflagration still rages in Oil City. It is safe to say that not less than 150 lives have been lost and many believe the number nearer 250. Nearly 100 bodies have already been recovered and many people are still missing. The number may far exceed 150, but this is regarded as a conservative estimate.

The property loss will reach far into the millions. At Titusville the loss is estimated at $1,500,000; Oil City, $1,500,000; Corry, $60,000; Meadville, $150,000, and surrounding country probably a million more.

For nearly a month it has been raining throughout western and northern Pennsylvania almost incessantly, and for the last three or four days the downpour in the devastated regions had been very heavy. The constant rains had converted all the small streams into raging torrents, so that when the cloudburst came Sunday the streams were soon beyond their boundaries and the great body of water came sweeping down Oil creek to Titusville, which is 18 miles south of its source.

The lower portion of the town was soon inundated. The flood came so quickly that the people had not time to reach a place of safety. The water soon swept a number of oil tanks down the stream and in some way not known they were ignited. In less time than it takes to tell the story the flames spread to the surrounding buildings, and before they could be subdued five blocks had been burned.

The oil from the scores of broken tanks ran into the creek and was ignited by floating debris. In a few minutes the creek was ablaze from shore to shore, and as the fire was carried down the stream death and destruction followed in its wake. Everything inflammable took fire and by the time it reached Oil City all the bridges between the two points were consumed.

OIL CITY, Pa., June 6.—The most appalling calamity in the history of Oil City fell upon it Sunday, resulting in the destruction of life and property which as yet can only be approximated. Thus far forty lives are known to be lost, hundreds of people are missing and it is believed the loss of life exceeds 100.

The distillate and benzine on the creek came from a tank lifted by the flood and is supposed to have been ignited by a spark from an engine near the Lake Shore tunnel, at the northern part of the city. The fire shot up the creek as well as down, and several tanks are on fire at a number of refineries up the creek, but it is believed that their burning contents can be kept within the tanks and that a second baptism of fire may be averted.

The Bellevue hotel, Petroleum house, the Oil City barrel factory, the new building of the Oil City tube works, the big furniture and undertaking establishment of George Paul & Sons and probably 150 dwelling houses have been totally destroyed. The fire department kept the fire from crossing to the central portion of the town except in one instance, when Trinity church caught fire, but the department succeeded in saving the building as well as the two bridges.

Up to 5 p. m. sixty-nine bodies had been recovered and identified, and the death list will figure up much larger, some placing it three or four times that number. There are fifteen bodies at the undertaking rooms of Britting, McCracken & Co., twenty-five at the city hall and a number were taken to their homes. There are still many persons missing.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., June 6.—This city is passing through the largest flood, attended with fire, together with large loss of life, that it has ever experienced. Though the fire is still raging, the latter is now under control. The estimate of actual loss will foot up between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000. The loss of life will be from seventy to 200 people, composed mostly of the working classes. Fifteen bodies have been recovered. Oil creek has overflowed its banks from the west end above the water and gasworks to the city line below and for hours assumed the proportions of an almost resistless flood, reaching almost up to the line of Spring street. Scores of cheap dwelling houses in the lower part of the city, on Mechanic street and vicinity, have been destroyed.

Fully one-third of the business and residence portion of the city is a mass of charred embers, over which the terrible waters still rush with unabated fury. The streets are filled with crowds of wet, hungry, hopeless and despairing men, women and children, most of whom have lost loved ones and all their property. The water still floods the streets and the sky is still black with heavy smoke from the burning refineries, cooper shops, radiator works, hotels, furniture factories, freight depots and dwellings.

The big refinery and wax plant owned by F. L. Wood & Co. caught fire exactly at noon, and the black smoke blowing directly over the city turned midday almost into the blackness of night, and as the rain continued to come down in bucketfuls what the outcome was to be was past even conjecture. The waters of Oil creek were rushing through the streets in the lower part of the city with resistless force, while from houses and driftwood piles in the midst of the torrent came beseeching wails and screams of anguish from the helpless victims.

The suddenness of the rise of the river was later explained by the intelligence that the huge mill dam of Thompson & Eldred, located at Spartansburg, about 7 miles from this city, had burst. The lake made by this dam was a half mile in length by a quarter of a mile in breadth, and the waters thus suddenly let loose made this valley in the course of a few moments a roaring Amazon.

CYCLONE IN OHIO.

Several Towns Swept Over and Great Damage Is Caused.

SPRINGFIELD, O., June 4.—Word has just reached here of one of the most destructive cyclones that ever visited this section of the country. The disaster occurred Thursday afternoon in Moorefield, Harmony and Springfield townships, and the damage to crops, forests, farm buildings and orchards will run up into the tens of thousands.

During a heavy thunderstorm two black clouds approached from the west and came together seemingly on John Yeazell's farm, about 4 miles from this city, in Springfield township. A wind at once arose, the electrical disturbance increased, and the country for miles around was lighted up. A heavy downpour accompanied the storm.

The cyclone was half a mile wide and cut down trees like a knife and literally tore the corn, wheat and oats out of the ground. The section of the country where the cyclone occurred is noted for its sugar camps, hundreds of acres being planted in sugar maple trees, and these were destroyed. Lewis Huffman's sugar camp was completely demolished. Jacob Yeazell's barn completely wrecked. An orchard belonging to George Nicholson was ruined and fences and outbuildings by the score were laid low.

The force of the wind may be judged from the fact that it tore up an immense old oak on John Yeazell's farm and hurling it along in the air dashed it against another oak, crushing it off, and then planted the oak top down in the ground some hundreds of yards away. No fatalities have thus far been reported.

FOUR MEN DROWNED.

Sinking of the Steamer John Matthews in the Arkansas River.

VAN BUREN, Ark., June 4.—The steamer John Matthews, loaded with corn, bound for Pine Bluff, ran against the pier of the bridge over the Arkansas river at 1 o'clock Friday morning and sank. Fourteen passengers were aboard the steamer, but all were saved. Following is a list of the drowned: George Hall, night watchman; Ed Campbell, Wallace Atkins and Tom Taylor, roustabouts. Capt. Blakely, the pilot, and two roustabouts were picked up a mile from the scene of the accident, having saved themselves by clinging to a log. The boat is a total loss. It was owned by the Merchants' Transportation Company of this city. The river is unusually high and it was impossible for the pilot to steer away from the pier. The engineer (Hathaway) and his family, consisting of three children, were taken out more dead than alive.

BIRKENBERG HORROR.

Twenty-Seven Rescuers Killed at Their Work—Still Recovering Bodies.

PRAGUE, June 4.—Now that the excitement has died out to a great extent and inquiries have been made among the survivors it is estimated that fully 400 of the employes lost their lives at the disaster in the Birkenberg silver mine in Bohemia.

PRAGUE, June 6.—It will be fully two weeks before all the bodies are recovered from the Birkenberg silver mine, and will be fifteen months before the shafts can be reconstructed. In the meantime the miners will be out of work. The fragments of bodies that have been brought to the surface filled three wagons. Only thirteen of the rescued survived, while twenty-seven of the men who volunteered for rescue work were killed by falling timbers or suffocated to death. The damage to the mine will be 1,800,000 florins.

One Year to Live.

CORNING, Ia., June 6.—James O. Dooley, the boy murderer of Mrs. Lucinda Coons and daughter Nellie, aged 10 years, of this county, was found guilty Saturday of murder in the first degree with a penalty of death by hanging. Judge Lowner passed the sentence of death. Under the Iowa law Dooley will be kept in the state prison at Fort Madison for one year, and at the expiration of that time will be returned to Adams county and hanged in the jail yard June 16, 1893.

Exploding Gasoline Causes Death.

ELDON, Ia., June 4.—A gasoline explosion Friday caused the death of Mrs. Dr. R. W. Huston, wife of one of the most prominent physicians and politicians in Wapello county. A hired girl was carrying the gasoline in an open vessel and as she passed the cook stove it exploded. Mrs. Huston, two children and the domestic were all seriously burned. Mrs. Huston living only about five hours, during which time she suffered untold agony.

Clearing House Figures.

NEW YORK, June 4.—At the leading clearing houses in the United States the exchanges during the last week aggregated $1,019,465,873, against $1,146,805,698 the previous week. The increase as compared with the corresponding week of 1891 was 6.1.

Hanged for Murder.

KALAMA, Wash., June 6.—Robert T. Day was hanged Friday for the murder of T. C. Beebe last October. The execution was public and was witnessed by 200 people. Day leaves a wife and five children.

Minnesota Republican Convention.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 3.—The Minnesota republican state central committee has named St. Paul as the place and July 28 as the time for nominating candidates for governor and other state officers.

The Detroit International Fair.

Plans have already been decided upon by the Directors of the Detroit International Fair and Exposition, which makes it certain that the Exhibition for 1892 will be far more attractive than any that have preceded it. The Exposition Association comprises many of Detroit's most energetic and public spirited business men, who are interested in the welfare of the whole country and who desire to make the institution of which they are the head an aid in building up every industry known to the lake region.

It is the purpose of the Management this year to give the Exhibition a wider scope than it has had before, particularly in the way of illustrating the industries of the lake region, to make it superior to any display ever before given of the agricultural products and to furnish the finest show of stock ever seen in this Country.

An immense Amphitheatre is under construction, in the arena of which all live stock competition, displays and cavalcades will be made, where they can be seen by thousands of spectators at once. Within the same arena, there will be hippodrome races, mule races, athletic contests and a great variety of sports and other entertainments.

As an educational feature, speakers of world wide reputation will address those assembled on political, commercial and other important topics.

On the regulation track, there will be a series of horse races, for which purses to the amount of $10,000.00 will be offered while music by the best military band obtainable will add to the attractions.

The general admission to the Grounds will admit also to seats in the Amphitheatre and to all exhibits which are properly a part of the Exposition.

"Whose fine mansion is that?" That is the dwelling of old Bigginsby, the coal baron. It represents an entire year's pinching, scraping and economizing." "He's immensely wealthy, isn't he?" "Worth millions." "Then what was the need of his pinching and scraping?" "Oh, he didn't have to do the economizing. He made a 10 per cent cut in wages the year he built it."

MONROE, Mich., July 18, 1891.
Dr. O. J. Fay & Co.:
Gentlemen,—It is with pleasure that we reply to your letter asking about our success with Dr. Fay's New Treatment for Consumption. Six months ago we gave our first order and since then we have sold eight times as much as our first order amounted to more than any other lung medicine we sell. Our customers after once using it want no other and they are always sure to recommend it to some other sufferer. It could not give better satisfaction and we have so much faith in what it will do that we are not afraid to recommend it to any person in need of a lung medicine. With many wishes for your success,
Yours truly,
W. UAGEN & SON.
Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $13 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by traveling between Detroit and Cleveland, via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $2 25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making sure connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. Schantz, G. P. A., Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

SYRUP of FIGS

ONE ENJOYS
Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.
Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.
CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

WOMEN WHO DIE EARLY.

Many of our most beautiful and accomplished ladies die before they have reached the prime of life. Of those who live to middle age only one in a hundred is sound; the other one hundred and ninety-nine are sufferers. Why is it? Self neglect. The shattered health can be restored; the home made happy and your life lengthened if you commence at once.
"Rose Buds" have been used for years in the private practice of one of the most eminent physicians of Paris and the following diseases and the distressing symptoms yield to them like magic: Ulceration, Congestion and Falling of the Womb, Ovarian Tumors, Dropsy of the Womb, Bearing Down Pains, Rupture at Childbirth, and Miscarriages. One package of "Rose Buds" will make a new woman of you. (Leucorrhœa or Whites are generally cured by one application.) Price per package—one month's treatment—by mail, post paid, securely packed. THE LEVERETTE SPECIFIC CO., 27 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

GOOD LOOKS.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver is inactive you have a Bilious look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look, and if your Kidneys be affected you have a Pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and tonic which acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blotches, Boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at J. J. Orr's drug store, 50c. per bottle.

"You borrowed a fiver of me the other day, you know." "Ya-as." "I'd like to have it back if you can——" "But, my dear boy, I've spent it."

15 CENTS PER BOX, GUARANTEED
HYA HEADACHE POWDERS
FOR SALE BY JOHN J. ORR.

THOS. S. SPRAGUE & SON, Attorneys and Solicitors of Patents, United States and foreign. Correspondence solicited. Instruction Pamphlet free. 27 WEST CONGRESS ST., DETROIT, Mich. Established 1856. PATENTS

FARMERS AND THRESHERMEN
Catalogue FREE.
All the Latest Improvements. Cushioned Steel Tire, Return flue. ½ Fuel Saved. Traction, Rear or on Belt.

3,000 IN USE and never an explosion.
BUY THE NEW HUBER ENGINES.
ALL SIZES THRESHERS.
VICTOR HULLERS,
New Imperial Stackers.
G. C. POCKLINGTON,
Agent for southeastern Michigan.
State headquarters, R. Shettler, Lansing, Mich.

YOUR BREAD CAN'T BE SOUR IF YOU USE

GILLETT'S

MAGIC YEAST

PURE QUICK ECONOMICAL

NEVER GETS SOUR.

Ask for "Magic" at your Grocer's. Let him sell his other kinds to other people.

STRENGTH AND VIGOR FOR YOUTH AND OLD AGE

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S

STRENGTHENING CORDIAL AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

An antidote for Loss of Appetite, Loss of Spirits and Weakness; pleasant to the taste and a favorite tonic with the ladies. Price $1 per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

PREPARED BY

The Dr. J. H. McLean Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo

THE "CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN"

has attained a standard of excellence which admits of no superior.

It contains every improvement that inventive genius, skill and money can produce.

ORGANS OF INTRINSIC VALUE AND INTERLINGING.

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

These excellent Organs are celebrated for their volume, quality of tone, quick response, variety of combination, artistic design, beauty in finish, perfect construction, making them the most attractive, ornamental and desirable organs in the world for Homes, Schools, Churches, Lodges and Societies.

Catalogues on application, FREE.

Chicago Cottage Organ Co.

223 WABASH AVE.,

CHICAGO, ILL.

PILES A NEW PAINLESS CERTAIN CURE. GIVES INSTANT RELIEF AND LASTING CURE. NEVER RETURNS. TO PROVE IT and to convince you that it will promptly cure any case of Piles, External, Internal, Bleeding, Protruding or Itching, we will send a TRIAL PACKAGE FREE to any address. Send stamps to cover postage & address.

CURED

THE PYRAMID DRUG CO., Box 12. ALBION, MICH. FREE

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other oure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

I TEACH SHORT-HAND. YOU DO THE REST

A thorough, complete, practical course by MAIL. Pupils now filling positions in all parts of the United States. Circulars free.

Address, C. A. SHARP, STENOGRAPHER, ADRIAN, MICH.

BABY BARBARA.

What is the hue of the baby's eyes—
Baby Barbara's? Tell me true.
Brown like the earth in a garden spot
Or blue as the sweet forget-me-not?
Ah, black as a sloe perhaps are they—
Now, what is their color? Who can say?

What is the tint of the baby's hair—
Baby Barbara's? Tell me, pray,
Is it a kind of a golden crown
That from Heaven's gateway drifted down,
Or brown like the locks her mother wears,
With sunbeams caught in its tangled snares?

And what are the baby's other charms—
Baby Barbara's? Tell me true.
Are dimples hid in each rosy cheek
Where the laughter plays at hide and seek,
And wond'ring looks in her open eyes
That tell each day of a new surprise?

It is a mystery all to me
Baby Barbara, but some day
I'll hold you close in my loving arms,
My baby girl with a million charms,
And, kissing you o'er and o'er again,
Say: "Barbara—well, I like your name."

And, liking your name, my baby girl,
I'll love you too, for yourself alone.
And when you have grown up tall and fair,
And hearts are caught in your tangled hair,
You'll come to me in that far-off day,
But, Barbara, I'll be old and gray.

—R. L. Cary, Jr., in Chicago Mail.

DANGEROUS SITUATION.

An American's Experience in the Franco-Prussian War.

Twenty years ago, when the Prussians, like a ring of iron, drew their invincible army slowly around the fortifications of Metz, I found myself in a little French village that had just been taken possession of by the Germans. I was correspondent for a Cincinnati paper during what the French persist in calling the Franco-Prussian, and the Germans persist in calling the Franco-German war.

A low stone coping ran along the road at the end of the village, and one sunny day I stood here leaning against the wall, beside the sentry.

For several days only some slight skirmishes had taken place between the two armies engaged at this point.

They were separated here by a diminutive valley, whose sides were covered with that most delicious fruit for which this region of the Moselle is famous—bunches of glowing autumn grapes.

Those grapes, as I gazed down upon them, tempted me wonderfully. I knew the sentry beside me; he was a huge Pomeranian, who, in the capacity of his calling, had shaved me a number of times in the capital of Prussia. But as I expressed an inclination to descend the hillside and secure some of the fruit, the sentry shook his head.

"Down there," said he, "in the midst of that thicket of trees and vines, the place was swarming with Frenchmen only too eager to get a shot at a man."

I laughed at his words. "Why, what can you see down there, Moritz?" I said. And, in truth, as we gazed down, the scene seemed peaceful enough.

Two peasant women, in gaudy costumes, were gathering grapes in little baskets. Beyond, on the other side of the valley, ran a wall, upon which we could catch a glimpse of the red trousers of the French sentry lolling there.

After a moment's hesitation I leaped suddenly over the coping and ran lightly down the hill. Moritz cried the words of a hasty warning after me, but the sounds fell unintelligibly upon my ears. The two French peasant women dropped their baskets, and ran hastily away at the sight of what they took to be the approach of one of those dreaded Prussians.

In another moment my parched gums were feasting upon those famous grapes. They were delicious. I can taste them yet.

My pleasure was of short duration. From some close quarter a shot came suddenly and tore away a bunch a few inches from my outstretched hand. I thought at first that this was a joke on the part of my friend, the sentry, and was just turning about to protest against such grim humor when another shot came in as close proximity, but fortunately without harming me.

The bright sun dazed my faculties for an instant. What should I do? I could not ascend that steep and unprotected hill behind me and reach the stone coping alive.

I plunged into the thicket where probably the very danger was lurking; and yet it was my only refuge.

I slipped carefully through the rows of vines until I found myself in the shelter of the trees that covered the bottom of the valley. A little stream ran past here, and the wood, though small, was very dense.

What troubled me most was that the crackling twigs ceaselessly betrayed my footsteps. The whole ground was covered with dead branches. I halted and listened, after every step, for another sound or sign of the enemy.

If they were near they must infallibly have heard the noise of my movements: yet I could not hear the slightest noise of their presence.

As I stood here, unmolested for a time at least, I began to speculate on a way out of this dilemma into which I had thoughtlessly wandered. My eye restlessly roamed from tree to tree, seeking a safe avenue for retreat. All things were so still that I could hear a faint rattling of musketry, so distant that the fall of a leaf would have drowned the sound borne on the trembling wind.

Of a sudden a grumbling voice broke upon my ears so close to me that it was startling.

"Ou est it donc?" inquired the grumbler, in a voice that was intended for his companion only, but which reached me distinctly, so near were we to each other.

The other answered, but his words escaped me. They spoke together in lowered tones as they stood there, and from what I overheard, they seemed to think that I, not being in uniform, was a spy trying to creep through the French lines.

A sudden great crackling of the twigs made me retreat to the stream, and covered the sound of my progress.

"Ah," I muttered to myself, "there come the two grape-pickers." I thought that the two Frenchmen were approaching to investigate my position, but here instead, the noise was caused by the heavy sabots of the two peasant women, who advanced, peering through the trees, as if they were also seeking the whereabouts of the fugitive Prussian.

There was something odd in their appearance, and, though I could gain but a passing glimpse of them, I made a discovery.

The two women were carrying muskets in their hands.

Those, indeed, were masculine forms and faces. And their voices! Fool that I was, not to have recognized them before.

I retreated softly, and quickly, half along the sandy bed of the stream, half along the white stones that lay in the shallow water. Thus I threaded the bed of the stream until the voices of my pursuers grew fainter. I had proceeded some distance, and now, through the thinning trees, I saw that I had come within shooting distance of the red-trowsered sentinel lying upon the wall sunning himself.

There were, in fact, two sentries there; one lolling upon the wall and the other leaning against it with but his head and shoulders visible. I observed them very distinctly. I heard their voices now and then, and the lazy yawning of the one that lay in the sunlight.

I saw their chassepots gleaming in the sun, and in such close proximity they wore an ugly look.

I was safe, however, as long as their attention was not attracted toward me, and so I turned my thoughts to my two pursuers again. I had heard them hunting and cursing for awhile far in my rear, but now all noise of them had died away.

Happening to turn my glance up to the stone coping, to which I longed to return, I saw, to my surprise, that the two grape-pickers had given up my pursuit and were engaged in their former occupation again. But now they were much nearer to the coping than they had been before, and under the cover of their pretended employment they were still slowly but surely advancing. I well perceived their object.

Here was a predicament truly. The sentinel, not possessed of an abundance of wit, would let the two approach unchallenged, until they were near enough to turn suddenly and shoot him with their hidden weapons; and yet were I to attempt to warn him, swift and sure retribution would be upon my own head, both from before and behind me.

But this was not all. At the place where I stood in hiding the foliage that sheltered the stream grew scarce and ended. Before me was a wide plot of unprotected turf.

On the other side of this open space the thicket there began to stealthily be stirred. I saw the tops of the bushes nod. What other foe lay crouching there? Was there one who could see me and was aiming at me even now perhaps? Was the thicket full of soldiers who would rush forth when the death-shot of the sentry above should ring out?

This train of nervous fancies, however, was now interrupted. Rising carefully from the midst of the bushes I saw a well-known pointed helmet. A head rose, too, and a hand that waved a greeting.

It was Moritz, who, grown uneasy at my non-appearance, had stolen down to ferret out the cause.

Immense as was the figure of the Pomeranian, yet he concealed himself very ably. I noticed from his actions that he guarded himself only from the view of the two sentries by the wall, seeming to think that screened from them he would be safe.

As he crawled carefully out into the open, therefore, I attracted his attention to the two masculine females who had gradually stolen close to the coping.

The Pomeranian knelt in the grass and looked up. As he noted the two figures and the intentions which their movements betrayed, his face became transfixed with rage. So terrible was the wrath depicted upon it that I was glad to see it turned towards others than myself.

One of those figures up there, in his gaudy costume, had already reached the coping and, with his chassepot to his shoulder ready for firing, peered stealthily over the stone wall to locate the sentry.

At this act and those costumes of duplicity, the large Pomeranian, regardless of all consequences, leaped from the earth and fairly bellowed with rage. It seemed to infuriate him beyond reason that those two rogues above should have thus deceived him. A sudden flash from his gun thoroughly annihilated the disguised soldier at the coping.

Swinging his gun like a club and roaring with fury, he ran up the hillside toward the other. Somehow his actions aroused me to a like fury, and we both tore madly up the hill toward the skirted soldier who, turning, seemed struck as if by a thunderbolt at our sudden approach.

The shot of Moritz had sent the echoes reverberating among the hills. The French outposts leaped up, as if electrified, from their sunny wall; innumerable others started up from the surrounding thickets. A rain of bullets fairly peppered the grassy slope.

But our sudden onrush had carried us in advance of the hail. The quick, uncertain aiming of the enemy also led to the fortunate fact that we remained uninjured.

So quickly was the Pomeranian upon his foe, that the latter had no time to recover from his surprise, not even to raise his gun. The onslaught of the huge fellow bore the little Frenchman to the earth, and the Pomeranian picked him up, neck and crop, and dragged him over the wall.

The red-trousered grape-picker was then led, jeered and hooted at, through the village—a most dejected skirmisher.

The chassepots across the way yelped angrily at us throughout the rest of the day; but two days afterward, that hillside over there was swarming with Prussians, and the iron ring had closed more closely about Metz.—Charles A. Zollmann, in Detroit Free Press.

BLAINE RESIGNS.

The Secretary of State Vacates His Public Office.

President Harrison Accepts the Resignation—Wharton Is Acting as Secretary—Gen. Alger Not a Presidential Candidate.

MR. BLAINE IS OUT.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Secretary Blaine has resigned the secretaryship of state and the resignation has been accepted by the president.

The news came to the capitol by telegraph and created great excitement, and a moment later when the report came that the president had accepted the resignation the excitement redoubled.

The correspondence between Mr. Blaine and the president follows:

"DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, June 3, 1892.—To the President: I respectfully beg leave to submit my resignation of the office of secretary of state of the United States, to which I was appointed by you on the fifth of March, 1889.

The condition of public business in the department of state justifies me in requesting that my resignation may be accepted immediately. I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

"JAMES G. BLAINE."

EXECUTIVE MANSION, June 4, 1892.—To the Secretary of State: Your letter of this date tendering your resignation of the office of secretary of state of the United States has been received. The terms in which you state your desires are such as to leave me no choice but to accede to your wishes at once. Your resignation is therefore accepted.

"Very respectfully yours,

"BENJAMIN HARRISON.

"Hon. James G. Blaine."

The president assigned William F. Wharton, first assistant secretary, to act as secretary of state until a new appointment can be made. Mr. Wharton has been in the department for three years and has acquired a thorough familiarity with the working details of the office.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 6.—The latest sensation is the positive withdrawal of Gen. Alger from the field. It came in the shape of a telegram from Gen. Alger, which was made public. The telegram stated that the general released the Michigan delegation from any obligation to support him, as his name would not be presented to the convention. The news was soon known. The withdrawal was distinctly in the Blaine interest, and was not coupled with any conditions regarding the vice presidency.

THE GREAT FLOOD.

Millions Lost Between Kansas City and New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, June 3.—The river Thursday was higher than ever known in its history. The water is finding its way over the ferry landings into the city streets on both sides of the river, but is doing no serious damage yet.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 4.—The floods which have prevailed in this locality for three days began to subside early Thursday morning, and the waters along the streams have found their way into the channels, leaving the submerged houses filled with mud 3 inches deep. When the occupants returned they found everything ruined, the beds, carpets and chairs covered with a thick coating of mud, the gravel streets entirely washed out and the brick pavements undermined and worthless until relaid. The damage to the additions to the city alone is reckoned at not less than $100,000, nearly all of which must be borne by the laboring classes.

WATERLOO, Ill., June 4.—The recent damage caused by the floods in Monroe county is estimated at $987,000, as follows: Crops, $800,000; buildings and fences, $25,000; furniture, $10,000; stock, $2,000; roads and bridges, $5,000; smaller items, $5,000; railroads, $10,000; levees, locks and floodgates, $100,000. Five hundred families were driven from home. Beds and clothing are needed for 500 people, and for 1,500 $50,000 is needed for relief.

SNOW IN WYOMING.

A Blizzard Sweeps Through That Section of the Country.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 6.—A regular January blizzard struck the town Saturday. Eight inches of snow fell and the wind blew 40 miles an hour. People were kept indoors, trade was stopped and many trains were sidetracked. The injury to stock will be confined to loss of sheep, which have perished by hundreds. This is the latest snowstorm ever known.

Raided by Burglars.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 6.—Burglars entered the residence of S. E. Spratt, 39 Detroit avenue, this city, last Thursday night, chloroformed the members of the household and secured $3,500 in cash, $2,000 of which belonged to Mrs. Jennie Spratt. The robbers made their escape, and the police are as yet without a clew to their identity.

Took Fearful Revenge.

NEADMORE, Ill., June 3.—Moses Taylor, a farmer living here, in a fit of jealousy shot and killed his wife and F. Foster and then took his own life. Taylor thought that Foster was paying undue attention to Mrs. Taylor. Four little children, the oldest only 11 years of age, are left orphans.

Killed by a Thunderbolt.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 4.—A terrific thunder storm played havoc throughout Lackawanna county, Thursday night. It began in the early evening and continued until 3 o'clock, a. m. Three boys and one girl were struck by lightning. Two were killed outright and the others fatally injured.

Work of a Fiend.

KENSINGTON, Pa., June 6.—A dynamite bomb was exploded in the house of J. R. Turner, a jeweler here, killing Turner and a young lady named Scheffer. Turner's wife and two children were badly injured. The author of the crime was unknown.

"Jimtown" in Ashes.

DENVER, Col., June 6.—Nearly every building in "Jimtown," the main part of Creede camp, was destroyed by fire early Saturday morning. The loss will be about $1,000,000.

DR. FAY'S NEW TREATMENT FOR CONSUMPTION

Has been tested ten years on thousands of patients in the largest hospitals of America and Europe, and today is pronounced by the greatest medical authority to be the latest, safest and surest cure for Consumption and Lung Diseases yet known to the medical profession of the highest standing. Why do they say this? Because it cures more patients suffering with diseased Lungs than any other medicine or remedy yet discovered.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

READ WHAT IS SAID OF IT BY LEADING DRUGGISTS IN SOUTHERN MICHIGAN.

"Oh, that must be too lovely for anything," said Hortensia, when she read an account of a stage robbery in the far West. "Lovely to be robbed?" asked Uncle John. "Lovely to be held up," said Hortensia with a roseate blush.

HAVE YOU READ THIS BEFORE?

It will do no harm to read it again. You cannot read it too often. We cannot say too much of the merits of Parmelee's Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure. If you are at all affected with Dyspepsia or any disorders of the Liver or Kidneys you should try this remedy. Sold by dealers.

ARE YOU TANNED, FRECKLED, OR SUNBURNT.

Use Hamilton's Oriental Balm. It removes all blemishes. Perfectly safe. Prepared by E. M. Parmelee Medicul Co., Dansville, N. Y. Sold by dealers.

Parmelee's Pile Suppositories are warranted to cure. Never known to fail. Hundreds of sufferers testify to their virtue. 50 cents a box. Sold by dealers.

DO MOSQUITOS KILL OTHER INSECTS?

We don't know. We do know that Parmelee's Household Ointment is the best thing in the world to apply for Insect Bites, Burns, Cuts, Chapped Hands, etc. For Ulcers and Salt Rheum is sure to effect a cure. It is guaranteed to do this. Price for large box 25 cents. Sold by dealers.

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one today. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head

ACHE

Is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE

Recommended as the Best. IX

LE MARS, Plymouth Co., Ia., May, 1889.

I suffered from temporary sleeplessness from overwork for two years, for which I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and can recommend same as the best medicine for similar troubles.

F. BORNHORST.

SOMERSET, Ohio, Nov. 11, 1890.

My wife was troubled with nervousness, which so affected her mind that I became very much alarmed, as a mental derangement was hereditary. After using Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic one day she could sleep soundly, her lamenting ceased, and I can say that her mental condition is very much improved.

JOSEPH A. FLAUTT.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Nov. 7, 1890.

I certify that Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic has had a wonderful effect. Prior to using it I had epileptic fits two or three times a day, and I have been subject to them for the last seven years.

MRS. M. GOSSMAN.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75. 2 Bottles for $9.

REMARKABLE FACTS.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch, of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Linburger, druggist at San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guarrnteed by Baker & Hall. Book of wonderful testimonials free.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L. S. & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15, 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 115. Mail.	No. 117. Express.	No. 149 Accom.
Jackson.....Lv	6 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M.
Napoleon	6 30 "	2 25 "	1 15 "
Norvell	6 37 "	2 34 "	1 27 "
Manchester	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 55 "
Clinton	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 35 "
Tecumseh	7 15 "	3 15 "	2 55 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 52 "	4 30 "
Detroit	10 10 "	6 20 "	.....
Toledo	9 15 "	5 10 "	10 05 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 3:00 p. m

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 116. Mail.	No. 118. Express	No. 148. Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 25 A.M.	6 00 P.M.	.....
Toledo	9 50 "	7 50 "	.....
Adrian	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M
Tecumseh	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton	11 21 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 00 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 25 "	10 30 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.

A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw Ry

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT APR. 1, 1892.

GOING EAST. No. 3 Pass	No. 23 Pass	No. 21 Pass	Central Time. STATIONS.	GOING WEST. No. 22 Pass	No. 24 Pass	No 2 Pass
	A. M.	P. M.		A. M.	P. M.
	12 10	4 45	A....Toledo L	7 20	6 30
	10 35	3 32	Dundee	8 10	8 00
	9 55	3 02	Britton	8 31	8 33
	9 49	3 27	Ridgeway	8 35	8 40
	9 37	3 18	Tecumseh	8 44	8 53
	9 17	3 05	Tipton	8 58	9 14
	9 07	2 57	Sand Lake	9 05	9 25
	8 58	2 51	Onsted	9 12	9 36
A. M.	8 41	2 39	Devils Lake	9 24	9 54	P.M.
9 15	8 35	2 35	Addison Junc.	9 28	10 00	4 50
9 10	8 32	2 33	Addison	9 30	10 15	4 53
9 16	8 09	2 17	Jerome	9 46	10 38	5 10
9 10	8 00	2 11	Moscow	9 53	10 48	5 17
9 02	7 46	2 01	Hanover	10 02	11 03	5 27
8 58	7 32	1 52	Wheelerton	10 12	11 18	5 36
8 47	8 31	1 32	Homer	10 32	11 48	5 57
8 24	6 49	1 21	Eckford	10 48	12 06	6 08
8 11	6 27	1 06	Marshall	10 59	12 33	6 24
8 00	6 11	12 54	Ceresco	11 10	12 53	6 36
7 45	5 45	12 36	Battle Creek	11 28	1 25	6 55
	A.M.	12 17	Augusta	11 47	A. M.
		12 09	Yorkville	11 55
		12 02	Richland	12 02
		11 41	Doster	12 18
		11 20	Monteith	12 35
		11 12	Fisk	12 44
		11 06	Kellogg	12 50
		10 55	L...Allegan....A	1 00
A. M		P. M.		P. M.		P.M.

Beginning June 5th a Sunday train will be run between Toledo and Addison. It will pass Tecumseh, going west at 8 44 a. m; going east at 5 58 p. m.

The freight trains pass Tecumseh station as follows: Going West at 10:13 a.m. Going East at 1:39 p.m.

TRAIN CONNECTIONS.

Direct connection is made at Toledo and Cincinnati with all roads diverging

Trains 21 and 22 make good connections at Monteith and Allegan for Grand Rapids an points north.

Connection is made at Addison with the Ohi division for Cincinnati and all points south.

Good connections at Battle Creek with the C & G. T. RY. for Chicago.

All trains connect at Toledo with the W. & L. E. C. H. V. & T., Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Wabash Ry., Pa. Co, and all railroads diverging. Connections are also made at Dundee with the T. A. A. & N. M., at Tecumseh, Jerome, Hanover, Homer and Allegan with the L. S. & M. S. Ry.,

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt.
T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.
B. J. SLATER, Station Agent. A. E. KENNEDY, City Ticket Agent.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO

TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as follows:

WEST BOUND.

†No. 51 –Local Mail and Express	10:25 a m
†No. 53 –Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex.	3:30 p m
†No. 27 –Butler Accommodation	6:00 p m
†No. 55 –Pacific Express	11:40 p m
EAST BOUND.
†No. 56 –Atlantic Express	5:50 a m
†No. 26 –Detroit Accommodation	4:45 p m
†No. 52 –St. Louis & Boston Express	7:45 a m
†No. 54 –N. Y. Limited	9:46 p m

†Daily, ‡Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information, apply to

CHAS. N. HAYS, Gen. Manager. WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian

P. CHANDLER, Gen'l. Pass. and Tkt Agent.

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890

Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
3 25 A. M.	00	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	11 15	1 10
	47	.....Dundee.....	10 18	12 20
	08	.....Milan.....	9 48	12 04
	20	.....Urania.....	9 45	11 52
	27	.....Pittsfield.....	9 34	11 42
5 07	6 40	.....Ann Arbor.....	9 22	11 30
5 30	7 55	.....Lapeer.....	9 07	11 15
5 47	7 06	.....Whitmore Lake.....	8 55	10 02
6 28	8	.....Howell.....	8 17	10 25
	8 4	.....Durand.....	7 10	9 55
		.....	55	7 45
8 00	10 20	.....Owosso.....	6 36	9 05
9 07	11 30	.....Ithaca.....	5 32	7 50
10 15	1 25	.....Mt. Pleasant.....	4 35	6 45
	3 35	.....Cadillac.....	10 30	.....
	5 20	.....Copemish.....	9 05	.....
	6 35	Ar.....Frankfort.....Lv	7 50	.....
	P. M.		A. M.

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager.
A. J. PAISLEY, General Pass. and Ticket Agent.

Clinton Column.

CLINTON, MICH., JUNE 9, 1892.

Clinton will celebrate.

C. S. Burroughs bought a horse last week near Ypsilanti.

Mertillo Stitt moved into Mrs. B. J. Bond's house Saturday.

Nellie Martin will attend the summer school at Benton Harbor.

School closes this week. There being only thirty-eight weeks in this school year.

Grace Stevens goes to Napoleon this week to sing at the Commencement exercises there.

The social of the Baptist society held at Justus Watson's last Tuesday was largely attended.

Mrs. Augusta Brooks is making several improvements on her property on Tecumseh street.

Dr. White is attending the meeting of the American Medical Association at Detroit this week.

Mrs. Sinclair expects to leave here the last of this week for Ishpeming, to visit her son, Oley.

F. D. Lancaster and Rev. Reeves went to Detroit Wednesday to attend the Diocesan Convention.

The Episcopal social will be held Thursday, June 16, at the residence of Mrs. P. C. Smith. Supper from 5 to 7. All invited.

Rev. Fr. Ternes, of Adrian, will give a lecture at St. Dominic's church, Sunday evening, the 12th inst., on "The Primacy of the Pope."

At the citizens' meeting in the interest of the Fourth of July celebration last Tuesday evening, the following committees were appointed:

Addie Vandercook, who has been at Will Katner's for several months, returned to her home in Tecumseh last Tuesday on account of sickness in her family.

Bishop Davies, of Detroit, will be here Monday evening for the purpose of administering the rite of confirmation to quite a large class. The service will begin at 7:30.

Mrs. Loren Taylor died Saturday evening at her home four miles west of this village, after an illness of many months. The funeral was held at the M. E. Church Tuesday, at 11 a. m.

Members of the Masonic Lodge will decorate the graves of their departed brethren, June 24th. Committees will be appointed to attend to the decoration in the different cemeteries and the usual program will be given at the Masonic Hall on that evening.

The present corps of teachers have been invited by the school board to remain in their positions another year, and all have accepted with the exception of Mary Hyndman, who will teach in Brooklyn. We are pleased to learn that Prof. Daniels will receive $100 more than he has had heretofore.

The annual banquet of the Clinton Alumni will be held at the Elsose House Friday evening, June 10, at 8:30 o'clock. It is hoped that all members will be present, and a cordial invitation is also extended to all old scholars of our high school or to any one who is interested in the welfare of our society and would relish the excellent repast which we know is in store for us, to meet with us that evening. Supper 50 cents.

Executive—A. C. Huntington, E. VanDeMark, J. B. Hause, F. D. Lancaster, S. F. Marstellar.

Fireworks—S. W. Demuth, Wm. Wood, D. H. Davis.

Speaker—W. D. VanTuyle, L. W. Kimball, Ed Parker.

Music—Albert Kishpaugh, Herman Halladay, Dwight Hause.

Finance—A. F. Kishpaugh, A. W. Muir, E. L. Parker, L. W. Kimball, W. B. Keyser.

Dinner—Mrs. John Hause, Mrs. E. VanDeMark, Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. W. P. Downs, Miss Susie McAdam.

Sports and Games—Leslie Leek, Laverne Sutfin, A. W. Muir.

Ice cream and lemonade—J. V. Amspoker, George Freese, George Belding.

Grounds—George Freese, A. C. Huntington, Ed Clark.

President, W. D. VanTuyle; treasurer, B. O. Randall; secretary, C. H. Thompson; marshal of the day, E. VanDeMark.

More people, adults and children, are troubled with costiveness than with any other ailment. Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will cure costiveness and prevent the diseases which result from it.

"Why, what is the matter, my dear? You look disappointed." "I wanted to have a real good quarrel with my husband and he insisted on apologizing."

Every bottle of Arnica & Oil Liniment sold is warranted by the proprietors to give satisfaction or money will be refunded.

There is always a sort of freemasonry among college graduates. They know better than other people do how much there is that they don't know.

Survival of the fittest. Downs' Elixir has outlived every other cough remedy simply because it is the best.

Surprise to All.

After using "Mother's Friend" two months I was so speedily and easily relieved that it was a surprise to those attending me. "Mother's Friend" undoubtedly lessens the pains, shortens the time and restores the mother speedily to health. Will recommend it to all expectant mothers, and advise them to use it. Mrs. J. A. R. Muncie, Ind. Sold by Jno. Orr.

The Great Benefit

Which people in run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up in a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purifies the blood, and assists to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

"He who takes a wife takes care" was one of Franklin's maxims, but sometimes if he took more care he might get a better wife.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to return our thanks to our friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness during our recent affliction. Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Rusink.

Card of Thanks.

To the many kind friends and neighbors who were ever ready with willing hands to aid and comfort us all through the long illness and death of our loved one, we wish to express our heartfelt appreciation and thanks.

F. C. Rector and Family.

Card of Thanks.

To the many friends who so nobly came to our assistance during the month of suffering and the death of our beloved wife and mother, we would extend our humble thanks, from the depths of a contrite heart.

L. E. Taylor and Family.

The Michigan Mutual Benefit Association, of Hillsdale, has been compelled to close up its affairs, owing to heavy loses caused by the epidemic of the past three months. The company has arranged with the Mutual, of Galesburg, Ill., to reinsure its members without expense to them, and the members seem well pleased with the arrangement.

The True Laxative Principle

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

"A Gold Mind is Ely's Cream Balm. I had catarrh for three years. Two or three times a week my nose would bleed. I thought the sores would never heal. Your Balm has cured me."—Mrs. M. A. Jackson Portsmouth, N. H.

I have had nasal catarrh for ten years so bad that there were great sores in my nose, and one place was eaten through. I got Ely's Cream Balm. Two bottles did the work. My nose and head are well. "I feel like another man."—C. S. McMillen, Sibley, Jackson Co., Mo.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

Remaining uncalled for in the Postoffice at Tecumseh, Mich., June 8, 1892.

Mrs Lyman Covill,	Russell Drover.
A. Ford,	A. Gray.
Maud E Osburn,	Lottie Patterson,
Mrs Beatrice Smyth,	Wm. Taft.

Persons calling for letters in the above list will please say "Advertised."

ALBERT D. LAWRENCE, P. M.

Tecumseh Price Current.

Corrected Every Thursday Morning

	Wholesale.	Retail.
PROVISION MARKET.
Apples green, per bushel	$1 00	$1 20
Apples dried, per pound	5	8
Beeswax	14	16
Butter	11	14
Eggs, per doz	13	15
Honey, per lb	18	16
Lard, per lb	9	12
Onions, per bushel	1 00	1 20
Potatoes, per bushel	25	40
Beans, per bushel	2 00	2 30
Wool, unwashed	14
Wool, fleeced washed	22
Wool, tub washed	25
Salt, coarse rock, per bbl	1 50
Salt, common, per bbl	90	1 00
Tallow, per lb	3½
Cheese, per lb	9	14
MEAT MARKET.
Pickled Pork	6	10
Bacon	10	12½
Smoked Ham	12	16
Smoked Shoulders	7	9
Beef, by the side	4½	5
Fat Hogs, per 100 lbs	3 50 to 3 75
Dressed Hogs, per 100 lbs	4 25
Veal, dressed, per lb	5
Mutton, dressed, per lb	6	8
Chickens, live, per lb	6	7
Turkeys, live, per lb	7	08
Geese, live, per lb	5	8
Ducks, live, per lb	6
Hides, green	4
Hides, dry	5
Sheep Pelts	25 to 1 75
GRAIN, SEEDS AND HAY.
Wheat—White		$ 85
" Red		86
Corn, shelled		56
Oats		30
No. 1 Clover seed		4 25
No. 2 " "		4 00
Choice " "		4 50
Timothy Seed		1 6-
Hay, timothy, per ton	8 00 to 9 00
Hay, clover, per ton		7 00
Flour, per sack		1 38
Bran, per 100 lbs	1 00 to	1 25
Middlings, per 100 lbs		90
Corn meal, per 100 lbs		1 50
Chop, per 100 lbs		1 50

ESTATE OF WILLIAM WRIGHT.

State of Michigan, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 1st day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of William Wright, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition duly verified, of Elizabeth Wright, widow of said deceased, praying for the probate of an instrument now on file in this court purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and that administration of said estate may be granted to Joseph Wright and Simon Gould, executors in said will named, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That Tuesday, the 5th day of July next, 1892, at nine o'clock, in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause if any there be why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendancy of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Tecumseh Herald, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy.)

A. E. Baragar, Probate Register.

A New Line to the Northwest.

Commencing Monday, May 23d, the elegant steamer "City of Marquette" will make regular trips between Frankfort and Kewaunee, Wis., in connection with trains of the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan R'y. Through Express leaving Toledo at 5:45 a. m. daily except Sunday, arrives at Frankfort 5.55 p. m., connecting with "Steamer "City of Marquette," leaving Frankfort 7:00 p. m., arriving at Kewaunee 1:30 a. m.

Holders of first-class tickets are furnished sleeping berths on Steamer free of extra charge and will be permitted to retain berths until morning.

First train leaves Kewaunee 8:35 a. m. for Green Bay, Winona, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis and all points in the West and North West.

W. H. Bennett, G. P. A.

Toledo, Ohio.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, June 5th, '92, the C. J. & M. Ry., will run a special low rate excursion to Devils Lake and return. Trains leave Tecumseh at 8:44 a. m. standard time; returning arrives at Tecumseh 5:38 p. m. Fare 40 cents for the round trip.

T. C. M. Schindler, G. P. A.

B. J. Slater, Agent.

HELLO

GIVE US TECUMSEH.

Say! Tecumseh! Do you know that WOOD, CRANE & WOOD, of Adrian, have by far the Largest and Finest Stock of Clothing in this part of the World, and their Prices are lower than others? Did you say that you were going to buy some Clothing soon and would try them? That's right; you will not regret it. You can please and fit yourself better, and save money, too. Say! I nearly forgot to mention that they are ONE PRICE and that everything is marked in PLAIN FIGURES.

At Home.

The Detroit Journal is now ready for business in its handsome and generously appointed new office in the JOURNAL BUILDING, COR. LARNED AND SHELBY-STS.

(49-51 Larned-st. west and 56-58 Shelby-st.)

All who have seen it are unanimous in saying that it is the handsomest and best newspaper office in Michigan and one of the very best in the United States.

To Commemorate Our Moving Day

The Journal makes the initial stroke for the largest circulation of any newspaper in Michigan. Having the finest office does not satisfy.

BEGINNING MONDAY, MAY 30TH,

The Journal reduces its subscription price to

ONE CENT

Six Cents a Week, Delivered.

Here is our platform:

Four pages every day; eight pages Saturday and whenever business or news demands.

All the news for ONE CENT.

No falling away from the present high standard.

Clean, bright, reliable news. Only afternoon daily in Michigan receiving full Associated Press Dispatches.

Enterprising.

A handsome paper typographically.

Prompt Delivery.

Unreliable and vicious advertising barred out.

"Today's news today."

"When you see it in the Journal it's so."

Tell your neighbors, the Detroit Journal delivered is only 25c per month.

An agent in every town in Michigan.

A postal card will bring the Journal.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of Ann Pocklington deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the Township Clerk's office, in Britton, in Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 15th day of June, and on the 12th day of November, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 11th day of May, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment

Dated, at Britton this 16th day of May, 1892.

JOHN BRITTON,
NORMAN H. ACKLEY,
Commissioners.

Contains No Mercury.

ANTI

GIVE CONSTIPATION CONSOLATION to all CONSTIPATED. PILLS

For Constipation, Sick Headache, Billious Attacks and Liver Complaints.

DOSE.—One to two Pellets each night until the bowels are regular and natural in movement.

JOHN J. ORR, DRUGGIST,
TECUMSEH, MICH.
PRICE, 25c FOR REGULAR SIZE.

Pleasant and Effectual.

Among all the Harvesters

. . . THE . . .

Milwaukee Junior

Takes the Lead.

We claim for these machines that they are lightest in weight and lightest in draft, and for strength, durability and general excellence they stand at the head. Be sure and see them before buying.

The Milwaukee Chain-Power Mower

IS THE BEST IN THE MARKET.

The great and increasing demand for our well-known chain-power Mowers, together with the testimonials received, is conclusive proof of the great estimation in which they are held by agriculturalists and dealers throughout the entire country; the universal verdict being, that for simplicity of construction, strength and durability, ease of handling, closeness and evenness of cutting, freedom from clogging, and lightness of draft, they cannot be surpassed, while for freedom from side-draft they stand unrivalled, being the lightest and most durable of any mowing machine manufactured.

CALL and see this machine set up and ready for running at our rooms and headquarters, between Mark's Drug Store and the City Bakery.

DAVIDSON BROS., Agents,

Tecumseh.

USE ONLY

Red Crown Gasoline!

In your gasoline stoves

ORIENT or KEYSTONE WATER WHITE KEROSENE OIL

In your lamps.

MANUFACTURED BY

The Standard Oil Co.,

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

For Sale in Tecumseh by the following named dealers.

James Lowry.	Satterthwaite Bros.
J. J. Orr,	C. A. Wright & Co.
Anderson Bros.	W. J. Arnold.
McClure Grocery Co., and Jas. Potter.

Quality of the Highest Standard.

Use nothing in your Gasoline stoves but

RED CROWN GASOLINE.

Use nothing in your Lamps but

ORIENT OR KEYSTONE.

Water White Kerosene Oil.

Another Large Invoice of WALL PAPER!

Just Unpacked.

Wm. McCOWEN.

The Tecumseh Herald.

VOL. XLIII.--NO. 4. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 16, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2188

Warm Weather Calls

For Fans.

We have just opened an ELEGANT ASSORTMENT of Fine and Medium Priced Fans, which we ask you to look at and Keep Cool.

BUY ONE OF OUR HANDSOME

CHANGEABLE SILK PARASOLS,

AND BE HAPPY.

. . . . Anderson & Co.

{ Summer Underwear, in Short and Long Sleeve, from 10c to $1.00 each. }

The Novelty Store

Still Leads Them All!

Look at Our Specialties

Garwood's Standard Perfumes, Try them.

Sham Holders, 20c a pair.

A Complete Line of Fancy Glassware, China and Toilet Sets.

Laces and Notions in Endless Variety.

Curtain Poles 25c each.

Fine Assortment of Room Moulding.

Picture Framing in Every Style.

James Montague.

"95 A" JEWEL GRAND,

The greatest success in Gasoline Stoves; csll and see them.

For sale by

D. L. WHITENACK & CO.

Go And See

E. W. LENARDSON,

If You Want A Bicycle.

BICYCLES ARE CHEAP WITH HIM.

EITHER THE GENDRON OR COLUMBIA.

Get My Prices Before Purchasing Elsewhere.

Yours Very Truly,

E. W. Lenardson.

Neighborhood News.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

G. C. Arner was home Friday.

Lelia Sutton was in Toledo Thursday.

John VanVleet is painting his house.

Rev. Adkins was in the village Monday.

Mrs. Francis Wiggins was in Adrian Wednesday.

Mrs. Harriet Clark came home from Detroit Monday.

Prof. Drake and mother went to Blissfield Tuesday.

John Pocklington, of Dundee, was in the village Monday.

Our Bi. club numbers eight and many more have the fever.

Fenner Palmer and wife visited friends in Dundee last week.

L. S. Rogers, of Dundee, was in the village Thursday and Friday.

Morris Kelley and wife visited friends in Holloway last Wednesday.

Peach trees are looking very badly, caused by the long, wet season.

Prof. Drake and mother are moving into Mrs. Loree's tenement house.

P. A. Hamilton and family, of Elkhart, visited friends here last week.

Frank Allen, wife and son, of Toledo, visited relatives the first of the week.

Dean Loree came home from Wyandotte Thursday for his summer vacation.

Strawberries of our own growing are the favorite dish at tea time at present.

Elder Yager has a fine driving horse and a carriage he wishes to dispose of.

Ed Baker and wife were the guests of Morris Kelley and family Saturday and Sunday.

Wheat, grass and oats are getting to the front since the weather began warming up.

Mrs. Margaret Cheever, and granddaughter, Mary Nelson, went to Dundee Wednesday.

Mrs. Ida Pocklington has improved so as to ride out Sunday for the first time in several weeks.

Our Republican friends don't seem to enthuse very heartily over the result of the Minneapolis convention.

Mrs. T. H. Temple was in Tecumseh several days last week, taking care of her mother, who is very sick.

The parties who went over near Saline fishing last Thursday did not bring home any fish "that were in sight."

Mrs. Irving T. Bush arrived from Brooklyn, N. Y., Tuesday evening, for a few weeks' visit with her parents.

Mrs. Ed. Anderson and little daughters, Vera and Reta, of Detroit, are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Arner and family.

Misses Kate Abbott, Emma Stephens and Dolly Silcott, who are attending college at Adrian, were the guests of Kittie Clark from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Wright moved her household goods to the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Williamson, in Tecumseh, last week, where she will make her home for the present.

School closed Friday with an entertainment in the evening which was very fine. Standing room was at a premium, quite a number being unable to get into the house. Mr. Drake and Miss Rappleye have both been engaged for another year.

Children's day will be observed next Sunday. The pastor will deliver a discourse in the morning, appropriate for the day. In the evening the Sabbath School will furnish exercises prepared especially for the occasion. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

We understand that our former townsman, Prof. Wilson, who is principal of the Paw Paw schools, is a candidate for member of the State board of health, subject to the nomination of the Republican convention. They might go further and do worse.

J. D. Arner, who has been building a house for Courtland Snedicor, at Ithaca, during the past two months, returned home Monday night. The long, wet spell has been a great set-back to the farmers of Gratiot county, also greatly affecting all branches of business.

NORTH-EAST FRANKLIN.

John Babcock returned home Monday last.

W. J. Hampton lost a valuable colt, last week.

Many of the schools in this township were closed last week.

Ira Lamkin is reported much better, though he is still unable to work.

Much corn was planted last week. Several corn fields are just being plowed, however.

Tipton band have secured the services of Mr. Wm. Ingersoll of Tecumseh, as instructor for a short time, Union Lyceum held a very successful meeting at J. S. Allen's, Saturday. Next meeting will be held at Reuben Langdon's in four weeks.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Try it.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 30 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

BRITTON BUDGET.

Jim Winsley has a bi.

Hot weather has arrived.

Dr. Smith is quite busy nowadays.

Wm. Swick is building a barn 110x35 feet.

John Zeluff's house is receiving a coat of paint.

A number of our boys took a ride to Milan Sunday.

L. A. Babcock visited relatives near Clinton last week.

Dr. Kishpaugh, of Holloway, was in town the other day.

Will Babcock made a flying trip to Detroit last week.

Fred Nobles has sold his meat market to John Exelby.

Only nine wheels in town now. Next on the program will be a bi. club.

Most of the boys of Co. F. living here attended the reunion at Tecumseh Tuesday.

The residents on east Chicago street are repairing their sidewalks. Now are there more to follow?

Our friend George, we understand, took a swim down on the prairie the other day. We think he must have been looking for the right end of that disputed road but whether he found it or not can't say.

The young ladies of the home missionary society will give a Match and Shingle social at the residence of Jas. Haight on Tuesday evening, June 21st. Strawberries will be on the bill of fare. Let everyone come.

Our merchants put on their high collars last Saturday and kicked the bottom out of the gasoline barrel so that it came down to 5 cents per gallon, but after a Sunday's rest and good sleep the price has settled down to 10 cents.

On Saturday evening, June 25th, the Women's Relief Corps will give a Poverty social at the G. A. R. hall for the benefit of the relief fund. Two prizes will be awarded to the two most poverty-stricken persons. Admission 10c. including supper.

It is but fair to all parties directly concerned, as well as to the taxpayers of the township, that we correct the statememt made in this column in the issue of May 26, which stated that in the suit of the Township vs Lowe the Lowes withdrew the suit and paid all costs. The fact is the township withdrew the suit and paid all costs, which will not fall much short of $200, and will go to swell the large amount already put into this proposed highway by the township. The suit of Stewart vs Bushrow was non-suited, to the sorrow of the Lowes to the tune of about $200.

Yeu an' yer frens air axed tew a soshal thet we fokes uv the W. R. C. air goin' ter hev at the G. A. R. hall on Soterday nite, Jun 25. Kum an' hev sum phun, vittles, koffy, kake an' mebbe suthin' elce. Admitance 10 sents. Super free.

ROOLS AN REGERLASHUNS.

Evry wimen whut kums must ware a kaliker dres. Awl men must ware thar ole flannul shurt. Nun with a biled shurt or a dikey will be aloud ter kum. A prize will be giv ter the 2 wat air the wust lookin. The hull Kore will interduce straingers an look after the bashfool fellers. Thar will be gaims an phun fur awl.

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

Mrs. E. M. Conklin drove to Clinton, on Friday afternoon, to visit relatives.

J. B. Wells, of Clinton, spent Sunday in town with his brother, N. H. Wells.

Mamie Monteith, of Monteith, Allegan Co., is visiting her friend, Lucy English.

Mrs. W. B. Osborn returned from Grand Rapids on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davis and daughter, Isabelle, visited at Orrin Clark's last Thursday.

Lyde Graham, of Chelsea, is spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. S. W. Lockwood.

Mrs. S. W. Clarkson, of Ann Arbor, spent the latter part of the week at L. D. Watkin's.

Miss Griffin, of Ann Arbor, was the guest of her friend, Miss L. G. Markham, at Isaac Hall's.

Mrs. Martha Dennison goes east next Monday for a visit of several weeks with relations there.

Mrs. R. C. Miller, of Toledo, will sing at the graduating exercises on Thursday evening, June 23d.

The ladies society of the Free Baptist church will meet at the residence of Wm. Johnson, on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Geo. Valentine went to Litchfield on Saturday after receiving word of Mrs. S. F. Curtis' dangerous illness.

Mrs. J. W. Patchin returned to her home in Traverse City after a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Watkins, and other friends.

Prof. G. A. Shartan, formerly superintendent of the Manchester school, has been in town for several days. He will teach in Dexter, the coming year.

Joseph Pratt Lapham died at his home, south-west of this place, at midnight, Monday, June 5, 1892. He was born in Salem, Washtenaw Co., July 12 1842. His parents moved to Norvell, shortly after, where he spent all but the last nine years of his lifetime. He served in the Union army for three years and participated in that famous battle amoung the clouds, Lookout Mountain. He leaves a widow and an only child, Maud E. The funeral was from the house at one o'clock, last Thursday, Rev. R. L. Cope, officiating. A large concourse of friends followed his remains to their resting-place in beautiful Oak Grove cemetery.

ONSTED ODDS.

Fruit prospects are good.

Corn all planted in this vicinity.

Another heir at Eugene Kinney's.

Wheat and grass looks fairly well.

Children's day was not observed here.

Hotel Teachout has been tastefully painted.

Missionary concert at the church last Sunday evening.

Indications say the weather will behave itself now.

L. D. Palmer is now nicely located in the new brick store.

Eugene Pawson and wife report another girl at their home.

George Howard lost one of his cows with milk fever the other day.

The addition of Dr. Ross' house is up and being rapidly finished.

Jacob Maxwell had the misfortune to lose one of his work horses lately.

Joe Bell, of Romé Center, has had his pension increased to $24 per month.

Children's day exercises were held at the Prospect Hill church last Sunday.

The oat crop in this vicinity looks some like the gude wife's piece blocks.

Shearing of sheep and working on the highways occupy the farmers at present.

Mr. Ketcham our station agent, and family, are visiting at their old home in Wisconsin at present.

Mrs. Will Shultis and Alice Barton of Springville, called on Mrs. M. O. Aldrich last Sunday.

E. W. Halsted and wife, of East Rome, were guests of M. O. Aldrich's family Thursday of last week.

The Union temperance society will present a program to the public on Friday evening of this week.

Genoes Howard has moved from Marshall into the small house at the brick and tile yards and will run the engine.

The Maccabees held an ice cream party last Saturday evening with a good attendance and a good program was listened to by an appreciating audience.

Fred Hawkins, formerly of this locality, was married to a Chicago lady in that city the other day. His parents attended the wedding. Fred is making preparations for the great world's fair.

The school at this place will close on Thursday of this week and the next day they will join other schools in a picnic at Putnam's Grove, Sand Lake. Ice Cream, pies, cakes, etc. will constitute the bill of fare.

The mother of J. K. Johnson was buried last Sunday. Her husband only preceded her a few weeks, and Mrs. Curtis, widow of the late William Curtis, was buried just a week before. The interments all took place at the North Rome cemetery.

SPRINGVILLE SIFTINGS.

Mrs. Ellen White is spending a few days at Plainwell.

Nellie Lewis has returned to her home at Pentwater.

Confirmation services were held at St. Michael's Church, Sunday afternoon, Bishop Davies of Detroit, officiating.

Two fine monuments have recently been erected at the Junction Cemetery in memory of Wm. White and Mrs. Mary Brimly. The work was done by a Jackson firm.

Children's Day was observed at the M. E. Church, Sunday evening. The floral decoration was fine. The children were in their happiest mood and performed their parts admirably.

An Outing Number.

For some years The Christian Union of New York City has issued, about this time of the year, an "Outing Number" which is devoted largely to out-of-door life—travel, recreation, sport, and the like. This year this special number greatly exceeds its predecessors in size and in the variety and quantity of its summer articles. No less that seventy-two pages are occupied with reading matter and advertisements—far the greater part of the number having relation to out-of-door life or travel in some form. A specially designed cover and other illustrations add to the attractiveness of the paper. Mr. Charles Dudley Warner, who stands at the head of all writers on the class of topics treated, talks easily and charmingly on "A Nomadic Society." An article of special interest on phases of "Modern travel" has been prepared by Mr. George J. Manson, including interviews with many noted railway men. It affords an instructive and amusing contrast between modern and ancient way of traveling, and gives many carefully collected facts about speed of American railways, sleeping-cars, dining-cars, etc. There are many other articles, some descriptive, some full of useful hints, some light and entertaining. In fact this one issue of a weekly paper, both in size and quality, is almost equal to the brightest of the monthly magazines.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. ORR.

Reduced Rates to New York City.

On July 5, 6 and 7 the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y will sell tickets to New York City and return at one Lowest First-class Fare. Send to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O., for free copy of folder of information. The The Lake Shore is the only line to New York without a ferry transfer.

The S. W. Farmers' Club.

The June meeting was held last Friday afternoon at the fine old ancestral home of Mr. A. and Miss Mary Hitchcock. The day proved somewhat unpropitious, but thirty valiant individuals wended their way, in mud and rain, toward the north of Sharon, making a jolly company.

The secretary being among the absent ones, H. R. Palmer was elected secretary pro tem.

Mrs. L. S. Hulbert recited an original poem of great merit. It was descriptive of an imaginary visit to the homes of the club and also contained several clever hits directed toward the two supposedly forlorn bachelor club members. Some of the surnames afforded the requisite material for cute puns, such as Rose, Tracy, English, Palmer, Green, Pease, Holmes, Weir and Short.

Miss Nettie English next read her essay on "Character-growth," but Mr. Rawson failed to appear and favor us with a paper. House-building, not castle-building, to his mind evidently furnished ample excuse.

S. M. Merithew led the discussion. In the intervals of house-cleaning he had given the subject some thought and he favored rural free delivery, as did Messrs. Raymond, Crafts and others.

Richard Green—The reports of the Postmaster General indicate that the postal department is already sufficiently involved in debt without incurring the additional expense necessary for rural free delivery of mail. Were the U. S. postoffice department self-supporting, as is that of England, it might be advisable.

Rev. Van Orton, of Grass Lake, said mail matter coming to small towns bore little comparison in importance to that of large business concerns in the cities; therefore free delivery was advisable in cities, but not for village and country.

H. R. Palmer—We will hear little about the subject officially, after the coming presidential election.

W. H. Henion thought the number of daily papers would be increased enormously if the farmer had his paper brought to the door, instead of stopping work and driving to the village, ostensibly for his paper, every day.

President English advocated the reduction of present postal rates and said one could reasonably go to the postoffice for his paper and letters himself.

President M. L. Raymond and wife and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Crafts, of the Grass Lake Club, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Smith, of the Norvell Club, were present.

The club adjourned until the first Friday in September.

After partaking of a daintily served and delicious tea the company bade their host and hostess adieu, and so closed another enjoyable meeting.

Magazine of American History.

The twenty-seventh volume of the Magazine of American History closes with the the June issue, bringing its customary elaborate index for the benefit of scholars. Edward F. de Lancey writes one of the best articles in the current number, entitled "King George's personal policy in England, which forced his subjects in America, against their wishes, into a successful revolution." This scholarly paper is worth careful study as showing how easily an arbitrary and injudicious ruler can wreck a prosperous government. George III was young and headstrong, and he meant to govern, not merely reign. He kept British affairs in constant turmoil to carry out his ideas of absolute power, by which means he lost his American colonies forever. The illustrated article which opens this handsome June number, "Historical Reminiscences of our New Parks," very cleverly written by Fordham Morris, will interest readers in all parts of the country, for this new park area to the north of the metropolis, costing over nine million dollars, occupies the site of not less than four of the great manor estates of old New York. "The Relations between the United States and Japan," a translation by Rev. Maunsell Van Rensselaer, D. D., are both informing and exceptionally valuable papers. "America Must Be Called Columbia" comes with a sharp point from Edward A. Oldham, of Washington. "An Hour with Daniel Webster," by Hon. Horatio King, treats on the great orator as a poet, quoting some delightful specimens of verse from his marvelously ready pen. Three unpublished letters of antique date, contributed by James W. Gerard, throw fresh light on "The Storming of Stony Point, in 1779, Military Operations, 1780 and the Burning of Washington, 1814." "The History of the United States in Paragraphs" is continued, by Colonel Charles Ledyard Norton; information about a "Portrait of Benjamin Franklin" is contributed by Clarence Winthrop Bowen, Ph.D.; a snort of "Old King Hendrick," comes from Rev. W. M. Beauchamp; an "Antique China Water Pitcher," is an interesting item by Dr. Richard Dillard of North Carolina. The departments are well filled, and the index illustrates the remarkable success of this magazine in its choice of precious material for permanent preservation. Subscription price, $5.00 a year. Published at 743 Broadway, New York.

IT SHOULD BE IN EVERY HOUSE.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of la grippé, when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at J. J. Orr's drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

He: I thought the bride and groom were going to start right off on their wedding trip, instead of waiting. She: They were. But she had to change her wedding dress for a travelling gown, and they didn't get started until the next day.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance..... $1 10
If paid after 30 days..... 1 25
If paid after three months..... 1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance..... $1 25
If paid after 30 days..... 1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.
Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.
Rates on general advertising or term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JUNE 16, 1892.

Gen. Alger and the Michigan delegation cut rather a sorry figure at the Minneapolis Convention.

Harrison and Reid is the ticket. It possesses elements of strength, that is true, but the Chicago Convention can nominate a ticket that will beat it.

The entire Ohio delegation voted for McKinley except Major McKinley himself, who voted for Harrison. The Major's good luck has not yet deserted him.

In Blaine's defeat Reciprocity goes to the rear and in Harrison's nomination the McKinley tariff steps to the front. The Democracy have no cause to find fault with this political condition.

With Harrison and Reid as the Republican ticket the real issues of the campaign will not be obscured. The McKinley tariff, the force bill and Wall street finances constitute the real platform on which this ticket will go into the fight.

Cleveland and Gray or Cleveland and Boies would be a winning combination. Cleveland and Campbell would run well. Cleveland and Dickinson would be a model ticket. It makes but little difference, however, what the ticket may be, provided it be Cleveland and a Western man.

It made but little difference whether Blaine or Harrison got there. With Blaine's record and Harrison's unpopularity the best advice one could offer Republicans was that of a citizen of an Indiana town to the pilgrim who was looking for the best hotel: "Stranger," said he, "we've got two and there's no choice between 'em. If you go to one you'll be sorry you didn't go to the other."

The Democracy must not let overconfidence run away with their good judgment at Chicago. Harrison and Reid cannot be easily beaten. The tariff barons will all support this ticket heartily and an immense campaign fund will be forthcoming. It will be a hand-to-hand fight between the masses and the classes. The Democrats must close their factional quarrels and nominate their strongest man.

The nomination of Harrison was a most emphatic triumph for machine politics. Three-fourths of his strength came from the Southern states, not one of which will give him a single electoral vote. More than one hundred delegates in the Convention were federal officeholders and Harrison's margin on the recorded ballot was only 82 votes more than half. The office holders and the purchasable Southern delegates more than made up his majority.

The Memphis Appeal reports the latest attempt of the Hill bureau to galvanize his boom into life, as follows: "The scheme is to send postal cards with clippings on them to Hill men in the small towns, and have them mailed in these towns. The Appeal has just received one from Dyersburg which contains an extract from that alleged Democratic sheet, the New York Sun. It is hardly necessary to say that the extract makes an assault on Grover Cleveland. No honest man could ever be convinced by such a sneaking and underhanded prosecution of a campaign. Mr. Hill's reputation suffers every day that this kind of warfare is kept up on Cleveland."

The Philadelphia Times hits the nail on the head in these few lines: It would be conspicuously good politics for Senator Hill to fall in with the Cleveland procession, but the man who has no higher conception of the Presidency than to attempt to crawl into it by saloon politics, and whose only statesmanship as exhibited in the Senate consists in dodging the silver issue, is not likely to size up the great opportunity now offered him to make himself an honored Democratic leader by giving cordial support to Cleveland in 1892. All wise party leaders bow to public sentiment when it is clear and overwhelming, and it can no longer be disputed that the overwhelming sentiment of the Democrats of the country demands the nomination of Grover Cleveland to lead the great battle of 1892.

THE MINNEAPOLIS TICKET.

Comments of Leading Newspapers on the Outcome of the Republican Convention.

A FITTING RESULT.

With Chauncey M. Depew holding the Vanderbilt purse strings as the commander of the Harrison forces; with 134 Federal officeholders in the convention; with a purchased majority in the Committee on Credentials, and with the influences which control the negro balance of power, Mr. Harrison has succeeded in renominating himself, and by the same means which brought him the nomination he will attempt to thrust himself and his entire gang of convention-packing subordinates on the country for four years more.

But he is the logical candidate of Force Bill Radicalism; of Negro Supremacy Radicalism; of Plutocratic Radicalism; of the squandered surplus; the empty Treasury; the increased taxes; the denial of personal and commercial freedom; the Plutocratic centralization; the unwarrantable interference in the affairs of the States; the fraud, the larceny, the cant, the hypocrisy of that Radicalism which devours widows' houses and for a pretense makes long prayers. The Mailed hand and the Block-of-Five find their fit representative in him, and he represents not less fitly those who in the name of Heaven raise corruption funds, buy places in the Cabinet and then use their personal and official credit in raising personal loans from treasury thieves and bank-wreckers. Whether the question is of the fittest man to represent this home policy or of the man who most fitly represents the policy of arbitration with England and threats of fire and sword against Chili, Harrison has proved his fitness by his record, and his renomination on that record is its fitting sequence.

The nomination means, of course, the entire repudiation of everything like conservatism in the Republican party. When the platform was published it was evident that the element in control of the party had decided to break with Blaine and such conservatism as he represents at all hazards. By its platform as by its nomination, the convention dominated by officeholders, negroes and the Vanderbilts has done its best to get Blaine out of the party. He would not have been a candidate on such a platform had he been nominated. It is a platform specially constructed to suit Harrison, the Vanderbilts and the negroes. It represents the "Afro-American" policy of Benj. Harrison, Elliott F. Shepard and Fred Douglass. Harrison represents it fully, and of the men before the convention he alone could have represented it fully.

If the country is not ready for despotism and anarchy if it has any regard for peace and progress; any hope of increasing liberty under the American constitutional union of equal States; the Radicals will meet overwhelming defeat on the issues to which they have committed themselves relentlessly committed.—St. Louis Republic.—Dem.

HARRISON AS A CANDIDATE.

If there are any who assume that President Harrison will be a weak candidate in the great national battle of 1892 and that his defeat will be easy of accomplishment, they are greatly in error. True, there is more bitterness exhibited against Harrison within his party than was developed against any past Republican candidate for President; but it is only the boisterous but perishable disappointments of the hour, and they will fade away before half the battle shall have been fought.

The disappointed leaders at Minneapolis have nowhere to go. They are nothing if not in touch with their party machines; they are open to conciliation by contract; they will demand much, but will be content with little if more cannot be had, and they will fall in with the Harrison procession because there is no safe place for them to fall out of it. The party workers will be chilled and the Harrison cheers will gag in their throats for a season; but what can they do but submit to the inevitable? If they do not support Harrison with hearty will they must sacrifice their own local leaders and candidates, and when the party bugle calls they must obey.

The unknown quantity in the Harrison battle is the effect of the McKinley tariff upon New England and the Western States, but no disaster can come to Harrison on the tariff issue that would not have come with equal or increased force upon any of the other men named, if in the President's place. He is vastly stronger than Blaine to-day; is vastly stronger than McKinley could have been, with all his estimable personal attributes, and it is doubtful whether any other man could have been chosen with the certainty of possessing the same all-around strength that Harrison will exhibit on election day.

Had Blaine been nominated he would have started with inevitable defeat staring him in the face, and he would have grown weaker from month to month until November; but Harrison is reasonably certain to gain in strength before the people as the campaign progresses.

Harrison is a strong candidate—of that let all in interest take timely notice. He may be defeated; indeed, the chances are rather more than equal that he will be beaten; but if he shall fall in the race it will be because of the weakness of the party's record, and not because of the weakness of its candidate.—Philadelphia Times. (Ind.)

THE PARTY AND THE MAN.

To deserve success is always possible, and it is always a long step toward achieving success. It is the judgment of foes as well as of friends, and especially of those citizens who stand in a measure between political parties, that the Republican party, by its work during the last week at Minneapolis, has thoroughly deserved success. It has truthfully declared its purposes, with a candor rare in political platforms, and even those who dissent most strongly know that its declarations are in entire harmony with the sincere convictions of the great body of Republican voters, and especially of the worthiest and most intelligent portion of those voters.

Protection seems to some men an economic mistake. But these will not deny that multitudes of honest and patriotic citizens sincerely believe that it promotes the welfare of the whole country, and tends powerfully to uplift the condition of the laboring millions. Hesitation or equivocation in avowing that belief would have exposed the Republican party to just censure, as seeking success at the expense of truth. Neither will the most earnest opponent of a National election law question the absolute sincerity of those who believe that it is the first and highest duty to the Republic to secure purity and freedom of elections. The fierce misrepresentation of that endeavor has made it appear unpopular in some quarters, so that shrewd men were heard advising the party to say nothing on the subject, lest it should lose some support that might be gained. Yet such reticence would not have been honest nor true to the people. The intensity of feeling in some silver-producing States seemed to render evasion on the money question expedient. But it is never expedient to be untruthful. The Republican party rises higher in the estimation of thoughtful men when it frankly avows that its desire for bimetallism will be restrained and limited by the duty of keeping every dollar issued by Government as good as every other dollar.

Sincerity and candor in the declaration of porposes have been followed by a high fidelity to the public welfare in the choice of a Presidential candidate. It was a choice conspicuously dictated by voters who seek only the welfare of the country. No political enemy denies that President Harrison has conscientiously tried to do his duty; few are now found to deny that he has brought to its discharge a high order of ability. Honest, devoted and able service is appreciated even by those who dissent from the President's beliefs. It was said a thousand times at Minneapolis that the President could not carry this or that State because he had done his duty impartially and fearlessly in dealing with one question or another, or in the selection of appointees. But it was right that the party should uphold him, right and brave to declare that unswerving fidelity to the public interest should weigh more than success in securing the personal favor of individuals.—N. Y. Tribune (Rep.)

HARRISON IS RENOMINATED.

President Harrison is nominated for a second term as the result of his own persistent seeking, and by means of the free use of the opportunities of the office he holds. His campaign was ably planned, splendidly managed, and firmly and courageously conducted to the end at Minneapolis. The old Guard of his army in the Convention was a horde of Federal officeholders, led by Federal officeholders, and inspired with the zeal born of benefits received and fostered by the hope of favors yet to come. But for the officeholding delegates and the delegates secured by the use of Federal patronage at the South, the Hon. Benjamin Harrison would not be the candidate of his party.

The success of Gen. Harrison's campaign, directed from the White House in his own interest, is a public misfortune. It will impel and encourage every President of the second or third or fourth rate of ability to make a desperate struggle to retain the power when he has once gained by political accident. It illustrates with uncommon force the dangers pointed out by William Henry Harrison in his inaugural address. "When this corrupting passion," said that sage and honest old patriot, "once takes possession of the human mind, like the love of gold, it becomes insatiable. It is the never-dying worm in his bosom, grows with his growth and strengthens with the declining years of its victim." The worm took possession of the breast of William Henry Harrison's grandson long ago, and now the worm has prevailed.

It would be folly for Democrats to underestimate an antagonist who has manifested such consummate political ability and steadfastness in the campaign just ended, and who can and will promote his reelection by a masterly use of the same agencies as have been employed in the preliminary contest for a renomination.—N. Y. Sun.

YOU TAKE NO RISK

In buying Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it is everywhere recognized as the standard building-up medicine and blood purifier. It has won its way to the front by its own intrinsic merit, and has the largest sale of any preparation of its kind. Any honest druggist will confirm this statement. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy anything else instead. Be sure to get Hood's.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

A Baby born in Ohio is without hands. When he grows up he will be able to saw his own for the office of Treasurer.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN.

"One Dose One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month while other preparations, taken according to directions, are gone in a week. Therefore be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

SCHOOL BOARD Teacher (trying to explain what a brother-in-law is): Now look here, you have a sister. Tommy: Ah, it's no good, she 'ave three young men already. You wouldn't be in it! (Gets the stick).

A WONDERFUL STATEMENT.

Proprietors of Dullam's Great German Remedies.—GENTLEMEN: I have for the past two years been troubled with a serious and very severe liver and stomach difficulty. Have had advice and medicine from our very best physicians, and only to be temporarily relieved. Some of my friends persuaded me to try your Great German Remedy for the Blood, Stomach and Kidneys, and to my surprise, after using three bottles, I feel like a new man. If you desire you can use my name in print or by reference in any of the Grand Rapids, Michigan papers, or any other papers in the States, to convince the afflicted that it is the best blood, liver and kidney medicine on earth. I feel like a new man. I have lived here over 40 years.

J. M. LIVINGSTON,
Grand Rapids, Mich.

For sale by Jno. Orr.

FATHER: So May referred you to me, eh? Well sir, so you drink? Suitor: Ersometimes. Father: This is some time. Come out with me. It is no harm breaking a New Year's pledge to toast your daughter's happiness.

MILES NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

JUDGE (to young woman charged with shoplifting): Where do you live, young woman: in the North End or Back Bay? Defendant: Why do you wish to know? Judge (impatiently): How am I to tell whether this is plain shoplifting or kleptomania?

LANE'S FAMILY MEDICINE MOVES THE BOWELS

Each day. Most people need to use it.

Officer A. H. Braley of the Fall River Police

Is highly gratified with Hood's Sarsaparilla. He was badly run down, had no appetite, what he did eat caused distress and he felt tired all the time. A few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla effected a marvellous change. The distress in the stomach is entirely gone, he feels like a new man, and can eat anything with old-time relish. For all of which he thanks and cordially recommends Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is very important that during the months of March April May the blood should be thoroughly purified and the system be given strength to withstand the debilitating effect of the changing season. For this purpose Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses peculiar merit and it is the Best Spring Medicine.

April The following, just received, demonstrates its wonderful blood-purifying powers:

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen: I have had salt rheum for a number of years, and for the past year one of my legs, from the knee down, has been broken out very badly. I took blood medicine for a long time with no good results, and was at one time obliged to walk with crutches. I finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken one bottle the improvement was so marked that I continued until I had taken three bottles, and am now better than I have been in years. The Inflammation has all left my leg and it is entirely healed. I have had such benefit from that I concluded to write this voluntary statement." F. J. TEMPLE, Ridgeway, Mich.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

HOOD'S PILLS act easily, promptly and efficiently on the liver and bowels. Best dinner pill.

May

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER

DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S.,

Brick Office on Shawnee St. TECUMSEH, MICH.

ORANGE BLOSSOM

A POSITIVE CURE FOR

ALL FEMALE DISEASES.

SOME SYMPTOMS: A tired, languid feeling, low spirited and despondent, with no apparent cause. Indigestion, headache, backache, bearing down pains, pain across lower part of bowels, with great soreness in region of ovaries. Tumors, Bladder difficulty, Frequent urination, Leucorrhœa, Constipation of bowels, piles. With all these symptoms patient nervous and irritable. THE ORANGE BLOSSOM TREATMENT removes all these by a thorough process of absorption.

A LOCAL APPLICATION Perfectly harmless, which every lady can use, herself. Medicines taken internally will never relieve the many forms of female weakness. The remedy must be applied to the parts to obtain permanent relief.

A PLAIN TALK TO LADIES in our circular. Ask your druggist for one, or send two cent stamp to home office for sample box and circular.

EVERY LADY CAN TREAT HERSELF.

O. B. Pile Remedy. $1.00 FOR ONE MONTH'S TREATMENT. O. B. Stomach Powders.
O. B. Catarrh Cure. —PREPARED BY— O. B. Kidney Cones.

J. A. McGILL, M. D., & CO., 2 & 4 PANORAMA PLACE, CHICAGO, ILL.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

ALONZO G. FISHER, Wholesale Agent, 67 Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

THE CURE FOR CATARRH COLD IN HEAD HAYFEVER ELY'S CREAM BALM 50c

The New Model Hall Typewriter,

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Characters.

Remodeled and Improved.

GOOD MANIFOLDER.

The Best Standard Typewriter in the World.

Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interchangeable type in all languages, Easiest to learn and rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIEND.

Everybody should have their writing done on the Typewriter. It always insures the most prompt attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159. N. TYPEWRITER CO., 611 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Seth P. Sheldon, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Charles Burridge in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 25th day of June, 1892, and on the 30th day of September, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 31st day of March, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated May 25th, 1892.

ANSEL P. CODDINGTON,
HORATIO KEYSER,
Commissioners.

may29

ESTATE OF B. J. BIDWELL.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 25th day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate Birdsey J. Bidwell deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Elizabeth A. Bidwell widow of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to Lamont C. Bidwell and Layerne I. Bidwell, or to some other suitable persons.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 20th day of June, nex., at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said Petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said Petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy.)
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register. apr28

MORTGAGE SALE.

DEFAULT of payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date March 19th, 1889 executed and delivered by Seth C. Randall to Emma Drake, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1889 in Liber 120, of mortgages, on pages 614 and 615 and upon which mortgage there remains due at the date hereof the sum of three hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents ($399.60), and no proceedings at law or in equity having been taken to collect the same or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained (which has become operative by reason of said default) and by the Statutes of the State of Michigan, in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon, and costs of this foreclosure and sale including an attorney fee as provided by law; I shall, on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the court house, in the City of Adrian, County of Lenawee Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, viz: The northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three (23), town six (6), south of range five (5) east.

Dated April 11, 1892.

EMMA DRAKE,
Mortgagee.

WOOD & BIRD
Attorneys for Mortgagee. apr14

DRS. CATLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default of Payment having been made of a mortgage made by Edward Rowland and Elsie Rowland, his wife, to Albert Hyde, Sr., bearing date the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1879, of record in office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber [illegible] of mortgages, on Page 34, on which mortgage there remains unpaid at the date of this notice the sum of principal and accrued interest, the sum of Eight Hundred forty-four and 62-100ths dollars ($844.62), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken for the collection of the same.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the money above named and interest thereon at [illegible] per cent. per annum to accrue thereon, the costs of this foreclosure and sale, including the attorney fee provided by law, I shall, on the first day of August, A. D. 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit court for the said County of Lenawee), all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point in the South line of Logan street, seventy feet east from the intersection of that line with the East line of Evans street in said Village, thence running south parallel with and seventy feet distant from the East line of Evans street to an alley described in a deed given to Benjamin Farley by Michael A. Patterson and George Spafford; thence East along the North line of said alley seventy feet; thence North to the South line of Logan street aforesaid; thence West on South line of Logan street aforesaid seventy feet to place of beginning—being the same land conveyed by John H. Mills to said Edward Rowland by deed bearing date December 29, 1879,—and comprising dwelling house and premises and blacksmith shop and premises thereon.

Dated May 5th, 1892.

ALBERT HYDE,
Mortgagee.

CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for Mortgagee. may5

ESTATE OF INCREASE S. HAMILTON.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate Office in the City of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 11th day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Increase S. Hamilton, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Frederick B. Wood, praying for the probate of an instrument now on file in this court, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and that administration of said estate may be granted to petitioner and Ann Elizabeth Hamilton or to the executor and executrix in said instrument named, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, that Monday, the 6th day of June next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate Office in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in THE TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)
RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of John Dubois, deceased

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the Township Clerk's Office in Britton, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 11th day of June, 1892, and on the 26th day of October 1892, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 26th day of April, A. D. 1891, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated Britton, Mich., April 27th, 1892.

JOHN BRITTON,
F. E. MORELL,
Commissioners

WILL BE GIVEN AWAY.

Our enterprising druggists Baker & Hall who carry the finest stock of drugs, perfumeries, toilet articles, brushes, sponges, etc., are giving away a large number of trial bottles of Dr. Miles' celebrated Restorative Nervine. They guarantee it to cure headache, dizziness, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, the ill effects of spirits, tobacco, coffee, etc. Druggists say it is the greatest seller they ever knew, and is universally satisfactory. They also guarantee Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure in all cases of nervous or organic heart disease, palpitation, pain in side, smothering etc. Fine book on "Nervous and Heart Diseases" free.

Every Month

many women suffer from Excessive or Scant Menstruation; they don't know who to confide in to get proper advice. Don't confide in anybody but try

Bradfield's

Female Regulator,

a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE, SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION.

Book to "WOMAN" mailed free.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S

DUSKY

DIAMOND

TAR SOAP

Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing.

Cures Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc.

Removes and Prevents Dandruff.

AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP.

Best for General Household Use.

DEAF NESS & HEAD NOISES CURED by Peck's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfort. Successful where all Remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, 853 Br'dway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp disease & hair falling. 50c, and $1.00 at Druggists

ARE YOU CONSUMPTIVE

Use Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough, Weak Lungs, Debility, Indigestion, Pain, Take in time. 50 cts.

HINDERCORNS. The only sure cure for Corns. 15c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

A Family Affair

Health for the Baby,

Pleasure for the Parents,

New Life for the Old Folks.

Hires' Root Beer

THE GREAT TEMPERANCE DRINK

is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening, effervescent beverage.

Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

CURE THAT

Cold

AND STOP THAT

Cough.

N. H. Downs' Elixir

WILL DO IT.

Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle. Warranted. Sold everywhere.

HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

Why Suffer?

When you can be Cured.

Thousands are suffering with Torpid Liver—the symptoms are Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator is a reliable remedy for Liver Disorders. It cures thousands every year; why not try Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator? Your Druggist will supply you.

THE TARIFF ON WOOL.

A Practical Exposition of Its Fallacies.

Free Wool a Benefit to the Farmer and All Citizens—Effects of the Tariff on the Wool Industry.

BY GEORGE WILLIAM MOORE.

It is conceded that the American farmer gets no benefit from the tariff on most of his products, because he produces more than this country consumes. The surplus is exported, and the price of the export determines the price of the entire product.

The protectionist, while conceding the fact that the farmer gets no benefit from the tariff on substantially all of his products, such as wheat, corn, beef and pork, yet claims that the farmer is benefited by the tariff on wool. And this is his argument: "We import a large amount of wool into this country; the imported wool has to pay a very heavy duty, consequently the farmer is greatly benefited." But does that follow? It is true that we import great quantities of wool. It is true that the imported wool pays a very heavy duty; but those two facts do not benefit the farmer unless they result in raising the price of wool in this country. If the farmer gets a higher price for his wool at home than he could in the markets of the world, then it might be argued that he is benefited to the amount of that increased price. But if the tariff does not result in increasing the price of wool at home, then the farmer gets no benefit. The proper test, therefore, is to ascertain what has been the price of wool in this country, and what the price in the foreign market, during the time our tariff has existed.

We have had a high tariff on wool for about twenty-five years. During all this time, the average annual price of washed wool in this country has been 41.48 cents per pound, and the average annual price of the same grade in London 41.04 cents per pound, an advantage in favor of the American grower of .44 of a cent. It appears, however, that in 1871 and 1872, wool in this country was the subject of wild speculation, and for a short time prices went far beyond the actual market value; and it is generally conceded that the price of wool for those two years is not a fair criterion upon which to base an average price. Omitting those two years from the general average, we find in this country washed wool was worth 40.26 cents per pound and in London 40.52 cents, showing the average price of wool in the foreign market was .26 of a cent per pound greater than the price of domestic wool in our own country. We have a tariff of 22 cents per pound on this washed wool, and if the tariff protected the American farmer this kind of wool here would be worth 22 cents per pound more than in England. But the fact is that wool is to-day worth more in London than in this country.

Nor has the protective tariff succeeded in maintaining the price of wool in this country. Necessarily it could not, because we have seen that the tariff does not protect at all; but, as another proof, the present price of wool is about one-half what it was on March 2, 1867, when the high tariff was passed.

Nor has the duty on wool increased the product in this country. In 1867 the wool manufacturers and the wool growers united in a request to congress asking that a tariff be placed on wool of 11 cents per pound for unwashed, 22 cents on washed and 33 cents per pound on scoured wool, and the representation was made that this tariff would foster the sheep industry in this country. And it was prophesied with great emphasis that in the state of Ohio there would be a very large increase in the number of sheep because of this increased tariff. But the result has been just the reverse. In 1868 that state had 6,730,000 sheep; in 1870 it had only 4,928,000; in 1880 4,080,000; in 1890 only 3,943,000, a falling off of more than one-third in the state of Ohio during the twenty-four years of our protective tariff on wool, notwithstanding the fact that during that time the population of Ohio has increased more than one million, and the sheep instead of being so enormously reduced in numbers should naturally have increased in proportion to the population.

The showing in Illinois is still more unfavorable. In 1868 that state had 2,736,000 sheep, and in 1891 only 771,000, a falling off of more than two-thirds, and no state in the union has perhaps increased more in wealth and population during that time than Illinois. Why should not the number of sheep have increased proportionately? Nay, more, why should they have shrunk so enormously in numbers?

The showing for the whole country is as disastrous as the showing by states. Take all that part of the United States east of the Mississippi and Missouri rivers (the far west being largely undeveloped twenty-five years ago), and here is the result: In 1868, the year after the enactment of the heavy tariff on wool, there were 37,685,000 sheep; in 1891 there were only 18,476,000 sheep in the same territory, a reduction of more than one-half in the twenty-four years, during which the high tariff on wool had been in force. Besides, the population of these states had vastly increased, and if the increase in sheep had kept pace with the increase in population there would have been approximately 75,000,000 of sheep in that territory. In other words, the number of sheep was reduced under our tariff one-half, whereas, naturally, they should have doubled; consequently we have only about one-quarter as many sheep proportionately in this country as we had when the present high tariff was enacted.

It is evident that the high tariff on wool, from the day of its enactment to the present time, has continually injured the wool industry in this country. But while the farmer and the wool manufacturer have felt the blighting effects of this tariff, the shoddy industry has increased enormously. Take for example the last ten years; during that time the woolen factories in this country have decreased 37 per cent., while the shoddy manufactories have increased 27 per cent.; woolen manufacturers have gone into bankruptcy, while—

"Shoddy owns a mansion rare, Splendid coach and prancing pair."

The high tariff on wool has forced the use of vast quantities of shoddy, and so extensive is the use of shoddy at the present time that it has taken the place of the fleeces of 29,000,000 of sheep, or about two-thirds of all the sheep now grown in the United States. This shows conclusively that the tariff on wool injures the farmer and benefits the rag-picker.

It may be asked why with a tariff of 33 cents per pound on washed wool does the price of American wool decrease, the sheep industry shrink and shoddy flourish?

One reason is that we do not produce all grades of wool in this country; we never have, and for climatic and other reasons never can. Some articles manufactured from wool are made entirely of foreign wool. The great mass of our woolen fabrics, especially our best cloths, are made from a mixture of foreign and domestic wools. In short, the American manufacturer in order to work advantageously must have a large amount of foreign wool to use with the domestic. The fact that it is necessary to have this foreign wool in order to work up the home product advantageously makes the tariff on wool a great injury to the American wool grower. As an illustration, suppose the government placed a heavy tax on wool manufacturing machinery, or on persons engaged in manufacturing woolen goods, or on the product of American mills. This would tend to reduce the value of the wool. Or suppose the government imposed a heavy tax upon material that it was necessary to mix with American wool in order to manufacture it to the best advantage. This would also tend to reduce the value of the American wool, and this last is just what the government has done, by placing a high tariff upon foreign wool which necessarily constitutes a large percentage of the wool manufactured in this country. Of course, this increases the cost of manufacturing and therefore tends to reduce the market value of the American wool. Besides, the enormous tariff paid upon the foreign raw material prohibits exportation. The American manufacturer cannot pay the heavy tax on the large percentage of foreign wool which necessarily enters into his fabrics and compete in the foreign markets with a foreign manufacturer who has free raw material. But this is not all. The farmer does not manufacture his own wool. He gets it back in the shape of cloth, the cost of which, as we have seen, is greatly increased by the tariff on the foreign wool. In other words, the tariff decreases the price of the wool when the farmer sells and increases the cost to him when he buys it back in the shape of cloth.

Another reason why there has been such a great shrinkage in the product of sheep and wool in this country is because there is more money in wheat, corn, beef, pork and other similar products than in wool. While the American farmer is not protected in any of these products because he produces a surplus and exports it, yet notwithstanding that fact he finds, on account of our climate, soil and conditions, that those farm products yield a better revenue than the raising of wool. He could raise rabbits and they would yield a revenue, but they would not be as profitable as sheep. While the cultivation of sheep would be more profitable than that of rabbits it is not so profitable as the raising of corn, wheat, beef and pork, and the American farmer has sense enough to produce those things that pay him best.

Why does shoddy flourish? Just so long as we drive honest wool from our shores just so long will shoddy go on "prospering and to prosper."

What would be the effect of free wool? We would certainly get as good prices as we do now, because the markets of the world now dictate the price. We would get better prices than now, because with free wool the American manufacturer would enormously increase his output. This would create an increased demand for wool, and an increased demand for an article means an increase in price. We would have cheaper clothes; the laboring masses in this country would be wearing woolen instead of shoddy. In a word, free wool means better prices to the farmer for his product, and cheaper and better clothing for every American citizen.

NON-PARTISAN OIL.

The Bill Changing the Standard Passed by Republican Votes.

Republicans and Democrats Alike Vote for It.

The republican press throughout Michigan unite in denouncing the democratic legislature for lowering the test of kerosene oil. Let every citizen of the state understand that if the change in the oil test was bad legislation that democratic members of the legislature are not alone to blame for the change. The change could never have been made without republican votes.

The house journal on page 1194 shows that the bill making the change passed the house with eighty votes for and none against it.

In the senate the bill was amended by reducing the salaries of deputy oil inspectors, and passed the senate May 7 with 17 votes for and 11 against it. Seven of the 11 voting "no" were democrats, while 6 of the 17 "ayes" were republicans. The bill then returned to the house and was concurred in by a vote of 65 yeas to 11 nays.

The act was in no sense a party measure, as the votes show, and it passed upon its merits, which we do not now propose to discuss. It is apparent from the record that it was easily within the power of the republicans to have defeated the bill at any time. But their votes passed it. And if the action of the legislature was unwise it must be charged to the republican, as well as the democratic, members who voted for it.

political opponents. I have been filled with the thought that this country was coming to an epoch when the flag and those things that it symbolizes will be on a still higher plane than now, and when our influence among the powers of the earth will be enlarged wisely and yet energetically.

"I have a sincere love for all our people. I exclude no section. I take into affection and respect all the states and all our people. In entering upon this campaign I shall do so without malice towards anyone. I think I have sometimes been suspected of being very little of a politician from the fact that I have never drawn inside my party personal lines. I have tried to treat everyone with that respect to which his station entitled him, and I have never in any case suggested, much less demanded, personal loyalty from everybody. I have asked of all public officials a faithful performance of their duty. I have felt that I was unable to find a suitable place for every deserving friend, but I have insisted that I did not disparage those I could not appoint to place. As I have had light and strength I have tried to discharge my duties for the public good.

"I thank you all for many evidences of your kindness. I wish also to express my thanks with a heart that overflows with gratitude to the faithful body of friends who have been so solicitous in my behalf, and, more than that, to that great body of well-disposed, orderly, loving, patriotic Americans who have always and everywhere received me kindly."

WHAT MR. BLAINE SAYS.

BOSTON, June 11.—"I feel just as well now as I did this morning." It was James G. Blaine who said this Friday afternoon when asked if he liked the result at Minneapolis. He smiled as he said it and there was nothing forced about the smile. But ten minutes before two men had rushed excitedly up the stairs shouting: "Harrison is nominated!" Mr. Blaine received the announcement of his defeat in silence. He did not even change color. If it was a shock he kept it to himself. Not by sign of any kind could one detect the tumult that must have been within. It was a marvelous exhibition of perfect self-control. The message handed him gave the total vote of 554 given Harrison. He made no comment, simply nodding to the messenger, a signal for him to go. Then he sent out for a list of states, and sent word to the telegraph operator to let him have the vote in full as soon as possible. She took it to him a few moments later and helped him figure out just where Harrison got his strength and won the nomination. He took great interest in the vote given to him, but made absolutely no comment in regard to it.

JACOB WHITELAW REID.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine left at 7 p. m. for Bar Harbor. Before he left the city Mr. Blaine gave out this communication:

"The resolution, energy and persistence which marked the proceedings of the convention at Minneapolis will, if turned against the common foe, win the election in November. All minor differences should be merged in the duty of every republican to do all in his power to elect the ticket this day nominated by the national republican convention.

"JAMES G. BLAINE."

THE NATIONAL GAME.

Standing of the Leading Organizations for the Week Ended June 11.

The following tables show the number of games lost and won by the clubs of the leading baseball organizations:

NATIONAL LEAGUE.	Won.	Lost.	Per cent.
Boston	34	12	.739
Brooklyn	29	15	.659
Cincinnati	27	20	.574
Chicago	25	20	.556
Philadelphia	24	22	.522
Cleveland	23	23	.500
New York	22	23	.489
Pittsburgh	23	25	.479
Louisville	20	25	.444
Washington	19	25	.432
St. Louis	16	31	.340
Baltimore	12	33	.267

WESTERN LEAGUE.	Won.	Lost.	Per cent.
Columbus	31	12	.721
Milwaukee	22	11	.666
Kansas City	19	18	.514
Minneapolis	15	16	.484
Toledo	16	18	.471
Omaha	17	20	.459
Ft. Wayne	11	22	.333
Indianapolis	7	21	.250

ILLINOIS-INDIANA LEAGUE.	Won.	Lost.	Per cent.
Joliet	29	4	.879
Rockford	18	12	.600
Aurora	21	14	.600
Evansville	22	14	.611
Rock Island-Moline	13	19	.406
Terre Haute	12	20	.375
Quincy	11	20	.355
Jacksonville	6	29	.171

WISCONSIN-MICHIGAN LEAGUE.	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Oshkosh	5	1	.833
Marquette	8	4	.666
Menominee	6	5	.545
Marinette	5	5	.500
Ishpeming-Negaunee	5	9	.357
Green Bay	2	7	.222

Hill Wrote No Letter.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—When asked as to the truth of the report that he had withdrawn from the presidential contest Senator Hill said he did not propose to admit or deny any canard circulated by political enemies. His private secretary, however, emphatically denied that there was any truth in the report.

Broke the Bicycle Record.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 13.—Frank Waller, of the Acme Bicycle club of this city, rode 363 miles on a bicycle in twenty-four hours, breaking the world's record of 361 miles held by M. A. Holbein.

A Leader Gone.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Col. L. L. Polk, president of the National Farmers' Alliance, died at Garfield hospital Saturday, aged 55 years. The remains were interred Sunday in Oakwood cemetery at Raleigh, N. C.

Trouble at Guthrie.

GUTHRIE, O. T., June 13.—There is great excitement in this city occasioned by two criminal assaults by negroes yesterday upon white married women. One of the fiends was captured and shot to death.

Stole a Big Sum.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 13.—John Gilson, secretary of the Judson iron works, was held up on the Berkeley train at B street station in this city Saturday by two men and robbed of $16,000 in cash.

Death of Sidney Dillon.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Sidney Dillon, financier and railroad magnate, died at his residence in this city yesterday morning, aged 79 years.

TO YOUNG MOTHERS.

who are for the first time to undergo woman's severest trial, we offer you, not the stupor caused by chloroform, with risk of death for yourself or your dearly-loved and long-for offspring, but "Mother's Friend," a remedy which will, if used as directed, invariably alleviate the pains, horrors and risks of labor, and often entirely do away with them. Sold by Jno. Orr.

I HAVE TAKEN SEVERAL

Bottles of Bradfield's Female Regulator for falling of the womb and other diseases combined, of 18 years standing, and I really believe I am cured entirely, for which please accept my thanks.

MRS. W. E. STEBBINS, Ridge, Ga.

WHY IS THE

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN

THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY?

It is a seamless shoe, with no tacks or wax thread to hurt the feet; made of the best fine calf, stylish and easy, and because we make more shoes of this grade than any other manufacturer, it equals hand-sewed shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

$5.00 Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest calf shoe ever offered for $5.00; equals French imported shoes which cost from $8.00 to $12.00.

$4.00 Hand-Sewed Welt Shoe, fine calf, stylish, comfortable and durable. The best shoe ever offered at this price; same grade as custom-made shoes costing from $6.00 to $8.00.

$3.50 Police Shoe; Farmers, Railroad Men and Letter Carriers all wear them; fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, heavy three soles, extension edge. One pair will wear a year.

$2.50 fine calf; no better shoe ever offered at this price; one trial will convince those who want a shoe for comfort and service.

$2.25 and $2.00 Workingman's shoes have given them a trial will wear no other make.

Boys' $2.00 and $1.75 school shoes are worn by the boys everywhere; they sell on their merits, as the increasing sales show.

Ladies $3.00 Hand-sewed shoe, best Dongola, very stylish; equals French imported shoes costing from $4.00 to $6.00.

Ladies' 2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 shoe for Misses are the best fine Dongola. Stylish and durable.

Caution.—See that W. L. Douglas' name and price are stamped on the bottom of each shoe.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

Insist on local advertised dealers supplying you. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by

SOLD BY

HARRIS & HITESHU, Tecumseh.

- - - LADIES - - -

In delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions or of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to my cure, together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The M. U. Pastilles have stood the test of 18 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $1.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr H. H. Jackson, 103 State Street, Chicago, Illinois

The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. The name and address will be given any lady asking for the same:

DR JACKSON,

Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend your M. U. Pastilles to all ladies suffering with female diseases. Having myself been bedfast for ten months and could find no remedy until I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using about two boxes I was well and sound, for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady. ul16-1y

DO YOU COUGH DON'T DELAY TAKE KEMP'S BALSAM THE BEST COUGH CURE

It Cures Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Large Bottles, 50 cents and $1.00. It Cures Influenza.

The Celebrated Stallion

GIPSEY CHIEF.

Will make the season of 1892 at the owner's farm, at the Bridgewater Mills, River Raisin.

GIPSEY CHIEF is the grandest sire in Southern Michigan, producing from mares of different blood, more matched colts, than any other stallion. Parties wishing to raise colts uniform in style and color, would do well to look at Gipsey Chief and his get, before booking their mares. He is the sire of the celebrated horse Tipton Boy, record 2:24 1-2, and other fast ones.

GIPSEY'S colts all have fine style and action and find ready sale at good prices. For pedigree and terms, address

CHARLES R. KOERNIG,
River Raisin, Mich.

PHYSICIANS OUTDONE.

My wife has been suffering with female trouble of the severest kind for over three years. I have paid twenty-five dollars during the last three months, and she had no relief. She had doctored continually with the best of physicians.

I bought three bottles each of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure, and can say to-day that she is entirely cured. W. H. DROWLEY.

Sworn to before me on this 23d day of June, 1890. JOHN C. DULLAM, Notary Public, Genesee Co.

Flint, Mich. For sale by Jno. Orr.

He: You know I don't approve of tight lacing in women. I think such constant pressure around the waist is highly injurious. She: I don't think that is what makes it so bad. He: What is it, then: She (toying with her fan): It is because that method is so artificial.

There are more divorces granted in the United States than in all the rest of the Christian world put together. Americans are very discriminative—after marriage.

KING OF THE BLOOD

The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.

Cures all Humors, from a Common Boil to the worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.

Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.

Its name is its best description as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.

It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.

It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the Surgeon's knife.

It cures DROPSY, general or partial.

It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.

It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.

It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons and establishes a sound constitution.

MANY certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," which each bottle encloses.

Price $1 per bottle, containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses. Sold by druggists or medicine.

If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors, BUFFALO N. Y

D. RANSOM'S MAGNETIC OINTMENT.

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.

It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.

The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.

All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.

It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood. By this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame; every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years.

This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such, that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates of cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.

Price 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!

HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan Street, I am prepared to execute

General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds.

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

Satisfaction Guaranteed and Charges Reasonable.

A. J. WHITING.

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.

OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.

A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.

OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

THE BOYS IN BLUE.

Reunion of Co. F, 26th Mich. Inf., at the Home of Jehiel Davidson.

The third annual reunion of Company F, of the old 26th Michigan Infantry, was held Tuesday last at the pleasant home of Jehiel Davidson in this village. A more beautiful day could not have been chosen, as the clerk of the weather was in his most gracious mood. Although warm, there was a fresh breeze blowing which made it a model day for an outdoor gathering.

The members of the Company and their friends began to arrive at an early hour in the forenoon, and by noon a gathering of nearly 200 had assembled. The house and lawn were gaily decorated with the national colors. A banner bearing the word "Welcome" appeared beneath the front porch of the house, and the rooms were nicely ornamented with floral emblems and red, white and blue. A canvas covering was stretched between the trees on the lawn, affording ample shade for a large crowd. This was trimmed with bunting and the trunks of the trees were wound with the same material. The grounds looked almost like a military camp.

The forenoon was agreeably passed in social conversation, the old veterans recalling their war experiences and renewing old acquaintances. Camp chairs were provided, making ample seating accommodations for all.

Shortly after noon the guests were called to order, and a fine picnic dinner was served, to which all did ample justice. Comrade Chas. Haynes, of Dundee, invoked the Divine blessing upon the assembled veterans and their guests, and the eatables were then disposed of in true army fashion.

Comrade Jehiel Davidson then called the roll of the members present, as the old vets formed in line on the lawn. Twenty-eight responded to their names as follows. We give the names and residence of each.

Jehiel Davidson, Tecumseh; Joseph Laing, Adrian; Jared Ward, Whiteford; Norman Ackley, Britton; Henry Ball, Dundee; Harley Decker, Adrian; Philemon Brewer, Dundee; George Beneway, Tecumseh; Warren Covill, Britton; John Exelby, Britton; Chas. Howes, Adrian; Lyman Hause, Britton; Marquis Hadley, Whiteford; George Lanning, Tecumseh; Chas. Haynes, Dundee; John Osterhout, Britton; Lyman Osterhout, Adrian; Henry Reynolds, Britton; Wm. Smallidge, Tecumseh; Frank Sperry, Blissfield; Richard Tappan, Deerfield; Joseph Thackery, Britton; John Brighton, Clinton; James Crane, Blissfield; Chester Lind, Britton; John Britton, Britton; Frank Brewer, Dundee; Palmer Hamilton, Elkhart.

The program opened with that good old national air, "America." Mrs. S. W. Anderson presided at the organ, Mr. J. Tremaine acted as leader, while everyone who could sing, as well as several who couldn't, joined the refrain.

A brief invocation was pronounced by Comrade Chas. Haynes, of Dundee.

Hon. J. D. Shull followed in a short address, which was appropriate and effective, as his addresses always are.

Brief remarks followed by Comrades N. H. Ackley and Chas. Haynes.

Lt. L. H. Salsbury, of Adrian, was then introduced and gave a splendid address, about thirty minutes in length. His speech was entirely impromptu and hence it is impossible to reproduce it. No mere synopsis would do it justice, but it was admirably fitted for the occasion and touched the hearts of all present.

The City Band arrived at this point and favored the crowd with a fine selection.

Comrade Britton then read several letters from absent members who were unable to attend, including one from Ex-Gov. Blair, regretting his inability to be present. These letters were from J. S. Farrar, Lansing; Robert Everett, Baltimore; Wm. F. Harding, Prairieville; L. Vreeland, St. Johns; H. Shores, Muskegon. Some of them were quite spicy and produced much merriment, while all expressed deep regret that the writers could not share in the pleasures of this reunion.

Singing followed, "The Battle Cry of Freedom," in which all joined.

The minutes of last year's session were read by Comrade Britton, who acted as secretary last year.

The Band gave another selection.

Then came the election of officers and the treasurer's report. The following officers were chosen for the coming year:

President—John Britton.

Secretary—James Crane.

Treasurer—Norman Ackley.

Historian—Jehiel Davidson.

It was voted to hold the next reunion at John Britton's home, June 13, 1893.

S. C. Stacy followed with a few remarks.

Teeple, the artist, then appeared on the scene with his camera and "spotted" the assemblage in a group negative. It will doubtless develop into a fine group picture.

Mrs. Harding, in behalf of the ladies, presented the following resolutions, which were adopted.

WHEREAS, Death has entered the homes of some of our comrades and taken loved ones, we feel it fitting to pay this tribute, therefore,

RESOLVED—That we tender our sympathy and respect to the families of John Britton, Charles Haynes, Lyman Ousterhout and Milton Saviers and commend them to the loving care of our Father, who doeth all things well.

The regular program closed with vocal music. "Marching Through Georgia," "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" and other songs were sung.

Several of the members and guests then took their departure, as they had to return home on the afternoon trains, but many tarried until nearly nightfall, loth to leave the scene of such unalloyed enjoyment.

It was a red letter day in the history of Co. F. The old vets themselves have good reason to feel proud over the success of their third reunion and the invited guests owe the Company a vote of thanks for their hospitality and entertainment.

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

"The Gate Keepers of the Nation" is the subject of a paper prepared by the Women's Christian Union Publication Society for use in the unions of the country, and in the article there are so many facts that were new and startling to the women that the thought came, "Do our brother voters know?" and if they do know, do they realize the responsibility resting on them for the future of our country?

Within the last decade (1880-1890) five million, two hundred and fifty thousand people have come to us, most of them from the lower classes of Europe. They come in colonies, settling large tracts of country, do not learn our language, and thus are cut off from any educating influences that would come through a knowledge of our language. A large proportion of those who are engaged in the liquor traffic are themselves foreigners, and it is to their interest to educate these newly arrived ones on the great importance of "personal libery," especially as regards the drink habit. They instill in them a hatred for everything connected with temperance, the observance of the Sabbath, or anything that would lessen or destroy the influence or profit of the liquor traffic. The saloons have taken possession of our ports of entry, are clustered around the depots of all our great railways, and their habitues are the only teachers our foreigners have in regard to the duties of citizenship. Eleven states give these foreigners a right to vote after twelve months' residence; six others (of which our own State of Michigan is one) permit them to vote after they have been here six months by simply filing their intentions to some time become citizens. The Supreme Court of the United States decided in a test case that women are citizens, but without the first privilege of citizenship—the ballot—and then legislatures give these men this sacred right by their simply declaring their intentions, and this without their being able to read or speak one word of our language. New Hampshire says, its "inhabitants, native or naturalized"—which of course mean men, as women are no more inhabitants than citizens. New York, more lenient still, says: "Persons who shall have been citizens ten days." Now this cannot mean citizens of the United States, for there has been abundant testimony to the fact that aliens do vote there within ten days after landing, whether legal or not.

Now there can be but one reason for giving these poor, ignorant people these privileges, while our own boys must have twenty-one years of education first, and that is the influence of the politicians who desire their votes for a certain purpose, and that not the good of our country. The liquor interest is to-day the strongest factor in our Government, and thus we see what an immense power this gives in our elections, and, as it is the power of the saloons that thus quickly gives them the ballot, it holds them in its grasp.

What a comment on the wisdom of our government in putting such a power in the hands of ignorant people and teaching them nothing of its right use. There is scarcely a northern city but has more than sixty-five per cent of foreigners and their children. It is said there are nearly two millions of voters in our land who cannot read, write or speak the language in which their ballots are written. It is supposed that not one man in a hundred knows that a majority of the States give aliens the privileges of citizenship before they become in any way citizens of the United States. Our legislatures should be petitioned to change these laws and bring them in harmony with the general government. As these people cannot read nor speak our language they should be instructed in their own. Some say, "Would they not be better citizens if they were compelled to learn our language?" This is hard to do. Better educate them by instructing them as regards their duties in their own. There is no choice about it. "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge" and the time has come when we must teach these millions of people in language they know or be destroyed by them. The W. C. T. U. have tracts and leaflets in sixteen different languages bearing upon any phase of the temperance question. If the women would secure these and scatter them among the foreigners in their localities they would educate the people, as they are written in such a kindly spirit they never offend. The W. C. T. U. missionary, Miss Anna Lindahe, a Swedish woman at the port of New York, is instructing the people as to their duties as citizens by means of tracts and leaflets prepared especially for this purpose. One is, "Obligation of the foreigner to the land of his adoption," "Duties of citizenship," etc., and they are received with great interest. Many will gather around one who is able to read. They are given with a smile, a hand-shake and oftentimes with bread for the hungry. Often is heard, "Oh, how good to find a friend the first thing!" and a kiss bestowed on the hand that gave. This labor is very exhausting. Only one missionary among the vast crowds, for she says: "scarcely a day but sees the coming of four or five hundred emigrants." Miss Willard says we should aid in this great work. The Gate Keepers of the nation are "busy trying to reach and influence these foreigners, for if we do not lend a hand they will take possession of our beloved land and foreignize it for evil, digging the mine of the drink curse, of lawlessness and misery under our feet and their own.

The motto of the W. C. T. U.—"For God, home and native land"—neatly mounted and hung back of the pulpit of the Rollin Baptist Church was rather a novel sight to those living in a community that does not like to hear anything about temperance in a church for fear of mixing politics and religion.

Obituary.

The death of Mrs. L. E. Taylor of Franklin, removes from the earth a woman of fine intellectual gifts and noble qualities. Emma G. Hampton was born in Jonesville Mich. April 10, 1839. In 1842 her family moved to Franklin and that township has ever since been her home. On the 25 of March 1860 she was united in marriage to Loran E. Taylor, with whom she lived a happy domestic life. Twelve children blessed this union, 3 of whom died in infancy. She became a convert to christianity in 1857, joining the M. E. church, and after marriage she transferred her membership by letter to the M. E. church of Clinton. She lived to see all her children now living, except little Johny, unite with the church of her choice.

The large attendence at the funeral services, which were held at the M. E. church in Clinton, attested the regard in which she washeld by all knowing her. She had been a successful teacher before her marriage, and had always kept up her reading habits, although a large family of children demanded her constant care. During her life she read the Bible through fifteen times. She kept herself well posted upon current politcal and social questions, and was in hearty sympathy with all reforms. She was a woman of advanced ideas on all subjects and left the impress of her strong intellect and stirling character upon all her aquaintances. Her lot in life was in one sense a humble one, but her noble deeds and christian influence will go on increasing as the years roll by. Her life was devoted to the welfare of husband and children, who will cherish her memory as their most precious legacy on this side of the grave. They know that her earthly sufferings are now over, and she reposes in the arms of her Savior, to await the coming of the loved ones here below.

OBITUARY.

Jerusha Wheeler was born in Quincy, Mass. Nov. 12th, 1806. Her early life was passed in the town of her nativity. On the 6th, of June 1824, she was united in marriage to Elijah Estes, with whom she lived a most happy domestic life for over fifty years. In the year 1838, the family joined the tide of emigration then flowing westward, and took up their permanent abode in the township of Raisin. Here they resided for over thirty years, raising a family of children and enduring many of the trials incident to pioneer life. In 1869 the family removed to Oakland Co., Mich. On the 24th, of Febuary 1876 death summoned her companion to the other shore and since then she has traveled this earthly journey, alone, devoting herself as far as possible to the welfare of her children. In 1886 she took up her home with her daughter Mrs. John S. Horton, of Grant, Grand Traverse Co., Mich. Here she was taken ill Nov. 26th, 1891, and after several months of suffering, she departed this life on the 31st, day of May, 1892, aged 85 years, 6 months and 19 days.

The remains were brought to Tecumseh for final interment, and appropriate funeral services were held at the home of her nephew J. H. Osborn. Rev. J. O. Perrin, of the M. E. Church, officiating. A large number of old Raisin acquaintances were present to pay the last tribute of respect to their departed friend.

Ten children blessed her married life, six of whom preceded her to the other shore. The four surviving children are E. H. C. H. and E. S. Estes, and Mrs. John S. Horton. Thus has passed from this earthly stage a mother in Israel, whose entire life was passed in devotion to home and kindred. She will be missed too by a large circle of friends who had learned to love her for her kind heart and noble womanly qualities. But their loss will be her gain. She has gone to meet the husband and children who have already passed to those heavenly mansions where partings shall cease and sorrow and sighing shall be no more.

Card of Thanks.

We would return thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted us in our bereavement and burial of our dear mother.

E. H. ESTES.
C. H. Estes.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. HORTEN.
Mr. and Mrs J. H. OSBORN.

Every tissue of the body, every nerve, bone and muscle is made stronger and more healthy by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Reduced Rates to Chicago.

Account of the Democratic National Convention, the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway will sell excursion tickets to Chicago and return, June 16th to 20th inclusive, at half rates. Tickets will be good to return until July 8th inclusive. Apply to Ticket Agent.

SCHOOL SKETCHES.

Miss Haire was visitor at the A room Thursday.

The Senior examinations will all be completed this week.

Latin II. have finished the review of the second book of Cæsar.

The seniors are busy in their preparations for commencement.

Dean Loree and Miss Gertrude Fisher were visitors at the A room on Monday.

Mrs. M. P. Brown and Mrs. Kellogg were visitors at the C room on Tuesday afternoon.

Class work closes on Thursday and written examinations commence in all departments on Friday.

The High school will tell all it knows about music on the examination on Wednesday afternoon.

The Junior reception to the Seniors occurred at the residence of Horace B. Eaton, on Tuesday evening and the return reception will be given by the Seniors at the home of R. B. Gillespie, on Friday evening.

The following is the rainfall for May as observed by Abner Wilson.

May 1—	1.11	May 19—	.67
2—	2.40	21—	trace
3—	.59	22—	trace
5—	.45	23—	.06
6—	1.62	24—	.40
10—	.86	25—	.08
11—	.35	26—	.15
13—	.21	28—	.25
14—	trace	30—	.10
15—	.10	31—	.22
18—	1.05	Total for May—	10.67

Although this is a remarkably large rain fall yet it is not as large as that of May 1883, which was over 12 inches with an average of 2 degrees colder than the present month.

Memorial Resolutions by the W. R. C.

Mrs. John Durling, a soldier's widow and an old resident of Tecumseh, died May 11, 1892, at her residence. She had been for many years a worthy member of the M. E. church. This is the third time the W. R. C. has been called to mourn the death of a beloved member, therefore;

RESOLVED—That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the friends of our dear sister, and that this memorial be recorded in the secretary's book, thus perpetuating her name on our records, as well as her precious memory in our hearts.

MRS. L. BARNES,
MRS. W. E. JORDAN. } Com.
MRS. S. SWEET.

Horticultural Meeting.

Lenawee county Horticultural society meets at the court house and holds the annual display of seasonable fruits and flowers, strawberries, roses, etc., on Saturday, June 18th, at 10 a. m. All are invited to participate. Basket picnic dinner at noon. E. W. ALLIS, Sec.

Buy Dullam's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orr's.

VERY MUCH SURPRISED.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle.

Signed, A. B. SNELL.
Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1811.
For sale by Jno. Orr.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St. N. Y.

AN OPPORTUNITY
IS NOW GIVEN
Children and Persons of Small Means
In Tecumseh and Vicinity
To avail themselves of the advantages of the
NICKEL SAVINGS STAMP SYSTEM
recently introduced by the
Lenawee County Savings Bank
AT ADRIAN.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
5
CENTS

An Agency has been established with C. A. WRIGHT & CO. the Druggists, who will furnish upon application, Books descriptive of the system

SUMMER HATS

STRAW HATS,
SOFT HATS,
STIFF HATS.

For Men and Boys—All Styles and Qualities.

Hot Weather Clothing An Endless Variety of Styles and Qualities.

Cassimere Suits in All the Latest Styles and Colors for Men, Boys, and Children.

THE LARGEST LINE AND LOWEST PRICES AT

STRONG & McNAIR'S.

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS

I will sell your choice of my extensive line of

Hanging Lamps

at cost. I can show you the best assortment of

HAVILAND CHINA,

plain and decorated patterns, in dinner and tea sets, also in fancy pieces. Decorated English porcelain in 12 different patterns, and in sets to suit. A fine English decorated chamber set at the very low price of $2.90 for 10 piece set; $4.90 for 12 piece set.

My stock of Fancy Groceries is complete. Our customers say we have the best 50c tea in town. Come and get sample and see for yourself. Will not be undersold.

JAMES LOWRY.

We have never had such a fine array of harvest machines to show farmers as this season. Every one shows inventive skill, strength and symmetry derived from the touch of

WALTER A. WOOD.

The Wood machines, as made for 1892, are winning crowds of new friends. Examine the new chain-drive, and balance-reel, on the Wood harvester. Examine the new spring lift and the new axle extension on the Wood mowers. Examine the Wood hand-dump rakes, virtually self-dumping.

REASONS WHY

FARMERS SHOULD BUY

Walter A. Wood Harvest Machines

BECAUSE they are light of draft.
BECAUSE they are easily operated.
BECAUSE they are simple in construction.
BECAUSE they are THE WALTER A. WOOD.
BECAUSE they have a world-wide reputation.
BECAUSE with care they will last a life time.
BECAUSE great care is taken in their manufacture.
BECAUSE they do not require the aid of an expert.
BECAUSE they contain all the latest improvements.
BECAUSE they can be operated by man, woman or child.
BECAUSE they are made of the best and strongest materials.

M. E. CONKLIN, Agent.

Headquarters at D. L. Whitenack's Hardware.

PECIAL NOTICES.

ND—Last Monday on Chicago street a ar case. Owner can recover it by prov- operty and paying charges at the Herald

RENT—House with cellar, well cistern, ool-house and garden for $125 per week Slayton.

IRDRESSING. Madame Griffin, hair- resser, of Detroit, is at Mrs. Gamble's.— ictures and has for sale all styles of hair Prices very reasonable and satisfaction nteed. 1w

ANTED a few old umbrellas and parasols to fix. P. J. WELLING.

TION FARMERS.—Before buying mower see the Johnston, the best mower in ket. For sale by GEO. HOLLOWAY, Holloway.

R SALE.—12 horse power Engine and ler for sale cheap if taken at once. Par- n see engine running at Heesen Bros. & shop. HEESEN BROS. & CO.

R SALE CHEAP.—The old M. E. par- nage house on Pearl street. A good house ery fine location. For price and terms of e call at the premises 14 S. WHITTIER.

R SALE OR RENT:—A brick house th two or six of land on Adrian road, south Quaker meeting house, good bargain to parties. Inquire at J. S. Kinney's furni- tore, Tecumseh.

R SALE OR RENT—My place of fifteen res, located in Brownville on Burch street. ell on long time and very easy payments, particulars enquire of James Kingan, near remises. GILES TURNER. rt St.

USTANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, Tecumseh. tf

INA ASTER PLANTS.—A large and ne assortment. Will sell them at twenty ts per dozen. Call at residence of Mrs. C. J. wer, Union St. J. L. WHITE.

STONISHING.—Any young man or young lady, meaning business, can learn of some- ng of practical value to him by enclosing a mp at once—don't wait—to C. A. SHARP, Adrian, Mich

O THE LAKES.—I have a large covered wagon suitable for conveying parties to the es. Special trips made on any day desired, asonable rates. BELL HUBBARD.

AYTON'S ODOMETER.—A Customer rom Ontonagon, Mich., writes A. W. Slay- 'Have used your Odometer a year, am pleased and want more of them." These ters are now in use in nineteen states. ell how many miles you or others drive horse. Address, A. W SLAYTON, Tecum- Mich. Agents Wanted.

CUMSEH HERALD.

UMSEH, MICH., JUNE 16, 1892.

ocal and Miscellaneous

ert Henry, of Toledo, was in town day.

Miss Helen Anderson is home from troit.

Will Baker is home from Cleveland a couple of weeks.

Helse will soon have an incandes- ric electric light plant.

Frank Bryan and wife are visiting W. Mills, at Armanda.

M. Fowler, of Saline, was visiting nds in town last Saturday.

o. Merritt, of Lockport, N. Y., visit- s brother, George, over Sunday.

at is being done to prepare for the reunion in Tecumseh next August?

ohn J. Orr has painted over his store . He struck a fine combination of rs.

Save the advent of good weather, rk on the test well is progressing pidly.

Next week will be commencement eek at the Normal and also at the te University.

We understand that several Adrian mocrats will attend the Chicago con- tion next week.

In the East a story is current that chigan farmers are hiring bell-divers plant their corn.

Thos. Elliott has broken ground for new house on Chicago street. Work- are excavating the cellar this week.

The annual reunion of the Second chigan veteran infantry will be held Hudson, Aug. 4th. After the busi- ss meeting a banquet will be tender- by the citizens.

A cow owned by Enos Palmer of Ogeway had trouble with a locomo- last week and is not to-day in a te of activity, butter soul is march- on.—Adrian Press.

The Russian relief committee of this lage have raised $94.32 for that pur- e. The amount has been sent to ara Barton, President of the Red ss Society, at Washington, D. C.

The Maccabees of Adrian have ac- pted the invitation of their Clinton ethren to participate with them in the rth of July celebration contem- ated by the citizens of that thriving llage.

You will often hear business men umble and growl because the citizens their town go to neighboring towns do their trading. A careful perusal the home paper never finds them ong the advertisers and it often oc- rs they are not even subscribers. ey save a dollar and lose ten.

The Tecumseh Herald states that andlord Patterson "fed the 34 wheel- en from Toledo and Adrian besides s regular boarders on 15 minutes no- ce and wheelmen have an appetite ." This performance of Landlord atterson robs the miracle of the loaves d fishes of much of its importance.—drian Press.

The High School graduating class for e present year consists of ten mem- ers, in the following courses:

English course:—Jennie McCoy, Franc Snell, Willis R. Harton, M. Maude odges, Willis E. Finch, Garland R. illespie.

Latin-Scientific course;—W. Jay Morse.

English-German course:—Guy J. Da- idson, Lulu E. Garlinghouse and E. race Gillispie.

Ed Smith, of Toledo, was in town last Saturday.

A. W. Slayton made a business trip to Ann Arbor last week.

Clinton is making arrangements for a big celebration on the Fourth.

The City Band gave our citizens some fine music on Monday evening.

Remember the Farmers' Union Picnic at Sand Lake next Saturday.

The indications now favor a big crowd at the Union picnic next Saturday.

The mercury was dancing aroun the nineties last Monday afternoon.

Ellsworth Cairns, of Battle Creek, spent a few days at home last week.

A number of Adrian wheelmen took dinner at the Lilley House Sunday.

Hosmer's store front has been newly painted. 'Tis as white as a snow drift.

Wm. R. Bresie, of Decatur, Ill., spent last Sunday with his parents in Tecumseh.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Phelps attended the diocesan convention held last week at Detroit.

It was a beautiful day for the Co. F. reunion last Tuesday and the boys improved it.

L. D. Dewey make a big shipment of wool on Monday, being his purchases of last week.

Dr. Geo. Howell attended the closing session of the medical convention at Detroit last week.

Ten visitors from Clinton attended the meeting of the Eastern Star chapter last Thursday evening.

The Raisin Valley Seminary Commencement will take place on Friday, June 24th, in the forenoon.

The Tecumseh High School Commencement will be held on Thursday evening of next week, June 23d.

A delegation from the Manchester Masonic lodge will do the work in the 3rd. degree here morrow to-night.

Scove Walker and Irve Osborne took a business trip to Raisinville last Monday. They found it delightful riding.

Dean Loree was calling on his old friends here on Monday. He has been engaged as Principal of the Belleville school for the coming year.

E. H. Estes, who has been spending a couple of weeks with Tecumseh and Raisin friends, returned to his home in Northern Michigan, yesterday.

A trotting matinee will be held on the Dundee track next Saturday, June 18th. The Mackinaw road will sell round trip excursion tickets for one and one-third fare.

Newspaper men are smiling quietly over the fact that at Detroit last week conventions of doctors, undertakers and ministers were in session at the same time.

Remember that John R. Clark will lecture at the opera house next Sunday June 19th at three o'clock p. m. Let us all turn out and give our former townsman a royal welcome.

Puck's cartoons of June 15th are full of political meat, and will be keenly appreciated by those alive to the various aspects of the situation as regards Cleveland and Blaine.

The Baccalaureate sermon before the class of '92, of the Tecumseh High School will be preached at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening next by Rev. David J. Lewis.

The farmers are getting on with their spring work so much better than seemed possible two weeks ago, that they will doubtless turn out in large numbers to the picnic next Saturday.

Mrs. Josiah Woodward celebrated her 96th birthday Monday. Mrs. Woodward has borne the honor of being the oldest inhabitant of Tecumseh for some time, and doubtless will as long as she lives.

Prof. E. G. Walker, of Adrian, is now a full-fledged attorney and we believe the only prohibition attorney in this county. We congratulate Prof. Walker upon his admission to the ranks of Blackstone's disciples, and the county bar upon this valuable accession their membership.

"The Round Table" is the name of a new department which has just been opened in Harper's Young People, and which is to represent an association of the same name, to which all boys and girls who desire to become members may be admitted upon their application "without fee and without conditions."

P. W. Adams and wife, of McDonough, Delaware, are visiting friends and relatives at their former homes, Tecumseh and Lansing. Mr. Adams is an unswerving Prohib, a western man who has lived some time among eastern folks and observed their political methods. In a short visit at this office he gave it as his opinion that the progress of the Prohibition party would have to come through the plans and methods of the west, just as the Messenger has been telling its readers for some time. —Adrian Messenger.

A large number of wheelmen took to the road yesterday, the route between Adrian and Tecumseh being kept well warmed up. The wheelmen have in contemplation a trip next Sunday to the stretch of road about seven miles out from Adrian, where they will be photographed. This Photo will be sent to "Good Roads" as a specimen of them. Refreshments and a run to Tecumseh will be a part of the programme. Over one hundred wheelmen are expected to go. Easy stages and slow riding will be the order.—Adrian Times of Monday.

Edith Gamble is visiting in Ann Arbor this week.

Scove Walker went to Adrian to-day on legal business.

Mrs. A. W. Slayton and Ethel, are visiting in Detroit.

Robe Hosmer was a visitor in Detroit the first of the week.

A. P. Coddington and wife are visiting in Grass Lake this week.

Dr. L. G. North attended the Medical convention at Detroit last week.

Charlie Bidwell came home from Buffalo Tuesday to enjoy a short vacation.

All hands aboard for the farmers Union Picnic at Sand Lake next Saturday.

Geo. W. Stacy, of East Buffalo, is visiting at the old Newburg home this week.

Philip Totten, of Petoskey, arrived in town Monday and will remain two or three weeks.

W. C. Burridge and W. H. Hayden attended the Blue lodge in Hudson Monday night.

An engine has been employed at the test well and work is being pushed night and day.

The proceedings of the Minneapolis convention will be found on the inside pages of to-day's issue.

Frank McNeil has gone to Janesville, Wis., where he expects to remain for some time. Success to him.

The Adrian and Tecumseh kids had a game of base ball last Saturday. The Adrian club came out ahead.

Temple, McClure & Co., have their new planing mill building nearly enclosed and work is progressing on the boiler house.

Tuesday evening occured the Junior reception at Horace Eaton's. A thoroughly enjoyable time is reported by all who attended.

Heesen Bros. & Co. have received their new engine and boiler. They will be placed in position, as soon as the boiler house can be rebuilt.

The remains of Delos Fox, who died in Detroit of malignant diptheria, were brought here for interment Saturday. The funeral was held in Franklin last Sunday.

An Excursion from Jackson to Presque Isle, via Lake Shore R. R. will run on Sunday, June 19th, leaving Tecumseh at 8:00 a. m.. $1.50 for round trip, which includes a ride on Lake Erie.

We understand that a program is in preparation for the Alumni reunion, which will be held next week Friday. The officers, however, should be at work for the time for preparation is short.

E. H. Estes left Tecumseh in 1869 and had not been here for fourteen years until his present visit. Tecumseh has improved greatly in that time and he felt a longing to come back and make it his home again.

Great Britain's building at the World's Fair is now in process of erection. The structures of a number of other foreign nations will be begun within ten days or two weeks, as commissioners are on the ground preparing to inaugurate work.

During the months of June, July and August, the Woman's Relief Corps will hold but one meeting a month, which will take place upon the first Monday evening of each month. The next regular meeting will occur upon the evening of July 4. A full attendance is desired.

On Tuesday evening, Co. C held an election for 1st. Lieutenant to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Frank Crossman. Second Lieut. Sam McClure was chosen as first and Will Ross as second lieutenant. We congratulate the Company on its choice of officers.

Children's Day will be observed next Sabbath morning 10:30, at the M. E. church. A very beautiful and entertaining program will be executed by the young people of the Sunday School. The committee on decorating the church are requested to meet at the church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

The confirmation services at St. Peter's church, Tuesday evening, drew a good congregation, notwithstanding the sultry state of the weather. The Bishop's address was brief but exceedingly eloquent and impressive. A class of nine young ladies and gentlemen, four boys and five girls, received the rite of confirmation.

John Richard, of Raisin, who has been in feeble health for several months, and whose demise has been expected for a long time, departed this life on Sunday last. He was one of the oldest settlers of Raisin, having taken up his abode there in 1833. The funeral obsequies were held Tuesday afternoon and were attended by a large concourse of neighbors and friends. A further obituary mention will appear in a future issue.

Mr. Frank Merrill, of Detroit, has accepted the position in Wm. McCowen's Furniture store, vacated by Mac G. Fritz. Mr. Merrill is a professional undertaker, having had 12 years city practice. Mr. McCowen says he has been congratulated by all the representatives of all the leading casket houses in the state at his good fortune in securing the services of so able an undertaker. Mr. Merrill is a bright young business man and we bid him welcome to our midst.

—$60.00 IN CASH PRIZES.—Send ten cents for the June number of the "Literary Century" giving full particulars. Address THE LITERARY CENTURY, Ann Arbor, Mich.

—Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention. GEO. MATTESON

—I have a very complete stock of Hay Tools, Rakes, Tedders, Racks, Carriers, Forks, Rope, Pulleys, etc., and prices right. C. A. SLAYTON.

—You will make no mistake in using Heck's Peacemaker Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham, and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands. HECK & SON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call at C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—90,000 Star-A-1, shingle for sale at $3.25 per M. O. P. BILLS.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—You will need to work your corn well this year and should have the best cultivator. You can find them at C. A. SLAYTONS.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch, Give me a call. GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds. CITY BAKERY.

—When looking for a Hay Rack see the "Avery." It is complete as a Hay or stock Rack having a bridge to load stock or heavy articles. It makes a complete double wagon box with matched bottom and all changes are easily made. SLAYTON & AVERY.

—Large assortment of Chenille Curtains in New Colors, at low prices, at Stebbins' Furniture Rooms, Adrian.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains. NEW LAUNDRY,

—Tintypes taken at Teeple's Gallery.

—Call and see the New Styles in Oak Chamber Suits at Stebbins'.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices. CITY BAKERY

—New Patterns in Open Stock Decorated Dinner Ware at Stebbins Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice. WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Life size Crayon Portraits given away with every dozen Cabinets, AT TEEPLES' GALLERY.

—Haviland & Co's Decorated China Dinner sets, at very low prices, at Stebbins' Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town. CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Large stock of Ladies Desks, Music Cabinets, Book Cases and Secretaries at low prices at Stebbins' Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—$3.00 gets a life size Crayon portrait and one dozen fine enamel finish cabinet photos, at Teeple's Gallery.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—New styles in Sideboards, Dining Tables and Chairs at Stebbins' Furniture Rooms, Adrian.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial. BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

Warm Weather Has Come

I Have Added to my Stock a Large Invoice of

Ladies' Hand-Sewed Shoes,

Mens' Working Shoes,

Ladies' Walking Shoes.

Men's and Boys' Fine Shoes,

Misses' and Children's Shoes:

In Endless Variety and Suited for Warm Weather Wear.

Summer Coats and Vests And Summer Outing Shirts. A Large and very Handsome Assortment. Come to headquarters to get your Warm-Weather Clothing.

Yours for Trade,

Alva Spayde.

'92 SPRING! '92

In looking for the latest things in
DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, BOOTS, SHOES, SLIPPERS,
HATS, CAPS, LADIES' AND GENTS'
FURNISHINGS,
call on
HARRIS & HITESHU.

We have the largest and most complete line of
BOOTS, SHOES, WALKING SHOES AND SLIPPERS
in Tecumseh. New goods in all departments.
PRICES AS LOW AS THE LOWEST.

Call and see us before you buy. No trouble to show goods.
Thanking yon for past patronage and wishing for a continuance of the same, we are
Yours respectfully,
HARRIS & HITESHU.

Do You Think of Painting This Season ?

We Can Show You The Most Handsome And Best Paints Made.

Call and get Prices and Sample Card of Colors. C. A. Wright.

Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.

Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.

Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.

Satterthwaite Bros.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WIGHTMAN, Attorney at Law Successor to F. B. Wood, Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Fred'k B. Wood John E. Bird,
Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLEMENT E. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.

WEAVER, & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Practice in all the Courts.
Masonic Temple. ADRIAN, MICH.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—Being now located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to calls in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. G. W. GOODRICH, V. S.

C. O. SLAUGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON. A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College, Residence, 1½ miles east of Pennington's Corners. All calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY.
J. H. EMERY, Proprietor,
Adrian, Michigan.
This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

RICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL.
Late The Madison.
Cor. of Jefferson Avenue and Randolph street.
Detroit, Mich.
J. D. RICE, Prop. R. C. SPRAGUE, Clerk.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Three lines of street cars pass the door.
RATES—Meals 25c. Per day, $1.25 and $1.50. Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 14 I. O. O. F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. C. Anderson's store, Chicago street. WM. GRAY, N. G.
R. HOLDWAY, Cor. Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV J. DEHAAN, Pastor.
SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching in the forenoon at 10:30; Sunday school at 12 o'clock; Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome
Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Young People's Meeting. Come one, come all and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—

Special attention given to ladies' and childrens' hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.

—THREE CHAIRS—

Landgraf building, Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN
HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN
PAINTING
AND PAPER HANGING
Call on THEO. P WOOD, 77 E. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first-class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of
Railroad Street Meat Market!
Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.
GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN
Drugs, : Paints : Oils
AND VARNISHES.
N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded. At the Old Corner Store, RIDGEWAY, MICH. nov5

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY
MANUFACTURER OF
And Dealer in
Carriages, Buggies,
SURRIES, SPRING WAGONS,
ROADCARTS
SULKIES, CUTTERS, ETC.
Pearl Street,
TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER,

SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.
LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth, Crowns, Filling and Building-Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of Vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable

B. F. STEINHOFF'S

Dental Rooms.

OVER BAKER & HALL'S.
GAS FOR EXTRACTING.
LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co.'s Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.

EXAMINATION FREE!
Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.
Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.
Remember, office over Avery & Co's.
W. D. REED, D. D. S.
Will be at Onsted every Wednesday.

Take Pains

with your work, unless you take Pearline to it. Without Pearline, you may have your labor for pains. In all washing and cleaning it saves work, wear and worry. It is harmless to everything washable; it should be used with everything that is washed. Pearline is worth more than it costs. Imitations are worthless and are dangerous.

Beware of imitations which are being peddled from door to door. First-quality goods do not require peddling. PEARLINE is sold in every civilized country and is manufactured only by JAMES PYLE, New York.

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN, OR WOMAN,

of intelligence and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight, and who has Lost the Most Precious Possession on Earth, viz., GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT require a SECOND TELLING to be induced to become a purchaser.

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC BELTS & APPLIANCES.

Do you know why? Because it is plain to be seen that the TRUTH ONCE TOLD is enough. The Surprising Promptness with which all classes of people respond to our announcements and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods wherever introduced conclusively prove that true modesty is always recognized and the quality of merit takes care of itself. Emphatically our statement is the Button—the Public Press it, and

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES

"Do the Rest."

The extent of Pressure on the boston and the success of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" is most satisfactorily shown in the marvelous growth of our business the past 60 days.

Repeated and increasing demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming in from all parts of the country with profuse acknowledgements that so much comfort for $1.00 the price is like buying Gold Dollars for ten cents.

The Delicate Organism of Woman subjects her to many peculiar ailments and unfortunate misery. The virtuous selection of her Nervous System very frequently requires artificial stimulus. The Gregg Electric Belt and other Appliances supply this as nothing else can.

The Rugged Constitution of Man, when once broken, becomes pitiable in the extreme, from which there is absolutely no escape without assistance. The Gregg Electric Belts and Appliances in cases of this kind have honestly won their title of King of Remedies.

Rheumatism is conquered, sufferers from Obesity are speedily relieved, Dropsy quickly yields, spinal difficulties and Paralysis disappear, and many other diseases of Men and Women are permanently cured. Call, describe your complete case to us, or elaborate circulars free. We guarantee to forfeit twice the price of any of Dr. Gregg's Goods found not to be genuine. We make an elegant little $8 Electric Belt, which is selling very rapidly and which we take in exchange for any higher power belt (except $5 belt) and credit $3 on the price of new order. Remember the Electric Foot warmers are $1 a pair. Worth $10. Address

THE GREGG ELECTRIC CURE CO,
501 Inter-Ocean Building, Chicago, Ill.
and mention this paper. J 14-tf.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS IS A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS ONE OF OUR NEW

SEAMSTRESS

SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS
National Sewing Machine Co.
SUCCESSORS TO
JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.
Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

Work of the National Lawmakers at Washington.

A Daily Summary of the Proceedings in the Senate and House — Bills Passed and New Measures Introduced.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The senate yesterday passed the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The pension deficiency bill was laid before the senate yesterday and referred to the committee on appropriations. A bill was introduced appropriating $150,000 for a branch home for volunteer disabled soldiers and sailors at or near Beatrice, Neb.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—In the senate yesterday the urgent deficiency bill appropriating over $7,000,000 for the present fiscal year was passed. Two of the general appropriation bills—the legislative and agricultural—and the two bills for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona as states were received from the house. Adjourned to the 13th.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—In the house yesterday a bill was passed appropriating $15,000 for the establishment of weather bureau stations on Middle and Thunder Bay islands, in Lake Huron. The urgent deficiency bill was also passed. June 18 was set apart for the delivery of eulogistic addresses in the memory of the late Senator Wilson, of Maryland.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—In the house yesterday the agricultural appropriation bill was passed.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Bills were passed in the house yesterday permitting poor persons to sue in the United States courts upon affidavits, and authorizing the courts to appoint counsel; defining the crimes of murder in the first and second degree and manslaughter in places and on waters under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, and modifying the revised statutes so as to dispense with proof of loyalty during the war of the rebellion as a prerequisite to being restored or admitted to the pension roll.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—In the house yesterday the day was spent in the consideration of unimportant measures and the evening session was devoted to the consideration of private pension bills. Adjourned to the 13th.

FINDING THE BODIES.

People in Pennsylvania's Oil Regions Afraid to Return to Their Homes.

OIL CITY, Pa., June 10.—The five bodies found at Kennerdell reached here yesterday and were immediately buried. They could not be identified. At the Clapp farm, a couple of miles above here, the people are terrorized and cannot be induced to return to their ruined homes. They fear another explosion, as the atmosphere on the bottoms is laden with gas. The people are encamped in the woods and on the hills.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., June 10.—Another body was found yesterday in the lower part of the town and the search is still going on. Some of the bodies interred in Oil City are supposed to have floated here, having floated down from Titusville. The terrible stench indicates that more corpses are under the ruins.

The contributions to the general fund for the relief of the sufferers have reached $15,000 in Pittsburgh and $5,500 in Alleghany.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., June 11.—Up to date sixty-five dead bodies have been taken from the ruins here, caused by fire and flood, and more are missing.

OIL CITY, Pa., June 13.—The fifty-fourth body was found here Sunday. This completes Oil City's dead, all of the missing having now been found or accounted for.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEES.

Candidates Who Will Strive to Secure Seats in the Lower House.

ABILENE, Kan., June 10.—The people's party Fifth district convention yesterday nominated John Davis for congress.

COLUMBUS, O., June 10.—James A. D. Richardson, of Philadelphia, on the fifty-fifth ballot yesterday became the democratic nominee for congress in the Seventh district.

Fought Seven Days.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The Herald's Valparaiso correspondent says that the rebels of Matto Grosso, Brazil, have had a seven days' battle with government troops and utterly defeated them. The combat is said to have begun on May 7. One thousand men of the government's army were killed upon the battlefield and a large number were wounded. All the chief officers of the government forces were killed.

Sudden Death of a Banker.

RACINE, Wis., June 13.—Horatio B. Munroe, cashier of the First national bank, died suddenly about 6 o'clock Saturday night at his home on Main street, of heart disease. He left the bank at 4 o'clock and went to his home and proceeded to work in the garden. Shortly after his wife went into the garden and found him on the ground dead.

Alabama Democrats Divided.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 10.—The democrats in state convention here yesterday split into two factions and the bolters nominated Reuben A. Kolb for governor. The regulars renominated Thomas G. Jones for governor, five supreme court judges and a candidate for attorney general.

Death of a "Big Indian."

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., June 10.—The noted Osage chief En-Tsa-Wah-Tah-In-Kah, died at Pawhuska, of Bright's disease. He was just closing his second term as principal chief of the Osage nation. White Horn, the second chief, will ascend to the throne.

An insane man ran amuck on a Grand Haven & Milwaukee train near Durand, Mich., and fired several shots at the passengers before he was captured.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Good Bank Showing.

The consolidated report of 130 state banks and three trust companies at the close of business May 17 has been issued from the bank commissioner's office. The report shows the increase on deposits since December 2 to be $5,921,789.88; increase of capital, $772,870; increase of surplus and undivided profits, $225,380.22; making a total increase of $7,232,204.83. These institutions have liabilities amounting to $72,424,166.88; capital, $10,295,200; surplus funds and undivided profits, $4,099,161.25; deposits, $55,073,587.13.

Sons of Veterans.

The ninth annual state encampment of Sons of Veterans, Michigan division, was held at Battle Creek, and officers were chosen as follows: M. Gier, Hillsdale, division commander; Carl A. Wagner, Port Huron, senior vice commander; Guy Rowley, Charlotte, junior vice major. A committee was appointed to aid the G. A. R. in securing legislation for the erection of a soldiers' home in Michigan; also one to add an insurance system to the order.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by fifty-one observers in different parts of the state for the week ended June 4 indicated that measles, cholera morbus, scarlet fever and whooping cough increased, and inflammation of the brain, diphtheria, smallpox and typho-malarial fever decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at thirty-eight places, scarlet fever at fifty-two, typhoid fever at twelve and measles at twenty-two places.

The Chapin Mine Sold.

The Chapin mine at Iron Mountain, one of the biggest iron producing mines in Michigan, has been sold by the Vanderbilts to Ferdinand and William Schlesinger, of Milwaukee, Wis. Though the consideration is not definitely known, it said on good authority to be over $3,000,000. Included in the sale are the docks and boats of the Menominee Transit Company.

Horses Killed.

An electric storm did considerable damage in the vicinity of Jackson. Joseph Stone, living in the outskirts of the city, had two horses killed which he had recently purchased to make a living by teaming. He had mortgaged his home to buy the horses. The barn of Job Sargeant, on the Allen road, was struck and one horse killed. Other slight damages were done.

Will Transfer Its Members.

The Michigan Mutual Benefit Life Insurance association of Hillsdale has collapsed, and its officers have made arrangements with the Odd Fellows' Mutual of Galesburg, Ill., for a transfer of the members from the Hillsdale company to the Galesburg, but the members will have to undergo a new medical examination and also go in at their present age.

Shot His Wife.

Ad Hutchinson was locked up at Mount Pleasant for shooting his wife. It appears that he shot at her three times, two shots taking effect. He was under the influence of liquor at the time. Hutchinson lives about 8 miles southwest of Mount Pleasant. It was not known whether Mrs. Hutchinson would live or not.

Short But Newsy Items.

The Michigan Central is building three logging branches.

The assessed valuation of Lansing is $7,062,329, or 67 per cent. more than it was in 1885.

Fire caused damage amounting to $25,000 to the Michaels machine shop in Detroit.

The barn of A. Westenbrock near Holland was struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

A syndicate of Kalamazoo capitalists has subscribed a sufficient amount to purchase and operate the American Wheel Company's plant.

Arthur Richards, an English immigrant who arrived in the township of Green Oak, Livingston county, about three weeks ago, died from smallpox.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Ayres, on trial in Detroit for shooting her husband last March, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The Calumet and Red Jacket post offices will be consolidated, thus securing free delivery.

S. R. Howell, the Chicago lumberman, has effected a settlement with his Michigan creditors, paying them on an average sixty cents on the dollar.

There are 2,000 men employed in the iron mines at Ironwood.

Charles Clark, an elderly man and a cripple living at Wixom, was knocked down by an itinerant salesman of cheap silverware and robbed of $200.

Mrs. B. J. Alfrink, living 4 miles south of Holland, is out a barn and twelve head of cattle, the result of a bolt of lightning.

The name of the post office at Ashland, Newaygo county, has been changed to Great Station, and James A. Tyler commissioned postmaster.

The election of members of the school board at Kalamazoo resulted in the defeat of the woman's ticket by 300 plurality. The Hoyt ticket won.

A raft containing 9,000,000 feet of logs left Cheboygan for Bay City.

Doctors at Green Oak, Livingston county, allowed a smallpox patient to expose many people before he died. They thought it was measles.

Large quantities of red oak are being cut at Black River and shipped east. It is used largely for the interior finishing of buildings.

Samuel Pelkola, trammer for the Cleveland mine at Ishpeming, was crushed to death by a mass of ore in the mine.

Negaunee business men are suffering a severe loss of trade owing to the closing down of several of the big iron mines.

Mrs. Margaret Parks was tripped by a defective Birmingham sidewalk, fell and broke a leg. She values the limb at $10,000 and will sue if the village doesn't settle.

"WHOSE fine mansion is that?" That is the dwelling of old Bigginsby, the coal baron. It represents an entire year's pinching, scraping and economizing." "He's immensely wealthy, isn't he?" "Worth millions." "Then what was the need of his pinching and scraping?" "Oh, he didn't have to do the economizing. He made a 10 per cent cut in wages the year he built it."

A MEDICAL MAGPINIONN'S FROM QUEEN'S COLLEGE, LONDON.

What Dr. J. Bazzett, who has practiced 46 years, says of Dr. Fay's New Treatment for Consumption: "I have used it and seen it used in many cases with the greatest success, and I can recommend it to those afflicted with consumption and all other diseases that it is recommended for."

DR. J. BAZZETT,
Graduate of Queen's College, London.
Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $13 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by traveling between Detroit and Cleveland, via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $2.25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making SURE connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. Schantz, G. P. A., Detroit & Cleve. and Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

SYRUP of FIGS

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

ESTATE OF WILLIAM WRIGHT.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 1st day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of William Wright, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition duly verified, of Elizabeth Wright, widow of said deceased, praying for the probate of an instrument now on file in this court purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and that administration of said estate may be granted to Joseph Wright and Simon Gould, executors in said will named, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That Tuesday, the 5th day of July, next, 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause if any there be why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendancy of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
(A True Copy.)
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Ann Pocklington deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the Township Clerk's office, in Britton, in Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 12th day of June, and on the 12th day of November, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 11th day of May, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment.

Dated, at Britton this 16th day of May, 1892.

JOHN BRITTON,
NORMAN H. ACKLEY,
Commissioners.

MADE WITH BOILING WATER.
EPPS'S GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.
COCOA
MADE WITH BOILING MILK.

WOMEN WHO DIE EARLY.

Many of our most beautiful and accomplished ladies die before they reached the prime of life. Of those who live to middle age only one in a hundred is sound; the other one and ninety-nine are sufferers. Why is it? Self neglect. The shattered nerves can be restored; the home made happy and your life lengthened if you commence at once.

"Rose Buds" have been used for years in the private practice of some of the most eminent physicians, and the following diseases, and distressing symptoms yield to its magic: Ulceration, Congestion, Falling of the Womb, Ovarian Dropsy of the Womb, Bearing Down Pains, Ruptures at Childbirth, Miscarriages. One package of "Rose Buds" will make a new woman of you. (Leucorrhea or Whites are speedily cured by one application.) Price, per package—one month's treatment—sent by mail post paid, securely sealed. THE LEVERETTS SPECIFIC CO., 24 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

GOOD LOOKS.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver is inactive you have a Bilious look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look, and if your Kidneys are affected you have a Pinched look. To secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and tonic which acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blotches, Boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at J. J. Orr's drug store, 50c. per bottle.

"You borrowed a fiver of me the other day, you know." "Ya-as." "I'd like to have it back if you can——" "Can't my deah boy, I've spent it."

JOLLY TAR PLUG CHEWING TOBACCO

BEATS the WORLD it is GOOD AND CHEAP. TRY IT. Your dealer has it.

15 CENTS PER BOX, GUARANTEED.

HYA HEADACHE POWDERS

FOR SALE BY JOHN J. ORR.

THOS. S. SPRAGUE & SON
Attorneys and Solicitors of Patents, United States and foreign. Correspondence solicited. Instruction Pamphlet free. 37 WEST CONGRESS ST., DETROIT, Mich. Established 1856 PATENTS

FARMERS AND THRESHERMEN
Catalogue FREE.
All the Latest Improvements, Cushioned Cast Steel Tire, Return flue, ¼ Fuel Saved, Traction Power or on Skids.

3,000 IN USE and never an explosion.
BUY THE NEW HUBER ENGINES.
ALL SIZES THRESHERS.

VICTOR HULLERS,
New Imperial Stackers.
G. C. POCKLINGTON,
Agent for southeastern Michigan.
State headquarters, R. Shettler,
Lansing, Mich.

ust like a man

y that his wife can't make od bread as his Mother did.

LLETT'S

AGIC

EAST

give you the great advantage
h his mother had, and besides, made with this yeast will bring back his boyhood's tion, ensuring his enjoyment
e rest of your cooking also.

at your Grocer's. It is
D and always READY.

STRENGTH
AND VIGOR
FOR YOUTH
AND OLD AGE

. J. H. McLEAN'S

TRENGTHENING CORDIAL
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

for Loss of Appetite, Loss of eakness; pleasant to the taste tonic with the ladies. Price $1
r sale by all druggists.
PREPARED BY
McLean Med Co., St. Louis, Mo

THE HICAGO
TTAGE RGAN"

d a standard of excellence
s no superior.
every improvement that skill and money can

WAR-RANTED
FOR FIVE YEARS.

Parlor Organs are celebrated tone, quality of tone, quick ster combination, artistic finish, perfect construc-
the most attractive, and desirable organs in the omes, Schools, Churches, Societies.

es on application, FREE.

Cottage Organ Co.
WABASH AVE.,
HICAGO, ILL.

ES
A NEW PAINLESS
CERTAIN CURE.
GIVES INSTANT
LASTING CURE. NEVER RE-
PROVE IT and to convince ll promptly cure any case

URED
rnal, Internal, Bleeding,
r Itching, we will send a
E FREE to any address.
Discover postage & address.
O DRUG CO.,
troy, Mich.
FREE

ILOH'S
SUMPTION
URE.
this Great Cough Cure is in the history of medicine.
authorized to sell it on a pos-est that no other cure can suc-
That it may become known,
t an enormous expense, are Bottle Free into every home es and Canada. If you have roat, or Bronchitis, use it, for
If your child has the Croup, gh, use it promptly, and relief
read that insidious disease
it. Ask your Druggist for E, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and ungs are sore or Back lame, us Plaster, Price 25 cts.

AND, YOU DO THE REST
ete, practical course by MAIL positions in all parts of the culars free.
SHARP, STENOGRAPHER,
ADRIAN, MICH.

HARRISON WINS.

The Republicans Nominate the President for a Second Term.

Whitelaw Reid, of New York, Named for Vice President—Work Done by the National Convention at Minneapolis.

FIRST DAY'S SESSION.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 8.—The national republican convention was called to order Tuesday at 12:31 p. m. by J. S. Clarkson, chairman of the national committee. The delegates were all in their seats, and the parts of the great hall dgvoted to spectators were crowded to suffocation. When the chairman's gavel fell Mr. Clarkson announced that the session would be opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Brush, chancellor of the University of South Dakota at Mitchell. A moment after the whole convention stood as Dr. Brush, a venerable looking man with sparsely covered head and long white beard, delivered the invocation.

The session was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Brush, chancellor of the University of South Dakota. Then M. H. de Young, of California, stepped forward and read the call for the convention, after which Chairman Clarkson arose and announced that he was instructed by the committee to present to the convention for its temporary chairman J. Sloat Fassett, of New York. There was a round of applause as Mr. Fassett went forward to the platform.

Upon taking the chair Mr. Fassett began his address with complimentary references to the convention whose duty it was, he said, "to formulate, for the inspection of the people, the beliefs and purposes of the party relative to the living political questions of national importance and to choose that man for leader under whose guidance we feel we shall be most sure of establishing those beliefs in the form of law."

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

Mr. Fassett completed his speech at 1:09 o'clock p. m. and took the gavel in his left hand before the convention realized that he was through. Then he was applauded loudly, but almost immediately there went up cries of "Reed" "Reed" and immediately the convention was on its feet shouting and waving hats. Mr. Reed shook his head in response to the continued calling. But the convention would not be satisfied without him. The applause continued until Mr. Reed, rising, his straw hat in his hand, picked his way to the aisle and walked down to the chairman's platform. He spoke briefly, praising the party for its achievements in the past and congratulating it on its prospects for the future.

THE SECOND DAY.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 9.—The republican national convention met at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and the report of the committee naming Gov. McKinley, of Ohio, as permanent chairman was ratified. Upon taking the chair Mr. McKinley said:

"GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: I thank your for the honor of presiding at the ninth national convention of the republican party. A republican convention means something. They have always meant something. Republican conventions say what they mean and mean what they say. They declare principles and policies and purposes and when intrusted with power they execute and enforce them. [Cheers.] The first national convention of the republican party thirty-six years ago met in the city of Philadelphia. The platform of that convention reads to-day more like an inspiration than the affirmation of a political party. Every provision of that great instrument made by the fathers of our party is in the statutes of our country to-day. [Cheers.] Everyone of them has been embodied into public law and that cannot be said of the platform of any political organization in this or any other country in the world. Whenever there is anything to be done in this country and by this country and for this country, the republican party is called upon to do it. [Applause.]

"There is one thing that can be said of our organization which cannot be said of any other. It can look backward without shame or humiliation and it can look forward with cheer and exultation. That cannot be said of any other political organization in the United States.

"Gentlemen of the convention, we are here to-day to make a platform and a ticket that will commend themselves to the consciences and the intelligence and the judgment of the American people, and we will do it. [Loud cheers.] Whatever is done by this convention will meet the approval of the American people in November of this year. [Renewed cheers.] We have already heard some of the notes of victory, for this is a republican year. Rhode Island has spoken. [Applause.] Only yesterday Oregon spoke, electing three republican representatives to the congress of the United States. [Cheers.] When we get through with this convention its conclusions will be the law of republican action, as they will be the assurance of republican victory. We are for a protective tariff and for reciprocity. [Great applause.] We propose to take no backward step upon either of those great republican principles. [Applause.]

"We stand for a protective tariff, because it represents the American home, the American fireside, the American family, the American girl, and the American boy, and their highest possibilities of American citizenship. [Applause.] We propose to raise our money to pay public expenses by taxing the products of other nations, rather than by taxing the products of our own. [Applause.] The democratic party believes in direct taxation; that is, taxing ourselves. We don't believe in that principle, so long as we can find anybody else to tax. [Laughter and applause.] The protective tariff not only does everything which a revenue tariff can do in raising all needed revenues, but a protective tariff does more than that. A protective tariff encourages and stimulates American industries and gives the widest possibilities to American genius and American effort. [Applause.] Does anybody know what tariff reform means? [Cries of "No, no."] And yet that is to be the platform of our political opponents this year. What does it mean? You can study Mr. Cleveland's utterances, from the first one he made in New York, when he said he didn't know anything about the tariff, until his last one in Rhode Island, and you go away ignorant and uninformed as to what tariff reform means.

"Since the war there have been three great tariff reform bills proposed by the democratic leaders, and none of them alike; no two of them with the same free list, no two of them with the same tariff list, no two of them with the same rates of duty, but all made by the democratic party, upon the same principle, to symbolize and represent tariff reform. You may go to Mr. Mills, you may go to Mr. Springer, and you will find that they differ totally. But you may go to the house of representatives at Washington which was elected distinctively upon what they call a tariff reform issue, with two-thirds majority in the house, and what do you find? That they have passed three bills. Let me name them: First, free tin and steel or iron plates on which tin is coated taxed, the finished product free and the raw material bearing duty. Second, free wool to the manufacturer and tariff cloth to the consumer. Third, free cotton ties to the cotton states and tariff hoop iron to all the rest of the states. That is their symbol of tariff reform. Gentlemen of the convention, how do you like it?

"This contest that you enter upon is for the maintenance of protection and reciprocity. But I want to say here that there is not a line of that tariff bill that is not American; there is not a paragraph that is not patriotic; there is not a page that does not represent true Americanism and the highest possibilities of American citizenship. [Applause.] We are to declare ourselves upon other questions here to-day. We are to declare ourselves upon the question of a free ballot and a fair count. [Applause.] No platform should ever be made by a republican convention that did not reiterate that great constitutional guaranty. No republican speech should ever be made that did not insist—finally and resolutely insist—that that great constitutional guaranty shall be a living birthright, not the cold formality of constitutional enactment, but a living thing, which the poorest and humblest may confidently enjoy and which the highest and most powerful dare not deny. [Great applause.] We can well leave to the committee on resolutions the duty of making a platform that shall represent the best thoughts and the best ideas and the best wisdom of the republican party. [Applause.] When we go out of this convention upon a true republican platform we go marching to victory, no matter what name we may carry on our banner." [Applause.]

Mr. Bingham, chairman of the committee on rules, reported. The substance of this report provides for the adoption of the platform before the nominations are taken up. The rules of the Fifty-first congress were recommended and the report was adopted.

The committee on resolutions was given further time in which to report. The roll of states for nominations for national committeemen was called, and the convention adjourned until 11 o'clock this morning.

THE THIRD DAY.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 10.—In the republican national convention yesterday a test vote on the adoption of the committee on credentials, indicated a majority of the delegates in favor of Harrison. Mr. Depew, of New York, in a felicitous speech called attention to the fact that Hon. R. W. Thompson, of Indiana, ex-secretary of the navy, had reached his 83d birthday, and moved that the convention congratulate him and invite him to the platform. Amid prolonged cheers the motion was unanimously carried.

The day's work was completed by the reading and adoption of the following platform as presented by ex-Gov. Foraker:

The representatives of the republicans of the United States assembled in general convention on the shores of the Mississippi river, the everlasting bond of an indestructible republic, whose most glorious chapter of history is" the record of the republican party, congratulate their countrymen on the majestic march of the nation under the banners inscribed with the principles of our platform of 1888, vindicated by victory at the polls and prosperity in our fields, workshops and mines, and make the following declaration of principles:

We reaffirm the American doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth abroad. We maintain that the prosperous condition of our country is largely due to the wise revenue legislation of the republican congress.

We believe that all articles which cannot be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming in competition with the products of American labor there should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home.

We assert that the prices of manufactured articles of general consumption have been reduced under the operations of the tariff act of 1890.

We denounce the efforts of the democratic majority of the house of representatives to destroy our tariff laws by piecemeal, as is manifested by their attacks upon wool, lead and lead ores, the chief products of a number of states, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.

We point to the success of the republican policy of reciprocity, that of which our export trade has vastly increased, and new and enlarged markets have been opened for the products of our farms and workshops. We remind the people of the bitter opposition of the democratic party to this practical business measure, and claim that, executed by a republican administration, our present laws will eventually give us control of the trade of the world.

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetallism, and the republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal. The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workingmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government shall be as good as any other.

We commend the wise and patriotic steps already taken by our government to secure an international conference to adopt such measures as will assure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every citizen, be he rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, this sovereign right guaranteed by the constitution. The free and honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people; as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundation of our republican institutions, and the party will never relax its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the purity of elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every state.

We denounce the continued inhuman outrages perpetrated upon American citizens for political reasons in certain southern states of the union.

We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our merchant marine by home-built ships and the creation of a navy for the protection of our national interests and the honor of our flag; the maintenance of the most friendly relations with all foreign powers, entangling alliances with none; and the protection of the rights of our fishermen.

We reaffirm our approval of the Monroe doctrine and believe in the achievement of the manifest destiny of the republic in its broadest sense.

We favor the enactment of more stringent laws and relations for the restriction of criminal, pauper and contract immigration.

We favor efficient legislation by congress to protect the life and limb of employes of transportation companies engaged in carrying on inter-state commerce, and recommend legislation by the respective states that will protect employes engaged in state commerce, in mining and in manufacturing.

The republican party has always been the champion of the oppressed and recognizes the dignity of manhood, irrespective of birth, color or nationality; it sympathizes with the cause of home rule in Ireland and protests against the persecution of the Jews in Russia.

The ultimate reliance of free popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom among men. We therefore declare anew our devotion to liberty of thought and conscience, of speech and press, and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which contribute to the education of the children of the land; but while insisting upon the fullest measure of religious liberty we are opposed to any union of church and state.

We reaffirm our opposition declared in the republican platform of 1888 to all combinations of capital, organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens. We heartily indorse the action already taken upon this subject and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws and to render their enforcement more complete and effective.

We approve the policy of extending to towns, villages and rural communities the advantages of the free delivery service now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and reaffirm the declaration contained in the republican platform of 1888, pledging the reduction of letter postage to one cent at the earliest possible moment consistent with the maintenance of the post office department and the highest class of postal service.

Civil Service—We commend the spirit and evidence of reform in the civil service and the wise and consistent enforcement by the republican party of the laws regulating the same.

Nicaragua Canal—The construction of the Nicaragua canal is of the highest importance to the American people, but as a measure of national defense and to build up and maintain American commerce it should be controlled by the United States government.

Territories—We favor the admission of the remaining territories at the earliest practicable date, having due regard to the interests of the people of the territories and of the United States. All the federal officers, appointed for the territories should be selected from bona fide residents thereof and the right of self-government should be accorded as far as practicable.

Arid Lands—We favor cession, subject to the homestead laws, of the arid public lands to the states and territories in which they lie, under such congressional restrictions as to disposition, reclamation and occupancy by settlers as will secure the maximum benefits to the people.

The Columbian Exposition—The World's Columbian exposition is a great national undertaking, and congress should promptly enact such reasonable legislation in aid thereof as will insure a discharging of the expense and obligations incident thereto, and the attainment of results commensurate with the dignity and progress of the nation.

Intemperance—We sympathize with all wise and legitimate efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and promote morality.

Pensions—Ever mindful of the services and sacrifices of the men who saved the life of the nation, we pledge anew to the veteran soldiers of the republic a watchful care and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful people.

Harrison's Administration—We commend the able, patriotic and thoroughly American administration of President Harrison. Under it the country has enjoyed remarkable prosperity, and the dignity and honor of the nation, at home and abroad, have been faithfully maintained, and we offer the record of pledges kept as a guarantee of faithful performance in the future.

FOURTH AND LAST DAY.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 11.—The republican convention completed its work on Friday by nominating Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, for another term, as the head of the United States, and Jacob Whitlaw Reid, of New York, for vice president. Only one ballot was taken on presidential candidates. It resulted as follows.

STATES.	Harrison.	Blaine.	McKinley.	Reed.	Depew.	Fassett.
Alabama	22	15	7
Arkansas	16	15	1
California	18	8	1	9
Colorado	8			8
Connecticut	12	4	8
Delaware	6	4	1	1
Florida	8	8
Georgia	26	26
Idaho	6			6
Illinois	48	34		14
Indiana	30	30
Iowa	26	20	1	5
Kansas	20	11	9
Kentucky	26	22	1	2
Louisiana	16	8		8
Maine	12			12
Maryland	16	14	2
Massachusetts	30	18	10	1
Michigan	28	7	19	2
Minnesota	18	8		9
Mississippi	18	13½		4½
Missouri	34	28	2	4
Montana	6	5		1
Nebraska	16	15	1
Nevada	6			6
N. Hampshire	8	4		2	1	1
New Jersey	20	18		2
New York	72	27	10	35
North Dakota	6	2		4
North Carolina	214	17½	1	2½
Ohio	46	1	45
Oregon	4	1	3
Pennsylvania	64	19	42	3
Rhode Island	8	1	1	5	1
South Carolina	18	13	2	3
South Dakota	8	8
Tennessee	24	17	3	4
Texas	30	22		6	2
Vermont	8	8
Virginia	24	9	2	13
Washington	8	1	1	6
West Virginia	12	12
Wisconsin	24	19	3	2
Wyoming	6	4		2
Territories.
Alaska	2	2
Arizona	2	1		1
Ind. Territory	2	1		1
Oklahoma	2	2
New Mexico	6	6
Utah	2	2		2
Dist. Columbia	2	2
Total	904½	535 1-6	182	181 5-6	4	1

Absent and not voting	24½
Necessary to a choice	451
Harrison's plurality	82 1-6

At the conclusion of the voting the clerks announced the result, and Chairman McKinley said: "Benjamin Harrison having received a majority of all the votes cast in the business of this convention. Shall the nomination be made unanimous?" It was made unanimous, and an adjournment was taken until evening.

At the evening session Whitelaw Reid, of New York, was nominated for vice president by acclamation.

A long list of names was announced as members of the committees to notify the nominees for president and vice president of the United States.

The motion to adjourn was carried unanimously and the chairman announced that "the convention now stands adjourned sine die."

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

Benjamin Harrison was born in Hamilton county, O., August 20, 1833. He was graduated at the Oxford (O.) university and studied law for two years in Cincinnati. In 1854 he went to Indianapolis, which city he has since made his home. Mr. Harrison was elected reporter of the supreme court of Indiana in 1860, six years after he had began the practice of his profession. Soon after this, however, he joined the union army, in which he was commissioned a second lieutenant. He was one of the 75,000 volunteers who answered President Lincoln's call. After a short service he organized Company A of the Seventieth Indiana volunteer infantry and appointed colonel. He was mustered out in June, 1865, with the rank of brigadier general. Returning to civil life he discharged the duties of court reporter for four years. In 1876 he was a candidate for governor on the republican side, but was defeated. He was appointed on the Mississippi river commission in 1879. Mr. Harrison was elected United States senator for Indiana in 1880 as the successor of Joseph E. McDonald and took his seat on March 4, 1881. His term of service expired March 3, 1887. In 1888 he was nominated by the republicans for the presidency and was elected over Grover Cleveland, who was renominated by the democrats.

WHITELAW REID.

Jacob Whitelaw Reid, republican nominee for vice president, is editor in chief and one of the proprietors of the New York Tribune. He was born in Xenia, O., in October, 1837. His parents gave him a good education. At 15 he entered the Miami university at Oxford, Butler county, O., where he was graduated in 1856. He began the active duties of life as principal of the graded schools in South Charleston, Clark county, in the same state, but did not continue in this occupation long. In 1857 he bought the Xenia News and did such good work on that journal as to give it a reputation wide as the state. This led to his engagement by the Times and Gazette of Cincinnati and the Herald of Cleveland as their Columbus correspondent. The war gave him an opportunity of distinguishing himself as a correspondent at the front. He served the Cincinnati Gazette in the capacity, and in 1862 became a stockholder of that journal, the publication of which he subsequently assisted in the capacity of associate editor. His connection with the New York Tribune began with his being the editor in charge of its Washington bureau. He ventured upon the publication of a volume in the year 1865. It was entitled "After the War—A Southern Tour," and recorded observations made in company with Chief Justice Chase on an extensive range of travel. Reid published another book in 1868—"Ohio in the War," a work of considerable length and value. He became permanently an editor on the staff of the Tribune in 1870, and when Horace Greeley was a candidate for the presidency assumed the position of managing editor. Mr. Reid is a wealthy man. He married the daughter of D. O. Mills, many times a millionaire, and lives in fine style in an aristocratic up town district in New York. President Harrison appointed Mr. Reid minister to France, and he has proved a successful and exceedingly popular diplomate.

THEY HEAR THE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Russell Harrison was the first person to announce the news of the renomination of his father, for during the entire time that the ballot was going on he was checking off the figures from a sheet of estimates prepared several days ago. When it became a certainty shortly after 5 o'clock that the president had won, with his paper in his hand, Russell Harrison led the way for a party of enthusiastic cabinet ministers and representatives of the press into the president's office, just across the hall from the telegraph room of the white house. Looking up from his desk at the intruders the president made no effort to conceal his gratification at such an invasion, as if he had already surmised what their mission was.

Congratulations were in order for a few seconds and as soon as the tumult had subsided the president rose from his chair and addressed his visitors in the following language:

"I can only say with reference to this event that has brought you here that the first thought that fills my mind is one of gratitude and thanks to the great multitude of friends who have in this way and divers other ways expressed approval of my conscientious, though possibly now and then mistaken, attempts to serve the country upon republican lines. I claim no other credit than that of having attempted without sparing myself to labor to discharge these public duties conscientiously. I cannot expect my democratic friends to think on right lines; and yet it has been very gratifying to me to know that many things have secured the approval of my

CURED SORE THROAT OF SIX MONTHS STANDING.

MONROE, Mich., Sept. 2, 1890.

Dr. J. J. Fay:

Dear Sir—I have suffered for six months with sore throat, and at times an aggravated cough, which I attributed to a tickling and sensitive throat. I have used one bottle of your New Treatment for Consumption and I find my throat entirely cured and am free from any cough or throat trouble. I cheerfully recommend others to give it a trial.

DR. A. M. LONG, D. D. S.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

"Oh, that must be too lovely for anything," said Hortensia, when she read an account of a single robbery in the far West. "Lovely to be robbed?" asked Uncle John. "Lovely to be held up," said Hortensia with a roseate blush.

HAVE YOU READ THIS BEFORE?

It will do no harm to read it again. You cannot read it too often. We cannot say too much of the merits of Parmelee's Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure. If you are at all affected with Dyspepsia or any disorders of the Liver or Kidneys you should try this remedy. Sold by dealers.

ARE YOU TANNED, FRECKLED, OR SUNBURNT.

Use Hamilton's Oriental Balm. It removes all blemishes. Perfectly safe. Prepared by E. M. Parmelee Medicul Co., Dansville, N. Y. Sold by dealers.

Parmelee's Pile Suppositories are warranted to cure. Never known to fail. Hundreds of sufferers testify to their virtue. 50 cents a box. Sold by dealers.

DO MOSQUITOS KILL OTHER INSECTS?

We don't know. We do know that Parmelee's Household Ointment is the best thing in the world to apply for Insect Bites, Burns, Cuts, Chapped Hands, etc. For Ulcers and Salt Rheum is sure to effect a cure. It is guaranteed to do this. Price for large box 25 cents. Sold by dealers.

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK HEAD ACHE

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head

ACHE

Is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills makes a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE

Physicians Couldn't Cure Him.

SEDAMSVILLE, Hamilton Co., O., June, 1889.

One bottle of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic cured me entirely, after physicians had tried unsuccessfully for eight months to relieve me of nervous debility. W. HUENNEFELD.

LOWELL, Ohio, July 8, 1890.

I had epileptic fits for about four years, two every week, when Rev. J. Kampmeyer recommended Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic; since using it have had none. It is the best epileptic medicine I have ever used, and I have used many. ADAM CRAMER.

NEW CORYDON, Ind., Nov. 18, 1890.

It affords me great pleasure to certify that my son, who for five and a half years was affected with falling sickness, was cured by using Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic. For two years past he has not had a single attack. Therefore, accept the heartfelt thanks of a grateful father. JOHN B. MOES.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5 Large Size $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

Baker & Hall, druggists, believe that the secret of success is perseverance. Therefore they persist in keeping the finest line of perfumeries, toilet articles, cosmetics, drugs and chemicals on the market. They especially invite all persons who have palpitation, short breath, weak or hungry spells, pain in side or shoulder, oppression, night mare, dry cough, smothering, dropsy or heart disease to try Dr. Miles' unequaled New Heart Cure, before it is too late. It has the largest sale of any similar remedy. Fine book of testimonials free. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is unsurpassed for sleeplessness, headache, fits, etc., and it contains no opiates.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L. S. & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15, 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 115. Mail.	No. 117. Express	No. 149. Accom.
Jackson.....Lv	6 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M.
Napoleon	6 30 "	2 26 "	1 15 "
Norvell	6 37 "	2 34 "	1 27 "
Manchester	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 65 "
Clinton	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 35 "
Tecumseh	7 15 "	3 15 "	3 15 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 59 "	4 99 "
Detroit	10 10 "	6 20 "	10 25 "
Toledo	9 15 "	4 40 "	10 25 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 3:00 p. m

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 116. Mail.	No. 118. Express	No. 148. Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 25 A.M.	6 00 P.M.
Toledo	9 50 "	7 50 "
Adrian	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M.
Tecumseh	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton	11 21 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 09 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 28 "	10 30 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.

A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati Jackson & Mackinaw Ry

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT APR. 1, 1892.

GOING EAST. No. 3 Pass	No. 23 Pass	No. 21 Pass	Central Time. STATIONS.	GOING WEST. No. 22 Pass	No. 24 Pass	No. 9 Pass
	A. M.	P. M.			A. M.	P. M.
	12 10	4 45	A....Toledo....L	7 20	6 30
	10 35	3 32	Dundee	8 10	8 00
	9 55	3 02	Britton	8 31	8 53
	9 44	2 47	Ridgeway	8 35	8 40
	9 37	2 18	Tecumseh	8 44	8 53
	9 17	3 05	Tipton	8 58	9 14
	9 07	2 55	Sand Lake	9 05	9 25
	8 58	2 51	Onsted	9 12	9 36
A. M.	8 41	2 39	Devils Lake	9 24	9 51	P. M.
6 45	8 35	2 33	Addison Junc	9 28	10 00	4 50
6 40	8 32	2 30	Addison	9 34	10 15	4 53
6 15	8 09	2 17	Jerome	9 46	10 38	5 10
6 10	8 00	2 11	Moscow	9 52	10 48	5 17
6 02	7 45	2 01	Hanover	10 02	11 03	5 27
5 53	7 32	1 52	Wheelerton	10 12	11 18	5 36
5 47	7 24	1 42	Homer	10 22	11 48	5 57
5 40	7 19	1 21	Eckford	10 43	12 06	6 08
5 31	7 07	1 06	Marshall	10 59	12 33	6 24
5 20	6 51	12 51	Ceresco	11 10	12 53	6 36
5 15	6 45	12 36	Battle Creek	11 28	1 25	6 55
	A. M.	P. M.			A. M.
		12 17	Augusta	11 47	A. M.
		12 09	Yorkville	11 55
		12 02	Richland	12 02
		11 41	Doster	12 18
		11 20	Monteith	12 35
		11 12	Fisk	12 44
		11 08	Kellogg	12 50
		10 55	L. Allegan....A	1 00
A. M.		P. M.		P. M.		P. M.

Beginning June 5th a Sunday train will be run between Toledo and Addison. It will pass Tecumseh, going West at 5:44 a. m.; going east at 5:58 p. m.

The freight trains pass Tecumseh station as follows: Going West at 10:43 a.m. Going East at 1:30 p.m.

TRAIN CONNECTIONS.

Direct connection is made at Toledo and Cincinnati with all roads diverging.

Trains 21 and 22 make good connections at Monteith and Allegan for Grand Rapids an points north.

Connection is made at Addison with the Ohi division for Cincinnati and 1 points south.

Good connections at Battle Creek with the C

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, Genl Pass. Agt.

T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.

B. J. SLATER, Station Agent. A. E. KENNEDY, City Ticket Agent.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO

TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as follows:

WEST BOUND.
†No. 51 -Local Mail and Express	10:25 a m
†No. 53 -Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex	3:30 p m
No. 27 -Butler Accommodation	6:00 p m
†No. 55 -Pacific Express	11:40 p m
EAST BOUND.
†No. 56 -Atlantic Express	5:30 a m
†No. 26 -Detroit Accommodation	4:45 p m
†No. 52 -St. Louis & Boston Express	7:45 a m
†No. 54 -N. Y. Limited	9:46 p m

†Daily, Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information, apply to

CHAS. M. HAYS, Gen. Manager. WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian

E. CHANDLER, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt Agent.

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890 Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
3 25 A. M.			P. M.	P. M.
	06	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	11 15	1 10
	47	....Dundee	10 18	12 20
	08	Milan	9 58	12 04
	20	Urania	9 45	11 52
	27	Pittsfield	9 34	11 42
5 07	6 40	Ann Arbor	9 22	11 30
5 30	7 05	Leland	9 07	11 15
5 47	7 26	Whitmore Lake	8 56	11 04
6 28	8	Howell	8 17	10 25
7 15	8 45	Durand	7 40	9 45
			55	7 45
8 00	10 20	Owosso	6 35	9 05
9 07	11 30	Ithaca	5 32	7 50
10 15	1 25	Mt. Pleasant	4 35	6 45
	3 35	Cadillac	10 30
	5 20	Copemish	9 05
	6 35	Ar.....Frankfort.....Lv	7 50
	P. M.		A. M.

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager.

A. J. FAISLEY, General Pass. and Ticket Agent

Clinton Column.

CLINTON, MICH., JUNE 16, 1892.

Presiding Elder Ryan was here over Sunday.

C. S. Burroughs made a business trip to Jackson Monday.

Mary Hyndman went to Brooklyn the last of the week.

W. O. Silvers returned from Georgia last week Wednesday.

Peter Jung and wife, of Britton, spent Sunday at Mrs. June's.

Ethel Webster, of Big Rapids, is visiting Mrs. J. E. White.

Mrs. L. E. McConnell, of West Toledo, is visiting friends here.

Virginia Daniels has returned to her home at Tipton for the summer vacation.

Guy Katner left here Tuesday for a visit of several weeks with friends at Ceresco.

Mrs. S.F. Marstellar started Monday for St. Thomas to attend commencement at Alma College.

Mrs. Conklin and son, of Manchester, were the guests of A. G. Burton last Friday and Saturday.

The Clinton base ball club played at Saline last Saturday. The score stood 35 to 8 in favor of Clinton.

Mrs. Eliza Davis left here last Friday for a visit with friends at Battle Creek, Dowagiac and Michigan City.

C. W. Parker was summoned here last week on account of the serious illness of his little daughter. The child is much better.

Lizzie Henderson, who has been quite sick, has sufficiently recovered to be able to go to her home in Racine, Wis. She left last week.

Nearly all of the officers of the Eastern Star Chapter went to Tecumseh last evening to witness initiation [illegible] umseh Chapter.

[illegible]mni banquet held at the Ed[illegible]se last Friday evening was a [illegible]easant and informal affair. The menu was excellent and the guests did ample justice to the repast.

Rev. Fr. Ternes, of Adrian, gave an able lecture on "The Primacy of Peter" at St. Dominic's church last Sunday evening. The next lecture will be Sunday evening, July 10, on "The Infallibility of the Pope."

The concert given Tuesday evening for the piano fund was an unqualified success, but owing to the high state of the temperature the attendance was not as large as was wished. Each number on the program was well rendered and great appreciation was shown by the audience. Both the Starr and Shoninger pianos were used impartially, but the general preference was for the latter.

A large number of people assembled at St. John's church last Monday evening, it being the occasion of Bishop Davies' annual visit to this parish. After the usual evening service the Bishop preached a short, though excellent sermon, replete with loving counsel and words of admonition, not only to those about to be received into the church but to all members. After the sermon the rite of confirmation was administered to five persons.

In spite of the extremely warm weather last Thursday evening the hall was crowded to its utmost capacity with those who had come to witness the Commencement exercises of the class of '92. The program was carried out as given last week, the prophetic poem by Emma Cotton deserving especial praise, though all did well. The graduates were the recipients of beautiful floral gifts and also some more substantial ones. A peculiar fact connected with this graduating class, and one which we believe has no precedent in this school's history, is that all the members were foreign pupils.

The various committees appointed to make arrangements for the Celebration have been hard at work, and with so much energy and enthusiasm no enterprise can fail to be a grand success. The speakers stand will be erected in front of the M. E. church. Rev. Washington Gardner has been engaged to deliver the address. The Macon and Franklin bands will furnish music. The Clinton base ball club will play Parke, Davis & Co.'s team from Detroit. The Knights of the Maccabees have expressed their intention of coming from Adrian 200 strong, also several other tents. No pains will be spared to make the procession one of the finest ever seen in this part of the county. It will be composed of bands, military and civic organizations, one hundred horsemen, one hundred bicyclists, wagons representing our various industries, Columbia surrounded by the States, the inevitable and indispensable "Horribles" and all that goes to give vent to the pent-up feeling of patriotism that exists in every American breast. The committee on grounds have obtained permission of Mrs. Brown to use her grounds opposite the Lancaster House for serving dinner, except in case of rain, when the town hall will be used. There will be plenty to entertain our guests with and a large crowd is expected.

Tecumseh must wake up at once, if she wishes the band reunion. We should not let this opportunity slip. It will draw a larger crowd than six Fourth of July celebrations. At least forty bands would be likely to attend the band reunion this year, and the affair would draw an immense crowd of people. Tecumseh has been chosen as the place of meeting, but preparation must be commenced at once or it will go elsewhere. A public meeting should be called immediately.

Fidgety Lady: But what am I to do? I can't ride with my back to the engine. Sarcastic Youth: Better speak to the guard, He'll turn the train around.

—I want the farmers to remember I am still in the Mower and Binder trade and still have the agency for the "McCormick" line. The number of Machines sold is a good indication of how the farmers like them. In 1891 the McCormick Co. sold 121,780 machines. Come in and see the machines for yourself.

C. A. SLAYTON.

The Train Dispatchers Association of America convened at New Orleans, La., June 14th. A Special train of six sleepers and one coach left Chicago Sunday, June 12th, for New Orleans laden with "Train Detainers" and their wives, arrived at New Orleans yesterday about 7 p. m., June 13th, T. S. Gibbs, one of the Mackinaw Train Dispatchers, of Toledo, and his wife, were on the train. There will be a lively fight made to place the association on a protective basis, but it is hoped that the present constitution will be maintained as the association is generally esteemed by all. There will be 400 or 500 delegates.

Among the earliest things learned at school is that "in 1492 Columbus sailed o'er the ocean blue" and discovered America; and every reminiscence of the event and of the great discoverer is being revived this quadri-centennial year. But with it all we have heard comparatively little about Mrs. Christopher Columbus, the faithful wife who inspired and encouraged Columbus through all his trials and disappointments, and helped him to his life's great work. In Demorest's Family Magazine for July there is an especially fine article, "The Loves of Christopher Columbus," which gives an interesting account of this phase of the great discoverer, the numerous illustrations including copies of very rare old portraits, among them the most authentic one of Columbus himself.

International Convention Y. P. S. C. E.

The eleventh International Convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held in New York City, July 7 to 10, inclusive, and for this event the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y. will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates on July 5, 6 and 7. Send to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O., for free copy of folder of information.

SURPRISE TO ALL.

After using "Mother's Friend" two months I was so speedily and easily relieved that it was a surprise to those attending me. "Mother's Friend" undoubtedly lessens the pains, shortens the time and restores the mother speedily to health. Will recommend it to all expectant mothers, and advise them to use it. Mrs. J. A. R., Muncie, Ind. Sold by Jno. Orr.

"If you like," said the young man at the desk, "I'll have your poem submitted to the editor." "No," she answered positively, "I'll read it aloud to him. I prefer to have the editor submitted to the poem."

THE GREAT BENEFIT,

Which people in run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up in a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purifies the blood, and assists to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

Wife. Cannot you afford to keep a horse, John? Husband: No; but I'll tell you what to do. You make one of your Welsh rarebits for supper and we can both have a nightmare.

"A God-send is Ely's Cream Balm. I had catarrh for three years. Two or three times a week my nose would bleed. I thought the sores would never heal. Your Balm has cured me."—Mrs. M. A. Jackson Portsmouth, N. H.

I have had nasal catarrh for ten years so bad that there were great sores in my nose, and one place was eaten through. I got Ely's Cream Balm. Two bottles did the work. My nose and head are well. I feel like another man.—C. S. McMillen, Sibley, Jackson Co., Mo.

Grand Matinee at Dundee.

The Dundee Agricultural Association Matinee, postponed from June 4th on account of the weather, will be held on their track on Saturday afternoon, June 18, 1892. CONTESTS:

Free for All—Totters or Pacers. Mile heats; best 3 in 5. First prize, $12 00 blanket; second, $8.00 blanket; third, $5.00 blanket; fourth, $3.00 cooler.

The 2:50 Class—Trot or pace. Half mile heats; best 3 in 5. Prizes will be awarded same as above.

Three-years-old and under—Eligible to three minute class, trot or pace. Half mile heats; best 3 in 5. Prizes will be awarded same as above.

Green race—same as above.

No entrance fee will be charged. Entries can be made at Secretary's office until 5:00 o'clock p. m. of Friday, June 17. American Trotting Association Rules to govern—of which this Association is a member. Races will be called at 1:30, Sharp. In all classes at least five to enter and three to start.

The T. A. A. & N. M. will sell round trip excursion tickets, from all stations between and including Ann Arbor and Temperance, for one and one-third fare. Good on all regular trains. Returning will run Special train for Ann Arbor and intermediate stations, leaving Dundee at 8:00 p. m.

The C. J. & M. will sell round trip excursion tickets, from all stations between and including Addison and Rea for one and one-third fare. Good on all regular trains.

Admission to grounds 25cts: Children under twelve years, 15cts.

R. H. NOGAR, Pres.

L. B. SMITH, Sec'y.

A sale of high-bred stock, from Oak Ridge Farm, at the track on the morning of the Matinee, beginning at 10.

THE TRUE LAXATIVE PRINCIPLE

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

THE DETROIT EXPOSITION.

Many New and Interesting Features This Year.

The Detroit International Fair and Exposition Association has appointed Mr. T. F. B. Sotham, of Pontiac, manager, and, guided by the past three years' experience, has decided upon changes and additional attractions, which will make this year's exposition (August 25 to September 2), not only superior to any previously held in Detroit, but superior in many respects to any yet held in the country.

One of the improvements which, as much as any other, is calculated to popularize this institution is a vast amphitheater, the arena of which is one-fifth of a mile in circumference and seating 40,000.

At one side of the bandstand, in the arena, cattle will be judged, on the opposite side draft horses, and in the outer circle saddle and harness horses. The Detroit Exposition has in previous years brought together the finest displays of stock ever seen in this country. There is every indication that this year's exhibition in that line will excel any that have preceded it. With the method proposed for judging animals, the stock exhibits will be brought before thousands of people who have heretofore paid but little attention to this important branch of the country's wealth. In this arena, at stated hours daily, there will be a series of special attractions, such as the Roman hippodrome, chariot races with four horses driven abreast, midget chariot races, mule races over hurdles, athletic contests, lilliputian circus, interspersed with popular and classic music by the best bands and a great number of other attractions. The general admission to the grounds will also admit to the amphitheater, where, comfortably seated, all visitors can enjoy these varied attractions.

The exposition will be not only a pleasant entertainment but an educational institution. As one means to this end, the association will invite some of the best speakers in this country and Canada to address the people on subjects appropriate to each of the ten days. The music stand on the lawn in front of the main building will be utilized for speakers and seats provided so that listeners can be seated within hearing of the speaker's voice.

The ground floor of the main building will be devoted exclusively to the exhibition of manufacturing in actual operation. In previous exhibitions, this idea has been carried out to a limited extent and the crowds which gathered about the alcoves in which these were conducted furnished evidence of the intense interest which attaches to them. Their scope this year will be greatly enlarged, so that visitors will have abundant opportunity to see how articles of necessity, comfort and luxury are made.

In the women's department the classification has been broadened, so that it is safe to say that household work from parlor to kitchen will be more intelligently encouraged and illustrated by this exposition that has ever before been attempted by any association in this country.

The races on the regulation track near the south end of the grounds, which were a popular feature last year, will be continued, with purses to the amount of $10,000. Many of the best horses in their several classes will appear in these speed trials, and few meetings offer equal attractions.

There will be an unusually good display of agricultural machinery, the products of the farm, orchard and garden, all classes of manufactured products and articles of household and domestic use.

Altogether, the Fair of 1892 will be the grandest in the history of permanent agricultural and industrial exhibitions and will be of such magnitude and varied attractiveness as to make it profitable for visitors to remain in attendance the entire ten days. Its educational features are such as to commend the association to every patriotic citizen and to insure his active support.

Days have been set apart and designated as follows, indicating something of the scope of the speaking and exercises: 1. Children. 2. Athletics. 3. Politics. 4. Ladies. 5. Industrial societies. 6. Commerce. 7. International comity. 8. Music. 9. Agricultural. 10. Military and uniformed societies.

Better railway rates than ever hithertofore given, viz., one fare for the round trip, have been conceded by the railways and steamboat lines; and exhibits that have prepaid freight from point of shipment will be returned free.

The most complete and comprehensive premium list ever issued is now ready for distribution free to all applicants.

A New Line to the Northwest.

Commencing Monday, May 23d, the elegant steamer "City of Marquette" will make regular trips between Frankfort and Kewaunee, Wis., in connection with trains of the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan R'y. Through Express leaving Toledo at 5:45 a. m. daily except Sunday, arrives at Frankfort 5.55 p. m., connecting with "Steamer City of Marquette," leaving Frankfort 7:00 p. m., arriving at Kewaunee 1:30 a. m.

Holders of first-class tickets are furnished sleeping berths on Steamer free of extra charge and will be permitted to retain berths until morning.

First train leaves Kewaunee 8:55 a. m. for Green Bay, Winona, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis and all points in the West and North West.

W. H. BENNETT, G. P. A.
Toledo, Ohio.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, June 5th, '92, the C. J. & M. Rv.; will run a special low rate excursion to Devils Lake and return. Trains leave Tecumseh at 8:44 a. m. standard time; returning arrives at Tecumseh 5:38 p. m. Fare 40 cents for the round trip.

T. C. M SCHINDLER, G.P.A.
B. J. SLATER, Agent.

"Is Bronson as forgetful as ever?" "More so. Why, that fellow has to look himself up in the Directory every night before he goes home from business, for fear he forgets his address.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of Lewis V. Miller, deceased

The undersigned having been appointed by the Probate Court of said County, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas Burridge, in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 6th day of August, 1892 and and on the 7th day of December, 1892, at 9 o'clock in the fore noon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 7th day of June, A. D, 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 15th, 1892.

MINOR DAVIDSON,
MICHAEL SMELTZER,
Commissioners

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of John Allen, deceased

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas. Burridge, in Tecumseh, Lenawee county Michigan, on the 16th day of July, and on the 6th day of Dec., 1892, at 9-o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 7th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment

Dated, June 12, 1892.

E. G. PRICE,
WM. RANDALL,
Commissioners.

HELLO

GIVE US TECUMSEH.

Say! Tecumseh! Do you know that WOOD, CRANE & WOOD, of Adrian, have by far the Largest and Finest Stock of Clothing in this part of the World, and their Prices are lower than others? Did you say that you were going to buy some Clothing soon and would try them? That's right; you will not regret it. You can please and fit yourself better, and save money, too. Say! I nearly forgot to mention that they are ONE PRICE and that everything is marked in PLAIN FIGURES.

A Free Copy.

Of a folder containing information about the reduced rates, route, tickets, etc., to the Convention of Christian Endeavor at New York, July 7 to 10, sent to any address on applying to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., L. S. & M. S. R'y. Cleveland, Ohio.

Tecumseh Price Current,

CORRECTED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING

PROVISION MARKET.	Wholesale.	Retail.
Apples green, per bushel	$1 00	$1 20
Apples dried, per pound	5	8
Beeswax	14	16
Butter	11	14
Eggs, per doz	13	15
Honey, per lb	18	16
Lard, per lb	9	12
Onions, per bushel	1 00	1 20
Potatoes, per bushel	25	40
Beans, per bushel	2 00	2 30
Wool, unwashed	14
Wool, fleeced washed	22
Wool tub washed	25
Salt, coarse rock, per bbl	1 50
Salt, common, per bbl	90	1 0
Tallow, per lb	3½
Cheese, per lb	9	14
MEAT MARKET.
Pickled Pork	6	10
Bacon	10	12½
Smoked Ham	12	16
Smoked Shoulders	7	9
Beef, by the side	4½	5
Fat Hogs, per 100 lbs	3 50 to 3 75
Dressed Hogs per 100 lbs	4 25
Veal dressed, per lb	5
Mutton, dressed, per lb	6	8
Chickens, live, per lb	6	7
Turkeys, live, per lb	7	08
Geese, live, per lb	5	8
Ducks, live, per lb	6
Hides, green	4
Hides, dry	5
Sheep Pelts	25 to 1 75
GRAIN, SEEDS AND HAY.
Wheat—White		$ 83
" Red		83
Corn, shelled		56
Oats		33
No. 1 Clover seed		4 25
No. 2 " "		4 00
Choice " "		4 50
Timothy Seed		1 6-
Hay, timothy, per ton		8 00 to 9 00
Hay, clover, per ton		7 00
Flour, per sack		1 38
Bran, per 100 lbs		1 00 to 1 25
Middlings, per 100 lbs		90
Corn meal, per 100 lbs		1 50
Chop, per 100 lbs		1 50

USE ONLY

Red Crown Gasoline!

In your gasoline stoves

ORIENT or KEYSTONE WATER WHITE KEROSENE OIL

In your lamps.

MANUFACTURED BY

The Standard Oil Co.,

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

For Sale in Tecumseh by the following named dealers.

James Lowry. Satterthwaite Bros.
J. J. Orr. C. A. Wright & Co.
Anderson Bros. W. J. Arnold.
McClure Grocery Co., and Jas. Potter.

Quality of the Highest Standard.

Use nothing in your Gasoline stoves but

RED CROWN GASOLINE.

Use nothing in your Lamps but

ORIENT OR KEYSTONE.

Water White Kerosene Oil.

Contains No Mercury.

ANTI

GIVE CONSTIPATION CONSOLATION to all CONSTIPATED. PILLS

For Constipation, Sick Headache, Bilious Attacks and Liver Complaints.

DOSE.—One to two Pellets each night until the bowels are regular and natural in movement.

JOHN J. ORR, DRUGGIST,
TECUMSEH, MICH.
PRICE, 25c. FOR REGULAR SIZE.

Pleasant and Effectual.

Among all the Harvesters

. . . THE . . .

Milwaukee Junior

Takes the Lead.

We claim for these machines that they are lightest in weight and lightest in draft, and for strength, durability and general excellence they stand at the head. Be sure and see them before buying.

The Milwaukee Chain-Power Mower

IS THE BEST IN THE MARKET.

The great and increasing demand for our well-known chain power Mowers, together with the testimonials received, is conclusive proof of the great estimation in which they are held by agriculturalists and dealers throughout the entire country; the universal verdict being, that for simplicity of construction, strength and durability, ease of handling, closeness and evenness of cutting, freedom from clogging, and lightness of draft, they cannot be surpassed, while for freedom from side-draft they stand unrivalled, being the lightest and most durable of any mower machine manufactured.

CALL and see this machine set up and ready for running at our rooms and headquarters, between Mark's Drug Store and the City Bakery.

DAVIDSON BROS., Agents,
Tecumseh.

Another Large Invoice of WALL PAPER!

Just Unpacked.

Wm. McCOWEN.

The Tecumseh Herald.

VOL. XLIII.—NO. 5. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 23, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2189

Warm Weather Calls

For Fans.

We have just opened an ELEGANT ASSORTMENT of Fine and Medium Priced Fans, which we ask you to look at and Keep Cool.

BUY ONE OF OUR HANDSOME

CHANGEABLE SILK PARASOLS,

AND BE HAPPY

. . . . Anderson & Co.

Summer Underwear, in Short and Long Sleeve, from 10c to $1.00 each.

The Old Novelty Store

Still Leads Them All!

Look at Our Specialties

Garwood's Standard Perfumes, Try them.

Sham Holders, 20c a pair.

A Complete Line of Fancy Glassware, China and Toilet Sets.

Laces and Notions in Endless Variety.

Curtain Poles 25c each.

Fine Assortment of Room Moulding.

Picture Framing in Every Style.

James Montague.

"95 A" JEWEL GRAND,

The greatest success in Gasoline Stoves; call and see them.

For sale by

D. L. WHITENACK & CO.

Go And See

E. W. LENARDSON,

If You Want A Bicycle.

BICYCLES ARE CHEAP WITH HIM.

EITHER THE GENDRON OR COLUMBIA.

Get My Prices Before Purchasing Elsewhere.

Yours Very Truly,

E. W. Lenardson.

Neighborhood News.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

Farmers have nearly finished planting corn.

S. C. Stacy was in the village Friday evening.

Dr. Loree was on the sick list part of last week.

A. R. Arner was home from Marshall over Sunday.

Vern Barrett, of Chicago, spent the past week with his mother.

T. B. Toby, of Adrian, was in the village Thursday of last week.

Ed Anderson, of Detroit, is enjoying a few days of recreation here.

Dean Loree attended the Alumni exercises at Belleville Friday night.

Chas. Pocklinton has a fine colt he wishes to exchange for a work horse.

Emma Miller left Friday for a few days' visit with friends at Vienna and Erie.

Mrs. Haywood, of Bloomington, Ky., was the guest of Mrs. Hall the first of the week.

Chas. Culbertson, W. B. Arner and Ed Anderson were Wampler's Lake visitors Tuesday.

Will Foote, of Farmers Village, N. Y., visited his brother Charles and family last week.

Several Britton people were in attendance at the Children's day entertainment Sunday evening.

Agent Ed Black, of the T. A. A. & N. M. Ry. at St. Louis, Mich., visited friends in the village last week.

Will Barrett is rejoicing over the little girl that came to his home Saturday evening to make it her future abode.

The L. C. S. will be held at the home of Mrs. J. F. Temple next week Friday evening. The program will be given next week.

Grandma and Mrs. Allen Kelley, of Raisin, visited at Mrs. W. R. Wilson's last week Thursday. Mrs. Kelley, although past 83, can knit as easily as ever.

The person who found a black shoulder cape trimmed with black ribbons will confer a great favor on the owner by leaving the cape at the drug store.

There was a very good attendance at the ice cream social given by the Epworth League at the church Wednesday evening of last week and a very pleasant evening was spent by all. The society realized nearly $12.

Will Swick raised the frame of a 32x110 foot barn on his farm northeast of the village Thursday afternoon, and when completed it will be one of the largest and best barns in the county. Ed Bauchman, of Britton, is doing the work.

The attendance at the children's day exercises on Sunday evening was the largest that ever gathered here on such an occasion. The church was packed and several went away, unable to get in. Everything passed off very nicely and the collection amounted to nearly $15.

On Tuesday evening the Epworth League will give a literary entertainment at the church, on China, its people and their mode of living, etc. The following is the program:

Music—Society.
Reading—Flota Smith.
Recitation—May Culbertson.
Reading—Jennie Osgood.
Music—Lulu Rappleye.
Essay—Ella Pattison.
Reading—David Gibson.
Recitation—Mamie Fletcher.
Music—Sherley Smith.
Reading—Bessie Barrett.
Essay—Eldredge Lowe.
Music—Mrs. Yager.
A cordial invitation is extended to all.

FRANKLIN FACTS.

Henry Allen lost a valuable hog last week.

H. J. Williams, the slate roof man, was in Franklin Monday.

Philo Mills closed school in the Bradley district last Saturday.

Mrs. Burt Billington has a touch of her old cough and hoarseness which clings to her very persistently.

Frank Lambkin is home from Washington with his family. He had to give up work on account of his health, which is broken. In his short career he has made the bravest of fights for life and independence and is worthy the admiration and sympathy of all.

The Onsted man says in last week's HERALD: "Indications say the weather will behave itself now." Whew! 'twill, will it? It didn't last Saturday afternoon. Over 500 cords of wood laid low, the trees twisted about and felled in every direction in Mart Whelan's woods, trees mowed down in swaths on the railroad, Alvinza Whelan's barn wrecked, Ben Reynolds' new one, just building, moved six feet from the foundation; Ezra Simmons's on the turnpike, roof and end smashed in; Howard Whelan, Mrs. Abner Simmons and others knocked flat by lightning in Putnam's grove; trees falling, houses running away, women fainting, etc. Such are the very reliable reports which have reached us. We hope the weather won't 'have itself that way any more.'

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Try it.

MACON MUSIC.

Prof. Daniels, of Clinton, was the guest of Ed Miller over Sunday.

Dr. Morden attended the Medical Association at Detroit last week.

Miss Sophia Dice, of Detroit, is the guest of Mrs. Granville Mills.

Mrs. Cora Higdon, of Leslie, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson.

Miss Addie Crittenden spent last Saturday and Sunday in Ypsilanti with her sister.

Dr. Arthur Oven, of Petoskey, spent last Saturday and Sunday at home, returning Monday monrning.

Miss Blanche Mills who has been teaching school in Morenci the past year is home for the summer vacation.

There were about thirty-five present at the W. C. T. U. monthly tea, given by Mrs. Ann Hendershot and Miss Charlotte Oren. They were very nicely entertained, and all report a good time.

Quite a delegation from our village attended the Clinton commencement exercises. The exercises were very nice. Three of the class, Messrs Edward Miller, Charles Allen, and Miss Emma Cotton were from our town, and we wish to congratulate them upon their success.

LAST SATURDAY'S STORM.

The big shower which struck Tecumseh Saturday last extended over the entire northern section of the county and in some places, it almost reached the dignity of a cyclone. The storm seems to have reached its climax at Sand Lake.

From Sand lake, where quite a little minor damage was done, the disturbance seems to have traveled in a south-easterly direction, and its effects were plainly visible east of Pentecost. Trees a foot or more in diameter were torn up by the roots, and others broken down or fairly wrenched apart, the trunk a few feet from the earth being splintered and twisted by the terrific force they had encountered. Between Sand Lake station and Tipton, the track of the C. J. & M. was obstructed by several large trees which lay across the track, and the train from the west was two hours in making the distance. Conductor Dimmick and his crew worked bravely in the drenching rain to remove the obstacles, with axe and bars, and some of the lost time was made up before the train reached Toledo. West of Tecumseh yesterday in several places wheat and fences in adjacent fields were barely visible above the water that had not yet drained off. So far no serious damage to farm buildings has been reported, and we hope that none may be.

A party of six Adrian bicycle riders, who went over the track of the cyclone, report seeing three barns which were badly damaged by the wind. One of the barns was almost a total wreck.

THE UNION PICNIC.

The Union Picnic held at Putnam's grove last Saturday was a decided success, although there was no program of exercises. The attendance was confined largely to the fair sex, however, as the men were all busy at home. The number present was probably about one half of last year's attendance. Everybody went home soaked, surfeited and satisfied. The big shower in the afternoon terminated the proceedings rather abruptly, and as soon as it cleared away, the picnicers lit out for home without much ceremony.

Lightning struck a tree within a few feet of the dance hall which was full of people, some just coming from under the tree that was struck. Many horses were scared, some broke loose and ran for home. It is reported that it struck three times very near the hotel. One horse was severely hurt by a falling limb. One buggy was found in a large tree top that had blown down, all right except a bent dash board and some scratches.

An informal meeting was held and the following officers were chosen for next year:

President—E. C. Cook.
Vice Pres.—A. C. Case.
Secretary—L. M. Waldron
Treasurer—H. B. Eaton.

Nothing brighter and fresher than Peterson for July can be found among the month's magazines. It is beautifully illustrated, and the literary matter is as good as it is varied. "Throgmorton Haggett," by Julian Hawthorne, is the best short story he has ever written. In "Homely Hints" Mattie Dyer Britts gives numerous sensible and helpful suggestions to housekeepers. The fashion and needlework departments are as usual useful and helpful. No woman and no household should be without Peterson; it is a necessity from every point of view. Terms, $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months. Address, Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Phila.

A timely paper of national interest and importance, on "The Growth of the Federal Power," will be contributed by Henry Loomis Nelson to the July number of Harper's Magazine. Mr. Nelson will show how, as a result of the admission of new States into the Union, the original theory of local sovereignty has been modified, and the central government has gradually been led to assume powers which was once supposed to be vested in the States.

The Alumni Reunion.

The regular reunion of the High School Alumni Society will be held tomorrow evening at the Lilley House. A program of unusual excellence has been prepared and all signs point to a large attendance and a very enjoyable meeting.

The company will gather about eight o'clock at the parlors of the Lilley and a brief social will be indulged in as the Alumni and their friends assemble. The literary program will be given in the dining room, as also the after-supper feature, consisting of toasts and responses. An elaborate menu will be sandwiched between the literary and musical portions of the exercises. Below is the program as arranged:

Prayer—Rev. W. H. Babbitt.
Music, Inst. Duet—Misses Benedict and Fisher.
Welcome to Class of '92—W. C. Burridge.
Response—President of Class.
Music, Vocal Solo—Miss Dora Grayson.
Poem, The Streams of Life—Mrs. John Keusch.
Oration, A Higher Education—Prof. L. M. Kellogg.
Music—Vocal Quartette.
History, Class of '84—Prof. Fred Boyd.
Music—Tecumseh Orchestra.

TOASTS AND RESPONSES.

Dr. L. G. North, Toastmaster.

1. Reminiscences of the First Commencement—
"Backward, turn backward oh, time in thy flight!
Make me a graduate, just for one night"
Response by S. W. Anderson.
2. The Graduate After the Criminal—Response by Gen. F. B. Wood.
3. One Master or a Million—Response by Russell E. Adkins.
4. Life on the Plains—Response by P. W. A. Fitzsimmons.
5. Vis a Tergo—Response by P. S. McKinnon.
6. Past and future of the High School—Response by J. R. Hosmer.
7. School Tactics vs. Military Tactics—Response by Capt. W. H. Hayden.
8. The Ladies—
A thing of beauty is a joy forever;
Its Loveliness increases:
It will never pass into nothingness,
Response by O. P. Bills.

Commencement Program.

The program to be presented at the Commencement exercises this evening is herewith given in full:

Piano Duet—Selected—Misses Benedict and Fisher.
Invocation.—Rev. O. J. Perrin.
Chorus—Pilgrim Chorus.
Salutatory.—E. Grace Gillespie.
Oration—Motive Power in Mechanics—Guy J. Davidson.
Essay—Purpose.—Jennie McCoy.
Cornet Solo.—W. S. Dickinson.
Class History.—Franc G. Snell.
Oration—Ethics in Politics, Willis R. Harton.
Essay—Warfare of Science. M. Maude Hodges.
Glee—Every Inch a Sailor—(Reade.)
Oration—"Country Roads," Garland R. Gillespie.
Class Poem.—W. Jay Morse.
Chorus—"Morning Invitation"—(Veazie.)
Essay—The Profitable Reading of Fiction—Lulu E. Garlinghouse.
Valedictory—Education, Past and Present—Willis E. Finch.
Presentation of Diplomas. Dr. Geo. Howell.
Class Song.
Benediction.—Rev. W. H. Babbitt.

Resolutions of Beers Post.

Your committee, appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our late comrade Abijah Packard, would respectfully report and recommend the adoption of the following:

WHEREAS, On June 1st, 1892, Abijah Packard was called from our ranks here on earth to dwell with the redeemed in Heaven, we reverently bow in this sad dispensation to the will of our Supreme Commander. Therefore

RESOLVED, That in the death of comrade Packard, Beers Post has lost a worthy member, our country a brave defender, and that we will ever cherish his memory.

RESOLVED, That we extend to his bereaved widow, children and relatives, our sincerest sympathy in their sorrow, and commend them to the grace and loving care of our Heavenly Father, whose love sustained our departed comrade, in such a remarkable manner, in his last hours of sickness.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Post, That a copy be furnished for publication in both of the Tecumseh papers, and that a copy be presented to the family of the deceased.

THOMAS WYRILL,
C. A. MCNEIL,
MILES E. BALDWIN.

Teachers!

If you are going to the N. E. A meet at Saratoga, apply to Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y Ticket Agents, or write to A. J. Smith, G. P. A., Cleveland, O., for circular of information.

Excursion tickets will be sold at reduced rates July 5th to 13th, good for return until Sept. 15th, 1892.

Reduced Rates to Saratoga, N. Y.

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway will sell excursion tickets to Saratoga and return, July 5th to 13th at reduced rates, account N. E. A. meeting.

For full particulars apply to Ticket Agents.

Buy Dallam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

Tribute to Emma Hampton Taylor.

The following beautiful tribute to the memory of Mrs. L. E. Taylor of Franklin appears in the Adrian Press of last week. We think our readers will agree that it is worthy both of the writer and of the talented woman whose character it commemorates.

She was born in Franklin about 1838, she being the daughter of Jas. Hampton, and resided upon the old farm homestead till her marriage to Mr. Taylor. She was a lady of marked literary ability, and was one of the most efficient and successful teachers in the country, beginning her work as a teacher when very young. She had deep religious convictions, a loving disposition and a heart that ever beat in sympathy with any effort in the direction of a nobler, higher life, and in uplifting the standard of morality. Her exalted ideas of religious faith, were in full keeping with her entire life work. Her pure, womanly character, her sunny disposition, her obliging manners and her bright intellect, were elements that won the love and esteem of her companions when a young girl, and they bought her the admiration and respect of her acquaintances in more mature years, when as wife and mother she demonstrated the nobility of her character by her devoted love, her tender sympathies and her unselfish devotion to her husband and children, to whom her death can only come as a grievous affliction, a burden heavy to bear, but who in their sorrow are solaced by the knowledge, that the diadem of pure womanhood encircles her head as a halo of glory, and makes her memory forever hallowed.

NOW TRY THIS.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a Cough, Cold, or any trouble with Throat, Chest or Lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from La Grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

The most popular American poet now living is probably Will Carleton, whose admirers are to be found wherever the English language is spoken. The secret of this popularity is doubtless to be found in his adherence to the principle that there is no thought so great that it cannot be resolved into elements easily understood by the average human intellect. "It should be the work of a poet," he says, "not to make plain thought or lack of thought complex and difficult of being understood, but to simplify and interpret nature and art to his readers; not to produce a series of rhymed riddles and enigmas, but epics, dramas, or lyrics such as the human race can understand, enjoy, and use for their entertainment and instruction." Mr. Carleton's host of admirers will be gratified to learn that Harper & Brothers have just ready for publication a new volume of his poems, City Festivals, the sixth and last of the beautiful and popular Farm and City Series.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. ORR.

On the inland waterways, which traverse the World's Fair grounds from one end to another, there will be plying three kinds of boats for public use. These will be the omnibus, express and cab boats or launches. The omnibus boats will make regular trips around the waterways, stopping at each building. The express boats will make round trips without stopping, while the cab boats, with carrying capacity of four persons, may be hailed at any point and engaged for the trip or by the hour, as a hansom cab.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

Reduced Rates to New York City.

On July 5, 6 and 7 the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y will sell tickets to New York City and return at one Lowest First-class Fare. Send to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O., for free copy of folder of information. The The Lake Shore is the only line to New York without a ferry transfer.

WHAT IT DOES.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
1. Purifies the blood.
2. Creates an appetite.
3. Strengthens the nerves.
4. Makes the weak strong.
5. Overcomes that tired feeling.
6. Cures scrofula, salt rheum, etc.
7. Invigorates the kidneys and liver.
8. Relieves headache, indigestion and dyspepsia.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance..... $1 10
If paid after 30 days..... 1 25
If paid after three months..... 1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance..... $1 75
If paid after 30 days..... 1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.

Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.

Rates on general advertising on term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JUNE 23, 1892.

Chicago is the center of attraction this week. Chicago is a big town, anyway, and it is frequently the center of attraction.

It is now asserted that the real cause of Blaine's leaving the Cabinet was on account of trouble with Secretary Foster. Foster was interfering in affairs of the State Department too much to please the man from Maine.

The Republican platform adopted at Minneapolis is a curiosity, but stripped of its verbiage it means a McKinley tariff, a single gold standard and a force bill. We do not believe that the people will approve such a platform.

When this page goes to press, Tuesday afternoon, the big convention is assembling at Chicago. The Democratic clans are preparing for a hot time, but the outcome is very uncertain. No man knoweth what one day may bring forth at a national convention.

If the majority rule prevailed at Democratic national conventions, Cleveland would be chosen on the first ballot. Whether he can control a two-thirds vote remains to be seen. If the Convention shall conclude that he cannot carry New York he will probably be set aside, but in that event his friends will dictate the nomination.

This item, going the rounds of the press, shows the remarkable versatility of the American character: Prominent among the gentlemen coach-drivers of Parisis the son of the late President Arthur, who knows how to handle the ribbons over a spanking team as well as if he had been to the manor born and was earning fifty francs a week.

The Atlanta Journal (Dem.) is in favor of putting Gov. Boies on the Democratic Presidential ticket with Mr. Cleveland. "His two administrations as Governor of Iowa," it says, "have shown him to be a man of fine executive ability, and in the discussion of national questions he has exhibited a high degree of ability and an accurate knowledge of the leading issues of the day."

"The Syracuse Convention may have been an impolitic convention," says the Utica Observer (Dem.), but its dignity, honesty, seriousness and Democracy cannot be impeached. It is idle to pretend that the Convention was factional or disorganizing. The overwhelming sentiment of the Democracy of the State demands the nomination of Grover Cleveland, because he is the strongest candidate and the most representative Democrat. Instead of heeding the sentiment the Machine attempted to dictate what the people should believe. The Democracy, in overwhelming numbers, in magnificent strength, in noble devotion to the dearest traditions and honored principles of the party through tried and trusted representatives, in serious and serious convention, declared sovereignty and dependence on any machine and asserted their honest convictions. Before such a demonstration Machinedom did not dare to

The Springfield Republican, the leading independent paper of New England, has these sensible comments on the "Michigan plan." The Republicans have failed in their attempt to overthrow the election law in Michigan, the Supreme Court having pronounced it constitutional. This is the law which provides for the choice of presidential electors by districts, and which was relied upon to give the Democrats at least one of the electors of the state. There has never been much reason for believing that the court would decide other than it did, for the Legislature acted under the constitutional provision which gives each state the right to determine the manner in which its electors are to be chosen. There is a right of appealing to the Supreme Court of the United States in case the state court sustained the law, but such an appeal would almost certainly be useless, for the Republicans can make no stronger case against the law than they already have. It only remains to test this method, and if it works well in Michigan other states will be likely to adopt it.

REPUBLICAN REJOICING.

Because Foreign Corporations Beat the Franchise-Fee Law.

While Democratic Economy and Wise Legislation Cause Republican Lament.

The success of the democracy in Michigan in the last gubernatorial election in this state naturally made the republican bosses and party manipulators very sick. And every act of the democratic legislature passed in response to popular "demand," and every act of the democratic officials in fulfillment of party pledges to the people; every economy practised, and every reform inaugurated, threw these same bosses and manipulators and the partisan press correspondents into spasms. But this was followed by a noisy silence. For a peep at the records of republican officials showed that republican officials had been guilty of wholesale extravagance and downright swindling.

They purchased for themselves, their offices and their clerks thousands of dollars' worth of gold pens, hundreds of penknives and pocketbooks, miles of elegant carpets, scores of costly rugs, a great number of folding-beds, bed-lounges and sofa-beds, card tables and playing cards, cut-glass goblets, cork-screws and toothpicks. Hundreds of dollars were paid by them out of the people's treasury for ordinary partisan daily and weekly newspapers. Thousands of dollars were charged up and allowed for per diem and overtime of officers for the discharge of ordinary official duties while drawing their regular statutory and constitutional salaries. Travel for more than 80,000 miles by officials and members of the board of state auditors was charged, allowed and paid in violation of the plain commands of the law and constitution which they had sworn to obey and support and in violation of all justice and common decency. The same party organs never opened their columns to criticism of such rascality and extravagance practiced by trusted republican officials, but, on the contrary, boomed them for renomination and reelection, and duped the people into supporting their own worst enemies.

As these matters were being dug from records, musty with time and the taint of corruption, and exposed to the public gaze, there appeared to be a sullen subdued quiet on the part of the partisan press. Every dollar collected from corporations for the benefit of the people—under the statute enacted by the last legislature which requires corporations filing articles of association with the secretary of state, to pay a franchise of one half of are nullon each dollar of its capital stock—seemed a veritable clinch nail in the republican coffin. But when the supreme court decided that the secretary of state had no right to demand the fee of foreign corporations which were organized before the law was enacted, when the corporations beat the state and the people, then it was that there was a great day of joy in the republican hospital, and a wonderful exhibition has been given of unfeigned and genuine pleasure at the victory of a millionaire corporation in a lawsuit with the people. Those sick, sullen corporation favorities actually seem to feel as though life is worth living again, and they are already promising and planning how they will amend the corporation tax law. But that law will be amended in the house of its friends; the higher its enemies build their expectations, the farther they will have to fall.

Under that franchise fee statute, enacted by the democratic legislature, there has been collected during a few months nearly $25,000 for the people, sufficient to pay the entire expense of the clerical force in the office of the secretary of state. The republican press now appears to be satisfied with the law, as they say nothing is left of it. The act will continue a blessing to the people and the state, and the officials will continue to collect the regular tax named in the law from corporations that have or may organize since the act was approved.

THE PEOPLE'S REWARD.

Some of the Reforms Inaugurated at Lansing.

Dishonest and Extravagant Methods Give Way to Honest and Economical Methods—What the Democratic Board of State Auditors Have Done.

The [illegible] of the democratic state administration [illegible] the people of Michigan [illegible] the democratic state auditors [illegible] the democratic state lost money that must be made up by additional taxation.

The board, too, was away behind with its work. Their annual reports, the chief value of which depends upon early and regular publication, had been long delayed and in arrears. These reports give the itemized accounts of the receipts, expenses and charges of nearly all persons appointed to positions by the governor. The reports also detail the supplies furnished and extra clerks employed in all the state departments. They are of great value if given to the public promptly, as the law requires. If long delayed, they are not of much value, though the expense of preparing and printing them is just the same.

On January 1, 1891, the annual report for 1889 was not ready and the report for 1890 was untouched, although the law required that both should have been ready by that date for the use of the legislature. The new administration found itself handicapped by this mass of work of back years which it had to complete.

The new board, with an able and honest clerk, went to work industriously, with systematic energy, and completed the reports of 1889 and 1890 and presented their own report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1891, by September, 1891. The work on the report for 1892 is kept well up and copied, month by month, so as to be ready for the printer at the close of the year. The next legislature, governor and state officers will have the report early and the public will have an opportunity to judge of the economy or extravagance of the administration before being called upon to select its successor.

It seems to have been the policy of the former boards to keep the proceedings and records of any administration in the dark until its successor had been chosen. This, of course, was done to perpetuate the old regime. Such methods would be tolerated only by the officials of a party that has full knowledge of its own corruption, which it is determined to conceal, and upon which it depends for future favor. The present board required prompt settlement with the old state oil inspector and had him deposit in the state treasury about February 1, 1891, the sum of $13,000.

They now require of the new oil inspector, appointed by Gov. Winans, that he make settlement and deposit quarterly, instead of holding such large sums of money for a longer time, as has been the custom heretofore. Under the management of the present board the attorney fees for the board of pharmacy have been reduced fifty per cent., and a deposit of balance over expenses made.

Thousands of letters relating to soldiers' bounties have been jacketed and put in alphabetical order to expedite examination and referred to the adjutant general, as required by law. Instead of accounts being allowed by the board, and afterwards examined by the clerk as to their accuracy, such accounts have been carefully examined and computed before allowance.

Among the supplies left in the office by the old board were brooms that cost the state $3.50 per dozen, having the regular retail price of twenty-five cents marked on the handles. Exorbitant prices are no longer paid. Contracts with attorneys made by former administrations have been cut down forty per cent., and the office now is in better shape for prompt, honest and efficient service than it has been for years. The people should see to it that no backward step be taken. Reforms that have been inaugurated must be kept up. When the party in power shows a greater determination to cover its faults than to serve the people and obey the law, both civil and moral, then it is the duty of the people to force a change. The change in this case came none too soon.

ANOTHER INDORSEMENT.

The Mortgage Tax Law Will Benefit the Borrower.

So Says the Detroit Tribune in a Published Interview.

Even the Detroit Tribune, rabid and unreasoning in its republicanism, now sees its way to printing the following indorsement of the mortgage tax law passed by Michigan's democratic legislature and sustained by Michigan's supreme court:

C. T. Church, president of the Merchants' national bank of Charlotte, and one of the Peninsula city's most prominent citizens, is at the Russell house. Mr. Church is something of a republican state man also, has paid especial attention to the subject of the much-abused mortgage tax law, concerning which he said:

"It is my opinion that in the operation of the law there will be a tendency to lower rates of interest to the borrowers and that eventually it will be found to be a good law. The result will be that the mortgagee will pay the tax. The law is a copy of the California law with the clause prohibiting contracting stricken out, which consequently contracting will be indulged in for the reason that interest earnings will be equal to the mortgagee. The effect of the law will be to make real estate mortgages a favorable class of [illegible]. If the mortgageor refuses to pay the taxes, and it is best that he should not get a lower rate of interest in consequence, real estate investors should be in demand. The [illegible] of loans exempt from taxation. The [illegible] mortgage and mortgagee [illegible] the benefit of a lower rate of interest. The system has been misunderstood. The law, which is similar to those of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Jersey and other states, comes nearer being right in that it taxes and instead of both individual."

The Cubit.

The length of the ancient cubit, so often referred to in sacred and other writings of early date, varied according to the race. Strictly, it was the distance from the elbow to the tip of the middle finger. Recent investigation proves that the Roman cubit was 13.47 inches in length. The Greek, 18.20. The Hebrew varied from 24.34 to 22.03, the variations being due to age and locality. Some Biblical scholars believe that Noah's ark measurements were cubits of about three feet.

Will the next platform of the republican party "point with pride" in the time-honored way to the Michigan record of that party? In the light of the revelations of rottenness, corruption and extravagance which have characterized its state administration for years, it will require typical republican phariseeism to reiterate the falsehood.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

A cyclone struck Chicago last week and blew the roof off the big Democratic wigwam. Fortunately there was sufficient time to put a new roof on before the Convention assembled.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN.

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations, taken according to directions, are gone in a week. Therefore be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

Mrs. Hostess: Won't you play something, Miss Tempo?

Miss Tempo (caustically): No, thank you; I don't wish to interrupt the conversation.

Mrs. Hostess: Oh dear, Miss Tempo, it wouldn't—not for a moment.

A WONDERFUL STATEMENT.

Proprietors of Dullam's Great German Remedies.—GENTLEMEN: I have for the past two years been troubled with a serious and very severe liver and stomach difficulty. Have had advice and medicine from our very best physicians, and only to be temporarily relieved. Some of my friends persuaded me to try your Great German Remedy for the Blood, Stomach and Kidneys, and to my surprise, after using three bottles, I feel like a new man. If you desire you can use my name in print or by reference in any of the Grand Rapids, Michigan papers, or any other papers in the States, to convince the afflicted that it is the best blood, liver and kidney medicine on earth. I feel like a new man. I have lived here over 40 years.

J. M. LIVINGSTON,
Grand Rapids, Mich.

For sale by Jno. Orr.

Judge (who is bald-headed): If half what the witnesses testify against you is true, your conscience must be as black as your hair.

Prisoner: If a man's conscience is regulated by his hair, then your Honor hasn't got any conscience at all.

MILES NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

LANE'S FAMILY MEDICINE MOVES THE BOWELS Each day. Most people need to use it.

Mr. S. G. Derry
Of Providence, R. I.,

Widely known as proprietor of Derry's Waterproof Harness Oil, tells below of his terrible sufferings from Eczema and his cure by

HOOD'S
Sarsaparilla

"Gentlemen: Fifteen years ago I had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, which was followed by eczema or salt rheum, breaking out on my right leg. The humor spread all over my legs, back and arms.

A Foul Mass of Sores, swollen and itching terribly, causing intense pain if the skin was broken by scratching, and discharging constantly. It is impossible to describe my suffering in those years of agony and torture. I spent in futile efforts to get well, and was discouraged and ready to die. At this time I was unable to lie down in bed, had to sit up all the time, and was unable to walk without crutches. I had to hold my arms away from my body, and had to have my arms, back and legs bandaged by my faithful wife twice a day. Finally a friend who was visiting at our house, urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I began by taking half a teaspoonful. My

Thousands of Dollars

Stomach Was All Out of Order

But the medicine soon corrected this, and in six weeks I could see a change in the condition of the humor which nearly covered my body. It was driven to the surface by the Sarsaparilla, the sores soon healed, and the scales fell off. I was soon able to give up bandages and crutches, and a happy man I was. I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months; and since that time, nearly two years, I have worn no bandages whatever and my legs and arms are sound and well.

The Delight

of myself and wife at my recovery it is impossible to tell. To all my business friends in Boston and over the country, I recommend from personal experience." S. G. DERRY, 45 Bradford street, Providence, R. I.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

If you are Bilious, take Hood's Pills.

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER
DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S.,
Brick Office on Shawnee St. TECUMSEH, MICH.

ORANGE BLOSSOM
A POSITIVE CURE FOR
ALL FEMALE DISEASES.

SOME SYMPTOMS: A tired, languid feeling, low spirited and despondent [illegible] eat cause. Indigestion, headache, backache, bearing down pains across lower part of bowels, with great soreness in region of ovaries. Tumors, Bladder dis[illegible]ty, Frequent urination, Leucorrhœa, Constipation of bowels, piles. With all these symptoms patient nervous and irritable. THE ORANGE BLOSSOM TREATMENT removes all by a thorough process of absorption.

A LOCAL APPLICATION Perfectly harmless, which every lady can use, herself. No [illegible]ections taken internally will never relieve the many forms of female weakness. The remedy must be applied to the parts to obtain permanent relief.

A PLAIN TALK TO LADIES in our circular. Ask your druggist for one, or send two cent stamp to home office for sample box and circular.

EVERY LADY CAN TREAT HERSELF.

O. B. Pile Remedy. $1.00 FOR ONE MONTH'S TREATMENT. O. B. Stomach Powders.
O. B. Catarrh Cure. —PREPARED BY— O. B. Kidney Cones.

J. A. McGILL, M. D., & CO., 2 & 4 PANORAMA PLACE, CHICAGO, ILL.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

ALONZO G. FISHER, Wholesale Agent, 67 Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

THE ONE FOR CATARRH COLD IN HEAD HAY FEVER ELY'S CREAM BALM

The New Model Hall Typewriter.

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Characters.
Remodeled and Improved.
GOOD MANIFOLDER.
The Best Standard Typewriter in the World.
Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interchangeable type in all languages, Easiest to learn as rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.
THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIEND.
Everybody should have their writing done on the Typewriter. It always insures the most prompt attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159. N. TYPEWRITER CO.,
611 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Seth P. Sheldon, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Charles Burridge in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michgan; on the 25th day of June, 1892, and on the 30th day of September, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 31st day of March, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated May 26th, 1892.

ANSEL P. CODDINGTON,
HORATIO KEYSER,
may29 Commissioners.

ESTATE OF B. J. BIDWELL.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate Office in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 25th day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate Birdsey J. Bidwell deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Elizabeth A. Bidwell widow of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to Lumont C. Bidwell and Laverne I. Bidwell, or to some other suitable persons.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 27th day of June, nex., at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition; and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said Petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said Petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee, for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy.)
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register. apr28

MORTGAGE SALE

DEFAULT of payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date March 9th, 1889, executed and delivered by Seth C. Randall to Emma Drake, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee and state of Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1889, in Liber 93, of mortgages, on pages 614 and 615 and upon which mortgage there remains due at the date hereof the sum of three hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents ($399.60), and no proceedings at law or in equity having been taken to collect the same or any part thereof.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained (which has become operative by reason of said default) and by the Statutes of the state of Michigan, in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon, and costs of this foreclosure and sale including an attorney fee as provided by law, I shall on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder at the front door of the court house, in the City of Adrian, County of Lenawee Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee and state of Michigan, known and described as follows, viz: The northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three (23), town six (6) south of range five (5) east.

Dated April 11, 1892.

EMMA DRAKE,
Mortgagee.
WOOD & FORD,
Attorneys for Mortgagee. apr14

DRS. CATLIN & CATLIN,
Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default of Payment having been made of a mortgage made by Edward Rowland and Elsie Rowland, his wife, to Albert Hyde, Sr., bearing date the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1887, of record in office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 100 of mortgages, on Page 34, on which mortgage there remains unpaid at the date of this notice, of principal and accrued interest, the sum of Eight Hundred forty-four and 62-100ths dollars ($844.62), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken for the collection of the same,

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the money above named and interest thereon at 8 per cent. per annum to accrue thereon, the costs of this foreclosure and sale, including the attorney fee provided by law, I shall, on the first day of August, A. D. 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder at the front door of the court house in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan (that being the place of holding the Circuit court for the said County of Lenawee), all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point in the south line of Logan street, seventy feet west from the intersection of that line with the East line of Evans street in said Village, thence running South parallel with and seventy feet distant from the East line of Evans street to an alley described in a deed given to Benjamin Farley by Michael A. Patterson and George Spafford; thence East along the North line of said alley seventy feet; thence North to the South line of Logan street aforesaid; thence West on South line of Logan street aforesaid seventy feet to place of beginning—being the same land conveyed by John H. Mills to said Edward Rowland by deed bearing date December 29, 1887, and comprising dwelling house and premises and blacksmith shop and premises thereon.

Dated May 5th, 1892.

ALBERT HYDE,
Mortgagee.
CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for Mortgagee. may5

ESTATE OF INCREASE S. HAMILTON.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate Office in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 11th day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Increase S. Hamilton, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Frederick B. Wood, praying for the probate of an instrument now on file in this Court, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and that administration of said estate may be granted to petitioner and Alvin E. Hamilton, the executor and executrix in said instrument named, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, that Monday, the 6th day of June next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said Deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in THE TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)
RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of John Allen, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Charles Burridge, in Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan on the 16th day of July, and on the 5th day of Dec., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 5th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment.

Dated, June 12, 1892.

E. G. PRICE,
WM. RANDALL,
Commissioners.

AN NATIONAL EVENT.

The holding of the World's Fair in an ly scarcely fifty years old will be a ent, but whether it will really benefit is nation as much as the discovery of e Restorative Nervine by Dr. Frank- n Miles is doubtful. This is just hat the American people need to cure eir excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, adache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neu- lgia, nervous debility, dulness, con- sion of mind, etc. It acts like a harm. Trial bottles and fine book on Nervous and heart Diseases, with un- ual testimonials, free at Baker and all's. It is warranted to contain no ium, morphine or dangerous drugs.

Every Month

many women suffer from Excessive or Scant Menstruation; they don't know who to confide in to get proper advice. Don't confide in anybody but try

Bradfield's

Female Regulator

a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE, SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION.

Book to "WOMAN" mailed free. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga. Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S

DUSKY

DIAMOND

TAR SOAP

Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing.

Cures Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc. Removes and Prevents Dandruff.

AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP.

Best for General Household Use.

DEAFNESS & HEAD NOISES CURED by Peck's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfortable. Successful where all Remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, 853 Broadway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1 at Druggists

ASTHMA CONSUMPTIVE

Use Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough, Weak Lungs, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Pain, Take in time. 50 cts.

CORNS. HINDERCORNS. The only sure cure for Corns. Stops all pain. 15c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

A Family Affair

Health for the Baby, Pleasure for the Parents, New Life for the Old Folks.

Hires' Root Beer

THE GREAT TEMPERANCE DRINK

Is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening effervescent beverage.

Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

CURE THAT

Cold

AND STOP THAT

Cough.

N. H. Downs' Elixir

WILL DO IT.

Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

Warranted. Sold everywhere.

HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

Why Suffer?

When you can be Cured

Thousands are suffering with Torpid Liver—the symptoms are Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator is a reliable remedy for Liver Disorders. It cures thousands every year; why not try Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator? Your Druggist will supply you.

SINGLE TAX DEPARTMENT.

Land Values Without Labor.

In the year 1626 the West India Co. acquired from the Indians, through Peter Minuit, the right of possession of Manhattan island, which contained about twenty-four thousand acres of land, for the sum of twenty-four dollars, about one-tenth of a cent per acre. The company did not sell the land thus acquired, but permitted anyone to select such as he wanted to use. The original members of this community were mostly traders, requiring for residence or store but small lots of land, which they selected without regard to uniformity other than that suggested by the formation of the land itself. It was not till 1656 that there were any streets or other public improvements; yet as early as 1648 a lot thirty by one hundred and ten feet on what now is Bridge street was sold by Abram Jacobson Von Steenwyck to Anthony Jansen Van Fees for twenty-four guilders, equal to nine dollars and a half.

In 1656 a survey of the city of New Amsterdam was made, and the city laid down on a map which was confirmed by law "to remain from this time forward without alteration." After this time grants of land were made only to actual settlers on condition that they should be improved at once; and several persons who were disposed to keep the lots which had been previously granted them in their original condition for speculative purposes, were ordered either to build on them or sell, and if they refused to do so, their lots were taxed.

Larger tracts of land in the outskirts of the town and beyond were granted to settlers for farming purposes, while other tracts were retained by the company for its own use as farms, one of which, by what is now Fulton and Chambers streets, and Broadway and the North river, has since become the property of Trinity church.

At a very early date a piece of land was set aside as a burial ground for the English, situated north of Bowling Green and west of Broadway, which in 1656 had become so full of dead men's bones as to make it desirable to close it up and select a site for a new one; but it was not till ten years later that this was done, when the old graveyard was divided into four lots, each twenty-five by one hundred feet, and sold at auction, fetching a price, although no labor had been exerted upon them. The new site chosen for the English church was nearly opposite the head of Wall street, running from Broadway to the Hudson river, a part of which was set aside for a graveyard. It is on this land that the present Trinity church and graveyard are located, which together with other large tracts of land that have from time to time come into possession of the English church, or practically the same organized body, that now forms the basis of the great wealth and power of the Trinity church corporation. The land between the old and new graveyards was at the time occupied by the gardens and dwellings of Mr. Vandegrist and Mr. Van Dyck, which, as well as the old graveyard site, have since undoubtedly changed hands many times. But all the land described, whether it has changed hands or not, whether it has had labor expended upon it or remained a graveyard, has acquired an enormous value. The first Trinity church was built in 1696, and destroyed by fire during the revolutionary war, but the value of the land was not destroyed with it. Could this undestroyed value owe its existence to the destruction of the labor value of the church? If the present Trinity church and all the receptacles of the dead attached to it, and the accumulated remains of the dead that have been buried in them during the past two hundred years were to be removed from the land, the value of the land would not move with them, but would be enhanced; and if this land were to be sold at auction to-day, it would realize many millions of dollars; and it will hardly be claimed that these millions represent the result of the labor that has been expended upon it. There are at the present time parts of the island from which all evidence of individual labor has disappeared, and upon which little, if any, communal labor has been exerted, that when sold command enormous prices. One illustration will suffice. In 1884 Vice-President Morton bought a piece of land in the upper part of Manhattan Island, containing four hundred city lots, for which he paid $400,000. In 1890 he sold these lots for $1,000,000, and during the time they were in his possession no labor, either individual or communal, has been exerted upon them. The only labor Mr. Morton performed in connection with them has been the payment of the taxes, which can not have exceeded $30,000. It will hardly be claimed that the payment of such taxes has caused the land to more than double in value in six years. Three weeks or so later the syndicate that had bought these lots from Mr. Morton again sold them for $1,500,000, at no cost to it over and above what it had paid to Mr. Morton except the expenses of the sale.

What has brought this immense value into existence? It has been shown that shortly after the West India company located on the southern extremity of Manhattan Island, and before any public improvements had been made, a certain lot of land upon which no labor had been exerted, had acquired a value and was sold for a price. In common parlance we say the land was sold, but this is only apparently true, for man cannot produce land, therefore he can not rightfully sell it, and as no labor had been exerted on this land it could not have been the results of labor that was sold. What was sold? The privilege of using the land. What gave value to this privilege? The presence of population and the existence of communal life. What caused the existence of the community? Manhattan Island being favorably located for trade and commerce, it was a natural opportunity which men could use to great advantage. Did man create Manhattan Island? No. How then can he rightfully sell it? Men produce wealth which is their property, communities create land values which is their property; respect on the part of each for the other's rights will secure the rights of both in the land.

I think it will be conceded that the value of the lot which was sold in 1642 was the value of the privilege of using it, the value of the good will given to it by the community, so to speak; and if it was true of this lot, it must have been of the old graveyard, and of the present graveyard attached to Trinity church, and it must also be true of all land that has any value; for no matter how costly the improvements may be that are attached to the land, their value is always additional to the value of the privilege of using it. The selling price of the bare land alone, without improvements, represents the capitalization of the untaxed value of the privilege of using it, which, were it wholly taxed, would totally destroy the selling price of the land.

The single tax is the means by which the rights in the land of both the community and the individuals who compose it can be equitably adjusted, as it will discriminate between what is rightfully the property of the land owner and the property of the community. The individual will retain as secure possession of the land he uses as he does at present; nay, more so, because he will hold it honestly, and also of his property, because the community will then support itself out of its ground rents, not out of the property of its members, as it now does.—John Filmer.

A Plea for a Single Land Tax.

It is said that a certain ruler of Egypt imposed a tax upon date trees for the purpose of raising a revenue to meet his large household expenses, and, incidentally, a few expenses of state. This wise man reasoned that since dates were a profitable crop in the valley of the Nile he could calculate upon date trees as a permanent source of revenue. Besides, his minions could go about and count the producers' trees and easily fix their tax rates, and easily collect them, too, for no light penalty was to be visited upon the delinquent.

Shortly after harvest, however, when the worthy ruler set his governmental machinery to work to grind the taxes out of his date growers, he learned with dismay that they were cutting down their date trees and unless he countermanded his orders quickly there would be few date trees left in Egypt. So the good man countermanded his orders, but too late, however, to turn off the heavy blow that fell upon his country.

It seems to me that our system of taxation is not very much unlike the Egytian ruler's, though not so noticeably disastrous. His was a positive check on personal enterprise in regard to date tree culture; ours is a preventive check on personal enterprise in regard to improvements of nearly every kind.

Now, there is one commodity only that a community can tax without hampering production, and that commodity is land. Taxation on land will never make any less land, but taxation on improvements tends to curtail them.

The taxation of land only would be both just and economical. Just because incomparably more than in anything else does society create value in land. One need only to look about him to see a piece of land, originally unimproved meadow, where the owners have acquired great wealth through no efforts of their own, but simply by the value which a growing community has given to it. Society, therefore, has a right to tax this value it creates; but it manifestly has not an equal right to tax improvements, which are the products of individual efforts only.

A single tax on land would also be economical, for the concentration of taxes on land would discourage the holding of it in idleness, as at present, for speculative or other selfish purposes. When the concentration became complete men could not afford to monopolize several times so much land as they would be able or willing to utilize, thus opening up a chance for the disinherited millions to secure sites for future homes. And as improvements would not be taxed, as at present, capitalists would be encouraged to vie with one another in the beauty and grandeur of the structures they would erect. It would then become possible for the industrious ones among the tenants in the large cities to secure homes in the country or in the suburbs, thus relieving our cities of that congestion so destructive to our people's health and morals.

Those who work the land, while being discouraged from holding more land than they could profitably manage, would be encouraged in cultivating and improving that which they could utilize. By reason of the great and permanent stimulus that would be given to production, the industriously inclined among the unemployed could easily find employment or they could become landed proprietors themselves. And, as this easy access to land not in use by others would serve as a safety valve in relieving the severe pressure of competition for employment among wage earners, the question of hours of labor and of wages would happily adjust themselves.

In short, instead of a nation of landlords, speculators and sharpers, with their victims—tenants and tramps—we should become a nation of homes where the greatest possible incentive would be given to the production of wealth of every kind; where the food and raiment of one man need not depend on the nod of another; where the need of honest labor might fall upon soil that would not produce the tares of wage slavery, of poverty, of hopelessness to spring up and choke it.—D. J. Hayes, in Boston Globe.

Progress in Iowa.

The local press in Sioux City is surprised to find that so many farmers here are in favor of the single tax. The fact came out at a meeting of the local Alliance, where the question was discussed, and a large proportion of farmers expressed their sympathy. Similar surprises are in store all over the country. Farmers are beginning to learn that the single tax does not fall upon farmers or their business, but upon the owners of valuable land who have fooled the farmers about as long as they can.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

Work of the National Lawmakers at Washington.

A Daily Summary of the Proceedings in the Senate and House — Bills Passed and New Measures Introduced.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—After the transaction of some routine business in the senate yesterday Chief Clerk Towles, of the house, notified the senate of the death of Mr. Stackhouse, and appropriate resolutions were adopted, after which the senate adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—In the senate yesterday Senator Peffer was presented a petition from colored citizens of Kansas protesting against southern outrages. Senator Paddock presented a petition from Nebraska citizens urging that in future the salaries of all senators and representatives in favor of free and unlimited coinage of silver be paid them in silver and silver only. The silver bill was discussed.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Mr. Morrill (Vt.) addressed the senate yesterday in opposition to the bill to provide for the free coinage of gold and silver and Mr. Stewart (Nev.) spoke in its favor. Mr. Peffer (Kan.) presented a petition in relation to the prevalence of lynch law, and said it was time for the American congress to take action in the matter.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Nothing was done in the senate yesterday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—In the house yesterday a bill was introduced providing for the election of representatives by proportionate representation. Mr. Tillman, of South Carolina, announced the sudden death of his colleague, E. T. Stackhouse, and the customary resolutions of respect were adopted and the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The fortification appropriation bill ($2,412,372) was passed in the house yesterday and the revenue bills were discussed.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—In the house yesterday the tin plate bill was discussed, but no action was taken.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The conference report on the river and harbor bill was presented to the house yesterday and another conference was ordered. The remainder of the day was consumed in filibustering over the Sibley claim bill for the use of his patent tent by the government. A bill was reported for the issue of 10,000,000 silver half dollars, to be used as souvenir coins in aid of the world's fair.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—In the house Saturday the general deficiency bill ($4,870,535) was reported. The senate joint resolution recommending a presidential proclamation for the observance of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America was agreed to. Adjourned to the 22d.

MINER LAW SUSTAINED.

The Michigan Supreme Court Decides Unanimously That the Election Measure Is Constitutional.

LANSING, Mich., June 18.—The supreme court has rendered a decision sustaining the constitutionality of the Miner election law, which was passed by the last legislature. The decision of the court was unanimous. Justice Montgomery wrote the opinion. All the points raised by the petitioners are fully discussed. The court declares that the right of the legislature to determine the mode of choosing electors has been firmly established in practice since the adoption of the constitution, and does not seem to admit of controversy. The act in question is in conflict with the law of congress in so far as it attempts to fix a date for the meeting of electors and the method of certifying to their action, but the law is not necessarily inoperative because in some of its provisions the legislature has exceeded its power. The court says:

"We have considered the questions presented in the case with that care that the exceeding importance of the issue seems to imperatively require, and reach the conclusion that the statute must stand as the lawful edict of the legislature. The injustice of any other than a uniform system of electing the president of the United States is manifest in legislating upon this subject, it should not be regarded from a party standpoint, but neither the fact that this important consideration has been overlooked, nor that this legislation may result in serious injustice can extend our jurisdiction or justify us in usurping functions which under the constitution pertain to the legislature."

The court politically is three republicans and two democrats. The Miner law was passed by the last legislature, which was democratic.

Hanged.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 18.—At 10 a. m. Friday Joe Wallace, the murderer of Henry Cole, was hung near Jaspar, Marion county. The execution was witnessed by 10,000 people. Wallace had touched no food for two days and was very weak. The gallows was erected 1 mile from the jail and in a valley surrounded by high hills, on which the spectators stood. Wallace was hanged for the murder of Henry Cole near Shell mountain in 1890.

Many Drownings in a Short Time.

BAY CITY, Mich., June 17.—Philip Adams, fireman on the tug Maud S., met death by drowning Thursday afternoon at the mouth of the river. He was in a small boat when it capsized and he went to the bottom before assistance could reach him. This makes seven persons drowned in Saginaw river in three days.

Merchandise Exports.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The chief of the bureau of statistics reports that the total value of the exports of merchandise from the United States for the twelve months ended May 31, 1892, was $828,767,858; same in 1891, $846,888,913.

The Failure Record.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number 179, as compared with totals of 197 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 253.

TO YOUNG MOTHERS.

who are for the first time to undergo woman's severest trial, we offer you, not the stupor caused by chloroform, with risk of death for yourself or your dearly-loved babe to god-for offspring, but "Mother's Friend," a remedy which will, if used as directed, invariably alleviate the pains, horrors and risks of labor, and often entirely do away with them. Sold by Jno. Orr.

I HAVE TAKEN SEVERAL

Bottles of Bradfield's Female Regulator for falling of the womb and other diseases combined, of 16 years standing, and I really believe I am cured entirely, for which please accept my thanks.

MRS. W. E. STEBBINS, Ridge, Ga.

WHY IS THE W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY?

It is a seamless shoe, with no tacks or wax thread to hurt the feet; made of the best fine calf, stylish and easy, and because we make more shoes of this grade than any other manufacturer, it equals hand-sewed shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

$5. 00 Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest calf shoe ever offered for $5.00; equals French imported shoes which cost from $8.00 to $12.00.

$4. 00 Hand-Sewed Welt Shoe, fine calf, a stylish, comfortable and durable. The best shoe ever offered at this price; same grade as custom-made shoes costing from $6.00 to $8.00.

$3. 50 Police Shoes, Farmers, Railroad Men and Letter Carriers all wear them; fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, heavy three soles, extension edge. One pair will wear a year.

$2. 50 fine calf, no better shoe ever offered at this price; one trial will convince those who want a shoe for comfort and service.

$2. 25 and $2.00 Workingman's shoes are very strong and durable. Those who have given them a trial will wear no other make.

Boys' $2.00 and $1.75 school shoes are worn by the boys everywhere; they sell on their merits, as the increasing sales show.

Ladies $3.00 Hand-sewed shoe, best Dongola, very stylish; equals French imported shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

Ladies' 2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 shoe for Misses are the best fine Dongola. Stylish and durable.

Caution.—See that W. L. Douglas' name and price are stamped on the bottom of each shoe.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

Insist on local advertised dealers supplying you. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by

SOLD BY HARRIS & HITESHU, Tecumseh.

LADIES

In delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions or of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to my cure, together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The M. U. Pastilles have stood the test of 18 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $1.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr H. H. Jackson, 103 State Street, Chicago, Illinois

The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. The name and address will be given any lady asking for the same:

"DR JACKSON,

Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend your M. U. Pastilles to all ladies suffering with female diseases. Having myself been bedfast for ten months and could find no remedy until I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using about two boxes I was well and sound for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady." ul6-1y

It Cures Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Large Bottles, 50 cents and $1.00. It Cures Influenza.

The Celebrated Stallion

GIPSEY CHIEF.

Will make the season of 1892 at the owner's farm, at the Bridgewater Mills, River Raisin.

GIPSEY CHIEF is the grandest sire in Southern Michigan, producing from mares of different blood, more matched colts, than any other stallion. Parties wishing to raise colts uniform in style and color, would do well to look at Gipsey Chief and his get, before booking their mares. He is the sire of the celebrated horse Tipton Boy, record 2:24 1-2, and other fast ones.

GIPSEY'S colts all have fine style and action and find ready sale at good prices. For pedigree and terms, address

CHARLES R. KOERNIG, River Raisin, Mich.

PHYSICIANS OUTDONE.

My wife has been suffering with female trouble of the severest kind for over three years. I have paid twenty-five dollars during the last three months, and she had no relief. She had doctored continually with the best of physicians.

I bought three bottles each of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure, and can say to-day that she is entirely cured. W. H. DROWLEY.

Sworn to before me on this 23d day of June, 1890. JOHN C. DULLAM. Flint, Mich. Notary Public, Genesee Co. For sale by Jno. Orr.

Burglar (flashing his dark-lantern in the face of the sleeper): If you make a loud noise you're a dead man! I want it quick! Where is it?

Mr. Billus (only half awake): Why, great Scots, Maria! What have you done with the $25 I gave you yesterday?

KING OF THE BLOOD

The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.

Cures all Humors, from a Common Pimple to the worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.

Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.

Its name is its best description as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.

It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.

It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the Surgeon's knife.

It cures DROPSY, general or partial.

It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.

It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.

It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons and establishes a sound constitution.

Many certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," in which each bottle is enclosed.

Price $1 per bottle containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses. Sold by druggists or medicine.

If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you, it will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors, BUFFALO N. Y.

D. RANSOM'S MAGNETIC OINTMENT.

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.

It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.

The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.

All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.

It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood. By this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame; every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years.

This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates of cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.

Price 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!

HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan street, I am prepared to execute

General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds,

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

Satisfaction Guaranteed and Charges Reasonable.

A. J. WHITING.

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.

OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.

A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.

OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent).

WASHINGTON, June 19, 1892.

Will the democrats nominate Cleveland, or Hill or a dark horse? Nine men out of ten, whatever their personal preference, would have said it looked like Cleveland a few days ago, but now only those who favor the nomination of the ex-President are positive that he will win, and some of those admit that some one else may be chosen. It is difficult to say just what has brought about this change on the eve of the convention; numerous things have had a tendency to raise doubts about the result in the minds of unprejudiced observers.

Not the least of things is the lack of confidence that the Hill men have begun to display, in place of the listlessness they have shown for some weeks; this may mean only a bluff, or it may mean, as some people think, that the Hill managers have got a clinch on enough delegates to make Cleveland's defeat certain, if not to nominate their man.

The more the Cleveland doubts have grown the greater has become the tendency to bring out the claims and availability of "favorite sons," and, if the [illegible] do not miscarry, at least half a dozen candidates will be voted for on the first ballot. It must not be forgotten, however, in considering the situation as diagnosed from a Washington standpoint, that a large majority of the democrats in both the Senate and the House personally prefer any candidate to Cleveland, making the drift of democrat sentiment here naturally and strongly anti-Cleveland, while in the convention it may be just the reverse. The democrats believe that they practically have two chances against the republicans one. If they fail to elect the President in the electoral college, they may do it by throwing the election into the House.

One of the delegation of Congressional mourners which accompanied the remains of the late Col. L. L. Polk, president of the Farmer's Alliance, from this city to Raleigh, North Carolina, last week, was Representative Stackhouse, of South Carolina. Wednesday morning of this week a joint Congressional committee started from Washington for South Carolina, in charge of the remains of the late Representative Stackhouse, he having died suddenly of heart disease early Tuesday morning. Mr. Stackhouse has been a prominent member of the Farmer's Alliance from its beginning, and he served several terms as president of the State organization before he was elected to Congress. He was the sixth member of the Fifty-second Congress to die, and nearly everyone of them died suddenly.

Representative Johnson, of Ohio, has an idea that our present method of electing Congressmen does not give the minorities in the several districts of a State exactly the showing to which he thinks them entitled. So he has introduced a bill providing for the election of Representatives in Congress by proportional representation. Under it all candidates for the House would be voted for by all the voters in the state, and any body of electors may in convention assembled nominate any number of candidates not to exceed the total number of seats to which the State is entitled to in the House, and cause them to be printed on ballots. Electors would be entitled on their ballots to one vote each for as many persons as the state is entitled to seats, and they may cumulate their votes on a less number of persons as they may choose. It is difficult to see where the improvement would come in under this bill. The party caucus would make it certain that every State would send a solid delegation to the House, thus absolutely shutting out the minority representation which is possible under the present system of electing Representatives by districts.

A little flurry was created here by a few offhanded remarks made by Senator Stewart, of Nevada, when asked what the Chicago convention would do with the silver question, he said: Bah! They will do just the same as the republicans. Why, the gold-bugs would send a million dollars, or two millions if necessary, to buy up the whole convention; and now the question is being asked, did the Senator mean that the republican convention had been bought, as he intimates the democrat convention will be bought.

Senator Morgan did not try to get a vote on the free coinage bill this week, as he had said he would, but he made a speech in its favor, in which he warned the Chicago convention in advance that if it suppressed a declaration favoring free coinage at the bidding of any man that man would in turn be suppressed by the people. This was a direct slap at Mr. Cleveland.

Senator Peffer in presenting a petition from Kansas asking that Congress take action to stop the lynchings which are becoming so frequent, said that the practice was growing in all parts of the country, north, south, east and west, and that he hoped the Judiciary committee, to which the petition was referred, would promptly report on the subject.

Street commissioner Hyde is putting in some splendid work on the streets this spring.

HIS EARTHLY JOURNEY ENDED.

Another of Lenawee County's sturdy pioneers and most worthy citizens has been gathered to his fathers. As the leaves fall beneath the touch of an October frost, so the strongest men fall by the wayside when the Great Reaper summons them home.

John Richard, the subject of this sketch, filled a large niche in the local history of Lenawee County for more than half a century. He was descended from sturdy Irish ancestry, having been born in County Antrim, Ireland, in November, 1808. His father, Archibald Richard, was an Irish farmer, and the father of eleven children, John being the second child. He passed his boyhood beneath the parental roof, gathering such rudiments of an education as the Irish schools of those days afforded. At the age of eighteen years he bade adieu to the old home and set sail for the New World, landing in Baltimore about the first of June, 1826. Here he worked for a few months at the brick and stone mason's trade and then went to New Jersey, where he engaged in work in the iron furnaces until the fall of 1827, when he returned to his native land. In the spring of 1828 his father emigrated with his family to America, John having persuaded him to try his fortunes in the Western world. They landed in New York in June, 1828, and proceeded to Geneseo, Livingston Co., N. Y., where they purchased a farm and resided until 1833. In September of that year they came to Michigan and settled in the woods on section fourteen in Raisin. In 1841 the subject of this sketch again returned to Ireland. In January, 1835, he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Sherrard, of Antrim County, with whom he returned to America, and the next year, 1836, he came to Michigan with his father's family and located a farm on Section 23 in Raisin, where he began the work of carving a home out of the wilderness. At his death he owned one hundred acres of land, with fine buildings and improvements, which is considered one of the best homes in this section. He began life in Raisin in a log cabin, twelve feet square, without a chimney, and in the midst of an unbroken forest. During the next forty years he endured the privations and performed the toil incident to pioneer life in the Wolverine State, during which time he made the forest to bloom like a garden and transformed the wild woods into a beautiful home. He had but one child, Alexander, who now resides on the old Richard farm in Raisin.

The deceased was possessed of good physical health and a rugged constitution, and took a deep interest in all matters of local concern. He was a great reader and kept himself en rapport with the times in current history and politics. Although unobtrusive and far removed from intolerance and mere partisanship, he entertained positive convictions upon religious and political subjects and could always give a reason for the faith that was in him. In politics he was an old line Democrat. In religion he was an ardent Presbyterian. He was an active member of and regular attendant upon the Raisin Presbyterian Church, and gave a liberal donation to erect the fine church edifice which stands on his farm. He also contributed liberally towards the building of the two Presbyterian churches in Tecumseh. He was frequently honored with the suffrages of his fellow citizens for offices of trust, having been twice chosen to the office of township treasurer and twice elected supervisor.

For the past few years he has not led as active a life as formerly, but still he was able to manage his farm and pursue his usual avocations. Three years ago this summer he sustained a shock of paralysis which shattered his constitution and left him partially helpless. He continued to get about the house, however, and took an interest in passing events. On Thursday, the 9th inst. he suffered a repetition of the shock, from which he never rallied. He failed rapidly until Sunday, the 12th, when he passed away without a struggle to mark the transition from his earthly to his heavenly abode.

The funeral services were attended at the family residence on Tuesday, the 14th, conducted by the pastor of the Raisin Presbyterian Church, many of the older settlers of Raisin being present to pay a last tribute of respect to the departed.

"Uncle John Richards," as he was familiarly known by all, was a prominent character in this vicinity for nearly sixty years. As a husband and father he met his obligations and duties with religious fidelity; as a citizen and neighbor he was honored and trusted; as a pioneer he stood in the van of that valiant army of faithful workers who have made our commonwealth what it is to-day. He has fought the good fight, he has kept the faith, he has finished his course, he has entered into his eternal inheritance on high.

4th of July Reduced Rates.

On July 2nd, 3rd and 4th, 1892, the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y—Lake Shore Route—will sell special excursion tickets at reduced rates to all points on its line located within 200 miles from selling station.

Tickets will be good to return only on July 4th and 5th.

Complete particulars from ticket agents.

And still the farmer has to put in his work between showers.

Lakeside Meetings.

Summer School, June 30th-Aug. 10th.—President J. E. Stubbs, Director.

The Baptist Young People's Assembly (Second Session) July 2-11.—Rev. Emory W. Hunt, Toledo, O., Secretary.

Convention of Maccabees of Ohio July 12-18.—Ed. L. Young, Norwalk, O. State Commander.

Sixteenth Annual Lakeside Encampment, July 14-Aug. 3.—Rev. B. F. Vincent, D.D. Supt. and Normal Instructor.

TALENT.—The Robertson Brooks Combination. Prof. J. B. Demotte (Stereopticon.) "Col. G. W. Bain. Oronhyatekha (Good Templars' Day.) J. F. Berry, D.D., (Epworth League Day.) Thad. A. Reamy, M.R. Jacobs. Ills (author of "How the Other Half Live." The Royal Hand Bell Ringers. C. L. S. C. Recognition Day. R. K. Bryan (chalk.) Gen. W. H. Gibson (Gen. A. R. Day.) Prof. W. Binstol, D.D., Chicago. Rev. Russell H. Conwell, D.D. Dean Alfred Wright. Armstrong's Ben Hur. W. F. Davidson, D.D. Stereopticon. President J. E. Stubbs, Miss L. M. White, Dejsarte and Elocution. Rev. Henry Johnson, D.D.

Musical Feature. Arthur Dunham, Cleveland; Mrs. Corinne Moore-Lawson, Soprano, Cincinnati; Miss Morgan, Contralto, Cleveland; Mr. Fred Jenkins, Tenor, Cleveland; Mr. Gustav Berneike, Bass, Cleveland; Band of 12 Men with Orchestral Instruments; Four Grand Concerts; Chorus Choir.

Departments—Devotional, C. L. S. C., Elocution, Delsarte, Kindergarten, Greek Testament, University Extension, Music, Painting, Etc.

Twentieth Lakeside Camp Meeting—Aug. 4th-14th. Rev. S. A. Keen, D.D., Supt. Assistants—Rev. Bishop Thoburn, Rev. Geo. Lansing Taylor, D.D., at least one of the M. E. Bishops and members of the general conference.

Lakeside, being on a Peninsula, near Sandusky, Ohio, is accessible by rail and steamer.

Hotel, 150 rooms, $2.00 to $3.00 per day; open July 1st; 500 cottages, a few for rent, dining halls $5.00 per week, special rates to ministers for day board, boarding house, $1.00 to $1.25 per day, supply stores, markets; one of the finest Assembly Auditoriums, electric lights, extensive sewerage.

Recreation, Boating, Bathing, Fishing, Excursions to Islands and out-door sports, Fireworks. For detailed program and particular information, address, S. R. GILL, Sec'y, Lakeside, O.

The Forum for June.

The June number of The Forum contains an outline of the approaching campaign by a conspicuous representative of each party—ex-Secretary Bayard on the "Democratic Duty and Opportunity," and Senator George F. Hoar on "Reasons for Republican Control." In these carefully prepared articles each writer explains the issues that are uppermost, and lays down the line of policy that his party should pursue. This makes vigorous campaign literature, which appears just as each national convention is getting ready to assemble. Mr. E. O. Leech, Director of the Mint, and our highest authority on the question of coinage, explains the causes of the extraordinary decline in the price of silver in recent years, going thoroughly over the whole subject of the relation of silver to gold since the record of the ratio has been kept. Mr. Leech is in favor of international bimetallism, and makes an argument to show that this is the only solution of the silver problem. Mr. John B. Moore, who was assistant secretary of state under Mr. Bayard and Mr. Blaine, and is now professor of international law at Columbia College, New York, explains a needed reform in naturalization; for it is in naturalization rather than immigration that the real problem is presented by the coming of European people to our shores. He shows that it is in the power of Congress to work a radical reform in this matter. Another article of a semipolitical nature is on the slaughter of railroad employees by Prof. Henry C. Adams, statistician of the interstate Commerce Commission. The startling number of deaths and accidents to railroad employees might in a large measure be prevented by the requirement by the National Government that a uniform system of couplers be adopted by all railroads. The record of deaths to this class of employees now is simply appalling. This number also presents an article of unusual interest, viz., the introduction, by Dr. Wier Mitchell, of a new poet of great power—Mr. Charles L. Moore, of Philadelphia.

Licensing Engineers.

The question of licensing engineers is being so agitated in every state in the Union that within a short time, for the protection of human lives, it will be impossible for any one entrusted with steam to hold or secure a situation without passing a rigid examination and obtaining a license. Stephenson's Illustrated Practical Test has been published to aid engineers preparing to pass such examination, and as it embraces all the questions asked on the Boiler, Pump, Engine, Dynamo, Corliss Engine &c., it has already met with such a demand that it is now in its fourth edition. This work, which costs only one dollar, can be obtained of the publisher, Walter G. Kraft, 70 La Salle Street, Chicago.

The next number of Harper's Weekly, published June 8th, will be especially attractive for the timeliness of many of its articles and illustrations. The Republican National Convention at Minneapolis will be fully illustrated, with a double-page view of the hall and a portrait of Hon. J. S. Clarkson, chairman of the National Committee. There will be a front-page illustration apropos of the Commencement at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, drawn by R. F. Zogbaum. The recent floods at Sioux City, Iowa, will be graphically illustrated. Richard Harding Davis will contribute another of his characteristic articles, on the West, entitled "The Heart of the Great Divide," which will be copiously and handsomely illustrated.

The Morenci Observer has shown a commendable stroke of enterprise and has interviewed the 'oldest inhabitant,' who declares by the record that in 1807 it rained every day, excepting one-half day, from the first of May until July Fourth, when it snowed. "Let it be so recorded"—that is, until the next oldest inhabitant is interviewed.

The Band Reunion.

A citizens' meeting was called last evening to talk up the project of the band reunion, to be held in Tecumseh on the 25th day of August next. There was a very favorable feeling manifested and the sentiment was to proceed with the necessary preliminary work at once.

The following committee of twelve was appointed to have general charge of the arrangements with power to appoint sub-committees. J. D. Shull was chosen chairman and C. F. Field, Sec'y. Three sub-committees were selected and the finance committee was instructed to proceed with a canvass at once. Adjourned subject to call of the President and Secretary.

Gen. Com.—A. E. Kennedy, J. D. Shull, C. F. Patterson, C. F. Field, T. C. Harris, S. C. Stacy, L. P. Tribou, B. J. Garlinghouse, Fred Rosecrans, J. R. Hosmer, Will B. Hayden, W. C. Burridge.

Printing and Advertising—C. F. Field, B. J. Garlinghouse, S. C. Stacy.

Refreshments—L. P. Tribou, Will Hayden, Fred Rosecrans, J. R. Hosmer.

Finance—T. C. Harris, C. F. Patterson, A. E. Kennedy.

The Tecumseh Schools.

The teachers for the coming year have all been engaged. Three vacancies occur in last year's list, and one additional teacher has been employed, making four new teachers in next years list—Misses Gray, Burt, Morse and Wiley. The west second floor room of the Central, hitherto used as the Superintendent's office, will be converted into two rooms, which will provide for the additional teacher. Below is the list in full:

L. M. Kellogg, Superintendent.

High School—Flora H. Hartbeck, Antoinette E. Latson, Margaret C. Gray.

Grammar Department—Alice S. Wimple, Flora E. Burt, Nannie Kyle, Josie Ross.

Primary Grades—Minnie Jones, Myra C. Chase, Anna H. Morse, Mabel Wiley, Edna McClue, Carrie O. Millspaugh.

Music—Dora R. Grayson.

"What Shall the Ratio be?" The question that will engage the forthcoming International Conference, will be discussed in the July number of the North American Review by Senator Stewart of Nevada, Representative Wm. H. Springer of Illinois, Senator H. C. Hansbrough of North Dakota, Representative R. P. Bland of Missouri, and Representative John Dalzell of Pennsylvania.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, June 5th, '92, the C. J. & M. Ry., will run a special low rate excursion to Devils Lake and return. Trains leave Tecumseh at 8:44 a. m. standard time; returning arrives at Tecumseh 5:35 p. m. Fare 40 cents for the round trip.

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, G. P. A.
B. J. SLATER, Agent.

Buy Dullam's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orr's.

VERY MUCH SURPRISED.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle.

Signed, A. B. SNELL.
Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1891.
For sale by Jno. Orr.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St. N. Y.

AN OPPORTUNITY

IS NOW GIVEN

Children and Persons of Small Means

In Tecumseh and Vicinity

To avail themselves of the advantages of the

NICKEL SAVINGS STAMP SYSTEM

recently introduced by the

Lenawee County Savings Bank

AT ADRIAN.

An Agency has been established with C. A. WRIGHT & CO. the Druggists, who will furnish upon application, Books descriptive of the system

SUMMER HATS

STRAW HATS,
SOFT HATS,
STIFF HATS.

For Men and Boys—All Styles and Qualities.

Hot Weather Clothing An Endless Variety of Styles and Qualities.

Cassimere Suits in All the Latest Styles and Colors for Men, Boys, and Children.

THE LARGEST LINE AND LOWEST PRICES AT

STRONG & McNAIR'S

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS

I will sell your choice of my extensive line of

Hanging Lamps

at cost. I can show you the best assortment of

HAVILAND CHINA,

plain and decorated patterns, in dinner and tea sets, also in fancy pieces. Decorated English porcelain in 12 different patterns, and in sets to suit. A fine English decorated chamber set at the very low price of $2.90 for 10 piece set; $4.90 for 12 piece set.

My stock of Fancy Groceries is complete. Our customers say we have the best 50c tea in town. Come and get sample and see for yourself. Will not be undersold.

JAMES LOWRY.

We have never had such a fine array of harvest machines to show farmers as this season. Every one shows inventive skill, strength and symmetry derived from the touch of

WALTER A. WOOD.

The Wood machines, as made for 1892, are winning crowds of new friends. Examine the new chain-drive, and balance-reel, on the Wood harvester. Examine the new spring lift and the new axle extension on the Wood mowers. Examine the Wood hand-dump rakes, virtually self-dumping.

REASONS WHY

FARMERS SHOULD BUY

Walter A. Wood Harvest Machines

BECAUSE they are light of draft.
BECAUSE they are easily operated.
BECAUSE they are simple in construction.
BECAUSE they are THE WALTER A. WOOD.
BECAUSE they have a world-wide reputation.
BECAUSE with care they will last a life time.
BECAUSE great care is taken in their manufacture.
BECAUSE they do not require the aid of an expert.
BECAUSE they contain all the latest improvements.
BECAUSE they can be operated by man, woman or child.
BECAUSE they are made of the best and strongest materials.

M. E. CONKLIN, Agent.

Headquarters at D. L. Whitenack's Hardware.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DRESSMAKING.—Mrs Waldron and daughter, Mrs. Harris, can be found at their home ready to wait upon the ladies in the line of dressmaking. Give them an opportunity to do your work. Residence two blocks north of Presbyterian church.

LOST—Last Monday on Chicago street a pocket case. Owner can recover it by proving property and paying charges at the Herald office.

HAIRDRESSING. Madame Grimm, hairdresser, of Detroit, is at Mrs. Gamble's.—Switches a specialty and has for sale all styles of hair ornaments. Prices very reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. 1w

WANTED a few old umbrellas and parasols. P. J. WELLING.

ATTENTION FARMERS.—Before buying a mower see the Johnston, the best mower in the market. For sale by GEO. HOLLOWAY, Holloway.

FOR SALE.—12 horse power Engine and boiler for sale cheap if taken at once. For power engine running at Heesen Bros. & Co. shop. HEESEN BROS. & CO.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—The old M. E parsonage on Pearl street. A good house and good location. For price and terms of sale call at the premises. S. WHITTIER. 6t

FOR SALE OR RENT.—A brick house and two or six of land on Adrian road, south of the Quaker meeting house, good bargain to the right parties. Inquire at J. S. Kinney's furniture store, Tecumseh.

FOR SALE OR RENT—My place of fifteen acres, located in Brownville on Burch street. Will rent on long time and very easy payments. For particulars enquire of James Kingan, near the premises. GILES CORNER. 6m1 st

GINSANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, Tecumseh.

ASTONISHING.—Any young man or young lady, meaning business, can learn of something of practical value to him by enclosing a stamp at once—don't wait—to C. A. SHARP, Adrian, Mich.

SLAYTON'S ODOMETER.—"A Customer from Ontonagon, Mich., writes A. W. Slayton: 'I have used your Odometer a year, am much pleased and want more of them.' These machines are now in use in nineteen states. They tell how many miles you or others drive your horse. Address, A. W. SLAYTON, Tecumseh, Mich. Agents Wanted.

STRAYED.—From my premises in Ridgeway on Monday, June 20th, a dark brown horse, 7 years old, branded on left shoulder, and a suitable reward will be suitably rewarded by notifying the undersigned. WM. UNDERWOOD. Ridgeway.

TECUMSEH HERALD.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JUNE 23, 1892.

Local and Miscellaneous

Hudson has decided to celebrate the Fourth.

Blissfield has decided to celebrate the Fourth.

The Adrian Maccabees will celebrate the Fourth at Clinton.

W. S. Temple made a business trip last week to Benton Harbor.

A revised time card of the Mackinaw road appears in to-days paper.

W. H. Smith has begun the erection of a new house on Logan street.

A fine entertainment course has been secured for next winter through Fred Adam's lecture bureau.

Raisin Valley Seminary Commencement to-morrow, Friday, at ten o'clock.

Clinton's celebration bids fair to be a success. Tecumseh folks should turn out and help swell the throng.

Tecumseh's good luck still clings to her. Uncle Tom's Cabin tent show will visit this town to-morrow.

W. G. Burridge and Scove Walker went to Chicago Monday night, via the Wabash, to attend the big convention.

The Table Company has recently closed a contract to manufacture $20.000 worth of tables for a Grand Rapids firm.

Prof. Skinner arrived in town Tuesday, having come to see about the band reunion. He will remain here till to-morrow.

The water in Adrian used to supply locomotives of the Lake Shore is filtered. The water used for drinking purposes is in the natural state.

The Alumni Reunion will be held at the Lilley House to-morrow evening. An excellent program has been prepared and there will doubtless be a large attendance.

Mrs. Zelinda DeMott came out to attend the funeral of John Richards last week, and will spend two or three weeks with her Tecumseh and Raisin friends before returning.

The band reunion should not be allowed to drop out. Tecumseh was chosen as the place of meeting and it can be retained here if our citizens take hold and get ready for its accommodation, but it will not run itself.

Levi Halsted, an old resident of this village, died last week at the advanced age of 79 years. The funeral was held on Thursday forenoon, Rev. J. Phelps officiating. The deceased left but one surviving child, Mrs. Geo. Snell.

The pupils in the West Branch, who have neither been absent nor tardy during the year are as follows: Fourth grade, Cuyler North; third grade, Alta Powell, Bert O'Hara; second grade, Edith Elliot, Robbie Rogers, Bert Mills.

David Woodward, of Clinton, says that the apple crop has been seriously injured by an insect that was probably deposited in the tree last fall. He says that he will probably have as large a crop of peaches as he had two years ago.

Hudson Creamery made last week 6,654 pounds of butter, and will make over 7,500 pounds this week. One driver, Byron Palmer, brought in for the first two days of this week cream to the amount of 417 lbs. of butter, an increase of 129 lbs. over last week, and 98 lbs. over same time last year.—Hudson Post.

Gen. Fred. B. Wood was in town last Friday on legal business.

What is being done to prepare for the the band reunion in August?

Graduating exercises of the Class of '92 at the Opera House this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Adams will return to their Delaware home next Monday.

The Union Picnic at Sand Lake last Saturday was badly demoralized by the big shower.

Miss Maud Emmett, of McDonough, Del., is visiting Tecumseh friends for a few weeks.

Our Britton correspondent must have gone off to get married, as we have received no budget this week.

The Poverty Social at Britton, has been postponed on account of there being a show Saturday evening, June 25.

The adjourned boom sale at Adrian came off last week, and was a complete success. One hundred and ten lots were disposed of.

There will be a meeting of the Young Men's Band Association on Friday evening of this week, June 24th. By order Prof. C. F. Skinner.

The storm last Saturday afternoon was the heaviest thunder shower of the year thus far. Two inches of water fell within one hour's time.

Mr. Geo. Keyser and his daughter, Mrs. Nate Clark, went to Cleveland Saturday morning to attend the funeral of her husband who was killed in a railroad accident.

Prof. Fred Boyd is in town this week to attend the commencement exercises and Alumni reunion. His school at Michigamme closed last week. He has been engaged there for another year.

Dr. H. B. Catlin, of Grand Rapids, was in town over Sunday, and his many friends here were pleased to greet him. He is building up a fine practice at Grand Rapids, and is evidently enjoying life.

James G. Blaine, wife and daughter, passed through Adrian last Monday morning, on the fast Lake Shore limited. They were en route to Chicago, the death of their son Emmons Blaine calling them there.

The People of East Macon raised at their last social, held in the Reformed church, the neat little sum of $28.00, net, for the benefit of their Sabbath school. An enjoyable evening was spent; plenty of good cheer.

Doctor: The fact is, you're overworked. You must take rest for a few weeks. What you want is absolute quiet. Merchant: "Well, I can't go away just now. Let me see. By hokey! I've got it, I'll stop advertising.—Ex.

Loren Hodge, an orphan boy about 16 years old, living at Joseph Wright's, near Cone, hung himself Sunday P. M., to a rafter in a small barn. The body was found one A. M. Monday. Cause unknown. He was at church in the forenoon.

The following attractions will make up the entertainment course for 1892-3;
New York Philharmonic Club.
Rev. Russell Conwell.
Leland T. Powers.
New York English Ballad Company.
George W. Cable.
The Marshall P. Wilder Co.

The statement in last week's issue that this is commencement week at Ann Arbor was erroneous. That is the fact as regards the Normal School at Ypsilanti, but next week will complete the college year at Ann Arbor, Thursday, June 30th, being commencement day.

A. E. Kennedy has put another counter into his store, on the west side, and intends to fix up a soda fountain. He will dispense soda and mineral water and other soft drinks, during the heated term. He has a good location for that kind of business and will doubtless get his share of the custom.

The Children's Day services at the M. E. church last Sunday morning were very elaborate and unique. A special service was presented entitled, the "League of Honor," consisting of music, recitations and responsive readings. The church was neatly decorated with potted plants and flowers and the exercises throughout were listened to with marked interest.

The Opera House was well-filled Sunday afternoon, notwithstanding the sultry state of the weather, to welcome John R. Clark. He was at his best and gave his auditors a splendid talk on "Memories of the Temperance Reform." He never appeared to better advantage before at Tecumseh. He left Monday, making altogether too short a visit to satisfy his old friends here, but he has promised to return in September.

The baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class was delivered by Rev. David J. Lewis last Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church. He delivered a very strong discourse which was received with much favor by a congregation that filled the church. The central idea of the sermon was that Labor is the chief requisite to success in all walks of life. This idea was elaborated and embellished into a fine address.

Tecumseh must wake up at once, if she wishes the band reunion. We should not let this opportunity slip. It will draw a larger crowd than six Fourth of July celebrations. At least forty bands would be likely to attend the band reunion this year, and the affair would draw an immense crowd of people. Tecumseh has been chosen as the place of meeting, but preparations must be commenced at once or it will go else where.

M. P. Brown was a Clinton visitor Monday.

Dr. H. L. Stewart was at home Sunday and Monday.

Frank Benedict, of Detroit, was at home over Sunday.

Avery & Co. have two new elegant show cases in their store.

Lew Waldron is putting up a windmill at Britton this week.

Miss Katie Tallman attended commencement at Jackson last week.

Remember the Alumni Reunion at the Lilley House to-morrow evening.

Supervisor James is in Detroit this week taking treatment for his eyes.

The interior of A. E. Kennedy's store is receiving a fresh coat of paint.

Miss Mabel Jenkins returned home last week from a lengthy visit at Grand Rapids.

Prof. and Mrs. L. M. Kellogg expect to spend the summer at the State Agricultural college at Lansing.

The Young Men's Band turned out last evening and gave the citizens a serenade on Chicago street.

C. K. Spafford, of Manitou, who has been visiting his brother George for the past week, returned home yesterday.

During the big thunder storm last Saturday, lightning struck the steeple of the Baptist Church in Clinton, doing considerable damage.

Miss Mamie Crowell, of Cleveland, arrived home last Monday, to spend her vacation in Michigan style and enjoy a respite from her school work.

The young people of South Macon, will give a bouquet social at the Grange Hall, Friday evening, July 8th, 1892. Ice cream, bananas, and cake will be served for refreshments.

Henry Wilson is gathering some enormous strawberries on his patch this year. A basket is on exhibition at Geo. Moritt's store that contains just 24 berries to a full quart. They are the Sharpless variety.

At this season of the year "restless energy" is laying plans for an outing. We observed two ladies and a young girl studying Mokawk German and conclude they intend to join the G. A. R. excursion to Washington, and visit the beautiful farms in Mohawk Valley.

Vosburg's triple Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. will exhibit in Tecumseh to-morrow evening. It will be a tent show, with accommodations for a big crowd. It has the reputation of being the best Uncle Tom's troupe now traveling, and will doubtless draw a good audience.

The resolution of sympathy to James G. Blaine, which the Democratic convention adopted Tuesday, was a kindly and gracious act, reflecting the highest honor upon the convention. Even in the bitterness of political strife the heart is touched with sympathy for the afflictions incident to our common humanity.

H. W. Snow has a good scheme for bicyclists. A cinder track to be built under a roof 300 feet long, the whole to be sided with canvass. On the interior seating capacity, band stand and judges stand. Concert once a week, bicycle races, etc. Yearly fee $5, for training track. Single admission 25 cents for wheels, 10 cents for spectators. It's a feasible plan, and may be started. Mr. Snow is the right man to run it.—Adrian Times.

There are ten members of the High School graduating class, five young ladies and five young gentlemen, who will receive diplomas in the following courses:

English Course—Jennie McCoy, Franc G. Snell, Willis E. Finch, M. Maude Hodges, Willis R. Harton, Garland R. Gillespie.

Latin Scientific Course—W. J. Morse.

English German Course—Guy J. Davidson, Lulu E. Garlinghouse, E. Grace Gillespie.

While plowing in the orchard, on his farm near the mouth of the Little Raisin, the forepart of the week, Adam Stickrath unearthed a lot of bones, which proved to be the skull and bones of two human beings. They indicated that they had lain in the ground for a great many years, being considerably decayed and portions would crumble easily, and they indicated that they were of persons of full grown age. They were brought to town and are at Dr. Jackson's store.—Dundee Reporter.

Below is the program for the Graduating Exercises at Raisin Valley Seminary, to-morrow:

Invocation.
Instrumental solo—Lura Chase.
"A Taste for Literature"—Susie Clark, Carthage, Ind.
"The Election of U. S. Senators by the People"—Wm. O. Beal, Rollin, Mich.
Vocal Solo—Mrs. R. Winchip.
"Every Choice is for Eternity"—Nellie M. Bowerman, Adrian, Mich.
Presentation of diplomas.
Instrumental Solo—Lura Chase.
Class Address—Prof. Robert L. Kelley, Principal.
Vocal Solo—Mrs. R. Winchip.
Benediction.

The following pupils of the East Branch have not been absent or tardy during the year: Sixth grade, Mortimer Crowell, Clare Brazee, Olive Chidester, Edith Gray, Leon Burlingame, Ernie Elliott, Daisy Ingraham, Earle Slayton, Floyd Williamson, Lester Heesen and Mary Hastings. Fifth grade, Anna McClure, Bion Hodges, Metta McKinney Harry Rosecrans, Floyd Heesen, Chas. Waring, Dena Anderson, Frankie Doke, Fred Burrell, Maude Parks, and Eva Vandercook. Fourth grade, Charlie Wilson. Primary grades, Eddie Rowland, Oscar Hooton, Nina Owen, and Ada Keeney.

—$60.00 IN CASH PRIZES.—Send ten cents for the June number of the "Literary Century" giving full particulars. Address THE LITERARY CENTURY, Ann Arbor, Mich.

—Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention. GEO. MATTESON

—I have a very complete stock of Hay Tools, Rakes, Tedders, Racks, Carriers, Forks, Rope, Pulleys, etc., and prices right. C. A. SLAYTON.

—You will make no mistake in using Heck's Pride of the Farm Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands. HECK & SON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call at C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—90,000 Star-A-1s shingle for sale at $3.25 per M. O. P. BILLS.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—You will need to work your corn well this year and should have the best cultivator. You can find them at C. A. SLAYTONS.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch. Give me a call. GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds. CITY BAKERY.

—When looking for a Hay Rack see the "Avery." It is complete as a Hay or stock Rack having a bridge to load stock or heavy articles. It makes a complete double wagon box with matched bottom and all changes are easily made. SLAYTON & AVERY.

—Large assortment of Chenille Curtains in New Colors, at low prices, at Stebbins' Furniture Rooms, Adrian.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains. NEW LAUNDRY.

—Tintypes taken at Teeple's Gallery.

—Call and see the New Styles in Oak Chamber Suits at Stebbins'.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices. CITY BAKERY

—New Patterns in Open Stock Decorated Dinner Ware at Stebbins Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice. WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Life size Crayon Portraits given away with every dozen Cabinets, AT TEEPLES' GALLERY.

—Haviland & Co's Decorated China Dinner sets, at very low prices, at Stebbins' Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town. CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Large stock of Ladies Desks, Music Cabinets, Book Cases and Secretaries at low prices at Stebbins' Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—$8.00 gets a life size Crayon portrait and one dozen fine enamel finish cabinet photos, at Teeple's Gallery.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—New styles in Sideboards, Dining Tables and Chairs at Stebbins' Furniture Rooms, Adrian.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial. BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

Warm Weather Has Come

I Have Added to my Stock a Large Invoice of

Ladies' Hand-Sewed Shoes,

Ladies' Walking Shoes.

Men's and Boys Fine Shoes,

Mens' Working Shoes,

Misses' and Children's Shoes.

In Endless Variety and Suited for Warm Weather Wear.

Summer Coats and Vests

And Summer Outing Shirts. A Large and very Handsome Assortment. Come to headquarters to get your Warm-Weather Clothing.

Yours for Trade,

Alva Spayde.

To Save Money, so as to go Outing later, go to Harris & Hiteshue's for Summer Dress Goods, Walking Shoes, Slippers, and Underwear of all kinds. An Elegant Stock always on hand.

HARRIS & HITESHUE.

Do You Think of Painting This Season?

We Can Show You The Most Handsome And Best Paints Made.

Call and get Prices and Sample Card of Colors.

C. A. Wright.

Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.

Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.

Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.

Satterthwaite Bros.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WIGHTMAN, Attorney at Law Successor to F. B. Wood, Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD. ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Fred'k B. Wood. John E. Bird, Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLEMENT E. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.

WEAVER & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Practice in all the Courts. Masonic Temple. ADRIAN, MICH.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—Being now located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to calls in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. G. W. GOODRICH, V. S.

C. C. SLAIGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON. A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College. Residence, 1½ miles east of Pehlington's Corners. All calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY. J. H. EMERY, Proprietor, Adrian, Michigan.

This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

RICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL. Late The Madison. Cor. of Jefferson Avenue and Randolph street. Detroit, Mich.

JAY RICE, Prop'r. [illegible]

CENTRALLY LOCATED. Three lines of street cars pass the door. RATES—Meals 25c. Per day, $1.25 and $1.50 Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 14 I. O. O. F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. E. Anderson's store, Chicago street. WM. GRAY, N. G. R. HOLDWAY, Cor. Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV J. DEHAAN, Pastor.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching in the forenoon at 10:30; Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome.

Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Young People's Meeting. Come one, come all and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—

Special attention given to ladies' and childrens' hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.

—THREE CHAIRS—

Landgraf building. Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN

HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN PAINTING AND PAPER HANCING

Call on THEO. P. WOOD, 77 S. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first-class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of

Railroad Street Meat Market!

Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.

GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN

Drugs, : Paints : Oils AND VARNISHES.

N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded. At the Old Corner Store, RIDGEWAY, MICH. NOV

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY

MANUFACTURER OF And Dealer in

Carriages, Buggies,

SURRIES. SPRING WAGONS.

ROADCARTS

SULKIES. CUTTERS. ETC.

Pearl Street, TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER, SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.

LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth, Crowns, Filling and Building-Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

B. F. STEINHOFF'S Dental Rooms.

OVER BAKER & HALL'S.

GAS FOR EXTRACTING

LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co.'s Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.

EXAMINATION FREE:

Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.

Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.

Remember, office over Avery & Co.'s.

W. D. REED, D. D. S.

Will be at Ossted every Wednesday.

Makes the Dirt Fly

—Pearline. It does it about as easily as a horse can hoist his heels. It does it with perfect safety to everything that may be washed or cleaned. It is needed in the laundry, the kitchen, the parlor, and the bath. Pearline does what soap leaves undone; when you know what it does, you will know what to do.

Beware of imitations which are being peddled from door to door. First quality goods do not require such desperate methods to sell them. PEARLINE sells on its merits, and is manufactured only by JAMES PYLE, New York. 296

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN, OR WOMAN,

of intelligence and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight and who has Lost the Most Precious Possession on Earth, viz. GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT need a "SECOND TELLING" to induce to become a purchaser.

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC BELTS & APPLIANCES.

Do you know why Because it is found to be seen that the TRUTH ONCE TOLD is enough. The Surprising Promptness with which thousands of people respond to our announcements and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods Wherever introduced conclusively prove that true merit always is recognized and the quality of Magic Faces can be "sent" emphatically our statement: Is the Button—the Public Press it, and

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES

"Do the Rest."

The extent of Press and the success of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" is most satisfactorily shown by the marvelous growth of our business throughout the country.

Repeated and increasing demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming in from all parts of the country with positive acknowledgements that so much comfort for $1.00 the price is like buying coal Dollar for ten cents.

The Delicate Organism of Woman subjects her to many peculiar [illegible] unfortunate misery. The extreme sensitiveness of her Nervous System very frequently requires artificial stimulus. The Gregg Electric Belt and other Appliances supply this as nothing else can.

The Rugged Constitution of Man, when once broken, becomes prone in the extreme, from which there is almost no recovery without assistance. The Gregg Electric Belts and Appliances in cases of this kind have honestly won the title of Kings of Remedies.

Rheumatism [illegible] Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Prostration, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Impotency, Spinal Weakness, Kidney Affections and many other diseases of Men and Women [illegible] naturally [illegible] to our Electric Appliances. We challenge the world to produce their equals. We challenge to forfeit [illegible] the Electric Goods [illegible] Electricity rapidly [illegible] and which we [illegible] Foot Warmer, Belts, Appliances, Etc., Etc.

THE GREGG ELECTRIC CURE CO,

Suite 1 and 2 Van Buren Building Chicago, Ill. Mention this paper. J 14-tf.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS IS A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS ONE OF OUR NEW

SEAMSTRESS SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS

National Sewing Machine Co.

SUCCESSORS TO JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.,

BELVIDERE, ILL.

Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

FAT FOLKS REDUCED From 15 to 25 lbs. per month by harmless herbal remedies that do not injure the health or interfere with one's business or pleasure. It builds up and improves the general health, clears the skin and beautifies the complexion. No wrinkles or flabbiness follow this treatment. Endorsed by physicians and leading society ladies. PATIENTS TREATED BY MAIL. CONFIDENTIAL. Harmless. No Starving. Send 6 cents in stamps for particulars to DR. O. W. F. SNYDER, McVICKER'S THEATER, CHICAGO, ILL.

DEATH'S HEAVY HAND.

It Is Felt Once More in the Family of James G. Blaine.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Emmons Blaine, the second son of James G. Blaine, is dead. He passed away at 11:16 Saturday morning at the residence of his wife's mother, Mrs. Cyrus McCormick, No. 135 Rush street. His death was caused by septicæmia, or blood-poisoning, which set in after two days' illness from a bowel complaint. It came in the midst of a seemingly peaceful sleep, and so sudden and unexpected was it that Mrs. Emmons Blaine and the attending physician were the only ones in the room at the time.

For an hour members of the family plied the wires in the attempt to break the news to ex-Secretary Blaine. But for some time Mr. Blaine could not be found. Late in the afternoon he was reached by telegraph at Bar Harbor, and with Mrs. Blaine and Miss Harriett Blaine started at once for Chicago.

Sorrow has borne heavily upon the Blaine family. Two years and a half ago there were six adult children, and now there are only left James G. Blaine Jr., Mrs. Walter Damrosch and Miss Harriet Blaine. In January, 1890, Mr. Walker Blaine died in Washington of pneumonia. Mrs. Coppinger died three weeks later, and on Saturday death robbed the illustrious parents of another son.

[The deceased was 35 years old. He was educated at Harvard and also took a post graduate course in law. He was formerly assistant general freight agent of the Northwestern road. This position he resigned in December, 1887, to accept that of general freight and passenger [illegible] Milwaukee, Santa Fe and California road, which was then being built between Chicago and Kansas City. In the spring of 1888 this road was reincorporated by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and Mr. Blaine was called to the vice presidency of the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh road, which was controlled by Mr. Elkins and in which his father then secretary of state, had a financial interest. This road was operated for the purpose of shipping coal from the Cumberland and other valleys and Mr. Blaine's headquarters were at Baltimore.]

While there Mr. Blaine married Miss Anita McCormick of Chicago, daughter of the late Cyrus McCormick. The wedding took place at Richland Springs, N. Y., September 29, 1888. It was celebrated at the country home of Mrs. McCormick. After the birth of their son, McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine returned to Chicago and have since occupied the McCormick residence, No. 135 Rush street.

With the change in residence came a change in position and Mr. Blaine was made general western manager of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad system. Six weeks ago he was elected president of the Chicago Shipbuilding Company, which was organized by the Illinois Steel Company, and he had scarcely entered upon the duties of his new office.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEES.

Candidates Who Will Strive to Secure Seats in the Lower House.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 17.—The republicans of the Tenth congressional district met here yesterday and nominated Judge William Johnson, of Valparaiso, for congress.

BURLINGTON, Ia., June 17.—The republicans of the First district met here yesterday. There being no opposition, ex-Gov. Gear was nominated for congress by acclamation.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 17.—The democrats of the Ninth congressional district met here yesterday and renominated W. T. Crawford for congress.

FREEPORT, Ill., June 18.—The prohibitionists of the Sixth congressional district held a convention here yesterday and nominated R. J. Hazelett, of Rockford, for congress.

CLINTON, Ill., June 20.—The democrats of the Fourteenth congressional district held their convention here Saturday. Congressman Scott was renominated.

FIVE CHILDREN DROWNED.

An Unfortunate Affair at Neville Island, Near Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 18.—Five children, ranging from 12 to 15 years of age, were drowned in the Ohio river at Neville island, 12 miles below this city, at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Their names were Paul, Rudolph, Edith and Maggie Pittock and Edith Richardson. It appears that the children drove a buggy into the river to wash. In some manner the vehicle was overturned and the children were thrown into the river. The two boys made heroic efforts to save their companions, but they were unequal to the task, and before assistance reached them they had all sunk beneath the waves.

Bunker Hill Day in Boston.

BOSTON, June 18.—Friday was Bunker Hill day and was duly observed. Banks and exchanges closed, and business generally was suspended. Even some of the daily papers omitted their regular editions. Salutes were fired and a great procession wound its way in the morning to Charlestown, the scene of the battle. An immense military parade took place in the afternoon, and in the evening fireworks illumined the sky. Regattas and ball games were numerous.

Three Men Killed.

BURLINGTON, Ia., June 20.—A work train on the Keithsburg branch of the Burlington road ran into a drove of cattle three miles north of Gladstone and the engine and cars were ditched. Engineer Robinson and three laborers were killed. It is reported that over twenty laborers were more or less injured.

Lightning Strikes a Schoolhouse.

NEWARK O., June 18.—The Burnside schoolhouse, west of Alexandria, was struck by lightning, killing Alice McKinney, a 14-year-old girl, and seriously injuring five other scholars, some fatally. The building was badly shattered. The storm was severe, doing considerable damage.

National Banks.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The report of the condition of national banks in the United States at the close of business to-day shows the resources to be $3,479,035,128. The liabilities include $692,232,158 of paid-in capital stock and individual deposits of $1,743,787,545.

West Virginia's Third Party.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 17.—The people's party in convention in this city yesterday nominated S. A. Houston for governor. James Bashall was nominated for congress in the First district and N. W. Fitzgerald in the Second.

MINOR NEWS ITEMS.

For the Week Ending June 20.

E. S. Lacey, comptroller of the currency, has resigned.

Grasshoppers were destroying many cotton fields in Mississippi.

Gen. Edward B. Grubb, United States minister to Spain, arrived in New York.

Louis Cordero has been elected president of Ecuador by the national congress.

J. Marsh & Co., private bankers and merchants at Vermont, Ill., failed for $100,000.

M. M. Spangler's mail house at Cleveland, O., was wiped out by fire, the loss being $100,000.

The 80th birthday of Harriet Beecher Stowe was celebrated at her home in Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. Sarah Rothschild, who on May 22 celebrated in Chicago her 104th birthday, is dead.

William Henry Painton, the murderer of Mrs. Michael Strominger, was hanged at York, Pa.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stilgenbauer died at the home of her son near Columbus, Ind., aged 100 years.

A part of the Kentucky Malting Company's plant at Louisville was burned, the loss being $135,000.

Four Italians were lynched near Sedro, Wash., for murdering John A. Nelson, a mine foreman.

Two women have been elected to fellowships at Yale university, and they are the first to receive this distinction.

The Master Plumbers' association in session at Washington elected Jeremiah Sheehan, of St. Louis, as president.

The Germans were routed and lost 100 men in a battle with natives in the Moshi territory, near Kilimanjaro, Africa.

The New Jersey Farmers' Alliance in convention at New Brunswick elected delegates to the national convention in Omaha.

It has been decided by a judge at Mount Vernon, Ill., that the women members of the school board could not hold office.

At their convention in Cleveland the National Association of Dancing Masters elected E. W. Masters, of Boston, as president.

Enoch Morrison, a negro, shot and seriously injured two negro women on a train near San Francisco and then killed himself.

Mrs. Ella Dayson, wife of Thomas Dayson, a lumberman at Ford's Mills, N. Y., gave birth to quadruplets—three girls and a boy.

John Johnson, one of the negroes implicated in the murder of Merchant Colquhoun at McComb City, Miss., was hanged by a mob.

The grand lodge of masons of Nebraska, in session at Omaha, decided that no liquor dealer could become a member of the order.

Millard F. Brown got a judgment for $7,500 in the United States court at Springfield, Ill., against the Big Four railway for personal injuries.

A boat capsized on Lake St. Clair near Detroit, Mich., and Lizzie Mogg, aged 18, Carrie Bieber, aged 19, and Henry Fiehe, aged 22, were drowned.

In Germany a society has been organized to placate France for the loss of Alsace-Lorraine by a promise of bestowing Egypt upon the republic.

William J. Lovell, of Ipava, Ill., has entered suit against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad for $15,000 damages for injuries received in a collision.

Judge J. B. Morgan, ex-congressman from Mississippi, was killed in the cars near Horn Lake by Henry Foster, a lawyer. The trouble was over a lawsuit.

Monroe Barbridge, of Marblehead, Ill., left a loaded shotgun under the bed. His 3-year-old child found it, pulled it toward him and was killed instantly.

Peter Marrigold was killed by lightning in his home at Traverse City, Mich. He was sleeping with his child in his arms but neither the babe nor his wife were hurt.

The North Carolina people's party in convention at Raleigh made the following congressional nominations: Second district, E. A. Thorne, Fifth, W. R. Lindsay; Eighth, R. L. Patton.

Ten Thousand in Line.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 17.—Ten thousand men marched in the parade in honor of the reunion of the Society of the Army of the Potomac. The procession was composed of G. A. R. posts, the Patriotic Sons of America and many kindred societies; uniformed odd fellows and Knights of Pythias; Italian, Polish and Hungarian uniformed organizations; the Irish Military union; the Catholic Total Abstinence and Pioneer societies. The city was elaborately decorated.

Given a Five-Year Term.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., June 18.—Michael K. Mills, "Prince Michael," was convicted Friday at Ann Arbor of debauching Bernice Bachei, aged 15 years, and sentenced to state prison for five years. Mills was at the head of a religious fanatical sect known as the House of Israel, which had the "flying roll" for a Bible. The girl was the daughter of two followers, and the father and mother both believe in the innocence of the prince.

Three Children Killed by Lightning.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 20.—Saturday afternoon three children—two sons and a daughter of John Hartman, residing near Sardis, O.—went out to pick berries. A storm came up and they sought shelter under a tree. A bolt of lightning struck the tree and the three children were killed.

Victims of an Explosion.

PARMLEYSVILLE, Ky., June 20.—Fifty persons were injured here last night by a terrible explosion. Lightning struck the general store of W. H. Ryan and two kegs of powder exploded, throwing a heavy iron safe through the roof and wounding all the occupants of the room, fifty in number. Some will die.

DR. FAY'S NEW TREATMENT FOR CONSUMPTION

Has been tested ten years on thousands of patients in the largest hospitals of America and Europe, and today is pronounced by the greatest medical authority to be the latest, safest and surest cure for Consumption and Lung Diseases yet known to the medical profession of the highest standing. Why do they say this? Because it cures more patients suffering with diseased Lungs than any other medicine or remedy yet discovered.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

READ WHAT IS SAID OF IT BY LEDING DRUGGISTS IN SOUTHERN MICHIGAN.

Uncle Wayback. Now wot's the use o' teachin' gals all these new-fangled studies? Wat good is this 'ere astronomy your're studyin'? City Niece. Why, pa, it's a delightful subject to talk about on moonlight evenings. We point out Venus and then the young man says something pretty, and then—see that ring?

Hendershot Is Recognized.

We clip the following from the Detroit Tribune of the 18th inst.

DURAND, Mich., Special Telegram, June 17.—At the reunion of the Eighth Michigan Infantry today at Bancroft, Mich., Robert Henry Hendershot was introduced by President Fox and all of the drummer boys of the regiment recognized him as the genuine drummer boy of the Rappahanneck. There was one man by the name of Longyear, from Mason, who was a drummer boy in Hendershot's regiment and who has been trying to straighten the story by writing him letters and having resolutions passed against him at every opportunity. He tried it at Bancroft today, but as soon as the comrades saw the drummer boy they recognized him as the boy who crossed the Rappahannock behind the pontoon boat at the battle of Fredericksburg on Dec. 11, 1862. Some of those who thought Hendershot a fraud at the encampment last August at Detroit have made speeches in the drummer boy's behalf. Major Hendershot drummed at the camp-fire to night and every member of the Eighth Michigan wished him God speed and success.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $13 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by traveling between Detroit and Cleveland, via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $2.25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making close connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlets. Address A. Ganz, G. P. A. Detroit & Cleveland Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

SYRUP of FIGS

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

ESTATE OF WILLIAM WRIGHT.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 1st day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard R. Robbins, Judge of Probate. In the matter of the estate of William Wright, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition duly verified, of Elizabeth Wright, widow of said deceased, praying for the probate of an instrument now on file in this court purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased and that administration of said estate may be granted to Joseph W. and Simon Gould, executors in said will named, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That Tuesday, the 5th day of July next, 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendancy of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD R. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

A True Copy.)
(A. E.) BABAGAR, Probate Register

WOMEN WHO DIE EARLY.

Many of our most beautiful and accomplished ladies die before they have reached the prime of life. Of those who live to middle age only one in a hundred is sound; the other one is ailing and ninety-nine are sufferers. Why is it? Self neglect. The shattered health can be restored; the home made happy and your life lengthened if you commence at once.

"Rose Buds" have been used for years in the private practice of one of the most eminent physicians of the age and the following diseases and distressing symptoms yield to them like magic: Ulceration, Congestion and Falling of the Womb, Ovarian Tumor, Dropsy of the Womb, Bearing Down Pains, Rupture at Childbirth and Miscarriages. One package of "Rose Buds" will make a new woman of you. (Leucorrhea or Whites are speedily cured by one application.) Price per package—one month's treatment—sent by mail post paid, securely sealed. THE LEVERETNE SPECIFIC CO., 24 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

"Ma, what is 'Eis coal' about in the papers?" asked little Johnny. "I'm sure I don't know, my son, is the miners go in swimming."

STRENGTH AND HEALTH.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If grippe has left you weak and weary, Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on the liver, stomach and kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c. at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Just the thing.
Oh how cheap.
Large size.
Low price.
You want it.

TRY IT.
ASK FOR IT,
RIGHT NOW.

JOLLY TAR PLUG CHEWING TOBACCO is the BEST CHEWING TOBACCO ever offered for the money—

LARGE PLUG LITTLE MONEY

Your dealer has it
JNO. FINZER & BRO'S., Louisville.

15 CENTS PER BOX. GUARANTEED.

HYA HEADACHE POWDERS

FOR SALE BY JOHN J. ORR.

THOS. S. SPRAGUE & SON, Attorneys and Solicitors of Patents. Unite States and foreign correspondence solicited. Instruction Pamphlet free. 25 WEST CONGRESS ST., DETROIT, Mich. Established 1856. PATENTS

FARMERS AND THRESHERMEN

Catalogue FREE.

All the Latest Improvements. Cushioned Gear Steel Tire, Return flue Boiler. ½ Fuel Saved. Traction, Plain or on Skids.

3,000 IN USE and never an explosion.

BUY THE NEW HUBER ENGINES.

ALL SIZES THRESHERS.

VICTOR HULLERS.

New Imperial Stackers.

G. C. POCKLINGTON,

Agent for southeastern Michigan.

State headquarters, R. Shettler, Lansing, Mich.

GILLETT'S

MAGIC YEAST

...ill make BETTER BREAD ...you have ever made before.

...D BREAD generally means POOR YEAST ...YEAST always means POOR BREAD

...the Owl and Moon. At your Grocer's.

The D. S. H. McLean Med. Co., St. Louis.

AND BLOOD PURIFIER

STRENGTHENING CORDIAL

DR. J. H. MCLEANS

OLD SORE AND YOUNG FOR VIGOR AND STRENGTH

THE CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN"

...tained a standard of excellence ...hanits of no superior.

...ntains every improvement that ...ative genius, skill and money can ...ive.

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

...se excellent Organs are celebrated ...ir volume, quality of tone, quick ...ns, variety of combination, artistic ...beauty in finish, perfect construc... ...king them the most attractive, ...ical and desirable organs in the ...for Homes, Schools, Churches, ...es and Societies.

...logues on application, FREE.

...go Cottage Organ Co.

223 WABASH AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.

...LES A NEW PAINLESS CERTAIN CURE, GIVES INSTANT ...FF AND LASTING CURE. NEVER RE... ...RNS. TO PROVE IT and to convince ...t it will promptly cure any case

CURED

...l, Internal, Bleeding, ...hing, we will send a ...PACKAGE FREE to any address. ...PREPARED DRUG CO., ...RTON, MICH. FREE

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

...ess of this Great Cough Cure is ...paralled in the history of medicine. ...ts are authorized to sell it on a pos... ...antee, that no other cure can suc... ...and. That it may become known, ...sands, at an enormous expense, are ...ng a Bottle Free into every home ...United States and Canada. If you have ...Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for ...If your child has the Croup, ...ng Cough, use it promptly, and relief ...If you have that insidious disease ...ption, use it. Ask your Druggist for ...SHILOH'S CURE. Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and ...If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, ...Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

...Hand, YOU DO THE REST

...complete practical course by MAIL ...ing positions in all parts of the ...Circulars free.

C. A. SHARP, STENOGRAPHER, ADRIAN, MICH.

THE CORDAGE TRUST.

Its Growth Since 1887—Its Complete Monopoly Under the Tariff—Prices and Profits.

Hemp and its substitutes, manila, sisal grass and jute, constitute the raw material of two important industries, those of cordage and bagging manufacture. The most important of these is the cordage industry, which comprises the production of all classes of ship and other cordage, rope and binding twine. It is seldom that these products are manufactured in separate establishments. Nearly all the materials used are imported, and the establishments in the industry are quite widely diversified throughout the country. A scheme to combine all these establishments into a gigantic trust would have been considered impossible several years ago. Now, however, after the people have become accustomed to the sight of trusts and combines, its successful accomplishment excites little comment.

The growth of the present cordage trust from the so-called association which loosely bound the manufacturers together previous to 1887, when the present trust was formed, has been so gradual that except among the interests directly affected it has excited but little interest.

Previous to October, 1887, the cordage manufacturers were in a combination or pool, the object of which was to fix prices. But, like other loose arrangements of this kind, the members were not slow to break the agreements made when they found it to their advantage to do so. Early in 1887 this pool fell to pieces of its own weight and an era of free competition followed till October, when the nucleus of the present cordage trust was formed. This nucleus was composed of the following concerns: Elizabethport Cordage Co. of New Jersey, and the Tucker & Carter Cordage Co., L. Waterbury & Co. and William Wall's Sons, all of Brooklyn.

The trust as thus constituted succeeded from time to time in uniting with it, by means of contracts or leases, six other companies situated in various parts of the country east of Ohio. At the time of its organization the chief object of the trust was to secure the economies arising from the purchase of its raw material on a large scale. From this was gradually evolved the idea of a control of the production and price of the finished product. This was the purpose for which the contracts or leases were made with the ten concerns in the trust. Under these contracts the different companies agreed to make secret competitive bids each year for the production of cordage. The trust agreed to furnish the material and to award the contracts for the year's production to the lowest bidders. Besides this the contracts bound the companies not to engage in production on their own account. This unique scheme contemplated a large increase in profits to be derived from economy in the purchase of material and from a considerable decrease in the cost of production, without any increase in the price of the product to the consumer. For a time it worked well, but internal dissensions soon broke out, for manufacturers who had bound themselves by contracts found little profit in keeping their plants idle for a year in case they were not successful in securing contracts by low bids.

It was these internal dissensions which induced the trust to secure a corporate charter and by purchase of the plants under contract to strengthen its power and increase its control over the production of cordage. When the trust secured its charter in October, 1890, it had contracts for the fee of the following companies, in addition to the four mentioned above: George C. Pooley & Sons, Buffalo; Xenia Twine and Cordage Co., Xenia, O.; J. Rinek's Sons, Easton, Pa., and the Akron Twine and Cordage Co., Akron, O. In addition to these it controlled by contract the following: Victoria Cordage Co., Dayton, Ky.; H. R. Lewis & Co., and Baumgardner, Woodward & Co., Philadelphia; the New York Cordage Co., New York; the Atlas Cordage Co., New Orleans, and Randall, Goodale & Co., Boston, Mass.

Having thus successfully accomplished its reorganization, the trust proceeded to take steps to acquire other properties. In 1891 it secured control of the eleven cordage factories in Canada, which gave it a complete monopoly of the industry there. At the same time the trust secured options on several of the outside establishments in this country, and in order to provide funds for the purchase of these it organized the Security Corporation of New Jersey, to which it turned over its options. It was agreed that this corporation should acquire a majority control of as many independent plants as possible and then lease them to the trust. The first move on the part of this annex to the trust was the negotiation of a mortgage for $6,000,000 on the properties already acquired and to be acquired. The trust then arranged a lease of these properties at an annual rental of $360,000 per year, being a payment of 6 per cent. per annum on the mortgage on the properties. By the terms of the lease the trust also agreed to make a sinking fund payment of $225,000 per year to be used in the payment of the $6,000,000 mortgage. By this means the trust will become absolute owners of the properties at the end of twenty years.

So far the plan has worked as successfully as could be expected, and the trust has now secured control by purchase or lease of the following companies, in addition to those already mentioned: The Sewall & Day Cordage Co., the Boston Cordage Co., and the Standard Cordage Co., all of Boston; the Day Cordage Co., of Cambridge; William Deering & Co., of Chicago; the Field Cordage Co., Xenia, O.; the Miamisburg Binder Twine and Cordage Co., of Ohio; the Galveston Rope and Twine Co., Texas; the Suffolk Cordage Co., Boston; the Perue Mills, Indiana; the Hanover Cordage Co., Pennsylvania; the Donnel Cordage Co., Bath Me.; the New Bedford Cordage Co., Massachusetts; the Lawrence Rope Works, New York; the Peoria Cordage Co., Indiana, and the American Bagging Co., New York. The trust has also secured control, by purchase or contract, of the plants of the following manufacturers of machinery: W. C. Boone, Jr., Brooklyn; Joseph C. Todd, Paterson, and John Good, Brooklyn.

In addition to the forty-five concerns mentioned above, the trust claims the control of four others, making a total of forty-nine properties.

At the time of its organization in 1887, the trust announced as the object sought by its formation, an increase in the profits to be derived from a lower cost of materials by the removal of competition in the market and from the economies to be derived from a decrease in the cost of production. It was asserted time and again that no attempt would be made to raise the prices of its finished products.

These claims were repeated at the time of its reorganization as a corporation, and finally in February last in the annual report to the stockholders in the following terms: "Through these advantages secured by the control of many mills, and their management under one direction, the company hopes to be enabled to secure an increased margin of profit without increasing the prices of its product to the consumer."

Has the trust up to the present carried out this promise, or, if not, is there any likellhood that it will do so in the future?

In the following tables are shown the average yearly prices since 1885 of the raw material and finished product. The articles, the price of which are given, are manila hemp and manila cordage 7-16 of an inch in diameter and larger, in cents per pound:

	1886.	1887.	1888.	1889.	1890.	1891.
Cordage	11.70	11.51	11.15	14.57	14.53	9.94
Manila	7.68	8.54	9.04	13.00	9.77	7.85
Difference	4.02	2.97	2.11	1.57	4.76	2.04

These figures would be misleading without explanation. The high prices of the raw material prevailing in 1889 were in part due to a shortage in the crop, but chiefly to the manipulation of the market by a combination of the cordage trust and English brokers. In the fall of 1888 this combination began to corner the product with such complete success that during a large part of 1889 they controlled nearly all of the stock. The prices prevailing in 1889 were those at which the trust was willing to sell, and not the prices which it paid for the raw material. By this corner of the raw material the trust was able to keep up the price of cordage to the high averages shown for 1889 and 1890, until it had succeeded in working off the whole stock on hand. The difference between the price of the finished product and of the raw material for 1890, as shown above, was about the actual average difference in 1889 also. This shows that the trust succeeded in making enormous profits entirely at the expense of the consumers.

The reduction in the price of cordage was made for a purpose. During the whole year the trust was negotiating for the control of the independent establishments, and its success depended upon its ability to force these outsiders to terms. For had the trust kept prices up, the outside establishments would either have refused to join the trust or would have held out for more favorable terms than they would have been willing to accept under other circumstances.

By October, 1891, the trust had so far succeeded in securing control of the competing mills that it was able to advance prices again. As a result, the price of cordage has been raised from 8¾c per pound to the present price of 11¼c per pound. And this advance has been made directly in the face of a declining market for the material. The present price for manila for shipment is 6¾ to 7c per pound. The difference between this price and that of the finished product is, therefore, 4.38c per pound. The promise made by the trust, that the increased profits which it hoped to secure from organization would not be at the expense of the consumer, has been completely forgotten.

In spite of the fact that the cordage trust engaged in open war during the whole of last year with the independent manufactories for the purpose of forcing them into the trust, it was able to make very large profits. During the fiscal year ended October 31, 1891, the trust made a profit of $1,406,313, which enabled it to declare dividends of 8 per cent. on the preferred and 9 per cent. on the common stock, and at the same time left a balance of $106,313. As a result of the higher prices since October, the financial director of the trust felt justified in making the following report for the quarter ended January 31 last: "It is very difficult at this time to give an accurate estimate of the profits of the business for the quarter ended January 31. I feel safe in stating, however, that after deducting expenses, rentals and all fixed charges these profits will be found sufficient to pay the entire annual dividend of $400,000 on the preferred stock and a quarterly dividend of $250,000 on the common stock, besides leaving a large surplus." Should this rate of earnings be continued throughout the year the trust will be able to pay the dividend of 8 per cent. on the preferred stock, 13 per cent. on the common stock, and have $1,000,000 besides to be added to the "large surplus" earned during the past quarter, which latter will be increased 300 per cent.

—There was a novel spectacle during the debate in the house on the free wool bill. Mr. Stevens, of Massachusetts, owner of one of the largest woolen manufactories in the United States, got up on his feet and made a speech for free wool and for the reduction of the duty on woolens. Mr. Stevens contends that the passage of the bill would benefit both wool growers and woolen manufacturers, and he also insists that the measure "represents infinite possibilities of good to all the American people." There are many other woolen manufacturers who think as Mrs. Stevens does, but there are few who are so courageous in saying what they think.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE.

Southwestern Minnesota Swept by a Disastrous Cyclone.

Portions of Seven Counties in Ruins and Many Persons Are Killed — The Damage to Property Is Enormous—Storms Elsewhere.

MINNESOTA'S WOE.

FAIRMONT, Minn., June 17.—With a roar equal to the din of twenty railway trains running over a score of iron bridges a great cyclone swept over the southern Minnesota counties of Jackson, Martin, Faribault, Freeborn, Blue Earth, Mower and Fillmore Wednesday afternoon. The storm began about 7 miles west of the village of Jackson, moved eastward over the villages of Sherburne and Wells in Martin county, passed lightly over Faribault county, caused great havoc in Freeborn, and spent itself in the two counties farther east.

The loss of life in this county will probably reach thirty; that in Freeborn eight or ten, and that elsewhere will bring the total up to nearly seventy, if not more. Besides this the loss to buildings, crops and railroad property in the half dozen counties will reach $300,000. The Root, Zumbro and other rivers of southern Minnesota are raging torrents.

Scores of people received wounds, and as most of them were in the country they suffered untold tortures through exposure to cold wind and rain and lack of surgical attendance.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 17.—The great storm did its most destructive work along the Iowa border around Minnesota lake and south of the villages of Wells and Sherburne. Reports brought in by trainmen say a district schoolhouse 4 miles east of Sherburne was blown into kindling wood in a twinkling, killing sixteen of the eighteen pupils and the teacher. In the farming district south of Minnesota lake many residences and barns were blown away and four people were killed. John Brown, a prosperous farmer, one of the victims, was killed by flying timbers in his yard. His wife, John Englebrecht, a hired man and a school-teacher were injured, two of them fatally.

Farmers from the southern Martin county line report at Wells that at least thirty people were crushed by falling buildings, and they fear later reports will increase rather than diminish the loss of life. Near Bowen Mills the house of a Bohemian family was blown entirely away, leaving a family of eight to spend the night in a driving rainstorm.

ALBERT LEA, Minn., June 17.—Two death-dealing cyclones passed through the northern part of Freeborn county Wednesday afternoon, the first sweeping through several townships at 4:30 and the other a little after 6. Six or seven persons are known to have been killed. Two of the number were children of Henry Christian. Charles Christopherson, wife and two children were badly injured. Christopherson's buildings were all wrecked. J. H. Hekes, his wife and two children were terribly crushed. The wife and one child will die.

PRESTON, Minn., June 17.—Fillmore county was visited by a cloudburst during the night which destroyed crops, carried away bridges and sidewalks and drowned many cattle and hogs. The loss to crops may reach $50,000. All trains are abandoned and many miles of railway track are washed away. Between Wells and La Crosse 10 miles of track is gone and no trains are expected for at least a week.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 18.—The reports from the cyclone which devastated the southern portions of this state Wednesday come in slowly, owing to the extent of the country covered and the terrible condition of the roads, rendering communication with the towns not having telegraphic facilities almost impossible. While fortunately the first reports as to loss of life prove to have been somewhat overestimated, the death roll is not less than thirty and it may grow to fifty.

The trail of the storm is marked by ruined houses, devastated farms, dead and mangled men, women and children. The groves of trees surrounding farm houses were laid low—in many cases not a vestige remains of houses, barns or stock; everything fell before the terrible tornado. Horses and cattle have been found many miles from where the tornado caught them in its grasp.

IN WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, June 17.—A cloudburst occurred in the western part of the state Wednesday night, doing great damage. At Boscobel five bridges were carried away, the water rising 11 feet in Turtle river in a few minutes. The Milwaukee track is washed out for some distance, and train service is suspended. At Sparta one end of Tunnel No. 3 on the Northwestern caved in and five houses were washed away.

IN IOWA.

OTTUMWA, Ia., June 17.—This city was visited Thursday morning at 5 o'clock with a terrific windstorm, which was followed by a deluge of water and hailstones. A great deal of damage was done throughout the city. The storm was accompanied by a great electrical display, and it is learned great havoc was created in the country by the destruction of several farms and many head of cattle and horses. No lives were lost, but several persons were badly shocked.

WAUCOMA, Ia., June 17.—Northeastern Iowa was visited by a cloudburst Wednesday afternoon. Water fell in a perfect deluge for four hours, streets were converted into rivers and many bridges washed away. A big washout occurred on the Milwaukee between Fort Atkinson and Calmar. Two thousand feet of track is gone, also 500 feet of track washed out between Hampton and Ionia. Railway train service is at a standstill. The country is completely flooded. Over a mile of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern railway track near West Union was washed out, and a long strip between Ossian, and Decorah. It will require at least a week to get in shape for trains.

CARLETON, Mich., Aug. 29, 1890.

Dr. O. J. Fay & Co.:

Gentlemen.—This is to certify that I, the undersigned, have been troubled with weak lungs and take cold easily. I have used Dr. Fay's New Treatment for consumption and can say that it is the best medicine I have ever used for the lungs, and would recommend it to all afflicted with lung trouble. I have also used it for a small girl who was considered in the first stage of consumption and it cured her.

LUKE DUNN,
Chairman Board of Supervisors, Monroe County.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at C. L. Orr's drug store.

"Why, Mr. Madge, we have discarded corsets long since. Everyone knows that the constant pressure they exercise is injurious."

"That's so. That sort of a thing ought to be—er—intermittent, as it were."

HAVE YOU READ THIS BLECHE?

It will do no harm to read it again. You cannot read it too often. We cannot say too much of the merits of Parmelee's Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure. If you are at all affected with Dyspepsia or any disorders of the Liver or Kidneys you should try this remedy. Sold by dealers.

ARE YOU TANNED, FRECKLED, OR SUNBURNT.

Use Hamilton's Oriental Balm. It removes all blemishes. Perfectly safe. Prepared by E. M. Parmelee Medical Co., Dansville, N. Y. Sold by dealers.

Parmelee's Pile Suppositories are warranted to cure. Never known to fail. Hundreds of sufferers testify to their virtue. 50 cents a box. Sold by dealers.

DO MOSQUITOS KILL OTHER INSECTS?

We don't know. We do know that Parmelee's Household Ointment is the best thing in the world to apply for Insect Bites, Burns, Cuts, Chapped Hands, etc. For Ulcers and Salt Rheum is sure to effect a cure. It is guaranteed to do this. Price for large box 25 cents. Sold by dealers.

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

ACHE

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills makes a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE

Rather Be Without Bread. XI

BISHOP'S RESIDENCE, MARQUETTE, Mich., Nov. 7, 1889.

The Rev. J. Kossbiel, of above place, writes: I have suffered a great deal, and whenever I now feel a nervous attack coming I take a dose of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and feel relieved. I think a great deal of it and would rather be without bread than without the Tonic.

Will Do What It Purports to Do.

SOMERSET, Ohio, Nov. 11, 1890.

My wife was troubled with nervousness, which so affected her mind that I became very much alarmed, as a mental derangement was hereditary. After using Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic one day she could sleep soundly, her lamenting ceased, and I can say that her mental condition is very much improved.

JOSEPH A. FLAUTT.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5. Large Size $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

HUSBAND'S MISTAKE.

Husbands too often permit wives and parents their children, to suffer from headache, dizziness, neuralgia, sleeplessness, fits, nervousness, when by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine such serious results could aesily be prevented. Druggists everywhere say it gives universal satisfaction, and has an immense sale. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Snow & Co., of Syracuse, N. Y.; J. C. Wolf, Hillsdale, Mich.; and hundreds of others say "it is the greatest seller they ever knew." It contains no opiates. Trial bottle and fine book on Nervous Diseases, free at Baker & Bell's.

Clerk: There are two kinds of cloth to match the shade of this sample you have, sir; one is much more expensive than the other. Have you any idea which your wife prefers?

Customer: Oh yes! She wants the one that costs the most.

"So you have tramped all the way from New York?"

"Yes, sir."

"Couldn't you get employment there?"

"No. I came pretty near having a place in Bowery restaurant."

"What prevented you?"

"I couldn't learn the language."

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L. S. & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15, 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 115. Mail.	No. 117. Express.	No. 149 Accom.
Jackson.....Lv	5 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M
Napoleon	6 30 "	2 26 "	1 15 "
Norvell	6 37 "	2 34 "	1 27 "
Manchester	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 55 "
Clinton	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 35 "
Tecumseh	7 15 "	3 15 "	3 15 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 52 "	4 30 "
Detroit	10 10 "	6 20 "	.....
Toledo	9 15 "	4 40 "	10 25 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 8:00 p. m.

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 116. Mail.	No. 118. Express.	No. 148. Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 25 A.M.	6 00 P.M.	.....
Toledo	9 50 "	7 50 "	.....
Adrian	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M
Tecumseh	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton	11 21 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 00 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 28 "	10 30 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.

A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw Ry

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT MAY. 30, 1892.

EAST. No 29 Pass	No. 23 Pass	No. 21 Pass	Central Time. STATIONS.	WEST. No. 22 Pass	No. 24 Pass
		A. M. 10 50	L....Allegan....A	P. M. 1 00
		11 15	Monteith	12 35
	A. M. 11 55		Yorkville	11 55	A. M.
	5 45 12 23		Battle Creek	11 28	1 25
	6 27 12 54		Marshall	10 59	12 38
	7 03 1 22		Homer	10 32	11 48
A. M.	7 45 1 58		Hanover	10 02	11 03
4 50	8 40 2 27		Addison	9 30	10 15
5 00	8 57 2 34		Devils Lake	9 24	9 54
	9 17 3 05		Tipton	8 58	9 14
5 38	9 50 3 14		Tecumseh	8 44	8 53
	9 35 3 37		Ridgeway	8 35	8 40
5 51	10 07 3 28		A.....Toledo....L	7 20	6 30
6 12	10 35 3 50		Dundee	8 10	8 00
7 00	12 10 4 45		Britton	8 31	8 31
P.M.	P.M.			A.M.	P.M.

Train No. 29 runs daily except Sunday. Close connections are made at Allegan with the C. & W. M.; Monteith, G. R. R. & I.; Battle Creek, C. & G. T.; Marshall M. C. R. R.; Britton with the Wabash for Detroit, and at Toledo with all roads diverging.

T. C. MCSCHINDLE, RGen'l Pass. Agt.
T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO

TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as follows:

WEST BOUND.

†No. 31	Local Mail and Express	10:25 a m
†No. 35	Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex.	3:30 p m
†No. 37	Butler Accommodation	6:00 p m
†No. 33	Pacific Express	11:40 p m
	EAST BOUND.
†No. 36	Atlantic Express	5:50 a m
†No. 38	Detroit Accommodation	4:45 p m
†No. 32	St. Louis & Boston Express	7:45 a m
†No. 34	N. Y. Limited	9:46 p m

†Daily, Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information apply to

CHAS. M. HAYS, Gen'l Manager. WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian

F. CHANDLER, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt Agent.

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890

Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
A. M.	P. M.		P. M.	P. M.
6 00	1 45	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	11 15	1 10
6 17	2 02	Dundee	10 58	12 53
6 33	2 18	Milan	10 42	12 37
6 50	2 35	Urania	10 25	12 20
7 07	2 52	Pittsfield	10 08	12 03
7 17	3 02	Ann Arbor	9 58	11 53
7 30	3 15	Leland	9 45	11 40
7 45	3 30	Whitmore Lake	9 30	11 25
7 58	3 43	Howell	9 17	11 12
8 12	3 57	Durand	9 03	10 58
.....	.....		8 55	10 50
9 00	4 45	Owosso	8 15	10 08
9 07	4 52	Ithaca	8 08	10 01
9 25	5 10	Mt. Pleasant	7 50	9 43
9 35	5 20	Cadillac	7 40	9 33
9 55	5 40	Copemish	7 20	9 13
10 35	6 20	Frankfort	6 40	8 33
P. M.	P. M.		A. M.	A. M.

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager.
A. J. PAISLEY, General Pass. and Ticket Agent

Clinton Column.

CLINTON, MICH., JUNE 23, 1892.

Rev. Reeves went to Toledo last Friday.

James Hause is moving into his new house.

Cassius Fisk and wife are here from Detroit.

F. D. Lancaster made a business trip to Toledo Tuesday.

Fred Bostedor of Eaton Rapids is visiting relatives here.

H. W. Stevens and wife attended the funeral of Mrs. Reeves Tuesday.

Flavius Knight is home from Ann Arbor for the summer vacation.

Rev. Reeves and wife go to Grand Rapids Thursday for a short visit.

Mrs. Will Amspoker and son Lennie of [illegible] Monday.

Miss Jo Parker, of Owen Sound, Canada, is the guest of Mrs. L. W. Kimball.

The Vosburgh Triple Co. will give a tent show here Friday evening, July 1st.

Charles Corwin and daughter Grace are visiting friends at Grass Lake this week.

Mrs. Lew Hendershot left here the first of the week for her home in Indiana.

Mrs. H. R. Williams returned last Thursday from a visit with her sister in Georgia.

Several went from here to the Farmers' Union Picnic at Sand Lake last Saturday.

A. R. VanDeMark has purchased a lot of Mrs. Augusta Brooks, east of his residence.

Laura Haggart has returned from Cambridge, Ill., where she has been teaching.

Mr. Watermouse purchased the Shoninger piano that has been on exhibition in the town hall.

Miss Ethel Webster, who has been visiting Mrs. J. E. White, returned to Big Rapids Tuesday.

Mrs. Jacob Nase has returned from Detroit, where she has been for several weeks with her daughter.

E. R. Smith and C. S. Burroughs went to Chicago Monday. It is not necessary to state their object to those who know their political sentiments.

A large hickory pole was raised over the Lancaster House Wednesday evening, and the Democrats are now awaiting news from Chicago in order to know how to mark the streamer.

Mrs. Laura Graves died Sunday afternoon at her home four miles west of this village, at the age of 32 years. She had been in feeble health for some time and her death was not unexpected. She leaves two children. Mrs. Sarah [illegible] of Detroit and Mrs. Mary Bostedor with whom she lived. The funeral was held Tuesday at 2 p. m. Rev. Wilson officiating.

[illegible] Mr. Hom[illegible] Wednesday, was running behind [illegible] Kissinger's store Tuesday afternoon and [illegible] gave the [illegible] a severe [illegible] Dr. White was [illegible] and found [illegible] of the [illegible] Dr. White [illegible] Mr. Hom[illegible] is getting [illegible] the 4th [illegible] are coming forward with as much enthusiasm as ever. Shooting commences [illegible] and [illegible] the entire town is full of [illegible] Dinner will be served for 25 cents on the [illegible] Mr. Brown's premises [illegible] the Lancaster House. Prof. Rogers and A. H. St. John will have a bowery dance [illegible] on D. St. John's grove and house [illegible] Everybody and [illegible] are getting [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] and

The Tecumseh Herald.

VOL. XLIII.--NO. 6. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 30, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2190

A Terrible Tumble!

IN DRESS GOODS.

1,200 YARDS REDUCED

FROM 60 to 39c.

GET IN QUICK

ANDERSON & CO.

The Novelty Store

Still Leads Them All!

Look at Our Specialties

Garwood's Standard Perfumes, Try them.

Sham Holders, 20c a pair.

A Complete Line of Fancy Glassware, China and Toilet Sets.

Laces and Notions in Endless Variety.

Curtain Poles 25c each.

Fine Assortment of Room Moulding.

Picture Framing in Every Style.

James Montague.

"95 A" JEWEL GRAND,

The greatest success in Gasoline Stoves; csll and see them.

For sale by

D. L. WHITENACK & CO.

Going to Leave Town!

In view of the above fact, and as our lease of the Exelby Stores expires next February—'93, we will now inaugurate rates for CLOSING OUT of our different lines in their seasons, therefore

ALL STRAW HATS NOW

$1.25	Will Go For	$1.00
1.00	" " "	75
75	" " "	50
60	" " "	50
25	" " "	22

And others that space will not admit of mention, at the same rock-bottom figures—as we will actually bid you all farewell at the beginning of the World's Fair Year. Awaiting your kind consideration, we remain,

Yours to please,

W. LENARDSON & SON.

Neighborhood News.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

W. L. Jones is the first to hay it in this section.

W. B. Arner was in Adrian Monday on business.

Rhoda Arner was an Adrian visitor Wednesday.

Prof. Fred Boyd, of Michigamme, was the guest of Dean Loree Friday.

Several attended the graduating exercises at Tecumseh last week.

David McClennan, of Petoskey, visited Clara Temple the past week.

Fred Gorton, of Ypsilanti, spent the past few days with Jennie Osgood.

We are glad to learn that Linnie Coryell is a little better at present.

Minnie Barrett visited friends in Tecumseh from Thursday until Monday.

Elder Yager went to Dundee Saturday to see Elder Morgan, who is very sick.

G. P. Waring shipped his Bay View cottage furniture to his cottage last week.

Miss Kittie Clark was one of the musical graduates of Adrian College last week.

Misses Cora and Addie Manchester, of Adrian, were the guests of Lou Arner Sunday.

Misses Ada and Etta Scofield, of Jackson, spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. S. V. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, of Blissfield, visited their son Willie and family over Sunday.

Dr. Loree and wife visited Martin Palmer and wife at Wyandotte last week several days.

Mattie Rappleye attended the Commencement exercises at Dundee last week, returning Tuesday.

Some of our young folks attended the match and shingle social at Britton last week and report a fine time.

While in Adrian last week we saw Hezekiah Clark. He was driving a laundry wagon and is looking well and hearty.

Lida Smith visited Hattie Russell, of Adrian, from Thursday until Monday, and also attended the exercises at the College.

Mrs. Wm. Riggs, who was hurt at Britton Saturday night by the falling of the seats in the Uncle Tom's Cabin show, is able to be out.

The American eagle will squawk at Clinton next Monday, and we understand some of our base ball enthusiasts will help to make the day successful.

A large bay horse with white hind feet and a white star in its forehead, shod all around, looking as though he had been through a hard spring's work, took possession of Chas. Foote's premises on Sunday morning. The owner may have his property by calling at Mr. Foote's.

Those who attended Commencement at Adrian College last week Thursday were Mrs. C. M. Gove, Mrs. C. A. Pocklington, Misses Lizzie and Blanche Wiggins, Mrs. Nellie Clarkson, Ed Palmer, Flota Smith, James Nelson, Mollie Rappleye, D. W. Smith, Lulu Rappleye, J. D. Arner, Salome Clark.

The L. C. S. will be held at the home of Mrs. J. F. Temple on Friday evening of this week, when the following program will be presented:

Music—Society.
Devotional exercises.
Music—Society.
Secretary's report.
Song—Edna Hindes.
Recitation—Blanche Bannister.
Music—Mrs. Yager.
Reading—Clara Temple.
Inst. solo—Jennie Underwood.
Recitation—May Culbertson.
Inst. duet—Kittie Clark and Lulu Rappleye.
Reading—Mary Osgood.
Music.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and help make it a pleasant and profitable evening.

NORTH-EAST FRANKLIN.

Hollis Taylor is at work for A. P. Coddington.

Smith Munger lost a horse last week. He has since purchased another.

Miss Rose Easlick, of Lake Ridge, visited at J. Spalding's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore, of Blissfield, visited at Benj. Lamkin's last week.

Irene Allen went to Hillsdale last Saturday, where she expects to remain a few weeks to attend the summer term of school.

Word comes from Miss Bertha Taylor, who is still at the Adrian Hospital, that she is now able to sit up a little while at a time.

Rev. Chamberlain, wife and little ones, from Antrim Co., are visiting at S. N. Munger's. Mr. C. has been afflicted with nervous prostration and is yet unable to attend to ministerial work. Mrs. C. is also in poor health, caused by being thrown from a cutter last winter.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

BRITTON BUDGET.

M. D. Britton visited at home over Sunday, the 19th.

The Uncle Tom's Cabin show left for Milan Monday morning.

Miss Edith Craine of Roa, visited Martha Ackley last week.

T. V. Hoagland made a trip to Litchfield last week Wednesday.

Grant Ousterhout was in Adrian Saturday—went over on his bi.

Chas. Lenardson and wife, of Blissfield, visited at home Sunday.

Brown and Winsley took a run on their wheels to Dundee Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Calkins, who was quite ill the first of last week, is fully recovered.

The W. C. T. U. have postponed their Poverty social until Thursday evening, July 7th.

Mesdames Craine, Sowle, Ackley and Haight were in Adrian Wednesday and Thursday.

Wm. Underwood is making quite extensive additions to his home east of the village.

Wm. Winsley is again able to be at work after several weeks' lay-off with a broken arm.

Uncle Cornelius Hoagland, who has been very low for the past two weeks, is gaining slowly.

A. J. Lee made a business trip home from Battle Creek the 20th, returning to his work the next day.

The Sunday School of the Christian Church observed Children's day last Sabbath with a fine program.

A little girl arrived at the home of our friend, Geo. Bauchman, Sunday, June 19th. All doing nicely.

Mr. Nivison was taken ill while at work on a barn in Macon last Friday and had to be brought home, but at present is quite recovered.

Seven of our Masonic friends visited the Dundee lodge last Friday night to witness the conferring of the Royal Arch degree on three of their brothers.

The Prohibition meeting last week Wednesday night was well attended. Revs. Yager, Gulick, Wright, Strickland and Zeller addressed the people with brief but pointed truths.

Come to the closing exercises to-morrow night. The high school, under the supervision of Prof. Bowerman, have prepared an instructive and entertaining program. Admission 10 cents, to defray necessary expenses.

LOST.—A black horse weighing about 930 pounds, (U) brand on left shoulder; left my place Monday, the 20th. When last heard from was in the vicinity northwest of Clinton. Any one having heard or seen anything of the same, please address me at Britton and oblige

WM. UNDERWOOD.

Our streets presented a very business-like appearance last Friday. Chicago street east was thronged with teams from 6 o'clock till noon. Some 25,000 pounds of wool were taken in, aggregating in value about $5,000, prices ranging from 18 to 28 cents; John Kinney, of Adrian, shipper.

Miss Martha Ackley closed the spring term of school in District No 9 last Friday afternoon. A number of visitors were present to enjoy the closing exercises, which passed off very nicely, reflecting much credit upon Miss Ackley as a teacher and showing the rapid advancement of the little ones under her able tuition, which has been so very commendable in every respect that the directors have asked her to retain her position for the ensuing term.

During the progress of the play of Uncle Tom's Cabin Saturday night, about 9:05, the west side seating all fell with a crash, precipitating many beneath the supporting beams. Among the severely injured are Orbra Pocklington, leg broken; Mrs. Riggs, Ridgeway, back severely sprained; Mrs. Lindsley, Saline, severely bruised about body and limbs; Mrs. Fred McCreary, Macon, arm sprained, and many others who sustained quite severe bruises, whom it is impossible to mention more particularly.

In regard to last statement in this column pertaining to final adjustment of the road controversy, will say that the same was not our own statement, but was handed to us for publication by E. L. Lowe and if that statement was incorrect and unjust to the officers of this township, and in any way misleading to the minds of taxpayers, we cordially invite the proper officer or officers to hand to us an authentic statement of the entire case, that we may here, in this column, rectify the misleading statement to the satisfaction of all parties directly or indirectly concerned, and thereby sustain our position as a non-partisan in the affairs of our township.

FRANKLIN FACTS.

Alvinza Whelan lost a colt last week.

Irene Allen is attending the teacher's term of Hillsdale College.

John Whelan and wife returned to Detroit the first of the week.

One of S. N. Munger's horses dropped dead in harness last Wednesday.

A letter from Nebraska, dated June 17, says; "The spring was very wet and backward; now it is very dry."

Aunt Freelove Whelan had a very poor spell last week with all the symptoms of a fatal attack of apoplexy. She rallied, however, and at present is able to be up and about.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. ORR.

RAISIN VALLEY COMMENCEMENT.

A Fine Program Presented Last Friday—Three Graduates Receive their Diplomas.

The Graduating Class of the Raisin Valley Seminary held their exercises on Friday of last week according to usual custom. Although the class was not as large as in some years, the program presented was a very creditable one, and the Seminary Hall was filled to overflowing with a delighted audience.

At half past ten o'clock Prof. Kelly called the audience to order and the exercises were presented in the following order:

Invocation.
Instrumental Solo—Lura Chase.
A Taste for Literature—Susie Clark, Carthage, Ind.
The Election of U. S. Senators by the People—Wm. O. Beal, Rollin, Mich.
Vocal Solo, Mrs. R. Winchip.
Every Choice is for Eternity—Nellie M. Bowerman, Adrian, Mich.
Presentation of Diplomas.
Instrumental Solo—Lura Chase.
Class Address—Prof. Robt. L. Kelly, Principal.
Vocal Solo—Mrs. R. Winchip.
Benediction.

The instrumental solos by Lura Chase were finely rendered, and the vocal solos by Mrs. Winship were beyond praise. She fully sustained her reputation as a superior vocalist. The essays were all finally written and splendidly delivered. They showed careful training and thorough preparation and were well received. Prof. Kelley's address to the class was a production of more than ordinary merit, occupying about thirty minutes in its delivery. Lack of space is our only reason for not printing it entire. The essays also were well worthy of being printed in full, but we are compelled to content ourselves with a synopsis of them.

We are glad to know that the Seminary was never in a more flourishing condition and the prospects for a large attendance next year are very flattering.

Below is a brief synopsis of the essays:

A TASTE FOR LITERATURE.

BY SUSIE CLARK.

A nation's strength and safety lie in the purity and morality of the people, and there is no more potent factor for developing these than reading. In every line of progress there must be a standard. The characteristics of a nation are displayed largely in its literature. Contrast the literature of Germany and France, and you have a key to their national character. England and Germany have held an enviable position in the production of good literature, but it is a sad fact that American literature seems to be deteriorating. A taste for good literature is nothing more than a desire to be in good company. Who can doubt that a desire to mingle with good men through their books is of great value in the formation of character? We grow like those with whom we associate, think with them, and in a greater or less degree, imitate them. Many great men have attributed their success in life to the influence of good reading. The necessities of publishers perhaps is the cause of much of the trash now printed in the form of novels. Looking Backward, Robert Elsmere and many others are popular and have a large sale but they will soon fade out of recollection. The fields of history, poetry and romance are all filled with choice works. Then let us select the best and thank God for books.

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATORS BY THE PEOPLE.

BY WILLIAM O. BEAL.

We are in the last decade of the nineteenth century. It has surpassed all other centuries in the advancement and spread of civilization, and America has taken the lead. Among the political reforms needed at the present time is that of the election of U. S. Senators by the people. The constitution was a compromise of conflicting interests and the convention that framed it was beset with many difficulties. The states were jealous of each other and jealous of their own sovereignty. Although the framers were men of wisdom, it could not be expected that they would draft an instrument that would stand the test of all time and never need changing. Many people in those days were distrustful of popular elections, and it was thought that better men would be selected, if chosen by the legislatures. The theory was that the U. S. Senate represented the States in their sovereign capacity and the States should elect the Senators by legislative machinery. One of the objects sought for was the protection of the commercial and moneyed interests. Is this a government by the people? We claim it is and yet the House of Representatives is the only branch of the government which the people control directly. The influence of monopolies and favored classes has grown to such an extent that they frequently dictate the choice of Senators by the legislatures. The election of Senators by the people would correct this evil. This is one of the needed reforms of the times.

EVERY CHOICE IS FOR ETERNITY.

BY NELLIE E. BOWERMAN.

Every decision at which we arrive in life ever remains with us. It may be a wise or an unwise one. It may be ever so insignificant. A word once uttered, a deed once committed, a choice once made, can never be recalled. Man is a free moral agent, he has the privilege of choice and hence is responsible for the use he makes of it. Every choice one makes leaves behind it a tendency to act in a like manner again. The thief begins his career, not by committing some great crime, but by some petty theft. Having yielded once it is easier to yield again and finally he becomes a hardened criminal. It has been said, "Give us the first seven years of a child's life and you may have the remainder." Even at this tender age the seeds of character may be sown which will last through life. Our paths through life are often rough because we choose to make them so, because we look on the dark rather than the sunny side. For is not life what we make it? Contrast the lives of two great historical characters—Julius Cæsar, the ruler of the Roman Empire and George Washington, the father of our own Republic. The former won renown by conquering vast possessions to strengthen his own rule, the latter by establishing a new republic and the liberty of his people. Every person has an ideal in life, one whom he tries to imitate. This ideal should be as near perfect as possible. Where shall we find such an one? In whom save in Christ, who typifies all that is good and noble.

The Ladies' Home Journal.

The art of giving lawn parties and a score of new ideas for all kinds of outdoor fetes, make the subject of an excellent paper by Mrs. A. G. Lewis in the July Ladies' Home Journal, the same magazine presenting another striking feature in Mrs. Potter Palmer's exhaustive paper on "Women and the World's Fair." An article which will likewise elicit interest is "A Day in an Adirondack Camp," by Jessamy Harte, the eldest daughter of Bret Harte, who makes her literary debut in this number of the Journal. Miss Fanny M. Johnson contributes a sketch, with portrait, of Mrs. Edward Bellamy, the wife of the celebrated nationalist, and Alice Graham McCollin gives the first authentic sketch ever published of Anna Willess Williams, the young lady who posed as model in 1878 for the head of the Goddess of Liberty, which now adorns the face of our silver dollars, Mrs. Beecher continues her reminiscences of her husband; Harold Godwin is delightfully reminiscent of William Cullen Bryant, and Kate Tannatt Woods of Oliver Wendell Holmes. "Women's Chances as Bread Winners" in the field of telegraphy are instructively written of by Mrs. Randolph and J. B. Taltavall, while "Both Ends of a Bell Wire" are charmingly touched by Florence Hall. Rev. Dr. Talmage takes a new departure by discussing "The Horse and the Race Track." The fiction of the number includes two excellent short stories by Marjorie Richardson and Isabel Mallon. Altogether there seems no end to the good things in this issue of this popular magazine. It is published by The Curtis Publishing Company of Philadelphia for Ten Cents per number and One Dollar per year.

4th of July Reduced Rates.

On July 2nd, 3rd and 4th, 1892, the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y—Lake Shore Route—will sell special excursion tickets at reduced rates to all points on its line located within 200 miles from selling station.

Tickets will be good to return only on July 4th and 5th.

Complete particulars from ticket agents.

NOW TRY THIS.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a Cough, Cold, or any trouble with Throat, Chest or Lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from La Grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

Teachers!

If you are going to the N. E. A. meet at Saratoga, apply to Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y Ticket agents, or write to A. J. Smith, G. P. A., Cleveland, O., for circular of information.

Excursion tickets will be sold at reduced rates July 5th to 13th, good for return until Sept. 15th, 1892.

Reduced Rates to New York City.

On July 5, 6 and 7 the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y will sell tickets to New York City and return at one Lowest First-class Fare. Send to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O., for free copy of folder of information. The Lake Shore is the only line to New York without a ferry transfer.

Reduced Rates to Saratoga, N. Y.

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway will sell excursion tickets to Saratoga and return, July 5th to 13th at reduced rates, account N. E. A. meeting.

For full particulars apply to Ticket Agents.

Earnest Young Women: "My friend, don't you want to become a member of my Sunday-school class? Chinese Laundryman: No, no! Me got plenty wife at home!

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Try it.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance	$1 10
If paid after 30 days	1 25
If paid after three months	1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance	$1 25
If paid after 30 days	1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.

Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.

Rates on general advertising on term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JUNE 30, 1892.

The Tammany tiger went to Chicago prepared to devour the mugwump lamb, but it returned to New York inside of the lamb.

The Chicago Convention will become historical as the greatest political Convention ever held in this country. It was the stepping stone towards the wiping out of Bourbon politics and the inauguration of a better and brighter political era.

The Chicago Convention did its work well. It gave us Cleveland and a Western man. Taking into account the wants and wishes of the entire Country, East, West, North and South, it is the strongest ticket that could have been named, and it will be triumphantly elected.

At Minneapolis, a solid phalanx of 130 federal office holders nominated Harrison and the machine triumphed. At Chicago the machine worked tooth and nail against Cleveland but Cleveland got the nomination and the machine got left. The first made a machine ticket and the last made a people's ticket.

The tariff plank in the Chicago platform has the true ring. It is the old tariff plank of 1876 on which Tilden rode to victory, and declares for a tariff for revenue. The Democratic masses are in no mood to tolerate any straddling on this issue. Millions for revenue, but not a dollar for private bonuses is the true doctrine.

The two-thirds rule is a bad one for a weak candidate, but the candidate who receives the nomination under that rule must develope elements of popular strength which will insure a cordial support. It is a practical impossibility for any political machine to control two-thirds of a Democratic convention. The machine tried it at Chicago and failed.

Can Cleveland carry the state of New York? Most assuredly he can. Tammany Hall accepted the situation and pledged a faithful support to the ticket. Cleveland will receive the united Democratic vote and also the entire independent vote, as against Harrison. He is as certain to carry New York at Samuel J. Tilden was in 1876. This will be a Democratic year in New York.

The decision of our State Supreme Court affirming the Constitutionality of the Miner election law will be no surprise to the legal fraternity. There may be some question about the expediency of the plan, but there can be no doubt about its legality. We presume the attorneys who were fighting the law would acknowledge in private that it was technically legal. The decision was unanimous, both Republican and Democratic judges concurring in the opinion.

The silver plank in the Chicago platform is a very happy solution of this vexed question. It declares for free silver coinage, restoring silver to its old position as a money metal, but urges that the ratio between gold and silver be adjusted from time to time to make the gold and silver dollar of equal value. The silver advocates cannot object to this plan, for it would remonitize silver and give the Country an enlarged circulating medium. The gold advocates ought not to oppose it, for it provides against the evils of a cheap silver dollar.

The Detroit Free Press thus states an important distinction in a nut shell: "An esteemed corespondent writes to ask that we will state "the difference between the Republican and Democratic parties." It can be stated in many ways and a good many columns of the Free Press might easily be devoted to the statement. A good many columns of The Free Press have, in fact in times past been devoted thereto; and more are likely to be in the future, for it is a fruitful topic. But for a brief and comprehensive answer to our esteemed correspondent we think this about fills the bill: The Republican party believes in a government of the many by the few for the benefit of the latter. The Democratic party believes in a government of the people by the people for the benefit of the people.

PROTECTIONIST LOGIC.

It is Something Like the Irishman's Flea—When You Put Your Finger Upon It It Is Not There.

Hon. J. H. Walker, of Massachusetts, is a big manufacturer of leather and boots and shoes. He helped to make the McKinley tariff bill and is regarded as one of the staunchest and strongest protectionists. His speech of March 15, 1892, is printed in a 45-page pamphlet. On page 3 occurs the following:

"I have to say that you may search the speeches that are made in favor of protection from beginning to end and you will not find one per cent. of error where you will find 99 percent. of error in the statements that are made by those in favor of free trade as opposed to a protective tariff."

It is evident that Mr. Walker knows what error and logic are and that he intends to sustain the good record of his brethren. On page 4 is this statement:

"It is of no consequence to the manufacturers of this country, as manufacturers, whether we have free trade or whether we have protection. We are just as well satisfied with free trade as we are with protection."

This will be news to thousands of manufacturers who employ lobbyists at Washington and who have said that the Mill's bill would have driven half of them out of the country. But for fear of being in error he hedges this statement in the following paragraph, thus:

"The well-being of every citizen of this country is bound up with the interest of the manufacturers in a protective tariff."

On page 4 is the following:

"Now, it is conceded by every statistican of this country and every other that this is the lowest-taxed country on the face of the earth that is counted as a civilized nation."

And on page 5 this:

"I affirm that there is no greater evidence of civilization, Christian civilization, than taxation, and the volume of taxation per capita expresses it. Show me the taxes per capita of any people, and I can determine by that their advancement in the scale of civilization."

This is hard on the United States—to be the lowest in civilization because it is the lowest taxed country. But this is truth and logic and there is no escape for us. He then defines taxation:

"What does taxation come to in its last analysis? It comes to taking the property of the rich and dividing it pro rata for the benefit of every man, woman and child in the community. That is what taxation comes to at last."

This proves that economists—i. e. impractical book economists out of congress—are entirely in error for they all agree that taxation has always rested most heavily upon the poor. He then further elucidates and simplifies his definition:

"Now, what is taxation? Taxation is but the government taking a part of the income of the citizen and spending it for the citizen to better advantage than he can himself spend it. That is all there is in taxation."

This is unpleasant information for some of us who prefer to spend our own incomes, but there can be no mistake. Mr. Walker is well versed in statistics and cannot be in error in this next statement:

"More than one-third of the income from all the property east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio is taken in taxation, and beneficently taken—taken and returned to the citizens pro rata, rich and poor alike, after being taken out of the hoards of the rich."

But think what taxes must be paid by really civilized countries when one-third of the income of this lowest taxed country is taken for taxes, and what awful blessings we are missing by not increasing our taxes until the government invests say ninety per cent. of our incomes for us.

We now reach page 6, where Mr. Walker hows the wonderful instinct by which taxation, no matter where let loose returns to the same spot.

"It makes comparatively little difference where you lay your taxes. Lay them where you will, they will follow back and ultimately rest on the same persons and in the same spot. We may as well lay all the taxation of this government on wool if we choose, as well as anywhere else. It will all rest on the same spot finally. It is of comparatively little importance where you lay taxes. It may take twenty years for them to adjust themselves to their final point. It may take thirty or forty years, but if you levy taxation anywhere it seeks out and rests upon the same individuals in the community who will ultimately bear the burdens. I think the statistics will bear me out in this statement."

Let it be remembered that "free traders" make at least 100 times as many errors as "protectionsts" and that Mr. Walker is a specialist in his line.

COST OF A FAMILY'S CLOTHING.

How Much For Wool and How Much For Tax?

A correspondent at Boonville notices the assertion that the abolition of the prohibitory duties on woolens will save at least $25 a year to the average family, and asks The Republic to state "how many families there are in the United States that spend $25 a year for clothing with wool in it."

The average family consists of five persons. The man will require at least two suits of clothes a year "with wool in them," and he will require at least two extra pairs of trousers. Put the whole of this item at $30, though for "all wool" now it would be at least $60. He will require at least two suit of underwear "with wool in them." All wool will cost now $5 a suit, but put the two for $5. Add two wool hats for $4, an overcoat (all wool, now, not less than $30), $10, and we have at the lowest possible estimate for one man's woolen clothing $49. Put the wife's flannels, cloaks, woolen dresses, etc., at $31, and for the two parents we have $80 for clothing "with wool in it" during the year. Every average family has in it a young man and young girl between 15 and 21. If their clothing does not cost more than that of their parents we are very much mistaken in young men and women, but put the two at $80, and add only $20 for the fifth member of the family and we have $180 for the woolens of a family of five, including carpets, blankets and everything else "with wool in it" used in the family of five during the year.

Everyone who has had to buy for a family of five will smile at this ridiculously low estimate for the year's woolens, but it must be remembered that we are estimating down to the average of those who cannot afford real woolens, who must put up with McKinley imitations consisting largely of cotton mixed in with shoddy.

Putting the total annual cost of this for five persons at $180, at least one-third of that cost is tax, and monopoly cost. Of every $100 spent for woolens or alleged woolens in this country at least $33 goes for nothing except prohibitive duties imposed to prevent imports, to keep revenue out of the treasury and to so restrict trade as to establish monopoly.

The abolition of these prohibitive duties, as proposed by the cheap clothing bill which has just passed the House, will be worth much more than $25 a year to the average family in the United States, for it will enable thousands who cannot now afford real woolens to wear them, and it will give to all better woolens for less money. The estimate of $50 a year as the tax cost on woolens for the average family of five is as low as it can be put safely, and if these prohibitive taxes are repealed at least $25 of this tax cost will be a clear money saving to the average family, which will also get more than the value of $25 additional in better woolens for the money expended for these necessaries during the year.—St. Louis Republic.

M'KINLEY'S STATEMENT.

More Wage Reductions, Strikes, Lockouts and Trusts.

Our expert accountant, who is charged with crediting the McKinley bill with all of the wage increases and defunct trusts reported each week, and of debiting it with all of the wage reductions and new trusts reported, as usual has great trouble this week in balancing his accounts. The "trust-killing," wage-advancing tariff may be getting in its work straight enough, but for some reason—perhaps the modesty of the Republican press—the credit side of the account is not mentioned, except in a theoretical and general way. From the long list of the debit side we extract the following:

April 24—To the report that nearly all of the big iron companies in the south are forming a combination with a capital of about $50,000,000 and that the companies that are not joining the combine will be tributary to it and sell their products through the new organizations.

April 25—To a locomotive tire trust just formed by the five manufacturers in this country—the Nashua Iron Co.; the Standard Steel Co., of Lewiston, Pa; the Latrobe Steel Co., of Latrobe, Pa; the Midvale Steel Co., of Philadelphia; and the Chicago Tire and Steel Spring Works, of Chicago. Prices have been advanced and the stockholders are jubilant over the prospects.

April 25—To the report that 600 men have been thrown out of work in the Lehigh valley coal region by the combine of the Reading with several other railroads. The price of coal to western consumers has been advanced, and the production of coal has been diminished so that the colliers are working only half time, and the miners for half-pay. Wages in railroad shops and of train men have also been reduced.

April 26—To report that the Sligo rolling mills of Pittsburgh is closed down and 300 men are thrown out of work.

April 27—To the report in the Journal of the Knights of Labor that the rubber industry is to be cornered. A company with a capital of $50,000,000 has been chartered in New Jersey, which is really a combine of all the existing concerns. They propose to manufacture, not only rubber goods, but litharge, whiting, buckles and everything used in the manufacture of rubber goods.

April 29—To the report that the officers of the Reading railroad propose to establish a uniform rate of wages of the three railroads now in this combine. The men understand what such a "readjustment" means and are preparing for a strike.

April 30—To a report that the manufacturers of gas fixtures have formed a trust. While this is denied by some of those said to be in it, yet it is certain that prices of gas fixtures have been materially advanced of late.

TARIFF EXTORTION.

A Sample of the Way McKinley Aids Monopolists to Make Extravagant Profits.

The Fall River News, which is a valorous defender of the protective tariff, prints the following in a recent issue:

"Mr. Ackroyd, the English manufacturer who made a proposition to local capitalists to establish a plush factory here, has succeeded in raising capital for a factory to be located at South Portland, Me. In an address this week before the Lewiston board of trade Mr. Ackroyd stated that, with a duty of 110 per cent., it costs $5.50 per yard to land foreign-made silk plush in New York, which he could make and sell at $4.75 per yard, and at that figure realize a profit of $1.50 per yard."

This is a very interesting revelation of the methods of our protective tariff. According to this statement, without the duty added it would cost to land foreign-made silk plush in New York $2.62 per yard. It can be manufactured in this country, according to the statement above, at $3.25 per yard, or at a cost of only 63 cents a yard more than the English cost. This would imply that if a duty of 30 per cent. were imposed upon foreign-made silk plush it would be amply sufficient to cover the difference in cost, while a duty of 40 per cent. ad valorem would give a margin of 40 cents on each yard for profit to the American manufacturer. But not content with duty charges which could be defended on the grounds of this kind, a duty of 110 per cent. has been imposed, which, according to the authority we have given, permits of an extravagant opportunity of gain on the part of the manufacturer.—Boston Herald.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Mother: What! Going to marry that fellow, Ginsling? He's a bartender. Daughter: Huh! You needn't talk. Your only son tends a soda water fountain in a prohibition town.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN.

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations, taken according to directions, are gone in a week. Therefore be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

(To Smithins a shark lawyer): "Your Man went to him with a case involving $150. Said he was willing to spend $1,500 to get it back. Smithins made him out a bill right off for $1,350."

A WONDERFUL STATEMENT.

Proprietors of Dullam's Great German Remedies.—GENTLEMEN: I have for the past two years been troubled with a serious and very severe liver and stomach difficulty. Have had advice and medicine from our very best physicians, and only to be temporarily relieved. Some of my friends persuaded me to try your Great German Remedy for the Blood, Stomach and Kidneys, and to my surprise, after using three bottles, I feel like a new man. If you desire you can use my name in print or by reference in any of the Grand Rapids, Michigan papers, or any other papers in the States, to convince the afflicted that it is the best blood, liver and kidney medicine on earth. I feel like a new man. I have lived here over 40 years.

J. M. LIVINGSTON,
Grand Rapids, Mich.

For sale by Jno. Orr.

Rising Author: Is my manuscript hard to edit? Editor: No, it requires only a second's work to every other page. Rising Author: Erasing a word on it? Editor: No, putting it in quotation marks.

MILES' NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

From the spinning-wheel to the bicycle is a long stride for women's independence.

LANE'S FAMILY MEDICINE MOVES THE BOWELS

Each day. Most people need to use it.

Miss Etta Hilbert of Lawrence, Mass.

Her Parents were in Despair

But She Was Brought Into Healthy Girlhood by

HOOD'S
Sarsaparilla

Mr. Edward Hilbert, of 183 Broadway, Lawrence, Mass., sends us the following:

"Ten years ago our child was born. Having lost six children we were naturally anxious as to the health of this one. What was our dismay and sorrow to find that she was apparently doomed to the same fate as the others. She had little strength as a baby, and did not improve as she grew older. When about 2 1-2 years old she began to have

Fainting Spells,

dropping wherever she happened to be. At these times she would turn black and appeared at the point of death. Doctors told us she was in a very bad way from

Heart Trouble

Nothing that we gave her did any good until, in utter desperation, we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She gradually began to improve, the fainting fits became less and less frequent and finally ceased entirely. Her general health improved until at the end of a year, having taken seven bottles, we stopped giving it to her. At this time she was 4 years old, and, although anxious lest the troubles might return, we ceased to worry, she seemed so well. She is now 10 years old and is as a child as you will find anywhere and has never shown any indication of a return of the heart difficulty. During the past 6 years perhaps she has taken 3 bottles in all, we only giving it to her irregularly at times when she has complained of feeling tired in the spring and early summer. We feel that we owe a great deal to and cannot say too much in favor of it." EDWARD HILBERT, Lawrence, Mass.

Healthy and Rugged

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Hood's Pills Cure Liver Ills

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER
DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG CO'S.,
TECUMSEH, MICH.

Brick Office on Shawnee St.

ORANGE BLOSSOM
A POSITIVE CURE FOR
ALL FEMALE DISEASES.

SOME SYMPTOMS: A tired, languid feeling, low spirited and despondent, with no apparent cause. Indigestion, headache, backache, bearing down pains across lower part of bowels, with great soreness in region of ovaries. Tumors, Bladder difficulty, Frequent urination, Leucorrhœa, Constipation of bowels, piles. With all these symptoms patient nervous and irritable. THE ORANGE BLOSSOM TREATMENT removes all these by a thorough process of absorption.

A LOCAL APPLICATION Perfectly harmless, which every lady can use, herself. Medicines taken internally will never relieve the many forms of female weakness. The remedy must be applied to the parts to obtain permanent relief.

A PLAIN TALK TO LADIES in our circular. Ask your druggist for one, or send two cent stamp to home office for sample box and circular.

EVERY LADY CAN TREAT HERSELF.

O. B. Pile Remedy. O. B. Catarrh Cure. $1.00 FOR ONE MONTH'S TREATMENT. —PREPARED BY— O. B. Stomach Powders. O. B. Kidney Cure.

J. A. McGILL, M. D., & CO., 2 & 4 PANORAMA PLACE, CHICAGO, ILL.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

ALONZO G. FISHER, Wholesale Agent, 67 Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE CURE FOR CATARRH COLD IN HEAD HAYFEVER DEAFNESS HEADACHE ELYS CREAM BALM 50c

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

The New Model Hall Typewriter.

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Characters.

Remodeled and Improved.

GOOD MANIFOLDER.

The Best Standard Typewriter in the World. Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interchangeable type for all languages, Easiest to learn and as rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIEND. Everybody should have their writing done on the Typewriter. It always insures the most prompt attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159.

N. TYPEWRITER CO.,
611 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the City of Adrian, on Monday, the 20th day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Hugh Harbeson, Emily May Harbeson and William J. Harbeson, minors.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of W. J. Harbeson, an uncle of said minors, praying that Charles Burridge, of Tecumseh, may be appointed guardian of said minors,

It is Ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the next of kin of said minors, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is Further Ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the THE TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
(A True Copy)
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee—ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Friday, the 17th day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate

In the matter of the estate of John Richard, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Alexander Richard, a son of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to him, petitioner, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July, next, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

A True Copy.)
RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of Lewis V. Miller, deceased

The undersigned having been appointed by the Probate Court of said County, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas Burridge, in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 6th day of August, 1892 and and on the 7th day of December, 1892, at 9 o'clock in the fore noon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 7th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 15th, 1892.

MINOR DAVIDSON,
MICHAEL SMELTZER,
Commissioners

DRS. CATLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default of Payment having been made in the mortgage made by Edward Rowland and Mary Rowland, his wife, to Albert Hyde, Sr., bearing date the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1889, of record in office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 140 of mortgages on Page 34 on which mortgage there remains unpaid at the date of this notice, of principal and accrued interest, the sum of Eight Hundred forty-four and 62-100ths dollars ($844.62). And no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken for the collection of the same.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the money above named and interest thereon at 8 per cent. per annum to accrue thereon, the costs of this foreclosure and sale, including the attorney fee provided by law, I shall, on the first day of August, A. D. 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan (that being the place of holding the Circuit court for the said County of Lenawee), all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point in the South line of Logan street, Seventy feet and from the intersection of that line with the line of Evans street in said Village, thence running South parallel with and seventy feet distant from the East line of Evans street in said alley described in a deed given to Benjamin Perley by Michael A. Patterson and George Spafford; thence East along the North line of said alley seventy feet; thence North to the South line of Logan street aforesaid; thence West on said South line of Logan street aforesaid seventy feet to place of beginning—being the same land conveyed by John H. Mills to said Edward Rowland by deed bearing date December 29, 1876, and comprising dwelling house and premises and blacksmith shop and premises thereon.

Dated May 5th, 1892.

ALBERT HYDE, Mortgagee.

CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for Mortgagee.

MORTGAGE SALE.

DEFAULT of payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date March 19th, 1889, executed and delivered by Seth C. Randall to Emma Drake, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1889, in Liber 120, of mortgages, on pages 614 and 615, and upon which mortgage there remains due at the date hereof the sum of three hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents (399,60), and no proceedings at law or in equity having been taken to collect the same or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained (which has become operative by reason of such default) and by the Statutes of the State of Michigan, in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon, and costs of this foreclosure and sale including an attorney fee as provided by law; I shall on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the court house, in the City of Adrian, County of Lenawee Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the township of Blissfield, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, viz: The north east quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three (23), town six (6), south of range five (5) east.

Dated April 11, 1892.

EMMA DRAKE, Mortgagee.

WOOD & BIRD
Attorneys for Mortgagee.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of John Allen, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas Burridge, in Tecumseh, Lenawee county Michigan, on the 16th day of July, and on the 5th day of Dec., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 5th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment

Dated, June 12, 1892.

E. G. PRICE,
WM. RANDALL,
Commissioners

HEIGHT OF CRUELTY.

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequaled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvellous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by Baker and Hall.

Every Month

many women suffer from Excessive or Silent Menstruation; they don't know who to confide in to get proper advice. Don't confide in anybody but try

Bradfield's

Female Regulator

a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE, SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION.

Book to "WOMAN" mailed free.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S

DUSKY DIAMOND

TAR SOAP

Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing.

Cures Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc.

Removes and Prevents Dandruff.

AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP.

Best for General Household Use.

DEAF NESS & HEAD NOISES CURED by Dr. Nicholson's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfortable when all remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, Broadway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists or Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough, Weak Lungs, Debility, Indigestion, Pain, Take in time. 50 cts.

ARE YOU CONSUMPTIVE

CORNS. The only sure cure for Corns. Stops all pain. 15c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

A Family Affair

Health for the Baby, Pleasure for the Parents, New Life for the Old Folks.

Hires' Root Beer

THE GREAT TEMPERANCE DRINK

Is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening, effervescent beverage.

Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine Hires'.

ARE YOU SICK?

Hood will mail 12 days' trial treatment of the famous Australian Electro Pills for only 10 cents (stamps). $5.00 worth liquid remedies for Catarrh, Liver Kidney or Stomach Trouble, Indigestion, Sick-headache, Constipation, La Grippe and the Nervous system. Full treatment by mail, $1.00. Give symptoms. Special terms to live agents naming this paper. Address

Dr. E. J. Worst, Ashland, Ohio.

WANTED SALESMAN

Good pay. Steady employment. Big advantage over rival concerns; stock guaranteed; no experience needed. Write if you want a good position. Address

THE GUARANTEE NURSERY CO

GENEVA, N. Y. Lock Box 150.

Dr. Hoxsie's Certain Croup Cure,

The great PREVENTIVE as well a CURE for Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, and Bronchitis. Contains no opium. Causes no nausea.

Price 50 cents.

Address A. P. HOXSIE, Buffalo, N. Y.

Why Suffer?

When you can be Cured

Thousands are suffering with Torpid Liver—the symptoms are Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator is a reliable remedy for Liver Disorders. It cures thousands every year; why not try Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator? Your Druggist will supply you.

SINGLE TAX DEPARTMENT.

The Michigan Labor Report.

To Michigan belongs the honor, and to Henry A. Robinson, her commissioner of labor, the credit, of having first statistically investigated the relations of labor to the land. The ninth annual report of the Michigan bureau of labor, while a model in all the departments that constitute the ordinary reports of such bureaus, includes a totally new department, in which this subject is illustrated with statistics. Part IV of the report, entitled "Land Values," the department in question—contains tables showing the value of bare lands; the value of improvements; the value of personal property; the assessed value of real estate in sixty-two cities, including the value of bare land in Detroit, the only city in which land values could be authentically obtained; the growth of the state in sections, and its unoccupied territory; its growth of separate industries, and their comparative growth; the phenomenal growth of real estate values by sections; and profits by separate industries, with their influence upon concentration of wealth and the corresponding decline in farm industry. These tables are very voluminous, and to bring their data more forcibly to the mind of the reader, the bureau has with great care prepared circular diagrams, in which the degrees of the circle are used in exact proportion with the figures of the tables.

The first of these diagrams shows that the farming population is more than half of the whole. From the second it appears that the tax assessments of real and personal values among farmers and in cities is each about one-third of the whole assessment, and in villages about one-sixth, while the real estate assessment of mines is only about one-twelfth. In the next diagram these assessment values are apportioned according to area, the farming values appearing to cover more than one quarter of the area, village values considerably less than one-eighth and city values only about one-sixtieth. Another diagram shows that in 1880 the proportion of farm profits to mine profits was about as one to two, though the proportion of mines to area was only about one-sixtieth, and the proportion of mine owners to farming population less than one-one hundred and twentieth. This condition is compared in the next diagram with the condition in 1880, when the proportion of farm profits to mine profits was more than two to one, while the area of mines, and the proportion of mine owners to farmers, was about the same as in 1890. The sixth diagram shows that the proportion of farm values to city real estate values is nearly equal, farm values being a little the larger, and the two together somewhat more than one-half of the whole. The remaining values are about one-sixth of the whole in villages, about one-sixth of the whole in timber, and about one-twelfth in mines.

The most important diagrams are two showing how few people, in proportion to the whole population, own all the wealth, and how this condition comes about. From the first of these it appears that about one-fortieth of the population own all the timber lands, mineral lands, railroad lands, city mortgages, manufacturers, railroad and farm mortgages and from the other, that farm profits are considerably less than an eighth, while city profits are nearly a quarter, mining profits about a quarter, timber profits almost half, and village profits about the same as farming.

The final diagram shows that of Michigan's share of national taxation the farms pay more than half and cities about three-tenths, villages paying the remainder; while under a system that substituted real estate for the present form of taxation, cities would pay somewhat less than before, farms very much less—only a little more than a quarter, villages slightly more than before, and mining and timber land their remainder.

Referring to the tables and diagrams the commissioner says: "It appears that the preponderance of land values is in cities and towns, mining and forest regions; and that the agricultural population is comparatively poor in respect of these values. A tax, therefore, levied directly upon real estate and especially that portion of it which consists of the land irrespective of improvement, i. e., bare land values, would fall with comparative lightness upon the agricultural classes, and the burden of the same would in the main be transferred to the classes who own the very valuable lands of cities, the great commercial centers, and the owners of the bounties of nature in the form of valuable forests and the rich mineral deposits."

In summarizing, the labor commissioner says that land and labor are the source of all wealth, and that "there are those who assert, not without reason, that to deprive labor of free access to land is to deprive the laborer of the opportunity to employ himself." Those who assert this, he proceeds, go so far as to say that "most, if not all, of the inequalities in the distribution of labor's products is due to the enormous power that the owners of the natural opportunities, or the gifts of nature, as they term the land, have over laborers by reason of their control over the very sources of employment." He adds: 'They say further that this equal right may be effectually secured and made practical by the substitution of the principle of possessory titles in place of the fee simple, and that under such a system every man may have as much of land as he can make the best use of, by simply paying to society for the advantages of a superior location, a tenure which would divert to the public coffers enormous sums, that under the present system goes to the enrichment of privileged individuals at the expense of the rights of all others." The commissioner then explains the law of rent, with clearness and accuracy, something quite unique in labor investigations, concluding that rent does not describe the rewards or remuneration of capital or labor, but simply the price of land monopoly.

A Just Mode of Taxation.

This is about the period of the year when the municipal assessor commences his rounds. He goes to each rate-payers premises, and places a value on the property. If Tom Jones possesses a half acre lot which he uses as a garden, the half acre is valued according to the annual rent which it would produce. This is all right enough, but if Tom Jones, who is a wage-earner, and works ten hours a day in a factory, works two or three hours a day on his lot, night and morning, and builds himself a place to live in, then the half-acre lot is assessed for a much higher value, and the work that Tom Jones has done on his lot is taxed very heavily, and Tom Jones has to pay a considerable sum of money every year as a consequence of having been industrious. Is this a wise or a just system? Is it wise or just to tax a man's industry? If it is desirable to discourage improvements then no better plan could be adopted than to inflict a legal penalty on any man making them. That is exactly what the law does at present, and the law tells Tom Jones very distinctly that if he makes any improvements on his half-acre he will be fined so much every year. If Tom Jones does not pay the fine, then his half-acre is seized by the law and the county treasurer sells it for taxes. Common-sense appears to point out that Tom Jones should pay an annual sum for the use of his half-acre, for the reason that land is the common heritage of the human race, and if one man has exclusive possession of it he should pay the human race for the privilege, but Tom Jones' labor is his own and he possesses the right of enjoying what his labor produces, and therefore it is unjust for any individual, or any combination of individuals to seize a portion of the produce of his labor and confiscate it to their own use and benefit. The assessor, if he were instructed to assess justly, would therefore assess only land values, and would levy no taxation on the improvements made on the land. This is the principle involved in the single tax movement which is making rapid progress. The proposal is to levy the whole taxation on land values, and to liberate the people from every other tax. The single tax league makes the following explanation:

The single tax is a tax on land, regardless of its improvements and in proportion to its value. It implies the abolition of all other forms of taxation, and the collection of the public revenues from this source alone. It would be certain, because land values are most easily appraised; wise, because, by discouraging the withdrawal of land from use and encouraging its improvement, it would expand opportunities for labor, augment wealth, and increase the rewards of industry and thrift; equal, because every one would pay taxes in proportion to the value of the land, of right the common property of all, which he appropriated to his own use; and just, because it would fall not upon labor, enterprise, and thrift, but upon the value of a special privilege.

All this is incontestably true. There may be delay, there may be antagonism, but in the end truth always prevails. The underlaying principle of the single tax—that the earth belongs equally to all, and that the best way to secure substantial justice is to tax the occupant an amount equal to the yearly value of the land—is sound.—Bobcaygeon (Ont.) Independent.

Progress in Massachusetts.

W. L. Crossman writing from Boston says: On March 16, the Henry George theory of taxation was described to the legislation committee on taxation by William Loyd Garrison, who, with many others, was a petitioner for an amendment of the laws, so that all public revenue shall be collected from land by a single tax on its site value. Mr. Garrison presented considerable testimony to show that the present system of taxation is inequitable and burdensome upon the poor, and at the conclusion of a characteristically clear and eloquent speech asked that all taxes on personal property be at once rescinded and abolished.

To speak in support of his views, Mr. Garrison introduced ex-Senator Thomas J. Hastings, of Worcester, Mrs. Martha M. Avery, of Boston; Hon. James H. Morrow, of Adrian, Mich.; James R. Carret, of Boston; Dr. Billings, of Rockland; Rev. John Greggson, of Worcester; George N. Smith, of Wellesley; Q. A. Lothrop, of Neponset; W. H. Morrill, of Cambridge, and E. M. White, of Boston. The last speaker read letters from Louis Prang, of Boston, and S. H. Howes, of Southboro, both of whom indorsed the single tax from the standpoint respectively of a business man and a farmer. Dr. Ira L. Moore went before the committees on March 17 and made a lengthly argument against the single tax.

Progress of the Movement.

The activity of Congressman Johnson has already excited emulation in Congress. Among the members who received letters asking their support for Johnson's single tax bill for the District of Columbia was Congressman Busey, who, in reply to one of his correspondents, said that he believed in the essential justice of the single tax, but thought it could not be fairly applied to existing land titles. That is a notion of which he will soon be rid. Meantime, however, he has introduced a bill (H. R., 5811), for applying the principle of common ownership to all public lands. This bill provides for granting to the states and territories all federal lands, except reservations and land needed for public buildings, within their respective borders, on condition, among other things, that the states and territories lease the same for cash rentals, subject to revision at least once every ten years, in which revision "the improvements made by the tenant shall not be taken into account." Ten per cent. of the annual rentals is to be paid into the federal treasury. The bill declares further that all federal lands shall henceforth be no longer subject to sale, or to entry, settlement or occupation, except on lease as provided in the bill. What a magnificent country this would be if such a law had been in force during the past fifty years!

BASEBALL.

Standing of the Leading Organizations for the Week Ended June 25.

The following tables show the number of games won and lost by the clubs of the various leagues:

NATIONAL LEAGUE.	Won.	Lost.	Per cent.
Boston	43	17	.717
Philadelphia	37	18	.627
Brooklyn	36	22	.621
Cleveland	33	25	.569
Cincinnati	31	25	.554
Pittsburgh	28	32	.475
Chicago	27	30	.471
Washington	28	33	.407
New York	26	32	.448
St. Louis	23	34	.404
Louisville	23	36	.390
Baltimore	19	41	.324

WESTERN LEAGUE.	Won.	Lost.	Per cent.
Columbus	33	15	.717
Milwaukee	25	18	.581
Omaha	24	23	.511
Toledo	21	21	.500
Kansas City	23	25	.479
Minneapolis	17	21	.447
Fort Wayne	17	25	.405
Indianapolis	11	28	.282

ILLINOIS-INDIANA LEAGUE. (New series.)	Won.	Lost.	Per cent.
Terre Haute	6	2	.750
Rockford	3	2	.600
Rock Island-Moline	4	3	.571
Jacksonville	4	4	.500
Aurora	4	5	.444
Joliet	3	4	.429
Evansville	3	5	.375
Quincy	1	3	.250

WISCONSIN-MICHIGAN LEAGUE.	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Marquette	12	6	.666
Oshkosh	9	5	.643
Ishpeming-Negaunee	12	10	.545
Menominee	10	8	.556
Marinette	7	13	.350
Green Bay	6	14	.300

BLEW HIS HEAD OFF.

A Joplin (Mo.) Banker Uses a Giant Cartridge to Commit Suicide.

JOPLIN, Mo., June 27.—Elijah Lloyd, a director of the First National bank and a rich mine owner, committed suicide in a shocking manner. He took a giant cartridge in his left hand, lighted the fuse with the right, placed the cartridge to his head, and when it exploded, the top of his head and his left hand were blown off. Temporary insanity is supposed to have prompted the deed.

Ex-Minister Matta Dies Suddenly.

VALPARAISO, June 25.—Senor Don Manuel Antonio Matta died in his coach while on the way to his home Thursday of apoplexy. Senor Matta was the minister of foreign affairs at the time of the attack on the sailors of the United States warship Baltimore in this city and to the intemperate language used by him in a circular relating to the affair addressed to the Chilian representatives abroad was largely due the strained relations between Chili and the United States.

Observed Beecher's Natal Day.

BROOKLYN, June 25.—Friday was the seventy-ninth anniversary of the birth of Henry Ward Beecher and the first anniversary of the unveiling of the bronze statue of him in City Hall park. The grave of the great preacher on Ocean hill, Greenwood, was decked with flowers, and some admirers laid flowers at the foot of the statue.

Kept Public Funds in a Trunk.

PARIS, Ark., June 27.—County Treasurer Thomas E. Fuller was robbed of $45,000 of the money belonging to Logan county Saturday night about 10 o'clock while he was at the lodge. It seems he had that amount deposited in a trunk at his residence instead of being in the safe bought by the county for that purpose.

Dr. Scudder's Body Cremated.

FRESH POND, L. I., June 27.—The body of Dr. H. M. Scudder, who on Tuesday last committed suicide in a Chicago jail, where he was confined on the charge of murdering his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Dunton, was cremated Saturday at the Mount Olivet crematory.

Death of Turfman D. D. Bell.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 27.—D. D. Bell, well known in every city where thoroughbreds are raced died here Sunday afternoon, aged 48, of paralysis. He was a great promoter of turf sports and bred and owned a number of winners. He was very wealthy.

Stole Fifty Thousand Dollars.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Edwin J. Ryan, an employe of the United States Express Company, left this city with three packages of bank notes amounting in all to about $50,000. His whereabouts are unknown.

Zimmerman Is First.

LONDON, June 27.—Arthur Zimmerman, the crack American bicyclist, added another to his recent series of victories by winning the 6-mile championship race at Reeds.

THE MARKETS.

	NEW YORK, June 27.
LIVE STOCK—Cattle	$3 55 @	4 70
Sheep	3 65 @	5 00
Hogs	5 10 @	5 02½
FLOUR—Fair to Fancy	3 30 @	4 60
Minnesota Patents	4 15 @	5 10
WHEAT—No. 2 Red	89½ @	90¾
Ungraded Red	71 @	93¼
CORN—No. 2	58½ @	59½
Ungraded Mixed	57 @	61
OATS—Mixed Western	37 @	38½
RYE—Western	83 @	89
PORK—Mess, New	11 00 @	11 25
LARD—Western Steam	6 25 @	6 35
BUTTER—Western Creamery	15 @	20
CHICAGO.
BEEVES—Shipping Steers	$3 30 @	4 80
Cows	1 50 @	3 30
Stockers	2 40 @	3 25
Feeders	3 40 @	3 90
Butchers' Steers	3 25 @	3 70
Bulls	2 00 @	3 75
HOGS—Live	4 85 @	5 45
SHEEP	4 60 @	6 25
BUTTER—Creamery	16 @	19
Good to Choice Dairy	12 @	15
EGGS—Fresh	12½ @	13½
BROOM CORN—
Hurl	5½ @	7
Self-working	4½ @	5½
Crooked	2 @	3
POTATOES—(per bu)	20 @	24
PORK—Mess	10 75 @	10 85
LARD—Steam	6 50 @	6 57½
FLOUR—Spring Patents	4 50 @	4 80
Winter Patents	4 50 @	4 70
Rye	4 05 @	4 60
GRAIN—Wheat, July	78¾ @	78¾
Corn, No. 2	50¾ @	50¾
Oats, No. 2	32½ @	33
Rye, No. 2	76 @	76¼
Barley, Good to Choice	50 @	57
LUMBER—
Siding	19 00 @	23 00
Flooring	35 00 @	36 00
Common Boards	13 50 @	13 75
Fencing	12 50 @	13 50
Lath, dry	2 85 @	2 75
Shingles	2 20 @	2 75
ST. LOUIS.
CATTLE—Steers	$3 25 @	4 25
Texans and Indians	2 40 @	3 00
HOGS—Fair to Choice Heavy	5 00 @	5 25
Mixed Grades	4 75 @	5 30
SHEEP	4 00 @	5 00
OMAHA.
CATTLE—Common to Fancy	$3 00 @	4 50
Westerns	2 75 @	3 50
HOGS	4 80 @	5 05
SHEEP	4 50 @	6 00

TO YOUNG MOTHERS.

who are for the first time to undergo woman's severest trial, we offer you, at the stupor caused by chloroform, with risk of death for yourself or your dearly-loved and long-for offspring, but "Mother's Friend," a remedy which will, if used as directed, invariably alleviate the pains, horrors and risks of labor, and often entirely do away with them. Sold by Jno. Orr.

I HAVE TAKEN SEVERAL

Bottles of Bradfield's Female Regulator for falling of the womb and other diseases combined, of 16 years standing, and I really believe I am cured entirely, for which please accept my thanks.

MRS. W. E. STERRINS, Ridge, Ga.

WHY IS THE W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY?

It is a seamless shoe, with no tacks or wax thread to hurt the feet; made of the best fine calf, stylish and easy, and because we make more shoes of this grade than any other manufacturer, it equals hand-sewed shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

$5.00 Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest calf shoe ever offered for $5.00; equals French imported shoes which cost from $8.00 to $12.00.

$4.00 Hand-Sewed Welt Shoe, fine calf, stylish, comfortable and durable. The best shoe ever offered at this price; same grade as custom-made shoes costing from $6.00 to $9.00.

$3.50 Police Shoe; Farmers, Railroad Men and Letter Carriers all wear them; fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, heavy three soles, extension edge. One pair will wear a year.

$2.50 fine calf; no better shoe ever offered at this price; one trial will convince those who want a shoe for comfort and service.

$2.25 and $2.00 Workingman's shoes are very strong and durable. Those who have given them a trial will wear no other make.

Boys' $2.00 and $1.75 school shoes are worn by the boys everywhere; they sell on their merits, as the increasing sales show.

Ladies $3.00 Hand-sewed shoe, best Dongola, very stylish; equals French imported shoes costing from $4.00 to $6.00.

Ladies' $2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 shoe for Misses are the best fine Dongola. Stylish and durable.

Caution.—See that W. L. Douglas' name and price are stamped on the bottom of each shoe.

IF TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

Insist on local advertised dealers supplying you. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by

SOLD BY

HARRIS & HITESHU, Tecumseh.

- - - LADIES - - -

In delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions or of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to my cure together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The M. U. Pastilles have stood the test of 18 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $1.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr. H. H. Jackson, 103 State Street, Chicago, Illinois

The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. The name and address will be given any lady asking for the same:

DR JACKSON,

Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend your M. U. Pastilles to all ladies suffering with female diseases. Having myself been bedfast for ten months and could find no remedy until I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using about two boxes I was well and sound, for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady.

DO YOU COUGH DON'T DELAY TAKE KEMP'S BALSAM THE BEST COUGH CURE

It Cures Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Large Bottles, 50 cents and $1.00. It Cures Influenza.

The Celebrated Stallion

GIPSEY CHIEF.

Will make the season of 1892 at the owner's farm, at the Bridgewater Mills, River Raisin.

GIPSEY CHIEF is the grandest sire in Southern Michigan, producing from mares of different blood, more matched colts, than any other stallion. Parties wishing to raise colts uniform in style and color, would do well to look at Gipsey Chief and his get, before booking their mares. He is the sire of the celebrated horse Tycoon Boy, record 2:24 1-2, and other fast ones.

GIPSEY'S colts all have fine style and action and find ready sale at good prices. For pedigree and terms, address

CHARLES R. KOERNIG,
River Raisin, Mich.

PHYSICIANS OUTDONE.

My wife has been suffering with female trouble of the severest kind for over three years. I have paid twenty-five dollars during the last three months, and she had no relief. She had doctored continually with the best of physicians.

I bought three bottles each of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure, and can say to-day that she is entirely cured. W. M. DROWLEY.

Sworn to before me on this 23d day of June, 1890. JOHN C. DULLAM.
Flint, Mich. Notary Public, Genesee Co.
For sale by Jno. Orr.

Burglar (flashing his dark-lantern in the face of the sleeper): If you make a loud noise you're a dead man! I want it quick! Where is it?

Mr. Billus (only half awake): Why, great Scott, Maria! What have you done with the $25 I gave you yesterday?

KING OF THE BLOOD

The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.

Cures all Humors, from a Common Pimple to the worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.

Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.

Its name is its best description as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.

It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.

It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the surgeon's knife.

It cures DROPSY, general or partial.

It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.

It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.

It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons and establishes a sound constitution.

Many certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," in which each bottle is enclosed.

Price $1 per bottle containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses. Sold by dealer or medicine.

If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you. It will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors, BUFFALO, N. Y.

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.

It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.

The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.

All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.

It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood. By this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame; every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years.

This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates of cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.

Price 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's
Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!

HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan Street, I am prepared to execute

General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds.

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

Satisfaction Guaranteed, and Charges Reasonable.

A. J. WHITING.

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.

OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.

A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.

OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

TECUMSEH HERALD
Issued Every Thursday. Morning.
BY S. C. STACY.

School Commencement.

"HONORS WAIT AT LABOR'S GATE" PRACTICALLY ILLUSTRATED BY THE CLASS OF '92.

A Class of Ten Receive Their Diplomas and Step Across the Threshold from Their Alma Mater into Active Life.

The Graduating Class of 1892, although not as large as some former classes, presented a most creditable Commencement program on Thursday evening last. The class consisted of ten members, five young gentlemen and five young ladies. The threatening weather just at nightfall doubtless kept many away, but the opera house was comfortably filled with an appreciative and attentive audience.

The decoration of the stage was very tasty and out of the usual order. The forest scenes were set and these were supplemented by large branches of heavy growth, while the front of the platform was ornamented with festoons of leaves and flowers. Two arc lights added to the illumination, making the scene most brilliant and attractive. Affixed to the upper fly on a black background in large silver letters was the class motto: "Honors Wait at Labor's Gate." Ten small tables occupied the open space in front of the stage, one for each member of the class, all of which were laden with bouquets, books and other gifts of beauty and value. The class seemed to be peculiarly fortunate in possessing many friends, judging from the number of gifts they received.

Promptly at eight o'clock Prof. Kellogg called the assemblage to order and announced the program in the following order. It was exactly right in length, consuming just two hours.

Piano duet, selected—Misses Benedict and Fisher.
Invocation—Rev. O. J. Perrin.
Chorus—Pilgrim Chorus.
Salutatory—E. Grace Gillespie.
Oration—Motive Power in Mechanics—Guy J. Davidson.
Essay—Purpose—Jennie McCoy.
Cornet solo—W. S. Dickinson.
Class History—Franc G. Snell.
Oration—Ethics in Politics—Willis R. Harton.
Essay—Warfare of Science—M. Maud Hodges.
Glee—"Every Inch a Sailor"—Reade.
Oration—Country Roads—Garland R. Gillespie.
Class Poem—W. Jay Morse.
Chorus—"Morning Invitation"—(Veazie.)
Essay—The Profitable Reading of Fiction—Lulu E. Garlinghouse.
Valedictory—Education, Past, and Present—Willis E. Finch.
Presentation of Diplomas—Dr. Geo. Howell.
Class Song.
Benediction—Rev. W. H. Babbitt.

The essays and orations were all very creditable, evincing careful preparation and thorough scholarship. The musical part of the program was of more than ordinary merit. The piano duet by Misses Benedict and Fisher was finely rendered. The Pilgrim Chorus was given by sixteen pupils belonging to the higher grades, led by Miss Dora Grayson, with Miss Ella Jackson accompanying on the piano. It elicited a round of applause. Mr. Dickinson's cornet solo was excellent, as a matter of course. Miss Jennie Root accompanied on the piano. The glee, "Every Inch a Sailor," was rendered by seven pupils, all boys, and brought forth a hearty encore. The chorus, "Morning Invitation," was given by sixteen pupils, Dora Grayson leading and Ella Jackson accompanying. Dr. Geo. Howell, President of the Board, presented the diplomas in a few well-chosen words, giving the class some excellent admonition and advice. The class song was sung by the class itself, Rev. W. H. Babbitt pronounced the benediction and the Commencement of '92 was over.

We give below a brief synopsis of the essays, which will show their general character:

Salutatory.

E. GRACE GILLESPIE.

Friends, Teachers and Schoolmates—It is with pleasure that I, in the name of the class of '92, extend to you a most cordial welcome. We greet you tonight as we are about to leave our years of study and enter into the wide world beyond. The year 1892 not only marks an important event in the history of our lives, but in the history of our country as well. Four hundred years ago, on the 3rd day of August, three ships left the port of Palos bound for an unknown harbor and on the 22d of October, after encountering many storms and trials, they were alongside of a beautiful island, on the threshold between the old world and the new. We are now standing upon the threshold of a new world of work and looking back upon the old world of study. The voyage has been made up of both success and failure, sunshine and storm, but to-night as victors we are ready to step forth into a world of new duties. Realizing, as we do, the mighty possibilities sleeping in the class of '92, shall we be idlers or workers? Let us not look mournfully into the past, for it comes not back again, but go forth to meet the future without a fear, never doubting that success will finally crown all our efforts. "Destiny is not without thee, but within thee; thyself must make thyself." Again I say, we meet you at the threshold and heartily welcome you.

Motive Power in Mechanics.

GUY J. DAVIDSON.

The nineteenth century may properly be called the developing period of mechanics and science. It stands forth as the culmination of the ages in this particular. When Watt made known his invention of applying steam as a motor power he gave a mighty impetus to the forthcoming revolution in the industrial world, and steam at once became one of the two greatest mechanical powers. It continues to hold first place as a motive power, although the mechanism for its use has been greatly improved. The question now arises: Can human genius search out the hidden secrets of nature, ever find a mightier force to take the place of steam? Many attempts have been made to construct an engine surpassing the steam engine in utilizing the full force of heat, but thus far without success. The present indications are that steam will not soon be superseded as a motive power. As a result of scientific test, it is known that none of the non-aqueous vapors can compete with steam. What can be expected of electricity as a motive power? Is it not certain, in some directions at least, to supersede steam? Future discoveries in the electrical field can at best be only conjectured. At present it is a wonderful motive agency, but only as the servant and auxiliary of steam. Until a new invention appears we must still depend, for our mechanical motor power, upon heat and water.

Purpose.

JENNIE M'COY.

Nothing comes by chance. Purpose is written upon all the forms and phases of Nature. And since the Great Author of all created man in his own image, giving him the ability to discriminate between right and wrong, surely to us is given a great work to perform. It will depend upon the aim of each individual how well the purpose for which he was designed shall be accomplished. The time comes in the life of every person when some particular field of action must be chosen which will determine his life's course and shape his destiny.

"Aim at the highest prize;
If there thou fail, thou'lt haply reach
To one not far below."

To have a fixed and definite purpose is necessary to success, no matter what the object of our pursuit may be. Every man must have some one goal towards which he must direct his steps and all his energy. Men seldom acquire wealth or fame by chance, and never learning. That man only may aim at distinction who feels that a fixed purpose is the only road to success. Purpose is the main element of all heroic characters. It gave Demosthenes and Columbus, Martin Luther and Cromwell their success. One must not be discouraged by adverse circumstances. Diligence, resolute work, unchanging purpose—these are the qualities which achieve greatness. No obstacles are allowed to daunt the earnest soul. No heed is given to apparent impossibilities. Blessed is he who has found his work. Let him ask no other blessedness.

Class History.

FRANC G. SNELL.

In a general way, a history may be defined as the record of the life of mankind; in a more special way, it is the narrative of the use and progress of those famous people whose doings constitute the history of civilization.

The history with which we have to deal with may be considered as the narrative of the rise and progress of those pupils who constitute the class of '92, and who have so long influenced the current of affairs in the Tecumseh High School. Now, history naturally divides itself into periods. For instance, United States History is divided into three periods, Colonial, Revolutionary and Administrative periods. So in our history, we have the periods of Primary, Grammar and High School. In each period we have made our influence felt. In many ways we stand out in bold relief from the classes that make up the alumni of this school.

Five of us began our school life with all its ups and downs, sorrows and pleasures in our loved home school of Tecumseh. Lulu Garlinghouse, Maude Hodges and Jay Morse mastered their A. B. C's in the old West Branch, while Jenny McCoy first learned how to spell "study" in the North Branch. All the rest of our number began as fun loving urchins in the district schools of the county. Garland and Grace Gillespie in Clinton, Willis Harton in Woodstock, Willis Finch in Raisin, and Guy Davidson in the Waring district. The last two joined us in the eighth grade.

Now, in advancing in grades and years, we find on the first of Sept, 1888, a class of 27 persons, entering the high school, of which there are here tonight, only seven: Jenny McCoy, our sec'y., Lulu, our pres., Willis, the "son of David" and the "Infant" came up from the eighth grade. We were joined by Grace and Garland, who had just arrived from the school of their childhood. This great falling off in numbers would, perhaps, convey the impression that going through the Tecumseh High School is a terrible ordeal and that it needs one of great courage to fight his way. Well, as for the ordeal, we managed to live through it. Being noted for our courage we, of course, found opportunities to use it. Through it all we were stimulated by a purpose; knowing "honors wait at labor's gate," we were determined to find the honors, if such there were.

Perhaps you wonder where are the twenty? They are all enjoying peaceful, useful lives in various occupations. As a proof that our class has been, from the first a remarkable one, we may mention two of our number who completed the course in three years, lending dignity to the graduating class of last June. In the 11th grade our number was 22 but it was in the 11th grade that the majority of the class left, leaving only the seven firm ones. But in that grade also our hearts were gladdened by the introduction of our learned classmate and reporter, Willis Harton. Last Sept. we were joined by two, who felt it such an honor to be members of our class, that they had stayed behind a year to graduate with us. I refer to our honored vice-president, Maude Hodges and trusted treasurer, Jay Morse.

I have now given you the history of our high school life and you see us tonight an evenly balanced class. This balance is something of great importance. It being an unusual occurrence, for in the majority of former classes the girls have greatly outnumbered the boys, but you see in our class we have boys intelligent enough to graduate with an equal number of girls. As for individuals, all but two were born in this state and in our county, but the two, knowing the honor of being members of this class, were attracted, one from beyond the Mississippi and the other from across the Atlantic. What more proof of our greatness can you ask?

Next, let us consider the weight. To lift our class by means of a lever, ten feet long, would require a power of 25,517 lbs. applied 6 inches from the fulcrum, yet the average weight is 134 lbs., with extremes of 150 and 115 lbs. As for height, a pole 38 ft. 2 in. long represents our total. For extremes we have 5 and 6 ft. The average being 5 ft. 3 in. In age, we range all the way from a romping girl of 16, a very verdant freshman, to a voter of 21, making an average of 19 years. We know we are not and do not pretend to be the youngest class from this school, but no excuse is needed for every one knows that the best scholars graduate when they have gained all the knowledge possible from a school. Most of all are we an honored class were it known that one of our number had grey hair because not really known but re-morse over something.

We have treated of the past and present. Now what shall the future bring forth? We all realize that tonight is the turning point in our lives. Shall it be for the better or for worse? Surely not for worse. Some of us have made few plans for our future. One intends to be a lawyer, two or three farmers, while several, feeling that they never can get enough of school life intend to go higher in education and prepare themselves for teachers. The number of scholars not yet determined. But whatever may be our future we are determined to make our lives useful ones to those about us, always bearing in mind that "Honors wait at Labor's Gate" and never will be forgotten by one of us the pleasant days spent in fun and study in our old school.

Ethics in Politics.

WILLIS R. HARTON.

Politics, in its widest acceptance is both a science and an art of government. To many it may seem that Ethics and Politics are far apart, that the two are diametrically opposed. But the political arena is not entirely under the domination of party demagogues, for which we can thank the press of to-day. In the hands of intelligent and honest men, the power of the newspaper is far-reaching. The voters of the United States believe that there is a right and wrong in politics, and the time seems to have come when they look to principle rather than to party. True it is that in some localities Tammany rings seem to rule, but this is the exception. Politics ought to be regarded as a branch of Ethics, and if the masses of thinking voters be considered the time is approaching when that idea will become universal. That class, known as independent voters, is on the increase, that is the men who regard the principles of right and wrong as above party interest. The new election law in this state is an indication of the growth of moral sentiment in elections. The secret ballot is more nearly secured and the temptation to corrupt methods is thereby lessened. The public officer who betrays a public trust knows full well that his constituents will "turn him down" at the next election. The American voters are fast advancing to the demands of honesty in political affairs. We may reasonably expect that at no distant day honesty in political parties will more largely contribute to honesty in governmental affairs.

The Warfare of Science.

M. MAUDE HODGES.

We are so accustomed to regard science as of the greatest importance that we hardly comprehend the difficulties through which it has secured the foothold now allotted to it. Even yet the warfare of science is not ended. Brave indeed is the man who dares to oppose public opinion or contradict the so-called authorities in science or theology. In early times, when all new theories and all scientific discoveries were regarded as heresy, the warfare of science against ignorance and superstition was long and bitter. The discovery of Copernicus, that the earth and planets revolve about the sun, was for a time obscured and crushed out by the church authorities, but Galileo came to the rescue and the war again broke out with great fury. The persecution to which he was subjected became so strong that he was finally compelled to renounce his theory. But the apparent triumph was doomed to be a failure in the end, for the truth kept steadily gaining and in 1757 Pope Benedict XIV. allowed the Copernican theory to be tolerated. The science of medicine went through a similar contest. All sickness was regarded as the punishment for some sin which could only be cured by faith or miracle, and hence the Church frowned upon all attempts at scientific investigation in medicine. But in the 15th and 16th centuries the revival of learning, the invention of printing and the great voyages of discovery gave new impulse to study and this science was greatly benefited. Nor even yet can we say that science advances altogether without opposition. The warfare against Evolution is now in progress. But in all this strife true religion has been the gainer and not the loser.

Our Country Roads.

GARLAND R. GILLESPIE.

Agitation must, it is said, precede reform. History shows that all great reforms, whether scientific, religious or political have been brought about by agitation. There is one subject now being agitated which should continue to be agitated until it brings about the enactment of proper laws, and that is, "Country Roads." The need of better roads was recognized and earnestly urged by James Madison, Thomas Jefferson and Daniel Webster. Within the past decade, however, aroused by the League of American Wheelmen, the subject has been brought up with new force. The magazines and papers are advocating improved highways. The governors of several states have strongly advocated it in their messages. Director General Davis of the Columbian Exposition says: "No other national interest in the United States rests under so dense a cloud of ignorance." Most of us know nothing of what a good road is, as we have always traveled in mud or dust. Many of our county roads at some seasons of the year are almost impassable. Even in the streets of this village last winter, the mud was for six weeks nearly knee deep. How long are we to allow this paralyzing system of "working out the road tax" to continue? The times have outgrown it. Many people will donate liberally to build a new railroad, but only a small sum to improve the wagon road that passes their own door. There has been no improvement in our highway system during the past one hundred years. This is a reform which must come in time.

Class Poem.

W. JAY MORSE.

"Honors wait at Labor's gate,"
Thus sang the Muses long ago;
Till from each and every classic lane
Softly now their echoes sweetly float,
In every land, however remote,
And we with gladness the song may hear
In lyric strains both grand and clear.
To us the words now come; all ye who cannot see
And understand its meaning deep, hear me,
And I will their hidden wisdom show.
The way of life leads up a winding steep;
But Labor's gate is the only place
Where Honors wait, a rich reward to keep,
For those who with determination grand
Have labored true with mind and hand.
And, as they have sought some certain end,
And toward it their every effort bend,
And each and every task with patience done;
Till, like the setting of the summer sun,
They reach the end and cease the weary strife
Happy in the consciousness of a well-spent life.
And as we approach the mountain's rocky side
And behold the various paths as they divide,
We with hesitation trembling stand,
Until our Muse beckons with friendly hand:
And we ask, in words more bold,
Where lead these paths with joy untold?
They speak: Oh now! my friend so young,
These are the callings of life of which we've sung.
Each will, if you select your way aright,
Lead up to Labor's gate and honors bright;
That these await for all, who with care
Their each and every task prepare.
So under the guiding care of our trusty friend
We each our pathway choose, and follow to the end.
When lo! before our eager eyes,
The walls of a palace seem to rise;
And, as we gain a nearer view,
We read the names of the honored few
Whose aim it was to keep in view a certain end,
And all their energies toward it bend.
And in the list we find the names of Washington and Clay,
Lincoln, Webster and others of to-day,
Who have, o'er all the obstacles of life,
Won their honors in labor's bloodless strife.
And we the class of '92,
Have each our paths of life in view.
Our school-work done,—
Perhaps some honors won.
And as by faithful work was paved the Appian way,
So let us with works well done our pathway pave,
Until we rest within the gate,
Where honors wait,
And receive the great reward: "Well done."

The Profitable Reading of Fiction.

LULU E. GARLINGHOUSE.

Much has been said against fiction but we should not condemn anything without giving it a fair investigation. What can be said in favor of reading fiction? In many cases the reading of fictitious literature does more harm than good, yet when properly read there is knowledge to be gained by reading fiction. Henry Ward Beecher expresses it thus: "A reading of fiction which throws off care, which brings knowledge to men's minds, such a reading is beneficial. He who reads to rest himself, to lift himself above the dead level of the vulgar real, reads to his advantage and profit." Mankind has always had stories to listen to. Even Paradise Lost, with all its majestic sublimity, is only fiction, but who would assert that there was no benefit to be derived from it? When we speak of obtaining good from a story, we mean more than the mere pleasure of reading it; we mean intellectual or moral profit. Evidently to read fiction for profit and not amusement, one must look beyond the personalities and their deeds, and gather the author's wit or wisdom. Our main object is a lesson in life, mental improvement gained from the narratives themselves. Every author has a special style and characteristics. We cannot reach the thought of the author by merely reading his pages for amusement. We must read understandingly. Truly has it been said that "the eye sees that which it brings with it the means of seeing."

Valedictory—Education, Past and Present.

WILLIS E. FINCH.

The subject of Education is one of vital importance. Education, as Plato defines it is "that which gives to the body and to the soul all the beauty and all the perfection of which they are capable." It may be interesting to trace its progress since early times. The people of Israel have demonstrated the power of education. Dispossessed of their country for eighteen hundred years, it is largely due to the education transmitted from the ancient Hebrews, that they still maintain the characteristics of their race. In early Grecian history there were two systems of education, the Athenian and Spartan. The Athenian system had for its chief object the training of the mind; the Spartans sacrificed mind to body, their ideal being a perfect, healthy body. The Roman education is divided into two periods. In the early period physical development claimed first attention; later Greek art and philosophy subdued the sterner ideal. In the Middle Ages the object of education was entirely different. Its only aim was for service to the church. The only scholars to be found were in the monasteries. These times were fitly called the "Dark Ages." But after every night there comes a morning and a glorious day is now upon us. Modern school systems have for their object a combination of all that have gone before. We are truly approaching high noon in this day of education. What shall our labor be? This is the day and the country in which the honest and skillful laborer may reach the highest positions of honor. Shall we prove to those around us that we believe in our motto—"Honors wait at Labor's Gate?"

WHY IT IS POPULAR.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 doses one dollar" is true—these points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

The peculiar enervating effect of summer weather is driven off by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which "makes the weak strong."

SUMMER HATS

STRAW HATS,
SOFT HATS,
STIFF HATS.

For Men and Boys—All Styles and Qualities.

Hot Weather Clothing

An Endless Variety of Styles and Qualities.

Cassimere Suits in All the Latest Styles and Colors for Men, Boys, and Children.

THE LARGEST LINE AND LOWEST PRICES AT

STRONG & McNAIR'S

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS

I will sell your choice of my extensive line of

Hanging Lamps

at cost. I can show you the best assortment of

HAVILAND CHINA,

plain and decorated patterns, in dinner and tea sets, also in fancy pieces. Decorated English porcelain in 12 different patterns and in sets to suit. A fine English decorated chamber set at the very low price of $2.90 for 10 piece set; $4.90 for 12 piece set.

My stock of Fancy Groceries is complete. Our customers say we have the best 50c tea in town. Come and get sample and see for yourself. Will not be undersold.

JAMES LOWRY.

We have never had such a fine array of harvest machines to show farmers as this season. Every one shows improved skill, strength and symmetry derived from the touch of

WALTER A. WOOD.

The Wood machines, as made for 1892, are winning crowds of new friends. Examine the new chain-drive, and balance-reel, on the Wood harvester. Examine the new spring lift and the new axle extension on the Wood mowers. Examine the Wood hand-dump rakes, virtually self-dumping.

REASONS WHY

FARMERS SHOULD BUY

Walter A. Wood Harvest Machines

BECAUSE they are light of draft.
BECAUSE they are easily operated.
BECAUSE they are simple in construction.
BECAUSE they are THE WALTER A. WOOD.
BECAUSE they have a world-wide reputation.
BECAUSE with care they will last a life time,
BECAUSE great care is taken in their manufacture.
BECAUSE they do not require the aid of an expert.
BECAUSE they contain all the latest improvements.
BECAUSE they can be operated by man, woman or child.
BECAUSE they are made of the best and strongest materials.

M. E. CONKLIN, Agent

Headquarters at D. L. Whitenack's Hardware

SPECIAL NOTICES.

MONEY TO LOAN.—On long time. Apply by letter to Lock Box 15, Tecumseh, Mich

LOST.—On Monday, July 24, on the streets of Tecumseh a garnet breas: pin. Liberal reward if returned to this office.

CHOICE FLOWER PLANTS.—I have strong, large plants of Asters, Balsams, Pansies and Daisies at fifteen cents per dozen. MRS. ROBERT CROSBY, Brownville.

DRESSMAKING.—Mrs Waldron and daughter, Mrs. Harris, can be found at their home ready to wait upon the ladies in the line of dressmaking. Give them an opportunity to do your work. Residence two blocks north of Presbyterian Church.

HAIRDRESSING. Madame Grims, hairdresser, of Detroit, is at Mrs. Gamble's.—Manufactures and has for sale all styles of hair goods. Prices very reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. 1w

ATTENTION FARMERS.—Before buying a mower see the Johnston, the best mower in the market. For sale by GEO. HOLLOWAY, Holloway.

FOR SALE.—12 horse power Engine and Boiler for sale cheap if taken at once. Parties can see engine running at Heesen Bros. & Co.'s shop. HEESEN BROS. & CO.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—The old M. E parsonage house on Pearl street. A good house in a very fine location. For price and terms of payment call at the premises S. WHITTIER. mar31-1

FOR SALE OR RENT:—A brick house with two or six of land on Adrian road, south of old Quaker meeting house, good bargain to right parties. Inquire at J. S. Kinney's furniture store, Tecumseh.

MUSTANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, tf Tecumseh.

ASTONISHING.—Any young man or young lady, meaning business, can learn of something of practical value to him by enclosing a stamp at once—don't wait—to C. A. SHARP, Adrian, Mich.

SLAYTON'S ODOMETER.—A Customer from Ontonagon, Mich., writes A. W. Slayton: "Have used your Odometer a year, am much pleased and want more of them." These machines are now in use in nineteen states. They tell how many miles you or others drive your horse. Address, A. W SLAYTON, Tecumseh, Mich. Agents Wanted.

STRAYED.—From my premises in Ridgeway on Monday, June 20th, a dark brown horse, letter U branded on left shoulder, shod forward The finder will be suitably rewarded by notifying the undersigned WM. UNDERWOOD. Ridgeway.

TECUMSEH HERALD.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JUNE 30, 1892.

Local and Miscellaneous

Blissfield will celebrate also.

Tecumseh people had better celebrate the 4th in Clinton this year.

Miss Carrie Keyser has returned from a visit with friends in Clinton.

The leading question at present is: Where are you going to celebrate?

Ice cream and cake at the Baptist church next Wednesday evening, 10c.

Every Democrat in Tecumseh should turn out next Saturday evening and help ratify.

A large number of our High School graduates were back this year to attend the Alumni reunion last Friday.

Drs. J. F. Jenkins and A. M. Vail, of Iowa, went over Wednesday to attend the Alumni Association at AnnArbor.

Geo. Robertson, of Arkansas, was in town the first of the week. It was his first visit to Tecumseh in eight years.

Frank Bice has bought out his partner's interest in the City Bakery and will run the establishment alone again.

Scove Walker went from Chicago last week to Elgin, Ill., to visit relatives there and will return home the last of this week.

Rev. J. M. Getchell, of Marshall, was in town yesterday for a brief visit. The church at Marshall is prospering under his charge.

The young People of the Baptist church will give an ice cream social at the church parlors Wednesday evening, July 6. Everybody invited.

Tecumseh people, who wish to celebrate the 4th of year, will be obliged to go away from home. The major part of the crowd will doubtless go to Clinton.

Prof. Fred Boyd, of Michigamme, was in town last week, having come down to attend the Alumni reunion. He has been engaged as Principal of the Michigamme schools for another year.

J. J. Putnam & Son, of the Lake Park house, Sand lake, are sending out some handsome descriptive souvenirs, containing elegant half-toned engravings of various charming views on the lake.

Geo. N. Stacy, of Elgin, Ill., arrived in town Saturday and remained until yesterday. He is still connected with the Elgin News. His position suits him exactly and he seems to have become a fixture in the establishment.

The Democrats of Tecumseh are making arrangements for a big blow out next Saturday evening. Lieut. L. H. Salsbury of Adrian, and other speakers, will address the meeting, and there will doubtless be a large crowd to whoop 'er up for Grover and Adlai.

Examinations closed at Ann Arbor last week and the Tecumseh contingent at the University came home, Ernest Gamble, Raynor Anderson and Miss Anna Bailey. Dr. Gamble graduates to-day and he returned to Ann Arbor Tuesday to be present at Commencement.

The finance committee for the band reunion are meeting with very flattering success in their canvass. People are taking hold of the matter with alacrity and all indications point to a big time on the 25th of August. There is no longer any doubt that the meeting will be held here. Now Tecumseh should put her shoulders to the wheel and make it a grand success.

Let the eagle scream.

Dundee is getting ready for a big time on the 4th.

Rev. J. O. Heck, of Rome, was in town one day last week.

Mrs. Dr. Hamilton has gone to New York to spend the summer.

Rev. F. Adkins occupied the Baptist pulpit last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Dr. Meeker, of Chicago, is visiting friends in town for a few days.

The Tecumseh Laundry is having a good run of custom for Dundee parties.

Mrs. H. L. Stewart and daughter have gone to Cincinnati and St. Louis for a short visit.

D. B. Sovereen, of Olean, N. Y., is the latest new employee at Teeple's gallery. He is a very fine artist.

Mrs. Jas. S. Wilson, of Detroit, has returned home, after a visit of several weeks at her father's, N. M. Sutton's.

Mrs. S. A. James, of Detroit, and Miss May DeWolf, who have been making a lengthy sojourn in the South for the benefit of their health, returned home last week.

Joe Wilson, of Owosso, is spending a few days in town this week. He has sold out his boot and shoe store at Owosso and is taking a rest. He better come back to Tecumseh.

The Coiled Spring Number for June is on our table and is well filled with matter in regard to the celebrated Page Wire fence. The illustrated parody on Excelsior is very nicely gotten up.

The chair in which Thomas Jefferson sat while writing the Declaration of Independence is now owned by the Philosophical Society, Philadelphia. It is reported that this interesting relic will be exhibited at the World's Fair.

The Alumni last week was a grand success. The program was better than usual and the attendance much larger. As the commencement report consumes all our available space this week, the Alumni report is necessarily deferred until next week.

Dr. Eugene Tremaine has just returned from Philadelphia having finished his medical course there, and comes out a full fledged M. D. He will remain in town a few weeks before deciding where to locate. His many friends here will congratulate him and wish him abundant success.

A correspondent writing for a local paper says Messrs. Smith & Jones have received a new stock of goods, pay your old score and begin anew. The editor got it: Smith & Jones have a new stock of goods. They will please call on us, settle that old score and advertise anew.

There will be a Union Gospel Temperance meeting in the M. E. church on Sabbath evening, July 3d, at 7:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in which all the churches and pastors are invited to join. A fine musical and literary program is provided.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered on the first Sunday in July, at the Reformed church of Macon, at 10:30 a. m.; and in the Reformed church of South Macon at 7:30 p. m. Preparatory service at Macon Friday evening at 7:30, and at South Macon Saturday evening at 7:30. Members will please take notice.

Our younger readers will be interested this week in the new advertisement of the Fayette Normal University. Don't overlook it, for it will be well worth your while to write for catalogue and see the special advantages this institution is offering. The rapid growth of this school indicates both energy and merit in its management.

Quite a serious accident happened at Britton Saturday evening, while Uncle Tom's Cabin was being played in that village. The large tent which was serving the purpose of an opera house was nearly filled, when the seats gave away throwing a good many people to the ground, bruising some quite badly. One young man is suffering with a broken leg. No one fatally injured.

Since the announcement made in this paper in reference to the Detroit International Fair and exposition for 1892 the premium list has been widely circulated, has met with general approval and has created great interest among exhibitors. The entries already offered make it certain that there will be an unexcelled display in the usual lines of exhibits in addition to the new attractions that are offered.

M. P. Brown has secured the agency for a new book which ought to have a large sale. The title is "Men and Issues of '92." It contains 96 portraits of statesmen, orators and party leaders, including the candidates, and a large amount of valuable political matter. It contains 640 pages and is sold at the remarkably low price of $2.00. Every voter ought to have a copy to post himself on the issues of the campaign. Mr. Brown controls Tecumseh and the adjoining towns.

Raisin Valley Seminary will have a new Principal next year. Prof. Robt. L. Kelly was invited to remain for the coming year, but he decided to go to Plainfield, Ind., where he has a more lucrative position. The students gave him a surprise one morning last week by presenting him with an elegant office chair, and the Senior class left with him as a souvenir a six volume set of Gibbon's Rome. The Professor will attend the National convention of the Y. P. S. C. E., at N. Y. City and go from thence to Plainfield.

Ernest Goff is home again.

Oscar Hall has gone to Milan for a few days visit.

Most Tecumseh people will celebrate at Clinton this year.

Mrs. W. S. Dickinson is visiting friends at Waterloo, Ind.

Mrs. Dr. Mosher, of Kansas City, is visiting Mrs. Dr. Jenkins.

Oren Howes, one of Hudson's business men, was in town Monday.

Miss Julia Wright has gone to Elmira, N. Y., to spend the summer.

Co. C has accepted an invitation to celebrate the Fourth at Jackson.

Mrs. H. H. Snell, of Grand Rapids, is visiting at H. J. Snell's this week.

Manager Bowen is now devoting his leisure time to initiating a new Safety.

Anderson & Co., and Harris & Hiteshu will close their stores on the 4th of July.

W. C. Heck and wife are visiting their son Walter and other friends at South Bend, Ind.

Ben Laur, of Cambridge, was in town yesterday and paid his respects at the HERALD sanctum.

Ed. Smith and C. S. Burroughs, of Clinton, attended the big convention at Chicago last week.

Clinton will whoop 'er up lively on the Fourth. We look to see a big delegation there from Tecumseh.

Metta Adams is home from Marquette for the vacation. She has been teaching there during the past year.

The HERALD boys expect to celebrate next Monday and our office will be closed on that day. Boom de ah!

Mrs. Chilson has gone to Toledo and will accompany the Captain on his next trip up the lakes with the Marquette.

Some Blissfield farmers will sow their corn ground to buckwheat, and try to scratch through the winter, by such means.

Mamie Osbron has returned from Manton, Mich., where she has been teaching during the past year, to spend the vacation.

Miss Ellen Fisher attended the Alumni reunion Friday. She graduated at the last commencement at Kalamazoo College and will probably spend the summer at home.

Mesdames J. H. Smith, E. S. Tate and H. S. Waring gave a tea party to their lady friends last evening at Mrs. Tate's home. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by those present.

Marshall T. R. Kyle will receive village taxes at the HERALD office during the month of July. He will be at this office each Friday during that month, beginning next week, July 8th.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its monthly meeting for July next Sunday afternoon at half past three o'clock. Members of the society and all other ladies invited to be present.

The Michigan crop report for June shows that in the southern tier of counties wheat is in better condition than for any year since 1885, the average being 91. The corn crop in the state averages 83 per cent. and oats 85.

The Tecumseh Table Co., is making a fine line of fancy boxes for toilet use, and they expect soon to put some drummers on the road to sell them. The boxes will be elegant in design and finish and they ought to find a ready sale.

Lightning has been exceedingly partial this season. It has struck numerous windmills owned by farmers throughout the country, but has dodged the tempting but unsightly affair right here in the center of the world—Manchester's main business street.—Enterprise.

E. W. Rappleye of Ridgeway, is agent for the Adriance Binders and he will start one of these machines on Jas. F. Barlow's farm next week Wednesday, July 6th, or as soon thereafter as the weather will permit, probably on that day. Farmers are invited to call there and see the machine in operation.

Replete with summer blossoms, "Godey" for July dashes in upon us fresh and sparkling as Rhinish wine. Always fair and attractive, this old young magazine never wearies and always entertains and instructs its readers. Few families dispense with its welcome visits, where its sunny leaves have once secured a lodgment.

The Deerfield mill dam broke thro' the center last Tuesday morning. Within an hour the whole structure was a complete wreck. The loss falls heavily upon Geo. Sisson, owner of the grist mill, and on "Uncle" Jason Hemeway, owner of the saw mill. Uncle Jason says the dam will not be rebuilt. That the expense of getting white oak for sheet spiling to rebuild has become so great that steam power will be adopted. This will be pleasant news for some farmers up the river, who will be able to reclaim considerable land by lowering the mill pond.

The Detroit News prints this from Rome, Michigan: In digging a drain through the cellar of an abandoned house here, workmen found something smacking of a long forgotten murder. It was the remains of a human being in a box. Aside from the skeleton there was nothing but the leather soles of the shoes to identify the remains. The oldest inhabitant fails to remember any mysterious disappearance thereabouts, and the mistery will probably never be unraveled.

—$60.00 IN CASH PRIZES.—Send ten cents for the June number of the "Literary Century" giving full particulars. Address THE LITERARY CENTURY, Ann Arbor, Mich.

—Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention. GEO. MATTESON.

—I have a very complete stock of Hay Tools, Rakes, Tedders, Racks, Carriers Forks, Rope, Pulleys, etc., and prices right. C. A. SLAYTON.

—You will make no mistake in using Heck's Peacemaker Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands. HECK & SON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call at C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—90,000 Star-A-1, shingle for sale at $3.25 per M. O. P. BILLS.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—You will need to work your corn well this year and should have the best cultivator. You can find them at C. A. SLAYTONS.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch, Give me a call. GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds. CITY BAKERY.

—When looking for a Hay Rack see the "Avery." It is complete as a Hay or stock Rack having a bridge to load stock or heavy articles. It makes a complete double wagon box with matched bottom and all changes are easily made. SLAYTON & AVERY.

—Large assortment of Chenille Curtains in New Colors, at low prices, at Stebbins' Furniture Rooms, Adrian.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains. NEW LAUNDRY.

—Tintypes taken at Teeple's Gallery.

—Call and see the New Styles in Oak Chamber Suits at Stebbins'.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices. CITY BAKERY

—New Patterns in Open Stock Decorated Dinner Ware at Stebbins Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice. WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Life size Crayon Portraits given away with every dozen Cabinets, AT TEEPLES' GALLERY.

—Haviland & Co's Decorated China Dinner sets, at very low prices, at Stebbins' Furniture rooms, Adrian.

— Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town. CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Large stock of Ladies Desks, Music Cabinets, Book Cases and Secretaries at low prices at Stebbins' Furniture rooms, Adrian.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—$3.00 gets a life size Crayon portrait and one dozen fine enamel finish cabinet photos, at Teeple's Gallery.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—New styles in Sideboards, Dining Tables and Chairs at Stebbins' Furniture Rooms, Adrian.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial. BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

Warm Weather Has Come

I Have Added to my Stock a Large Invoice of

Ladies' Hand-Sewed Shoes,

Mens' Working Shoes,

Ladies' Walking Shoes.

Men's and Boys' Fine Shoes,

Misses' and Children's Shoes.

In Endless Variety and Suited for Warm Weather Wear.

Summer Coats and Vests And Summer Outing Shirts. A Large and very Handsome Assortment. Come to headquarters to get your Warm-Weather Clothing.

Yours for Trade,

Alva Spayde.

To Save Money, so as to go Outing later, go to Harris & Hiteshue's for Summer Dress Goods, Walking Shoes, Slippers, and Underwear of all kinds. An Elegant Stock always on hand.

HARRIS & HITESHU.

Do You Think of Painting This Season?

We Can Show You The Most Handsome And Best Paints Made.

Call and get Prices and Sample Card of Colors.

C. A. Wright.

Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.

Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.

Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.

Satterthwaite Bros.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WIGHTMAN, Attorney at Law Successor to F. B. Wood. Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD. ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Fred'k B. Wood. John E. Bird,
Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLEMENT E. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.
WEAVER & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Practice in all the Courts.
Masonic Temple. ADRIAN, MICH.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—Being now located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to calls in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. G. W. GOODRICH, V. S.

C. J. SLAIGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON. A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College, Residence, 1½ miles east of Pennington's Corners. All calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY. J. H. EMERY, Proprietor, Adrian, Michigan.
This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

RICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL. Late The Madison.
Cor. of Jefferson Avenue and Randolph street. Detroit, Mich.
J. D. RICE, Prop. R. C. SPRAGUE, Clerk.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Three lines of street cars pass the door.
RATES—Meals 25c. Per day, $1.25 and $1.50
Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 14 I. O. O. F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. E. Anderson's store, Chicago street. WM. GRAY, N. G.
R. HOLDWAY, Cor. Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV. J. DEHAAN, Pastor.
SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching in the forenoon at 10:30; Sunday School at 12 o'clock; Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome.
Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Young People's Meeting. Come one, come all and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—
Special attention given to ladies' and childrens' hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.
—THREE CHAIRS—
Landgraf building, Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN
HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN
PAINTING
AND PAPER HANGING
Call on THEO. P WOOD, 77 E. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first-class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of
Railroad Street Meat Market!
Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.
GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN
Drugs, : Paints : Oils
AND VARNISHES.
N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded.
At the Old Corner Store, RIDGEWAY, IGAN. nov5

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY
MANUFACTURER OF
And Dealer in
Carriages, Buggies,
SURRIES, SPRING WAGONS,
ROADCARTS
SULKIES, CUTTERS, ETC.
Pearl Street,
TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER,

SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.
LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth. Crowns, Filling and Building-Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

B. F STEINHOFF'S
Dental Rooms.

OVER BAKER & HALL'S.
GAS FOR EXTRACTING.
LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co.'s Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.
EXAMINATION FREE!
Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.
Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.
Remember, office over Avery & Co.'s.
W. D. REED, D. D. S.
He Will at Gasted every Wednesday.

Time Flies—

So does dirt, wherever found, when Pearline is used. Nothing else starts it so easily or so quickly. It washes all things without harm—it gives long life to everything that is washed with it. Use Pearline in the laundry, the kitchen, and everywhere in the house. With it were is little work—without it there is little done.

Beware of imitations which are being peddled from door to door. First quality goods do not require such desperate methods to sell them. PEARLINE sells on its merits, and is manufactured only by JAMES PYLE, New York. 207

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN, OR WOMAN,

of intelligence and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight, but who has Lost the Most Precious Possession on Earth viz., GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT require a SECOND TELLING to be induced to become a purchaser

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC
BELTS & APPLIANCES.

Do you know why? Because it is plain to be seen that the TRUTH ONCE TOLD is enough. The Surprising Promptness with which all classes of people respond to our announcements and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods wherever introduced, conclusively prove that true modesty is always recognized and the quality of merit takes care of itself. Metaphorically our statement is the Button—the Public Press it, and

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES
"Do the Rest."

The extent of Pressure on the button and the success of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" is most satisfactorily shown in the marvelous growth of our business the past 60 days.

Repeated and increasing demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming in from all parts of the country with profuse acknowledgements that so much comfort for $1.00 (the price) is like buying Gold Dollars for ten cents.

The Delicate Organism of Woman subjects her to many peculiar ailments and unfortunate misery. The extreme sensitiveness of her Nervous System very frequently requires artificial stimulus. The Gregg Electric Belt and other Appliances supply this as nothing else can.

The Rugged Constitution of Man, when once broken, becomes pitiable in the extreme, from which there is absolutely no escape without assistance. The Gregg Electric Belts and Appliances in cases of this kind, have honestly won their title of King of Remedies.

Rheumatism is conquered, sufferers from Obesity are speedily relieved, Dropsy quickly yields, spinal difficulties and Paralysis disappear, and many other diseases of Men and Women are permanently cured, fully described in complete catalogue for 6c, or elaborate circular free. We guarantee to forfeit twice the price of any of Dr. Gregg's goods found not to be genuine. We make an elegant little $3 Electric Belt, which is selling very rapidly and which we take in exchange for any higher power belt (except $5 belt) and credit $3 on the price of new order. Remember the Electric Foot warmers are $1 a pair, worth $10. Address

THE GREGG ELECTRIC CURE CO,
501 Inter-Ocean Building, Chicago, Ill.
and mention this paper. J 14-tf.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS
. . . IS A . . .
HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY
AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS ONE OF OUR NEW SEAMSTRESS
SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS
National Sewing Machine Co.
SUCCESSORS TO
JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.
Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Capsize of a Yacht.

The yacht Caprice, with twenty-seven young people on board, was capsized near Peache island, several miles above Detroit, near the Canadian shore. All of the party were thrown into the water and Carrie Bieber, aged 19, and Minnie Mogk, aged 17, were drowned. The yacht Duke, in going to their assistance, attempted to turn and Henry Rathow, Jr., was knocked overboard by a boom and also drowned. All of the bodies were recovered. Of the party on the Caprice fifteen were women.

Damage by Wind and Hail.

A heavy wind and hailstorm passed over Alpena, the velocity of the wind being 72 miles an hour. Many buildings were unroofed, mill smokestacks blown down, etc. The walls of the new county poorhouse were demolished and 40,000 feet of lumber blown off the docks out into the bay. One house was entirely demolished. The owner, William Boggs, had his arm broken, his wife and children being seriously injured. The damage to crops and fruit will be heavy.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by forty-eight observers in different parts of the state for the week ended June 18 indicated that typho-malarial fever, inflammation of the brain, diphtheria, typhoid fever and dysentery increased, and pneumonia, measles and membranous croup decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at thirty places, scarlet fever at forty-seven, typhoid fever at fifteen and measles at twenty-two places.

Two Boys Drowned.

George Murray and Frank Weston, two young boys, quarreled while playing on the boom at the foot of Mason street in Grand Rapids and Murray seized his companion and attempted to throw him off the boom. In the struggle both fell into the river and were drowned. Murray was 8 and Weston 6 years old.

Short But Newsy Items.

The Detroit, Lansing & Northern depot at Williamston is in ashes.

The primary school at East Tawas has been closed owing to the prevalence of diphtheria.

The Michigan board of world's fair managers have decided to hold a world's fair meeting at Bayview August 6 next.

John Peterson and William Gabriel were badly injured by edging thrown by a saw in James Davidson's shipyard sawmill at Bay City.

Lizzie Parsons was fatally stabbed at Iron Mountain by her alleged husband, John Borgetto, an Italian, because she refused to longer live with him.

The body of John Pallam, who mysteriously disappeared from Marquette three weeks ago and for whose body the harbor was dragged without success, was found floating in the harbor.

A post office has been established at Abbottsford, St. Clair county, with Jabin Crook postmaster.

Peter Manigold was killed by lightning while in bed at Ringsley. His wife and baby sleeping near him were uninjured.

Levi Smith, a 15-year-old Sand Beach boy charged with criminally assaulting a 7-year-old girl, has been sent to the reform school at Lansing.

Mary G. Hopkins won the junior class competitive recitation prize at the Baptist college at Kalamazoo. Annie D. Rooney won the second prize.

Lightning struck the large barn of Michael Gaus, at Tekonsha, burning it to the ground. Farming implements and 200 bushels of grain were destroyed. Insurance, $900.

Philip Adams, fireman on the tug Maud S., met death by drowning at Bay City.

Meyer Harris' paper warehouse in Bay City was destroyed by fire. Loss, $1,000.

Ernest Pearce, a boy about 13 years of age, was drowned while bathing at Hudson.

Prince Michael, the false prophet, convicted in Detroit of criminal assault, was sentenced to serve five years at the Jackson prison.

The Kearsarge rock and boiler house at Calumet were burned down, and the loss will stop the mine for some time.

Fire broke out in the basement of Hamilton Stuart's furniture store at Hancock, and it was damaged $2,500.

Joseph Hanaw, an attorney at Jackson, was arrested on the charge of securing excessive pension fees from Mary A. Lee, a client.

John Winger, a Northwestern fireman, fell under a train in the yards at Escanaba and both legs were cut off at his hips. He died in a few hours.

The Decatur town council has decided that there must be no more barb wire fences in the town limits.

Charles Blass, an aged resident of Lowell, survived three strokes of paralysis, but the fourth was fatal.

The works of the Anthony Powder Company, midway between Ishpeming and Negaunee, were destroyed by fire. The loss was $25,000.

Matthew Munson's 3-year-old child was burned to death in the destruction of his dwelling at Hart. The little one was alone in the house at the time of the fire.

George Baudry, of Bay City, the husband of the woman who jumped off the dock with her two children, has left Bay City and gone to his former home in Montreal.

W. Spink, of Holt township, has been appointed keeper of the Ingham county poor farm, in place of Gottlieb Neufort, resigned.

The planing mill of Miller & Turner at Bay City was burned, the loss being $12,000; no insurance. Several Michigan Central railroad cars were burned before they could be drawn away.

The largest cargo ever carried on the lakes was taken out of Escanaba by the steamer Maryland, of the Inter Ocean fleet. She took 3,068 gross tons of iron ore—nearly 3,400 net tons—from there for South Chicago. This broke the big cargo record by over 100 tons.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Work of the Lawmakers at the National Capital.

A Daily Summary of the Proceedings in the Senate and House — Bills Passed and New Measures Introduced.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—In the senate yesterday the post office and agricultural appropriation bills were reported and the conference report on the military academy bill was agreed to. The silver bill was discussed. A resolution was introduced proposing retaliation upon Canada for the discrimination practiced against American vessels passing through Canadian canals.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—House bills were passed in the senate yesterday appropriating $50,000 for the pedestal for the Sherman statue, and to authorize the Marinette & Western railroad to construct a railroad through the Menominee Indian reservation in Wisconsin.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—No business was transacted in the senate yesterday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—In the house yesterday the time was occupied in discussing the general deficiency bill.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—In the house yesterday no quorum was present and no business was transacted.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—In the house yesterday no quorum was present and nothing was done.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Before the reading of the journal on Saturday Mr. Watson, of Georgia, made the point that there was no quorum present, and the house adjourned after the shortest session on record, it lasting just one minute and a half.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEES.

Candidates Who Will Strive to Secure Seats in the Lower House.

WATERLOO, Ia., June 24.—At the Third congressional district convention held in this city yesterday D. B. Henderson was renominated for congress by the republicans.

CANTON, Ill., June 24.—The republican convention of the Tenth congressional district held here yesterday renominated Philip S. Post for congress.

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, O., June 24.—The Seventh Ohio district republican congressional convention held here yesterday nominated George W. Wilson for congress.

MONTGOMERY, W. Va., June 24.—Edgar P. Rucker (rep.) was nominated by acclamation for congress from the Third congressional district.

ONE MORE VICTIM.

Horrible Death of Another Resident of Titusville, Pa.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., June 25.—Bert Childs, aged 17, died suddenly Friday at his home in this city. He had been suffering severe pains in his stomach since June 7, at which time he was carried nearly a mile by the flood and taken unconscious from the water. A post mortem was held, the result of which demonstrated that his stomach had been entirely eaten away by acid supposed to have been floating on the water and coming from some of the refineries. He died in horrible agony. This makes the sixty-third victim of the flood and fire in this city.

Disaster at Sea.

NEW YORK, June 27.—It is believed that the Portuguese steamship Vega, from Lisbon, having on board nearly 500 people, has been in collision with a sailing vessel and is lost. The Vega is seven days overdue. There is a strong suspicion that the piece of a wrecked sailing ship passed at sea by the Dutch tank steamship Ocean may furnish a clew to the appalling ocean disaster.

Got Away with a Quarter of a Million.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 27.—After four days of investigation the full extent of Treasurer Dann's inroads on the funds of the National savings bank has not yet been learned. One of the bank examiners is quoted as saying that the defalcation would largely exceed $200,000 and would probably reach $300,000.

Water Still Rising at Rock Island

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., June 27.—The entire lower part of the city is under water and the great dike in the west end is still in danger of breaking at any moment. The water is rising at the rate of half an inch an hour. This dike protects a large portion of the town from complete inundation.

County Funds Lost in a Bank.

ERIE, Kan., June 27.—United States Bank Examiner George A. Stone closed the First national bank of this place at noon Saturday. The extent of the liabilities is unknown. The heaviest loser is Neosho county, the taxes for June having just been deposited to the amount of $20,000 or $30,000.

Dragged to Death by a Runaway Team.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., June 27.—Mrs. Seifkin, living on a farm near Grundy Center, attempted to stop a runaway team hitched to a corn plow. She was knocked down and dragged about 100 yards and when picked up life was extinct.

End of a Long Feud.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—The long standing feud between what is known as the McManus and Welch factions in this city culminated Saturday in a personal encounter in which Cornelius McManus was killed by Jack Welch, who was fatally stabbed by McManus.

Arrested with the Stolen Money.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—A special from Denver, Col., says that Edwin J. Ryan, who absconded from this city with $30,000 of the United States Express Company's funds, has been arrested in that city. The stolen money was recovered.

Missouri's Wheat Crop Will Be Fair.

CARROLTON, Mo., June 27.—Wheat harvesting will commence in this section this week. The crop will be a much better one than was expected early in the season, but will not equal that of last season.

CURED SORE THROAT OF SIX MONTHS STANDING.

MONROE, Mich., Sept. 2, 1890.

Dr. J. J. Fay:
Dear Sir—I have suffered for six months with sore throat, and at times an aggravated cough, which I attributed to a tickling and sensitive throat. I have used one bottle of your New Treatment for Consumption and I find my throat entirely cured and am free from any cough or throat trouble. I cheerfully recommend others to give it a trial.
DR. A. M. LONG, D. D. S.
Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

"I should call the photographer a friend of his race." "For what reason" "He always tries to make people look pleasant who do business with him."

Waiter: Would you like some cold tongue, sir? Mr. Henpeck: No, no! for heaven's sake, no! That is why I'm living at a restaurant. My wife's mother is visiting us.

CURE THAT
Cold
AND STOP THAT
Cough.
N. H. Downs' Elixir
WILL DO IT.
Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.
Warranted. Sold everywhere.
HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $13 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by traveling between Detroit and Cleveland, via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $2 25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making sure connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. Schantz, G. P. A., Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

SYRUP of FIGS

ONE ENJOYS
Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.
Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.
CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

ESTATE OF WILLIAM WRIGHT.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.
At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, the 1st day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.
In the matter of the estate of William Wright, deceased.
On reading and filing the petition duly verified, of Elizabeth Wright, widow of said deceased, praying for the probate of an instrument now on file in this court purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and that administration of said estate may be granted to Joseph Wright and Simon Gould, executors in said will named, or to some other suitable person.
It is ordered, That Tuesday, the 5th day of July next, 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.
And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendancy of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.
RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
(A True Copy.)
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register

WOMEN WHO DIE EARLY.

Many of our most beautiful and accomplished ladies die before they have reached the prime of life. Of those who live to middle age only one in two hundred is sound: the other one hundred and ninety-nine are sufferers. Why is it? Self neglect. The shattered health can be restored; the home made happy, and your life lengthened if you commence at once.
"Rose Buds" have been used for 8 years in the private practice of one of the most eminent physicians of Paris and the following diseases and their distressing symptoms yield to them like magic: Ulceration, Congestion and Falling of the Womb, Ovarian Tumors, Dropsy of the Womb, Bearing Down Pains, Rupture at Childbirth and Miscarriages. One package of "Rose Buds" will make a new woman of you.
(Leucorrhœa or Whites are generally cured by one application.) Price per package—one month's treatment—$1.00 sent by mail post paid, securely packed. THE LEVERETNE SPECIFIC CO., 339 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

"Ma, what is this coal pool I read about in the papers?" asked little Johnny. "I'm sure I don't know, unless it is the miners go in swimming."

GOOD LOOKS.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver be inactive you have a Bilious look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look, and if your Kidneys be affected you have a Pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and tonic which acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blotches, Boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at J. J. Orr's drug store, 50c. per bottle.

Say Mister
give me a plug of JOLLY
TAR PLUG
TOBACCO.
No MONKEYING

but give me the genuine JOLLY
TAR PLUG
I've chewed
it and when I find a good thing I hang on to it. JOLLY TAR
CAN'T be beat.
15 CENTS PER BOX, GUARANTEED.

H HYA A HEADACHE POWDERS
FOR SALE BY JOHN J. ORR.

THOS. S. SPRAGUE & SON, Attorneys and Solicitors of Patents, United States and foreign. Correspondence solicited. Instruction Pamphlet free. 77 WEST CONGRESS ST., DETROIT, Mich. Established 1865 PATENTS

FARMERS AND THRESHERMEN
Catalogue FREE
All the Latest Improvements: Cushioned Steel Tire, Return Flue, ½ Fuel Saved, Traction Rear or all
3,000 IN USE and never an explosion.

BUY THE NEW
HUBER ENGINES
ALL SIZES THRESHERS
VICTOR HULLER'S
New Imperial Stackers
G. C. POCKLINGTON
Agent for southeastern Michigan
State headquarters, R. Sheth
Lansing, Mich.

Women are Slow

oftentimes to adopt a good thing, but

Men are Quick to try and to use anything that will help them. Learn a lesson from the men, ladies.

The Responsibility for many a poor batch of Bread is charged to the flour, when it really belongs to poor yeast.

GILLETT'S MAGIC YEAST

Is ALWAYS GOOD and always ready.

Try the Owl and Moon brand, and help yourself, as a man would.

At your Grocer's.

STRENGTH AND VIGOR FOR YOUTH AND OLD AGE

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S

STRENGTHENING CORDIAL AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

An antidote for Loss of Appetite, Loss of Spirits and Weakness; pleasant to the taste and a favorite tonic with the ladies. Price $1 per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

PREPARED BY

The Dr. J. H. McLean Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo

THE "CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN"

Has attained a standard of excellence which admits of no superior.

It contains every improvement that inventive genius, skill and money can produce.

ORGANS OF INTRINSIC VALUE AND INTERLOCKING

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

These excellent Organs are celebrated for their volume, quality of tone, quick response, variety of combination, artistic design, beauty in finish, perfect construction, making them the most attractive, ornamental and desirable organs in the world for Homes, Schools, Churches, Lodges and Societies.

Catalogues on application, FREE.

Chicago Cottage Organ Co.

223 WABASH AVE.,

CHICAGO, ILL.

PILES A NEW PAINLESS CERTAIN CURE. GIVES INSTANT RELIEF AND LASTING CURE. NEVER RETURNS. TO PROVE IT and to convince you that it will promptly cure any case of Piles, External, Internal, Bleeding, Protruding or Itching, we will send a TRIAL PACKAGE FREE to any address. Send stamps to cover postage & address. THE PYRAMID DRUG CO., Box 48, ALBION, MICH. FREE

CURED

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are giving a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

TEACH YOU TO SHORT-HAND. YOU DO THE REST

A thorough, complete, practical course by MAIL. Pupils now filling positions in all parts of the United States. Circulars free.

Address. C. A. SHARP, STENOGRAPHER, ADRIAN, MICH.

CLEVELAND WINS.

The Ex-President to Again Lead the Democrats.

He Is Nominated on the First Ballot at the National Convention—Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois, Is Named for Vice President.

SECOND DAY.

CHICAGO, June 23.—At the opening of the democratic national convention yesterday morning the committee on permanent organization reported William L. Wilson, of West Virginia, as permanent chairman; S. P. Sheerin, of Indiana, for permanent secretary. Mr. Wilson, after bowing his thanks, spoke as follows:

"GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: I thank you most heartily for this honor. I shall endeavor to meet the duties of the high position to which you have called me with the spirit of fairness and equality that is democracy. This convention has a high and patriotic work to perform. We owe much to our party; we owe more to our country.

The speaker said the people are not ignorant of the meaning of protection—at least of the protection which is doled out to them in the McKinley bill. They see that meaning written large to-day in a prostrated agriculture, in a shackled commerce, in stricken industries, in the compulsory idleness of labor, in raw-made wealth, in the discontent of the workingmen and the despair of the farmer. They know by hard experience that protection as a system of taxation is but the old crafty scheme by which the rich compel the poor to pay the expenses of the government. They know by hard experience that protection as a system of tribute is but the old and crafty scheme by which the power of taxation of the people is made the private property of a few of the people.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

"Tariff reform means to readjust this system of taxation and to purge away this system of tribute. It means that we have not reached the equality of true freedom so long as any citizen is forced by law to pay tribute to any other citizen, and until our taxes are proportioned to the ability and duty of the taxpayer rather than to his ignorance, his weakness and his patience.

"Gov. McKinley declares that the democratic party believes in taxing ourselves. I am afraid, gentlemen, we must admit this charge. What right or excuse have we for taxing anybody else? With a continent for a country, with freedom and intelligence as the instruments for its development, we stand disgraced in the eyes of mankind if we cannot, and if we do not, support our own government. We can throw that support on other people only by beggary or by force. If we use the one we are a pauper nation; if we use the other we are a pirate nation.

"The democratic party does not intend that we should be either. No more does it intend that they shall falsely call it taxing other people to transfer the expenses of government from the possessions of those who own the property of the country to the bellies and backs of those who do the work of the country. It believes that frugality is the essential virtue of free government. It intends to limit taxation to public needs and to levy taxes by the plain rule of justice and equality.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON.

"We are for the protection that protects and for the reciprocity that reciprocates. We are in favor of protecting every man in the enjoyment of the fruit of his labor, diminished only by his proper contribution to the support of the government, and we are for that reciprocity that throws no unnecessary obstacle between the American producer and the market he is obliged to seek for his products.

"Whatever can be done to relieve the burdens, to restore, broaden and increase the prosperity of the people and every party of them within the limits and according to the principles of free government, that the democratic party dares to promise that it will do with all its might. Whatever is beyond this, whatever is incompatible with free government and our historic liberty, it dares not promise to any one."

Senator Vilas, of Wisconsin, at the evening session presented the following report of the committee on resolutions:

The representatives of the democratic party of the United States in convention assembled do reaffirm their allegiance to the principles of the party as formulated by Jefferson and exemplified by the long and illustrious line of his successors in Democratic leadership from Madison to Cleveland.

We believe the public welfare demands that these principles be applied to the conduct of the federal government through the accession to power of the party that advocates them, solemnly declaring that the need of a return to these fundamental principles of free popular government, based on home rule and individual liberty, was never more urgent than now, when the tendency to centralize all power at the federal capital has become a menace to the reserved rights of the states that strikes at the very roots of our government under the constitution as framed by the fathers of the republic.

We warn the people of our common country, jealous for the preservation of their free institutions, that the policy of federal control of elections, to which the republican party has committed itself, is fraught with the greatest danger, scarcely less momentous than would result from a revolution practically establishing monarchy on the ruins of the republic.

It strikes at the north as well as the south, and injures the colored citizen even more than the white. It means a herd of deputy marshals at every polling place on the federal power, returning boards appointed and controlled by federal authority, the outrage of the electoral rights of the people in the several states, the subjugation of the colored people to the control of the party in power, and the reviving of race antagonisms now happily abated; of the utmost peril to the safety and happiness of the people. A measure deliberately and justly described by a leading republican senator as "the most infamous bill that ever crossed the threshold of the senate."

Such a policy if sanctioned by law would mean the dominance of a self-perpetuating oligarchy of officeholders, and the party who were intrusted with its machinery could be dislodged from power only by an appeal to the reserved right of the people to resist oppression, which is inherent in all self-governing communities.

Two years ago this revolutionary policy was emphatically condemned by the people at the polls; and in contempt of the verdict the republican party has defiantly declared in its latest authoritative utterance that its success in the coming elections will mean the enactment of the force bill and the usurpation of despotic control over elections in all the states.

Believing that the preservation of republican government in the United States is dependent upon the defeat of this policy of legalized force and fraud, we invite the support of all citizens who desire to see the constitution maintained in its integrity, with the laws pursuant thereto, which have given our country hundreds of years of unexampled prosperity; and we pledge the democratic party, if it be intrusted with power, not only to the defeat of the force bill, but also to relentless opposition to the republican policy of profligate expenditure, which in the short space of two years has squandered an enormous surplus and emptied an overflowing treasury after piling new burdens of taxation upon the already overtaxed labor of the country.

We denounce republican protection as a fraud. The labor of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few. We declare it to be the fundamental principle of the democratic party that the federal government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties, except for the purposes of revenue only, and we demand that the collection of such taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the government when honestly and economically administered.

We denounce the McKinley law enacted by the fifty-first congress as the enormity and atrocity of class legislation. We indorse the efforts made by the democrats of the present congress to modify its most oppressive features in the direction of free raw materials and cheaper manufactured goods that enter into general consumption; and we pronounce repeal as one of the beneficial results that will follow the action of the people in intrusting power to the democratic party.

Since the McKinley tariff went into operation there have been ten reductions of the wages of laboring men to one increase.

We deny that there has been any increase of prosperity to the country since that tariff went into operation; and we point to the dullness and distress of wage reductions and strikes in the iron trade as the best possible evidence that no such prosperity has resulted from the McKinley act.

We call the attention of thoughtful Americans to the fact that after thirty years of restrictive taxes against the importation of foreign wealth in exchange for our agricultural surplus the homes of farmers of the country have become burdened with a real estate mortgage debt of over $2,500,000,000, exclusive of all other forms of indebtedness; and that in one of the chief agricultural states of the west there appears a real estate mortgage debt averaging $165 per capita to the total population, and that similar conditions and tendencies are shown to exist in the other agricultural exporting states.

We denounce a policy which fosters no industry so much as it does that of the sheriff.

Trade interchange on the basis of reciprocal advantages to the countries participating is a time-honored doctrine of the democratic faith, but we denounce the sham reciprocity which juggles with the people's desire for enlarged foreign markets and freer exchanges by pretending to establish closer trade relations for a country whose articles of export are almost exclusively agricultural products, with other countries that are also agricultural, while erecting a customhouse barrier of prohibitive tariff taxes against the richest countries of the world that stand ready to take our entire surplus of products and to exchange therefor commodities which are necessaries and comforts of life among our people. We recognize in the trusts and combinations which are designed to enable capital to secure more than its just share of the joint product of capital and labor a natural consequence of the prohibitive taxes which prevent the free competition which is the life of honest trade, but we believe their worst evils can be abated by law, and we demand the rigid enforcement of the laws made to prevent and control them, together with such further legislation in restraint of they abuses as experience may show to be necessary.

The republican party, while professing a policy of reserving the public lands for small holdings by actual settlers, has given away the people's heritage until now a few railroad and non-resident aliens, individual and corporate, possess a larger area than we with our farms between the two seas. The last democratic administration reversed the improvident and unwise policy of the republican party touching the public domain, and reclaimed from corporations and syndicates, alien and domestic, and restored to the people nearly 1,000,000,000 acres of valuable land to be sacredly held as homesteads for our citizens. And we pledge ourselves to continue this policy until every acre of land so unlawfully held shall be reclaimed and restored to the people.

We denounce the republican legislation known as the Sherman act of 1890 as a cowardly makeshift, fraught with possibilities of danger in the future which should make all of its supporters, as well as its author, anxious for its speedy repeal. We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country, and the coinage of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal but charge for coinage. But the policy of a united coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and ostensible value and be adjusted through international agreement with such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times.

We demand that all paper currency shall be kept on par with and redeemable in such coin. We insist upon this policy as especially necessary for the protection of the farmer and laboring classes as the most defenseless victim of unstable money and fluctuating currency.

We recommend that the prohibitory 10 per cent. tax on state bank issues be repealed. Public office is a public trust.

We reaffirm the declaration of the democratic national convention of 1876 for the reform of the civil service; and we call for the honest enforcement of all laws regulating the same.

The nomination of a president, as in the recent republican convention, by delegations composed largely of his employes, his beneficiaries, holding office at his pleasure, is a scandalous satire upon free popular institutions and a startling illustration of the methods by which a president may gratify his ambition. We denounce the policy under which federal officeholders usurp control of public conventions in the states, and we pledge the democratic party to a reform of these and all other abuses which threaten individual liberty and local self-government.

The democratic party is the only party that has ever given the country a foreign policy consistent and vigorous, compelling respect abroad and inspiring confidence at home. While avoiding entangling alliances, it has aimed to cultivate friendly relations with other nations, with our neighbors of foreign continents, whose destinies are closely linked with our own. And we view with alarm the tendency of a policy of irritation and bluster, which is liable at any time to confront us with the alternative of humiliation or war.

We favor the maintenance of a navy strong enough for all purposes of national defense and to properly maintain the honor and dignity of the country abroad.

This country has always been the refuge of the oppressed from every land—exiles for conscience sake—and in the spirit of the founders of our government we condemn the oppression practiced by the Russian government upon its Lutheran and Jewish subjects, and we call upon our national government, in the interests of justice and humanity, by all just and proper means, to use its prompt and best efforts to bring about a cessation of those cruel persecutions in the dominion of the czar and to secure to the oppressed equal rights.

We tender our profound and earnest sympathy to those lovers of freedom who are struggling for home rule and the great cause of local self-government in Ireland.

We heartily approve all legitimate efforts to prevent the United States from being used as the dumping ground for the known criminals and professional paupers of Europe. And we demand the rigid enforcement of the laws against Chinese immigration and the importation of foreign workmen under contract to degrade American labor and lessen its wages. But we condemn and denounce any and all attempts to restrict the immigration of the industrious and worthy of foreign lands.

The convention hereby renews the expression of appreciation of the patriotism of the soldiers and sailors of the union in the war for its preservation, and we favor just and liberal pensions for all disabled union soldiers, their widows and dependents. But we demand that the work of the pension office shall be done industriously, impartially and honestly. We denounce the present administration of that office as incompetent, corrupt, disgraceful and dishonest.

The federal government should care for and improve the Mississippi river and other great waterways of the republic, so as to secure for the interior states easy and cheap transportation to the tidewater. When any waterway of the republic is of sufficient importance to demand the aid of the government such aid should be extended on a definite plan of continuous work until permanent improvement is secured.

For purposes of national defense and the promotion of commerce between the states we recognize the early construction of the Nicaragua canal and its protection against foreign control as of great importance to the United States.

Recognizing the World's Columbian exposition as a national undertaking of vast importance in which the general government has invited the cooperation of all the powers of the world, and appreciating the acceptance by many of such powers of the invitation so extended, and the broad and liberal efforts being made by them to contribute to the grandeur of the undertaking, we are of opinion that congress should make such necessary financial provision as shall be requisite to the maintenance of the national honor and public faith.

Popular education being the only safe basis of popular suffrage, we recommend to the several states most liberal appropriations for the public schools. Free common schools are the nursery of good government, and they have always received the fostering care of the democratic party, which favors every means of increasing intelligence. Freedom of education being an essential of civil and religious liberty, as well as a necessity for the development of intelligence, must not be interfered with under any pretext whatever.

We are opposed to state interference with parental rights and rights of conscience in the education of children as an infringement of the fundamental democratic doctrine that the largest individual liberty consistent with the rights of others insures the highest type of american citizenship and the best government.

We approve the action of the present house of representatives in passing bills for the admission into the union as states of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona. And we favor the early admission of all the territories having the necessary population and resources entitling them to statehood; and while they remain territories we hold that the officials appointed to administer the government of any territory together with the districts of Columbia and Alaska should be bona fide residents of the territory or district in which their duties are to be performed. The democratic party believes in home rule and the control of their own affairs by the people of the vicinage.

We favor legislation by congress and state legislatures to protect the rights and limbs of railway employes and those of other hazardous transportation companies, and denounce the inactivity of the republican party and particularly the republican senate for causing the defeat of measures beneficial and protective to this class of wage-workers.

We are in favor of the enactment by the states of laws for abolishing the notorious sweating system; for abolishing contract convict labor, and for prohibiting the employment in factories of children under 15 years of age.

We are opposed to all sumptuary laws as an interference with the individual rights of citizens.

Upon this statement of principles and policies the democratic party asks the intelligent judgment of the american people. It asks a change of administration and a change of party in order that there may be a change of system and a change of methods, thus assuring the maintenance unimpaired of institutions under which the republic has grown great and powerful.

After the platform had been adopted by the convention Chairman Wilson announced that nominations for president and vice president of the United States were in order. The roll of states was called, and when New Jersey was reached Gov. Leon Abbett nominated Grover Cleveland, of New York. William C. DeWitt, of New York, placed in nomination David B. Hill, of New York. Gov. Boies, of Iowa, was placed in nomination by Henry Watterson. The nominating speeches having been concluded, the convention proceeded to ballot, with the following result:

STATES.	No. votes.	Cleve. land.	Hill.	Boies
Alabama	22	14	3	1
Arkansas	16	16	....	....
California	18	18	....	....
Colorado	8	....	3	5
Connecticut	12	12	....	....
Delaware	6	6	....	....
Florida	8	5	....	....
Georgia	26	17	5	....
Idaho	6	....	....	6
Illinois	48	48	....	....
Indiana	30	30	....	....
Iowa	26	....	....	26
Kansas	20	20	....	....
Kentucky	26	18	....	2
Louisiana	16	3	....	11
Maine	12	9	1	....
Maryland	16	6	....	....
Massachusetts	30	24	4	1
Michigan	28	28	3	3
Minnesota	18	18	....	....
Mississippi	18	8	3	3
Missouri	34	34	....	....
Montana	6	....	....	6
Nebraska	16	15	....	....
Nevada	6	....	4	....
New Hampshire	8	8	....	....
New Jersey	20	20	....	....
New York	72	....	72	....
North Dakota	6	6	....	....
North Carolina	22	3½	....	1
Ohio	46	14	6	16
Oregon	8	8	....	....
Pennsylvania	64	64	....	....
Rhode Island	8	8	....	....
South Carolina	18	1	3	14
South Dakota	8	7	....	1
Tennessee	24	24	....	....
Texas	30	30	....	....
Vermont	8	8	....	....
Virginia	24	12	11	....
Washington	8	8	....	....
West Virginia	12	7	1	....
Wisconsin	24	24	....	....
Wyoming	6	3	....	....
TERRITORIES.
Alaska	2	2	....	....
Arizona	6	5	....	....
Indian Territory	2	2	....	....
Oklahoma	2	2	....	....
New Mexico	6	4	1	1
Utah	2	2	....	....
District of Columbia	2	2	....	....
Total	910	616½	114	103

The nomination of Cleveland was made unanimous, and the convention at 3:30 a. m. adjourned until 2 p. m. to-day.

THIRD AND LAST DAY.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Chairman Wilson called the national democratic convention to order at 2:55 p. m. yesterday and announced that nominations of candidates for vice president of the United States were in order. At the conclusion of the nominating speeches the roll of states was called and the chairman announced the candidates as Isaac P. Gray, of Indiana; Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois; A. B. Morse, of Michigan, and J. L. Mitchell, of Wisconsin. The result of the ballot was as follows: Stevenson, 402; Gray, 343; Morse, 86; Mitchell, 45. Before the announcement of the result was made all the states changed their votes to Stevenson and he was declared the unanimous choice of the convention.

Gen. Collins, of Massachusetts, offered the following resolution, which was referred to the new national committee, with a recommendation that it be adopted:

"Resolved, That the national committee b instructed to provide for its next convention accommodations for the delegates, alternates, national committee and the press, and that all others be excluded."

Votes of thanks were tendered to the committees, the chairman and the city of Chicago, and then amid the music of the band and the cheering of the delegates the democratic convention adjourned. It was at 5:20 o'clock that the democratic national convention of 1892 passed into history.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

Grover Cleveland was born fifty-five years ago in New Jersey. His educational opportunities were at that time limited, and when 14 years old he removed with his parents to Fayetteville, N. Y. where he began his career as a clerk in a store. Then came an opportunity for Grover to attend a local academy and it was here he received training that later in life led him to adopt the legal profession. Drifting westward, he became a student in a law office at Buffalo, N. Y., and in May, 1859, he was admitted to the bar. His industry and evident ability led to his appointment as assistant district attorney when only 25 years of age. Then followed in sequence of official terms of office his election to the post of sheriff of Erie county in 1870, mayor of Buffalo in 1881, governor of New York in 1882, president of the United States in 1884. His first Waterloo came in 1888, when, nominated for a second term at the white house by the St. Louis convention, he was defeated by President Harrison by 65 electoral votes.

During the earlier part of his administration Mr. Cleveland was wedded to Miss Frances Folsom, of Buffalo, N. Y. The story of how the ex-president wooed and won his bride is somewhat romantic. She was the daughter of Cleveland's former law partner. It is said that Miss Folsom became engaged to Mr. Cleveland about the time he began his term as president. He had always held her in fond regard since the time he trotted her on his knee when she was a little girl. He treasured her picture all through the days of his bachelorhood. Frances Folsom Cleveland added vastly to the luster of Grover Cleveland's administration, endearing herself almost to the extent of being idolized by a large part of the American people. In October, 1891, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland. They named the child Ruth.

Adlai E. Stevenson, the nominee for vice president, is a resident of Bloomington, Ill. He was born in Christianson, Ky., October 23, 1835. He attended Center college at Danville, Ky., and when 16 years of age removed with his father's family to Bloomington, Ill., where he studied law and was admitted to the bar. In 1858 he located at Metamora, Woodford county, Ill., and engaged in the practice of his profession, remaining there for ten years. In 1868 he was named as the presidential elector for the district. In 1869 he returned to Bloomington, forming a law partnership with J. H. Ewery which still exists. He was elected to congress by the democrats of the Bloomington district in 1874, although the district has always been strongly republican. In 1876 his party again nominated him for congress but he was defeated. He was nominated a third time in 1878 and was elected. He was a delegate to the national convention of 1884 and was appointed first assistant postmaster general by President Cleveland. At the close of Cleveland's administration he returned to Bloomington. In 1877 President Hayes appointed Mr. Stevenson a member of the board to inspect the military academy at West Point. The recent Illinois state convention elected him one of the delegates at large to the national convention. He was serving in that capacity when nominated for the vice presidency.

CARLETON, Mich., Aug. 29, 1890.

Dr. O. J. Fay & Co.:

Gentlemen,—This is to certify that I, the undersigned, have been troubled with weak lungs and take cold easily. I have used Dr. Fay's New Treatment for consumption and can say that it is the best medicine I have ever used for the lungs, and would recommend it to all afflicted with lung trouble. I have also used it for a small girl who was considered in the first stage of consumption and it cured her.

LUKE DUNN,

Chairman Board of Supervisors, Monroe County.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Dissatisfied Passenger (on the "L"): Say, where's the smoking car? Police Conductor: Front end of the train, sir, but it doesn't smoke. It uses anthracite. Twenty ninth street!

HAVE YOU READ THIS BEFORE?

It will do no harm to read it again. You cannot read it too often. We cannot say too much of the merits of Parmelee's Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure. If you are at all affected with Dyspepsia or any disorders of the Liver or Kidneys you should try this remedy. Sold by dealers.

ARE YOU TANNED, FRECKLED, OR SUNBURNT.

Use Hamilton's Oriental Balm. It removes all blemishes. Perfectly safe. Prepared by E. M. Parmelee Medicul Co., Dansville, N. Y. Sold by dealers.

Parmelee's Pile Suppositories are warranted to cure. Never known to fail. Hundreds of sufferers testify to their virtue. 50 cents a box. Sold by dealers.

DO MOSQUITOS KILL OTHER INSECTS?

We don't know. We do know that Parmelee's Household Ointment is the best thing in the world to apply for Insect Bites. Burns, Cuts, Chapped Hands, etc. For Ulcers and Salt Rheum is sure to effect a cure. It is guaranteed to do this. Price for large box 25 cents. Sold by dealers.

AT BEDTIME I TAKE A PLEASANT HERB DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head

ACHE

Is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE

PASTOR KOENIG'S GERMAN NERVE TONIC

No More Headaches. XII

ST. HELEN, Mich., March 8, 1891.

Before using Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic my wife suffered from nervous headaches and chest trouble. After using this remedy both have ceased.

A. NEUGEBAUER.

N. AMHERST, Ohio, Feb. 28, 1891.

For over 2 years I had epileptic fits several times a month. Since I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic I have not had an attack. The medicine is very good. AUGUSTA DRAVES.

(PER REV. J. ROMER.)

NEW HAVEN, Ind., March 9, 1891.

My nervous system was completely run down, and I was so nervous and weak that I was confined to my bed for 2 years. I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and am now entirely well and doing my own housework.

MRS. J. D. BICKEL.

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75. 7 Bottles for $9.

REMARKABLE FACTS.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch, of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Linburger, druggist at San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by Baker & Hall. Book of wonderful testimonials free.

He: What, besides the date, do they usually put in engagement rings? She (pointedly): Fingers.

Uncle Wayback: Now wot's the use o' teachin' gals all these new-fangled studies? Wat good is this 'ere astronomy your're studyn'? City Niece: Why, uncle, it's a delightful subject to talk about on moonlight evenings. We point out Venus and then the young man says something pretty, and then—see that ring?

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L. S. & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15, 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 115. Mail.	No. 117. Express.	No. 149 Accom.
Jackson.....Lv	6 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M
Napoleon	6 30 "	2 26 "	1 15 "
Norvell	6 37 "	2 34 "	1 27 "
Manchester	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 55 "
Clinton	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 35 "
Tecumsen	7 15 "	3 15 "	3 15 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 52 "	4 30 "
Detroit	10 10 "	6 20 "
Toledo	9 15 "	4 40 "	10 25 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 8:00 p. m

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 116. Mail.	No. 118. Express.	No. 148. Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 25 A.M.	6 00 P.M.
Toledo	9 50 "	7 50 "
Adrian	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M.
Tecumseh	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton	11 21 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 00 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 28 "	10 30 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.

A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati Jackson & Mackinaw Ry

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT MAY. 30, 1892.

EAST. No 29 Pass	No. 23 Pass	No. 21 Pass	Central Time. STATIONS.	WEST. No. 22 Pass	No. 24 Pass
		A. M. 10 50	L....Allegan....A	P. M. 1 00
		11 15	Monteith	12 35
	A. M.	11 55	Yorkville	11 55	A. M.
	5 45	12 28	Battle Creek	11 28	1 25
	6 27	12 54	Marshall	10 59	12 33
	7 03	1 29	Homer	10 32	11 48
A. M.	7 45	1 58	Hanover	10 02	11 03
4 50	8 40	2 37	Addison	9 30	10 15
5 00	8 51	2 34	Devils Lake	9 24	9 54
	9 17	3 05	Tipton	8 58	9 14
5 38	9 50	3 14	Tecumseh	8 44	8 53
	8 35	3 27	Ridgeway	8 35	8 40
5 51	10 07	3 28	Britton	7 20	6 30
6 12	10 35	3 50	Dundee	6 10	8 00
7 10	12 10	4 45	A.....Toledo.....L	8 31	8 31
P.M.		P.M.		A.M.	P.M.

Train No. 29 Sunday only. Train No. 22 Daily Trains Nos. 32, 21 and 24 except Sunday. Close connections are made at Allegan with the C. & W. M.; Monteith, G. R. R. & I.; Battle Creek, C. & G. T.; Marshall M. C. R. R.; Britton with the Wabash for Detroit, and at Toledo with all roads diverging.

T. C. M. SCHINDLE, RGen'l Pass. Agt.
T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO

TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as Follows:

WEST BOUND.

†No. 51 —Local Mail and Express	10:25 a m
†No. 53 —Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex.	3:30 p m
*No. 27 —Butler Accommodation	6:00 p m
*No. 55 —Pacific Express	11:40 p m
EAST BOUND.
*No. 56 —Atlantic Express	5:50 a m
†No. 26 —Detroit Accommodation	4:45 p m
*No. 52 —St. Louis & Boston Express	7-45 a m
*No. 54 —N. Y. Limited	9:46 p m

*Daily, †Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information, apply to

CHAS. M. HAYS, Gen. Manager. WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian

F. CHANDLER, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt Agent.

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890 Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North.

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
8 25	A. M.		P. M.	P. M.
	00	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	11 15	1 10
	47	.....Dundee.....	10 18	12 20
	08	.....Milan.....	9 48	12 04
	20	.....Urania.....	9 45	11 52
	27	.....Pittsfield.....	9 34	11 42
5 07	6 40	.....Ann Arbor.....	9 22	11 30
5 30	7 55	.....Leland.....	9 07	11 15
5 47	7 06	.....Whitmore Lake.....	8 55	10 02
6 28	8 [illegible]	.....Howell.....	8 17	10 25
7 15	8 4[illegible]	.....Durand.....	7 10	9 15
			A. M.	A. M.
8 00	10 20	.....Owosso.....	6 35	9 05
9 07	11 30	.....Ithaca.....	5 32	7 50
10 15	1 25	.....Mt. Pleasant.....	4 35	6 45
	8 35	.....Cadillac.....	10 30
	5 20	.....Copemish.....	9 05
	8 35	Ar.....Frankfort.....Lv	7 50
	P. M.		A. M.	A. M.

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager.
A. J. PAISLEY, General Pass. and Ticket Agent

Clinton Column.

CLINTON, MICH., JUNE 30, 1892.

John J. Orr and family were in town Sunday.

Ed VanDeMark and wife went to Adrian Sunday.

Ed Seamark and wife went to Manchester Tuesday.

E. F. Kirchgessner and sisters were home over Sunday.

Lina Jones visited friends in Tecumseh a few days last week.

John Tuttle rejoices in the possession of a new pneumatic tire bicycle.

W. C. Hopkins and wife spent last Saturday with Clinton friends.

Horace Seamark returned last Thursday from a six weeks' visit in England.

Hannibal Osborne and wife were guests of David Woodward last Friday.

Mrs. Lydia Smith went to Deerfield last Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Sisson.

Florence Graham, of Manchester, is visiting her cousins, May and Ella Morey.

Mrs. H. D. Niblack returned Monday from a week's visit with friends in Ypsilanti.

The regular meeting of the Eastern Star Chapter will be held Wednesday evening, July 6th.

Mrs. Charles Becker and little child, of Ypsilanti, are visiting friends in Clinton and vicinity.

Miss Ella Wilson, who has been visiting Ella Tuttle, returned to her home at Hanover Tuesday.

Several ladies from here attended a six o'clock tea at Mrs. Alma Tate's in Tecumseh Wednesday.

Nellie Kishpaugh visited Mary Hyndman at Brooklyn from Wednesday until Saturday of last week.

Work is progressing rapidly on Mrs. Broadbent's new house and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

The Blue Lodge, Chapter and Council hold their regular meetings next Saturday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings respectively.

The young girls who are to represent the different states of the Union are requested to meet at J. B. Hause's Monday at 9 a. m.

Mrs. Will Katner went to Battle Creek Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Westfall, who expects to remain for treatment at the Sanitarium.

Ella Chapman had one of her fingers caught in her loom one day last week, hurting it quite badly. It stopped the loom and took about five minutes to extricate the finger.

The little son of James Honley, who was so severely burned last week by the explosion of a gasoline barrel, is doing finely. The burns are healing and beyond a few scars there will be no permanent injury.

Last Sunday was Mrs. Maria Hixson's 92nd birthday and in accordance with an established custom several of her neighbors and friends met at her home Saturday and made merry. It was the occasion of many reminiscences of pioneer life and hopes that many more such reunions may be held.

The Fourth with all its attendant glories, is almost here. From the way in which people have responded we should judge there would be enough to feed ten thousand people, so no one need stay away on that account. The fireworks committee say we are to have the best display of fireworks ever seen in Southern Michigan outside of Detroit. There will be fifteen set pieces besides innumerable minor ones. Beside the regular dinner table, where a regular meal may be obtained for a quarter, there will be lunch stands, ice cream, lemonade, peanut and popcorn stands. There will be swings, side-shows, games races, in fact everything that goes to make a 4th of July celebration a complete success. Come early.

The Masons observed St. John's Day in their usual manner. The graves of departed brethren were decorated at six p. m. by a committee appointed for that purpose. About eight o'clock the guests began to gather and in a short time the lodge rooms were converted into a scene of festivity. About nine o'clock part of the guests adjourned to the dining-room and were served to strawberries and cream, ice cream and cake. While the tables were being prepared the second time the following program was presented:

Solo—Mrs. L. W. Kimball.
Address—Rev. Stone.
Solo—Louise VanDeMark.
Solo—Grace Stevens.

The dining-room was again opened and the tables filled, after which the guests took their departure, all agreeing that it had been one of the most pleasant reunions enjoyed for years.

SATURDAY'S STORM.

The Brooklyn Exponent has this to say of the heavy storm that swept over this section last Saturday week:

The electric storm that visited this place between three and four o'clock on Saturday afternoon is conceded to be the most severe one ever experienced in this vicinity.

It came up rapidly and suddenly from the northwest, the great banks of black clouds hanging low and wrapping everything in sombre darkness. When it did burst in all its fury it caused the stoutest hearts to quail. The heavens were aflame with one continuous blaze of lightning, whose fiery tongues struck toward the earth almost momentarily and crash after crash of thunder reverberated through the skies.

To add horror and confusion to the scene, the fire bell clanged out an alarm, which was promptly responded to by the department, in spite of the drenching rain. It was soon learned that lightning had struck into the basement of J. H. Dresser's drug store. By prompt and efficient work the flames were almost immediately subdued without damage to stock or store. Had the fire not been gotten under control a most fearful holocaust would probably have ensued, as much inflammable and explosive material was in that and adjoining buildings.

Another casualty of the storm was the striking of Samuel Dermyer's house, damaging it to some extent and stunning the inmates.

A Birthday Party.

Wednesday, June 22nd, was the 80th birthday of Uncle Robert Wooden of Cambridge. The day was celebrated by a family reunion at the old homestead where Mr. Wooden has resided for many years and where he has grown from a young man to the hale hearty old age of four score. Among the guests present was Mr. Luke Joseph, a prosperous farmer of Quincy, who was in Mr. Wooden's employ fifty seven years ago and is now at the age of 75 a rugged and jovial gentleman whose amusing anecdotes of the early life and associations of Mr. Wooden's family and himself furnished entertainment for the children, grand children and great grand children present. Mr. Wooden came to Michigan from Monroe Co., New York in 1845 with a family of wife and four children, settling on the farm where he has since resided. Years have wrought great changes. The old homestead has been transformed from a dense forest into wide fruitful fields now covered with growing crops. Where the red deer then wandered in the shade of stately oaks now stand the fields of golden grain bowing their acknowledgement to the advance of civilization.

Children have grown up, left the old homestead and in their turn show evidences of the attacks of time. Grand children and great grand children have come to take their places. The mother now enjoys that rest to which a deserving life is entitled. With her are some of the children. The father ruggedly waits for the call which time will bring, and surrounded by children and children's children, enjoys that repose which respected old age brings. The day was enjoyed by all present and will long be remembered. That the man who has made use of his many years in aiding and showing kindness to his fellow beings might live to enjoy many recurrences of his birth-day was the parting wish of all there.

The usually reliable Lake Shore has been having trouble with wrecks and washouts. A wreck this side of Chicago last Friday made the east-bound vestibule train three hours late. Saturday afternoon a terrible rain-storm washed out the road-bed a distance of 60 feet, a mile and a half west of Jonesville. The torrent of water carried away stones weighing over a ton, and made a channel 15 feet deep. All trains were abandoned till Sunday morning. A freight wreck near Quincy delayed the morning passenger from the west four hours on Monday.

The Prohibition National Convention is now on at Cincinnati. The nominations may be reached this afternoon but probably not till to-morrow.

Buy Dullam's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orr's.

The Knights Templar Conclave.

The triennial conclave of Knights Templar occurs at Denver August 9th, and the Adrian Commandery is making arrangements to attend in a body. A train of three sleepers will leave Adrian August 5th, and returning will reach home about the 15th. The fare has been placed at $34.40 for the round trip, with an additional charge of $8.75 for double berth during the entire time, the cars being held while in Denver. A limited number of the friends of the Knights can be accommodated, and information may be obtained from W. F. King, Adrian, or any of the local members of the Commandery.

It will be one of the grandest ten-day trips ever planned and tourists will see some of the most magnificent sights ever witnessed. An estimate of the grandeur can be made from the fact that the citizens of Denver have raised $100,000 to be spent in illumination alone, and the local city and state commanderies have raised as much more to be spent in a like manner. All modern novelties in fireworks and electrical appliances will be worked to make the city and old Pike's Peak a blaze of glory.

SURPRISE TO ALL.

After using "Mother's Friend" two months I was so speedily and easily relieved that it was a surprise to those attending me. "Mother's Friend" undoubtedly lessens the pains, shortens the time and restores the mother speedily to health. Will recommend it to all expectant mothers, and advise them to use it. Mrs. J. A. R., Muncie, Ind. Sold by Jno. Orr.

A New Line to the Northwest.

Commencing Monday, May 23d, the elegant steamer "City of Marquette" will make regular trips between Frankfort and Kewaunee, Wis., in connection with trains of the Toledo, AnnArbor & North Michigan R'y. Through Express leaving Toledo at 5:45 a. m. daily except Sunday, arrives at Frankfort 5.55 p. m., connecting with "Steamer "City of Marquette," leaving Frankfort 7:00 p. m., arriving at Kewaunee 1:30 a. m.

Holders of first-class tickets are furnished sleeping berths on Steamer free of extra charge and will be permitted to retain berths until morning.

First train leaves Kewaunee 8:55 a. m. for Green Bay, Winona, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis and all points in the West and North West.

W. H. BENNETT, G. P. A.
Toledo, Ohio.

—I want the farmers to remember I am still in the Mower and Binder trade and still have the agency for the "McCormick" line. The number of Machines sold is a good indication of how the farmers like them. In 1891 the McCormick Co. sold 121,780 machines. Come in and see the machines for yourself.

C. A. SLAYTON.

—Prof. C. S. Morrison, of Golconda, Ill., has been chosen Musical Director in the Fayette Normal University. He received his musical education at the Boston Conservatory, is an author of some note and vice-president of State Musical Association of Illinois. He is an experienced instructor, a brilliant pianist, and teaches both band and stringed instruments. He writes that he expects to make the Musical College of the F. N. U. one of the best in the State.

Fourth of July.

One Fare for the round trip on July 2, 3 and 4. The C. J. & M. Ry Co. will sell special low-rate Excursion Tickets between all stations, including Cincinnati. Tickets good going day of sale, and good returning up to and including July 5. For full information apply to nearest C. J. & M. agent or address

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, G. P. A.,
Toledo, O.

To Whom It May Concern.

The Commissioner of Patents having on June 13, 1892, affirmed the decision of the Board of Examiners-in-Chief of the Patent Office, which was in my favor and in which they held that I was the inventor and entitled to a patent of the Friction Clutch used by the Upton Manufacturing Company and the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company for the past two seasons, and being the same one shown in their catalogue for '91 and '92, you are hereby notified that I shall commence suit to recover one hundred dollars royalty against the owner of each and every engine manufactured by the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company I find this Clutch used on. Yours Respectfully,

R. SHETTLER.

THE GREAT BENEFIT

Which people in run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up in a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purifies the blood, and assists to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, June 5th, '92, the C. J. & M. Ry., will run a special low rate excursion to Devils Lake and return. Trains leave Tecumseh at 8:44 a. m. standard time; returning arrives at Tecumseh 5:38 p. m. Fare 40 cents for the round-trip.

T. C. M SCHINDLER, G. P. A.
B. J. SLATER, Agent.

VERY MUCH SURPRISED.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle.

Signed, A. B. SNELL.
Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1811.
For sale by Jno. Orr.

International Convention Y. P. S. C. E.

The eleventh International Convention of the Y. P. S. C. E will be held in New York City, July 7 to 10, inclusive, and for this event the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y. will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates on July 5, 6 and 7. Send to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O., for free copy of folder of information.

THE TRUE LAXATIVE PRINCIPLE

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Members of the National Educational Association.

For the annual meeting of the above named association, to be held at Saratoga, N. Y., July 12th to 15th, 1892, the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y—Lake Shore Route—will sell excursion tickets to Saratoga and return, July 5th to 13th, at one fare for the round trip, with $2.00 added for membership coupon. Tickets will be good to return until July 19th, with an extension of limit for return until Sept. 15th, 1892.

Stop-overs allowed at Niagara Falls and Chautauqua Lake. For full particulars apply to Ticket agents, or write A. J. Smith, G. P. A., Cleveland, O.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St. N. Y.

HELLO

GIVE US TECUMSEH.

Say! Tecumseh! Do you know that WOOD, CRANE & WOOD, of Adrian, have by far the Largest and Finest Stock of Clothing in this part of the World, and their Prices are lower than others? Did you say that you were going to buy some Clothing soon and would try them? That's right; you will not regret it. You can please and fit yourself better, and save money, too. Say! I nearly forgot to mention that they are ONE PRICE and that everything is marked in PLAIN FIGURES.

DETROIT'S DRIVING CLUB.

Blue Ribbon Meeting.

Prolific as was last year of sport on the trotting turf, the ensuing season promises to be still more so. The great California stables are all on this side of the Rockies, except Gov. Stanford's string.

Marcus Daly, Count Valensin, Monroe Salsbury, Mr. Corbet and Orrin Hickock have each great stables, the very creme-de-la-creme of California's equine society. They have traveled several thousand miles to throw down the gauntlet to the trotters and pacers on this side of the "Slope," a defi which will doubtless be cheerfully accepted. But, when such well-known "Knights of the Sulky" as Hickock, "Johnnie" Goldsmith, George Starr, "Jimmy" Dustin and "Andy" McDowell are out for the stuff, it means business for any who may chance to be entered against them. Monroe Salsbury's successes for the past two seasons have been proverbial. It remains to be seen whether or not he has as sure a graft on the money as on former occasions. If the California contingent do not find "foemen worthy of their steel" among our eastern and western stables, some of the horsemen of this country will have to do a tall amount of walking unless provided with return tickets. The BLUE RIBBON meeting of the DETROIT DRIVING CLUB is sure to attract a great field of horses this year. The Californians have never overlooked one of these meetings in their journeys to the east, and they are not likely to do so, this season. It is confidently expected that when the time comes for opening the entries to the various stakes and purses, July 4th, to be contested for during the summer meeting of the Club, July 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st and 22nd, it will be found that not only California, but the best stables from "Maine to Georgia" will be represented.

Tecumseh Price Current.

CORRECTED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING

	Wholesale.	Retail.
PROVISION MARKET.
Apples green, per bushel	$1 00	$1 20
Apples dried, per pound	6	8
Beeswax	14	16
Butter	11	14
Eggs, per doz	13	15
Honey, per lb	16	18
Lard, per lb	9	12
Onions, per bushel	1 00	1 20
Potatoes, per bushel	25	40
Beans, per bushel	2 00	2 30
Wool, unwashed	14
Wool, fleeced washed	22
Wool, tub washed	25
Salt, coarse rock, per bbl	1 50
Salt, common, per bbl	90	1 0
Tallow, per lb	3½
Cheese, per lb	9	14
MEAT MARKET.
Pickled Pork	6	10
Bacon	10	12½
Smoked Ham	12	16
Smoked Shoulders	7	9
Beef, by the side	4½	5
Fat Hogs, per 100 lbs	3 50 to 3 75
Dressed Hogs per 100 lbs	5 25
Veal, dressed, per lb	5
Mutton, dressed, per lb	6	8
Chickens, live, per lb	6	7
Turkeys live, per lb	7	08
Geese live, per lb	5	8
Ducks, live, per lb	6
Hides, green	4
Hides, dry	5
Sheep Pelts	25 to 1 75
GRAIN, SEEDS AND HAY.
Wheat—White	$ 80
" Red	80
Corn, shelled	36
Oats	31
No. 1 Clover seed	4 25
No. 2 " "	4 00
Choice " "	4 50
Timothy Seed	1 6-
Hay, timothy, per ton	8 00 to 9 00
Hay, clover, per ton	7 00
Flour, per sack	1 38
Bran, per 100 lbs	1 00 to 1 25
Middlings, per 100 lbs	90
Corn meal, per 100 lbs	1 50
Chop, per 100 lbs	1 50

Another Large Invoice of

WALL PAPER!

Just Unpacked.

Wm. McCOWEN.

AN OPPORTUNITY

IS NOW GIVEN

Children and Persons of Small Means

In Tecumseh and Vicinity

To avail themselves of the advantages of the

NICKEL SAVINGS STAMP SYSTEM

recently introduced by the

Lenawee County Savings Bank

AT ADRIAN.

An Agency has been established with C. A. WRIGHT & CO. the Druggists, who will furnish upon application, Books descriptive of the system.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE,

IN the matter of the estate of Birdsey J. Bidwell, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the bank of Lilley, Bidwell & Co., in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 1st day of August, 1892, and on the 22d day of December, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 22d day of June, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated, June 30th, 1892.

LUCIUS LILLEY,
LESTER F. TRIBOU,
Commissioners.

FAYETTE is a beautiful village, populated by cultured and hospitable people. She expects much from her University and her expectations are being realized. Its attendance has been increasing from 25 to 50 per cent per year. Work is a prominent feature, make the school the most popular NORMAL yet there are but the best. Commercial, Scientific, Musical, Short-hand, Type-writing, Elocutionary, Penmanship and Fine Art Departments in addition to regular college classes. The teachers are specialists. The success of its students gives it high standing. Only earnest workers are wanted. $27.00 pays tuition, board and room rent for ten weeks. Write for catalogue to the president of the UNIVERSITY.

J. E. DOPP, Fayette, O.

A Free Copy.

Of a folder containing information about the reduced rates, route, tickets, etc., to the Convention of Christian Endeavor at New York, July 7 to 10, sent to any address on applying to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., L. S. & M. S. R'y. Cleveland, Ohio.

USE ONLY

Red Crown Gasoline

In your gasoline stoves

ORIENT or KEYSTONE WATER WHITE KEROSENE OIL

In your lamps.

MANUFACTURED BY

The Standard Oil Co.

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

For Sale in Tecumseh by the following dealers.

James Lowry, Satterthwaite
J. J. Orr, C. A. Wright
Anderson Bros. W. J. Arnold.
McClure Grocery Co., and Jas. Potter

Quality of the Highest Standard

Use nothing in your Gasoline stoves but

RED CROWN GASOLINE

Use nothing in your Lamps but

ORIENT OR KEYSTONE

Water White Kerosene Oil.

Contains No Mercury

ANTI-CONSTIPATION PILLS

GIVE CONSOLATION to all CONSTIPATED.

For Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Attacks and Liver Complaints.

DOSE.—One to two Pellets each night when bowels are regular and natural in movement.

JOHN J. ORR, DRUGGIST,
TECUMSEH, MICH.

PRICE, 25c FOR REGULAR SIZE.

Pleasant and Effectual

LAKE SUPERIOR TRANSIT CO.

The Great Duluth Route.

Intended sailings of steamers from Detroit, Sault Ste Marie, Duluth and other Lake Superior Ports:—Mondays, 8. P. M.; Thursdays, 10 A. M. central time. For Cleveland, Tuesdays, 10:30 P. M.; central time. For Cleveland, Erie and Buffalo, Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays, 5 P. M., central time, making close connections for all points East and South. Make connections at Duluth for St. Paul, Minneapolis, Northern Pacific and Great Northern R'y. Points, Pacific Coast, etc. Baggage checked through to destination. For tickets and full information, apply to J. T. WHITING, Gen'l Agt. Dock and Office, 33 West Atwater St., foot of Griswold, DETROIT MICH.

FAT FOLKS REDUCED

Mrs. Allen Maple, of Oregon, Mo., says: "My weight was 200 lbs., now it is 168 lbs., a reduction of 32 lbs., and I feel so much better that I would not take $1,000 and be put back where I was. I am both surprised and delighted at the change. I recommend your treatment to all of my friends afflicted with obesity. Will answer all inquiries if stamp is inclosed for reply."

PATIENTS TREATED BY MAIL. CONFIDENTIAL.

Hernalene, and with no starving, inconvenience, or loss of time. For particulars address, with 4 cents in stamps,

DR. E. W. F. SNYDER, M'VICKER'S THEATER, CHICAGO.

The Tecumseh Herald.

VOL. XLIII.--NO. 7. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2191

A Terrible Tumble!

IN DRESS GOODS.

1,200 YARDS REDUCED

FROM 60 to 39c.

GET IN QUICK

ANDERSON & CO.

Wm. McCowen

Furniture

•

Wall Paper

•

Trunks

•

Undertaking

THE FINEST and Largest Line of Bedroom Suits ever Shown in Tecumseh.

"95 A" JEWEL GRAND,

The greatest success in Gasoline Stoves; csll and see them.

For sale by

D. L. WHITENACK & CO.

Going to Leave Town!

IN view of the above fact, and as our lease of the Exelby Stores expires next February—'93, we will now inaugurate rates for CLOSING OUT of our different lines in their seasons, therefore

ALL STRAW HATS NOW

$1.25	Will Go For	$1.00
1.00	" " "	75
75	" " "	50
60	" " "	50
25	" " "	22

And others that space will not admit of mention, at the same rock-bottom figures—as we will actually bid you all farewell at the beginning of the World's Fair Year. Awaiting your kind consideration, we remain,

Yours to please,

W. LENARDSON & SON.

Neighborhood News.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

The fourth passed off very quietly in our village.

Mrs. L. V. Miller went to Detroit Friday night.

Farmers have begun haying in earnest this week,

Elder Yager was in Detroit Wednesday on business.

Prof. Drake and Guy Pocklington each have wheels.

Saturday's storm reminded us of the equinoctial period.

John Jackson, of Macon, called on relatives last week.

W. L. Jones was the first to harvest wheat in this section.

Lou Arner visited friends in the County seat Wednesday.

G. C. Arner, of the C. J. & M., is spending a few days at home.

Leila Sutton visited friends in Toledo from Saturday until Tuesday.

Eugene Clarkson, of Detroit, was home over Sunday and Monday.

Ida Pilbeam, of Tecumseh, called on relatives in the village Tuesday.

George Miller, of St. Johns, was the guest of Flota Smith the Fourth.

Jennie Cheever, of Dundee, is visiting her cousin, May Nelson, this week.

B. F. DePuy, of Macon, visited friends on North street one day last week.

Mrs. McKinsley, of Milan, visited Mrs. James Curry last week several days.

Wm. Cornell and family, of Stony Creek, visited friends here over Sunday.

The heavy rain of Saturday night did considerable damage to crops on the lowlands.

Miss Myrtie Sowle, of North Farmington, is visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Quite a number of our citizens took in the celebrations at Dundee and Clinton the Fourth.

Misses Hattie and Daisy Davis, of Dundee, spent Tuesday as the guests of Mrs. I. T. Bush.

Dr. Nelson and wife and Salome Clark were among those who went to Dundee the Fourth.

Dispatcher Frank Allen, wife and son, of Toledo, are making their annual two weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

James Barlow received a Newfoundland pup Monday from Brooklyn, a present from his brother-in-law, I. T. Bush.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Williams, of Perrysburgh, visited at C. M. Gove's last week. They were enjoying their honeymoon.

Little Gracie Smith celebrated her seventh birthday Wednesday afternoon by entertaining quite a number of her little friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lucking and children, of Detroit, and Martin Palmer and wife, of Wyandotte, visited at Dr. Loree's for several days past.

Tink Smith's three-ply double-seamed eave-troughs are standing the test of the immense amount of rain this season and Tink is stringing it out in great shape. No flies on Tink if his wood-pile is low.

Quite a number went to Britton Friday evening to attend the school exhibition given in Exelby's hall, and were very much pleased with the entertainment. It is very evident that Mr. and Miss Bowerman are the right persons in the right place.

The attendance at the L. C. S. held at Mrs. John Temple's on Friday evening was very good and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held on Friday evening, July 29th. The committee on the literary part of the program are Loana Davidson and Jennie Underwood; on music Mrs. R. S. Houseman and Miss Ella M. Hall. Program and place of holding it will be given in season.

The Helping Hand Mission Band will give an entertainment in the church on Friday evening, July 8th. The following program will be given:

Music.
Recitation—Martha Lawton.
Reading—Lura Palmer.
Recitation—May Jones.
Paper—Jennie Lawton.
Recitation—Blanche Wiggins.
Trio.
Recitation—Dora Pocklington.
Solo—Ernia Cheever.
Reading—Lettie Gifford.
Inst. solo—Maggie Cheever.
Recitation—Mary Nelson.
Holders will be sold and refreshments furnished.

Teachers!

If you are going to the N. E. A meet at Saratoga, apply to Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y Ticket agents, or write to A. J. Smith, G. P. A., Cleveland, O., for circular of information.

Excursion tickets will be sold at reduced rates July 5th to 13th, good for return until Sept. 15th, 1892.

THE TRUE LAXATIVE PRINCIPLE Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Ripans Tabules cure dizziness.

BRITTON BUDGET.

Poverty social to-night.

Read Lenardson's ad. in lower corner.

Several of our boys rode over to Clinton on their wheels the 4th.

R. E. Atkinson, of Litchfield, was in town the forepart of the week.

Fourth of July has passed, and taking the citizens generally, you would believe it.

We are informed that its a fact that Lenardson & Son will locate elsewhere with early spring.

Dubois, Haight and Calkins are putting out a goodly number of Harvesting machines this season.

James Dubois has stone and sand on the ground preparatory to laying the foundation for his new house.

Many of our citizens passed their 4th at Dundee and Clinton, but report rather a fizzle at both towns—too bad.

A nice prairie home built by Irve Osborne last summer, was burned Sunday night with a loss of $1200.—insurance $600.

Rev. Joldrinsa, of Kalamazoo, superintendent of western missions, will address our citizens next sabbath at 3 p.m. at Exelby's hall.

Let all interested meet at Exelby's hall Saturday evening, July 9th, for the purpose of reorganizing the band.

C. B. EXELBY, Pres,

All parties interested in organizing a banking company for Britton, are requested to be present at Dr. Hendershot's office, Saturday evening, July 9.

We wish to correct an error in making the announcement of the poverty social; it is to be held tonight under the auspices of the W. R. C. instead of the W. C. T. U.

A fine display of fireworks was given our citizens on the eve of the 4th by Lenardson & Son. Fire balls and fire crackers, with plenty of oil created considerable fun.

The high school entertainment last Friday evening, passed off very nicely and at the small price of admission; 10cts, netted the school $20.42. All did themselves full credit and showed very commendable work on the part of the teachers.

The ladies home missionary society's monthly meeting at the parlors of the Christian church last week Wednesday, was more than usually well attended, many old members paying their dues. Taking it altogether it was a very pleasant social gathering, some eighty or more being present to partake of the bountiful supper provided by the committee.

That highly ornamental fence on the railroad grounds, after tearing and cutting Wm. Ousterhout's best buggy horse up pretty badly, has taken a speak and all that remains is the post hole, which we think could be bought at quite a discount from its full value for a gas well. If the railroad people desire a fence we hope they will invest in any other than a barbed wire, for of all detestable things a barbed wire fence is the worst.

As an officer for the people of the township, I feel it my duty to reply to an article in this column of June 30th, asking for an authenticated statement of the facts in the cases of Lowe vs Town, also Bushrow vs Stewart. I feel that I have been misrepresented as not doing my duty as commissioner, but as it is as natural for one to tell the truth as it is for some men to lie, I trust that my friends, when they have read the following statement carefully and understandingly, will look at the matter as done under the conviction of justice and right, and for the interest of the public whom I represent.

In the suit of Lowe vs. Township for the burning of bridge, it is correct that that the town withdrew and paid costs but not at one-fourth the expense as represented in the statement in this column of June 16th. And again in the case of Bushrow vs Stewart, the costs of $156.20 is to be paid by Stewart or his backers, the Lowes. This is a true and correct statement of the facts, and trusting it may place me in a position as working for the interest of the people, I am, Yours very truly,

F. E. MORRELL,
Commissioner of Highways, Township of Ridgeway.

MACON MUSIC.

Macon celebrated in Clinton.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Camburn a daughter.

Mr. Dickerson and family are visiting at Willis.

Prof Steer and wife of Ann Arbor called on B. H. Pennington last Friday.

Chas. Butts, of Penn., and M. V. Sickly have gone on their washing machine tour.

TIPTON TOPICS.

Little Zula Billington is on the sick list.

Mrs. Dr. Jenkins is visiting in Addison.

Miss Jennie Root, of Tecumseh, is teaching a class in music here.

Farmers are all improving the fine days cutting and curing their hay.

Our little Burg was quiet the 4th. Clinton and the Lakes were strong drawing cards.

Billington Bros. are repairing Ezra Simmon's Barn, which was unroofed by a recent storm.

Rev. and Mrs. Gibbs were called to Mt. Clemens last weeks by the death of Mr. Gibbs' Brother.

John Conlin and Tom Wise had some trouble and got into a fight over mail matter, in the Post Office last Saturday mowing.

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

Wonderfully cool, July weather.

Mrs. Alfred Brower, of Francisco, visited friends in the village last Sabbath.

Miss Alvira Baldwin has improved the appearance of her house by a new coat of paint.

Miss Fannie Kief, of Ypsilanti, spent the first of the week with her cousin, Mrs. J. F. Nestell.

Miss Grace Baldwin, of Franklin, visited friends in town on Friday, on her return from a visit in Saline.

Rev. E. B. Sutton, the temperance speaker from Seattle, Washington, is visiting relatives here. He gave a short address at the W. C. T. U., meeting held in the Presbyterian church, on Sunday evening.

Died, at her home in Manchester township, at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, Ella E. wife of Charles McMahon. [illegible] to her memory, feelings will express the true depth of friendship and affection. She was a true friend, a loving daughter and sister and a devoted wife. She graduated from the Clinton high school, and her naturally gifted and cultivated mind contained a wealth of rich thought making her conversation an enjoyment to all her friends and acquaintances. She became a member of the Free Baptist Church while a young girl and was ever active in all branches of christian work. In the mission society, in the Sunday School and socially, she leaves a vacant place. Her life ever exemplified the piety she professed. She was married Dec. 25th, 1890 and leaves a husband and little one, an invalid mother, three brothers and two sisters to suffer all the sadness of an untimely bereavement.

"We know when moons shall wane,
When summer birds shall cross the sea,
When autumn's hue shall tinge the golden grain,
But who shall teach us when to look for thee,
Oh Death."

Magazine of American History.

The July Magazine of American History is a charming summer issue. It opens with a picturesque article by the editor, "The beginnings of the City of Troy," which contains, among other noticeable illustrations, a full-page fac-simile of the quaint old Dutch map of the province and City of New York, made about 1656, an excellent portrait of the founder of the Rensselear Polyechnic Institute at Troy. The second paper, entitled "Fort Harrison in History," by A. C. Duddleston, is a graphic description of the old fort of that name which William Henry Harrison founded in Indiana, and its gallant defence by Zachary Taylor in 1812, when he was only a young captain of twenty-eight. "The Pre-Columbian Literature of America" follows, a most opportune and valuable study by the eminent scholar, Professor Cyrus Thomas. The fourth contribution, "How England Forced the Slave upon America," is from our minister to Venezuela, Hon. William L. Scruggs, who writes forcibly and to the point, saying, "Not one of the original charters under which the colonial governments had been established contained anything that could be construed into a grant of right to the property in man." The Hon. S. H. M. Byers presents an instructive, historical sketch of "Switzlerland's Model Democracy; or, Popular Government Without Spoils," a paper that overflows with suggestion to all who are interested in unity and central government. This important magazine is ahead of all its great contemporaries in its wealth of useful information worth preserving for all time. Its several departments of miscellany this month are excellent. Subscription price, $5 a year. Published at 743 Broadway, New York.

The Arena for July.

Among the contributors to the July Arena will be Mrs. M. French-Sheldon, who will appear in an illustrated article on scenes and experiences in the wilds of Africa. Mildred Aldrich, who contributes a richly illustrated paper on Julia Marlowe. J. F. Muirhead, who bids fair to distance Max O'Rell as a brilliant essayist. Mr. Muirhead writes humorously on a Briton's impression of America, but there is no bitterness in his raillery. Edwin Reed opens what promises to be the most scholarly and complete discussion of the Bacon-Shakespeare controversy ever written. Hon. Wm. E. Springer, the leader of the Democratic House, Hon. J. C. Burrows, of Michigan, and Hon. Thomas E. Watson discuss the pending presidential campaign. The issue will be one of the most brilliant numbers ever published.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Try it.

"Ma, what is this coal pool I read about in the papers?" asked little Johnny. "I'm sure I don't know, unless it is the miners go in swimming."

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

Ripans Tabules cure constipation.

The Fourth at Sand Lake.

Fully 1,000 people visited Sand lake Monday, at least 300 of whom were Adrian residents. The attraction there was the presence of the Adrian Light Guard and the First Infantry band.

The guard and the band arrived Saturday night, in the drenching rain, the first wagon leaving the city at 5:30 and arriving at the lake about 8:30.

The next three wagons experienced almost insurmountable difficulties, the first leaving Adrian at 7:30 and arriving there at midnight, the second at 9 and arriving at 1:10, the last leaving at 10 and arriving at 2:30.

The roads were in many places submerged, the rain soaked everybody and everything, and there was trouble without end all along the route.

Sunday was passed with reveille, no guard mount, a short drill and dress parade in the evening, followed by a band concert.

Monday was a charming day and the regular camp discipline was carried out. The sham battle in the afternoon was enjoyed by the soldiers and spectators alike.

One force was under command of Capt Howell, and was opposed by a force under Lieut. Ulrich. The captain's forces were to surrender after being driven into the woods and their field piece captured.

The dress parade in the evening was one of the finest ever given by the guard and the band. Capt. Howell feels justly proud of the work of the company at this parade, and their conduct all through the camp.

The camp broke up with a steamboat ride on the lake by the guard and band. With three rousing cheers for Landlord Putman, Mrs, Putnam, and many others interested in the success of the outing, the various loads departed on their way home.

Many of the passengers were left, and a party of twenty or more made the trip Saturday morning via Britton, over the C. J. & M. and Wabash railroads.—Adrian Times.

Hudson Celebrates.

The Fourth of July was splendidly observed here. The demonstration was a fine one and was witnessed by at least 5,000 people, many coming by the Lake Shore and Mackinaw railways. Every feature was a perfect success, and Hudson congratulates herself on having the finest celebration of any former years.

A beautiful procession of uniformed Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, industrial and commercial exhibits passed up Main street at 11 o'clock. A patriotic order of exercises was presided over by Rev. A. H. B. Nancy. Mrs. Adelle Hazlett was orator of the the day. The afternoon was spent with sports and game, and enlivened by the Hudson and Fayette Normal bands. Prof. Phillips made a successful ascent to the clouds and parachute drop. A general fire alarm was turned in and Hudson's abundant water system and fire protection was given a good test.

The evening closed with a fine display of fireworks.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno. Orrs.

For Music Lovers.

The July number of Brainard's Musical World is out and contains besides the usual amount of interesting reading matter, four pieces of new music: "Bold in Song," beautiful ballad by Schleiffarth; "Valse Lente," by Schutt; "Fair Columbia March" and "Goose March," all new and pleasing pieces. Mailed post paid for 15 cents in stamps. The World is published monthly at $1.50 per year and to enable every music lover to examine it, the publishers will (during July only) upon receipt of 20 two-cent stamps, mail to any address, the numbers for April, May, June and July, containing seventeen pieces of choice music; or for ten two-cent stamps two numbers will be sent. For eight two-cent stamps they will also send the "Musicians' Guide," a 212 page volume of musical information. Address, The S. Brainard's Sons Co., Chicago, Ill.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. ORR.

Waiter: Would you like some cold tongue, sir? Mr. Henpeck: No, no! for heaven's sake, no! That is why I'm living at a restaurant. My wife's mother is visiting us.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno. Orrs.

Mother: What! Going to marry that fellow Ginsling? He's a bartender. Daughter: Huh! You needn't talk. Your only son tends a soda water fountain in a prohibition town.

MOTHER'S FRIEND is the greatest blessing ever offered child-bearing women. I have been a midwife for many years, and in each case where Mother's Friend has been used, it has accomplished wonders and relieved much suffering. It is the best remedy for rising of the breast known, and worth the price for that alone. Mrs. M. A. Brewster, Montgomery, Ala.

BRADFIELD'S FEMANE REGULATOR should be used by the young women, she who suffers from any disorder pecular to her sex, and at change of life is a powerful tonic; benefits all who use it

Sold by Jno. Orr.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

Ripans Tabules: one gives relief.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance.....$1 10
If paid after 30 days.....1 25
If paid after three months.....1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance.....$1 25
If paid after 30 days.....1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.

Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.

Rates on general advertising or term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JULY 7, 1892.

In the Prohibition ticket the far west and the South strike hands together across the bloody chasm.

Ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio claims that Cleveland will carry that State in November. That result would not surprise us in the least, for this is going to be a Democratic year, gentlemen.

Gen. Weaver, of Iowa, will head the People's Party ticket. This is a strong nomination. The People's Party is more than likely to carry several of the new Western states and perhaps some of the Southern states also.

The New York Sun closes an article headed, "Unity at Last," as follows: "Sixty cheers for New York and twenty cheers for Kings; a thousand Democratic majority for each cheer, and a few more in New York for the tiger."

There is a possibility that the silver fight will come up again in the House. The passage of Senator Stewart's silver bill in the Senate gives the House another chance at it and if the silver men are strong enough to adopt a cloture rule they can force a vote upon it.

Gen B. F. Butler, who has occupied a conspicuous position in several Presidential campaigns, was at the Capitol last week. He says of the present one: "I am like the little boy playing in the attic—I don't care how hard it rains. I do not care what the result is; I take no interest in it and do not intend to take any." The old man must be growing old in feeling as well as in years.

It is a brilliant scheme the Republicans have of organizing Republican clubs in colleges to teach protection. Protection is not likely to be taught in any respectable college by any other method; for the simple reason that the theory is in irreconcilable antagonism to the first principles of political economy. While they are about it they might also establish a professorship devoted to the ethics of sectional hate and a force bill.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Cleveland's strength in New York is based upon safe estimates. The Blaine influence will not give Harrison a cordial support, which will keep down the Republican vote. There is no state ticket for Tammany to trade off on this year. Tammany's own salvation depends upon keeping in line. Throughout the interior of the State nine-tenths of the Democratic voters are Cleveland men, anyway, and of course will support him heartily. Lastly, the Independent vote, numbering at least fifty thousand, will be plumped in a body for Cleveland.

Representative Jerry Simpson, before leaving for the Omaha convention with his Alliance colleagues, said: "The politicians who are not in touch with the people's party have no sort of idea what a serious and important movement this is. We are apt to poll a very large vote in the so-called silver states, and to carry some or all of them, and I believe we will carry Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota, South Dakota, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Texas, and that we shall elect a sufficient number of Congressmen to hold the balance of power in the next House."

The most imposing and impressive Cleveland meetings of the campaign are now held daily and nightly by the thousands of employes of Mr. Carnegie's steel works, near Pittsburg. These demonstrations are not called Cleveland mass meetings; but when monopoly protection has made Mr. Carnegie many times a millionaire, and enables him to dictate from his Baronial castle abroad a reduction of from ten to forty per cent in the wages of his workingmen, the employes are in daily and nightly council to protect themselves, while the agents of Mr. Carnegie are barricading his works. Few speeches are made and these do not discuss tariff theories; but they do most earnestly discuss a fearful condition that confronts them, and every move they make and every sentence they utter is a death blow aimed at the monopoly protection that enriches the few and pauperizes the many.—Philadelphia Times.

SINGLE TAX DEPARTMENT

A Self-Made Man.

M. E. PARSONS.

There was once a city which had a large and beautiful park, where the people loved to assemble on warm summer afternoons to enjoy the shade of the trees, the freshness of the green grass, and the various social pleasures such a place affords.

Now, it was one year decreed by the city fathers that an addition should be made to the attractions of the park by providing a free concert on the mall every Saturday afternoon during the warm season; and accordingly, a fine band-stand was erected, surrounded by rows of seats for the accommodation of the public. The first afternoon in June, the day the music was to begin, was bright, warm and sunny, and as early as 3 o'clock, an hour before the time advertised for the opening piece by the band, the people began to assemble. Among the first to arrive was a large, burly individual, with a keen and practical eye but a rather shabby coat. His name was Sharp—Jack Sharp. Glancing about him at the brightly-painted band-stand and the rows of comfortably seats already filling with early-comers anxious to secure good quarters for themselves before the arrival of the crowd, and seeing one block or section of seats not yet occupied, he walked toward it, took from his pocket a bit of chalk, and marked in large letters at the end of each bench, "J. S." Then taking out a ball of twine, he walked around the square of seats tying the cord to the end of each one, and so enclosed the whole in a manner not to be mistaken. This done, Mr. Sharp sat down in a shady corner of the first row of seats and waited. The people began to gather thick and fast and the seats to the right and left were filling. Now and then some one approached the enclosed square, looked at the cord and the chalk letters, and walked away. Empty seats to right and left began to be hard to find, and more and more individuals walked up to Mr. Sharp's phalanx, looked at it curiously and withdrew. Finally one with a spirit more enterprising than common boldly seated himself on the front row of seats.

"See here, what are you doing?" said Mr. Sharp.

"Taking a seat to hear the music," said the new-comer.

"Then you may get up and leave it," said Sharp. "These seats are mine."

"Yours; why are they yours?" said the invader. "I don't see why they are yours any more than mine."

"Don't you?" said Sharp; "then I'll show you. Because I got here first. I took all the trouble to come earlier than any one else, and have sat here in the hot sun almost an hour keeping tramps off these seats and taking care of them generally. I'd like to know who they do belong to if they don't to me?"

"Well," said the man, seriously impressed, "you might let me sit here anyway; you can't use them all."

"Well," returned Sharp, "I'll tell you what I'll do with you. I didn't wear myself out taking care of these seats, and marking 'em and enclosing 'em for nothing. What'll you give me for one?"

"I'll give you ten cents," said the other.

"Ten cents?" said Sharp, contemptuously. "If you want a seat (with impressiveness) and want it enough to give a quarter for it, you can have it. I don't rent these seats for ten cents."

The man yielded, paid his twenty-five cents, and took a seat.

Meanwhile the people were gathering faster and faster, seats were becoming fewer, and by that time the music began. Mr. Sharp was doing a brisk trade. Suddenly a thought struck him. "Dunderhead that I am," said he to himself, "to let these seats go so cheap. Why, if I wait awhile, these people will get so tired standing round, they would be glad to give double the money for a chance to sit down;" and to the next applicant for a seat he remarked: "Seats have gone up. They're fifty cents apiece."

A good deal of grumbling followed upon this and for a time the demand for seats fell off, but backs soon began to ache, the sun burned hotter, and the weary pleasure-seekers began, one by one, to find their comfort worth the advanced price. Jack Sharp felt encouraged; his spirits rose with the increasing weight of his pockets, and his fancy was stimulated anew. Glancing down the Mall, he observed approaching from the main entrance to the park a new and large addition to the crowd of music lovers, and, without hesitation, his ready tongue had announced "One dollar," and his ready hand rejected the half dollar offered by the latest applicant for a place.

"But you said fifty cents," protested this, a tired woman, "and fifty cents is too much, but I'm worn out standing so long and I'll give it. But as for a dollar, the seat isn't worth it. It's an absurd price."

"Absurd price, is it?" responded the intolerant proprietor. "Too much and not worth it! You don't know what you are talking about, madam. The more people there are for the seats the higher the price must go. It's according to the natural law of supply and demand. Do you see all those people coming up the Mall? They're going to make a demand for those seats that will make them worth any price. I'm sorry if you can't give a dollar, but there's no use quarreling about the price, it's according to political economy—it must be so."

The new arrivals were now at hand, the traffic in seats went on for a short time briskly, and the industrious Mr. Sharp pocketed a good harvest of bills and silver dollars. Still a great many seats remained empty and the people stood about resigned, preparing to enjoy themselves as best they might. Meanwhile the sun blazed fiercer and fiercer, the breeze died down, and the enjoyment of the music was not unalloyed. Jack Sharp, however, leaned back in his shady corner and, through with his labors, prepared to give himself up to the pleasures of the hour. But, looking about at the groups of standing people, his heart suddenly smote him.

"It is hot," said he to himself, "and those women and children do look very tired. What a pity they can't afford to have seats! I know what I'll do"—with a sudden inspiration. "There's a seat down there at the end that I believe I'll let 'em have for nothing, turn about. It's right in the sun," he added, appeasing a frugal conscience, "and I don't believe anybody'd hire it."

Sharp was a man of action, for his generous impulse was soon an accomplished fact. He even took the trouble to see that each occupant held the place but ten minutes, and that as many as possible enjoyed its advantages. Then, comfortably sitting down with a sense of perfect satisfaction at last, Mr. Sharp could give himself up with unmixed pleasure to a well-earned repose and the enjoyment of the sweet strains from the band.

Among the occupants of some benches, not far away from Mr. Sharp's square of seats sat a young man with a car, who, apparently rather idly, was gazing about at the scene before him. Suddenly turning to a person sitting at his right, he said: "Look at all those people standing over there. They look fagged and warm; why don't they take seats?" Looking carelessly in the direction indicated, the man, one of years and experience, answered, "Why, there are not enough seats for them."

"Yes, there are," said the youth. "Look, there are plenty of them right there next to us—plenty of them. Why don't they take them?"

"O no, there are not," said the man of experience, "you are mistaken, there are not half enough. The seats will never go round. The trouble is there are too many people; they should not let so many in; the park is overcrowded."

"But," persisted the boy, "there are lots of seats at all events, and most of the people could sit down."

"Why, so they could, if they had the money to pay for them," said the elder, "but they haven't."

"Pay," returned the other, "why have they got to pay?"

The man of experience began to vax impatient. "Oh, because they are not theirs—because they belong to Mr. Sharp; they're his property. That is why."

"Mr. Sharp, who is he?" said the youth.

"That fine-looking man in the front row, that's Mr. Sharp, the owner of the seats."

For a moment the youth was silent, but almost immediately a returning light came upon him, and he continued: "Well, if he does own them he can't possibly use them all, and he might let those people have them, if they haven't the money."

A look of intenss disgust appeared upon the countenance of the man of experience. "Oh, I see," said he, "I see what you are driving at. You're one of those communist fellows that's what you are. You'd like to take all property and divide it up in equal bits and hand it around! But I can tell you this much. You'd no sooner get it divided and parceled out than it would be back again, unequal as ever, and we'd be just where we were."

"No, I'm not," cried the youth with emphasis, "I'm not a communist at all, and don't believe in anything of the kind. But I do think it is pretty stingy of that Sharp to keep all those seats to himself and let those tired people stand. It's mean and grasping; that's what it is."

"Now, see here," and the tone of the indignant elder grew sharper, "that's a little too much. It's outrageous! Mr. Sharp, I can tell you, is a highly benevolent, philanthropic man. He's doing what he can all the time for the good of other people. Do you see that seat at the end of the second row, with a ragged little boy sitting in it, well, Mr. Sharp gives that seat for nothing; for nothing, sir, to any one who needs it. It is a perpetual benefaction. What is more, he gives it his own personal supervision, and administers its affairs in the most just and impartial manner—opening it to every one who comes along without exception, and making no distinction as to age, sex or color. And this man is called stingy, grasping and mean. It's shameful, shocking."

The ardent youth felt subdued. The convincing nature of these remarks left him no arguments to offer, and, though still inwardly unconvinced, he could only say helplessly and with an air of depression: "Is that so? All the same, it does seem a pity that those poor, tired people have to stand, when the rest of us have good seats."

"That is very true," said the man of experience, "it is a pity; but that's the way it goes. Some have more than others. It always was so since the world began, and it always will be. It's the natural order, and it can't be helped."

Meanwhile the selections by the band had all been played, the shadows grew long upon the grass, and the masses of people were separating and moving towards the gates. Mr. Sharp was one of the first to rise, and with a comfortable sense of duty done and pockets well filled, he left the scene of his labors and was soon lost to view in the shifting crowd.

This, however, did not prove the end of this intelligent man's activity. He was not one to pause in well doing and let the work of to-day excuse the idleness of to-morrow. Nor time was lost before his well-earned dollars were invested in a small speculation, and by measures in harmony with his initial efforts, and means always possible to the wide-awake and knowing, they increased and grew, till in time Mr. Sharp's name spread abroad and he waxed fat in the land.

Many years passed, and on another bright June afternoon, when the park was gay with carriages and people were merry with the sound of music and the voices of children, a father and his son walking along the east drive observed a dashing four-in-hand, driven by a distinguished looking gentleman of advancing years. "Look, father," said the boy, "who is that?" "That, my son," answered the father, "is the celebrated Mr. Sharp, one of our leading citizens. I am told that he began life as a poor boy, without a dollar in his pockets, and that by his own unaided efforts he has attained his great wealth and honored position in society. He is, in fact, my son, a fine example of what is possible to industry, integrity, and perseverance under the free and equal institutions of this great and glorious land."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

A POSITIVE FACT.

Burglar (flashing his dark-lantern in the face of the sleeper): If you make a loud noise you're a dead man! I want it quick! Where is it?

Mr. Billus (only half awake): Why, great Scott, Maria! What have you done with the $25 I gave you yesterday?

Ladies do not delay your valuable time by waiting and suffering, but secure a bottle of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and be cured of your monthly trouble either in old or young. It is the very best preparation ever prescribed in my extensive practice. It has given the best results in the greatest number of cases of female troubles of any medicine that I ever used. I do not make a practice of using or recommending patent medicines, but this remedy is prepared by a very competent physician and chemist of my acquaintance and I can cheerfully and conscienciously recommend it as the the best.

A. C. FRUTH, M. D., Specialist of Diseases of Women, 89 East Madison St. Chicago, Ill.—For sale by John J. Orr.

The Michigan delegation was a potent force at the Chicago Convention. Their action stands out in striking contrast with the puerile course of the Michigan delegation at Minneapolis.

A CONTRACTOR'S ADVICE.

Dullam's German Medicine Co.:—Gentlemen; I take great pleasure in testifying in behalf of Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure. I can safely say that I never took such medicine as that to cleanse the liver, stomach and kidneys. I was suffering for years with biliousness, indigestion and loss of appetite and sleep. One bottle did for me more good than six months' other treatment, and I feel it my duty to testify in its behalf, so others may try it and get cured. Yours Truly, Warren E. Russell, Contractor and builder. Flint, Mich.—For sale by John J. Orr.

THE SKILL AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential to the production of the most perfect and popular laxative remedy known, have enabled the California Fig Syrup Co. to achieve a great success in the reputation of its remedy, Syrup of Figs, as it is conceded to be the universal laxative. For sale by all druggists.

He: Have you heard?

She: What?

He: Miss Spinster is going to be married.

She: Oh, yes, I've heard that ever since I can remember.

VERY MUCH SURPRISED.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle Signed A. B. Snell.

Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1891. For sale by John J. Orr.

The spoliation tariff will be the great overshadowing issue of the campaign. The silver question will play a more important part in the extreme Western States and the Force bill in the South.

MILES' NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

LANE'S FAMILY MEDICINE MOVES THE BOWELS

Each day. Most people need to use it.

A Feeling of Security

goes with every package of Pearline. It secures cleanliness with little labor; it secures comfort in all housework, and better work all over the house. It does away with danger as it does away with hard work. Pearline secures from harm anything that can be washed. Anything can be washed easily and safely by securing Pearline.

Beware of imitations which are being peddled from door to door. First quality goods do not require such desperate methods to sell them. PEARLINE sells on its merits, and is manufactured only by

268 JAMES PYLE, New York.

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER

DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S.,

Brick Office on Shawnee St. TECUMSEH, MICH.

Threshers Attention!

We have 30 of our CELEBRATED ALL-FOUR WHEEL DRIVING TRACTION ENGINES That we will dispose of direct to threshers, thereby saving them the agent's commission. The best and most powerful traction Engine made. We also manufacture Saw Mills, Boilers, Saw and Picket Mills, and the FAMOUS LANSING S. PUMP AND WIND MILLS.

Send for Catalogue and Price List.

The Lansing Iron and Engine Works,

LANSING, MICH.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE CURE FOR CATARRH COLD IN HEAD HAY FEVER DEAFNESS HEADACHE ELY'S CREAM BALM

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 66 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

The New Model Hall Typewriter,

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Characters.

Remodeled and Improved.

GOOD MANIFOLDER.

The Best Standard Typewriter in the World.

Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interchangeable type in all languages, Easiest to learn and rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIEND.

Everybody should have their writing done on the Typewriter. It always insures the most prompt attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159. N. TYPEWRITER CO., 611 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

THE Stadtman BUSINESS COLLEGE

And SHORTHAND SCHOOL, TOLEDO, O.

Prepares its pupils for business and then assists them to positions.

135 Students placed with Banks, Wholesale Houses and Railroad Cos. since Sept. '90. Write for full information,

A. H. STEADMAN, Prin.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the City of Adrian, on Monday, the 20th day of June, in the year one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Hugh Harbeson, Emily May Harbeson and William J. Harbeson, minors.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of W. J. Harbeson, an uncle of said minors, praying that Charles Burridge, of Tecumseh, may be appointed guardian of said minors.

It is Ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the next of kin of said minors, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is Further Ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy)

A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee—ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Friday, the 17th day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate

In the matter of the estate of John Richard, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Alexander Richard, a son of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to him, petitioner, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July, next, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of Lewis V. Miller, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Probate Court of said County, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas Burridge, in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 6th day of August, 1892 and on the 7th day of December, 1892, at 9 o'clock in the fore noon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 7th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 15th, 1892.

MINOR DAVIDSON,
MICHAEL SMELTZER,
Commissioners

DRS. CATLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills. 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default of Payment having been made of a mortgage made by Edward Rowland and Rhoda Rowland, his wife, to Albert Hyde, Sr., bearing date the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1878, of record in office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 106 of mortgages on Page 34, on which mortgage there remains unpaid at the date of this notice, of principal and accrued interest, the sum of Eight Hundred forty-four and 62-100ths dollars ($844.62), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken for the collection of the same.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the money above named and interest thereon at 8 per cent. per annum to accrue thereon, the costs of this foreclosure and sale, including the attorney fee provided by law, I shall, on the first day of August, A. D. 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan (that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for said County of Lenawee), all that par cel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point in the South line of Logan Street, Seventy feet distant from the intersection of that line with the East line of Evans Street in said Village, thence running South parallel with and seventy feet distant from the East line of Evans Street to the alley described in a deed given to Benjamin Pelley by Michael A. Patterson and George Spafford; thence East along the North line of said alley seventy feet; thence North to the South line of Logan street aforesaid; thence West on said South line of Logan street aforesaid seventy feet to place of beginning—being the same land conveyed by John H. Mills to said Edward Rowland by deed bearing date December 29, 1876, and comprising dwelling house and premises and blacksmith shop and premises thereon.

Dated May 5th, 1892.

ALBERT HYDE, Mortgagee

CHARLES BURRIDGE, Attorney for Mortgagee. may5

MORTGAGE SALE.

DEFAULT of payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date March 19th, 1889, executed and delivered by Seth C. Randall to Emma Drake, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1889, in Liber 126 of mortgages, on pages 611 and 615, and upon which mortgage there remains due at the date hereof the sum of three hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents (399.60), and no proceedings at law or in equity having been taken to collect the same or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained (which has become operative by reason of such default) and by the Statutes of the State of Michigan, in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon, and costs of this foreclosure and sale including an attorney fee as provided by law; I shall, on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the court house, in the City of Adrian, County of Lenawee Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, viz: The southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three (23), town six (6), south of range five (5) east.

Dated April 11, 1892.

EMMA DRAKE, Mortgagee

WOOD & FIRD, Attorneys for Mortgagee.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of John Allen, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas. Burridge, in Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 16th day of July, and on the 5th day of Dec., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 5th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment.

Dated, June 12, 1892.

R. G. PRICE,
WM. RANDALL,
Commissioners.

WILL BE GIVEN AWAY.

Our enterprising druggists Baker & Hall who carry the finest stock of drugs, perfumeries, toilet articles, brushes, sponges, etc., are giving away a large number of trial bottles of Dr. Miles' celebrated Restorative Nervine. They guarantee it to cure headache, dizziness, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, the ill effects of spirits, tobacco, coffee, etc. Druggists say it is the greatest seller they ever knew, and is universally satisfactory. They also guarantee Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure in cases of nervous or organic heart disease, palpitation, pain in side, smothering etc. Fine book on "Nerve and Heart Diseases" free.

Every Month

many women suffer from Excessive or Scant Menstruation; they don't know who to confide in to get proper advice. Don't confide in anybody but try

Bradfield's

Female Regulator

a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE, SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR

MENSTRUATION.

Book to "WOMAN" mailed free.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S

DUSKY

DIAMOND

TAR SOAP

Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing.

Cures

Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc.

Removes and Prevents Dandruff.

AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP.

Best for General Household Use.

ARE YOU SICK?

We will mail 12 days trial treatment of the famous Australian Electro Pills for only 10 cents (cost $1.00) worth liquid remedies for Catarrh, Liver, Kidney or Stomach Trouble, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Constipation, La Grippe and the Nervous System. Full treatment by mail, $1.00. Give symptoms. Special terms to live agents making this paper. Address

Dr. E. J. Worst, Ashland, Ohio.

WANTED SALESMAN

Good pay. Steady employment. Big advantage over rival concerns; stock guaranteed; no experience needed. Write if want a good position. Address.

THE GUARANTEE NURSERY CO

GENEVA, N. Y. Lock Box 150.

Dr. Hoxsie's

Certain Croup Cure,

The great PREVENTIVE as well a CURE for Croup, Coughs Colds, Whooping Cough, and Bronchitis. Contains no opium. Causes no nausea.

Price 50 cents,

Address A. P. HOXSIE, Buffalo. N. Y.

DEAFNESS & HEAD NOISES CURED by Peck's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfortable. Successful where all Remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, 853 Broadway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists

CONSUMPTIVE

Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough, Kidney Debility, Indigestion, Pain, Take in time. 50 cts.

UNDERCOONS. The only sure cure for Corns. 15c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

A Family Affair

Health for the Baby,

Pleasure for the Parents,

New Life for the Old Folks.

Hires'

Root Beer

THE GREAT

TEMPERANCE DRINK

is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening effervescent beverage.

Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.

Our OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.

A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.

OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Jumped from the Train.

Sheriff John McQueen, of Grand Rapids, started for the state prison at Jackson with Frank Bickford, who will serve twelve years. When near Charlotte Bickford requested that he be allowed to visit the closet, which was granted. When Charlotte was reached McQueen discovered that his prisoner had escaped through the transom. McQueen put men on the lookout and went on with his other prisoners, and after disposing of them he returned to Charlotte, joined in the chase and caught his man 3 miles west of Charlotte, 3 miles from the place where he had jumped off.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by sixty-five observers in different parts of the state for the week ended June 25 indicated that typho-malarial fever, whooping cough, remittent fever and cholera morbus increased, and inflammation of the bowels, diphtheria, typhoid fever, membranous croup, pneumonia and measles decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at thirty-one places, scarlet fever at thirty-nine, typhoid fever at fifteen and measles at nineteen places.

St. Clair County Pioneers.

The St. Clair County Pioneer society held its annual meeting in Port Huron with about 100 of the early residents of the county in attendance. The report of the secretary showed that five members had died within the past year, and fifty-five during the existence of the organization. Judge William T. Mitchell was reelected president of the society, as were also B. C. Farrand for secretary and Judge E. W. Harris for treasurer.

Changed His Mind.

About a year ago Alonzo Turrey, a farmer of Flint, wealthy and 79 years old, was smitten with the charms of Mrs. Eliza Wilson, who had seen forty years of life and been divorced from her husband. Eliza listened to the dulcet tones of Cupid's voice, called the old man "Lovey" and married him. Now the marriage is called to mind by the old man applying for a divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

Officers of the First Michigan Infantry.

The First Michigan infantry in reunion at Lansing elected these officers: President, T. J. Edwards, of Dowagiac; vice presidents, George Comer, of Ypsilanti, and Charles M. Sanderson, of Mason; chaplain, Rev. Charles Carrick, of West Branch; secretary and treasurer, Dan Griffert, of Jackson. The next reunion will be held at Jackson.

Death of Joshua W. Waterman.

Joshua W. Waterman, the well-known Detroit lawyer and capitalist, died at his residence, aged 67 years. He had been for many years known for his public spirit and generous gifts to charitable objects, the latest of the latter being a donation of $35,000 to the Waterman gymnasium of the University of Michigan.

Praying for Dry Weather.

A union prayer meeting was held at Holland and prayer offered for Divine interposition on account of the continual rains. Crops and fruit have been damaged greatly and the prospects are not encouraging.

Short But Newsy Items.

An unknown floater was found in the river at Bay City.

Nicholas Peters, aged 19 years, fell from a dock at Hancock, and was drowned.

Two of George Schilling's horses were killed by lightning at Kalamazoo. They were valued at $400.

W. C. Rands, of Detroit, made 25 miles in 1 hour 15 minutes and 59 4-5 seconds, thus beating by 1 minute the championship bicycle record.

Miss Irene Ensign, a domestic in the family of George Lynd in Lansing, was seriously burned while lighting the kitchen fire with kerosene.

At Ludington Adam Love, 5 years of age, son of A. W. Love, fell into a well in the rear of their residence and was not discovered until life was extinct.

Ray J. Jackson, of Lansing, 7 years old, was killed by pulling a stone down on himself in a monument yard.

Over 300 tons of coal per day are being taken from the Sebewaing coal field.

Pat Clancy was arrested at Ishpeming on suspicion of being implicated in the numerous burglaries there. A stolen rifle was found in his possession.

Paul Patillo, well known in Michigan as a prize fighter and boxer, was killed by falling from the seventh story of a new building in Detroit. He leaves a wife and two children.

Handy Bros., of West Bay City, are beginning work on a second box manufactory which will give employment to double their present large crew of men.

At the Soo a Canadian Pacific passenger locomotive struck the team and vehicle of Mrs. Fred Greaser at a crossing. Both horses were killed outright and Mrs. Greaser was badly injured

A farmer named Clark, of Williams township, went to Genesee county and was thrown out of a wagon by his horse taking fright, sustaining injuries which resulted in his death.

John C. Atherton, convicted at Bad Axe of murder in the second degree for killing Daniel Squano, an Indian at Bayport last September, was taken to state prison to serve ten years.

Dan Sartwell, the self-confessed Port Huron burglar, was sentenced to ten years in Jackson prison by Judge Vance.

Thomas Monroe, who for the last decade has been a teacher in the state school for the deaf and dumb at Flint, has been elected superintendent by the board of managers to succeed M. T. Goss.

Henry Linn and Harvey Hoffman were killed by lightning in a barn near Kalamazoo in which they had sought shelter from a storm. John Kote, who sat between them when the bolt fell, was not injured in the least. A horse was also killed.

STATE POLITICS.

Indiana Republicans Nominate Gov. Chase for Reelection.

The Iowa Republicans Meet in Des Moines and Name a State Ticket—List of Presidential Electors Chosen.

INDIANA REPUBLICANS.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 29.—The republican state convention was called to order at the Princess rink at 10 a. m. yesterday by Chairman Gowdy, of the state central committee. Prayer was offered by Rev. D. W. Moffatt, of the First Presbyterian church, Fort Wayne, after which C. W. Fairbanks, of Indianapolis, was chosen as permanent chairman.

The committee on resolutions then reported the platform.

The platform opens by approving the Minneapolis platform and the renomination of President Harrison. It says: "The administration of the national government under his leadership has been marked by such wisdom and patriotism as to impress the whole country and give abundant assurance that its continuance will add luster to the American name and increase the comfort of the American home." The Minneapolis nominees are indorsed; democratic incapacity, the Indiana gerrymander and the management of state affairs is denounced as incompetent, wasteful and in the interest of office-holders and party managers. Debt and democracy are declared to be synonymous terms, and democratic management of state affairs is denounced as improvident and calculated to involve the state in hopeless debt and impair the credit of the state unless checked. The new democratic tax law is denounced as imposing on the farmer, laborer and householder an unjust share of public burdens, and its radical revision is demanded. The resolutions pledge the republican party to enact such a tax law as will relieve the farm and the home from the unjust taxation now imposed on them and place a just share on capital and corporate property. The last legislature is charged with increasing the fees and salaries of state and court officers. The declaration of the democracy in favor of the repeal of the law imposing a 10 per cent. tax on state bank issues is declared to open the way again to wildcat banking. The democratic party is denounced for making the benevolent institutions partisan, and non-partisan management is demanded; the organization of labor is approved; the generous pension laws passed by the republican congress are commended; a tribute is paid to the memory of late Gov. Alvin P. Hovey, and sympathy is tendered to Blaine and his family in their affliction.

After the platform was adopted the following nominations were made:

For governor, Ira J. Chase, of Hendricks county; lieutenant governor, Theodore Shockney, of Randolph; secretary of state, Aaron Jones, of St. Joseph; auditor of state, John W. Coons, of Marion; treasurer of state, Fred Sholz, of Vanderburg; attorney general, J. D. Ferrall, of LaGrange; superintendent of public instruction, James R. Henry, of Morgan; reporter supreme court, G. B. Haywood, of Tippecanoe; statistician, S. J. Thompson, of Shelby. Judges supreme court—First district, John D. Miller, of Decatur; Third, Byron K. Elliott, Marion; Fifth, R. W. McBride, Elkhart. Judges appellate court—First district, J. D. Cavins, Gibson; Second, John Thompson, Dearborn; Third, James B. Black, Marion; Fourth, M. S. Robinson, Madison; Fifth, E. D. Crumpacher, Porter.

The convention adjourned sine die after giving three cheers for the ticket.

IOWA REPUBLICANS.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 30.—The republican state convention met here Wednesday. R. B. Huff, of Muscatine, acted as chairman of the temporary organization. State Senator Hager presided over the permanent organization. The following ticket was nominated: For secretary of state, William McFarland; for auditor, C. G. McCarthy; for treasurer, B. A. Beeson; for attorney general, John T. Stone; for railway commissioner, G. W. Perkins; for electors at large, A. B. Cummins and J. M. Remley; for district electors—First, William M. Walker; Second, Charles Lewis; Third, C. E. Abrook; Fourth, H. B. Hancock; Fifth, H. Stone; Sixth, B. F. Carroll; Seventh, E. R. Hayes; Eighth, M. L. Temple; Ninth, J. L. Clint; Tenth, Z. A. Church; Eleventh, E. D. Chassell.

The platform ratifies the nomination of Harrison and Reid, commends the administration of President Harrison, indorses the platform of the national republican party, especially the attitude taken by it on the tariff, silver, temperance and ballot questions, and denounces the platform adopted by the democrats at the Chicago convention.

Mr. French and other anti-prohibition republicans asked that a plank be inserted favoring a $1,000 county local option law and supported this proposition on the floor of the convention. They were accorded a respectful hearing. The convention, however, decided that the report of the committee on resolutions which presented a platform simply based upon the national issues was the one which it was proper to adopt this year.

Kansas Republicans.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 2.—The republicans in convention here yesterday nominated A. W. Smith for governor, E. F. Moore for lieutenant governor, William Edwards for secretary of state, B. K. Bruce (colored) for auditor, J. B. Lynch for railroad commissioner, and T. F. Garner for attorney general. The nominees for governor and lieutenant governor are farmers.

Four Girls Drowned

NEW ORLEANS, July 1. — By the upsetting of a skiff in the Delogny crevasse four persons were drowned, two daughters of Dr. Himel, aged respectively 14 and 16 years, and Misses Hamilie and Angele Lambert, nieces of A. Landery, of this city.

A New Apportionment.

MADISON, Wis., July 1.—The legislature in special session yesterday passed the legislative reapportionment bill. The measure gives the democrats the house by a majority of two with fourteen districts doubtful, and the senate by a majority of nine.

The Cuban Sugar Crop.

HAVANA, July 2.—The exceptionally fine weather that has prevailed for five consecutive months has enabled the farmers to harvest the sugar crop, which, it is expected, will amount to more than 900,000 tons, or nearly 100,000 tons more than that of last year.

Took Their Own Lives.

CARROLLTON, Ind., July 1.—A man and woman who registered at a hotel here as Mr. and Mrs. Fred St. Cloud, of New York, were found dead in their room, having poisoned themselves.

MINOR NEWS ITEMS.

For the Week Ending July 2.

The British parliament has been dissolved.

The treasury of the state of Kentucky is empty.

Mrs. John Homer died at Fairbury, Ill., aged 100 years.

Fire among business houses in Belfast, Ireland, caused a loss of $500,000.

A leather trust, with a capital of $1,000,000, has been formed in New Jersey.

Theodore Thomas has issued a prospectus of the musical programme for the fair.

Omar Belknap, of Fairfield, Ia., tried to cremate his wife by setting her clothing on fire.

Great excitement has been caused in Ireland by an attack on Parnell's memory by a priest.

Oats will harvest eighty-five bushels to the acre in Illinois, so says the state board of agriculture.

Rev. Shelby Hardy and his two daughters were killed by lightning near Ridgeville, Tenn.

Twenty-five children were in a critical condition at Patoka, Ind., from eating poisoned ice cream.

A dozen houses were wrecked and several families were made homeless by a landslide in Cincinnati.

A rowboat at Cologne, Germany, sprang a leak and sank and five girls and one man were drowned.

The sugar crop of Cuba is estimated at over 900,000 tons, or nearly 100,000 tons more than that of last year.

Fire in the business district of Woodland, Cal., destroyed property worth $250,000 and the lives of three men.

A census bulletin shows that the French-speaking Canadians are now 21.4 per cent. of the population of Canada.

The Louisiana legislature has passed a bill whereby lotteries will not be allowed in the state after December 31, 1893.

Tom Lillard (colored) was lynched by a mob at Woodbury, Tenn., for assaulting a young white girl named McKnight.

Capt. Charles Hay, superintendent of the commissary department of the United States army, died of pneumonia in Denver.

The total sugar bounty paid during the fiscal year ended June 30 was $7,330,046, of which $7,005,285 was paid on cane sugar.

Two members of the Williams (Ind.) Christian church were excommunicated because they favored having an organ in the church.

Schwabacher Bros.' wholesale hardware and grocery store at Seattle, Wash., was destroyed by fire, causing a loss of $500,000.

The national bank at Goshen, N. Y., closed its doors, and William M. Murray, the cashier, was absent with $60,000 belonging to the bank.

The world-renowned spiritualistic medium, Mrs. Nettie Colburn Maynard, died at her residence in White Plains, N. Y., in her 50th year.

Fire broke out in the Haggin grant a mile south of Antelope, Cal., and swept over a territory of 6,000 acres, causing a loss of $100,000.

Three persons were killed by lightning during a storm at Gloucester, N. J., and several were severely injured. Great damage was done to property.

The number of miles of railway built in the United States the first half of this year was 1,100 miles, 500 miles less than for the same period of last year.

An attempt was made to wreck the eastbound Wells-Fargo express train near Decatur, Ind., for the purpose of robbery. Five persons were injured.

In Fleming county, Ky., Blue Rice, a farmer, and Zeek Turner, a farm hand in his employ, fought over a difference in their accounts and both were killed.

Suits against twenty leading lumbermen of four states for conspiracy to raise the price of lumber have been begun in the United States court at St. Paul.

A district 10 miles wide and 40 long in Catahoula and Concordia parishes in Mississippi has been inundated for weeks and large numbers of the population are in great want.

The Bay View rolling mills in Milwaukee, employing nearly 2,000 men, have shut down for an indefinite period, and the mills at Homestead, Pa., were also closed, throwing 3,000 men out of work. Refusal of the managers to sign the scale was the cause.

Government Receipts.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The government receipts for the fiscal year ended June 30 aggregated $356,933,302, against $401,976,102 during the preceding year. The treasury gold coin and bullion assets aggregated $225,577,705 and silver assets $448,086,115.

British Schooners Seized.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 2.—Twenty-five British sealing schooners and the supply steamer Coquitlam have been seized by the United States revenue cutter Corwin, and the entire sealing fleet in northern waters has been cut off from supplies.

Coinage in June.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The coinage of the mints during June of all kinds of money aggregated in value $5,706,992. Of this amount $4,698,517 was in gold and $990,488 in silver pieces, and $17,987 in minor coin.

Civil Service Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The president sent to the senate the following nomination: George D. Johnston, of Louisiana, to be a civil service commissioner, vice Hugh S. Thompson, resigned.

Iowa Democrats.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 2.—At a meeting of the Iowa democratic state central committee August 17 was agreed upon as the date and Davenport as the place of the democratic state convention.

Yale the Winner.

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 2.—In the four-mile boat race here between Yale and Harvard the former won. Time: Yale, 20:48; Harvard, 21:42¾.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $13 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by traveling between Detroit and Cleveland, via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $2.25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making sure connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. Schantz, G. P. A. Detroit & Cleve. and Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

GUARANTEED CURE.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition: If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold, or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at J. J. Orr's Drug Store. Large size 50c and $1.00.

"I should call the photographer a friend of his race." "For what reason" "He always tries to make people look pleasant who do business with him."

I have been a great sufferer from dry catarrh for many years, and I tried many remedies, but none did me so much benefit as Ely's Cream Balm. It completely cured me. M. J. Lally, 39 Woodward Ave., Boston Highlands, Mass.

I think Ely's Cream Balm is the best remedy for catarrh I ever saw. I never took anything that relieved me so quickly, and I have not felt so well for a long time. I used to be troubled with severe headaches two or three times a week. J. A. Alcorn, Agt U. P. R. R. Co., Eaton, Colo.

WHY IS THE

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN

THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY?

It is a seamless shoe, with no tacks or wax thread to hurt the feet; made of the best fine calf, stylish and easy, and because we make more shoes of this grade than any other manufacturer, it equals hand-sewed shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

$5. 00 Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest calf shoe ever offered for $5.00; equals French imported shoes which cost from $8.00 to $12.00.

$4. 00 Hand-Sewed Welt Shoe, fine calf, stylish, comfortable and durable. The best shoe ever offered at this price; same grade as custom-made shoes costing from $6.00 to $8.00.

$3. 50 Police Shoe; Farmers, Railroad Men and Letter Carriers all wear them; fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, heavy three soles, extension edge. One pair will wear a year.

$2. 50 fine calf, no better shoe ever offered at this price; one trial will convince those who want a shoe for comfort and service.

$2. 25 and $2.00 Workingman's shoes are very strong and durable. These who have given them a trial will wear no other make.

Boys' $2.00 and $1.75 school shoes are worn by the boys everywhere; they sell on their merits, as the increasing sales show.

Ladies $3.00 Hand-sewed shoe, best Dongola, very stylish; equals French imported shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

Ladies' 2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 shoe for Misses are the best fine Dongola. Stylish and durable.

Caution.—See that W. L. Douglas' name and price are stamped on the bottom of each shoe.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

Insist on local advertised dealers supplying you. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by

SOLD BY

HARRIS & HITESHU, Tecumseh.

LADIES

in delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions or of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to my cure, together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The M. U. Pastilles have stood the test of 18 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $1.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr. H. H. Jackson, 163 State Street, Chicago, Illinois

The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. The name and address will be given any lady asking for the same:

"DR JACKSON,

Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend your M. U. Pastilles to all ladies suffering with female diseases. Having myself been helpless for ten months and could find no remedy until I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using six or two boxes I was well and sound for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady." ulle-3

CURE THAT

Cold

AND STOP THAT

Cough.

N. H. Downs' Elixir

WILL DO IT.

Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

Warranted. Sold everywhere.

HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

If you are troubled with a "hacking cough." Downs' Elixir will give you relief at once. Warranted as recommended or money refunded.

Gen. Bidwell, of California, will lead the Prohibition hosts in the next campaign. The Prohibs claim that they will poll half a million of votes this year and their claim may possibly prove true.

Baxter's Mandrake Bitters cure Indigestion, Heart Burn, Costiveness and all malarial diseases. Twenty-five cents per bottle.

"Is Smithins a smart lawyer?" "Very. Man went to him with a case involving $150. Said he was willing to spend $1,500 to get it back. Smithins made him out a bill right off for $1,350."

Members of the National Educational Association.

For the annual meeting of the above named association, to be held at Saratoga, N. Y., July 12th to 15th, 1892, the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y—Lake Shore Route—will sell excursion tickets to Saratoga and return, July 5th to 13th, at one fare for the round trip, with $2.00 added for membership coupon. Tickets will be good to return until July 19th, with an extension of limit for return until Sept. 15th, 1892.

Stop-overs allowed at Niagara Falls and Chautauqua Lake. For full particulars apply to Ticket agents, or write A. J. Smith, G. P. A., Cleveland, O.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno. Orrs.

KING OF THE BLOOD

The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.

Cures all Blood Humors, from a Common Pimple to the worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.

Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.

Its name is its best description as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.

It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.

It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the surgeon's knife.

It cures DROPSY, general or partial.

It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.

It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.

It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons, and establishes a sound constitution.

Many certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," in which each bottle is inclosed.

Price $1 per bottle containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses. Sold by druggist or medicine.

If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you. It will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors, BUFFALO N. Y.

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.

It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.

The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.

All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.

It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood. By this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame; every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years.

This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates of cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.

Price 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!

HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan Street, I am prepared to execute

General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds.

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

Satisfaction Guaranteed and Charges Reasonable.

A. J. WHITING.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

THE ALUMNI REUNION.

A Large Number of the Old Graduates in Attendance and a Fine Program Presented.

The regular annual reunion of the High School Alumni Society was held at the Lilley House on Friday evening, June 24th. As early as eight o'clock the graduates and their friends began to assemble at the parlors of the hotel, where an hour was very pleasantly spent in handshaking and renewing old acquaintance. At nine o'clock the company repaired to the dining-room.

The tables were speedily filled and extra tables had to be arranged to accommodate the overflow. One hundred and thirty covers were laid to provide for all the guests, which was the largest attendance at an Alumni supper in the history of the Society, at least in recent years. It was a good-natured and remarkably happy gathering and all enjoyed the evening to the utmost.

President Walter C. Burridge called the assemblage to order and the program was presented as published in the HERALD of two weeks ago. The welcome by President Burridge and the response by the President of the class, Willis E. Finch, although brief, were very nicely put and well received. The poem by Mrs. John Keusch was of more than ordinary merit and displayed true poetical talents. Prof. Kellogg's oration upon the topic, "A Higher Education," was a superior discourse and justly took first place in the estimation of the audience. The history of the class of '89 by Prof. Fred Boyd was decidedly entertaining. We take pleasure in presenting it in full below. The musical portion of the program was very tastily arranged and added very much to the interest of the exercises.

At the close of the literary feast the guests turned their attention to the [illegible] which was gotten up in Ladies' Parlors style and after the tables were cleared and disposed of there came forward, and were given entertainment by the [illegible] Mr. Norris filled the [illegible] with very large [illegible] kept the audience in good humor. [illegible] Committee deserves a vote of thanks for the manner in which the banquet was conducted.

Home was not left in a day. Five centuries were necessary for the development of that work of civilization, Rome, the consummation of that wonder of all peoples, from the establishment of that literary supremacy which has been the wonder and admiration of all succeeding ages.

I remember the night we graduated that our salutatorian informed her hearers that we were the largest, brightest and best class that had ever graduated from the Tecumseh high school. Circumstances over which we had no control compelled us to yield the first point of that proud declaration. Succeeding classes have outdone us in numbers, but who of us does not still think "brightest and best" our rightful claim?

There is a scientific principle of teaching which says "Proceed from wholes to parts." And as pointing unphilosophical or out of date would be appropriate in any connection whatever with the class of '89, we will follow this principle in what little can be said historically, at this early date, about the class.

We are thankful to-night that we are a whole. By that we mean death has not taken away any of our number. The same digits in the same order are necessary to express our numerical status as were then. The fourteen bright, energetic, fun-loving and perhaps you will say self-conceited young men and women, who three years ago the 26th of this month left behind the pleasant scenes but not the memories of their happy high school days and started either in, or in preparation for their life work. I doubt not are but little changed in many ways from what they were then—older in years, of course, and wiser in this world's affairs, to be sure.

We, as is often the case with classes when leaving school, have not been scattered to the four winds of the earth. Until within the last year if I mistake not, there has not been any very long time when a circle drawn with a twenty-five mile radius, and our high school for its center, would not have included within it all the members of our class. The past year, however, has seen some of us far beyond that circumference, but most of us are back within it again to-night.

While we have had no class reunions, we have several times felt united by circumstances which have turned our thoughts into the same channel for a time. This has been the case when marriage has changed the prospects of some of our members for better or worse—always the former, we hope.

Time has not yet proven how far our prophetess was able to look into the future. The boys who were to fit out their customers in the latest styles of hats and bonnets and the girls who were to shape sword into plowshare over the ringing anvil have not yet taken on their professed callings. Others who were to have been married ere this are profuse and untrammeled by the bonds of matrimony. Some are actively engaged in business, some are preparing themselves for the work, some are exerting that quiet and unostentatious influence which comes from a well regulated home life, and are married and others [illegible]

[illegible] particulars of [illegible] we gratulate [illegible] give a [illegible] Arabella [illegible] modest and unassuming ways of [illegible] that [illegible] whether school [illegible] or not [illegible] Fred's stubborn and [illegible] work the [illegible] that could be [illegible] or Beth going form [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] Frances [illegible] and [illegible] Louie [illegible] spelling [illegible] applies [illegible] twelve will be the worst [illegible] [illegible] a record of Edyth's [illegible] [illegible] May Morrison's [illegible] for writing [illegible] we used to read in the Free Press Companion and New York Ledger [illegible] Nellie's admirable ability for having a good time, no matter where or when.

Someone has said "History makes haste to record great deeds but often neglects good ones." Had I only recorded the great deeds performed by members of our class this history would have been much shorter than it is. Had I not neglected many good ones it would have been much longer. The class of '89 have no cause to be less proud of its record than it was three years ago. All of its members are worthy subjects of a free republic—fair examples of the influence of free schools and 19th century civilization, and a majority of them are fulfilling the chief end of man, which is to glorify God.

Lelma Stewart went West in the fall of '89 and after remaining there most of the winter went South, from which place he returned in the spring and followed the business of celery growing till some time the past winter, when I understand he again left Tecumseh. Just where he is now or what he is doing I am not able to say. From one I heard that he was in Cuba, from another that he was in the State of Washington, and I saw it stated in the paper that he had been of late seen on the streets of Chicago. Of one thing only am I sure—wherever Lelma goes he will take "Reddy" with him and the two will look out for number one.

In September of '89 May Morrison, Loana Davidson and myself went to the Normal and after two pleasant years of study and preparation for teaching secured what we consider the not frequent distinction of a second time graduating in the same class. During the past year Loana has been teaching in Traverse City and May in Bridgeport, Saginaw county. As for myself, I have spent a very pleasant and profitable year in the beautiful little mining village of Michigamme, in the Upper Peninsula, that land where report has it that they have nine months of winter and three months late in the fall. I enjoyed excellent sleighing and snowshoeing from the 9th of November to the 2nd of March; endured an average temperature of 40½ degrees below zero five days in succession, and came out unscathed and so well pleased with the place that I am going back in September. The only fault I find with the Upper Peninsula is that there are about two months in the year when the sleighing is not very good.

It is pleasant and often amusing to recall some of the queer happenings of our school days and the quaint characteristics of our schoolmates. For example, will some of us ever forget the first year Latin class in which Mattie's recension of the pronoun was: "Nominative hic—haec—hoc; genitive, hujus, hujus, hujus,"—and we believe she meant every word she said.—or Roy's love of fairy and fun stories, or May Woodard's solid common-sense and motherly advice, or the two Anna's modest and unassuming ways or [illegible] that [illegible] whether school [illegible] or not [illegible] Fred's stubborn and [illegible] work the [illegible] that could be [illegible] or Beth going form [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] Frances [illegible] and [illegible] Louie [illegible] spelling [illegible] applies [illegible] twelve will be the worst [illegible] [illegible] a record of Edyth's [illegible] [illegible] May Morrison's [illegible] for writing [illegible] we used to read in the Free Press Companion and New York Ledger [illegible] Nellie's admirable ability for having a good time, no matter where or when.

Someone has said "History makes haste to record great deeds but often neglects good ones." Had I only recorded the great deeds performed by members of our class this history would have been much shorter than it is. Had I not neglected many good ones it would have been much longer. The class of '89 have no cause to be less proud of its record than it was three years ago. All of its members are worthy subjects of a free republic—fair examples of the influence of free schools and 19th century civilization, and a majority of them are fulfilling the chief end of man, which is to glorify God.

Edyth Woodward has been part of the time at home and the rest in New York, Windsor and Detroit studying kindergarten methods and an extended course in music.

Mattie Hastings stayed quietly at home a year and a half after graduation and then went to the State Normal school where she has just finished a course with the class of '92.

Frances Harris taught school and lived at home till not many weeks ago, when she did what only two of our number have yet dared to do—got married. Her home since her marriage is in Lenawee and we are sure that if a woman with a fizzy smile, a sweet disposition and marked intelligence can make a home happy that is a fairy [illegible]

Mary Woodard was married in [illegible] and [illegible] the following winter went [illegible] and [illegible] their home [illegible] Mary is [illegible] a watchful care over her [illegible] May is [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PAY YOUR TAXES—I will be at the HERALD office each Friday during the month of July to receive village taxes. T. R. KYLE, Marshal.

MONEY TO LOAN.—On long time. Apply by letter to Lock Box 15, Tecumseh, Mich.

LOST.—On Monday, July 24, on the streets of Tecumseh a garnet breast pin. Liberal reward if returned to this office.

CHOICE FLOWER PLANTS.—I have strong, large plants of Asters, Balsams, Pansies and Daisies at fifteen cents per Dozen. MRS. ROBERT CROSBY, Brownville.

DRESSMAKING.—Mrs Waldron and daughter, Mrs. Harris, can be found at their home ready to wait upon the ladies in the line of dressmaking. Give them an opportunity to do your work. Residence two blocks north of Presbyterian Church.

HAIRDRESSING. Madame Griffis, hairdresser, of Detroit, is at Mrs. Gamble's. Manufactures and has for sale all styles of hair goods. Prices very reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. 1w

MUSTANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, Tecumseh.

SLAYTON'S ODOMETER.—A Customer living Ontonagon, Mich., writes A. W. Slayton: "Have used your Odometer a year, am well pleased and want more of them." These machines are now in use in nineteen states. They tell how many miles you or others drive your horse. Address, A. W SLAYTON, Tecumseh, Mich. Agents Wanted.

STRAYED.—From my premises in Ridgeway on Monday, June 20th, a dark brown horse, letter T branded on left shoulder, shod forward. The finder will be suitably rewarded by notifying the undersigned. WM. UNDERWOOD. Ridgeway.

TECUMSEH HERALD.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JULY 7, 1892.

Local and Miscellaneous

Baker & Hall have started their soda fountain.

Wheat harvest will begin in this section this week.

It was a glorious Fourth, last Monday, weather and all.

The HERALD Office had two Sundays in succession this week.

Roy DeWolf was at home from Detroit to spend the Fourth.

A. W. Slayton spent most of last week at Traverse City on business.

The weather is settling down very nicely this week for wheat harvest.

Prof. Bert Farrah and wife are spending their vacation at the old home in Raisin.

Eugene Clarkson, of Detroit, came home to celebrate the Fourth with his Macon friends.

Misses Maude and Lena Richardson, of Adrian, are spending a few days with Tecumseh friends.

A. E. Kennedy has got his new soda fountain in operation and it is a daisy. Step in and try a glass.

A very heavy rain fall last Saturday and Sunday. It was one of the heaviest storms of this rainy season.

Lon Haight came down from Marlette to spend the Fourth and will remain in town about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoyt and children, of Battle Creek, were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ross, last week.

A Tecumseh nine and the Adrian high school nine had a game of base ball at Sand Lake last Friday. The score stood 16 to 15 in favor of Adrian.

Will Carleton's latest poems, under a collective title of City Festivals, will be published very shortly by Harper & Brothers. The volume will be handsomely illustrated and uniform in style with Mr. Carleton's earlier works.

The HERALD office was pretty well scattered last Monday, some member of the force being at Clinton, Detroit, Toledo and Battle Creek. Clinton took the most in number and the lady typo celebrated at home in the village.

A delegation is expected to meet at Adrian July 9th, from every Maccabee tent in the county, to consider the question of formulating the Lenawee Maccabee picnic association. The proposed association is to be operated on the plan of the farmer's picnic association.

Two strangers grabbed an excursionist's watch, at Devil's lake, Tuesday. Two confederates then pretended to place him under arrest, saying that he had been gambling. The countryman was so much intimidated that he submitted to the outrage without a murmur.

The spiritualists and liberalists of Southern Michigan and Northern Ohio will hold a camp meeting at Pleasant grove, on south shore of Devil's lake, commencing July 28th and ending August 8th, '92. Noted speakers are announced. J. B. Allen, secretary, Geneva, will furnish any needed particulars.

Dolph Heesen has purchased the vacant lot between G. W. Griffith's and Wm. H. Mather's and has begun the erection of a new dwelling house thereon. It will be one of the finest houses on West Chicago street when completed. Henry Mensing has taken the contract and expects to have it ready for occupancy before snow flies.

A decision was rendered by the supreme court Friday, which, to people who ride on street cars, and to residents generally of all cities where there are street cars, will be found of considerable interest. The decision was rendered in the somewhat famous case of John Hegron against the Detroit City Railway company, the points in which are substantially that no passenger can leave a car, for over fifteen minutes, and then expect to finish his ride on the transfer ticket issued.

Where did you celebrate?

This is splendid hay weather.

Mrs. S. A. James, of Detroit, spent the 4th, at her father's in this village.

If the weather holds good, next week will see most of the wheat cut in this vicinity.

Tecumseh, with her fine streets and well kept lawns, is a picture of loveliness now.

Gus Cummins of Chicago, is at home for a few days, taking a needed respite from work.

Miss Mamie Stevens, of Detroit, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. F. Steinhoff, for a few weeks.

The average small boy has been engaged since Monday in taking an inventory of his fingers and toes.

Mrs. W. C. Fisher and her daughter Gertrude, leave home to-day for a few weeks visit at Minneapolis.

Rev. H. A. Smith, of St. Clair, will occupy the Baptist pulpit on Sunday next, both morning and evening.

C. H. Hopkins, of Battle Creek, arrived in town Tuesday, and expects to remain here three or four weeks.

Jennie Nyland left yesterday for New York City, to attend the national convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies.

Sergt Will Bidwell has been given a lift, having received the appointment of Sergeant Major of the first battallion. He will be attached to Lt. Col. Tyrrel's staff.

Wallie Gray took a spin over to Adrian on his wheel one day last week, making the distance from his house to the Court House in just sixty-seven minutes.

Misses Viva and Gertie Howell entertained the Sunday-school class of which they are members, at the home of Dr. Howell. Their guests were delightfully entertained.

Puck's double-page cartoon of June 29th shows Democracy crowning "Her Leader" at the Chicago convention. The cartoon gives an excellent likeness of Mr. Cleveland.

Heck & Son are having a fine run of custom at their mill now. During the month of June they received 1000 bush. of wheat from farmers in exchange for flour and feed.

Lavern and Edgar Ide, with families, spent Sunday and Monday at the old home in Tecumseh. They are both holding the positions they have filled for some time in Detroit and are doing well.

Mrs. W. P. Smallidge, of Detroit, came out to spend the 4th with her Tecumseh friends, and expects to remain here about two weeks. She is still making her home with her son Frank, who runs a drug store on Jefferson ave.

Ridgeway Democrats are in line. A fine hickory was raised at the residence of Supervisor Barnes on the evening of the 4th, the first in the township. Henry says that the tariff is a tax, and he believes that Cleveland will be elected on that issue.

Tecumseh people scattered on the Fourth. Many went with the Co., C. boys to Jackson, a few went to Sand Lake and other places, but a large majority heard the eagle scream at Clinton. Tecumseh's contingent at Clinton was a liberal one and they all seemed to enjoy the day too.

Tecumseh presented a lively appearance Monday morning, and one would have almost concluded that we were going to have a celebration in this town, but after the regular trains and the Special to Jackson had passed, the crowd was pretty well cleaned out. From ten o'clock until night the village was as quiet as on Sunday. Most of the stores were closed during the afternoon and some of them for all day.

Co., C. went to Jackson to celebrate and returned with a tall feather in their cap, having received the fifty dollar prize for the best military company in the prosession. The prize covered both drilling and general appearance. The boys came home feeling considerably elated over their good fortune and they richly deserved it too. Congratulations are now in order. The officers of the company have reason to feel proud of their men and the men have confidence in their officers. Three cheers and a tiger for Co., C.

The following is the rainfall for the month of June as observed by Abner Wilson:

June	1— .25	June	20—.27
	2— .36		21—.03
	3— .03		22—trace
	4— .02		23—.31
	6— .60		24—.03
	8— .40		32—.40
	17— .20		27—.25
	18—2.00		28—.05
	19—.03		29—60
Total			5.83

Saturday and Sunday, July 2 and 3—2.42.

An exciting runaway took place Tuesday afternoon in which John Linton of Ridgeway acted the leading role. He was seated in a lumber wagon opposite Spayde's store, with a lady holding an infant child by his side, when the team, a powerful span of bays, took fright, and dashed up Chicago street at a furious pace. Mr. Linton hung to the ribbons like grim death and brought the team to a stop near the Presbyterian Church. The wagon tongue was broken in two but no other damage was done, and the occupants of the wagon escaped without a scratch. It was a very lucky runaway.

Wm. McCowen, our veteran furniture dealer, has a new ad this week.

Marshal Kyle will be at this office tomorrow to receive village taxes.

O. M. McBride, of Dundee, will take Erastus Ward's place at the Lake Shore depot.

We call attention to C. A. Sharp's change of card which appears on the 4th page.

Em. Doke, wife and children, are enjoying themselves at their old home in our village.

The Tecumseh Bi club was represented by a goodly number at the Clinton celebration.

An entertainment for the benefit of the Libary is said to be the next thing on the tapis.

Vincent Wood has a new business card in to-day's paper, announcing his real estate and newspaper subscription agency.

Mrs. H. C. Lowe of Colorado Springs with her children, is spending a week or two with the families of W. H. Osborn, and J. F. Hicks.

Conrad Stegmiller, who has been an employe of Wm. Arnold for the past three years, talks of going to Jackson to learn the machinist trade.

Rev. W. F. Crispin of Akron, Ohio, is in town this week introducing his new book on Universalism. He may possibly consent to preach here some Sunday in the near future.

The Prohibs of Ridgeway will hold another rally in Exelby hall, Britton, Friday evening, July 8th. Rev. D. C. Coburn, pastor of the M. P. Church of Adrian, will address the meeting.

Geo. Dunn, of Rome township, was in town yesterday on business. He has twenty-five acres of wheat on the ground that is looking finely and if the weather continues favorable it will give him a big lift.

Dr. Ernest Gamble is now a full fledged M. D., having received his sheepskin last week at Ann Arbor. Let us shake. He has not yet decided where to locate, but he will doubtless do well wherever he goes.

The Table factory has lately turned out a fine specimen of grill work, which has been used as a railing to remodel the office enclosure in Anderson & Co's store. The office space has been much enlarged and greatly improved in appearance at the same time.

The ladies of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church, wish to extend their heart-felt thanks to all who so kindly aided and contributed to their comfort and pleasure during the Detroit Conference meeting of the W. F. M. S. MRS. P. C. SNELL, Secretary.

Work is progressing this week upon the new brick boiler house at Heesen Bros. factory. Their new boiler and engine, both of sixty five horse power capacity, have arrived and will be ready for business within a month. They are not likely to be bothered for lack of motive power for some time to come.

Erastus Ward has been promoted to the Lake Shore freight office in South Chicago. He has held his position in the Tecumseh depot for over eight years and has made a record for fidelity, which doubtless had much to do with his present promotion. Although regretting to have him leave Tecumseh, the HERALD heartily congratulates him upon his good fortune.

S. W. Anderson had some fire works of his own Monday evening, and the neighbors in his vicinity were treated to a nice display of rockets, Roman Candles etc. A fine ballon was sent up, alighted a few moments after about two blocks away. It was recovered, brought back and sent up a second time and this time it sailed entirely out of sight, going towards Clinton.

The severe storm last Saturday afternoon and evening seriously interfered with the Cleveland ratification meeting, but nevertheless a goodly number of the unterrified turned out and suitably ratified the ticket. The band furnished some fine music and L. H. Salsbury and J. L. O'Mealey gave a couple of rattling talks which put the audience in good humor. The next thing in order will be the formation of a campaign club.

During the storm last Saturday night, lighning struck the Wimple barn on Pottawatamie street. Henry Reese's work team was in the barn at the time and one horse was killed by the bolt. The other horse, which stood in an adjoining stall, was uninjured. Mr. Reese is a poor man, with a large family to support, and the loss will fall heavily upon him. A subscription paper is now being circulated to raise the necessary funds to buy another horse for him.

The leading topic of political interest in the North American Review for July is "What shall the Ratio Be?" Senator Stewart, of Nevada, Representative Springer, of Illinois, Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, Representative Bland, of Missouri, and Representative Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, unite in the expression of the opinion that a ratio of about 15 1-2 to 1 will establish the parity of gold and silver, and it seems to be clear from the statements set forth in these articles that should the coming International Monetary Conference take definite action on this basis the silver question will be solved to the financial convenience and bettered condition of the mercantile world.

—$60.00 IN CASH PRIZES.—Send ten cents for the June number of the "Literary Century" giving full particulars. Address THE LITERARY CENTURY, Ann Arbor, Mich.

—Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention. GEO. MATTESON

—I have a very complete stock of Hay Tools, Rakes, Tedders, Racks, Carriers, Forks, Rope, Pulleys, etc., and prices right. C. A. SLAYTON.

—You will make no mistake in using Heck's Peacemaker Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands. HECK & SON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call at C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—20,000 Star-A-1, shingle for sale at $3.25 per M. O. P. BILLS.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—You will need to work your corn well this year and should have the best cultivator. You can find them at C. A. SLAYTONS.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch. Give me a call. GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds. CITY BAKERY.

—When looking for a Hay Rack see the "Avery." It is complete as a Hay or stock Rack having a bridge to load stock or heavy articles. It makes a complete double wagon box with matched bottom and all changes are easily made. SLAYTON & AVERY.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains. NEW LAUNDRY.

—Tintypes taken at Teeple's Gallery.

—Call and see the New Styles in Oak Chamber Suits at Stebbins'.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices. CITY BAKERY

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice. WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Life size Crayon Portraits given away with every dozen Cabinets, AT TEEPLES' GALLERY.

— Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town. CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—$3.00 gets a life size Crayon portrait and one dozen fine enamel finish cabinet photos, at Teeple's Gallery.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial. BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—I want the farmers to remember I am still in the Mower and Binder trade and still have the agency for the "McCormick" line. The number of Machines sold is a good indication of how the farmers like them. In 1891 the McCormick Co. sold 121,780 machines. Come in and see the machines for yourself. C. A. SLAYTON.

—Prof. C. S. Morrison, of Golconda, Ill., has been chosen Musical Director in the Fayette Normal University. He received his musical education at the Boston Conservatory, is an author of some note and vice-president of State Musical Association of Illinois. He is an experienced instructor, a brilliant pianist, and teaches both band and stringed instruments. He writes that he expects to make the Musical College of the F. N. U. one of the best in the State.

Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.
Lawn Mowers. Refrigerators.

Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.
Ice Cream Freezers.

Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.
Screen Doors and Windows.

Satterthwaite Bros.

Warm Weather Has Come

I Have Added to my Stock a Large Invoice of

Ladies' Hand-Sewed Shoes,

Men's and Boys' Fine Shoes,

Ladies' Walking Shoes.

Mens' Working Shoes,

Misses' and Children's Shoes.

In Endless Variety and Suited for Warm Weather Wear.

Summer Coats and Vests And Summer Outing Shirts. A Large and very Handsome Assortment. Come to headquarters to get your Warm-Weather Clothing.

Yours for Trade,

Alva Spayde.

To Save Money, so as to go Outing later, go to Harris & Hiteshue's for Summer Dress Goods, Walking Shoes, Slippers, and Underwear of all kinds. An Elegant Stock always on hand.

HARRIS & HITESHU.

Do You Think of Painting This Season?

We Can Show You The Most Handsome And Best Paints Made.

Call and get Prices and Sample Card of Colors.

C. A. Wright.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WIGHTMAN, Attorney at Law Successor to F. B. Wood. Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD. ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Fred'k M. Wood. John E. Bird.
Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLEMENT E. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.

WEAVER & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Practice in all the courts. Masonic Temple. ADRIAN, MICH.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—Being now located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to calls in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. C. W. GOODRICH, V. S.

C. C. SHAIGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON. A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College. Residence, 1½ miles east of Pittsfington's Corners. All calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY, J. H. EMERY, Proprietor, Adrian, Michigan.
This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

RICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL. Late The Madison.
Cor. of Jefferson Avenue and Randolph Streets, Detroit, Mich.
J. D. RICE, Prop. R. C. SPRAGUE, Clerk.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Three lines of street cars pass the door.
RATES—Meals 25c. Per day, $1.25 and $1.50
Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 141 O. O. F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. E. Anderson's store, Chicago street. WM. GRAY, N. G.
E. HOLDWAY, Cor. Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV. J. DEHAAN, Pastor.
SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching in the forenoon at 10:30; Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome.
Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Young People's Meeting. Come on, come all and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—

Special attention given to ladies' and childrens' hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.

—THREE CHAIRS—

Landgraf building. Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN
HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN
PAINTING
AND PAPER HANGING
Call on THEO. P. WOOD, 77 E. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first-class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of
Railroad Street Meat Market!
Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.
GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN
Drugs, : Paints : Oils
AND VARNISHES.
N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded. At the "Old Corner Store," RIDGEWAY, JOAN. nov1

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY
MANUFACTURER OF
And Dealer in
Carriages, Buggies,
SURRIES, SPRING WAGONS,
ROADCARTS
SULKIES, CUTTERS, ETC.
Pearl Street,
TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER,

SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.

LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth. Crowns, Filling and Building-Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

B. F. STEINHOFF'S
Dental Rooms.

OVER BAKER & HALL'S.
GAS FOR EXTRACTING.
LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co.'s Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.

EXAMINATION FREE!.
Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.
Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.
Remember, office over Avery & Co.'s.
W. D. REED, D. D. S.
Will be at Onsted every Wednesday.

SYRUP of FIGS

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN, OR WOMAN,

of intelligence and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight, but who has Lost the Most Precious Possession on Earth viz. GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT require a SECOND TELLING to be induced to become a purchaser

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC
BELTS & APPLIANCES.

Do you know why? Because it is plain to be seen that the TRUTH ONCE TOLD is enough. The surprising promptness with which all classes of people respond to our announcements, and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods wherever introduced, conclusively prove that true modesty is always recognized and the quality of merit takes care of itself. Metaphorically our statement is the Button—the Public Press it, and

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES
"Do the Rest."

The extent of Pressure on the button and the success of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" is most satisfactorily shown in the marvelous growth of our business the past 60 days.

Repeated and increasing demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming in from all parts of the country with profuse acknowledgements that so much comfort for $1.00 the price is like buying Gold Dollars for ten cents.

The Delicate Organism of Woman subjects her to many peculiar ailments and unfortunate misery. The extreme sensitiveness of her Nervous System very frequently requires artificial stimulus. The Gregg Electric Belt and other Appliances supply this as nothing else can.

The Rugged Constitution of Man, when once ruined, becomes pitiable in the extreme, from which there is absolutely no escape without assistance. The Gregg Electric Belts and Appliances in cases of this kind have honestly won their title of King of Remedies.

Rheumatism is conquered, sufferers from Obesity are speedily relieved, Dropsy quickly yields, spinal difficulties and Paralysis disappear, and many other diseases of the Head and Body are permanently cured many cases in connection with medicine for it, or elaborate outfit free. We guarantee to forfeit twice the price of any of Dr. Gregg's goods found not to be genuine. We make an elegant Electric Belt, which is selling very rapidly and which we take in exchange for any higher priced one, except $5 Belt. I credit $3 on the price of new one. Read in ad. for the Electric Foot warmers. Sent pair, worth $10. Address

THE GREGG ELECTRIC CURE CO,
561 Inter-Ocean Building, Chicago, Ill.
and mention this paper. J 14-tf.

A NATURAL REMEDY FOR
Epileptic Fits, Falling Sickness, Hysterics, St. Vitus Dance, Nervousness, Hypochondria, Melancholia, Inebrity, Sleeplessness, Dizziness, Brain and Spinal Weakness.

This medicine has direct action upon the nerve centers, allaying all irritabilities, and increasing the flow and power of nerve fluid. It is perfectly harmless and leaves no unpleasant effects.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.
This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend [illegible] Ind., since 1876, and is used only in accordance with special direction by the
KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.
Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5.
[illegible] Bottles for $5.

TEMPERANCE HOSTS.

They Gather at Cincinnati to Name a Ticket.

The Prohibition Convention Nominates Gen. John Bidwell, of California, for President, and J. B. Cranfil, of Texas, for Vice President.

THE OPENING SESSION.

CINCINNATI, June 30.—The sixth national convention of the prohibition party met in Music hall in this city at 10:30 a. m. yesterday and was called to order by Chairman Dickie, of the national committee. Dr. J. G. Evans, of Hedding college, Illinois, offered prayer, after which John P. St. John was chosen temporary chairman and spoke as follows:

"MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION—I return my sincere thanks, and shall ever be grateful for the distinguished honor of being chosen to preside as temporary chairman of this magnificent political convention: the greatest and grandest in sobriety, moral force and brain power that ever convened on American soil. It represents a party that dares to do right, because it is right, and to condemn the wrong, because it is wrong. It stands for peace, prosperity and happiness to every home, and death to every saloon in the land. It demands for women equal pay in the shop, and equal say at the polls; a free ballot for the white men of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa, as well as for the black men of Mississippi, Louisiana and South Carolina, that north and south, east and west, black and white, rich and poor, every human being shall have protection to life and property; that its expenses of government levied upon the wealth instead of the necessaries of the people.

Gen. John Bidwell

"We claim that the legalized liquor traffic for beverage purposes is the greatest monopoly that ever existed. It destroys 150,000 lives and costs $1,500,000,000 annually, and sends misery, poverty, crime and heartache broadcast among the people. It is the product of democratic and republican rule, a damning blot upon our civilization, a sin against God, and ought to be made a crime against humanity and driven from the face of the earth. The prohibition party is the only party that dares to fight the mightiest curse of the world. Here we are, and we have come to stay. From this hour on let no fusion, no deals, no compromises, be our motto. Let our platform be so broad, just, clear and comprehensive that all who love God, or home, or country can join the procession which is now ready to move to victory."

The roll of states was called for members of various committees, and the convention then took a recess until 4 p. m. Upon reassembling the committee on credentials reported that 672 delegates were present, Louisiana and South Carolina being the only states not represented.

The committee on permanent organization recommended Col. Eli Ritter, of Indiana, for permanent chairman and Sam Small, of Georgia, for permanent secretary, and the report was adopted.

Close attention was paid to Col. Ritter as he reviewed the progress of the prohibition party and spoke of the subjugation of the old parties to the liquor traffic. He called attention to the fact that the republican statesmen who favor temperance reform have been driven from active participation in party affairs, and that the party has become afraid to say anything about the liquor question. "If the people could be aroused to act on their conscientious belief prohibition would be an assured fact," said he. "What we need is schools for the feeble-hearted. When the Christian people have the unity and the courage of the liquor league the work is done." Applause followed this declaration. In discussing the weakness of the churches on the liquor question, the speaker happened to say that he was a Methodist. Shouts of "Good" and "Amen" came from the delegates. Then he spoke of the Methodist conference and its stand on the liquor question, saying that the platform of the prohibition party was good enough to be a part of any church creed. His declaration that there could be no peace until the liquor men had been driven from their fortifications led to loud applause, and when he denounced sectionalism and said he was ready to shake hands with the men of the south the cheering and hat-waving continued for several minutes. Three hearty cheers were given when he had concluded his eloquent speech.

The following national executive committee was selected: Chairman, Samuel Dickey; vice chairman, John P. St. John, of Kansas; secretary, W. C. Wardwell, of New York; treasurer, Samuel W. Hastings, of Wisconsin; additional members, Helen Gougar, Indiana; J. H. Tate, Tennessee; A. A. Stevens, Pennsylvania. Notwithstanding gossip that headquarters would be changed to Chicago the committee again chose New York for another four years.

SECOND AND LAST DAY.

CINCINNATI, July 1.—The second and last day's session of the prohibition national convention was called to order at 9:30 a. m. yesterday, and after addresses by Miss Frances Willard and Mrs. Helen Gougar a subscription of $30,000 was taken up. Adjourned to 2 p. m. When the convention reassembled the committee on resolutions presented majority and minority reports, the minority report being on the financial, tariff and silver planks. After a heated discussion the following platform was adopted.

The platform, as it was finally adopted, is as follows:

The prohibition party in national convention assembled, acknowledging Almighty God as the source of all true government and His law as the standard to which all human enactments must conform to secure the blessings of peace and prosperity, presents the following declaration of principles:

1. The liquor traffic is a foe to civilization, the arch enemy of popular government and a public nuisance. It is the citadel of the forces that corrupt politics, promote poverty and crime, degrade the nation's home life, thwart the will of the people, and deliver our country into the hands of rapacious class interests. All laws that under the guise of regulation legalize and protect this traffic or make the government share in its ill-gotten gains are "vicious in principle and powerless as a remedy."

We declare anew for the entire suppression of the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation and transportation of alcoholic liquors as a beverage by federal and state legislation, and the full powers of the government should be exerted to secure this result. Any party that fails to recognize the dominant nature of this issue in American politics is undeserving of the support of the people.

2. No citizen should be denied the right to vote on account of sex, and equal labor should receive equal wages without regard to sex.

3. The money of the country should be issued by the general government only and in sufficient quantities to meet the demands of the business and give full opportunity for the employment of labor. To this end an increase in the volume of money is demanded, and no individual or corporation should be allowed to make any profit through its issue. It should be made a legal tender for the payment of all debts, public and private. Its volume should be fixed at a definite sum per capita and made to increase with our increase in population.

4. Tariff should be levied only as a defense against foreign countries which levy tariff upon or bar out our products from their markets, revenue being incidental. The residue of means necessary to an economical administration of the government should be raised by levying a burden on what the people possess instead of upon what we consume.

5. Railroad, telegraph and other public corporations should be controlled by the government in the interest of the people and no higher charges allowed than necessary to fair interest on the capital actually invested.

6. Foreign immigration has become a burden upon industry, one of the factors in depressing wages and causing discontent, therefore our immigration laws should be revised and strictly enforced. The time of residence for naturalization should be extended and no naturalized person should be allowed to vote until one year after he becomes a citizen.

7. Non-residents should not be allowed to acquire land in this country, and we favor the limitation of individual and corporate ownership of land. All unearned grants of lands to railroad corporations should be reclaimed.

8. Years of inaction and treachery on the part of the republican and democratic parties have resulted in the present reign of mob law, and we demand that every citizen be protected in the right of trial by constitutional tribunals.

9. All men should be protected by law in their right to one day's rest in seven.

10. Arbitration is the wisest and most economical and humane method of settling national differences.

11. Speculations in margins, the cornering of grain, money and products, and the formation of pools, trusts and combinations for the arbitrary advancement of prices should be suppressed.

12. We pledge that the prohibition party if elected to power will ever grant just pensions to disabled veterans of the union army and navy, their widows and orphans.

13. We stand unequivocally for the American public school and opposed to any appropriation of public moneys for sectarian schools. We declare that only by united support of such common schools, taught in the English language, can we hope to become and remain an homogeneous and harmonious people.

14. We arraign the republican and democratic parties as false to the standards reared by their founders; as faithless to the principles of the illustrious leaders of the past to whom they do homage with the lips; as recreant to the "higher law," which is as inflexible in political affairs as in personal life; and as no longer embodying the aspirations of the American people or inviting the confidence of enlightened, progressive patriotism. Their protest against the admission of "moral issues" into politics is a confession of their own moral degeneracy. The declaration of an eminent authority that municipal misrule is "the one conspicuous failure of American politics" follows as a natural consequence of such degeneracy, and is true alike of cities under republican and democratic control. Each accuses the other of extravagance in congressional appropriations, and both are alike guilty. Each protests when out of power against the infraction of the civil-service laws, and each in power violates those laws in letter and spirit. Each professes fealty to the interests of the toiling masses, but both covertly truckle to the money power in their administration of public affairs. Even the tariff issue as represented in the democratic Mills and the republican McKinley bill is no longer treated by them as an issue upon great and divergent principles of government, but is a mere catering to different sectional and class interests. The attempt in many states to wrest the Australian ballot system from its true purpose and to so deform it as to render it extremely difficult for new parties to exercise the rights of suffrage is an outrage upon popular government. The competition of both the parties for the vote of the slums and their assiduous courting of the liquor power and subserviency to the money power has resulted in placing those powers in the position of practical arbiters of the destinies of the nation. We renew our protest against these perilous tendencies and invite all citizens to join us in the upbuilding of a party that has shown in five national campaigns that it prefers temporary defeat to an abandonment of the claims of justice, sobriety, personal rights and the protection of American homes.

The following was offered by the minority as an additional plank to the platform and was adopted:

"Recognizing and declaring that prohibition of the liquor traffic has become the dominant issue in national politics, we invite to full party fellowship all those who on this one dominant issue are with us agreed, in the full belief that this party can and will remove sectional differences, promote national unity, and insure the best welfare of our entire land."

A resolution was adopted favoring a liberal appropriation by the government for the World's Columbian exposition, but only on the condition that the sale of intoxicating drinks upon the exposition grounds is prohibited and that the exposition be closed on Sunday.

A recess was taken until 8 p. m. On reassembling Chairman Ritter announced the order of business to be the nomination of candidates for president and vice president. The roll of states was then called, and the chairman announced the candidates to be John Bidwell, of California; W. Jennings Demorest, of New York, and Gideon Stewart, of Ohio.

The ballot resulted: Bidwell, 590; Stewart, 17; Demorest, 139. New York gave three votes to Bascom, Georgia, which was the only state voting solidly against Bidwell, moved that the nomination be made unanimous, and it was done.

For the vice presidential nomination the following names were presented: Sam W. Small, of Georgia; George W. Bain, of Kentucky; Joshua Levering, of Maryland; W. W. Saterlee, of Minnesota; J. B. Cranfil, of Texas, and Thomas B. Carskadden, of West Virginia. The names of Bain and Small were withdrawn, and the convention proceeded to ballot.

The call of states was ordered at 1:30 a. m., and on the first ballot there was no choice for vice president, the vote being: Cranfil, 409; Levering, 357; Carskadden, 21; Saterlee, 26.

Before the result of this ballot was announced, however, enough changes were had to make the vote stand: Cranfil, 416; Levering, 61; Saterlee, 26; Carskadden, 21, and Cranfil was declared the nominee.

Resolutions of thanks to everybody were voted, and the convention adjourned sine die.

An Eye to the Future.

"I don't see how you can be pleased at the idea of your brother marrying her. She's so fast and harum-scarum. She'll never make a good wife."

"Oh, but she'll make such a delightful chaperon!"—Life.

Where There's a Will There's a Way.

—Life.

Hatching a Plot.

Little Sister—Thay, Tommy, you go and dit tarvin' knife and let's see what kind of sawdust Uncle Jack is stuffed wiv.—Talisman.

A Rise and Fall in Dry Goods.

"Aw, deuced clevah in the fellah to place a board across this guttah."

"Hi! hi! Don't you see what you are doing?"

"Oh, I beg your pardon. I'll get off until you get—— —OVER."

—Life.

An Illustrated Phrase.

"A POINT TO BE REMEMBERED."
—Life.

In Clover.

She—So you are engaged to one of the Musgrave twins? How can you distinguish one from the other?
He—I don't try to.—Life.

FROM HON. M. J. SMITH, GRADUATE OF MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY.

CARLETON, Mich., Aug. 25, 1890.

To whom it may concern: "After an acquaintance with Dr. O. J. Fay extending over a period of eighteen years, I can cheerfully testify to his sincerity of purpose, integrity and high social and professional standing in this, the county of his residence. Having used the New Treatment for Consumption in my family for coughs and colds, I find that it possesses more real merit than any other medicines we have used for these complaints, and heartily recommend its use as a family medicine.

J. SMITH,
Attorney at Law.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Dissatisfied Passenger (on the "L") Say, where's the smoking car? Pale Conductor: Front end of the train, sir, but it doesn't smoke. It uses asthesia. Twenty-ninth street!

A LEADER.

Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of stomach, liver or kidneys. It will cure sick headache, indigestion, constipation, and drive malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c. per bottle. Sold by J. J. Orr.

He: What, besides the date, do they usually put in engagement rings? She (pointedly): Fingers.

The greatest worm destroyer on earth is Dullam's Great German Worm Lozenger, only 25 cents per box. For sale by John J. Orr.

Go Away
You can't fool me, I want that JOLLY TAR PLUG TOBACCO.
It's the best chewing tobacco for the money and I don't want anything else. I've tried it and know all about it.
JOLLY TAR is made by The FINZER BRO'S. Louisville.

15 CENTS PER BOX, GUARANTEED.

HYA HEADACHE POWDERS

FOR SALE BY JOHN J. ORR.

FARMERS AND THRESHERMEN
Catalogue
All the Latest Improvements: Cushioned Cast Steel Tire, Return Flue-Boiler, ⅓ Fuel Saved, Traction, Plain or on Skids.

BUY THE NEW HUBER ENGINES,
ALL SIZES THRESHERS.

VICTOR HULLERS.
New Imperial Stackers.
G. C. POCKLINGTON,
Agent for southeastern Michigan.
State headquarters, R. Shettler, Lansing, Mich.

GILLETT'S MAGIC YEAST

Quickest and Best.

NONE BUT MAGIC WILL MAKE BREAD THAT PREVENTS DYSPEPSIA.

NO OTHER EQUALS OR APPROACHES IT IN LEAVENING STRENGTH, PURITY, AND WHOLESOMENESS.

STRENGTH AND VIGOR FOR YOUTH AND OLD AGE

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S

STRENGTHENING CORDIAL

AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

An antidote for Loss of Appetite, Loss of Spirits and Weakness; pleasant to the taste and a favorite tonic with the ladies. Price $1 per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

PREPARED BY

The Dr. J. H. McLean Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo

THE "CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN"

Has attained a standard of excellence which admits of no superior.

It contains every improvement that inventive genius, skill and money can produce.

ORGANS OF INTRINSIC VALUE AND UNRIVALLED WORTH.

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

These excellent Organs are celebrated for their volume, quality of tone, quick response, variety of combination, artistic design, beauty in finish, perfect construction, making them the most attractive, ornamental and desirable organs in the world for Homes, Schools, Churches, Lodges and Societies.

Catalogues on application, FREE.

Chicago Cottage Organ Co.

223 WABASH AVE.,

CHICAGO, ILL.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS ... IS A ... HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS ONE OF OUR NEW

SEAMSTRESS

SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS

National Sewing Machine Co.

SUCCESSORS TO

JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.

BELVIDERE, ILL.

Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

THOS. S. SPRAGUE & SON Attorneys and Solicitors of Patents, United States and foreign. Correspondence solicited. Invention Pamphlets free. 37 WEST CONGRESS ST., DE-TROIT, Mich. Established 1856 PATENTS

LIGHTNING'S FURY.

The Terrible Work of a Thunderbolt in Chicago.

The Grant Monument in Lincoln Park Struck—Many Persons Seeking Refuge from the Storm Injured and Three Are Killed.

A FATAL FLASH.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Lightning displayed its terrific, unexplainable power in a shocking manner Thursday night. During the thunderstorm which passed over the city shortly after 6 o'clock a bolt struck the bronze horse of the Grant monument in Lincoln park. At the time no less than forty people were crowded in the open corridor just beneath the pedestal on which the bronze work rests. There was a blinding flash, a loud report, and all who were under the shelter were thrown off their feet. Three people, two men and a woman, were instantly killed. All received a terrible shock, but only four were so badly injured that they required immediate attention.

The following is a list of the killed:

Lewis Meyer, 22 years old, single, lived at No. 33 Nutt street; body removed to the county morgue. Mrs. Schiele, 70 years old, lived with her son-in-law, William Hummel, agent for the Wacker-Birk Brewing Company, No. 27 Austin avenue; body removed to the county morgue. Carl Horst, about 19 years old, lived at No. 180 East Ontario street.

Seven persons were badly hurt and a score or more slightly shocked.

The great monument escaped with almost no injury at all, notwithstanding the loss of life that took place directly under it. The bolt made a slight depression in the left leg of the horse, near the hoof, and it chipped a piece of granite the size of a man's hand from the coping. Its course across the arch could be detected by a faint line, and in one place it cut about a pound of mortar out from two of the granite slabs. Five dollars will repair all the damage that the big monument suffered.

Lightning has seldom wrought worse havoc at a single stroke. When the storm came up hundreds of people were seeking shelter from the burning rays of the sun under the trees and about the artificial lake at the south end of the park. Suddenly and almost without warning dense masses of clouds rolled up from the west. Faint flashes of lightning played over the rising clouds, and with the cool west wind a light shower began to fall. The people who were scattered about the south end of the park ran for shelter, and about forty collected in the massive granite corridor beneath the Grant monument. Then the rain, until this time only a slight shower, began to fall in torrents. Flashes of lightning came in quick succession, but the thunder rolled low and distant and none of the group under the monument seemed frightened. Suddenly at 6:25 o'clock there came a blinding flash from the east. The yellow-forked bolt struck the left hind leg of the bronze horse upon which the statue of Gen. Grant rests, then bounded to the northwest corner of the granite coping and glanced into the corridor. Following the seam between two granite blocks it traveled along the top of the third archway, from east to west, and then glanced to the ground, passing along the floor and down the east side of the base. To people who were huddled together in the path of the bolt there was a vivid flash but no report. The next instant thirty-eight or thirty-nine people were lying prone upon the stone floor, some dead, some seriously injured, and all terribly shocked. For the moment none realized what had occurred or where they were. Then the ones least injured aroused sufficiently to look about themselves. They saw the result of the bolt and those who were able hastened to the assistance of the less fortunate. It was a trying moment. Women were screaming, children were crying and some were frightened into a speechless, meaningless silence.

TRAIN WRECKED.

Engineer Robinson, of Burlington, and Two Italians Killed.

BURLINGTON, Ia., June 20.—The construction train on the Keithsburg branch of the Burlington which left Gladstone at 7 o'clock Saturday morning collided with a drove of cattle at a field crossing 3 miles out of that town and was derailed. Engineer Robinson was scalded to death. Two others who were killed were members of the train crew, consisting of thirty-two Italians. Seven others were more or less seriously injured, some escaping with broken legs, arms and other injuries. A few were fortunate in escaping without bruises.

Killed by a Cow.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., June 20.—Mrs. Margaret Ringer died at her home near St. Joseph, from internal injuries received several days ago. She attempted to "stake out" a cow to pasture when the animal became frightened and began to run. The rope attached to the cow tangled itself around the ankle of Mrs. Ringer. She was thrown to the ground and dragged about 100 yards before the animal stopped.

Miss Lent Gets a Verdict of $14,000.

BLUE EARTH CITY, Minn., June 18.—In the Faribault county district court the jury rendered a verdict of $14,000 in favor of Miss Lent, the schoolteacher who was so brutally maltreated and maimed for life by the parents of one of her pupils named Crasen. There was intense excitement during the trial here.

The Alaska Won.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The race between the White Star steamer Alaska and the Cunarder Aurania across the ocean was won by the arrival of the former off Sandy Hook in 7 days 5 hours and 43 minutes, twenty minutes ahead of her rival.

A Town Under Water.

BAYOU SARA, La., June 20.—The Bayou levee here gave way yesterday and the whole town is under from 4 to 11 feet of water. No lives were lost, but the property loss will be heavy.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Michigan Crop Outlook.

The Michigan crop report for June shows the condition of wheat as compared with average years as 92 per cent., which is better, with one exception, than in any year since 1885. The acreage of corn planted is not up to the average, owing to the large rainfall, it being 82 per cent. in the state. The acreage of oats and barley is 12 per cent. below the average, and the average condition of the state is 86 per cent. The outlook for a full crop of apples and peaches is better than the six years past, the figures for the former being 102 and the latter 95 per cent. of an average crop.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by forty-eight observers in different parts of the state for the week ended June 11 indicated that measles, cholera infantum, typho-malarial fever and dysentery increased, and scarlet fever, whooping cough and diphtheria decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at twenty-six places, scarlet fever at forty-four, typhoid fever at thirteen and measles at twenty-five places.

Christian Missionary Society.

At the annual session of the Michigan Christian Missionary association in Decatur a resolution favoring legal prohibition of the liquor traffic was adopted. The following officers were elected:

President, J. H. Reese, Bangor; vice president, W. O. Rawland, Decatur; secretary, L. W. Spayde, Bangor; treasurer, A. B. Chase, Hartford. Executive board—Miss Alta Miller, Hill's Corners; J. P. Warner, Paw Paw; Miss Hattie Cooley, Bloomingdale; C. M. Keene, Kalamazoo.

The Soldiers' Home.

The soldiers' home board at Grand Rapids is having a hot time with matters of discipline caused by the recent pension rule. They are determined to find out all men who are making improper use of their pensions, and held a lengthy secret session, questioning witnesses. The matter was finally laid over for a month, and in the meantime the investigation will proceed quietly.

Apportionment Act Annulled.

The board of supervisors of Houghton county in session at Houghton passed resolutions annulling the apportionment act of the last legislature, which gave a part of Houghton county one democratic member of the legislature. The redistributing will give the republicans two members from that county. An attorney was employed to take this case to the supreme court.

A Victim to Apoplexy.

Henry S. Sleeper, secretary of the state senate in 1871, and for twelve years deputy commissioner of the state land office, died at his home in Lansing of apoplexy, aged 51 years. Mr. Sleeper, who was one of the best known men in Michigan, was for many years a resident of Kalamazoo and for three years clerk of that county.

Lumber Mill in Ashes.

The East Tawas Improvement Company's mill, better known as Bearinger's, caught fire from some unexplained cause and burned to the ground. A raft of 9,000,000 was daily expected and the mill would then run night and day, employing 150 men. The mill was valued at $25,000; insured for $17,500.

Short But Newsy Items.

West Bay City will pay her teachers $28,000 the coming year.

Rev. R. C. Crawford and wife celebrated their golden wedding at Grand Rapids.

A hive of the Lady Maccabees was organized at Tuscola by Miss Bina M. West, state organizer.

Hon. John Devine, a republican member of the state legislature in 1855 and of the constitutional convention of 1867, died at Lexington, aged 70 years.

A post office has been established at Locust, Hillsdale county, with Parmenus Cunningham as postmaster.

The private banking house of Hannah, Lay & Co., of Traverse City, have organized under the state law, with a capital of $100,000.

Powers' opera house at Grand Rapids, the leading theater in western Michigan, was gutted by fire, causing a loss of $60,000.

A riot among the striking miners at Marquette resulted in the killing of Charles Daniels and Chris Dungalson.

The Ropes gold mine near Ishpeming is going to see better days soon. They are striking into a level that has assayed as high as $46 a ton.

Hartford has organized a bicycle club and will join the League of American Wheelmen.

N. J. Streeter has been appointed postmaster at Delta, Eaton county, vice C. H. Manzee, resigned.

The farmhouse of William Savage, about 2 miles east of Belleville, was destroyed by fire. Loss, about $1,500.

Chandler Dunning, of Unadilla, dropped dead at Howell. He was a bachelor aged 70 and worth $100,000.

A rolling log struck Charles Conway in the back at a lumber camp near Lake City and he was instantly killed.

Cutworms have done severe damage to Michigan crops. Wheat, corn, oats and barley are in good condition from favorable weather.

Nearly every county in lower Michigan has many sufferers from the collapse of the Michigan Mutual Benefit association of Hillsdale, and almost without exception they are poor people.

The Christian church society at Decatur has hung a new bell in the church which can be heard twelve miles away.

The old Ely homestead at Marquette was destroyed by fire. Loss $3,000, insurance $1,000. It was one of the oldest buildings in the city and cost when built $8,000.

Mrs. George Beaudry, of South Bay City, jumped into the river with her two youngest children and all were drowned. The coroner was notified and the bodies were recovered. Mr. Beaudry, who is left with three children, says he cannot account for the awful action of his wife.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Work of the Lawmakers at the National Capital.

A Daily Summary of the Proceedings in the Senate and House — Bills Passed and New Measures Introduced.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—In the senate yesterday the agricultural appropriation bill was passed and a long discussion on the tariff bill took place.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The legislative, diplomatic, pension and post office appropriation bills were passed in the senate yesterday, as was also a bill for the relief of settlers upon certain lands in the states of South and North Dakota.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—A joint resolution to continue the appropriations for the expenses of the government for fifteen days of the new fiscal year was passed in the senate yesterday. A favorable report was made on the bill appropriating $5,000,000 to aid the World's Columbian exposition, providing it is closed on Sunday. Conference reports on the naval, the district and the agricultural appropriation bills were agreed to.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The Stewart bill for the free coinage of silver passed the senate yesterday by a vote of 29 to 26. The majority consisted of seventeen democrats and twelve republicans; the minority of eighteen republicans and seven democrats. A bill was also passed increasing the pension of Andrew Franklin to $30 per month. Franklin is over 100 years old, and served in Capt. Armstrong's company in the First and Second Ohio militia in the war of 1812. Adjourned to the 5th.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—A resolution was adopted in the house yesterday extending the existing appropriations until July 15. Bills were passed to give pensions to the women who served as nurses in the field and general hospitals during the war and to give a pension of $50 per month to soldiers totally incapacitated for performing manual labor by reason of injuries received in the war. A free coinage bill, identical with the silver coinage bill pending in the senate, was introduced.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The conference reports on the Indian and agricultural appropriation bills were rejected in the house yesterday and a new conference was ordered.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—In the house yesterday a bill to equalize the pay of letter carriers was favorably reported, and a joint resolution to continue the appropriations for the expenses of the government for fifteen days of the new fiscal year was passed.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—A bill was introduced in the house yesterday to pay a pension at the rate of one cent a month to ninety-day soldiers in the late war. The report of the conference committee on the agricultural appropriation bill was adopted. The bill to enforce the provisions of the eight-hour law was passed.

IDLE TOILERS.

About 250 Iron and Steel Mills in Pennsylvania Have Shut Down.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 2.—When the clocks tolled twelve strokes at midnight nearly 150,000 workmen, who had toiled almost incessantly during the past twelve months, were out of employment. The scales in force during the past year expired at midnight, and in all mills the proprietors who have not signed the scale for the ensuing year's work ceased entirely at that time. The number of iron and steel mills that closed down is estimated at upward of 400. There are upward of 460 rolling mills in the United States, 425 of which have trains of rolls connected with their establishments. Twenty-five or fifty of these have been idle for some time past. Of the 400 in operation until Thursday night nearly 800 are situated west of the Alleghany mountains. Quite a number of these have signed the scale, leaving about 250 mills, which are at present lying idle. These employ upward of 100,000 men. The number of glass factories which are not in operation is placed at 200 and the men are estimated at nearly 50,000.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEES.

Candidates Who Will Strive to Secure Seats in the Lower House.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 1.—The republicans of the Seventh district have renominated Hon. J. A. T. Hull for congress by acclamation.

BOONE, Ia., July 1.—In the republican congressional convention for the Tenth congressional district yesterday J. P. Dolliver was nominated for his third term in congress by acclamation.

MARION, Ind., July 1.—Congressman Martin was renominated by acclamation here yesterday by the democrats of the Eleventh district.

WARREN, O., July 2.—Stephen A. Northway of Ashtabula county has been nominated for congress by the republicans of the Nineteenth district. His nomination is equivalent to an election, as the republicans have a majority of 10,000 in the district. Northway succeeds Judge Taylor, who was elected as Gen. Garfield's successor twelve years ago.

Separated Fourteen Years.

ST. LOUIS, July 2.—Charles Roberts, of Chicago, and T. W. Roberts, of St. Louis, left here yesterday morning for Cincinnati together to claim an estate left them by their father. They are brothers, and met two days ago for the first time, after a separation of fourteen years. Each believed the other to be dead.

Trying to Beat the Miner Law.

LANSING, Mich., July 1.—On application of Henry M. Duffield, attorney for the regulators, the chief justice of the supreme court has granted a writ of error to the supreme court of the United States in the case of the miner election law, which was recently declared constitutional by the state court.

MONROE, Mich., July 18, 1891.

Dr. O. J. Fay & Co.:

Gentlemen,—It is with pleasure that we reply to your letter asking about our success with Dr. Fay's New Treatment for Consumption. Six months ago we gave our first order and since then we have sold eight times as much as our first order amounted to more than any other lung medicine we sell. Our customers after once using it want no other and they are always sure to recommend it to some other sufferer. It could not give better satisfaction and we have so much faith in what it will do that we are not afraid to recommend it to any person in need of a lung medicine. With many wishes for your success,

Yours truly,

W. UAGEN & SON.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Rising Author: Is my manuscript hard to edit? Editor: No, it requires only a second's work to every other page. Rising Author: Erasing a word on it? Editor: No, putting it in quotation marks.

MARRIED.

Miss Hannah Roe and Samuel Doe were married in a neighboring village last week. Among the wedding presents was a bottle of Parmelees Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure from a thoughtful friend who had given it a thorough trial and knew its great worth for the cure of dyspeptic attacks, and who knew how necessary it was for domestic happiness that such complaints should be prevented. You can buy a bottle of this valuable and effective remedy of your druggist.

PARMELEES' CONDITION POWDERS will do your stock good. Full pound 25 cents. Sold by dealers.

IS YOUR APPETITE GOOD?

Or are you weak and debilitated? Try Parmelee's Mandrake and Dandelion Bitters. Only 25 cents a boottle.

THE SUN IN JULY is very trying to the complexion of many ladies. Freckles, tan and sunburn are removed and complexion freshened by the use of Hilton's Oriental Balm. Absolutely harmless to the skin. 50 cents.

AT THIS SEASON OF THE YEAR Look out for Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and all forms of bowel difficulty. You should have a sure remedy in the house ready for instant use. Parmelee's Essence of Jamaica Ginger will give immediate relief. Perfectly safe for children. Contains no laudanum or paregoric. Sold by dealers.

THE EXTREME HEAT OF SUMMER Frequently brings to the surface evidence of impure blood unsuspected before. Parmelee's Sarsaparilla is the Great Blood Purifier and builds up weakened constitutions. It is only 50 cents for a large bottle and is well worth your trial.

IF YOU SUFFER FROM PILES It is your own fault. Parmelee's Pile Suppositories will positively cure if used according to directions. Your druggist is authorized to guarantee them. Physicians use them largely in their practice. Hundreds of testimonials. Only 50 cents a box. Sold by dealers or by mail postpaid. Parmelee Medical Co., Dansville, N. Y.

From the spinning-wheel to the bicycle is a long stride for women's independence.

A misstep will often make a cripple for life. A bottle of Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment at hand, will not prevent the misstep but used immediately it will save being a cripple.

AT BEDTIME I TAKE A PLEASANT HERB DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head

ACHE

Is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE

A MYSTERY EXPLAINED.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical and nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced; usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book, containing many marvellous cures, free at Baker & Hall's, who also sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the finest of heart tonics. Cures fluttering, short breath, etc.

Uncle Wayback: Now wot's the use o' sendin' gals all these new-fangled studies? Wat good is this 'ere astronomy your're studyn'? City Niece: Why, uncle, it's a delightful subject to talk about on moonlight evenings. We point out Venus and then the young man says something pretty, and then—see that ring?

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L, S, & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15, 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 115. Mail.	No. 117. Express.	No. 149 Acc'om.
Jackson.....Lv.	6 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M
Napoleon.....	6 30 "	2 26 "	1 15 "
Norvell.....	6 37 "	2 34 "	1 27 "
Manchester.....	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 55 "
Clinton.....	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 35 "
Tecumseh.....	7 15 "	3 15 "	3 15 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 52 "	4 30 "
Detroit.....	10 10 "	6 20 "	.....
Toledo.....	9 15 "	4 40 "	10 25 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 3:00 p. m

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 114. Mail.	No. 118. Express.	No. 148. Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 25 A.M.	6 00 P.M.	.....
Toledo.....	9 59 "	7 50 "	.....
Adrian.....	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M
Tecumseh.....	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton.....	11 21 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester.....	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell.....	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon.....	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 00 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 28 "	10 30 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.

A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati Jackson & Mackinaw Ry

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT MAY. 30, 1892.

EAST.			Central Time.	WEST.
No. 29 Pas	No. 23 Pass	No. 21 Pass	STATIONS.	No. 22 Pass	No. 24 Pass
		A. M.			P. M.
		10 50	..L....Allegan.....A		1 00
		11 15	Monteith.....		12 35
	A. M.	11 55	Yorkville.....		11 55 A. M.
	5 45	12 28	Battle Creek.....		11 28 1 25
	6 27	12 54	Marshall.....		10 59 12 33
	7 03	1 22	Homer.....		10 32 11 48
A. M.	7 45	1 58	Hanover.....		10 02 11 08
4 50	8 40	2 37	Addison.....		9 30 10 15
5 09	8 51	2 34	Devils Lake.....		9 24 9 54
	9 17	3 05	Tipton.....		8 58 9 14
5 38	9 50	3 14	Tecumseh.....		8 41 8 58
	8 35	3 27	Ridgeway.....		8 35 8 40
5 51	10 07	3 28	Britton.....		7 20 6 30
6 12	10 35	3 50	Dundee.....		8 10 8 00
7 00	12 10	4 45	A.....Toledo.....L		8 31 8 51
P.M.		P. M.			A. M. P. M.

Train No. 29 Sunday only. Train No. 22 Daily Trains Nos. 32, 21 and 24 except Sunday. Close connections are made at Allegan with the C. & W. M.; Monteith, G. R. R. & I.; Battle Creek, C. & G. T.; Marshall M. C. R. R.; Britton with the Wabash for Detroit, and at Toledo with all roads diverging.

T. C. M. SCHINDLE, RGen'l Pass. Agt.
T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO

TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as Follows:

WEST BOUND.

†No. 51 —Local Mail and Express.....10:25 a m
*No. 53 —Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex. 3:30 p m
*No. 27 —Butler Accommodation..... 6:00 p m
*No. 55 —Pacific Express.....11:40 p m

EAST BOUND.

*No. 56 —Atlantic Express..... 5:50 a m
†No. 26 —Detroit Accommodation..... 4:45 p m
*No. 52 —St. Louis & Boston Express..... 7:45 a m
*No. 54 —N. Y. Limited..... 9:46 p m

*Daily, †Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information, apply to

CHAS. N. HAYS, Gen. Manager.
WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian
F. CHANDLER, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt Agent.

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890

Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North.

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
3 25 A. M.	06	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	P. M. 11 15	P. M. 1 10
	47	.....Dundee.....	10 18	12 20
	08	.....Milan.....	9 18	12 04
	20	.....Urania.....	9 45	11 42
	47	.....Pittsfield.....	9 34	11 42
5 07	6 40	.....Ann Arbor.....	9 22	11 30
5 30	7 55	.....Leland.....	9 07	11 15
5 47	7 06	.....Whitmore Lake.....	8 55	10 02
6 28	8 [illegible]	.....Howell.....	8 17	10 [illegible]
7 15	8 [illegible]	.....Durand.....	7 10	9 [illegible]
		.....	55	7 45
8 00	10 20	.....Owosso.....	6 35	9 05
9 07	11 30	.....Ithaca.....	5 32	7 50
10 15	1 25	.....Mt. Pleasant.....	4 35	6 45
.....	3 35	.....Cadillac.....	10 30	.....
.....	5 20	.....Copemish.....	9 05	.....
.....	6 35	At.....Frankfort.....Lv	7 50	.....
	P. M.		A. M.	A. M

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager,
A. J. PAISLEY,
General Pass. and Ticket Agent.

Clinton Column.

CLINTON, MICH., JULY 7, 1892.

Dell Ordiway is here from Jackson.

Howard Dean, of Detroit, is at E. R. Smith's.

Miss Anna Cutting of Tecumseh spent a few days here this week.

John Hulett and family of Toledo were here over the Fourth.

Rose Schlessinger spent Sunday and Monday at her home in Jackson.

Station Agent G. R. Wolf and family will occupy D. E. Palmer's house.

Carl Burton came home last Monday for a month's visit among old friends.

Mrs. D. E. Palmer and children left Tuesday for Chicago, their future home.

Mrs. Daniel O'Reilly and children, of Lansing, are here for a few week visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scoville, of South Bend, were home for a short visit this week.

Clinton considers herself especially favored in having no accidents on the Fourth.

Mrs. A. W. Stalker's mother and sister of Ann Arbor are making a short visit here.

Mrs. M. J. Mickley and daughter of Adrian visited Mrs. E. VanDeMark the first of this week.

Will and Jas. Eagan, of Ann Arbor, are spending a part of their vacation with friends here.

Miss Frances Matthews returned last week from Menominee, where she has been teaching this year.

Miss Cora Ames and a friend from Ypsilanti, visited Mrs. H. D. Niblack from Saturday until Tuesday.

Mrs. Hattie Estep who has been spending several months in Clinton, left Tuesday for her home in Cleveland.

Bert Roff made his mother a flying visit Monday, coming down on the morning train and leaving at noon for Chicago.

Miner Strang and wife, of Flat Rock, and Miss Nora Strang of Wheatland, were at Mrs. Sutfin's over Sunday and Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Tuttle entertained Frank Butterfield and Miss Georgie Butterfield of Whitmore Lake, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Miller and son, and Mrs. Angie Cox, of Albion, were guests at F. D. Lancaster's and C. S. Burroughs' from Saturday until Tuesday.

Hattie Hunter, of Detroit, came last Friday for a week's visit with Mrs. L. W. Kimball. Miss Hunter and Miss Parker who have been here several weeks, will return to Detroit the last of this week.

A Pure Baking Powder.

A baking powder that can be depended upon to be free from alum and from is a disideratum in these days of adulterated food. So far as can be judged from the official reports the "Royal" seems to be the only one yet found by chemical analyses to be entirely without one or the other of these substances, and absolutely pure. This, it is shown, results from the exclusive use by its manufacturers of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent processes which totally remove the tartrate of lime and other impurities. The cost of this especially pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and it is used in no baking powder except the "Royal," the manufactures of which control the patents under which it is refined.

Dr. Edward G. Love, formerly analytical chemist for the U. S. Government, who made the analyses for the New York State Board of Health in their investigation of baking powders, and whose intimate knowledge of the ingredients of all those sold in this market enables him to speak authoritatively, says of the purity, wholesomeness, and superior quality of the "Royal:"

"I find the Royal Baking Powder composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, other injurious substance."

Prof. Love's tests, and the recent official tests by both the U. S. and Canadian Governments, show the Royal Baking Powder to be superior to all others in strength and leavening power. It is not only the most economical in use, but makes the purest, finest flavored and most wholesome food.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

WOMAN'S HEALTH AND LIFE depend more regularity than on any or all causes combined. An actual or living death is the result of derangement of functions which make woman what she is; immediate relief is the only safeguard against wreck and reuin. In all cases of stoppage, delayed, painful or other irregularities Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. Sold by John J. Orr.

I used three bottles of "Mother's friend and when I was sick I never went to bed until 12:30, and my boy was born at 3 at a. m. with scarcely any pain I will do all I can in recommending it to expectant mothers. Your thankful friend, Mrs. B. F. Wathereus, Marion, O., Sept. 1890 Sold by Jno. Orr.

From the spinning-wheel to the bicycle is a long stride for women's independence.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

Ripans Tabules: standard remedy.
Ripans Tabules cure headache.
Ripans Tabules cure colic.
Ripans Tabules prolong life.
Ripans Tabules: a family remedy.
Ripans Tabules: for torpid liver.
Ripans Tabules: pleasant laxative.

An effort is being made to move Adrian College to Zanesville, Ohio.

The largest summer hotel in the world, at Put-in-Bay, opened its doors to the public last week.

LET THE EAGLE SCREAM!

How Clinton Celebrated the Glorious Fourth—An Immense Crowd and a Big Time Generally.

Clinton showed her patriotism last Monday in a way long to be remembered. The oldest inhabitant cannot recall a Fourth of July in her history on which the eagle screamed with a more lusty scream or the people turned out in larger numbers to enjoy the day's festivities.

The celebration began the evening before at nine p. m. by a mock battle on Chicago street. The Americans were stationed on the north side of the street and the British on the south side. Roman candles constituted the ammunition and arms used, and it was a very beautiful sight. At twelve o'clock Sunday night the cannonading began and was continued at intervals for the next twenty-four hours. As early as eight o'clock Monday morning the crowd began togather from all points of the compass. Farmers brought their whole families and the young fellows with their best girls were especially numerous. The regular morning train brought a large delegation and the special train from the South brought another heavy addition to the throng. Even the noon train from the South added a large number. The crowd kept increasing until after dinner, as many farmers devoted the forenoon to work and hooked up and came to town after dinner. At three o'clock in the afternoon the attendance was variously estimated at from three to five thousand. At all events it was the largest crowd ever seen in Clinton within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

The big hickory pole opposite the Lancaster House floated from its top a big national flag that seemed to look down on the entire village with a genuine Fourth of July welcome. The business blocks on Chicago street were all profusely decorated with flags and bunting, while many private residences were ornamented in like manner. The Democrats showed their magnanimity and patriotism by hauling down the Cleveland streamer and running the stars and stripes to the top of the hickory pole on that day.

At ten o'clock in the forenoon the procession was formed in the following order and marched through the principal streets under charge of Ed. VanDeMark, Marshal of the Day.

Macon K. O. T. M. Band.
Carriages containing orator, clergy and citizens.
Car, "America." This contained 44 young girls dressed in white, wearing sashes with the names of the States printed thereon, the Goddess of Liberty standing in the midst with American flag and shield.
Tecon Band.
Citizens.
K. O. T. M.
Macon K. O. T. M.
Wheelmen.
Horsemen.
Fantastics.

At 10:30 the procession halted in front of the M. E. Church and the crowd gathered around the platform beneath the large maple trees to listen to the literary exercises. The program opened with singing by a glee club; Prof. Daniels then recited the Declaration of Independence; Rev. Washington Gardner delivered the oration, which was a fine specimen of Fourth of July oratory.

At the conclusion of these exercises the crowd scattered for dinner. The big wigwam opposite the Lancaster House was the center of attraction, where about 700 were provided with an excellent dinner. One hundred and fifty persons could be seated at once and the tables were filled five times. Besides the wigwam, refreshments were served at both hotels, at numerous lunch stands and at nearly every private house in town, as nearly every family had friends from abroad to entertain.

The attractions in the way of amusements were many and various. First and foremost was the World's Fair Museum; there was also a revolving swing; two bowery dance halls, and the town hall was used for the same purpose. Then there were ice cream, lemonade, peanut and popcorn stands at nearly every corner.

After dinner, a large slice of the crowd adjourned to the ball ground, south of the depot, to witness a game between Parke Davis & Co's club of Detroit and the Clinton Woolen Mill team. An excellent game was played, resulting in a score of 7 to 1 in favor of Clinton. At the close of the ball game the bicycle race was called on Jackson St., which was an exciting affair, and was won by Ed. Kirchgessner of Tecumseh. Foot races and other games took place on Chicago street.

In the evening a fine display of fire works took place, from a stand placed in front of the woolen mill office, and a very large crowd remained in town even at that late hour to witness the spectacle. It was without doubt the finest show of the kind ever seen in Clinton. It was a quiet orderly crowd, and not a drunken man was seen upon the streets during the entire day. One horse tried to kick himself loose from a cart but he was caught at once, and no other accident of the least character, occured.

At ten o'clock in the evening most of the crowd had departed for home, but the bowery dances were kept in motion until the wee small hours of Tuesday morning admonished the young folks that even Independence Day must come to an end. The celebration as a whole was well planned and well executed throughout and the day will long be remembered in the local annals of Clinton.

MORE SAVINGS.

The Secretary of State's Office Now Costs $5,000 a Year Less.

One of the Reforms Worked By the Democratic Administration.

From the moment the democrats assumed the administration of the various offices in which the people had decreed a change the republican press has denounced every act and belittled every reform, regardless of the truth, and as if by agreement. The republicans were turned out because they were known to be delinquent in the performance of official duties and extravagant in expenditures. They were believed to be carrying on a systematic pillage of the state treasury. The records which they made, and which were two years old when published, prove beyond question that the belief was well founded. Still no word of criticism or remonstrance comes from the republican press, no demand for the punishment of the gross negligence, the wanton extravagance and the petty sneak-thieving that has been habitually carried on, as now plainly appears by their own records, which are a witness against themselves.

Who can find an excuse for such conduct of their press? It denounces and belittles the virtues, the reform and the economies of the new administration, but is mum at the blackest sins of its own party.

A republican paper published at Lansing, in the shadow of the capitol, believing that it had discovered a weak spot in the democratic administration, majestically sails into Secretary of State Blacker for extravagance. And its complaint and fusillade is run through the Detroit Tribune to the people of Michigan. The claim is made that during four months under Mr. Blacker more money was paid for clerks than during four months under his predecessor, Mr. Soper. The mere fact that more money was paid for clerk hire by Mr. Backer than by Mr. Soper is not of itself proof of extravagance. Nor was it extravagance at all.

Extravagance consists in unnecessary, unwarranted expenditure. Useless expenditure is extravagance, be the sum great or small. The use of the people's money for the purchase of pocketbooks, jackknives, gold pens, playing cards, and hundred dollar beds; for subscriptions for newspapers and mileage steals; for the purchase of supplies from party favorites at figures away above retail prices, these are useless, wanton and criminal extravagances. Such is the extravagance that the republicans have been guilty of.

Now why did Mr. Blacker pay a larger sum of money in four months than Mr. Soper during his first four months? Upon taking his office, Mr. Soper's clerks were new and unacquainted with their duties. Consequently they were started below full salaries until they should become expert in their respective places. Then they were advanced to full pay, in which situation Mr. Blacker found the office. The force is employed on legitimate business. None are paid a salary greater than allowed by law, and all are doing efficient work and putting in full time.

The trap set for Mr. Blacker catches republican game, as the following comparison of expenditures shows:

There was paid out for extra clerks in the office of the secretary of state during the first year under democratic administration $30,509.37. In 1890, under the republicans, $31,728.18. In 1889 the republicans paid out $31,822.76; for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1888, $33,770.57; for the year ending September 30, 1886, $28,460.26, and for 1885, $46,332.43. The year 1887 is omitted because the fiscal year was changed from July to October, and the whole year is not given in the report of the auditor general.

It will be seen from the foregoing figures, which are taken from the regular reports, that the republicans paid out, in 1890, $1,218.81 more than the democrats paid for 1891; in 1889 $1,323.39 more; in 1888 $3,270.20 more; in 1886, $7,950.89 more and in 1885 $15,823.06 more; and for the five years $29,586.35 more, making the annual average $5,917.27 more for extra clerks in the office of the secretary of state under republican than under democratic management.

CONSUL M'CREERY.

He Learned His Tricks While State Treasurer of Michigan.

Official Misfeasance Rewarded by Political Promotion.

William B. McCreery, United States consul to Chili, who is kicking up such a dust in the face of Secretary Blaine and the Chilian nation, was treasurer of Michigan during the years 1875, 1876, 1877 and 1878. An examination of the records shows that his idea of holding office was for revenue only. He struck a gait that evidenced capabilities for a wider field, and he received promotion from a party that rewards rascality instead of punishing it.

While Mr. McCreery was treasurer of Michigan he traveled 13,573 miles and charged the state the nice little sum of $1,260.10 for the same. At regular rates his mileage would have cost but $407.19. Thus he made a clean grab of $852.91. In all likelihood he used free passes, and certainly secured rates on some of his trips to New York and Washington. He also beat the state, after the manner of most republican officials, by charging up his newspapers to the taxpayers. And his claim for these was allowed by the board of state auditors at $167.70. The papers which he read regularly while in office and which the people paid for were the Detroit Daily Post, Daily Tribune, New York Times, Evening News, Free Press, Semi-Weekly Republican and the Wall Street Journal. Mr. McCreery may be called off now that his official rascality affects somebody besides the republican party and the taxpayers of Michigan.

A DEBT OF $5,000,000.

Michigan Owes This Sum to the Trust Funds—Over $4,000,000 in Interest Has Been Paid on the Debt.

The Annual Interest Now Amounts to $350,000—Republican Claims of No Indebtedness False and Dishonest.

The State Republican of Lansing, Mich., in its issue of May 21, 1892, contains a three-column article by ex-State Accountant Henry Humphrey on the state trust funds. We have read the article and carefully considered the argument. It plainly shows to the careful reader that the money received for sale of certain lands constituted a loan to the state and consequently a loan to each individual taxpayer; and shows, too, that the success of the republican party in these years depended largely upon the use of this loan to keep taxes from rolling up mountain high as a witness to republican extravagance. It plainly shows, too, that by using over $5,000,000 of the trust funds which the average taxpayer knew nothing about, the taxpayers were made to believe the republican party to be getting along in its administrations reasonably well; that they were fooled into the support of a party that was annually using large sums of money forced as a loan from the taxpayers themselves and for which the taxpayers are now annually called upon to pay several hundred thousand dollars interest.

Since 1877 the interest paid in this way figures up the snug sum of $4,198,510.07. That is, the taxpayers have paid over four million dollars for the privilege of borrowing $5,389,069.41. What has been the gain so far? The money thus borrowed exceeds the interest paid to date by only $1,190,559.34. The interest last year amounted to $357,547.62 and is yearly increasing. In four years more the interest will have exceeded the original sum. In other words, the original debt will soon be duplicated without having reduced the debt one single cent. And still the State Republican says no debt has been created.

The republican officials wanted money, and fearing to further increase the taxes of their constituents immediately, they borrowed it in this devious way. How was the money used? Some of it, doubtless, was used for the state and the taxpayers, but thousands upon thousands of dollars were used for extravagant luxuries and for such things as folding beds, sofa beds, leather lounges, easy chairs, gold pens, card stands, sideboard service and unnecessary supplies galore. More than retail prices were often paid for job lot purchases. Thousands every year were squandered for an unnecessary force of clerks who had to be rewarded for party service, and many thousand dollars more for illegal per diem charges and mileage steals. No wonder these same republicans may aim to cover their tracks and making a showing of no indebtedness. But read what ex-Gov. Luce said in his inaugural message January 8, 1891, under the head of "Indebtedness." "For some years," he said, "ample provision has been made for liquidating the bonded debt, but as all the bonds had not matured, they were not paid up until within the last year. And now for the first time in our history, we can with pride declare that the last dollar of this class of indebtedness has been paid, the last bond issued by authority of the legislature has been canceled. It is true that the state is indebted to the trust funds, consisting of primary school, normal school, university and agricultural college."

Ex-Gov. Luce says it is true the state is indebted to the trust funds. So that by the best authority in the republican party the article in the State Republican has lied instead of exploding a lie.

The State Republican says that the pioneer democrats handed down to the republicans a plan of dealing with the trust funds as perfect as man can devise, and that the republicans recognised a good thing when they saw it and followed it. Ex-Gov. Luce said in his last message: "The present system having been the established policy for so many years, it is not now thought best to change it, although as an original proposition it might be wise to do so." Why change? How change? Other states had lands granted on the same conditions that the Michigan lands were granted, and some of those states sold the lands and invested the money in bonds drawing interest, while our state used the money and is compelled to pay instead of drawing interest. Michigan used her trust money for general purposes instead of meeting current expenses by taxation at a time when wheat brought from one to three dollars a bushel, pork from six to fourteen cents a pound, wool from forty cents to a dollar and beef five cents at live weight. Now the taxpayers are obliged to pay the interest after wheat has tumbled to eighty-five cents, pork to five cents and wool to twenty-five and even fifteen cents.

We do not advocate a change now. Nearly all the lands have been sold, the money has been used and the state must keep up the interest. But we are opposed to prevarication. The state is in debt to these funds, as ex-Gov. Luce said, and no amount of argument can change this fact. The republicans in power used the money. The republicans have been telling in recent campaigns how they got the state out of debt and that taxes were not so very high, etc., etc. But they never told about using the trust funds and about the trust fund debt. And some are even disposed to deny the facts and try to fool the people when the matter is explained.

Unaccountable.

"Did you hear of the accident on the P. S. & X. T. Z. railway this morning?"

"No. What was it?"

"The 8:10 express got in on time."—Judge.

A Free Copy.

Of a folder containing information about the reduced rates, route, tickets, etc., to the Convention of Christian Endeavor at New York, July 7 to 10, sent to any address on applying to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., L. S. & M. S. R'y, Cleveland, Ohio.

Fourth of July.

One Fare for the round trip on July 2, 3 and 4. The C. J. & M. Ry Co. will sell special low-rate Excursion Tickets between all stations, including Cincinnati. Tickets good going day of sale, and good returning up to and including July 5. For full information apply to nearest C. J. & M. agent or address

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, G. P. A.,
Toledo, O.

To Whom It May Concern.

The Commissioner of Patents having on June 13, 1892, affirmed the decision of the Board of Examiners-in-Chief of the Patent Office, which was in my favor and in which they held that I was the inventor and entitled to a patent on the Friction Clutch used by the Upton Manufacturing Company and the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company for the past two seasons, and being the same one shown in their catalogue for '91 and '92, you are hereby notified that I shall commence suit to recover one hundred dollars royalty against the owner of each and every engine manufactured by the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company I find this Clutch used on. Yours Respectfully,

R. SHETTLER.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, June 5th, '92, the C. J. & M. Ry., will run a special low rate excursion to Devils Lake and return. Trains leave Tecumseh at 8:44 a. m. standard time; returning arrives at Tecumseh 5:38 p. m. Fare 40 cents for the round trip.

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, G. P. A.
B. J. SLATER, Agent.

International Convention Y. P. S. C. E.

The eleventh International Convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held in New York City, July 7 to 10, inclusive, and for this event the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y. will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates on July 5, 6 and 7. Send to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O., for free copy of folder of information.

A New Line to the Northwest.

Commencing Monday, May 23d, the elegant steamer "City of Marquette" will make regular trips between Frankfort and Kewaunee, Wis., in connection with trains of the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan R'y. Through Express leaving Toledo at 5:45 a. m. daily except Sunday, arrives at Frankfort 5.55 p. m., connecting with "Steamer "City of Marquette," leaving Frankfort 7:00 p. m., arriving at Kewaunee 1:30 a. m.

Holders of first-class tickets are furnished sleeping berths on Steamer free of extra charge and will be permitted to retain berths until morning.

First train leaves Kewaunee 5:55 a. m. for Green Bay, Winona, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis and all points in the West and North West.

W. H. BENNETT, G. P. A.
Toledo, Ohio.

Reduced Rates to Saratoga, N. Y.

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway will sell excursion tickets to Saratoga and return, July 5th to 13th at reduced rates, account N. E. A. meeting.

For full particulars apply to Ticket Agents.

Tecumseh Price Current.

CORRECTED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING

PROVISION MARKET.

	Wholesale.	Retail.
Apples green, per bushel	$1 00	$1 20
Apples dried, per pound	5	8
Beeswax	14	16
Butter	11	14
Eggs, per doz	13	15
Honey, per lb	16	18
Lard, per lb	9	12
Onions, per bushel	1 00	1 20
Potatoes, per bushel	25	40
Beans, per bushel	2 00	2 30
Wool, unwashed	14
Wool, fleeced washed	22
Wool, tub washed	25
Salt, coarse rock, per bbl	1 50
Salt, common, per bbl	90	1 00
Tallow, per lb	3½
Cheese, per lb	9	14

MEAT MARKET.

Pickled Pork	6	10
Bacon	10	12½
Smoked Ham	12	16
Smoked shoulders	7	9
Beef, by the side	4½	5
Fat Hogs, per 100 lbs	3 50 to 3 75
Dressed Hogs, per 100 lbs	4 25
Veal, dressed, per lb	5
Mutton, dressed, per lb	6	8
Chickens, live, per lb	6	7
Turkeys, live, per lb	7
Geese, live, per lb	5	8
Ducks, live, per lb	6
Hides, green	4
Hides, dry	5
Sheep Pelts	25 to 1 75

GRAIN, SEEDS AND HAY.

Wheat—White	$ 80
" Red	80
Corn, shelled	56
Oats	30
No. 1 Clover seed	4 25
No. 2 " "	4 00
Choice " "	4 50
Timothy Seed	1 65
Hay, timothy, per ton	8 00 to 9 00
Hay, clover, per ton	7 00
Flour, per sack	1 38
Bran, per 100 lbs	1 00 to 1 25
Middlings, per 100 lbs	90
Corn meal, per 100 lbs	1 80
Chop, per 100 lbs	1 80

USE ONLY
Red Crown Gasoline!
In your gasoline stoves
ORIENT or KEYSTONE WATER WHITE KEROSENE OIL
In your lamps.
MANUFACTURED BY
The Standard Oil Co.
CLEVELAND, OHIO.
For Sale in Tecumseh by the following leading dealers.
James Lowry, Satterthwaite Bros.
J. J. Orr, C. A. Wright & Co.
Anderson Bros. W. J. Arnold
McClure Grocery Co., and Jas. Potter.
Quality of the Highest Standard.
Use nothing in your Gasoline stoves but
RED CROWN GASOLINE.
Use nothing in your Lamps but
ORIENT OR KEYSTONE.
Water White Kerosene Oil.

—) FOR (—
CONSTIPATION,
SICK HEADACHE,
Bilious Attacks & Liver Complaints.
DOSE.—One to two Pellets each night until the bowels are regular and natural in their operation.
FOR SALE BY
JNO. J. ORR, Tecumseh.
ALSO FOR SALE BY
JNO. KANE ..... Onsted.
F. J. TEMPLE ..... Ridgeway.
WILL BABCOCK ..... Britton.
W. P. COTTON ..... Macon.
JNO. CONLIN ..... Tipton.
FLOYD FLORENCE ..... Holloway.

THE ELDREDGE "B"
A strictly high-grade family sewing machine, possessing all modern improvements.
GUARANTEED EQUAL to the BE
Prices very reasonable. Obtain them and make comparisons.
ELDREDGE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Birdsey J. Bidwell, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said ceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the bank of Lilley, Bidwell & Co. in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 1st day of August, 1892, and on the 2nd day of December, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 22d day of June, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 30th, 1892.

LUCIUS LILLEY,
LESTER P. TRIBOU,
Commissioners.

FAYETTE is a beautiful village, populated by cultured and hospitable people. She expects much from her University and her expectations are being realized. Its attendance has been increased from 25 to 50 per cent per year. The aim is to make the school the most popular but the best. NORMAL work is a prominent feature, yet there are Commercial, Scientific, Musical, Elocutionary, Preparatory and Fine Art Departments in addition to the College classes. The teachers are specialists and the success of its students gives it high standing. Only earnest workers are wanted. Expenses for tuition, board and room-rent low. Write for catalogue to the president of the UNIVERSITY.
J. E. DODDS, Fayette, O.

LAKE SUPERIOR TRANSIT CO.
The Great Duluth Route.
Intended sailings of steamers from Detroit for Sault Ste Marie, Duluth and other Lake Superior Ports:—Mondays, 8. P. M.; Thursdays and Saturdays, 10:30 P. M.; central time. For Cleveland, Erie and Buffalo, Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays; 5 P. M., central time, making railroad connections for all points East and South. Rail Connections at Duluth for St. Paul, Minneapolis, Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railway Points, Pacific Coast, etc. Baggage checked through to destination. For tickets and information, apply to J. T. WHITING, Gen'l Agent. Dock and Office, 33 West Atwater St., near Griswold, DETROIT MICH.

DO YOU KNOW That the way to "get a start" in life, and secure the the opportunity when it comes? Don't wait" a good paying business is to make preparation and
LEARN SHORTHAND AT HOME
BEST SYSTEM, BEST METHOD. "Up with the times. Terms moderate, and within the reach of all. Lessons concise, complete, and practical. Circulars free.
C. A. SHARP, Stenographer,
ADRIAN, MICH.

The Tecumseh Herald.

VOL. XLIII.--NO. 8. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN. THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2192

Carpet Sale!

We will make SPECIAL PRICES on Carpets for TEN DAYS, commencing JULY 18.

Dress Goods Sale Continued Also.

Anderson & Co.

Wm. McCowen

Furniture

Wall Paper

Trunks

Undertaking

THE FINEST and Largest Line of Bedroom Suits ever Shown in Tecumseh.

"95 A" JEWEL GRAND,

The greatest success in Gasoline Stoves; csll and see them.

For sale by

D. L. WHITENACK & CO.

Going to Leave Town!

IN view of the above fact, and as our lease of the Exelby Stores expires next February—'93, we will now inaugurate rates for CLOSING OUT of our different lines in their seasons, therefore

ALL STRAW HATS NOW

$1.25	Will	Go	For	$1.00
1.00	"	"	"	75
75	"	"	"	50
60	"	"	"	50
25	"	"	"	22

And others that space will not admit of mention, at the same rock-bottom figures—as we will actually bid you all farewell at the beginning of the World's Fair Year. Awaiting your kind consideration, we remain,

Yours to please,

W. LENARDSON & SON.

Neighborhood News.

BRITTON BUDGET.

Builders are busy.

Some talk of a K. O. T. M. band.

Jim Haight is building a new barn.

They say a banking company is a sure thing.

Wm. Underwood has a new McCormick binder.

E. W. Osgood and family are visiting for two weeks at Morenci.

Miss Ellen Ousterhout is visiting for a few days at White, Mich.

Miss Maggie Bowerman returned to her home at Blissfield Monday.

Go to the Library Association parlor and get a dish of ice cream Saturday night.

Dubois, Haight & Calkins have set up eleven Champion binders within a week.

The Band expects to purchase new uniforms and come out in full-fledged dude style.

"Shamrock and Rose" is the title of the next play to be put on by the Dramatic Club.

Hendershot Tent of Maccabees may give a free-for-all basket picnic in the near future.

Mrs. Dr. Hendershot has returned from a prolonged visit with her parents at Dunkirk, Ohio.

Regular Review of Hendershot Tent next Tuesday evening. Let all be present; special business.

Some of our citizens got rather wrathy the other evening, but we think the water still runs down hill.

Attend the meeting at G. A. R. hall to-night to organize a Young People's Christian Endeavor society.

Geo. Exelby & Sons will build an elevator. The first move has been made—10 carloads of stone ordered.

Let every one turn out and attend the meeting at Exelby's hall Sunday at 3 p. m. and hear something of interest.

Some talk of building a new church also of moving the Christian church nearer town. Let the good work proceed.

Geo. Exelby has put a stone foundation under his house and is now giving it a coat of paint. He is also going to build a new sidewalk. Let more follow.

The poverty social was quite a success, the receipts being about $10. Mrs. Lewis Rose and Lyman Ousterhout carried off the prizes, which were a jumping jack and a tin horn.

Scrap in town last Saturday night. One had an optic somewhat blackened and the other the epidermis of his proboscis damaged, but as they shook on Sunday we trust there is no ill-feeling.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

Wheat harvest is in progress this week.

Mrs. Palmer and daughter Minnie, of Dundee, visited Mrs. Nelson last week Thursday.

Walter Burnett, of Tecumseh, spent Sunday and Monday with relatives in the village.

Clarence Jackson, of Tecumseh, is spending the present week with relatives and friends.

The past week has been fine hay weather and the time was improved to good advantage.

Bear in mind the L. C. S. to be held July 29. Place of holding and program given next week.

Chas. Clark, wife and daughter Hattie, of Elkhart, Ind., are visiting relatives in the village.

Harry Nelson and Harry Alexander, of Toledo, were the guests of Dr. Nelson and family Sunday.

Prof. E. A. Wilson and wife, of Paw Paw, are spending a portion of their vacation at W. R. Wilson's.

Eugene and Grace Harrington, of Blissfield, are visiting their brother Willie Harrington and family.

Mrs. I. T. Bush, who has been spending several weeks with her parents, left for her home in Brooklyn, N. Y. Saturday morning.

T. H. Temple, wife and children, and Mrs. Catherine Cox and Mrs. Mary Arner left for a month's stay at Petoskey on Tuesday morning.

Eugene Pilbeam and Bert Cadmus, of Harvey, Ill., arrived Tuesday. They came as far as Battle Creek by rail and the remainder of the distance on their wheels.

Elder Yager has organized a class in pastel painting and has six students. The class meets every Wednesday afternoon at Cottage hall, where he has a very pleasant studio.

Mrs. John Arner was called to Manchester last Friday by the death of her sister, Mrs. Enfield Antcliff Case, nee McNeal. The funeral services were held Saturday morning.

The entertainment given by the juvenile mission band at the church last week was a success in every respect and the attendance was good. The receipts amounted to over $6.00.

H. T. Walsh, of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., passed through our village Tuesday morning a little after seven, on his way to Washington, D. C., wheeling a wheelbarrow. As he is an old vet he will undoubtedly make the trip all O. K.

Mrs. Lydia Hall entertained the following guests at her home on Wednesday afternoon of last week: Mrs. H. C. Lowe, of Colorado Springs, Colo.; Mrs. W. H. Osborn, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. I. T. Bush, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. J. F. Hicks, Mrs. I. S. Osborn, Mrs. David McNair, Tecumseh; Mrs. J. W. Osborn and daughter Anna, of Macon.

ONSTED ODDS.

Haying still in full blast.

Wheat will be cut this week.

A. P. Onsted is on the sick list at present.

Mrs. Hile Onsted will spend the summer with friends in New York State.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Potter, of Litchfield, visited friends in this vicinity lately.

Homer Gillett and wife, from near Addison, called on friends here last week.

John Kane has started up his new drug store, so now look out for lively times.

Mrs. Elder Mowry, of Hillsdale county, is stopping among friends in this locality.

The presidential candidates have all been heard from, so you can take your choice and whoop 'er up.

Clark Welch, formerly from this vicinity but now of South Dakota, has been calling on friends here.

The orator at the Democratic ratification here got things a little mixed when he struck the tariff on wool.

MACON MUSIC.

Bert Day is having a vacation this week.

Arthur and Mary Pratt, of Deerfield, visited at Will Pratt's last Sunday.

Mrs. John Arner and sons, of Ridgeway, visited friends here last Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. Higdon and children returned to their home in Leslie last Saturday.

Miss Delia Burton, of Cadillac, is spending her vacation at Edwin Howell's.

The young people of the M. E. church will give an ice cream social at the church next Saturday evening. A short program has been prepared. All are cordially invited.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

The Gospel Temperance meeting held the evening of July 3rd in the M. E. Church was a success, and another to be held in the Baptist Church is contemplated.

The Iowa Republican convention which recently met in Des Moines gave no expression to its prohibition principles as in former years, tabling the resolution by an overwhelming vote.

The new excise law in the State of New York gives more privileges to the saloon business than it has ever before enjoyed. The liquor capitalist is given absolute power and can take out as many licenses and open as many saloons as he desires, employing men to run them. It is said that Governor Flower, of New York, has presented the pen with which he signed the iniquitous bill to the president of the wine, liquor and beer dealers' association as a trophy.

BOYS, READ THIS.

Chauncey Depew, against whom no one would think of charging a Puritanic spirit, speaks as follows on the temperance question: "Twenty-five years ago I knew every man, woman and child in Peekskill, and it has been a study with me to mark boys who started in every grade of life with myself, to see what has become of them. I was up last fall and began to count them over, and it was an instructive exhibit. Some of them became clerks, merchants, manufacturers, lawyers, doctors. It is remarkable that every one of those that drank is dead: not one living of my age. Barring a few who were taken off by sickness, every one who proved a wreck and wrecked his family, did it from rum, and no other cause. Of those who were church-going people, who were steady, industrious and hard-working men, who were frugal and thrifty, every one of them without exception, owns the house in which he lives and has something laid by, the interest of which, with his house, would carry him through many a rainy day. When a man becomes debased with gambling or drink he does not care; all his finer feelings are crowded out. The poor women at home are the ones who suffer—suffer in their tenderest emotions; suffer in their affections for those whom they love better than life."

THE TRUE LAXATIVE PRINCIPLE

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

"Miss Budd is a very sharp girl." "Yes, indeed. I guess that is why she cuts so many of her acquaintances."

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Try it.

Maccabees will Picnic.

In response to a request sent out some weeks ago, representatives from ten Lenawee county Maccabee tents met at Maccabee hall, in Adrian, Saturday afternoon, and organized the Lenawee Maccabees' picnic association.

L. W. Hock, of Adrian, was chosen temporary president; J. Yeagley, of Arbutus tent, Hudson, secretary, and John E. Carr, of Lenawee tent, Adrian, treasurer.

It was voted that a basket picnic be held at Devil's lake August 3d, and at that time the permanent organization of the association will be perfected.

The following committees were appointed:

On permanent organization and by-laws—L. W. Hock, Adrian; Grant Fellows, Arbutus; Robert Darnton, Lenawee.

On arrangements—W. E. Alchin, Rollin; F. W. Darling, Justice tent, Onsted; W. J. Green, Adrian.

On amusements and exercises of the day—M. O'Leary, Lenawee; J. C. Bailey, Clayton; Milo Perkins, Arbutus.

There are now sixteen prosperous tents in this county, with a total membership of one thousand, and the scheme is to divide the expense of the proposed picnic among the several tents in proportion to their membership.

A cordial invitation was extended to the L. O. T. M. and all the K. O. T. M. friends to attend the gathering.

"How To Sing Without A Master."

And sing well, too, is not so difficult if you know how to cultivate your natural voice. It's all very well if you can afford to have the best teachers; but there are thousands who cannot afford to spend money for instruction, yet who could sing as well as the best if they only understood the underlying principles which everyone, no matter how gifted by nature, has to learn. The article "How to Sing Without a Master," published in Demorest's Family Magazine for August, explains these principles in clear, untechnical language, also gives simple rules for exercising the voice; and anyone practising these rules will soon notice a marked improvement in its quality and strength. "Flower Missions and Their Work" is an interesting and very suggestive paper, beautifully illustrated, and everyone who reads it will appreciate flowers at a truer value, and realize how much even the lowliest blossoms mean to those unfortunate creatures who are deprived of them. There is a characteristic story by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, "Why Frothingale Did Not Marry the Widow," and a humorous one, "Letting the Stable," by Mary Kyle Dallas, besides others, grave and gay, which make this an especially enjoyable midsummer number. Mothers of boys will be interested in "A Boy's Room," and housekeepers will appreciate "French Methods of Cooking Pears"; all the departments are replete with good things, while about 200 illustrations, a fine water-color, and a lovely full-page gravure represent the artistic quota. Every number of this ideal Family Magazine is equally good, and the subscription price is only $2 a year, or 20 cents a copy. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 E. 14th., New York City.

The World's Columbian Exposition.

Send 50 cents to Bond & Co., 576 Rookery, Chicago, and you will receive, post paid, a four hundred page advance Guide to the exposition, with elegant Engravings of the Grounds and Buildings, Portraits of its leading spirits, and a Map of the City of Chicago; all of the Rules governing the Exposition and Exhibitors, and all information which can be given out in advance of its opening. Also, other Engravings and printed information will be sent you as published. It will be a very valuable Book and every person should secure a copy.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

Reporter: I have an idea for a poem. Managing Editor: Well put it in spirits and preserve it. An idea in a poem of the present epoch would queer the thing out of sight.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. ORR.

Ripans Tabules cure dizziness.
Ripans Tabules cure constipation.
Ripans Tabules: pleasant laxative.

ADRIAN WHEELMEN VISIT TECUMSEH.

Monday nights are becoming the popular time for making bicycle spins, the first one being made last week Monday evening. So successful was the first attempt that Mr. Channing Ackley took it upon himself to do the hustling for a regular Monday night meet of the Adrian wheelmen for a long distance spin.

The ladies were interested in the project, as well as the children, and the result was that about 120 cyclists, including ladies and children, made the start last evening from East Maumee street. About one-third of these, including the children, acted as an escort, going as far as the Red mill hill, and returning from there to the city.

Fully 70 wheelmen, among whom were a dozen ladies, made it through to Tecumseh, leaving the city about 7:30, and arriving at their destination about two hours later. A short parade was indulged in before starting, taking in Church, Dennis, Union and Broad streets and thence on out into the country.

The main body was left behind by the scorchers, who pulled out ahead. All were met about three miles out from Tecumseh by a detachment from the wheel club of that city, and escorted in. Like the streets of Adrian at their departure, Tecumseh inhabitants were out in force to meet their flying guests from the county seat.

The Lilley house was their headquarters, and the office front was covered with a mass of wheels. The Tecumseh boys had prepared an elaborate spread in the dining room of the hotel, to which about 75 or 80 Adrian people, with fully as many Tecumseh friends did justice.

After spending about one hour in the village the return trip was commenced, leaving about 10:30. A nearly full moon was beaming, and the cool air made it a delightful ride home. It was midnight and after, before the lights of Adrian were reached.

The party contained an ambulance, and but surprisingly few took advantage of it. The ladies tired a little on the trip over, but the trip home was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Ackley states that it is the intention to have Monday night rides every week weather permitting, and that it is proposed to ask the Tecumseh bicyclists over here next week. Invitations will be sent to wheelmen of other places to join.—Adrian Times.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno. Orrs.

Starting off to a summer resort, or for a week's fishing, or upon a tramp with a gun, or to visit your relations in the country, there is one companion that you will not regret taking with you—a copy of the July Cosmopolitan. It contains a wide range of subjects for summer reading—twenty-two articles, mostly illustrated. Stop at your newsdealers and carry away a copy of this splendidly illustrated monthly.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

is the greatest blessing ever offered child-bearing women. I have been a midwife for many years, and in each case where Mother's Friend has been used, it has accomplished wonders and relieved much suffering. It is the best remedy for rising of the breast known, and worth the price for that alone. Mrs. M. A. Brewster, Montgomery, Ala.

BRADFIELD'S FEMANE REGULATOR should be used by the young women, she who suffers from any disorder pecular to her sex, and at change of life is a powerful tonic; benefits all who use it

Sold by Jno. Orr.

New Music at 10 Cents a Copy.

"Jesus, Lover of My Soul" has been arranged as a quartette, with soprano, tenor and alto solos, by Isaac Doles. The song as arranged by Mr. Doles is very beautiful indeed. He also publishes "The Air Ship Waltz," "Oklahoma Waltz," and "Odd Fellows' Grand March," all of which are exquisite instrumental music for the piano or organ. Any of the above pieces will be sent for 10 cents each, the 4 for 35 cents, on receipt of this notice with your remittance. This is an introductory price, for the 4. If any of our readers want good music cheap they should take advantage of this opportunity. Address Isaac Doles, Indianapolis, Ind., Cor. 22d and Illinois Sts., U. S. A.

WOMAN'S HEALTH AND LIFE

depend more regularity than on any or all causes combined. An actual or living death is the result of derangement of functions which make woman what she is; immediate relief is the only safeguard against wreck and reuin. In In all cases of stoppage, delayed, painful or other irregularities Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. Sold by JohnJ. Orr.

I used three bottles of "Mother's friend and when I was sick I never went to bed until 12:30, and my boy was born at 8 at a. m. with scarcely any pain I will do all I can in recommending it to expectant mothers. Your thankful friend, Mrs. B. F. Wathereus, Marion, O., Sept. 1890. Sold by Jno. Orr.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

Ripans Tabules: one gives relief.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance.....$1 10
If paid after 30 days..... 1 25
If paid after three months..... 1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance.....$1 25
If paid after 30 days..... 1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.

Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.

Rates on general advertising on term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JULY 14, 1892.

Politics will now take a rest for a few days, during harvest time. But the battle will open the first of August, and all signs point to a hot and close contest.

Cleveland's lucky star is still in the ascendant. The trend of the campaign is all in his favor at this early date, and his strength will grow every day as the campaign progresses.

The Pinkerton hirelings must go. Some states already have laws making it a felony for private corporations to employ armed detectives for any purpose. Pennsylvania evidently needs a similar law.

The early adjournment of Congress seems improbable now. The silver question may consume the time of the House for several days. The Senate and House are in a dead-lock over several appropriation bills, which is also likely to delay adjournment.

The news of the shooting down of Carnegie's workmen in Pennsylvania by Pinkerton's men caused great excitement in Congress, and the indignation was added to by the knowledge that Congress can do nothing to give immediate relief, although it may result in something beneficial, as resolutions have been introduced in the House and Senate for investigation.

The people's party Senators and Representatives express themselves as being pleased with the action of the Omaha convention, both as to platform and ticket, and some of them, notably Representative Davis, of Kansas, feel confident that Gen. Weaver will be elected President, not by the electoral college but by the House of Representatives. The democrats are already at work distributing extracts from speeches made by Weaver when he was a republican Congressman, among the Southern democrats, for the purpose of exciting their prejudice against Weaver. The success of this movement may mean much to the people's party.

In the midst of the political wrangling which fills the very atmosphere at Washington, it is gratifying to see Congress occasionally turn its attention to some matter of public interest. Senator Manderson has introduced a bill for the establishment of a National Highway commission, to consist of two Senators, five Representatives, the Secretaries of War, Agriculture and the Interior, the Postmaster General, the Attorney General and an associate member from each State and Territory. The business of the commission will be to investigate the needs of the country in regard to highways and make a report thereon to Congress.

This is to be a campaign of comparisons. A reader of the Bee at Three Rivers, sends the following for a starter: "The administration of Harrison costs the country over one million dollars a day, or 36 per cent. more than the administration of Cleveland. It cost $97,842,502 more to run the government during Harrison's second year than it did during Cleveland's second year, an increase of $1.50 for every man, woman and child in the United States. (See report of the secretary of the treasury, 1891, page 845.)

"The net ordinary expenses of running the government were:

In the year 1887 - - $267,932,179.
" " 1891 - - 365,774,681.

Cleveland less than Harrison, $97,842,502.

Cleveland's first two years less than Harrison's first two years, $173,400,074."
—Toledo Bee.

Several explanations have been given to account for the sudden decision of the Chicago Campbell not to serve as chairman of the Republican National Committee. Here is one of them and there may be some truth in it: Armour is an immense consumer of tin. The McKinley law has advanced the price of tin plate, and his personal tribute to the men who bought the advance of Congress is $100,000 for the year ending June 30. This tax example has converted Armour, and, though a republican, upon the tariff question he is a supporter of Grover Cleveland. Therefore it does not comport with his ideas of the eternal fitness of things to have his attorney lead the Harrison committee of high taxers. Mr. Campbell has quit. Otherware quitting. The people very generally will quit Mr. Harrison in November.

THE TWO E'S.

Efficiency and Economy Are the Watchwords.

They Are Introduced in the Land Commissioner's Office—$1,500 Saved in One Year, the Work Done Better and the Pledge to the People Fulfilled.

Efficiency and Economy—these are the watchwords of the present state officers in Michigan. Every department seems imbued with the spirit of these two. Inquiry and investigation, courted and sought, show how thoroughly both are being made the mainsprings of the present administration.

The department of the commissioner of the land office furnishes apt illustration. Figures convince more than words: let the figures speak. In 1890 a republican land commissioner conducted the office. In 1891 a democratic commissioner was installed. Here is a statement of the expenses of the office for these two years. The comparison tells its own story.

Expense for postage 1890	$519 00
Expense for postage 1891	145 00
Saving in 1891	$374 00
Printing and binding expense 1890	$572 15
Printing and binding expense 1891	292 79
Saved by democratic management	$279 36
Clerk hire 1890	$5,745 33
Clerk hire 1891	5,244 77
Saved by democratic industry	$500 76

RECAPITULATION.

Saved on extra clerks	$500 76
Saved on chemicals and waste books	274 00
Saved in postage	374 00
Saved in printing, binding and stationery	279 36
Saved in newspapers and other periodicals	21 00
	$1469 12

The republican commissioner paid clerks for overtime $294. He charged the state $21 for his newspapers. The democratic commissioner paid nothing for overtime of clerks and paid for his newspapers out of his own pockets. The economy of the democratic administration of the land office worked a saving of $1,469.12 the first year. The business was considerably in excess of the former year, the business transacted in 1890 amounting to $118,418.66 and in 1891 to $120,938.55, and the fees deposited with the state treasurer amounted to $100.07 more than the previous year. The work of the office is up to date now, while it was considerably behind when the republicans moved out.

The commissioner of the land office receives $800 a year. Thus in one year the present commissioner has saved nearly the amount of his two years' salary. In addition the efficiency of the office has been increased by bringing its work up to date.

The democratic officials elected upon the pledge to reform abuses have kept that pledge and given an efficient administration of the people's business at the minimum of expense. Such fidelity to promise will command for the democracy in its state nominations support that will insure victory.

SELF-SUSTAINING.

Not Only This, But the Jackson State Prison Now Nets a Revenue.

Accomplished by Democratic Economy and Management.

The management of the state institutions in Michigan under the present democratic administration presents a contrast that is marvelously favorable to the taxpayers and a credit to the democracy. And it demonstrates the wisdom of the people in making a sweeping change in November, 1890. No single institution shows results more plainly than the state prison at Jackson. Comparison of the administration of Warden Hatch, republican, with that of his immediate successor, Warden Davis, democrat, reveals a most gratifying change. The record of Mr. Hatch was one of extravagance in purchasing supplies for the warden's house; of frequent, long journeyings, at the state's expense; of extravagance in purchasing supplies for the inmates; of wastefulness in their use, and of lavish waste of prison labor, thus running expenses up to the maximum and revenues down to the minimum.

Warden Davis has been prudent in purchasing supplies; buying what was actually needed on the most favorable terms, making the best use of it, and allowing nothing to waste that can be utilized. At the same time he has economized in the prison labor force so as to materially increase the income from that source. Thus expenses have been reduced to the minimum and revenues increased to the maximum.

Under Hatch the whole institution was allowed to deteriorate. The buildings, walls and walks were badly in need of repairs. Warden Davis was obliged to commence at once the work of improving and repairing these. The walls around the prison had been neglected for seventeen years.

He repaired and painted these and the buildings, built new walks, laid new floors, and, in fact, put the whole institution in good order and repair. Business methods were introduced and economy enforced in every department. An instance of this is shown in the soap bills. Under republican rule it cost $80 a month for soap; while the democratic warden keeps everything clean for $27 a month. The office force now costs $1,500 less than formerly. Twenty-five tons of coal are required each day for steam power and the generation of electricity for lighting purposes. Warden Hatch bought his coal in carloads and paid a man $40 a month to see the cars unloaded. Warden Davis buys his coal direct from the mines at an average saving of $2.30 per day, besides saving $40 in salary each month.

The salary list for the guards, gatekeepers and prison force has been reduced about $700 a month. The earnings of prison labor were increased for the month of December, 1891, $3,992.87 over the same month for 1890. The prison heretofore has been an expense to the state, helping to swell the annual burden of taxes. Since the change it has become a source of profit and will now be a relief instead of a burden if the present efficient management be continued.

The monthly average number of inmates in the prison for nine months beginning with March, 1891, has been 773. During the year 1890, under republican management, the average daily cost of food for each inmate was a fraction over eleven cents. During the year 1891, under democratic management, the cost was a fraction less than eight cents. The saving by the prudent management of a democratic warden has thus amounted to four cents a day for each inmate. At first thought the sum of four cents seems insignificant, but four cents a day for each of 773 inmates means $30.92 every day, and for a whole year amounts to $11,285.80.

Some may answer that the saving thus made necessitates poorer fare and less of it. That is not so. The economy has been brought about in prudent buying and a proper use of what is purchased. The followng comparison will show expenditures for food for the months of December 1890 and 1891.

	December 1891.	December 1890.
Kitchen expenses	$1,839 00	$2,405 00
Average cost per day	59 32	80 51
Cost per day per capita	7 74	11 26
Cost of supplies for warden's house	41 03	60 06

The following copy of a letter received by the managers shows what a leak has been stopped by Warden Davis:

To the Board of Inspectors, Michigan State Prison,

Gentlemen—I felt as though in sending in my bid for waste of the Michigan state prison for the coming year it was due you, as well as myself, some remarks before making my bid. I made my bid last year from what I knew it was under Warden Hatch's administration. Messrs. Land and Mills paid $200 a year for the waste and got a full load every day; while I paid $215, and it takes four and five days to get that amount under Warden Davis' administration. I admire Mr. Davis' management of the institution very much, and believe it the best the state has ever had, but very hard for the hogs and myself, and therefore offer $75 for the coming year.

"Yours truly,
"DANIEL S. HOLCOMB."

The republican management proved to be better for the hogs, human as well as brute, than for the taxpayers.

A DEMOCRATIC SURPLUS.

The Economy of Democratic Officials Makes a Surplus for the Taxpayers.

The amount of state taxes levied in Michigan for the years 1887 and 1888 was $3,408,551.20 and for 1889 and 1890 the amount was $3,085,265.10. For the years 1891 and 1892 under the democratic administration the amount was $2,863,051.22, being $545,500 less than in 1887 and 1888, and $222,213.22 less than in 1889 and 1890. The economy practiced by the present administration in the various departments and state institutions is not and cannot be shown in the above figures. But it will result in a large surplus in the state treasury and in the treasury of the state institutions, and will be taken into account by the next legislature and will be available for a reduction of taxes for the years 1893 and 1892.

The cash balance on hand after fifteen months under the Winans administration is $321,607.78 greater than it was under Gov. Luce's. There is now due the state a much larger sum from the different counties for delinquent taxes than was due two years ago, so that on the whole the showing is most satisfactory for the change in official management in the state. The people should see to it that the next administration and legislature are elected on the same issues—reduced taxation and economy in the public expenditures. To return to office the party of extravagance would be to condemn retrenchment, economy and fidelity to public trust.

SALARY GRABS.

The Republicans Favor the Officeholder as Against the Farmer.

In 1871, the salary of the deputy secretary of state of Michigan was $1,400, of the deputy state treasurer $1,500, of the deputy auditor general $1,400, of the deputy commissioner of the state land office $1,400, and of the deputy superintendent of public instruction $1,300. The combined salaries of these five deputies was $7,000 a year, and in 1871 was equal to the price of 5,600 bushels of wheat. The same salaries now would purchase 7,840 bushels, or fifty per cent. more than in 1871. Consequently to the farmer taxpayers, the salaries of these officers have been increased one-half by the shrinkage of values. But a republican legislature fully aware of the increased purchasing power of each dollar since 1871, has twice increased the salaries of these deputies, until they now stand at $2,000 each, making them aggregate $10,000 a year. This is now the equivalent of more than 11,000 bushels of wheat. The hardships of the farmer have been doubled, first by shrinking the value of his produce and then by raising official salaries. It is plain that the republican party is for the officeholder as against the taxpayer. Another saving.

The administration of the office of the superintendent of public instruction for Michigan, under democratic administration, shows a considerable saving in the item of salaries for extra clerks.

In 1891 the amount paid for salaries was $3,245.64; in 1890, $4,061.57; in 1889, $3,693.87, and in 1888, $3,653.60.

The total for the last three years under the republicans was $11,402.34; the average per year, $3,803.11. The first year of democratic control shows a saving of $815.93 when compared with the last year of republican control, and a saving of $557.47, compared with the average for the last three years under republican management, a saving of 14 per cent. The democratic officers and democratic employes thus accomplished a given work for seven-eighths the expenditure required by republicans for the same work.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

A POSITIVE FACT.

He: Did you have a good time on your camping party last summer? She: I should say so. We had seven girls and seven men; and when we came home there were forty-nine engagements in the party.

Ladies do not delay your valuable time by waiting and suffering, but secure a bottle of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and be cured of your monthly trouble either in old or young. It is the very best preparation I ever prescribed in my extensive practice. It has given the best results in the greatest number of cases of female troubles of any medicine that I ever used. I do not make a practice of using or recommending patent medicines, but this remedy is prepared by a very competent physician and chemist of my acquaintance and I can cheerfully and conscienciously recommend it as the the best.

A. C. FRUTH, M. D., Specialist of Diseases of Women, 88 East Madison St. Chicago, Ill. For sale by John J. Orr.

The Michigan delegation was a potent force at the Chicago Convention. Their action stands out in striking contrast with the puerile course of the Michigan delegation at Minneapolis.

A CONTRACTOR'S ADVICE.

Dullam's German Medicine Co.:—Gentlemen; I take great pleasure in testifying in behalf of Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure. I can safely say that I never took such medicine as that to cleanse the liver, stomach and kidneys. I was suffering for years with biliousness, indigestion and loss of appetite and sleep. One bottle did for me more good than six months' other treatment, and I feel it my duty to testify in its behalf, so others may try it and get cured. Yours Truly, Warren E. Russell, Contractor and builder. Flint, Mich.—For sale by John J. Orr.

THE SKILL AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential to the production of the most perfect and popular laxative remedy known, have enabled the California Fig Syrup Co. to achieve a great success in the reputation of its remedy, Syrup of Figs, as it is conceded to be the universal laxative. For sale by all druggists.

She was a pretty girl and she blushed a bit as she stepped into the editor's room, "I suppose you don't care for poetry here, do you?" she inquired. "No," said the editor, diplomatically, "I can't say that we do." "I guessed as much from the verse you published," she rejoined. And then she was gone.

VERY MUCH SURPRISED.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle Signed A. B. Snell.

Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1891. For sale by John J. Orr.

Wife at Zoo: There is one thing that I have always liked about rattlesnakes. Husband: What is that? Wife: They never have to trouble anyone about keeping their buttons on.

MILES' NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

LANE'S FAMILY MEDICINE MOVES THE BOWELS

Each day. Most people need to use it.

Light house-work.

That's what housework amounts to when it's done with Pearline. Your labors will be light, though they may be many. They will be better done, and with safety. In washing clothes, dishes, paint, glass, anything that gathers dirt, Pearline will do the work if you will look after it. Look after your own interests by using it.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing—send it back. 310 JAMES PYLE, N.Y.

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER

DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S.,

Brick Office on Shawnee St. TECUMSEH, MICH.

Threshers Attention!

We have 30 of our

CELEBRATED ALL-FOUR WHEEL DRIVING

TRACTION ENGINES

That we will dispose of direct to threshers, thus saving them the agent's commission. The best and strongest traction Engine made. We also manufacture Engine Boilers, Saw and Picket Mills, and the FAMOUS MOLINE PUMP AND WIND MILLS.

Send for Catalogue and Price Lists.

The Lansing Iron and Engine Works,

LANSING, MICH.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

THE CURE FOR CATARRH COLD IN HEAD HAY FEVER DEAFNESS HEADACHE ELY'S CREAM BALM 50c

The New Model Hall Typewriter,

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Characters.

Remodeled and Improved.

GOOD MANIFOLDER.

The Best Standard Typewriter in the World.

Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interchangeable type in all languages, Easiest to learn and rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIEND.

Everybody should have their writing done on the Typewriter. It always insures the most prompt attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159. N. TYPEWRITER CO., 611 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

THE Steadman BUSINESS COLLEGE

And SHORTHAND SCHOOL TOLEDO, O.

Prepares its pupils for business and then assists them to positions.

136 Students placed with Banks, Wholesale Houses and Railroad Cos. since Sept. '90

Write for full information.

A. H. STEADMAN, Pres.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the City of Adrian, on Monday, the 20th day of June, in the year one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Hugh Harbeson, Emily May Harbeson and William J. Harbeson, minors.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of W. J. Harbeson, an uncle of said minors, praying that Charles Burridge, of Tecumseh, may be appointed guardian of said minors,

It is Ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July next, as nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the next of kin of said minors, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office in the City of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is Further Ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the THE TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy.)
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee—ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Friday, the 17th day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate

In the matter of the estate of John Richard, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Alexander Richard, a son of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to him, petitioner, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July, next, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)
RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of Lewis V. Miller, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Probate Court of said County, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas Burridge, in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 6th day of August, 1892 and and on the 7th day of December, 1892, at 9 o'clock in the fore noon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 7th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 15th, 1892.

MINOR DAVIDSON,
MICHAEL SMELTZER,
Commissioners

DRS. CATLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default of Payment having been made of a mortgage made by Edward Rowland and Elsie Rowland, his wife, to Albert Hyde, Sr, bearing date the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1879, of record in office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 100 of mortgages, on Page 34, on which mortgage there remains unpaid at the date of this notice, of principal and accrued interest, the sum of Eight Hundred forty-four and 62-100ths dollars ($844.62), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken for the collection of the same,

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Michigan, in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the money above named and interest thereon at 8 per cent. per annum and all costs thereon, the costs of this foreclosure and sale, including the attorney fee provided by law, I shall, on the first day of August, A. D. 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan (that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for the said County of Lenawee), all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point in the South line of Logan street, Seventy feet east from the intersection of that line with the East line of Evans street in said Village, thence running South parallel with and seventy feet distant from the East line of Evans street to an alley described in a deed given to Benjamin Farley by Michael A. Patterson and George Spafford; thence East along the North line of said alley seventy feet; thence North to the South line of Logan street aforesaid; thence West on South line of Logan street aforesaid seventy feet to place of beginning—being the same land conveyed by John H. Mills to said Edward Rowland by deed bearing date December 29, 1879, and comprising dwelling house and premises and blacksmith shop and premises thereon.

Dated May 5th, 1892.

ALBERT HYDE, Mortgagee.

CHARLES BURRIDGE, Attorney for Mortgagee. may5

MORTGAGE SALE.

DEFAULT of payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date March 19th, 1889, executed and delivered by Seth C. Randall to Emma Drake, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1889 in Liber 120, of mortgages, on pages 614 and 615, and upon which mortgage there remains due at the date hereof the sum of three hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents (399,60), and no proceedings at law or in equity having been taken to collect the same or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, (which has become operative by reason of said default) and by the Statutes of the State of Michigan, in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon, and costs of this foreclosure and sale including an attorney fee as provided by law; I shall on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the front door of the court house, in the City of Adrian, County of Lenawee, Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the Township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, viz: The south east quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three (23), town six (6), south of range five (5) east.

Dated April 11, 1892.

EMMA DRAKE, Mortgagee.

WOOD & BIRD
Attorneys for Mortgagee. apr14

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of John Allen, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas. Burridge, in Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 16th day of July, and on the 8th day of Dec., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 7th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment

Dated, June 12, 1892.

E. G. PRICE,
WM. RANDALL,
Commissioners.

HEIGHT OF CRUELTY.

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequaled. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvellous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by Baker and Hall.

Every Month

many women suffer from Excessive or Scant Menstruation; they don't know who to confide in to get proper advice. Don't confide in anybody but try

Bradfield's Female Regulator

a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE, SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR

MENSTRUATION.

Book to "WOMAN" mailed free.
BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S DUSKY DIAMOND TAR SOAP

Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing.
Cures
Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc.
Removes and Prevents Dandruff.

AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP.
Best for General Household Use.

ARE YOU SICK?

Also, I will mail 12 days' trial treatment of the famous Australian Electro Pills for only 10 cents equals $1.00 worth liquid remedies for Catarrh, Liver, Kidney or Stomach Trouble, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Constipation, La Grippe and the Nervous System. Full treatment by mail, $1.00. Give symptoms. Special terms to live agents naming this paper. Address
Dr. E. J. Worst, Ashland, Ohio.

WANTED SALESMAN

Good pay. Steady employment. Big advantage over rival concerns; stock guaranteed; no experience needed. Write if you want a good position. Address.
THE GUARANTEE NURSERY CO
GENEVA, N. Y. Lock Box 150.

Dr. Hoxsie's Certain Croup Cure,

The great PREVENTIVE as well a CURE for Croup, Coughs Colds, Whooping Cough, and Bronchitis. Contains no opium. Causes no nausea.
Price 50 cents,
Address A. P. HOXSIE, Buffalo, N. Y.

DEAFNESS & HEAD NOISES cured by Peck's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfortable. Successful when all remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, only, 853 Br'dway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists

ARE YOU CONSUMPTIVE
Use Parker's Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough, Weak Lungs, Debility, Indigestion, Pain, Take in time. 50 cts.
HINDERCORNS. The only sure cure for Corns. Stops all pain. 15c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

A Family Affair
Health for the Baby,
Pleasure for the Parents,
New Life for the Old Folks.
Hires' Root Beer
THE GREAT
TEMPERANCE DRINK
is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening effervescent beverage.
Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good" —'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.
OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

FOR FARMERS.

A Tariff Joker Talks—When Protection Will Help the Farmer.

Hon. R. G. Horr, the "tariff joker" of the New York Tribune, said recently in reply to a question from the Boston Question club:

"I do not claim that the tariff on wheat in the United States at the present time will have very much bearing upon its price so long as we export that article largely. A tariff on that articles just now has very little effect, nor was the tariff placed on wheat with a view of affecting its price materially at the present time. Such, however, was not the case with most farm products. The production of wheat in the United States, in excess of our own consumption, is growing less and less each year. There has been a decline of about 10,000,000 bushels a year for the past ten years. In a little while the entire product of wheat in the United States will be consumed by our own people. The moment that that point is reached the price of wheat will be affected by an attempted importation of wheat from abroad. When that time arrives the farmers of this country will need protection against the cheap labor of India and Russia."

Other republican authorities agree that the tariff is practically of no benefit to the farmer as long as he has to sell a surplus abroad, but that it will benefit him when enough foreigners can be imported to eat up his surplus here instead of in Europe, and they are doing their utmost to bring about this happy state of affairs. They watch with ghoulish glee our dwindling exports of agricultural products, which were $730,000,000 in 1881, and have not reached $643,000,000 since then. The American Economist of March 4, 1892, said: "We are approaching very close to the line where, under normal conditions, our own people will consume all our farmers' produce," and finds consolation in the fact that there are "no more such vast tracts of unoccupied wheat lands as were brought under cultivation during the last twenty years." It thinks that "consistent protection for a few years more will place our farmers in a position where prices of their produce will be regulated independently of Liverpool, Russia and India. When that time comes, and it is close at hand, farmers will be more than ever interested in protection." Again on April 8, 1892, in trying to explain how a tariff could benefit the farmer in the sale of his products, if the duty is not added to the cost, it made this explicit and instructive reply: "By creating a market for him to sell his products in, and by restricting domestic production and foreign imports, while continually increasing the demand for what he has to sell."

What strange, distorted, selfish, un-American and unpatriotic minds these dyed-in-the-wool protectionists have. Instead of being proud that our farmers are able to produce more than we need and have a considerable surplus to sell abroad, they are ashamed of the fact that in spite of the thirty years existence of their system to build up manufactures by tearing down agriculture, our farmers are still able to sell something abroad. These "consistent protectionists" would have each farmer make all of his own tools and surround himself with enough servants and poor relations to consume his entire product. He would then be "independent" and have a "home market" and enjoy that prosperity that is the goal of protectionists.

"But what is the meaning of protection? It means an additional sixpence for each loaf; that is the Irish of it. If he had not the protection, the loaf would sell for a shilling, but if he has protection it will sell for one and sixpence. Protection is the English for sixpence; and what is more it is English for an extorted sixpence. The real meaning of protection, therefore, is robbery—robbery of the poor by the rich."—Daniel O'Connell, September 28, 1843, in his fight against the high tariff corn laws.

SENATOR VEST'S BROADSIDE.

Thirty Pages of Trusts and Wage Reductions in Protected Industries Fired at Republicans.

Tariff items of late are not entirely satisfactory to republicans who worship at the shrine of "protection." The democrats have boldly declared that the system is a superstition and a sham. The prohibitionists have done the same; and the alliance and labor platform will follow suit.

Something must be done to stem the tide setting in against "protection." Republicans must not be content with trying to refute "free trade" and "Cobden club lies" but must do some aggressive work themselves. Spurred on by such sentiments as these Senator Hale, on July 28, concluded to "force the fighting," and as a prelude to his challenge to the democrats, he recited that at "no time has so large a proportion of the American people been employed at so high wages and purchasing the necessities of life at so low prices as in the year 1892." Then he proceeds to shoot at the wicked democrats as recklessly as a boy with a new popgun shoots at flies. After firing blank charges at "British doctrine," "balance of trade," "high prices," "low wages," etc., and triumphantly announcing that "the republicans of the United States gladly accept the issue presented," he sat down ignorant of the fact that every shot had hit a hornet's nest.

Tariff reformers of late have not been satisfied with mere theoretical reasoning, no matter how well founded their theories may be. They have taken the trouble to collect some facts to substantiate their claims. Senator Vest happened to have a desk full of these unrepublican things. He had, in the first place, twenty-one samples of dry goods, coat linings, women's and children's dress goods, cotton sheets, corduroys, etc., prepared by a big New York merchant, showing that these goods, though the foreign price has declined since 1890, are sold higher now than then—in some cases 20 per cent. higher. In the second place he had a few facts in regard to the increased duty on pearl buttons, cutlery, tin plate, etc., and the increased prices on the same. Next he had a list prepared by J. Schoenhof, ex-consul to Tunstall, England, giving the labor cost of producing thirty-nine articles in America and England—the cost in all but eight cases being lower in this country, in spite of our higher wages. Then he had a list of one hundred tariff trusts, prepared by Hon. John DeWitt Warner, of the Republican club, and just printed as a supplement to the New York World. He also had a list of two hundred and fifty wage reductions, strikes, etc., in protected industries since October, 1890, prepared by the same gentleman for the Reform club use, and to be printed when completed in the New York Weekly World.

Loaded with these and other similar facts, Senator Vest did some cannonading that silenced the republican popguns. After he had poured out enough of these facts to fill thirty pages of the Congressional Record, and the smoke of battle began to clear away, Senator Hale found courage to say to Vest that they had trusts in England also and that "before this debate closes, the demonstration will be given to the senate showing his inaccuracy." Vest inquired "why not give it now?" But Hale's ammunition was out and he was compelled to retreat saying, "that was not my original purpose." Perhaps he will bring more ammunition and renew the battle. Perhaps he will prepare a list of 250 increases of wages in protected industries since the McKinley bill became a law. Perhaps he will write up one hundred trusts in England that have raised prices there—often from 25 to 50 per cent.—and that sell goods cheaper to foreigners than at home. Perhaps he will produce several hundred foreign manufacturers and merchants to testify that they are regularly paying our tariff taxes. Perhaps he will be able to show that we are making all of our own tin plate and that the price is lower than ever before. Perhaps he will demonstrate that a duty on moonshine would build up a green cheese industry here. Just now, however, he admits his weakness and lack of facts on these points.

Misfit Facts.

The American Economist, which boasts of being the protectionists' Bible, said June 17, 1892: "We have received a copy of a petition signed by nearly nine-tenths of the wool manufacturers of the United States asking the senate not to pass the Springer free-wool bill. It is a strong document and riddles in a masterly way the fallacies of the free-wool fanatics."

The American Wool and Cotton Reporter, which has almost as strong inclinations toward the protective tariff as the American Economist, but which wishes to do justice to all of its subscribers, said on June 6, 1892: "Our good friends of the Boston Journal are wrong in stating that those manufacturers who have not signed the remonstrance of the 'National Association of Wool Manufacturers' 'are too few and inconspicuous to require attention.' In the state of Massachusetts 169 woolen manufacturers signed the remonstrance and 205 refused to sign." Then, after giving a list of sixteen manufacturers of this 205, the reporter says, "many of these are very important manufacturers;" and then adds that "an analysis of New Hampshire, Connecticut and Rhode Island and other states would show similar results to those above indicated. It is true that very many manufacturers are so weary of tariff agitation that they prefer to endure manifest evils rather than submit to any further change of duty immediately."

These two statements—one from a political and the other from a trade paper that tries to voice the opinions of its constituents—seem to be out of touch, in fact, out of sight of each other.

Tariff Reform Facts.

Addressing a special meeting of the Brussels Syndical union on the 16th of May, M. Auguste Couvreur took up the questions (1) whether it was possible to conciliate the conflicting interests of an individual who naturally desired free trade with every one, but protection for himself, by any tariff that could be devised? or (2) whether it were not better to prefer another solution and protect no one? He took as examples Belgium, Switzerland and Holland, and traced out their physical impediments to industrial development and the progress they had made in spite of them. Summing up, he observed: a "In the table of the world's commerce these three free trading countries take the lead, and in proportion to the liberty on their frontiers. Holland, which has duties of from 5 to 6 per cent. ad valorem only, has a business of 1,000,000 francs per 1,000 of her population; Switzerland of 515,000 francs; Belgium of 456,000 francs; the United Kingdom of 361,000 francs; France and Germany, protectionist countries, follow far behind, the first with 195,000 francs and the second with 157,000 francs per 1,000 inhabitants. The United States then come with 134,000 francs, Italy 87,000 francs, Austria 68,000 francs and Russia 26,000 francs. Commercial freedom has delivered us from the era of famines. Wages have risen; the housing, feeding and clothing of the people have improved. Shall we establish the duties which will bring back the unhappy times we experienced from 1842 to 1850?"

Great Authorities Differ.

The American Economist, the "Protectionists' Bible," said on April 15, 1892: "Ninety-nine per cent. of the great fortunes that do exist here have been amassed in pursuits that are not touched by the tariff."

The New York Tribune used to talk in this way, and to prove that it really believed what it said it some time ago set about preparing a list of the millionasres in this country, classified as to the manner in which they had made the bulk of their fortunes. The list as completed recently shows that out of 4,095 millionaires 1,170 owe their wealth mainly to protected industries. Will the Economist note these figures and revise its estimates, or will it continue its glaring false assertions irrespective even of protectionist statistics?

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by fifty-seven observers in different parts of the state for the week ended July 2 indicated that typhoid fever, membranous croup and cholera infantum increased, and whooping cough, remittent fever, inflammation of the bowels, diphtheria, pneumonia and measles decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at twenty-four places, scarlet fever at thirty-four, typhoid fever at sixteen and measles at ten places.

Tax on Michigan Railroads.

The auditor general has computed the specific tax for 1892 upon the railroads of the state under the Richardson law of 1881. It amounts to $534,256.51, an increase of $55,428 over last year. The specific tax of the special charter roads is as follows: Michigan Central, $134,083.20; Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, $93,434.66; Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee, $25,171.40; Grand River Valley, $14,934; Erie & Kalamazoo, $3,308.94.

Suicide at Bay City.

Some time ago Michael Conlin, a resident of Bay City, jumped into the well to commit suicide, but came to his senses and climbed out. He repeated the act recently, but the curbing of the well having been nailed on he could not climb out, and drowned within sight of his wife, who was attracted to the well by the splashing of water. Conlin had been sick a long time and was not in his right mind. He was 55 years old and the father of ten children.

A New Feature.

Farmers' day, August 9, is a new feature of the assembly programme at Bay View this year. Such distinguished agricultural speakers as Col. J. H. Brigham, Hon. C. G. Luce and Hon. J. J. Woodman will be heard. The secretary of agriculture is also invited. As railroads offer special rates for the assembly the day will probably be improved by farmers and their families as one of unusual opportunity for recreation and profit.

Barrel Stave Works Burned.

Fire destroyed the entire plant of the St. Ignace barrel stave works, comprising several large frame buildings, all the machinery and a number of valuable machines formerly used by the St. Ignace veneer works and owned by the Mackinaw Lumber Company, together with a vast amount of stave bolt and manufactured staves. The total loss was estimated at $75,000; no insurance. Thirty hands were thrown out of employment.

Killed Him with a Stone.

Thomas Fairbairn, a negro employed as a tent man by a small circus which gave a performance at Cheboygan, caught some boys peeking under the canvas. He chased them away, when the son of John Dickman, a well-known citizen, called him a "nigger." Fairbairn became very angry and struck the boy with a large stone, killing him. The negro escaped.

Short But Newsy Items.

Dan Sartwell, the self-confessed Port Huron burglar, was sentenced to ten years in Jackson prison by Judge Vance.

Green goods men were trying to work the farmers in and around Big Rapids.

A post office has been established at Burrows, Branch county, and Nicholas Y. Mast commissioned postmaster.

The post office at Oakwood Park, Wayne county, has been discontinued.

The Episcopal society at Muskegon will soon commence the erection of a $36,000 church.

Sheriff Hilton, of Monroe, arrested George Rieter, of Dundee, and Bell Dean and Sile Austin, of Milan, on a charge of forgery preferred against them by Traverse City parties.

A. C. Harthe is the newly-appointed postmaster at Swansy, Marquette county.

Gov. Winans has appointed Daniel Waehs, of Grand Haven, county agent for Ottawa county.

The Marquette opera house was damaged by fire to the extent of $1,000.

Hillsdale has raised a bonus of $50,000 to get an English bicycle company to locate there.

John Kaienbrander, 19 years old, of Grand Rapids, went bathing and was drowned.

Henry Krogt, an old resident of Holland, died of heart disease while eating breakfast. He was 70 years old.

It will cost Muskegon just $1,000 to run its schools this year.

William James, of Iron Mountain, was drowned while trying to rescue a horse that had run into a lake.

The masonic bodies of Muskegon will build a masonic temple there, costing $100,000. The work will begin at once.

Leo Harry, the 4-year-old son of James L. Harry, was struck by an electric car at Grand Rapids and killed.

Fire destroyed Green & Bros'. nursery packing house and offices at Monroe. Loss about $5,000. A boy and firecrackers caused it.

An incendiary's torch was applied to the rag and iron storehouse of R. Wolff at Bay City, and the loss was $6,000.

The Chippewa County Agricultural society's fair will be held October 11-12.

The report of the state inspector shows a total for the month of June of 446,143 barrels. The total inspection for the year to date is 1,810,430 barrels.

Oliver McConnell, of Vernontville, was assaulted and robbed by highwaymen while walking on the railroad track.

Wool buyers say the unusually rainy weather has had the effect of injuring the wool crop and keeping the price down.

An unknown man, while walking upon the railroad track near Sterling was struck by a Michigan Central log train and instantly killed.

James Livingston, a carpenter employed on the new Young Men's Christian association building at Grand Rapids, was killed by a falling trestle. His head was crushed to a pulp.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $15 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by travelling between Detroit and Cleveland, via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $2.25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making same connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlet. Address, A. A. Schantz, G. P. A., Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

SPECIMEN CASES.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg; doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by J. J. Orr.

"Miss Budd is a very sharp girl." "Yes, indeed. I guess that is why she cuts so many of her acquaintances."

I have been a great sufferer from dry catarrh for many years, and I tried many remedies, but none did me so much benefit as Ely's Cream Balm. It completely cured me. M. J. Lally, 39 Woodward Ave., Boston Highlands, Mass.

I think Ely's Cream Balm is the best remedy for catarrh I ever saw. I never took anything that relieved me so quickly, and I have not felt so well for a long time. I used to be troubled with severe headaches two or three times a week. J. A. Alcorn, Ag't U. P. R. R. Co., Eaton, Colo.

WHY IS THE
W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN
THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY?
It is a seamless shoe, with no tacks or wax thread to hurt the feet; made of the best fine calf, stylish and easy, and because we make more shoes of this grade than any other manufacturer, it equals hand-sewed shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.
$5.00 Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest calf shoe ever offered for $5.00; equals French imported shoes which cost from $8.00 to $12.00.
$4.00 Hand-Sewed Welt Shoe, fine calf, stylish, comfortable and durable. The best shoe ever offered at this price; same grade as custom-made shoes costing from $6.00 to $8.00.
$3.50 Police Shoe; Farmers, Railroad Men and Letter Carriers all wear them; fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, heavy three soles, extension edge. One pair will wear a year.
$2.50 fine calf; no better shoe ever offered at this price; one trial will convince those who want a shoe for comfort and service.
$2.25 and $2.00 Workingman's shoes are very strong and durable. Those who have given them a trial will wear no other make.
Boys' $2.00 and $1.75 school shoes are worn by the boys everywhere; they sell on their merits, as the increasing sales show.
Ladies' $3.00 Hand-sewed shoe, best Dongola, very stylish; equals French imported shoes costing from $4.00 to $6.00.
Ladies' 2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 shoe for Misses are the best fine Dongola. Stylish and durable.
Caution.—See that W. L. Douglas' name and price are stamped on the bottom of each shoe.
TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.
Insist on local advertised dealers supplying you. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by
SOLD BY
HARRIS & HITESHU, Tecumseh.

- - - LADIES - - -

In delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions or of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to my cure, together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The M. U. Pastilles have stood the test of 18 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $1.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr. H. H. Jackson 103 State Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. The name and address will be given any lady asking for the same:

"DR JACKSON,

Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend your M. U. Pastilles to all ladies suffering with female diseases. Having myself been bedfast for ten months and could find no remedy until I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using about two boxes I was well and sound for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady." Gratefully

CURE THAT Cold AND STOP THAT Cough.

N. H. Downs' Elixir WILL DO IT.

Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.
Warranted. Sold everywhere.
HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

If you are troubled with a "hacking cough," Downs' Elixir will give you relief at once. Warranted as recommended or money refunded.

Baxter's Mandrake Bitters cure indigestion, Heart Burn, Costiveness and all malarial diseases. Twenty-five cents per bottle.

Johnson: Been away on a vacation? Jackson: Yes; went down to Medocakkenecasis in Maine. Lots of fishing and that sort of thing, you know. "That's the kind! Any game?" "You bet! Poker every night in the week and all Sunday."

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno Orr.

LAKE SUPERIOR TRANSIT CO
The Great Duluth Route.

Intended sailings of steamers from Detroit for Sault Ste Marie, Duluth and other Lake Superior Ports:—Mondays, 8. P. M.; Thursdays and Saturdays, 10:30 P M.; central time. For Cleveland Erie and Buffalo, Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays; 5 P. M., central time, making railroad connections for all points East and South. Rail Connections at Duluth for St. Paul, Minneapolis, Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railway Points, Pacific Coast, etc. Baggage checked through to destination. For tickets and information, apply to J. T. WHITING, Gen'l Agent. Dock and Office, 33 West Atwater St., near Griswold, DETROIT MICH.

KING OF THE BLOOD

The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.
Cures all Humors, from a Common Pimple to the worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.
Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.
Its name is its best description as it is a regal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.
It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.
It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.
It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the Surgeon's knife.
It cures DROPSY, general or partial.
It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.
It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.
It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons and establishes a sound constitution.
Many certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," in which each bottle is enclosed.
Price $1 per bottle containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses. Sold by dealers in medicine.
If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.
D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors,
BUFFALO N. Y.

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.

It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.
The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.

All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.
It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood. By this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame; every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years.

This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such, that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates of cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.
Price 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.
D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's
Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!

HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan Street, I am prepared to execute
General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds.
HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.
Satisfaction Guaranteed and Charges Reasonable.
A. J. WHITING.

FAT FOLKS REDUCED
Mrs. L. M. Campbell
Argyle, Wis., says:
The accompanying statement of my weight and measurements will show the results of five months' treatment.

	Before.	After.	Loss.
Weight	250 lbs	225 lbs	25 lbs
Bust....	43 in.	33 in.	10 in.
Waist..	40 in.	31 in.	11 in.
Hips....	53 in.	40 in.	13 in.

PATIENTS TREATED BY MAIL. CONFIDENTIAL.
Harmless, and with no starving, inconvenience, or bad effects. For particulars address, with 4 cents in stamps,
DR. C. W. F. SNYDER, WICKER'S THEATER, CHICAGO ILL.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning

BY S. C. STACY.

SHALL WE HAVE GOOD ROADS?

An open Letter to the People of the United States on this Important Question.

The World's Columbian Exposition will be attended by millions of our citizens, and no better opportunity has presented itself, or is likely to present itself, during the lifetime of any one now living, to teach the great lesson of the need, the construction, and the maintenance of good roads.

But under the present arrangement and classification of exhibits the opportunity will be wholly lost.

Any one interested in the subject and endeavoring to learn what he can as to the best methods and machinery to be used in the building of a highway, will probably consult the one hundred and twenty page Catalogue, a Classification of the World's Columbian Exposition: Chicago, U. S. A., 1893; adopted by the World's Columbian Commission, and find classified in Department A. Agricultural Building—area, with annex, thirteen acres.

Group 14, class 69. Models of fences, construction of roads; literature and statistics.

Group 16, class 84, Ploughs and rollers, class 88, Stump extractors, class 89, Traction engines and apparatus for road making and excavating.

Group 19, class 99. Samples of wood for paving; class 102. Timber prepared in various ways to resist decay; class 117. Stump pulling devices.

Department E. Building of Mines and Mining—aera, five and six-tenths acres.

Group 43, class 293, Asphaltite and asphaltic compounds.

Group 44, class 296, Building stones, granites for bridges.

Group 47, class 311, Artificial stone mixtures for pavements; class 312. Asphaltic mastics and mixtures.

Group 64, class 392. Rock breakers.

Group 65; Sizing appliances; class 398. Sieves., class 399, Perforated plates.

Department F. Machinery Building.—area, with annex, fifteen and eight-tenths acres.

Group 77, class 488, Street rollers, sweepers, and sprinklers.

Department G. Transportation Building—area; with annex, over fourteen and four-tenths acres.

Group 80, class 499. Systems of drainage.

Group 83, class 509. Wheelbarrows; class 510, Carts; class 511. Sprinkling carts.

Department L. Manufactures and Liberal Arts Building—area, thirty and a half acres.

Group 147, class 829, Conduits of water and sewerage. Drains and sewers.

Group 152, class 879, Construction and maintenance of roads, streets, and pavements.

Group 152, class 880, Bridges; class 889, Working plans for paving and draining.

In other words, he finds that he must visit five enormous buildings having with their annexes an aggregate area of seventy-nine and three-tenths acres. Some of these buildings are necessarily located at long distances from the others. These buildings and the pathways between them will be thronged with thousands of persons, and the great difficulty of even finding these several special exhibits is apparent to any one who has ever attended any of the great expositions.

Fully realizing this I sent the following letter to the Director-General.

Boston, Feb. 15, 1892.

Hon. Geo. R. Davis, Director-General of the World's Columbian Exposition.

Sir.—I have the honor to suggest to you that strenuous efforts be made to make a comprehensive exhibit of improved roads and road-making machinery at the Exposition. To carry out this plan some of the roads adjacent to the Exposition grounds should be constructed in accordance with the most approved systems used in Europe and this country. Cross sections of these roads should be shown in some suitable place, together with the best machinery for preparing the material, making, and taking care of roads. Stone crushers, steam rollers, street sweepers, watering carts, etc., should be included in this exhibit. I would further suggest that "Road Construction and Maintenance" be classified as a Department instead of a 'class' of one of the numerous 'classes' of Liberal Arts: There should be a building constructed for this Department in which road making and road machinery could be daily shown by skilled workmen, so as to be an object lesson to every visitor. To meet the expenses of such an exhibit, and to provide the necessary building, and to attend to all the details, so as to bring it to a successful issue, it would be advisable to form an association and invite all persons interested in good roads to join and to send in subscriptions. The railroad companies, agricultural societies, carriage builders, builders of road making machinery, furnishers of paving materials, owners and lovers of horses, and the public generally would probably be willing to contribute to such a cause. Personaly I should be very glad to give $1,000 to such an object, and I think there ought to be no difficulty in raising sufficient funds to erect a building and provide means for so important an enterprise. It would be well to give liberal prizes for the best methods and machines submitted. Such prizes would attract the attention of engineers and mechanics throughout the civilized world. An exhibition of this kind would benefit this country incalculably, and its effect would last as long as roads are used. It would give a great impetus to the movement now being made to have interstate roads provided and maintained by national legislation. Looking upon this matter as one of great practical importance I cannot urge you too strongly to give it the careful consideration that it deserves, and should you give the movement your approval, I will gladly cooperate in carrying it out.

Very respt., your obt. serv't.

ALBERT A. POPE.

The reply was as follows; Albert A. Pope, Esq., Boston, Mass. Dear Sir:—Your letter of the 15th of February was referred to me by the Director-General, and I have also yours of the 2d, received 7th, inquiring as to my action in the matter. There can be no doubt that this subject is one of paramount importance to the people of this country. Whether the gravelly soil of Massachusetts, the clays of New York and Indiana, or the prairies of the Mississippi Valley, our common roads are worse than in any other civilized country. No other material interest in the United States rests under so dense a cloud of ignorance. No improvement would so greatly aid the American farmer as that which would give him as good roads as may be found in the poorest districts, say of Ireland and Italy. I have written so much as evidence that I have some appreciation of the subject. What can the Exposition do? How? By what department? In Group 152, class 879, in the department of Liberal Arts, subject Civil Engineering, we find the title Construction and Maintenance of Roads. In Groups 14, class 79, Department of Agriculture, subject, Farms and Farm Buildings, the title, Construction of Roads. The first assignment is from the engineering point of view, the second from the farmer's practical position. The latter seems the most appropriate assignment. What can be done? Your suggestion that some of the roads adjacent to the Exposition grounds should be examples of the most approved systems of road construction is easily satisfied. The boulevards and parkways lately constructed have been built upon the best methods, except, perhaps, that they have not been surfaced with the hardest material. Examples of road making, the processes of construction actually going on, will not be so easily found, as both host and visitors will expect that this preparatory work will have been finished before the Exposition is opened. The attempt to illustrate such work in a large practical way in the Fair ground will occupy considerable room, which it will be difficult to find. The same statement will apply as to the probable site for a building. Doubtless the collection would have much value if the implements and machines for road making were assembled in such a building. They are, however, all provided for in other departments, thus: plows and harrows, class 74; stump extractors, 88; horse-shovels, graders, ditchers, 89; stone-crushers, 329; steam-rollers, street-sweepers, watering-carts, 488, etc. I am of the opinion that the extensive material exhibit which you propose is not practicable within the conditions of Jackson Park. When it is made it will be found to be applicable only to costly roads in the vicinity of large cities, or to interstate roads, built at state or national cost. The yet more important lesson, how to build good and cheap country roads in districts where good materials for road metal are entirely wanting, will not have been reached. Could not a valuable and practical exhibit be made by showing: 1. Statistics of the extent and kind of improved roads made in several European countries; cost of construction and maintenance, with rates of wages, etc. 2. Diagrams and photographs of good and bad roads at home and abroad; and of larger machines used in the work. 3. Sections of good roads: gravel, Telford, macadam, plank, covered with asphalt; paved with wooden blocks, brick, granite blocks, stone slabs, etc. As the methods of construction are the important lessons, these sections need not be long; they might show the curb, gutter, the rise of the road, and the sequence of strata. All these items could be seen on a form, say 40 feet long and 3 feet wide; the length extending from the outer edge of the gutter, towards the middle of the road, and the width extending along the length of the road. 4. Printed matter illustrative of the art of road making, for distribution to such as might wish for it. If an exhibit of such sort could be made, I would try to find a place for it in the Liberal Arts. If that will not answer your purposes, I should have to refer you to the Department of Agriculture. I am quite confident that your proposition to make a separate department, with a house, grounds, and a collection of machinery, will not be entertained for lack of opportunity. I shall be glad to assist in any scheme that seems to be practicable under the conditions and limitations of the Exposition, and recognize that your offer of pecuniary aid is very generous. I send you in another cover a copy of the General Classification. Yours very truly,

SELIM H. PEABODY,
Chief, Department of Liberal Arts.

The main buildings will be dedicated Oct. 12, 1892, and the Exposition is to opened May 1, 1893. In these intervening months there is ample time to erect a suitable building in which can be grouped all the things which would be useful in educating the people how to build good roads. Every State ought to send cross sections of roads, showing the construction best adapted to the particular locality, taking into consideration the most available material of which to build roads. Examples of country road bridges should also be shown. A comprehensive road exhibit at the Exposition would be the most powerful factor to bring about national and State legislation for the construction and maintenance of good roads.

It now remains largely with the press of the country whether or not the matter shall be agitated so as to give the people a clear and full understanding of this most momentus subject. When the importance of it is once realized, I venture to predict that it will become one of the leading issues of the time, far transcending in practical importance the tariff, silver coinage, or Republican or Democratic rule.

Very respectfully,

ALBERT A. POPE.

Boston, May 25, 1892.

In order to stimulate American composition, The Ladies' Home Journal has just made public an attractive series of liberal prizes for the best original musical composition by composers resident in the United States and Canada. The prizes call for a waltz, a piano composition, a pleasing ballad and a popular song, an anthem and the four best hymn tunes. The competition is open until November 1st, next. The opportunity has an additional attractiveness since the prize compositions will form part of a series for which Strauss is writing an original waltz, and Charles Gounod and Sir Arthur Sullivan each an original song.

MINOR NEWS ITEMS.

For the Week Ending July 11.

Fire practically destroyed the new mining town of Bowabic, Minn.

The democrats of the First district of Kansas have nominated Ed Carroll for congress.

Flames destroyed one-half the town of Christiania, Sweden, the loss being $3,500,000.

For the first time in the history of Dayton, O., all the saloons were closed over Sunday.

Richard Thomas, who was the oldest man in Iowa, died at his home in Marion, aged 111 years.

The corn crop of Texas would, it was said, be enormous—the largest in the past fifteen years.

A fire at the tannery of Wedkind, Hallenberg & Bros. in Louisville, Ky., caused a loss of $200,000.

Mrs. Annie Broderick and her three children were suffocated in a fire at their home in New York.

Five car manufacturing companies effected a consolidation at New York with a capital of $8,000,000.

Prof. Calvin, of the state university, has been chosen as Iowa's state geologist to conduct a new survey.

The Ainslie Milling Company at Portland, Ore., failed with liabilities of $500,000 and assets of $700,000.

George Smith was hung at Sherman, Tex., for the murder of Marshal Isbel, of Bells, Tex., in January, 1891.

By the falling of a roof in a mine at Wilkesbarre, Pa., John Williams, John McCaffery and Thomas Jones were killed.

The great bicycle race from Paris to Nantes and return, a distance of 622 miles, was won by Allard in 68 hours 28 minutes.

Smith Tooley and John L. Adams (colored) were hanged by a mob at Vicksburg, Miss., for killing a merchant named Blake.

Justin McCarthy, the leader of the anti-Parnellites, has been defeated for parliament by a small majority in the Derry borough.

At Cheyenne, Wyo., Richard Fleury, a soldier, killed Jennie Poiguette because she refused to marry him and then killed himself.

Bud Blount, of Newton county, Mo., under sentence to be hanged July 12, has been respited until September 16 by Gov. D. R. Francis.

President Harrison has signed the bill appropriating $50,000 for the erection of a statue of the late Gen. W. T. Sherman in Washington.

Edward O'Kelly, who killed Bob Ford, the slayer of Jesse James, was found guilty at Lake City, Col., of murder in the second degree.

Cook & Waitby's circus was wrecked near McGregor, Ia., and thirty valuable horses were killed and several of the show people were injured.

A flood in Fukushina, Japan, submerged 1,000 houses, swept 600 bridges away, drowned thirty-four persons and inundated 4,000 acres of rice.

Five persons were drowned in the bay just off Bedloe's island, New York. They were in a small rowboat and were struck by the steamer Cephus.

Ravachol, the anarchist who was convicted of destroying M. Very's restaurant with dynamite and sentenced to death, was guillotined in Paris.

The Texas World's Fair association has decided to abandon all future attempts for the representation of the state at the Columbian exposition.

In a fight between a force of Chilian cavalry and a large number of armed bandits thirty-one of the latter were killed and as many more wounded.

The Marshall county (W. Va.) almshouse was partially destroyed by fire and Wesley Holmes and E. Duncan, two of the inmates, perished in the flames.

Elmer Foighner and Barbara Bolden were married at Huntington, Ind. The bride had three hours' before been granted a divorce from her former husband.

The specific tax for 1892 upon the railroads of Michigan, as compiled by the auditor general, amount to $534,256.51, an increase over last year of $55,428.

From June 28 to the 9th inst. 565 deaths from cholera were reported from various localities in Turkestan and 150 deaths occurred in France from the same disease.

Heavy Loss in Business Houses.

BETHANY, Mo., July 9.—At noon Friday fire destroyed the largest part of the business district of Bethany. The loss will amount to $100,000. Among the burned stores were the following: Phillips & Sturn, hareware, $16,000; W. L. Blackburn & Co., groceries, $25,000; F. M. Smith, drugs, $8,000; Athenæum building, $10,000; Odd Fellows' building, $10,000.

Suicide of a Judge.

MOUNT VERNON, Ind., July 11.—Judge Jeptha D. New, of the Indiana appellate court and democratic candidate for judge of the supreme court, Second district, shot himself through the heart at his home in Mount Vernon at 6:30 o'clock Saturday morning and died instantly. Ill health is assigned as the cause of the deed.

A Double Suicide.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 11.—Gustave Potts hanged himself from a tree near here Saturday morning, while simultaneously his wife Anna suffocated herself to death by the use of a gas stove at her home. It is believed their death was the result of preconcerted arrangement.

Found Dead Beside Her Bed.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., July 9.—Miss Nannie Niccolls was found dead beside her bed at the home of her brother-in-law, H. H. Peasley, in this city. She was the daughter of the late Walter Niccolls, for thirty years a prominent farmer near Merna. Heart disease was the cause.

Nancy Hanks Trots in 2:11 1-4.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.—About 6,000 people traveled to Belmont course Thursday afternoon and saw Nancy Hanks trot a mile in 2:11¼, after two preparatory miles in 2:27 and 2:21½.

Continue To Agitate.

The papers do well to continue agitating the matter of improving the country roads. This information is contributed to the subject: The boards of trade of Knoxville, Tenn., has made the suggestive computation that bad dirt roads cost the people of that one commonwealth more than $7,000,000 a year. From other tables made upon other statistics it is also declared that on a gravel road a horse will draw nearly one and a half times the load and on macadam over three times the load, he can draw on the common dirt road. The losses from time consumed, from wear on beast and vehicle and from repairs in indirect ways fall principally, of course, upon those engaged in agricultural pursuits. The average cost which produce-carriers bear in hauling to the Knoxville market from the surrounding farming region is estimated at $7.50 a load. This average, as authoritatively stated, could be reduced one-half upon good dirt roads and five-sixths over good macadam roads. That is to say, one of the chief expenses borne by farmers is doubled through the extravagant economy which perpetuates poor roads. It is, comparatively speaking, a saving of cents and spending of dollars. The amount of money annually lost in this country from coast to coast through badly kept highways can only be guessed at, but it is something enormous.

Rappahannock's Drummer Boy.

ALBION, Mich., July 7.—Special Telegram,—At the reunion of the Ninety-eighth Michigan Infantry and the Calhoun County G. A. R. Batallion here today the following resolution was unanimously passed:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Calhoun County G. A. R. Batallion, recognize in Robert Henry Hendershot, a member and comrade, the only true and genuine drummer boy of the Rappahannock and that General A. E. Burnside gave him the above title for gallant conduct at the battle of Fredricksburg, on the 11th, 12th, and 13th, of December, 1862.

We condemn as unjust, unmanly, and uncomrade-like the actions of certain jealous individuals in their attempts to belittle his services and record during the war when but a mere boy, from 11 to 15 years of age. We consider him all that he claims to be and fully indorse such claims, feeling that in so doing we honor ourselves and our organization.

Resolved, Further, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to Robert Hendershot.

C. L. SMITH, Colonel,
Commanding Calhoun County Battalion.
COLONEL J. C. HALL.
H. F. GILBERT, Adjutant.
L. G. RAFTER, Quartermaster.
C. J. MURRAY.
B. B. COOK.
M. DOOLITTLE.
WILLIAM H. GIFFORD.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Woman's Relief Corps also unanimously adopted the same resolutions. Major Hendershot to-day met at least thirty of his old regiment, who recognized him as the boy who went to the front with them when but 11 years of age in 1861. Persons were here to attempt to pass a resolution against Hendershot, but their plans were frustrated.

The Detroit Journal has just secured a new feature that will undoubtedly attract considerable attention. It is a bright story of war times and thereafter, by Hon. James W. Hine, now U. S. Consul at Amherstburg, and widely known in Michigan as a gallant soldier, former state senator, editor and politician. It's title is "The Shadow," and it is compactly and simply written, without sensationalism, but with no flagging of interest in any part.

Neuhausel Bros.' store on Summit street, Toledo, was destroyed by fire last Friday night. It was one of the largest dry goods stores in Toledo and the loss on the goods will reach $125,000. It was by far the hottest and most destructive fire Toledo has had in years, wiping out an old landmark, in the building. It was the old Peoples' theater, for years the only place of amusement in the city. The total insurance was $112,000.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St. N. Y.

REAL ESTATE
AND
Newspaper Subscription Agency

For anything in either line apply to

VINCENT WOOD, TECUMSEH.

SUMMER HATS

STRAW HATS,
SOFT HATS,
STIFF HATS.

For Men and Boys—All Styles and Qualities.

Hot Weather Clothing An Endless Variety of Styles and Qualities.

Cassimere Suits in All the Latest Styles and Colors for Men, Boys, and Children.

THE LARGEST LINE AND LOWEST PRICES AT

STRONG & McNAIR'S.

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS

I will sell your choice of my extensive line of

Hanging Lamps

at cost. I can show you the best assortment of

HAVILAND CHINA,

plain and decorated patterns, in dinner and tea sets, also in fancy pieces. Decorated English porcelain in 12 different patterns, and in sets to suit. A fine English decorated chamber set at the very low price of $2.90 for 10 piece set; $4.90 for 12 piece set.

My stock of Fancy Groceries is complete. Our customers say we have have the best 50c tea in town. Come and get sample and see for yourself. Will not be undersold.

JAMES LOWRY.

We have never had such a fine array of harvest machines to show farmers as this season. Every one shows inventive skill, strength and symmetry derived from the touch of

WALTER A. WOOD.

The Wood machines, as made for 1892, are winning crowds of new friends. Examine the new chain-drive, and balance-reel, on the Wood harvester. Examine the new spring lift and the new axle extension on the Wood mowers. Examine the Wood hand-dump rakes, virtually self-dumping.

REASONS WHY

FARMERS SHOULD BUY

Walter A. Wood Harvest Machines

BECAUSE they are light of draft.
BECAUSE they are easily operated.
BECAUSE they are simple in construction.
BECAUSE with care they will last a life time.
BECAUSE they are THE WALTER A. WOOD.
BECAUSE they have a world-wide reputation.
BECAUSE great care is taken in their manufacture.
BECAUSE they do not require the aid of an expert.
BECAUSE they contain all the latest improvements.
BECAUSE they can be operated by man, woman or child.
BECAUSE they are made of the best and strongest materials.

M. E. CONKLIN, Agent.

Headquarters at D. L. Whitenack's Hardware.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FOR SALE.—A No. 1, double grip Westcott Drill Chuck, opens at ⅝. P. J. WELLING.

PAY YOUR TAXES.—Will be at the HERALD office each Friday during the month of July to receive village taxes. T. B. KYLE, Marshal.

MONEY TO LOAN.—On long time. Apply by letter to Lock Box 15, Tecumseh, Mich

DRESSMAKING.—Mrs Waldron and daughter, Mrs. Harris, can be found at their home ready to wait upon the ladies in the line of dressmaking. Give them an opportunity to do your work. Residence two blocks north of Presbyterian Church.

HAIRDRESSING. Madame Grime, hairdresser, of Detroit, is at Mrs. Gamble's.—Manufactures and has for sale all styles of hair goods. Prices very reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. 1w

MUSTANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, Tecumseh.

SLAYTON'S ODOMETER:—"A Customer from Ontonagon, Mich., writes A. W. Slayton—'Have used your Odometer a year, am well pleased and want more of them.'" These instruments are now in use in nineteen states. Let them tell how many miles you or others drive your horse. Address, A. W. SLAYTON, Tecumseh, Mich. Agents Wanted.

TECUMSEH HERALD.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JULY 14, 1892.

Local and Miscellaneous

Fine harvest weather.

A. W. Slayton now sports a bicycle.

Lester Tribou and J. S. Temple were Toledo visitors last Monday.

The Adrian wheelmen took Tecumseh by storm last Monday evening.

The Lenawee county Maccabees will picnic at Devil's lake August 3d.

Rev. E. B. Sutton, of Seattle, Wash., was in town a couple of days last week.

The Co. C. boys are drilling three nights a week now, getting ready for camp.

Prof. Fred Boyd is canvassing Tecumseh for a new book and is meeting with good success.

Mrs. I. A. Boynton and son Fred are spending a few days with their friends in this village.

Satterthwaite Bros. have a new card in this week, which are readers will do well to examine.

Misses Agnes and Mate Baker, of Detroit, are the guests of Mrs. E. C. Rogers this week.

Prof. W. J. Cupples and family are spending the vacation at his father's in Raisin. Mr. Wm. Cupples.

If good weather prevails, the bulk of the wheat in this section will be in the shock by next Saturday night.

Steve Walker went to Brooklyn yesterday to take a few days recreation in the hay and harvest field on the old farm.

The Commercial Savings Bank of Adrian have a new card in this week's issue to which we invite the attention of our readers.

Marshal Kyle had a good "first day" on taxes last Friday, having received nearly $500. He will be at this office again to-morrow.

Prof. Daniel Satterthwaite, of Canandaigua, N. Y., is spending a few weeks sharing the heated term with his numerous friends in Tecumseh and Raisin.

Jennie Root's music class is booming right along. In addition to her home class of 25 scholars she has lately organized a new class in Franklin which now numbers eight pupils.

We are indebted to the President Mrs. Belle M. Perry, for a copy of the proceedings of the last session of the Michigan Woman's Press Association, held at Battle Creek.

Sam Henry's horse, "Prince Henry," took first prize at Dansville, Ill., July 4th. He was entered in the 2:23 class and took best three in five; time 2:28¼, 2:29¾ and 2:30. The purse was $500.

Prof. Lyster H. Dewey and wife, of Washington, D. C., were in town over Sunday. He returned on Monday, but his wife will remain here for a few weeks visiting at her father's, H. C. Spalding's.

To-morrow and Saturday, July 15th and 16th, will be big days at Bawbeese Lake when the Northwestern Rowing Association's Regatta will take place. Special trains will be run on all roads leading to Hillsdale.

John O'Neil is still carrying on his butter and egg business at Dundee. He now lives in the village, which he finds much more convenient than living on a farm. He is on the road with his team three or four days each week, and he is occasionally called to Toledo, where he makes most of his sales. John is evidently prospering.

A friend of ours makes the following suggestion in regard to the band reunion, which we consider a good idea; that the G. A. R., Co. C., and all the firemen of this and surrounding towns be invited to take part in the big parade along with the bands. A procession could be organized on this basis that would eclipse anything ever seen in Tecumseh.

H. C. Frick, chairman of the Carnegie steel company, is 42 years of age, and about five feet six inches high. Twenty years ago he was a poor man, making coke on a small scale in the Connellsville coke region; but in time he became the king of that industry and locality. Five years ago Mr. Frick became chairman of the firm of Carnegie Brothers & Co. His net revenue is said to be two or three million a year.

Anderson & Co., have a change of ad this week.

P. S. McKinnon is now taking lessons on a Victor Safety.

There are only four prisoners now in the County bastile.

Eddie Corey has gone to Peru, Ind., to spend the summer.

What is on the tapis for the benefit of the Library? What is it?

Harry Martin, of Chicago, was visiting his Tecumseh and Macon friends last week.

This is a dull week for business, but the farmers are improving it to good advantage.

Mrs. C. D. Hobart and son and Mrs. W. P. Hawley were the guests of Mrs. L. L. Bates over Sunday.

W. H. Osborn's and J. F. Hicks' families, with their guests from abroad, spent last Saturday at Sand Lake.

We have received the premium list of the Michigan State Fair, which will be held at Lansing September 12th to 16th.

Prof. C. F. Skinner arrived in town yesterday from Fayette and will remain here most of the time until the band reunion comes off.

A little Quaker has arrived at the home of Rev. David J. Lewis. If he inherits his father's talents he will make a preacher some day.

Mrs. Jno. Orr, Sr., and little grandson returned Saturday night from a week's visit with her son Albert at Kunkle, Ohio.

Mrs. W. H. Osborn, Jr., of Milwaukee, and Mrs. H. C. Lowe, of Colorado Springs, with their children, are the guests of W. H. Osborn's family for a few days.

The Republicans will hold a township caucus this evening at the Council Rooms to elect six delegates to attend the County Convention to be held next Saturday.

People who complained of the rain a while ago now complain of the dry spell, and the man who was too cool a month ago is now too warm. This is a queer world.

The Eaton Rapids Camp Meeting will begin on Thursday, July 21, and close on Sunday, July 31st. Dr. S. A. Keen, Chaplain McCabe and other noted men will be there.

The Davidson Bros. sold four binders and one mower on Monday last and two of the binders were at work before night. A pretty good day's work and Jehiel was sober, too.

We are indebted to Thomas McClure for copies of the Pittsburgh papers containing a very full account of the great riot at Homestead. Thomas says that everything is O. K. with him.

Landlord Emery, of the Emery hotel at Adrian, says he wants 50 boarders for the next four months, to pay two prices or nothing, contingent on the result of the national election, he favoring Cleveland.

The barn authorized to be built on the poor farm, by the board of supervisors, is completed, and is a handsome structure. With all the bills presented, and the insurance paid in advance, the cost comes forty cents inside the appropriation.

We made Dr. J. B. Haynes, of Dundee, a short call yesterday afternoon and found him O. K. and the family all well. Although not hurried as he was during the grip season, he has a good ride. The Doctor is enjoying a large regular practice there now.

First Assistant Postmaster General Whitfield states that the department will esteem it a favor if persons receiving "green goods" circulars will turn them over to the most convenient postmaster, to be forwarded by him to the department.

The proper way to care for lawns is to go over them with a roller before using the lawn mower, then do not rake off the grass. Following this method, it is said, will give the sod that velvety, springy condition that is the beauty of lawns and parks in England and France.

The fourth article in the remarkable series of papers on "The Great Capitals of the World," now running in Harper's Weekly, will be a description of the city of Geneva, by Edward Rod. It appears in the number of the Weekly published July 13th, and will be richly illustrated.

July 22 the stockholders of the Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw railway company will meet in Toledo to vote on the question of leasing the road to the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad company. It is the general opinion among railroad men that the lease will be made.

Mrs. Uri Decker died Sunday at her home at Wolfe Creek, aged 84 years. The funeral was held at the Wolfe Creek church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Decker was one of the old pioneers. She came to Michigan from New York state 59 years ago with her husband, whom she has survived six years. She leaves eight children to mourn the loss of a good, Christian mother, loved and respected by all who knew her.

Our statement in last week's HERALD that Prof. Fred Boyd had been Principal of the Michigamme school and was re-engaged was not correct. Prof. Farrah is Principal of the Michigamme school and Prof. Boyd is located at Spurr Mountain, another school in that vicinity. Both will return to the same schools next year. The error is one easily made by a person not acquainted with the local geography of that section.

Fred Rosacrans was in Battle Creek, Friday.

B. F. Graves, of Adrian, was a visitor here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rogers are visiting at Troy, N. Y.

Mrs. W. H. Wiggins, of Adrian, visited in town Friday.

Jno. Heesen and family visited Mrs. Bell, at Ypsilanti, last week.

Seth Bean and Richard Watts were in town Monday on legal business.

Mrs. Geo. Everett and Joe returned Monday evening from a visit at Dayton, Ohio.

Chas. Montgomery, who is running on the lakes this season, was home over Sunday.

Mrs. Emily Hall and Miss Emma Hall are visiting this week at Mrs. Wiggins' in Adrian.

Alonzo Bean's remains were brought here from Jonesville for interment Monday last.

This is the sixth year that Marshal Kyle has taken village taxes at the HERALD office.

Vincent Bryan, of Neosho Falls, Kan. is spending a few weeks at his brother's, Frank Bryan's.

E. F. Gamble, M. D., left for Detroit Monday, where he will take a position in Grace Hospital.

Elsworth Arnold, of Belford, O., is spending his vacation here with his father, N. C. Arnold.

Misses Hattie and Lizzie Dodds, of Detroit, are spending the week with Mrs. P. S. McKinnon.

Dr. Harland, V. S., of Fremont, O., assisted Dr. Waldron last week in some difficult veterinary operations.

Mr. C. M. Tilton can furnish all parties wishing them with white lily bulbs at ten cents a bulb, if taken before July 18th.

A party of about a dozen young Tecumseh ladies is spending the present week at the DeWolf cottage at Sand Lake.

Prof. and Mrs. E. A. Wilson drove out from Paw Paw Saturday. They will spend most of their vacation in this vicinity.

S. D. Nesmith and wife arrived in town Monday. Mrs. Nesmith will make an extended visit with her father, Fred Burger, of Macon.

Prof. W. E. Warner of Saginaw, Mrs. J. E. Mandy of Detroit, and several other friends are visiting Mrs. E. J. Morrison and family.

Jerry Root, who has been identified with the growth and success of the Globe Mill for the last 27 years, resigned his position there last Saturday. Will H. Hayden is keeping the books there at present.

Misses Coddington, Fisher, Benedict, Keyser and Taylor, accompanied by the Misses Pattison of Port Huron, go to Detroit this, Thursday morning, to attend the National B. Y. P. U. Convention, and to visit Mrs. S. L. Lester of that city.

Mrs. M. A. Freeman respectfully requests all persons indebted to her to call and settle all accounts made prior to 1892, without delay. If not settled within thirty days, they will be put in process of legal collection.

During a brief call at Dundee the other day, we found our old Tecumseh friend C. H. Gainsley at the old stand selling dry goods. Business has been good all the spring, and although a little easy during harvest time, he considers the outlook first rate for the season of '92.

An exchange gives the following method for freezing ice cream: If the preparation desired to be frozen is placed in a tin bucket or other recepticle, it can be readily congealed by putting it in a pail containing a dilution of sulphuric acid and water. Into this put a handful of common Glauber salts and the resulting cold is so great that a bottle of liquor will be frozen solid in a few minutes and ice cream or ices may be quickly and easily prepared.

Sixty-five wheelmen wheeled over from Adrian Monday night and partook of the hospitality of the Lilley House. Among the wheelmen were about a dozen ladies who were courageous enough to make the trip despite the dust and heat. A delegation of our Bi Club met the visitors a short distance south of town and escorted them into the village and after a short rest the visitors were treated to a banquet at the Lilley House. They remained here during the evening waiting for the moon to rise, and left for home shortly after ten o'clock. It was a fine evening for a ten mile spin and the time spent here was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The new Hotel Pocklington, at Dundee, was opened for business May 2d. last, and it has already established a fine reputation among traveling men. The house occupies the large brick-block built during the past year on the site of the last fire. It is very nicely arranged, has a fine office and reading room, a large dining room and a good sample room for drummers on the first floor; also a roomy kitchen. Besides these general rooms it contains about twenty sleeping rooms, with a bath room up stairs. The house is furnished in a style that would do credit to a town of ten thousand people, and is well managed in every detail. Mr. Pocklington evidently knows how to keep a hotel.

—$60.00 IN CASH PRIZES.—Send ten cents for the June number of the "Literary Century" giving full particulars. Address THE LITERARY CENTURY, Ann Arbor, Mich.

—Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention.

GEO. MATTESON

—I have a very complete stock of Hay Tools, Rakes, Tedders, Racks, Carriers, Forks, Rope, Pulleys, etc., and prices right. C. A. SLAYTON.

—You will make no mistake in using Heck's Peacemaker Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands. HECK & SON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call a C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—90,000 Star-A-1, shingle for sale at $3.25 per M. O. P. BILLS.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—You will need to work your corn well this year and should have the best cultivator. You can find them at C. A. SLAYTONS.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch. Give me a call. GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds. CITY BAKERY.

—When looking for a Hay Rack see the "Avery." It is complete as a Hay or stock Rack having a bridge to load stock or heavy articles. It makes a complete double wagon box with matched bottom and all changes are easily made. SLAYTON & AVERY.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains. NEW LAUNDRY.

—Tintypes taken at Teeple's Gallery.

—Call and see the New Styles in Oak Chamber Suits at Stebbins'.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices. CITY BAKERY

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice. WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Life size Crayon Portraits given away with every dozen Cabinets, AT TEEPLES' GALLERY.

—Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town. CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on BLESSING BROTHERS.

—$3.00 gets a life size Crayon portrait and one dozen fine enamel finish cabinet photos, at Teeple's Gallery.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial. BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—I want the farmers to remember I am still in the Mower and Binder trade and still have the agency for the "McCormick" line. The number of Machines sold is a good indication of how the farmers like them. In 1891 the McCormick Co. sold 121,780 machines. Come in and see the machines for yourself. C. A. SLAYTON.

—Prof. C. S. Morrison, of Golconda, Ill., has been chosen Musical Director in the Fayette Normal University. He received his musical education at the Boston Conservatory, is an author of some note and vice-president of State Musical Association of Illinois. He is an experienced instructor, a brilliant pianist, and teaches both band and stringed instruments. He writes that he expects to make the Musical College of the F. N. U. one of the best in the State.

Do You Think of Painting This Season?

We Can Show You The Most Handsome And Best Paints Made.

Call and get Prices and Sample Card of Colors. C. A. Wright.

Warm Weather Has Come

I Have Added to my Stock a Large Invoice of

Ladies' Hand-Sewed Shoes, Men's and Boys' Fine Shoes, Mens' Working Shoes, Misses' and Children's Shoes:

Ladies' Walking Shoes.

In Endless Variety and Suited for Warm Weather Wear.

Summer Coats and Vests And Summer Outing Shirts. A Large and very Handsome Assortment. Come to headquarters to get your Warm-Weather Clothing.

Yours for Trade, Alva Spayde.

To Save Money, so as to go Outing later, go to Harris & Hiteshue's for Summer Dress Goods, Walking Shoes, Slippers, and Underwear of all kinds. An Elegant Stock always on hand.

HARRIS & HITESHU.

Ask at Our Store for a New BISSELL BOOKLET New Ideas Put in a Bright, Brief Way

Fly Nets, Lap Dusters, Croquet, Tennis, Freezers, Refrigerators.

Screen Doors and Windows, Bicycles, Guns, Rifles, and Ammunition.

Satterthwaite Bros.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WIGHTMAN, Attorney at Law Successor to F. B. Wood, Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD. ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Fred F. B. Wood. John E. Bird,
Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLEMENT E. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.

WEAVER & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Practice in all the Courts.
Masonic Temple. Adrian, Mich.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—Being now located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to calls in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. G. W. GOODRICH, V. S.

C. C. SLAIGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON. A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College, Residence, 1½ miles east of Pennington's Corners; all calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY.
J. H. EMERY, Proprietor,
Adrian, Michigan.
This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

RICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL.
Late The Madison.
Cor. of Jefferson Avenue and Randolph street,
Detroit, Mich.
J. D. RICE, Prop. R. C. SPRAGUE, Clerk.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Three lines of street cars pass the door.
RATES—Meals 25c. Per day, $1.25 and $1.50
Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 141 O.O.F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. E. Anderson's store, Chicago street. WM. GRAY, N. G.
R. HOLDWAY, Cor. Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV. J. DeWITT BERRY, Pastor.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Preaching in the forenoon at 10:30; Sunday School at 12 o'clock; Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome
Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Young People's Meeting. Come one, come all and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—

Special attention given to ladies' and childrens' hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.

—THREE CHAIRS—

Landgraf building. Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN
HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN
PAINTING
AND PAPER HANCING
Call on THEO. P. WOOD, 57 E. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first-class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of
Railroad Street Meat Market!
Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.
GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN
Drugs, : Paints : Oils
AND VARNISHES.
N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded.
At the Old Corner Store, RIDGEWAY, IGAN. nov

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY.
MANUFACTURER OF
And Dealer in
Carriages, Buggies,
SURRIES, SPRING WAGONS.
ROADCARTS
SULKIES, CUTTERS, ETC.
TECUMSEH, Pearl Street, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER,

SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.

LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth. Crowns, Filling and Building-Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

B. F STEINHOFF'S
Dental Rooms.

OVER BAKER & HALL'S.

CAS FOR EXTRACTING.
LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co.'s Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.

EXAMINATION FREE!
Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.
Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.
Remember, office over Avery & Co.'s.
W. D. REED, D. D. S.
He Will at Onsted every Wednesday.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN OR WOMAN

of intelligence and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight, but who has Lost the Most Precious Possession on Earth, viz., GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT require a SECOND TELLING to be induced to become a purchaser

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC
BELTS & APPLIANCES.

Do you know why? Because it is plain to be seen that the TRUTH ONCE TOLD is enough. The Surprising Promptness with which all classes of people respond to our announcements and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods wherever introduced, conclusively prove that true modesty is always recognized and the quality of merit takes care of itself. Metaphorically our statement is the Button—the Public Press it, and

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES
"Do the Rest."

The extent of Pressure on the button and the success of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" is most satisfactorily shown in the marvelous growth of our business the past 60 days.

Repeated and increasing demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming in from all parts of the country with profuse acknowledgements that so much comfort for $1.00 (the price) is like buying Gold Dollars for ten cents.

The Delicate Organism of Woman subjects her to many peculiar ailments and unfortunate misery. The extreme sensitiveness of her Nervous System very frequently requires artificial stimulus. The Gregg Electric Belt and other Appliances supply this as nothing else can.

The Rugged Constitution of Man, when once broken, becomes pitiable in the extreme, from which there is absolutely no escape without assistance. The Gregg Electric Belts and Appliances in cases of this kind, have honestly won their title of King of Remedies.

Rheumatism is conquered, sufferers from Obesity are speedily relieved, Dropsy quickly yields, spinal difficulties and Paralysis disappear, and many other diseases of Men and Women are permanently cured as described in complete catalogue for 6c, or elaborate circular free. We guarantee to forfeit twice the price of any of Dr. Gregg's Goods found not the genuine. We make an elegant little $3 Electric Belt, which is selling very rapidly and which we take in exchange for any higher power belt (except $5 belt), and credit $3 on the price of new order. Remember the Electric Foot Warmers are $1 a pair, worth $10. Address

THE GREGG ELECTRIC CURE CO,
501 Inter-Ocean Building, Chicago, Ill.
and mention this paper. J 11-tf.

Two Bottles Cured Her. VI
CARROLL, Iowa, July, 1889,
I was suffering 10 years from shocks in my head, so much so that at times I didn't expect to recover. I took medicines from many doctors, but didn't get any relief until I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic; the second dose relieved me and 2 bottles cured me. S. W. PECK.

Recommends It to Many.
SEYMOUR, Ind., Oct. 1, 1890.
My daughter became epileptic about five years ago through a fright. All physicians' treatment availed nothing, until I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, which at once dispelled the attacks. It is the best remedy I ever used and I have recommended it to many of such as are suffering from this dread disease.
MARTHA ZICKLER.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.
This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and now prepared under his direction by the KOENIC MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5
Large Size $1.75, 6 bottles for $9.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Work of the Lawmakers at the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Appropriations and the tariff were discussed in the senate yesterday. A house bill to provide for the care of dependent children in the District of Columbia was passed.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The sundry civil bill ($39,797,798) was reported to the senate yesterday. A resolution for final adjournment July 20 was introduced, and a bill was passed to increase the pensions of those who have lost limbs in the service of the United States. The conference report on the river and harbor bill was agreed to.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—In the senate yesterday a resolution was discussed for an investigation of the Homestead (Pa.) affair. Items in the sundry civil bill appropriating $500,000 for the government exhibit at the world's fair and $320,000 for the national commission were passed.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—A bill was passed in the senate yesterday changing the date for the dedication of the world's fair from the 12th to the 21st of October next. Twenty pages of the sundry civil bill were disposed of.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The senate on Saturday passed the bill referring to the court of claims the claim of Jessie Benton Fremont for certain lands and the improvements at Point San Jose, San Francisco. It was voted to appropriate $10,500 to Chief Justice Waite's widow and $10,000 each to the widows of Justices Miller and Bradley.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The entire day was wasted in the house yesterday in fruitless efforts to get a quorum that would vote on the motion made by Mr. Bland to refer the silver bill to the committee on coinage.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—In the house yesterday the river and harbor conference report was agreed to. Filibustering prevented any action on the silver bill.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A resolution was passed in the house yesterday to investigate the Homestead conflict. The senate free silver bill was referred to the committee on coinage, weights and measures, and the anti-option bill was referred back to the senate without amendment.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—In the house yesterday bills were passed reducing the duty on tin plate and making it free after 1894; limiting the amount of wearing apparel which travelers may bring into this country free of duty; amending the land forfeiture bill of 1890, and providing a local government for Utah.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—In the house on Saturday the conference reports on the post office and pension appropriation bills were agreed to. The latter bill carries an appropriation of $146,737,350.

RECIPROCITY IN CANADA.

The Government Adopting Mr. Blaine's Policy in Certain Imports.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 8.—Hon. Mr. Foster, the minister of finance, brought down to the house of commons the tariff resolutions, which imply that the government is adopting Mr. Blaine's reciprocity policy in certain articles imported from the West Indies. The duty on molasses below forty degrees is increased so as to make the importation of the crude material almost prohibitive. Oleo and some other articles used by tanners will be admitted free, likewise crude lime and fruit juice. A duty of 5 cents on eggs is imposed. This will restrict the spring importation of American eggs. Another resolution gives power to the government, when deemed in the public interest, to suspend certain provisions of the customs act in so far as they provide for the remission of the duties on sugar, molasses and tobacco, when imported from any country, which it may be shown does not accord to Canada the most favored nation treatment; and to order that during such suspension, sugars, molasses and tobaccos shall be subject to certain duties. The resolutions were criticised by the liberals but finally reported. They go into effect at once.

Set a New Mark.

CHICAGO, July 11.—F. E. Spooner completed his wearying twenty-four hour bicycle ride at the Parkside cycling track Saturday afternoon with a record of 11 miles and 16 yards better than that of Waller, who gained the world's championship with a record of 303 miles and 1,590 yards in California a short time ago. Spooner has now established the record of 374 miles and 1,605 yards for a twenty-four hour continuous ride.

Raised the Cash.

CHICAGO, July 11.—The completion of the $1,000,000 subscription for the university of Chicago by July 10, on which conditional contributions of large amounts depended, was accomplished at noon Saturday by Maj. H. A. Rust, vice president of the university and a member of the board of trustees, pledging himself to give $50,000.

Fatal Smashup.

MONTREAL, Can., July 9.—By a smashup on the Canadian Pacific Henry Gaynor, 15 years old, was killed. Adolphe Brouillard, 17, and Eli Brouchard, 24, were fatally wounded. Seven carloads of flour, shipped by D. Morrison & Co. of Minneapolis, were destroyed, a number of cattle were killed and much railroad property destroyed.

Nineteen Killed.

GENEVA, July 11.—On the lake of Geneva the boiler of one of the steamers at her pier at Oneby exploded. Nineteen of those on board the steamer were killed outright and forty were injured. Many of the passengers were blown into the lake, from which they were rescued by small boats which put out from the shore.

Died at the Age of 131 Years.

MERIDIAN, Miss., July 9.—A remarkable case of longevity terminated Thursday by the death of Addison Moore, a venerable colored man, who claimed to be 131 years old. His appearance and conversation on bygone days gave credence to his claim.

A GRAND ARMY.

Christian Endeavor Hosts Assemble in New York.

Fully 20,000 Delegates From All Parts of the Globe Are Present—Report of the Secretary—Addresses by Prominent Persons.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The eleventh international Christian Endeavor convention which opened yesterday afternoon in the Madison Square garden promises to be the largest religious conference ever held in this country. Over 27,000 delegates from all parts of the world are in attendance. The annual report of General Secretary Baer shows 25,000 societies against 16,247 one year ago, and a total membership of 1,370,000. Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., of Maine, president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor and originator of the movement, delivered his annual address.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The second day's proceedings of the great convention of the Christian Endeavor society began with early morning prayer meeting at 6:30 o'clock, which was attended by about 2,000 delegates. The regular session opened at 9 a. m. At 10 o'clock over 12,000 delegates were in their seats. After the usual prayer and praise service, conducted by Rev. Dr. B. B. Tyler, of New York, came the feature of the programme termed "the pastor's hour." This consisted of two-minute addresses on the relations of the Christian Endeavor societies to the different denominations to which the members belong.

Then the roll-call of state, territorial and provincial unions was called and representatives from societies all over the world responded, telling of the progress of Christian Endeavor of their respective places.

Rev. Joseph Cook, of Boston delivered an address on the subject "Watchwords for the Twentieth Century."

After Mr. Cook's address recess was taken to 2 p. m. Half-minute "testimonies" opened the afternoon session. A delegate from California was the first to speak. He said: "We have the most flourishing Junior Christian Endeavor society in the country," and this was an index of the "testimony" that followed during the hour given to this feature. Mrs. Francis E. Clark, of Auburndale, Mass., wife of the president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, next read a paper on "Junior Christian Endeavor," in which she explained the purpose and methods of the junior society.

Whitelaw Reid, republican candidate for vice president, came upon the platform at this point, wearing a badge of the Christian Endeavor society. He was introduced to the convention by President Clark and was received with a waving of handkerchiefs and cheers. Among other things Mr. Reid said:

"Our forefathers, who laid the foundation of the civil and religious liberty we enjoy, were men who planted their fortifications on every hillside as they advanced to the conquest of the continent. You all know what those fortifications were—the schoolhouse and the church. (Applause.) Let us guard them as our fathers guarded them, and we shall preserve the fair heritage we have received and transmit it in our turn, grand and beneficent beyond their thought or ours, to the latest generation of men." (Loud applause.)

The banner for the greatest proportionate increase of societies during the last year was presented to Oklahoma; the banner for the greatest absolute gain in one year to Ontario; largest number of junior societies secured a banner for Illinois.

The evening session began promptly at 7:30 o'clock. The convention hall was packed in every part with delegates, fully 16,000 succeeding in getting into the garden. The praise service was led by Mr. L. F. Lindsay, of St. Louis, and Mr. Sankey sung as a solo "Ninety and Nine" amid great applause. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Black, of Missouri.

Postmaster General John Wanamaker came upon the platform at the conclusion of the prayer. He received an ovation from the delegates and bowed and smiled in acknowledgment. Mr. Wanamaker became the presiding officer of the sesion, occupying the president's chair in the center of the platform.

At the conclusion of his address Mr. Wanamaker introduced Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, who was greeted with great enthusiasm. When the applause had at last subsided Mr. Depew spoke of the power for good possessed by the Christian Endeavor society.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The last day of the great convention of Christian Endeavor societies began at 9 o'clock Sunday morning with a prayer meeting in the Madison Square garden, conducted by Mr. H. B. Pennel, of Boston. About 10,000 delegates were present, and after several prayers and much hymn singing the meeting adjourned at 10:15 o'clock to enable the delegates to attend regular services in the different evangelical churches of the city. The afternoon session at the garden began at 2 o'clock. President Clark presiding. Fully 15,000 delegates were in attendance despite the intense heat. After the prayer and praise meeting brief reports were received from the committee conferences under the direction of Mr. William Shaw, treasurer of the United society, who reported that the greatest enthusiasm had been manifested by the delegates at the different denominational rallies held during the convention.

Addresses were made by Ira D. Sankey, John G. Woolley, of Minnesota; E. R. Young, of Toronto, and Rev. Dr. Barrows, of Chicago. The convention then adjourned to meet next year in Montreal.

Saturday's meetings were devoted to reports of missionary efforts by individual delegates. Vice presidents were selected to represent each of the state and provincial unions. In the afternoon denominational rallies were held in nearly two dozen receptions. The evening was devoted to receptions at nearly all the state headquarters.

The democrats of the Third district of Georgia have renominated Charles F. Crisp for congress.

A FIERY FURNACE.

St. Johns, N. F., Nearly Wiped Out by Flames.

Five Hundred Buildings, Including Nearly All the Prominent Ones, Consumed —The Losses Will Be $12,000,000.

RED RUIN.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 9, 2 a. m.—This city is being practically wiped off the face of the earth by an extensive fire which is now raging. A high wind is blowing and sweeping the flames with a force and rapidity which cannot be checked by any power within the city, and it is impossible to obtain help from any other place.

The high wind, carrying live embers in every direction, ignited a score of fires at once, so that within half an hour from the first outbreak the fire department and people were utterly helpless and the center of the city was abandoned to its fate.

This is the fourth great fire which has visited St. Johns. In February, 1816, a large part of the town was destroyed. In the following year there was another big fire, with losses of $2,000,000. But the greatest conflagration of all was June 19, 1846, when 2,000 houses were destroyed, involving a loss of $4,000,000.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 11.—Authentic data relative to the great fire show that in some respects the previous reports were overrated, while in some cases the facts disclose a worse state of affairs than even rumors indicated. It develops that the magnificent Catholic cathedral was not destroyed, and the Union bank is also safe.

The fire was the result of a lighted match being carelessly thrown down in a stable at the head of Long's hill. No rain had fallen for several weeks previously and the flames, carried by a strong wind, made rapid headway. So rapidly did the flames spread that hardly was there time for the people to flee for their lives, while buildings hundreds of yards off were being fired in every direction by the flying embers. The burned area extends from Beck's cove to Hoylestown, every business house in this section being destroyed. From the military road to the water's edge nine-tenths of the houses are burned.

It is known positively that twenty persons perished. Six were drowned, while eight men and six children were burned to death. Probably the fatalities amount to a great many more. At this time it is impossible to learn the names of any of those killed. Inquiry is being made on every side for persons who are missing.

The losses will amount to about $12,000,000. The insurance will cover about one-half the loss.

The following streets were wiped out: Military road, Duckworth street, Prescott street, Queen's road, Cochrane street, Gower street, King's road, Cathedral hill, Long's hill. The principal buildings, houses and hotels burned are as follows:

Bryden's, Bowring Bros., J. & W. Pitts, Goodfellow & Co.'s, Ayre & Sons, G. Knowlton, Baine, Johnson & Co.; Baird's, Thornburnets, Tessier, Cliftwood & Co., Hearns & Co., the City club, Harvey & Co., Stott's grocery, McMurdoc & Co., chemists; Atlantic hotel, the American consul office, the Gordon house, H. P. Welsh, Ryan & Co., the Army and Navy depot, Bearnes & Co., Aldridge's hotel, the Royal hotel, the Market house, the courthouse, custom house, March & Sons, Shea & Co., Booking's premises, Pitt's steamer wharf, soap and tobacco factory, St. Johns tannery, Costal steam wharf, Lindberg's brewery, Union and Commercial banks, Commercial exchange, all the law offices and doctors' residences, the school of art, the principal home mission, and merchants' offices and insurance agents' offices.

There are 15,000 people absolutely homeless, with no shed even to shelter them and no food to eat. The men are suffering most, for they have fought for hours the terrible flames without food to eat or a second to rest, and that in a heat so frightfully intense that hundreds of them, brawny, brave, seafaring men have fainted from exhaustion. Physicians cannot attend the suffering men, they are so numerous, and unless some one sends food to the people at once the terrors of the calamity will be even greater.

From Hearts's Content, the cable station on Newfoundland, comes word that a village called Cats Cove, consisting of twenty-eight houses, and 7 miles from St. John's was wiped out of existence Saturday night. The flames had been carried there by the burning forests.

The fires in the forests are sweeping with terrible effect along the country, and the villages in the path of the flames cannot be saved. The condition of affairs is thus made terrible to contemplate. Nowhere is there anything like order, and the passing vessels are anchoring off the coast and sending their crews ashore to assist the people, who are so thoroughly demoralized and exhausted that they cannot help themselves. There are all about St. John's many villages, large and small, that, if wiped out, will make the total loss much greater, and the few reports seem to indicate that nothing can save them in the path of the flames raging in the forests.

Cleveland's New Secretary.

BOSTON, July 11.—Robert Lincoln O'Brien, of the Boston Transcript, has just been appointed private secretary to ex-President Cleveland and will enter at once upon his new position at Gray Gables, Buzzard's Bay. Mr. O'Brien is a native of Abington, Mass., and is about 27 years of age and a graduate of Dartmouth college.

The Failure Record.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the seven days number 176, as compared with totals of 197 last week. For the corresponding week last year the figures were 247.

Dragged to Death.

ST. JOE, Tex., July 11.—Cal Johnston, while roping a cow, became entangled in his lasso and was dragged a mile or more by the infuriated animal. When found his brains were dashed against the rough ground.

CARLETON, Mich., Aug. 29, 1890.
Dr. O. J. Fay & Co.:
Gentlemen,—This is to certify that the undersigned, have been troubled with weak lungs and take cold easily. I have used Dr. Fay's New Treatment for consumption and can say that it is the best medicine I have ever used for the lungs, and would recommend it to all afflicted with lung trouble. I have also used it for a small girl who was considered in the first stage of consumption and it cured her.
LUKE DUNN,
Chairman Board of Supervisors, Monroe County.
Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Dissatisfied Passenger (on the L): Say, where's the smoking car? Policeman: Conductor: Front end of the train, sir, but it doesn't smoke. It uses anthracite. Twenty ninth street!

PRONOUNCED HOPELESS, YET SAVED.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

Penelope: Why do you say Charlie Nixon is like a spy glass? Perdita: Because I can draw him out, see right through him, and when I am tired of him shut him up.

The greatest worm destroyer on earth is Dullam's Great German Worm Lozenger, only 25 cents per box. For sale by John J. Orr.

GILLETT'S
MAGIC YEAST
will make BETTER BREAD than you have ever made.
GOOD BREAD generally means GOOD YEAST always means
Look for the Owl and Moon.

STRENGTHENING
AND BLOOD PURIFIER
antidote for Loss of Appetite and Weakness; pleasant to take; a favorite tonic with the ladies. For sale by all druggists. One bottle. PREPARED BY Dr. J. H. McLean Med. Co.
THE CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN
Catalogues on application
Chicago Cottage Organ Co.
223 WABASH AVE.
CHICAGO, ILL.
A GOOD SEAMSTRESS IS A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY
AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS ONE OF OUR NEW SEAMSTRESS
SEWING MACHINES
FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS
National Sewing Machine Co.
SUCCESSORS TO
JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.
Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines

Bigger and Better Than ever is
JOLLY TAR
PLUG CHEWING TOBACCO
Those who have used it stick to it. Those who try it regret not having tried it before. It is a full 4 oz., plug.
Ask For Jolly Tar.
Jno. Finzer & Bros.
Louisville, Ky.
15 CENTS PER BOX, GUARANTEED.
HYA HEADACHE POWDERS
FOR SALE BY JOHN J. ORR.

FARMERS AND THRESHERMEN
Catalogue FREE.
All the Latest Improvements. Cushioned Steel Tire, Return Flues, ½ Feed Never Traction, Plain or on Skids.
3,000 IN USE and never an explosion.
BUY THE NEW HUBER ENGINES
ALL SIZES THRESHERS.
VICTOR HULLERS,
New Imperial Stackers,
G. C. POCKLINGTON,
Agent for southeastern Michigan,
State headquarters, R. Shettler,
Lansing, Mich.

GILLETT'S

MAGIC YEAST

will make BETTER BREAD than you have ever made before.

POOR BREAD generally means POOR YEAST
POOR YEAST always means POOR BREAD

Look for the Owl and Moon. At your Grocer's

STRENGTH AND VIGOR FOR YOUTH AND OLD AGE

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S

STRENGTHENING CORDIAL AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

An antidote for Loss of Appetite, Loss of Flesh and Weakness; pleasant to the taste and a favorite tonic with the ladies. Price $1 per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

PREPARED BY
Dr. J. H. McLean Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo

THE CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN"

has attained a standard of excellence which admits of no superior. It contains every improvement that inventive genius, skill and money can produce.

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

These excellent Organs are celebrated for their volume, quality of tone, quick response, variety of combination, artistic design, beauty in finish, perfect construction, making them the most attractive, ornamental and desirable organs in the world for Homes, Schools, Churches, Lodges and Societies.

Catalogues on application, FREE.

Chicago Cottage Organ Co.
223 WABASH AVE.,
CHICAGO, ILL.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS IS A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS ONE OF OUR NEW

SEAMSTRESS

SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS

National Sewing Machine Co.

SUCCESSORS TO
JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.

Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

O. A. SPRAGUE & SON, Attorneys and Solicitors of Patents in United States and foreign countries. Correspondence solicited. Inventions Pamphlet free. 22 and 24 CONGRESS ST., DETROIT, Mich. Established 1865

PATENTS

PUNISHING A THIEF.

How a Burglar Was Very Cleverly Trapped.

As a member of the "special staff" to whom is intrusted the duty of dealing with telegraph business at race meetings and other events of irregular and itinerary occurrence, I have visited most towns of any importance in England, and have been a spectator of, and in some cases a participator in, some curious incidents, one of which I propose to relate here. Many of the most successful meetings, from a racing-man's point of view, are those held at places otherwise of very little size or importance. As an example, it will be sufficient to mention Epsom. It was to a town in the Midlands ordinarily containing about six thousand inhabitants, that I, with five colleagues, including a supervisor, was ordered in the autumn of 187-. The event was a two-day race meeting. The first day was fine, with occasional showers; the racing was good, and as a large company was present, we had enough to do not only at the grand stand, but also later in the evening at the town office, whence we dispatched a large quantity of press-work by means of a "Wheatstone," which had been sent for the purpose. It was eleven o'clock before we finished, and we then had a good half-hour's walk to our lodgings.

The second day was awful. Rain fell in torrents the whole afternoon. Of course the programme was carried out; but, beyond official results and "received' messages, we had very little to do. It is the only day I can remember during which our boss did not stir out of the office. He generally contrived to have some business to transact outside about the time fixed for each race. This day, however, the persistent downpour was too much for him. After the third race, he sent me to one of the reporters on some business. I found my man in the weighing-room, a small temporary wooden shed at the back of Tattersall's ring.

When I entered, the jockeys were being weighed in, and there was apparently some difficulty or dispute, as the process was an unusually protracted one. I waited, leaning against the back wall of the shed, and as I did so, became conscious of voices whispering outside. I caught the words: "A bloke with a big red nose and one eye;" and my attention was arrested at once, for this was a description of our counter-clerk. I listened attentively and with increasing astonishment. The voices were those of two men; and the gist of their conversation was that a plot which had been formed to rob our office of the cashbox on the previous day had failed, owing to the fact that Harper, our counter-clerk, had taken the box into town early in the afternoon, instead of, as was the practice, at the conclusion of racing. He had, however, been closely watched, and seen to place the box in the local postmaster's safe at the town office. The safe was in the room in which we worked in the evening, and was an old-fashioned, almost obsolete contrivance. All our movements must have been very diligently followed, as the men knew not only the exact position of the safe with respect to the doors and windows, but also at what hour we closed the office, and the whereabouts of our lodgings. They had also ascertained that no one remained during the night in or near the room where the safe was.

The upshot of the conversation, which occupied less time than it has taken me to relate it, was that the town office was to be entered that night as soon after we had gone as would be considered safe. Entrance was to be effected from the back yard, through the window of a small room adjoining the larger one in which we worked. Further details I failed to overhear, as the dispute at the weighing-chair, which had gradually grown warmer, now waxed loud and furious. Taking advantage of the noise I slipped out and hurried to the office. Taking the boss to one side, I told him all. He was for informing the police at once, and having the place guarded and the thieves scared off; but, after a lot of persuasion, I talked him over, convincing him how much more to his credit it would redound if he himself captured the robbers red-handed and unaided by the police. I expounded to him a plan, the main idea of which had struck me at the first moment, to which he listened attentively, and occasionally smiled approvingly. When I ended he said: "It would do very well but for one thing. It involves three of us remaining concealed in the office."

I assented.

"You say they watched us leave last night," he went on, "six of us? What will they think if only three leave to-night?"

I was nonplussed.

"I rather like the idea," resumed the boss; "but I think we should have help. Suppose we get a couple of Schinken's men?"

Sergeant Schinken was a kind of semi-public, semi-private officer with a staff of men, who were largely employed by race committees in the task of preserving order in the inclosures, and including bad and doubtful characters. They traveled about from meeting to meeting like ourselves, and in this way a sort of intimacy sprang up.

"Oh, they'd just be as bad as the locals," I said. "They'd want to boss the whole affair, and very likely spoil it. I'll tell you what: I'll ask three young fellows I know to come and have a game of cards at our diggins to-night. I'll tell them to call for us at the office half an hour or so before we close. At closing time we can make some excuse, and send them off with our own three men, whilst you, Harper and I remain."

He still hesitated. I could see he was again more than half inclined to let the police deal with the matter. Of course his responsibility was heavy; and should anything go wrong, he would certainly be severely censured. I had, however, the utmost confidence in my plan, and would or could see no possibility of failure; so that, eventually, I succeeded in gaining his consent. This done, I was only anxious for the racing to conclude that we might get down to the town and prepare our surprise party. At five o'clock the final race was run; and an hour later we were hard at it in the town, wiring full accounts of the day's doings. Only the three of us already mentioned knew of the projected attempt and our counter-plan; and we, convinced that we would be overlooked, assumed to the bent of our abilities an ordinary manner and bearing. Harper produced as usual his cash-box and sheets, counted and balanced his account, telling the money, which amounted to about eighty pounds, out on the counter before him. Finally, he replaced it in the box, which he handed to the boss, who placed it in the safe, closing, but not locking, the door.

Meanwhile I had quietly and unobserved procured a box very similar to Harper's, and after partly filling it with some odd pieces of metal I fastened one end of a long wire to its brass handle. I prepared another similar piece of wire. Ostensibly for working purposes, I had gathered all the batteries at our command underneath the counter, and when the work was over I quietly knelt down and joined them all together in series. At the same time I fastened one end of my spare wire to the negative pole of this monster battery, and then standing up and leaning over the counter succeeded, unnoticed, in attaching the other end of the wire to a narrow brass rail which ran along the top edge of the counter. I must explain that in order to reach the safe from the pantry door, as we called it, it was necessary to pass almost the entire length of this counter, and of course to repass it in returning.

The hour for closing arrived. My three friends had been waiting some time. Everything being ready the boss sent our three colleagues home, saying we would follow shortly. The three guests went with them. It was still raining and they hurried off. The gas was immediately turned off, and I at once opened the safe and removed the cash box, which Harper put in a place of safety, and substituted the one I had prepared with the length of wire. There was plenty of slack wire, which we brought round the back of the safe, over the other end of the counter, fastening the free end to the positive pole of the battery.

All was now ready. We hid behind the counter and waited. Harper, who was very bitter against the thieves on account of their unflattering description of himself, took up his place close to the Wheatstone transmitter, a clockwork machine driven by heavy weights, and capable of attaining a very high speed.

An hour passed. It struck twelve. The rain was still beating against the windows. I was stiff and cold and weary, and was beginning to wish we had called in the police, when I heard something a trifle louder than the rain at the pantry window. There was a quick scratching sound like a nail drawn across a slate, and immediately after we heard the window latch slipped back and the sash quietly raised. The men were certainly expert at their work. Had we not been alert and expecting them, we should not have heard their operations. In a few moments the pantry door opened with a gentle creak, and the marauder was in the room. We held our breath. Confident in his knowledge, the man had no light save what came from the windows. He approached the safe, and could not altogether suppress an exclamation of surprise and delight at finding it open. He was destined for more surprise and less delight shortly. Peeping carefully over the counter, I could just discern him in the dim light, with the box in his right hand, turning to retrace his steps. As I had anticipated, and indeed reckoned on, he stretched out his empty left hand to guide himself along the counter, and—seized the brass rail. As he did so the full force of the battery struck him. "Blazes!" he shouted, or rather yelled out. He tried to let go the rail, but in vain. Then he tried to drop the cash box, but that stuck to him too. He began to hop about, and stamp, and groan, and swear, and pray continually and all at once. We could hear the cash box thump and rattle against the floor or counter as the current jerked his arm spasmodically to and fro.

At this point Harper quietly turned on the transmitter and pushed the lever over to top speed. Anyone who has heard an instrument of this description set in motion at its maximum speed knows what a sensation of coming disaster is given by the rapidly increasing revolution of a score of wheels which gather speed and force and noise until it seems as if the whole machine will burst up by excess of velocity. Imagine the effect this had on the nerves of the man already in the grip of some mysterious, unfightable agony. Of course he jumped to the conclusion that the noise indicated some fresh increase of his torments. He began to scream for mercy. "Oh-h-h! Help me! Murder! Oh, gentlemen, stop it! Don't kill me! Help! Help!" He writhed and struggled, fell on his knees, and, by an enormous effort, tore the rail from its place; but the battery wire still held on. For a time his cries and struggles redoubled; but at last he lay exhausted on the floor. I then turned off the current and we turned on the gas. There lay our man, his face gray and distorted as though he had had a fit. He was quite young. After he had somewhat recovered he begged hard to be let go, gasping out: "You've done it hard enough on me."

After some hesitation the boss decided to let him go. I fancy he was not quite at his ease as to how his action would be regarded by the department. Another reason was that the second man had got clean away. He had been waiting outside; but on hearing the disturbance and his pal's cries had fled and left him.

The man was grateful for his release and walked slowly and heavily away. He was evidently severely shaken, and I should scarcely think would ever try to rob a telegraph office again.—Chambers' Journal.

—It is quite appropriate that men should enter walking matches for the gait money.

A BLOODY WAR.

Pinkerton Men and Strikers in Battle in Pennsylvania.

Both Sides Fight Desperately—Twenty Men Killed and Many More Are Wounded—The Pinkertons Finally Surrender.

KILLED EACH OTHER.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 6.—A revised list of those killed and injured in the riot here Wednesday shows six workmen and five Pinkerton men killed, and thirty-six of the former and 143 of the latter wounded. The death of those most seriously injured may swell the number of fatalities to twenty. Most of the injured Pinkerton men received their wounds after they had surrendered. When the train arrived to take them to Pittsburgh one of the leaders of the strikers said to the crowd gathered around:

"Boys, we are going to send the Pinkertons away. Many claim they were deceived in coming here. They are all hurt and crippled, many dangerously. Do not repeat the scenes of Wednesday afternoon. None of the men who went to the front hit unarmed people from the rear as cowards did yesterday afternoon."

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 8.—H. C. Frick, manager of the consolidated companies, has declared that "under no circumstances will he have any dealings with the Amalgamated asssociation as an organization: 'This is final.' This means that Carnegie's immense works will in future be operated by non-union labor.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 9.—The town was quiet yesterday. At a meeting of the strikers William Wiehe, ex-president of the Amalgamated association, advised the men to allow the law full power to act and allow the sheriff to take charge of the works. Mr. Brennan, attorney for the association, said there were but two courses for the strikers to take. The first was to permit the sheriff and his deputies to enter the mills and take possession. The second was to forbid the sheriff to go into the mills, and if he attempted to use force to keep him out. This last would necessitate the calling out of the militia. "In this event," he concluded, "you will be shot down like dogs. You cannot withstand the law. It is too powerful. Attempt it and you will be defeated in the strike."

The cooler men are advising the strikers to permit the sheriff's deputies to come in peaceably and take possession of the works, but if it be granted the strikers insist as a condition precedent that the deputies shall neither be numerous nor well armed, and that they shall not make a move to protect men whom the firm may wish to introduce.

The strike at the Carnegie steel mills is a costly affair to both the company and the men. The product of the mills when they are running in full blast is valued at about $88,000 a day. The cost of running the mills is from $19,000 to $26,000 a day. For wages every day is expended from $15,000 to $20,000, and about $4,000 worth of material is used when the mills are running on full time. The company is understood to figure its loss of profits at $6,000 or $8,000 a day and the men lose something like $15,000 every day they are idle.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 11.—The entire division of the national guard of Pennsylvania, about 8,000 men, has been ordered to Homestead to support Sheriff McCleary in suppressing the riots at that place. Gen. Snowden, commander of the national guard, with the adjutant general and quartermaster general, at once proceeded to formulate the orders for the mobilization of the guard. Some troops will be under way early this morning.

THE ST. LOUIS BRIDGE.

Two Foolhardy Men Leap from Its Heights—One Is Killed.

ST. LOUIS, July 11.—Two jumps were made Saturday from the highest point of the Eads bridge into the Mississippi. One was successful, the other fatal. Kearney Speddy, a local swimming-school teacher, jumped from the center of the bridge. His foot caught in a telegraph wire and he turned over three times; yet he struck the water, hands before his head, disappeared, soon rose, and was taken into a waiting boat uninjured by his daring feat. An unknown man about 35 years old jumped from the west pier of the bridge about 1 o'clock. Before any of the skiffs that put out after him could reach him he sank and was not seen again.

Republican Executive Committee.

NEW YORK, July 8.—W. J. Campbell, chairman of the republican national committee, has named the national executive committee as follows:

The chairman, W. J. Campbell; the vice president, M. H. De Young, of California; the treasurer, Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York; the secretary, Thomas H. Carter, of Montana; J. S. Clarkson, Iowa; Garrett A. Hobart, New Jersey; Samuel Fessenden, Connecticut; Henry C. Payne, Wisconsin; Richard C. Kerens, Missouri; William O. Bradley, Kentucky; William A. Sutherland, Joseph H. Manley, Maine, and John R. Tanner, Illinois.

Col. King Must Hang.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 8.—Col. Clay King, lawyer, soldier and author, must hang by the neck until dead on August 12 for the murder of David H. Posten, a lawyer of this city, in March, 1891. The supreme court of Tennessee has affirmed the decision of the lower court and sentenced Col. King to be hanged.

An Entire Town Wiped Out.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 9.—The town of Troy in Gilmer county was wiped out of existence early Friday morning by fire. The post office, hotels, Wiants big supply store and a number of dwellings are all in ashes. Loss $60,000, with no insurance except on the supply store.

A Victim of Apoplexy

BOSTON, July 11.—Col. Charles E. Blount, of Washington, D. C., a retired officer of the United States army, dropped dead of apoplexy in the vestibule of Trinity church at 10:30 Sunday morning.

SAVED A GIRL IN THE FIRST STAGE OF CONSUMPTION.

A MEDICAL MAOPINIONN'S FROM QUEEN'S COLLEGE, LONDON.

What Dr. J. Bazzett, who has practiced 46 years, says of Dr. Fay's New Treatment for Consumption: "I have used it and seen it used in many cases with the greatest success, and I can recommend it to those afflicted with consumption and all other diseases that it is recommended for.

DR. J. BAZZETT,
Graduate of Queen's College, London.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Rising Author: Is my manuscript hard to edit? Editor: No, it requires only a second's work to every other page. Rising Author: Erasing a word on it? Editor: No, putting it in quotation marks.

MARRIED.

Miss Hannah Roe and Samuel Doe were married in a neighboring village last week. Among the wedding presents was a bottle of Parmelees Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure from a thoughtful friend who had given it a thorough trial and knew its great worth for the cure of dyspeptic attacks, and who knew how necessary it was for domestic happiness that such complaints should be prevented. You can buy a bottle of this valuable and effective remedy of your druggist.

PARMELEES' CONDITION POWDERS will do your stock good. Full pound 25 cents. Sold by dealers.

IS YOUR APPETITE GOOD?

Or are you weak and debilitated? Try Parmelee's Mandrake and Dandelion Bitters. Only 25 cents a boottle.

THE SUN IN JULY

is very trying to the complexion of many ladies. Freckles, pimples, tan and sunburn are removed and the complexion freshened by the use of Hamilton's Oriental Balm. Absolutely harmless to the skin. 50 cents.

AT THIS SEASON OF THE YEAR

Look out for Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and all forms of bowel difficulty. You should have a sure remedy in the house ready for instant use. Parmelee's Essence of Jamaica Ginger will give immediate relief. Perfectly safe for children. Contains no laudanum or paregoric. Sold by dealers.

THE EXTREME HEAT OF SUMMER

Frequently brings to the surface evidence of impure blood unsuspected before. Parmelee's Sarsaparilla is the Great Blood Purifier and builds up weakened constitutions. It is only 50 cents for a large bottle and is well worth your trial.

IF YOU SUFFER FROM PILES

It is your own fault. Parmelee's Pile Suppositories will positively cure if used according to directions. Your druggist is authorized to guarantee them. Physicians use them largely in their practice. Hundreds of testimonials. Only 50 cents a box. Sold by dealers or by mail postpaid. Parmelee Medical Co., Dansville, N. Y.

Frenchman: The lady to whom you introduced me is charming. Is she well connected? Chicagoan: Well, I should say so. She's the wife of several of our first citizens.

A misstep will often make a cripple for life. A bottle of Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment at hand, will not prevent the misstep, but used immediately it will save being a cripple.

AT BEDTIME I TAKE A PLEASANT HERB DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

ACHE

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE

HOW TO SUCCEED.

This is the great problem of life which few satisfactorily solve. Some fail because of poor health, others want of luck, but the majority from deficient gift—want of nerve. They are nervous, irresolute, changeable, easily get the blues and "take the spirits down to keep the spirits up," thus wasting money, time, opportunity and nerve force. There is nothing like the Restorative Nervine, discovered by the great specialist, Dr. Miles, to cure nervous diseases, as headache, the blues, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, fits, and hysteria. Trial bottles and fine book of testimonials free at Baker & Hall's.

Uncle Wayback: Now, wot's the use o' teachin' gals all these new-fangled studies? Wat good is this 'ere astronomy your're studyin'? City Niece: Why, uncle, it's a delightful subject to talk about on moonlight evenings. We point out Venus and then the young man says something pretty, and then—see that ring.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L. S. & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15. 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 115. Mail.	No. 117. Express.	No. 149 Acc'om.
Jackson.....Lv	6 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M
Napoleon	6 30 "	2 26 "	1 15 "
Norvell	6 37 "	2 34 "	1 27 "
Manchester	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 55 "
Clinton	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 35 "
Tecumseh	7 15 "	3 15 "	3 15 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 52 "	4 30 "
Detroit	10 10 "	6 20 "	.....
Toledo	9 15 "	4 40 "	10 25 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 8:00 p. m

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 116. Mail.	No. 118. Express.	No. 148. Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 25 A.M.	6 00 P.M.	.....
Toledo	9 50 "	7 50 "	.....
Adrian	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M
Tecumseh	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton	11 21 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 00 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 28 "	10 30 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.
A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati Jackson & Mackinaw Ry

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT MAY. 30, 1892.

EAST. No 29 Pass	EAST. No. 23 Pass	EAST. No. 21 Pass	Central Time. STATIONS.	WEST. No. 22 Pass	WEST. No. 24 Pass
		A. M. 10 50	L....Allegan....A	P. M. 1 00
		11 15	Monteith	12 35
	A. M. 11 55		Yorkville	11 55	A. M.
	5 45	12 23	Battle Creek	11 28	1 25
	6 27	12 54	Marshall	10 59	12 33
	7 03	1 22	Homer	10 32	11 48
A. M.	7 45	1 58	Hanover	10 02	11 08
4 50	8 40	2 27	Addison	9 30	10 15
5 00	8 51	2 31	Devils Lake	9 24	9 54
	9 17	3 05	Tipton	8 58	9 14
5 38	9 50	3 14	Tecumseh	8 44	8 58
	8 35	3 27	Ridgeway	8 35	8 40
5 51	10 07	3 28	Britton	7 20	6 30
6 12	10 35	3 50	Dundee	8 10	8 00
7 00	12 10	4 45	A.....Toledo.....L	8 31	8 51
P.M.		P.M.		A. M.	P. M.

Train No. 29 Sunday only. Train No. 22 Daily Trains Nos. 22, 21 and 24 except Sunday. Close connections are made at Allegan with the C. & W. M.; Monteith, G. R. R. & I.; Battle Creek, G. & G. T.; Marshall M. C. R. R.; Britton with the Wabash for Detroit, and at Toledo with all roads diverging.

T. C. M. SCHINDLE, RGen'l Pass. Agt.
T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO

TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as Follows:

WEST BOUND.

†No. 51	Local Mail and Express.....10:25 a m
*No. 53	Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex. 3:30 p m
*No. 27	Butler Accommodation..... 6:00 p m
*No. 55	Pacific Express.....11:40 p m
EAST BOUND.
*No. 56	Atlantic Express..... 5:50 a m
†No. 26	Detroit Accommodation..... 4:45 p m
*No. 52	St. Louis & Boston Express..... 7:45 a m
*No. 54	N. Y. Limited..... 9:46 p m

*Daily, †Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information, apply to

CHAS. M. HAYS, Gen. Manager.
WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian
F. CHANDLER, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt Agent,

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890

Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North.

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
3 25 A. M.			P. M.	P. M.
	00	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	11 15	1 10
	47	.....Dundee.....	10 18	12 20
	08	.....Milan.....	9 58	12 04
	20	.....Urania.....	9 45	11 52
	27	.....Pittsfield.....	9 34	11 42
5 07	6 40	.....Ann Arbor.....	9 22	11 30
5 30	7 55	.....Leland.....	9 07	11 15
5 47	7 06	.....Whitmore Lake.....	8 55	10 02
6 28	8 [illegible]	.....Howell.....	8 17	10 [illegible]
7 15	8 4[illegible]	.....Durand.....	7 10	9 [illegible]
	.....		55	74
8 00	10 20	.....Owosso.....	6 35	9 05
9 07	11 30	.....Ithaca.....	5 32	7 50
10 15	1 25	.....Mt. Pleasant.....	4 35	6 46
.....	3 35	.....Cadillac.....	10 30	.....
.....	5 20	.....Copemish.....	9 05	.....
.....	6 35	Ar.....Frankfort.....Lv	7 50	.....
.....	P. M.		A. M.	P. M.

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager.
A. J. PAISLEY, General Pass. and Ticket Agent.

Clinton Column.

CLINTON, MICH., JULY 14, 1892.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eddy are expected here this week.

Miss Abbie Chandler, of Saline, is at Mrs. J. S. Kies'.

Henry Fox was here Sunday, on his way to Bridgewater.

Miss Anna Eagan, of Ann Arbor, is visiting friends here.

C. D. Keyes has taken up his abode at the Ed Rose house.

Etta Carpenter, of Holloway, is visiting at Chas. Fabrique's.

Born, Monday, July 11th, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallinger, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Howell visited friends in Ypsilanti last week.

Miss Anna McMaster came home from Flint last week to spend her vacation.

Miss Kittie Schurtz, of Toledo, is visiting at her uncle's, Henry Lancaster's.

Mrs. Collins is entertaining a little niece and nephew from Chicago this week.

Mrs. J. E. White and daughter Mary go to Battle Creek Thursday for a visit of several weeks.

Ella Swift arrived here from Montana last Saturday. She expects to remain here about four weeks.

Mrs. Frank Ice and daughter, of Mt Summit, Ind., are expected here next week for a two week's visit.

The social given by the ladies of the Baptist society at Mrs. H. Down's last Tuesday, was very largely attended.

William Totten and Mrs. Julia Rowland, of Tecumseh, and Mrs. Smith, of Toledo, called on Clinton friends Wednesday.

Rev. Williams started the first of last week for Connecticut, to make his annual visit. He was accompanied by his son Neil.

The Congregational social will be held at Mrs. George Belding's next Wednesday evening. Ice cream and cake will be served.

The next Episcopal social will be held at the residence of A. G. Burton Thursday afternoon, July 21st. Supper from 5 to 7. All are invited.

The Baptist church steeple that was so badly shattered by lightning a few weeks ago has been rebuilt and now presents a fine appearance.

Services at St. John's church will be resumed next Sunday morning, the Rector being expected home from Grand Rapids the last of this week.

The net proceeds of the Celebration were sufficient to finish paying for the piano and a surplus of $8.65, which was given Mrs. Hendershot for the use of her kitchen on the Fourth.

The lecture that was to have been delivered at St. Dominic's church last Sunday evening was postponed on account of the death of Fr. Tornes' sister at Detroit. He held mass as usual at Freedom Sunday morning, leaving that evening for Detroit. The funeral occurred Monday.

Frank Parker was seriously injured last Saturday. He was running a foot race at the ball ground, when his competitor accidentally struck him with a large stone which he was carrying. Frank was paralyzed by the blow for the time being. Dr. Tuttle was summoned and he was carried home and will be obliged to keep very quiet for several days to avoid consequences which would involve permanent injury.

George Wilson and Will Barnsdale were driving down Tecumseh street Tuesday evening, and when opposite the Lancaster House a bolt came out of the thills, frightening the horse so that he commenced to run. He freed himself from the buggy and dragging the thills after him brought up in the Congregational church sheds. George and Will jumped out of the buggy at the beginning of the fracas, so no one was injured.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

A Pure Baking Powder.

A baking powder that can be depended upon to be free from lime and alum is a disideratum in these days of adulterated food. So far as can be judged from the official reports, the "Royal" seems to be the only one yet found by chemical analyses to be entirely without one or the other of these substances, and absolutely pure. This, it is shown, results from the exclusive use by its manufacturers of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent processes which totally remove the tartrate of lime and other impurities. The cost of this chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and it is used in no baking powder except the "Royal," the manufactures of which control the patents under which it is refined.

Dr. Edward G. Love, formerly analytical chemist for the U. S. Government, who made the analyses for the New York State Board of Health in their investigation of baking powders, and whose intimate knowledge of the ingredients of all those sold in this market enables him to speak authoritatively, says of the purity, wholesomeness, and superior quality of the "Royal:"

"I find the Royal Baking Powder composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, other injurious substance."

Prof. Love's tests, and the recent official tests by both the U. S. and Canadian Governments, show the Royal Baking Powder to be superior to all others in strength and leavening power. It is not only the most economical in use, but makes the purest, finest flavored and most wholesome food.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

Ripans Tabules: standard remedy.
Ripans Tabules cure headache.
Ripans Tabules cure colic.
Ripans Tabules prolong life.
Ripans Tabules: a family remedy.

SINGLE TAX DEPARTMENT

The Christianity of the Single Tax.

EDWARD G. RHOADS.

Whenever a truth, new or old, takes fresh root in the minds of people, and grows into a movement of social reform, it encounters certain institutions already existing which help or hinder its growth and development. One of these institutions in our part of the world is the organized Christian church.

It seems strange that upward and onward movements should be opposed by an institution whose proper function is to foster the upward and onward tendencies of the human mind and soul, yet it is an historical fact that there has scarcely ever been a reform movement in modern times which has not met with opposition or even persecution from churches or churchmen. The fact is too generally known to need illustration. Its to be found in the fixity of creeds and in the vested interests which cling like branches to almost every old and powerful institution. Wisely did Gen. Booth resolve not to add another to the already large number of "ecclesiastical corpses," but to found an organization which would fall to pieces of its own weight whenever it ceased to work.

There are some of us who have deep and strong attachments to the religious societies to which we belong, and who have an abiding faith in Christianity, who look with shame and humiliation at the hostility of the church to the single tax, feeling that our belief in the doctrine of Henry George is a fruit of Christianity as we know it. There are others whose faith in Christianity has gone out with their faith in the churches of to-day. Well said Prof. Drummond that the greatest need of the world is a perfected life. The mental attitude of a great many thinking men was well stated by Wm. T. Stead, of the Pall Mall Gazette, when he said that the world is tired of Christians but wants Christs.

There are, however, hopeful signs that Christians within the churches are acquiring more liberal and enlarged views of the purpose and scope of Christianity. In illustration, I would again quote Prof. Drummond, who says in his little phamphlet on "The Programme of Christianity:" "I shall mislead no one, I hope, if I say—for I wish to put the social side of Christianity in its strongest light—that Christ did not come into the world to give men religion. He never mentioned the word religion. Religion was in the world before Christ came, and lives to-day in a million souls, who have never heard his name. What God does all day is not to sit waiting in churches for the people to come and worship Him. It is true that God is in churches, and in all kinds of churches, and is found by many in churches more immediately than any where else. It is also true that, while Christ did not give men religion, He gave a new direction to the religious aspiration bursting forth, then and now, and always from the whole world's heart. But it was his purpose to enlist these aspirations on behalf of some definite, practical good. That tendency of the religions of all times has been to care more for religion than for humanity. Christ cared more for humanity than for religion—rather, his care for humanity was the chief expression of his religion."

Such expressions as these, and the lives of such churchmen as Cardinal Manning and Father Huntington, are, it seems to me, indications of most hopeful import to the church and to humanity. They are recognitions of the true purpose of Christ's mission to earth.

What was it in Christianity which made it spread so rapidly among the people in its early days? The programme of Christianity in Scripture language was in part as follows:

To preach good tidings unto the meek; to bind up the broken-hearted; to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.

Paul, the Apostle, calls Christ's law "The perfect law of liberty." Christ's teaching was a most exalted individualism, an individualism far beyond what can be obtained by means of human law. The economic or legislative basis of Christianity was the Jewis law, in which the idea of justice and retribution was prominent. Christ added to this moral code the quality of mercy and the virtue of unselfishness, and the result was the golden rule. But it was no part of Christ's plan to nullify the Mosaic law of morals, except as it was supplanted by a more perfect rule of conduct written in the individual human heart.

We may take it for a certainty that nothing which Christ commanded His disciples contravened the commandment. "Thou shalt not steal." This eighth commandment of the Decalogue is as binding now as it ever was, and Christians recognize it as such theoretically; yet it seems to me that more confusion of economic thought arises from a failure to understand this simple law than from any other source whatever.

Thou shalt not steal. It does not require a Moses or a Herbert Spencer to convince men of the truth of this law of morals. It is written in the human heart. Yet there is a great deal more involved in it than is generally realized.

What is stealing? Any one will say "It is taking possession of the property of another by force or fraud." Thus far, at least, all Christians go, but they do not get to the bottom of the matter, because they do not ask and answer for themselves another question—what is property? Or, if they do define property, they make its meaning dependent upon human law, whereas it is clear that the commandment, "thou shalt not steal," depends for its significance not upon human law at all, but upon the fundamental law of God, who is no respecter of persons, but created all men equal. Stealing is stealing, whether done by a king or a peasant, by the strong or the weak, by a majority or a minority, by a community or an individual, with good intention or malice prepense. To grasp the full meaning of the eighth commandment we must, therefore, grasp also the law of property right, which is not

"—the good old plan
That he may get who has the power
And he may keep who can."

but is, that every individual has a right, a God-given and fundamental right, to all the wealth which he produces by the application of his labor to natural opportunities, and to all wealth he receives by purchase, exchange or gift, directly or indirectly, from some one who has opposed it.

In recent years the fact of the existence of poverty, seemingly hopeless poverty, amid the advancing prosperity of civilized communities, has forced itself before public attention. It is hardly worth while to bring forward arguments and facts to prove the increasing pressure of this question of poverty. The place it holds in the popular mind is patent to all who will look. Prof. Charles Gide, of the University of Montpellier, France, a conservative teacher of political economy, writes in regard to the distribution of wealth as follows: "To the general public the clearest and most appalling fact in the distribution of wealth is its inequality the more unbearable in proportion to the successive breaking down of all other inequalities which used to separate them one from another. Modern laws have realized civil equality; universal suffrage has given political equality; the growing diffusion of education is tending to introduce the reign of a virtual intellectual equality. But the inequality of wealth still remains; formely it was hidden, as it were, behind even greater inequalities, now, however, it is seen in the foreground of our democratic societies, and against it dash the waves of public wrath." Prof. Gide then proceeds to point out that inequality in itself is no just cause for complaint, and winds up as follows: "In fine, the real complaint that can be urged against the distribution of wealth is not so much its inequality as our inability to perceive the reasons for this inequality. It is by no means proportional to the labor expended: on the contrary, according to John Stuart Mill's bitter remark, the scale of remuneration appears to descend further and further the more laborious the work becomes, until finally it reaches a point where the most severe toil barely suffices for the necessities of existence. Still less does it seem to be proportioned to men's merits or virtues. The antithesis between the man who is poor but honest, and the scoundrel who is fortunate and wealthy, is a commonplace which is as old as the world, but it never fails to be true in the present."

In these paragraphs Prof. Gide states that the substance of the labor problem, which is essentially how shall we secure a more equable and an equitable distribution of wealth? Not a mathematical equality, but a practical equality, an equality of opportunity to satisfy the wants which we each one feel within us, and which are in a measure peculiar to ourselves.

The inequality of wealth is increasingly felt, partly because, as Prof. Gide says, other inequalities which erstwhile separated man from man have passed away, but partly also because this particular inequality between rich and poor is increasing. The time has come when many men, even of conservative instincts, have recognized the need of a remedy for the present inequality, and have come to the conclusion that such a remedy must be radical, and is to be sought for in a wide departure from present governmental methods. They acknowledge that the present distribution of wealth is unjust, and that the world will not much longer endure it, and they also see that it is impossible to change the distribution of wealth and leave the present social order just as at present. Bellamy, with his plan of state socialism, has gained many disciples. It is becoming quite fashionable to call one's self a socialist or a Christian socialist. It would be difficult to define some of these names, but they all mean that it is necessary for the state to lay hands on the wealth of individuals, and use it or direct its use for the benefit of other individuals or for society. But it is evident that to do this with a clean conscience we must rewrite the Decalogue.

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

Favoring the Privileged.

At a recent meeting of the Detroit city council an ordinance has been passed requiring property owners to lay stone sidewalks in front of their dwellings. Some objection was made to the form of the ordinance, inasmuch as, when taken in connection with other and unrepealed ordinances allowing the first sidewalks laid to be of plank, it favored the owners of vacant land in the city along which sidewalks had not yet been laid. In the course of the discussion Alderman Lowrey said:

I don't think it is right for the Cass estate, or any other estate, to hold property out of use and get the benefit of a rise in value due to other's work without doing its share in the way of improvements. I don't think it is fair to let that estate lay plank sidewalks when others must lay stone sidewalks.

Point was given to Mr. Lowrey's remarks by the insertion in the very issue of the Detroit Journal that published them of a real estate agent's advertisement containing the following excellent advice and useful information:

Don't keep your money in the bank at a miserable 4 per cent. interest when you can invest it in Detroit suburban real estate and make 15 or 20 per cent. Think of the vast fortunes made in Detroit real estate. In fact, nearly all our greatest fortunes had their origin in real estate investments. What made Gen. Cass so rich? The Cass farm. Where did the Brush estate get its immense wealth? From the Brush farm.

—"Now, William," said Mrs. Hicks, "here is the blue ribbon. I want two yards more just like it. And don't forget, William, I must have a match." Later, "Here you are, Mary," said William. "Here is the ribbon. It's two shades lighter than the other, but I guess it'll do. And here is the match—I got a box of 'em."

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED, AND "THE BIG 5."

TWO GRAND TRAINS DAILY BETWEEN THE WORLD'S FAIR CITY AND THE FOOTHILLS.

One Night Out, or One Day Out. Take Your Choice, Business Demands it, and the People Must Have it.

The popularity of "The Great Rock Island Route" as a Colorado line—it having long time since taken first place as the people's favorite between the Lakes and the Mountains—has compelled the management to increase its present splendid service by the addition of a train that is one night on the road from Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs or Pueblo. This train will be known as the "Rocky Mountain Limited," and will be put in service May first. Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m., arriving at above cities in the afternoon of the next day, earlier than any of its competitors. Especial equipment has been built for this train, with the view of making it a LIMITED in every sense of the word, and best of all, there will be no extra charge. The route of this exceedingly fast train is by the Rock Island Short Line, and a few of the large cities through it which passes, are Davenport, Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Beatrice, Fairbury, Belleville, Phillipsburg, Smith Center, Colby and Goodland. This makes it a most desirable route, and particularly interesting to the traveler. Another point: The popularity of our dining-car service is still on the increase, and no money spared to make this service what our patrons always say, "the best."

"Our Big 5" will continue as usual, leaving Chicago at 10 p. m. and arriving at Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning, being but one day out, and this fast and popular train goes through Omaha.

Our No. 6 will leave as heretofore at 6 p. m., arrive at Kansas city at 9:00 a. m., and will reach Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning.

Our Colorado service is made perfect by this new "ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED and the "BIG 5," and gives to the traveling public TWO FLYERS DAILY.

Manitou passengers should consult the map and time tables of our line, to fully appreciate the advantages in time saved by taking this route, when on their summer vacation.

JOHN SEBASTIAN,
G. T. & P. A., Chicago.

The bloody riot at Homestead is stirring up Congress to take some action in regard to the employment of armed ruffians by private corporations. Representative Jerry Simpson said, of it: "When we tried to get the House to pass the act killing the Pinkerton detective business we made the charge that the service was a practical standing army in the interest of capitalists and monopolists. Members on the floor scouted this idea and the bill was referred to the judiciary committee to be smothered. Legislation is absolutely necessary in the interest of the laboring classes, if trouble of a serious nature is to be avoided." Chairman Tarsney, of the House committee on Labor, said: "There is no language too strong in which to condemn the employment of an armed force by private corporations. There should be no police authority except that duly authorized and employed by the State or municipality." Representative Lind, of Minnesota, said: "This employment of armed mercenaries cannot be justified and ought not to be permitted." These views are but specimens of hundreds of similar ones publicly expressed.

The Worlds Columbian Exposition.

An elegant Bird's-eye-view of the Exposition Grounds and Buildings, in eight colors, size 35x45 inches, price, $1.00. The same Engraving, size 26x36 inches, price, 75 cents. The same Engraving, size 24x26 inches, price, 50 cts. A Photo-Gravure, Bird's-eye-view, 12x18 inches, price, 25 cents. A map of Chicago, price 25 cents. A pocket map of the U. S., or of any State, price 25 cents. Any of the above mailed to any address, postage prepaid on receipt of the price named. Any other World's Fair publication mailed on receipt of the advertised price.

BOND & Co., 576 Rookery, Chicago.

For The Campaign.

The twice-a-week St. Louis Republic will be mailed each Tuesday and Friday, from now until November 30th, 1892, for only forty cents. It is a great semi-weekly paper, and will be indispensable during the campaign. An extra copy will be sent free to November, 30th, to the sender of each club of five, with Two Dollars. Send for a package of sample copies and raise a club. Address The Republic, St., Louis, Mo.

An Acknowledgement.

Mr. John F. Hicks has recently placed some lightning rods on the new Friends Church, which for excellent material, neatness of appearance and good workmanship are in every way satisfactory. Years of experience and a special study of lightning protection places Mr. Hicks in a position to do work fully abreast of the times.

THOS. G. MEAD,
AARON C. TAYLOR,
J. N. SATTERTHWAITE,
Building Com.

From the spinning-wheel to the bicycle is a long stride for women's independence.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

Remaining uncalled for in the Postoffice at Tecumseh, Mich., July 14, 1892.

Anderson, Karl
Covell Mrs. L. C.
Howard, Bertha
Auros, Maz
Elliott, Joe
Mogal, Mrs
Stall, Mathew

Persons calling for letters in the above list will please say "advertised."

ALBERT D. LAWRENCE, P. M.

A Free Copy.

Of a folder containing information about the reduced rates, route, tickets, etc., to the Convention of Christian Endeavor at New York, July 7 to 10, sent to any address on applying to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., L. S. & M. S. R'y. Cleveland, Ohio.

To Whom it May Concern.

The Commissioner of Patents having on June 18, 1892, affirmed the decision of the Board of Examiners-in-Chief of the Patent Office, which was in my favor and in which they held that I was the inventor and entitled to a patent on the Friction Clutch used by the Upton Manufacturing Company and the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company for the past two seasons, and being the same one shown in their catalogue for '91 and '92, you are hereby notified that I shall commence suit to recover one hundred dollars royalty against the owner of each and every engine manufactured by the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company I find this Clutch used on.

Yours Respectfully,
R. SHETTLER.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, June 5th, '92, the C. J. & M. Ry., will run a special low rate excursion to Devils Lake and return. Trains leave Tecumseh at 8:44 a. m. standard time; returning arrives at Tecumseh 5:38 p. m. Fare 40 cents for the round trip.

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, G. P. A.
B. J. SLATER, Agent.

The eleventh International Convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held in New York City, July 7 to 10, inclusive, and for this event the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern R'y, will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates on July 5, 6 and 7. Send to A. J. Smith, G. P. & T. A., Cleveland, O., for free copy of folder of information.

A New Line to the Northwest.

Commencing Monday, May 23d, the elegant steamer "City of Marquette" will make regular trips between Frankfort and Kewaunee, Wis., in connection with trains of the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan R'y. Through Express leaving Toledo at 5:45 a. m. daily except Sunday, arrives at Frankfort 5:55 p. m., connecting with "Steamer City of Marquette," leaving Frankfort 7:00 p. m., arriving at Kewaunee 1:30 a. m.

Holders of first-class tickets are furnished sleeping berths on Steamer free of extra charge and will be permitted to retain berths until morning.

First train leaves Kewaunee 8:55 a. m. for Green Bay, Winona, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis and all points in the West and North West.

W. H. BENNETT, G. P. A.
Toledo, Ohio.

Tecumseh Price Current.

CORRECTED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

	Wholesale.	Retail.
PROVISION MARKET.
Apples green, per bushel	$1 00	$1 25
Apples dried, per pound	5	5
Beeswax	14	16
Butter	12	14
Eggs, per doz	13	15
Honey, per lb	15	15
Lard, per lb	9	12
Onions, per bushel	1 00	1 25
Potatoes, per bushel	35	40
Beans, per bushel	2 00	2 30
Wool, unwashed	14
Wool, fleeced washed	22
Wool, tub washed	25
Salt, coarse rock, per bbl	$1 50
Salt, common, per bbl	90	1 00
Tallow, per lb	3½
Cheese, per lb	9	14
MEAT MARKET.
Pickled Pork	6	10
Bacon	10	12½
Smoked Ham	12	16
Smoked Shoulders	7	9
Beef, by the side	4½	5
Fat Hogs, per 100 lbs	3 50 to 3 75
Dressed Hogs, per 100 lbs	4 25
Veal, dressed, per lb	5
Mutton, dressed, per lb	6	8
Chickens, live, per lb	6	7
Turkeys, live, per lb	7	08
Geese, live, per lb	5	8
Ducks, live, per lb	6
Hides, green	4
Hides, dry	5
Sheep Pelts	25 to 1 75
GRAIN, SEEDS AND HAY.
Wheat—White		$ 75
" Red		75
Corn, shelled		56
Oats		30
No. 1 Clover seed		4 25
No. 2 " "		4 00
Choice " "		4 50
Timothy Seed		1 65
Hay, timothy, per ton	8 00 to 9 00
Hay, clover, per ton		7 00
Flour, per sack		1 38
Bran, per 100 lbs	1 00 to 1 25
Middlings, per 100 lbs		90
Corn meal, per 100 lbs		1 50
Chop, per 100 lbs		1 50

DO YOU KNOW That the way to "get a start" in life, and secure a good paying business is to make preparation and seize the the opportunity when it comes? Don't wait!

LEARN SHORTHAND AT HOME

BEST SYSTEM. BEST METHOD. "Up with the times. Terms moderate, and within the reach of all. Lessons concise, complete, and practical. Circulars free.

C. A. SHARP, Stenographer,
ADRIAN, MICH.

Why Suffer?

When you can be Cured.

Thousands are suffering with Torpid Liver—the symptoms are Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator is a reliable remedy for Liver Disorders. It cures thousands every year; why not try Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator? Your Druggist will supply you.

Commercial Savings Bank

Of Adrian, Mich.

CAPITAL, $75,000
SURPLUS, $75,000 to 100,000

W. J. COCKER, President.
S. HOWELL, Vice-Pres. and Cash'r.
E. N. SMITH, Ass't Cash'r.

DIRECTORS:
W. J. Cocker, S. Howell, C. Bowerfind, F. Smith, C. R. Miller, E. C. Sword, D. Maus, A. R. Stephenson, A. Bennett.

Accounts of Individuals & Corporations Solicited. THREE PER CENT. allowed on Savings Deposits, compounded every six months.

ANTI CONSTIPATION PILLS
CONSOLATION TO ALL CONSTIPATED.
PRICE 25 CENTS
PLEASANT AND EFFECTUAL AND CONTAIN NO MERCURY

—FOR—

CONSTIPATION
SICK HEADACHE,
Bilious Attacks & Liver Complaints.

DOSE.—One to two Pellets each night until the bowels are regular and natural in their operation.

FOR SALE BY
JNO. J. ORR, Tecumseh.
ALSO FOR SALE BY

Jno. Kane ..... Onsted
F. J. Temple ..... Ridgeway
Will Babcock ..... Brim
W. P. Cotton ..... Macon
Jno. Conlin ..... Tipton
Floyd Florence ..... Holloway

THE ELDREDGE
"B"

A strictly high-grade family sewing machine, possessing all modern improvements.

GUARANTEED EQUAL to the BEST

Prices very reasonable. Obtain them and make comparisons.

ELDREDGE MANUFACTURING CO.

BELVIDERE, ILL.

USE ONLY

Red Crown Gasoline

In your gasoline stoves

ORIENT or KEYSTONE WATER WHITE KEROSENE OIL

In your lamps.

MANUFACTURED BY

The Standard Oil Co.

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

For Sale in Tecumseh by the following named dealers.

James Lowry, Satterthwaite Bros.
J. J. Orr, C. A. Wright & Co.
Anderson Bros. W. J. Arnold.
McClure Grocery Co., and Jas. Potter.

Quality of the Highest Standard.

Use nothing in your Gasoline stoves but

RED CROWN GASOLINE.

Use nothing in your Lamps but

ORIENT OR KEYSTONE.

Water White Kerosene Oil.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Birdsey A. Bidwell, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the bank of Lilley, Bidwell & Co. in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 1st day of August, 1892, and on the 22d day of December, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 22d day of June, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said, Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 30th, 1892.

LUCIUS LILLEY,
LESTER T. TRIBOU,
Commissioners.

FAYETTE is a beautiful village, populated by cultured and hospitable people. She expects much from her University and her expectations are being realized. Its attendance has been increasing from 25 to 50 per cent per year. The aim is not to make the school the most popular but the best. Work is a prominent feature. Commercial, Scientific, Musical, Short-hand, Type-writing, Elocutionary, Penmanship and Fine Art Departments in addition to regular college classes. The teachers are specialists. The success of its students gives it high standing. Only earnest workers are wanted. $27.00 pays tuition, board and room rent for ten weeks. Write for catalogue to the president of the

J. E. DODDS, Fayette, O. UNIVERSITY.

The Tecumseh Herald.

VOL. XLIII.--NO. 7. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 21, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2193

Carpet Sale!

We will make SPECIAL PRICES on Carpets for TEN DAYS, commencing JULY 18.

Dress Goods Sale Continued Also.

Anderson & Co.

Wm. McCowen

Furniture
Wall Paper
Trunks
Undertaking

THE FINEST and Largest Line of Bedroom Suits ever shown in Tecumseh.

USE

PARAGON .74°
Deodorized
Stove
Gasoline!

IS THE BEST; ASK YOUR DEALER FOR IT

The Tecumseh Herald,

A

TRIAL TRIP

50CTS.

FOR FIVE

MOS.

SUBSCRIBE NOW.

Neighborhood News.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

Prof. Drake made a business trip to Adrian Monday.

Miss Marion Lowe is very sick at present writing.

Mrs. T. H. Montgomery is under the doctor's care at present.

Prof. H. C. Wilson is shaking hands with old friends once more.

Lelia Sutton visited friends in Toledo from Saturday until Tuesday.

There will be no Sunday evening services for the next three weeks.

A beautiful urn has been placed on the lawn of the Library for flowers.

Ethel Cheever, of Dundee, is spending a few days with her cousin, May Nelson.

Two small boys with their bears gave a performance on our streets Tuesday evening.

Bert and Florence Raymond, of Dixon, Ill., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Lydia Hall.

Jacob Dennison and wife, of Cone, visited their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Curry, Sunday.

Gertie Snedicor, of Howell, arrived Tuesday for a visit of several days among friends.

Eugene Pilbeam and Minnie Barrett went to Milan Tuesday on their wheels to visit friends.

David Fetzer and wife, of Holloway, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Barrett, Sunday.

F. J. Temple left for Saginaw Tuesday morning as a delegate to the Republican State Convention.

Elder Yager and family left Monday for the M. E. camp meeting being held at Eaton Rapids this week.

Hollie Perrin, of Tecumseh, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning in the absence of Elder Yager.

Mrs. F. J. Temple went to LaSalle Tuesday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds.

Mrs. Lester Osgood returned from Wyandotte Saturday, after a week's stay with Prof. and Mrs. Martin Palmer.

W. E. Barrett is a man of one idea, since all his attention and time are occupied in nursing a felon on one of his hands.

By a telegram received Saturday we learn that Samuel Fletcher died from the effects of the grip at his home at Lowell, Mich.

Mrs. Ida Anderson, who has been spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Jacob Arner, returned to her home at Detroit Saturday.

Wm. Beevers opened the threshing season Tuesday afternoon on the Samuel Barlow farm. He comes out with a new rig of the Huber make, sold by Geo. C. Pocklington, agent.

The L. C. S. will be held at the home of Mrs. Lydia Hall on Friday evening of next week, July 29th. Those who have attended a gathering there know that it means a very pleasant time. The following program will be carried out:

Music—trio—selected.
Prayer.
Select reading—F. J. Temple.
Recitation—Minnie Barrett.
Instrumental music—Selected.
Charade.
Select reading—Mrs. S. L. Rappleye.
Vocal music.
Declamation—Marvin Pattison.
Charade.
Instrumental duet—Kittie Clark and Lulu Rappleye.

THE TRUE LAXATIVE PRINCIPLE

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

The next meeting of the Mich. Woman's Press Association will be held at Bay View, near Petoskey, July 20, 21 and 22 insts. A fine program has been arranged and the meeting will doubtless be very interesting. The sessions will be held in the Chautauqua Cottage lecture room.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Try it.

The World's Columbian Exposition.

Send 50 cents to Bond & Co., 576 Rookery, Chicago, and you will receive, post paid, a four hundred page advance Guide to the exposition, with elegant Engravings of the Grounds and Buildings, Portraits of its leading spirits, and a Map of the City of Chicago; all of the Rules governing the Exposition and Exhibitors, and all information which can be given out in advance of its opening. Also, other Engravings and printed information will be sent you as published. It will be a very valuable Book and every person should secure a copy.

Ripans Tabules cure constipation.
Ripans Tabules: pleasant laxative.

BRITTON BUDGET.

Chauncey Dibble has a bicycle.

Maccabees picnic at Devil's Lake August 3d.

E. W. Lenardson has a new Gendron Diamond Safety.

Mrs. Fred Rupp is under the doctor's care at present writing.

James Dubois has the foundation for his new home completed.

The carpenter work on Wm. Underwood's house is neafly done.

D. R. Wiggins and family passed Sunday with Britton friends.

Miss Madge Rice, of Clio, Mich., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. B. Exelby.

J. D. Kinney took in about 26,000 pounds of wool in one day two weeks ago.

Arthur Curtiss and Luella Haynes have resigned their position with E. R. Wells.

Mrs. T. M. Campbell, of Detroit, is visiting her parents and friends for a few days.

Tommy Brown, who had his foot cut off some time ago by a Wabash train, is improving.

Burt Nichols has quit the market business at Brown's, George Bauchman taking his place.

A number of our citizens attended the Republican county convention at Adrian last week.

Burt Cadmus and Eugene Pilbeam returned from Harvey last week, coming from Battle Creek on their bicycles.

Wm. Britton is now ready to fill all orders for ice cream in lots of one gallon, ten gallons, or more. Give him a call.

A. Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church is now organized and at work. Its meetings will be held in G. A. R. hall each Thursday evening. At this week's meeting some time will be devoted to a report of the great C. E. convention lately held in New York. All are welcome to these services.

NOT THE SELLS BROS' SHOW.

Mr. Peter Sells, of the Famous Sells Bros' Show in the City—That Fine Organization to Visit Tecumseh.

Mr. Peter Sells, of the famous Sells Brothers, arrived in Tecumseh yesterday, from California. He says; "The circus advertised to exhibit here soon is not the Sells Bros's great show which recently arrived from Australia and is now exhibiting in California. Sells Brothers have but one show and no interest whatever in any other. It has been before the public twenty-one years and has gained a reputation for grandeur, magnitude and merit enjoyed by no other circus in America. The death of P. T. Barnum and Adam Forepaugh leaves Sells Brothers the oldest active circus managers in this country. Naturally small shows enviours of the Sells Brothers and desirous of profiting by a similarity of title are springing up like mushrooms, but like the vegetable excrescence named will be short lived. Exposed to the withering light of the sun they fade away and are soon gone forever. Some of these little fellows have the audacity to copy our title and our advertisements word for word, hoping to make the fraud more effective. The people of Tecumseh will have an opportunity of seeing the Only Sells Brothers' Great Show just as it appeared in Melbourne, Australia, before a delighted audience for four consecutive weeks, and at Sydney, New South Wales, for 27 consecutive days. Our date here is not positively fixed yet, but it will be the latter part of August or early in September. It will pay to wait for the "genuine."

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. ORR.

It is said that Frick, Carnegie's manager, who wants to cut the wages of his workmen 12 1-2 per cent. and, turn out all union men, has a net income of two to three million a year. It is too bad that Frick can't enjoy life on that sum without cutting the wages of his workmen.

WOMAN'S HEALTH AND LIFE

depend more regularity than on any or all causes combined. An actual or living death is the result of derangement of functions which make woman what she is; immediate relief is the only safeguard against wreck and ruin. In In all cases of stoppage, delayed, painful or other irregularities Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. Sold by Jno. J. Orr.

I used three bottles of "Mother's friend and when I was sick. I never went to bed until 12:30, and my boy was born at 8 a. m. with scarcely any pain I will do all I can in recommending it to expectant mothers. Your thankful friend, Mrs. B. F. Wathereus, Marion, O., Sept. 1890. Sold by Jno. Orr.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, June 5th, '92, the C. J. & M. Ry., will run a special low rate excursion to Devils Lake and return. Trains leave Tecumseh at 8:44 a. m. standard time; returning arrives at Tecumseh 5:38 p. m. Fare 40 cents for the round trip.

T. C. M. SCHUNDLER, G. P. A.
B. J. SLATER, Agent.

Ripans Tabules: a family remedy.

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

Mis Ione Lampson is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Zerusha Freeman, south of town.

Miss Annetta Kingsley returned on Saturday, from a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Anna Calkins, in Chelsea.

Mrs. S. C. Blinn, of Milan, is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Milo Rowe and Mrs. G. J. Hauessler.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Silksworth, of Reading, arrived in town on Wednesday for a brief visit with their Manchester friends.

The ladies of the Methodist church society, will sell ice cream at the Presbyterian church parlors on Saturday evening of this week.

George Field, of Tecumseh, visited his sister, Mrs J. F. Spafard, on Sunday making the trip from Tecumseh and return upon his bicycle.

W. T. Hewett, of Grand Rapids, well known in this vicinity is at the Mt. Clemens Sanitarium for medical treatment. He is suffering acutely with rheumatism.

V. B. VanWinkle had a runaway one day last week. One horse slipped off its bridle and all three horses becoming unmanageable they made a dash across the wheat field, completely demolishing the binder.

MACON MUSIC.

Dr. Hendershot, of Britton, called on friends here last Sunday.

Alfred Lewis is a delegate to the Republican State Convention this week.

Mrs. William Niblack, of Clinton, is visiting relatives and friends in this village.

Joe Sage has been taking a few lessons in Dutch, but is now taking a vacation.

The ladies Aid society, of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. John Jackson, next Wednesday, July 27th.

The ice cream social given by the M. E. Church last Saturday eve., was well patronized and was a success financially Many Thanks.

A little boy weighing eleven pounds, came to the home of B. S. Scudder, one day last week, and taking a liking to it they have concluded to keep it and call it their own.

The person who owns those pigs which have been running in the road and in peoples yards doing damage in general for several weeks, will please take them home and take care of them and oblige the citizens.

B. S. Scudder has taken his egg and trade wagon off the road, and will do his trading at the store, hereafter, where he will be glad to see all his old customers, and will take their eggs and butter at the highest market price.

James Camburns' house came very near being distroyed by fire last week. It burned quite a large hole through the roof, burning off one of the plates before it was discovered and as the wind was blowing a strong gale at the time, it was almost a miracle that it was saved from destruction. But by a continued application of water by the family and neighbors, the firy element was quenched, although considerable damage was done.

The Maidens of the Macon Reformed Church, will give a Palette Social on Pennington's lawn, Wednesday evening July 27th. An "M" Supper will be served and a short program rendered.

MENU

Meted out by many maidens of many manners.
Miscellaneons moulded mixture moistened with milk and manipulated for munching.
Metamorpuosed masticable meats most meritorious in market.
Meracions mocha, marvelously made by multipotent mesdames and minus molasses.
Mellifluous mixtures, meet for magnificent mandarins.
Marmaladed and marmoraded minglings marvelous masterpieces on majolica.
Melodious music by minstrels of marked merit, merrily mingling with the multiloquence.

MORAL

The managers of the "M" supper may mention that they mean to make this a memorable medley of manducables, meriting meditation, mastication, and money.
Ice Cream will be measured out magnanimously.

The Great Sells and Rentfrow's Enormous 25c Railroad Shows, which is to exhibit in Tecumseh, Thursday, July 28th, is highly endorsed by the press of the State. The Louisville Courier-Journal contains the following: "This excellent circus and menagerie was well patronized yesterday afternoon and evening, and it well deserved the enormous crowd which flocked to the capacious tents. The menagerie shows up all that has been advertised, and the ring performances were excellent, comprising many difficult, attractive acts never before presented here. The riding was good. The clowns introduced many new comicalities, and the feats of the acrobats, jugglers, and contortionists were marvelous, and astonished and delighted all. We found all connected with the show perfect gentlemen, who desired to treat every one well and see that no one was imposed upon. As this is the only large show that will visit this section this season we predict a large crowd.

Republican County Convention.

The Republican County Convention held at Adrian last week was attended by a full set of delegates and there was some warm work on the adoption of the resolution instructing for Rich.

Hon. John D. Shull, of Tecumseh, was chosen temporary chairman and was afterwards made permanent chairman.

At the afternoon session the committee on credentials reported and then the following resolutions were offered:

We, the Republicans of Lenawee county, in convention assembled, do

RESOLVED, 1st, That we heartily indorse and reaffirm our adherence to the grand principles as set forth by the national convention at Minneapolis, which is the only political party which protects and defends the laborer and every citizen in his right to count an honest ballot and have it fairly counted, adopts the ideas of reciprocity and protection, and hails our own flag above every other flag that floats on the face of the earth.

RESOLVED 2d, That we denounce the Democratic party as one of fraud, false pretenses and broken promises.

RESOLVED 3d, That we hail our standard bearers, Harrison and Reid, and say they must and will be elected, as well as every other candidate from them down to coroner.

RESOLVED 4th. That we admire the splendid services of James G. Blaine, the world's leading statesman and diplomat.

RESOLVED, 5th, That the Republicans of Lenawee county believe the selection of John T. Rich as a candidate for governor of urgent importance, and the delegates this day assembled, who are chosen to the state convention, are called upon and instructed to use their utmost, earnest and united efforts to secure his nomination.

RESOLVED, 6th. That we cordially indorse the candidacy of Hon. George Howell for lieutenant governor, and the delegates this day chosen are instructed and urged to secure his nomination.

RESOLVED, 7th, That no delegate elected by this convention has the right of substitution without the consent of a majority of the delegation, which is authorized to fill any vacancies which may occur.

A hot discussion followed, a good minority being opposed to instructing for Rich, but the resolutions were finally adopted by a vote of 60 to 36.

Dr. Nelson read a resolution favoring the candidacy of Prof. E. A. Wilson for member of the State Board of Education.

C. H. Bramble, of Franklin, spoke in favor of Prof. Wilson, and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

The next in order was the selection of 23 delegates to the state convention, and 23 delegates to the congressional convention.

The secretary read the list of towns in the two districts, they divided into districts, the first district occupying the court room, and the second the supervisors' room. After deliberating in their respective places for a half hour the districts reported the following gentlemen to attend the state convention:

First district—H. N. King, H. C. Smith, B. F. Graves, city; Adrian, T. J. Harris; Cambridge, Chas. E. Jessup; Clinton, J. M. Estabrook; Deerfield, A. W. Smith; Franklin, C. H. Bramble; Macon, Alfred Lewis; Ridgeway, Dr. R. H. Nelson; Tecumseh, J. D. Shull; Woodstock, Warren Parker.

2d district—Blissfield, A. D. Gilmore; Fairfield, H. C. Pratt; Hudson, W. B. Thompson; Dover, John E. Bird; Madison, Benjamin S. Allen; Medina, Henry L. Perry; Rollin, S. H. Raymond; Riga, W. H. McDonnell; Palmyra, M. T. Cole; Ogden, M. L. Robinson; Seneca, Vern Allen.

CONGRESSIONAL.

First district—First ward, C. B. Johnson; Fourth ward, J. C. Winne; Raisin, L. C. Winship; Woodstock, Manson Carpenter; Tecumseh, H. W. Stevens; Ridgeway, W. R. Nelson; Macon, Samuel Hatch; Franklin, Chas. Davis; Deerfield, Joel Bragg; Clinton, D. Bainbridge; Cambridge, Granville Lyman; Adrian, M. L. Robinson.

Second district—Fairfield, G. B. Horton; Hudson, Grant Fellows; Dover, M. L. Davis; Madison, John W. Dalton; Medina, R. H. Rodgers; Rollin, Frank Kirk; Riga, W. E. Seagrin; Palmyra, B. I. Laing; Ogden, W. R. Hibbard; Seneca; Dr. Ezra Mann; Rome, Ezra Bertram.

H. W. Stevens moved that the delegates to the congressional convention be instructed for Hon. James O'Donnell.

Supported by A. W. Smith and carried unanimously.

The Convention then adjourned.

New Music at 10 Cents a Copy.

"Jesus, Lover of My Soul" has been arranged as a quartette, with soprano, tenor and alto solos, by Isaac Doles. The song as arranged by Mr. Doles is very beautiful indeed. He also publishes "The Air Ship Waltz," "Oklahoma Waltz," and "Odd Fellows' Grand March," all of which are exquisite instrumental music for the piano or organ. Any of the above pieces will be sent for 10 cents each, the 4 for 35 cents, on receipt of this notice with your remittance. This is an introductory price, for the 4. If any of our readers want good music cheap they should take advantage of this opportunity. Address Isaac Doles, Indianapolis, Ind., Cor. 22d and Illinois Sts., U. S. A.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

Ripans Tabules: one gives relief.
Ripans Tabules cure dizziness.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance	$1 10
If paid after 30 days	1 25
If paid after three months	1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance	$1 25
If paid after 30 days	1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.

Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.

Rates on general advertising on term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JULY 21, 1892.

Sweet sixteen in a hammock is having full swing these days.

William Waldorf Astor, the man who didn't die, could make a very entertaining scrap book of the obituaries published about him in the newspapers.

Ignatius Donnelly, the irrepressible, is the People's Party candidate for governor of Minnesota. Will the Baconian cipher be one of the campaign issues in that state this fall?

All is peace at the Homestead mills now. An effort will be made by Mr. Frick to fill the works with non-union workmen. Whether it will succeed remains to be seen.

Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, has been prevailed upon, after nine other men had declined, to accept the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee. It will be a thankless task and no one seems to hanker after it.

From a purely partisan point of view, the Democracy have reason to thank Andrew Carnegie for instigating the Homestead riots. One single day's work of the Pinkerton hirelings will make half a million of votes for Cleveland and Stevenson.

Says the Chicago Inter-Ocean, "Without Mr. Carnegie there would have been no homes that make Homestead." Without the workingmen of Homestead, who have earned a hundred times over what they have received, where would have been Mr. Carnegie's steel and iron mills—his $40,000,000? That argument is a two-edged sword, and one edge is a deal sharper than the other.

A new complication has entered the problem of Congress making an appropriation for the World's Fair in the shape of a reported determined and vigorous opposition to the appropriation from the Knights of Labor. The appropriation has been passed by the Senate, with amendments closing the exposition on Sunday, and prohibiting the sale of liquor on the grounds.

It is rather surprising that the Senate did not add to the other absurd conditions accompanying its offer of assistance to the Columbian Exposition one providing that there shall be no profane language used on the grounds and no moonlight rambling of youths and maidens along the lake front. If Congress proposes to graft Connecticut blue laws on Chicago civilization it might as well make the attempt with the whole code.

The People's party Congressmen regard the defeat of the silver bill as a good thing for them, although they favored the bill, and, of course, voted for it. They say, and a number of Democrats agree with them, that it will give them a number of Congressional districts in the South which they could not have carried had the House passed the bill, and that it has added largely to their chances of getting electoral votes from the South.

The tide of public opinion is unmistakably turning strongly in favor of keeping the World's Fair open on Sunday, provided a "silent" Fair be assured. The Exposition authorities have never had any idea of keeping the machinery running on Sunday and everything going at full boom as on week days, and since they have so declared themselves the demands for Sunday closing have diminished greatly in number. Not a few who had petitioned for a closed Fair have changed their minds and revoked their request and have asked that the gates be opened.

A new complication has arisen at Homestead. The non-union workmen and many skilled laborers who were invited to begin work Monday morning failed to put in an appearance. A few clerks and watchmen alone reported for duty. The unanimous decision of all the employes of the Carnegie works who are not members of the Amalgamated association and who number some 2,000, at their meeting Saturday to stand out with the steel workers to the end, has made the entire force of the Homestead mills a unit and the company cannot hope to obtain a man from Homestead without first settling with the association.

A MILLION OF MONEY.

The Democratic Administration Will Give the People That Sum.

A Direct Decrease of $163,857 in the Tax Levy—Taxes Reduced in Seventy-four Counties in the State—How About $800,000 Was Received Under Luce for Land Sales.

It may be of interest to the taxpayers to see in one table the actual difference in taxation under republican and democratic administration. For that purpose we have taken the taxes apportioned to each county during Gov. Luce's four years' administration, added them together, and dividing by four obtained the average annual tax. In the same manner the average for the two years for Gov. Winans has been obtained. The following table shows the average annual tax for the last four years under the republicans and the two years under democracy, and the difference in favor of the democracy in each county of the state:

COUNTIES.	Republican Annual Tax.	Democratic Annual Tax.	Annual Difference in Favor of Democracy.
Alcona	$4,932 81	$2,772 56	$1,960 25
Alger	4,282 81	3,167 09	1,115 72
Allegan	25,750 85	20,269 39	5,847 46
Alpena	6,000 93	7,601 02	+1,591 09
Antrim	5,580 65	3,800 51	1,780 14
Arenac	2,145 40	1,583 54	562 86
Baraga	2,575 68	2,533 67	42 01
Barry	23,332 60	19,982 55	3,350 05
Bay	37,776 72	34,204 59	3,572 13
Benzie	2,575 68	2,533 67	41 01
Berrien	29,181 09	22,895 06	6,286 03
Branch	30,040 65	25,356 73	4,713 92
Calhoun	48,079 45	38,005 10	10,074 35
Cass	25,750 85	20,269 39	5,487 46
Charlevoix	4,292 81	4,433 93	+141 12
Cheboygan	6,000 93	5,052 84	947 59
Chippewa	6,000 93	6,334 18	+324 25
Clare	6,000 93	3,167 09	2,832 84
Clinton	29,181 09	24,069 90	5,121 19
Crawford	3,004 96	2,533 67	471 29
Delta	6,000 93	5,057 34	942 59
Dickinson	[newly organized]	7,643 03	+7,643 03
Eaton	30,040 91	25,326 73	4,713 18
Emmet	3,434 25	3,800 51	366 26
Genesee	37,776 71	31,670 92	6,105 79
Gladwin	2,146 45	2,533 67	+387 22
Gogebic	3,004 32	19,032 56	+15,943 24
Grand Traverse	6,118 49	6,700 70	417 73
Gratiot	16,315 17	12,698 37	3,616 80
Hillsdale	36,059 58	27,870 41	8,189 17
Houghton	11,161 30	50,673 47	+39,512 17
Huron	11,161 30	10,134 69	1,026 61
Ingham	31,764 78	26,603 57	5,161 21
Ionia	29,191 09	24,069 90	5,121 19
Iosco	3,434 25	6,700 70	+3,266 73
Iron	8,158 33	6,486 21	1,670 12
Isabella	7,377 05	7,001 02	376 03
Isle Royal	1,861 71	126 68	70 03
Jackson	53,230 82	39,271 92	13,598 90
Kalamazoo	41,210 05	34,204 59	7,006 36
Kalkaska	6,439 21	4,687 29	1,751 92
Kent	77,370 84	63,341 84	13,628 70
Keweenaw	4,732 09	3,800 51	921 58
Lake	3,434 25	1,900 25	1,534 00
Lapeer	22,181 16	17,835 71	5,445 45
Leelanaw	1,712 62	1,583 54	1,309 08
Lenawee	43,759 45	37,955 10
Livingston	25,758 85	20,269 39
Luce	[New County]	2,533 67	+2,533 67
Mackinac	4,292 31	2,533 67	1,758 64
Macomb	28,422 53	23,436 48	618 33
Manistee	171 71	126 68	45 03
Marquette	25,756 85		28,549 38
Mason	6,868 49	5,700 76	1,167 73
Mecosta	10,302 74	6,334 18	3,468 56
Menominee	10,734 52	9,261 78	1,472 84
Midland	4,293 81	5,533 67	1,759 14
Missaukee	5,580 65	3,800 51	1,780 14
Monroe	35,756 85	30,902 81	4,854 04
Montcalm	16,312 67	12,668 37	3,644 30
Muskegon	2,145 40	1,265 83	879 57
Newaygo	12,888 33	10,486 88	2,401 47
Oakland	8,158 33	5,700 76	2,456 57
Oceana	46,302 32	37,468 37	8,833 95
Ogemaw	6,868 49	5,700 76	1,167 73
Ontonagon	4,292 31	2,533 67	2,375 88
Osceola	4,440 21	5,067 34	1,371 87
Osceola	1,717 12	1,260 83	456 29
Otsego	3,434 25	3,167 09	267 16
Ottawa	22,322 90	19,082 55	3,320 05
Presque Isle	2,146 40	1,900 25	246 15
Roscommon	2,146 40	1,900 25	246 15
Saginaw	56,993 06	46,872 96	9,792 49
Sanilac	12,878 42	10,134 69	2,743 73
Schoolcraft	5,151 30	4,433 93	717 43
Shiawassee	25,756 85	21,526 22	4,230 63
St. Clair	38,332 53	25,336 73	12,995 80
St. Joseph	30,898 22	25,337 28	5,560 99
Tuscola	17,172 68	13,301 55	3,871 13
Van Buren	24,039 72	19,082 55	5,037 17
Washtenaw	51,513 09	39,271 92	12,241 75
Wayne	255,068 47	240,693 99	14,369 48
Wexford	5,580 65	5,067 34	513 31

The above table shows the average reduction in state taxation by counties, so that the reader may see at a glance the difference in his own county. This difference should be doubled to show the full difference for two years, the length of a single administration. In eleven of the northern counties the tax has been increased by reason of increased valuations, chiefly in mining property. In seventy-four counties the taxes have been reduced. The state taxes for four years under Luce amounted to $6,493,816.

The average for each term	$3,246,908
State taxes for two years under Winans amount to	2,863,051
The difference	$383,857

But the Detroit Tribune editor grows black in the face, shouting about the direct tax refunded by the general government, which amounted to $420,000. While charging the democracy for the direct tax, he should credit the $100,000 for arrears of bounty and the $100,000 appropriated for the world's fair. Then there is left but $220,000 of the direct tax available for reduction of taxes. Deducting the $220,000 from $383,857, there is a net reduction of taxes to the credit of the first two years of democratic rule of $163,857. To this should be added the surplus accumulating from economy in every department and in each state institution, which will surely amount to many tens of thousands of dollars. Then to this must be added in increase of corporation taxes not less than $200,000 annually, which for the official term will be $400,000. Then the taxpayer and even the Tribune will begin to comprehend the benefit of the change brought about by the last election; yes, merely begin to comprehend, for there is another important matter to be considered. This is the moneys received from the sale of public lands, which amounted to more than $800,000 during the four years Luce was governor, as against less than $100,000 during Winans' term.

In other words, the Luce administration had $400,000 to apply to the reduction of taxes where the Winans administration had but $100,000. Taking this into consideration with all the other economies worked by the present administration, and the benefit rendered the people by the democratic legislature and state officers will foot up in figures a round million dollars for the term of two years, and an example in honesty, economy and efficiency has been set for all time.

No Time to Lose.

He rose at early dawn one day
And hastily began to dress,
Because his wife was going to catch
The afternoon express.

—Detroit Free Press.

HOUGHTON COUNTY'S CASE

The Representative Apportionment Conforms to the Constitution.

How Houghton County Came to Be Divided—How the Republicans Violated the Constitution in the Keweenaw District.

Considerable space has been given in the republican papers to fault-finding with the last Michigan apportionment of state representatives. The principal faults charged against the act are two: first, that all counties having a moiety of the ratio of representation are entitled to, but are not given, a separate representative, and secondly, that a county should not be divided in the formation of a district, as in the case of Houghton county. As to the first complaint, the constitution, in section 3, article 4, provides that "each county hereafter organized, with such territory as may be attached thereto, shall be entitled to a separate representative, when it has attained a population equal to a moiety of the ratio of representation."

The constitution, including the provision here recited, was adopted in 1850, and many apportionments have been made by the republican legislatures with full knowledge of their duties in this regard. Their practice should conform to their understanding and interpretation of this provision. And their practice, continued for years and years, forms a just precedent and establishes a practical construction of this constitutional provision. Looking over the republican apportionment acts one would expect to find, in the light of their present claims, that when a county had a population equal to a moiety of the ratio, it would be given a separate representative. The constitution says it is then entitled to a separate representative, though there is no command that one must be given. There is nothing in the constitution either forbidding the annexation of sufficient territory to make the population equal to the full ratio, if it is lacking. Therefore the republicans might have given a separate representative to the county that had a moiety in one instance, or in the other they might have attached such territory as circumstances and exigencies required to complete a moiety.

For example, the population of the state in 1884—which was the basis of the apportionments of 1885—was 1,853,658. The house of representatives is composed of 100 members, and thus the basis of apportionment was 18,536, and a moiety was 9,268. Under the rule the Detroit Tribune lays down for the democrats any county having a population of 9,268 should have been given a separate representative, but the republican legislature didn't see it that way.

The republican apportionment of 1885 shows the following counties to have been entitled to separate representation, which was denied them.

	Population.
Alpena	12,783
Cheboygan	9,373
Delta	9,401
Grand Traverse	12,092
Iosco	10,092
Osceola	14,001
Wexford	10,518

The republican party has repeatedly practiced this method of apportionment, and was at no time criticised by the Tribune for it. What was a virtue in republicans becomes a grievous sin when practiced by their political opponents.

The democratic apportionment of 1891 has observed this provision almost uniformly. It is impossible that an exact and equal apportionment be made, and where there is a margin, it is but fair that the dominant party take advantage of it. Michigan has never had a representative apportionment so nearly equal, fair and just in its division of representatives as that given it by the legislature of 1891.

Now as to the second charge. The constitution says: "But no township or city shall be divided in the formation of a district." It does not say a county shall not be divided. But it does say emphatically that "each representative district shall consist of convenient and contiguous territory." Houghton county is the only one divided by the democratic apportionment of 1891. A glance at the map will convince anyone of the reasonableness of this division. Keweenaw county has a population of only 2,894. To give Houghton county two representatives would disfranchise Keweenaw's citizens, for it lacks a moiety, and there is no other contiguous territory to attach to it. Thus it would be left without representation. But by dividing Houghton county and attaching a part of it to Keweenaw, districts composed of convenient and contiguous territory, each nearly equal in population to the other, are formed. No provision of the constitution is violated; nothing has been done that is forbidden either by the constitution or decency, but on the contrary substantial justice is meted out.

The republican apportionment of 1885 gave Houghton county two representatives and erected a separate district out of Ontonagon, Baraga, Keweenaw and Isle Royal counties, having a total population of 12,542, or 5394 less than the basis of apportionment. The district, instead of being composed of convenient and contiguous territory, as is plainly and imperatively commanded by the constitution, was spread into four separate and geographically distinct parcels, with Houghton county, Keweenaw bay and Lake Superior intervening between them to prevent their contiguity. Every citizen should look at the map of this district constructed by the republicans. Then let him read section three, article four of the constitution. Let him recall, too, that the republicans now propose to contest the apportionment of 1891 because of the union of a part of Houghton county and Keweenaw county in one representative district. An aggrieved suitor must come into court with clean hands. Their insincerity and their partisan venom discredit their cause. Their case, too, is as lacking in merit as their motives are lacking in purity. And both will find condemnation in the decision of the supreme court.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.

A POSITIVE FACT.

Wife at Zoo: There is one thing that I have always liked about rattlesnakes. Husband: What is that? Wife: They never have to trouble anyone about keeping their buttons on.

Ladies do not delay your valuable time by waiting and suffering, but secure a bottle of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and be cured of your monthly trouble either in old or young. It is the very best preparation I ever prescribed in my extensive practice. It has given the best results in the greatest number of cases of female troubles of any medicine that I ever used. I do not make a practice of using or recommending patent medicines, but this remedy is prepared by a very competent physician and chemist of my acquaintance and I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend it as the the best.

A. C. FRUTH, M. D., Specialist of Diseases of Women, 80 East Madison St. Chicago, Ill. For sale by John J. Orr.

The Michigan delegation was a potent force at the Chicago Convention. Their action stands out in striking contrast with the puerile course of the Michigan delegation at Minneapolis.

Labor respects lawful authority, but labor, whether organized or unorganized, has no respect for Pinkerton thugs and hirelings.

A CONTRACTOR'S ADVICE.

Dullam's German Medicine Co.:—Gentlemen: I take great pleasure in testifying in behalf of Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure. I can safely say that I never took such medicine as that to cleanse the liver, stomach and kidneys. I was suffering for years with biliousness, indigestion and loss of appetite and sleep. One bottle did for me more good than six months' other treatment, and I feel it my duty to testify in its behalf, so others may try it and get cured. Yours Truly, Warren E. Russell, Contractor and builder. Flint, Mich.—For sale by John J. Orr.

Dissatisfied Passenger (on the "L"): Say, where's the smoking car? Polite Conductor: Front end of the train, sir, but it doesn't smoke. It uses anthracite. Twenty ninth street!

THE SKILL AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential to the production of the most perfect and popular laxative remedy known, have enabled the California Fig Syrup Co. to achieve a great success in the reputation of its remedy, Syrup of Figs, as it is conceded to be the universal laxative. For sale by all druggists.

Uncle Wayback: Now wot's the use o' teachin' gals all these new-fangled studies? Wat good is this 'ere astronomy your're studyn'? City Niece: Why, uncle, it's a delightful subject to talk about on moonlight evenings. We point out Venus and then the young man says something pretty, and then—see that ring?

VERY MUCH SURPRISED.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle Signed A. B. Snell.

Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1891. For sale by John J. Orr.

He: Did you have a good time on your camping party last summer? She: I should say so. We had seven girls and seven men; and when we came home there were forty-nine engagements in the party.

MILES' NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

Coughing leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Not on good terms

—dirt and Pearline. They can't live in the same house. You'll have to take one or the other. Take Pearline to clean everything that is washable—clothes, dishes, paint, glass. It saves labor, temper, time, money, and fabric. Millions use it. No one is poor enough to do without it; everyone is richer for using it.

Beware

Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing—send it back. 213 JAMES PYLE, N.Y.

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER

DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S.,

Brick Office on Shawnee St. TECUMSEH, MICH.

Threshers Attention!

We have 30 of our

CELEBRATED ALL-FOUR WHEEL DRIVING

TRACTION ENGINES

That we will dispose of direct to threshers, thus saving them the agent's commission. The best and simplest traction Engine made. We also manufacture Stone Rollers, Saw and Picket Mills, and the FAMOUS ECLIPSE TURBINE AND WIND MILLS.

Send for Catalogue and Price Lists.

The Lansing Iron and Engine Works,

LANSING, MICH.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 66 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

ELY'S CREAM BALM CURES CATARRH COLD IN HEAD INSTANTLY HAY FEVER

The New Model Hall Typewriter,

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Characters.

Remodeled and Improved.

GOOD MANIFOLDER.

The Best Standard Typewriter in the World.

Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interchangeable type in all languages, Easiest to learn and rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIEND

Everybody should have their writing done on the Typewriter. It always insures the most prompt attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159.

N. TYPEWRITER CO.,

611 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

THE Steadman BUSINESS COLLEGE

And SHORTHAND SCHOOL, TOLEDO, O.

Prepares its pupils for business and then assists them to positions.

136 Students placed with Banks, Wholesale Houses and Railroad Cos. since Sept. '90.

Write for full information.

A. H. STEADMAN, Pres.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the City of Adrian, on Monday, the 20th day of June, in the year one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Hugh Harbeson, Emily May Harbeson and William J. Harbeson, minors.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of W. J. Harbeson, an uncle of said minors, praying that Charles Burridge, of Tecumseh, may be appointed guardian of said minors,

It is Ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July next, as time o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the next of kin of said minors, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office in the City of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted,

And it is Further Ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the THE TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy.)

A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee—ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Friday, the 17th day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate

In the matter of the estate of John Richard, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Alexander Richard, a son of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to him, petitioner, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July, next, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of Lewis V. Miller, deceased

The undersigned having been appointed by the Probate Court of said County, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas Burridge, in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 6th day of August, 1892 and and on the 7th day of December, 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 7th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 13th, 1892.

MINOR DAVIDSON,
MICHAEL SMELTZER,
Commissioners

DRS. CAITLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CAITLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6:30 P. M.

Dr. Caitlin will retain his former office at his house.

Buy Dullam's Great German Dyspepsia Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default of Payment having been made of a mortgage made by Edward Rowland and Elsie Rowland, his wife, to Albert Hyde, Sr., bearing date the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1879, of record in office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 100 of mortgages, on Page 34 on which mortgage there remains unpaid at the date of this notice, of the principal and accrued interest, the sum of Eight Hundred forty-four and 62-100ths dollars ($844.62), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken for the collection of the same,

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and by virtue of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the money above named and interest thereon at 8 per cent. per annum to accrue thereon, the costs of this foreclosure and sale, including the attorney fee provided by law, I shall, on the first day of August, A. D. 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, Michigan (that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for the said County of Lenawee), all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point in the South line of Logan street, Seventy feet east from the intersection of that line with the East line of Evans street in said Village, thence running South parallel with and seventy feet distant from the East line of Evans street to an alley described in a deed given to Benjamin Farley by Michael A. Patterson and George Spilford; thence East along the North line of said alley seventy feet; thence North to the South line of Logan street aforesaid; thence West on South line of Logan street aforesaid seventy feet to place of beginning—being the same land conveyed by John H. Mills to said Edward Rowland by deed bearing date December 29, 1873,—and comprising dwelling house and premises and blacksmith shop and premises thereon.

Dated May 5th, 1892.

ALBERT HYDE,
Mortgagee.

CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for Mortgagee. may5

MORTGAGE SALE.

DEFAULT of payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date March 19th, 1889, executed and delivered by Seth C. Randall to Emma Drake, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1889, in Liber 120, of mortgages, on pages 414 and 615, and upon which mortgage there remains due at the date hereof the sum of three hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents (399,60), and no proceedings at law or in equity having been taken to collect the same or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained (which has become operative by reason of said default) and by the Statutes of the State of Michigan, in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon, and costs of this foreclosure and sale including an attorney fee as provided by law; I shall, on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the east front door of the court house, in the City of Adrian, County of Lenawee Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, viz: The northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three (23), town six (6), south of range five (5) east.

Dated April 11, 1892.

EMMA DRAKE,
Mortgagee.

WOOD & FIRD
Attorneys for Mortgagee. april

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of John Allen, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas. Burridge, in Tecumseh, Lenawee county Michigan, on the 16th day of July, and on the 6th day of Dec., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 7th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment

Dated, June 12, 1892.

E. G. PRICE,
WM. RANDALL,
Commissioners.

A Fatal Mistake.

Physicians make no more fatal mistake than when they inform patients that nervous heart troubles come from the stomach and are of little consequence. Dr. Franklin Miles, the noted Indiana specialist, has proven the contrary in his new book on "Heart Disease," which may be had free at Baker & Hall's who guarantee and recommends Dr. Miles' unequaled New Heart Cure, which has the largest sale of any heart remedy in the world. It cures nervous and organic heart disease, short breath, fluttering, pain or tenderness in the side, arm or shoulder, irregular pulse, fainting, smothering, dropsy, etc. His Restorative Nervine cures headache, fits, etc.

Every Month

many women suffer from Excessive or Saint Menstruation; they don't know who to confide in to get proper advice. Don't confide in anybody but try

Bradfield's

Female Regulator.

a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE, SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR

MENSTRUATION.

Book to "WOMAN" mailed free.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S

DUSKY DIAMOND TAR SOAP

Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing.

Cures Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc.

Removes and Prevents Dandruff.

AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP.

Best for General Household Use.

ARE YOU SICK?

$5 will mail 12 days trial treatment of the famous Australian Electro Pills for only 10 cents and $5.00 worth liquid remedies for Catarrh, Kidney or Stomach Trouble, Indigestion, Headache, Constipation, La Grippe and the nervous system. Full treatment by mail, $1.60. Severe symptons. Special terms to live agents mentioning this paper. Address Dr. E. J. Worst, Ashland, Ohio.

WANTED SALESMAN

Good pay. Steady employment. Big advantage over rival concerns; stock guaranteed; no experience needed. Write if want a good position. Address.

THE GUARANTEED NURSERY CO

GENEVA, N. Y. Lock Box 150.

Dr. Hoxsie's Certain Croup Cure,

A great PREVENTIVE as well a CURE for Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, and Bronchitis. Contains no opium. Causes no nausea.

Price 50 cents.

Address A. P. HOXSIE, Buffalo, N. Y.

DEAFNESS & HEAD NOISES CURED by Peck's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfortable, Successful when all Remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, 853 Broadway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists

CONSUMPTIVE

Carter's Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough, Weakness, Debility, Indigestion, Pain. Take in time. 50 cts.

CATARRH CURE Sure. The only sure cure for Coryza, Influenza, Catarrh, Cold in the Head, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Loss of Voice, Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Pain. 25c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

A Family Affair

Health for the Baby,
Pleasure for the Parents,
New Life for the Old Folks.

Hires' Root Beer

THE GREAT TEMPERANCE DRINK

Is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening, effervescent beverage.

Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good" —'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

PATENTS

Patents, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.

OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send Model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.

Send for PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

A. SNOW & CO.

OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE FIRES GOING.

The Carnegie Company Prepares to Start Its Works.

Laborers, Provisions and Bedding Have Been Placed in the Mills—Strikers Surprised and Disappointed, But Peaceable.

GETTING READY FOR WORK.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 18.—The strike is fast settling down to a question of endurance and resources. At least this is the way the leaders talk, and Chairman Hugh O'Donnell, of the advisory board, gave it out officially Saturday afternoon that the Carnegie Steel Company could put as many non-union men in the works as it wished and no violence would be offered by the strikers to prevent it. Moral suasion is to be the cry from this time forward.

More non-union men, to the number of thirty or forty, were put at work in the Carnegie mills Saturday without the knowledge of the strikers, and, hence, without protest of any sort from them. This makes from eighty to ninety men now at work. Manager Frick declares that he will have the mills running by the middle of the week and that the backbone of the strike is broken. The strikers did not know until Saturday morning that non-union men were actually at work inside the fence, and when they did they had little to say about it.

Notices have been posted in conspicuous places of the intention of the company to start the mills on Thursday. Old employes are invited to return to their work before that date, after which no applications will be received from them. The new men are confidently expected before the formal opening of the works on Thursday, but the strike leaders do not believe that any of them will be introduced until after it is seen how many applications for work have been made by the old men.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 18.—George W. Rutter, a steelworker wounded in the riot of July 6, died at the Homeopathic hospital Sunday. He was 40 years of age and leaves a family. Edward Speer, a Pinkerton man of Chicago, who was at the West Penn hospital, died at midnight. This makes eleven deaths resulting from the riot at Homestead.

WIPED OFF THE MAP.

The Island of Sangir, One of the Philippine Group, Reported Gone.

SYDNEY, July 18.—Rumors have reached here from Timor that there has been a volcanic eruption on the island of Sangir, one of the Philippine group, and that most of the inhabitants have been killed. A native from the Talatee islands, who landed at Selangen four weeks ago, brought a remarkable story to the effect that several other natives had just returned from a voyage near Sangir. They had intended to land on the island, but were prevented by the mountains belching forth smoke and fire. They reported that the "whole island was on fire." The water along the coast was full, they said, of half-burned wreckage, pieces of houses, and charred bodies. The whole population, estimated at about 12,000, seemed to have been swept into the sea or burned, as not a living soul was to be seen. Streams of lava were still flowing toward the shore, showing that the activity of the volcanoes had not abated.

Death of Col. George W. Manypenny.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Col. George W. Manypenny died Friday at his residence near Bowir,. Md., aged 84. He was born at Uniontown, Pa., in 1808, removed to Ohio about 1830, and during his residence in that state was appointed commissioner of Indian affairs by President Pierce and served on Indian commissions under Presidents Grant, Hayes and Garfield. He was general manager of the public works of Ohio for seventeen years and also editor of the Ohio Statesman from 1859 to 1862.

Fifteen Hundred Buildings Destroyed.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—A series of great fires is reported from the Philippine islands at Marong June 3. Two hundred buildings in the business section were destroyed. At San Miguel de Mayuno fire broke out in two districts of the town, causing great damage. At Balanga, June 6, 1,500 buildings were destroyed, leaving 9,000 persons homeless and destitute. Other fires occurred at Juan Mandola and Manban during the month.

Wants a Divorce at 70.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 15.—Samuel Sawyer, a prominent grand army man and minister, now publishing a weekly paper in Indianapolis, has begun suit in the Grant circuit court for divorce. The allegation is abandonment. Both are about 70 years old and well known all over the state.

Stole a Large Sum.

GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—The Missouri, Kansas & Texas passenger train No. 2, southbound, was held up by a gang of masked robbers at Adair, I. T., last night. The robbers secured the contents of the safe of the Pacific Express Company ($40,000) and made good their escape.

Vote Unanimously for Diaz.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 18.—All the electoral colleges so far as heard from all over the republic have cast their votes unanimously for Diaz for president for four years from December 1, 1892. Magistrates of the supreme court are also reelected.

Blew Down Iowa's State Fair Building.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 16.—A severe storm of wind and rain Thursday night did considerable damage to standing grain in this vicinity. The large amphitheater and other buildings on the state fair grounds were destroyed.

The Failure Record.

NEW YORK, July 16.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number 190, as compared with totals of 170 last week. For the corresponding week last year the figures were 274

WILSON'S GREAT SPEECH.

Protection and Reciprocity Shaken on Their Foundations By the Logic of Tariff Reform.

"For years we have been struggling to recover the lost right of taxing ourselves, and now we are threatened with the loss of the greater right of governing ourselves. The loss of the one follows in necessary succession the loss of the other. When you confer upon the government the power of dealing out wealth you unchain every evil that can prey upon and eventually destroy free institutions—excessive taxation, class taxation, billion-dollar congresses, a corrupt civil service, a debauched ballot box and purchased elections. In every campaign the privilege of taxing the people will be bartered for contributions to corrupt them at the polls. After every victory a new McKinley bill to repay these contributions, with usury, out of taxes wrung from the people. For every self-governing people there can be no more momentous question than the question of taxation. It is the question, as Mr. Burke truly said, around which all the great battles of freedom have been fought. It is the question out of which grow all the issues of government. Until we settle this question wisely, permanently, justly, we build all other reforms on a foundation of sand.

"We and the great party we represent are for tariff reform because it is the only gateway to genuine democratic government. The distinguished leader who presided over the republican convention boasted that he does not know what tariff reform is. Who ever said that he did? Let us hope, with the charity that endureth all things and believeth all things, that he is fully as ignorant as he vaunts himself to be.

"Unfortunately the people are not so ignorant of the meaning of protection—at least of the protect[illegible]s doled out to them in the [illegible]rs his name. They see th[illegible]g writ large to-day in prostr[illegible]riculture, in a shackled commerce, in stricken industries, in the compulsory idleness of labor, in law-made wealth, in the discontent of the workingman and the despair of the farmer. They know by past experience that protection as a system of taxation is but the old crafty scheme by which the rich compel the poor to pay the expenses of the government. They know by hard experience that protection as a system of tribute is but the old and crafty scheme by which the power of taxation of the private people is made the private property of a few of the people.

"Tariff reform means to readjust this system of taxation and to purge away this system of tribute. It means that we have not reached the equality of true freedom so long as any citizen is forced by law to pay tribute to any other citizen and until our taxes are proportioned to the ability and duty of the taxpayer rather than to his ignorance, his weakness and his patience.

"Gov. McKinley further declared that the democratic party believes in taxing ourselves. I am afraid, gentlemen, we must admit this charge. What right or excuse have we for taxing anybody else?

"With a continent for a country, with freedom and intelligence as the instruments for its development, we stand disgraced in the eyes of mankind if we cannot and if we do not support our own government." We can throw that support on other people only by beggary or by force. If we use the one we are a pauper nation, if we use the other we are a pirate nation.

"The democratic party does not intend that we should be either. No more does it intend that they shall falsely call it taxing other people to transfer the expenses of the government from the possessions of those who own the property of the country to the bellies and backs of those who do the work of the country. It believes that frugality is the essential virtue of free government. It intends to limit taxation to public needs and to levy taxes by the plain rule of justice and equity.

"But, gentlemen, we are confronted with a new cry in this campaign. The republican party says Gov. McKinley now stands for protection and reciprocity. He was for protection alone when he framed his bill in the house, or rather permitted its beneficiaries to frame it for him, and firmly resisted all efforts of the statesman from Maine to annex reciprocity to it. No wonder that he favors the reciprocity added to his bill by the senate. You might explore the pages of burlesque literature for anything more supremely ludicrous than the so-called reciprocity of the McKinley bill.

"It is not reciprocity at all. It is retaliation, and worst of all, retaliation on our own people. It punishes American citizens for the necessities or the follies of other people. It says to a few little countries south of us: 'If you are forced by your necessities or led by your follies to make bread higher and scarcer to your people, we will make shoes and sugars higher and scarcer to our people.' And now we are told that reciprocity is to be their battle cry. Already we are regaled with pictures of Benjamin Harrison clad in armor and going for the battle for reciprocity on a plumed steed. Simple Simon fishing for whales in his mother's rain barrel, in great triumph capturing an occasional wiggle waggle, is the true realistic picture of reciprocity of the McKinley bill.

"We are for the protection that protects and for the reciprocity that reciprocates. We are in favor of protecting every man in the enjoyment of the fruit of his labor, diminished only by his proper contribution to the support of the government, and we are for that reciprocity that throws no unnecessary obstacle between the American producer and the market he is obliged to seek for his products.

"But gentlemen, I must not keep you from the work that is before you. Let us take up that work as brothers, as patriots, as democrats. In so large a convention as this, larger in numbers than any previous gathering of our party and representing a larger constituency it would be strange, ominously strange, if there were not some differences of opinion on matters of policy and some differences of judgment or of preference as to the choice of candidates. It is the sign of a free democracy that it is many-voiced and within the limits of true freedom, tumultuous. It wears no collars; it serves no masters. We cannot shut our eyes to the fact that many who have heretofore followed our plan with enthusiasm are to-day calling with excusable impatience for immediate relief from the evils that encompass them. Whatever can be done to relieve the burdens, to restore, broaden and increase the prosperity of the people, and every part of them, within the limits and according to the principles of free government that the democratic party dares to promise that it will do with all its might. Whatever is beyond this, whatever is incompatible with free government and our historic liberty, it dares not promise to any one."—Chairman William L. Wilson at Chicago, June 23, 1892.

STEEL RAIL PROFITS.

The Trust Will Not Be Disturbed By the Present Administration.

The eleventh paragraph of the republican platform was not quite two weeks old when the managers of the steel rail trust held a meeting in this city yesterday and decided that the trust's price of $30 per ton should be maintained. This paragraph is as follows:

"XI.—We reaffirm our opposition, declared in the republican platform of 1888, to all combinations of capital, organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens. We heartily indorse the action already taken upon this subject, and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws and to render their enforcement more complete and effective."

The combination of the manufacturers of steel rails, commonly called the Steel Rail trust, has exacted this ring price of $30 per ton, for the last seventeen months, in spite of a marked decline in the cost of the raw material. Its greed has recently been pointed out by the New York Tribune and other high tariff journals. Even the Philadelphia Manufacturer, which is the organ of one of the two powerful high tariff associations, complained mildly as follows a few days ago:

"Values of some products, [in the iron trade,] notably pig iron and plate iron, are at the lowest point ever recorded; but steel rails are held firmly by the combination at $30, although Bessemer pig is now $3 per ton cheaper than it was in 1885, when rails sold at $26 per ton."

The Manufacturer's figures were doubtless taken from the annual report of the American Iron and Steel association, where the prices are set forth as follows:

	1884-5.	1891-2
Bessemer pig iron at Pittsburgh..	$17 00	$14 00
Steel rails at Pennsylvania mills..	26 00	30 00
Difference	$9 00	$16 00

These figures, however, represent the lowest prices in 1885 and 1892. The following table shows the average prices for 1885 and the prices at the present time:

	1885	1892.
Bessemer pig iron	$17 61	$14 00
Steel rails	28 50	30 00
Difference	$10 89	$16 00

The combination is able to exact $30 now, when the raw material is selling for $14, because it exercises absolute control over the industry and is protected against importations from abroad by a tariff duty of $13.44 per ton. The price of rails in England now, free on board, is $20 per ton. With the duty and freight c[illegible]es paid they can be laid down in this city for $35 or $36. The duty is therefore prohibitory, and the associated manufacturers can safely exact $30 without regard to the cost of raw material. And while they exact this ring price by unlawful agreement, they can also reduce the wages of their workmen, as press dispatches have shown.

In March last Attorney General Miller said to the agent of a press association: "We are endeavoring to execute the anti-trust law, and wherever a concern is found which offers a fair field for investigation, it is pursued to the best of our ability." But no one will ever induce the attorney general to "investigate" or "pursue" the combination of manufacturers of steel rails, in which his friend Carnegie holds so prominent a place. No unlawful combination that contributed liberally to the republican campaign fund in 1888 and is willing to contribute liberally again this year, will be disturbed by the department of justice.—N. Y. Times, June 24, 1892.

Here's Consistency for You!

On page 331 of the American Economist of June 24, 1892, we read that "thousands of pairs of boots and shoes are daily made in Massachusetts by machinery, giving employment to thousands of workmen at good wages. We export largely to England, where labor in much cheaper than in this country."

On page 332 we learn that "American laborers cannot receive wages which are two or three times as high as the wages earned by foreigners while the products of those foreigners' labor are allowed to come here entirely free from duty."

On page 333 it is said, "it (revenue tariff) cannot be to relieve American purchasers, for the fact is that they already buy the things enumerated (cutlery, boots and shoes, machinery for farm and factory, and farm products,) more cheaply than they are sold anywhere else on earth."

On page 341 we are told that ivory is bought in London, manufactured in Connecticut by "deft Connecticut Yankees" and "the finished product is actually shipped back" to London. Then follows the significant remark that "there was much in this protected system of ours which the philosophy of Cobden did not take into account."

—The American Wool Reporter of June 9, 1892, announces that "about seventy-five weavers in No. 2 mill of the Thornkyke Co., at Thorndyke, Mass., struck Monday afternoon against a reduction of three cents per cut in the price paid for weaving. These weavers need more protection. McKinley should look into their case.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by travelling between Detroit and Cleveland via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $4.25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making sure connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. Schantz, G. P. A. Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

A LEADER.

Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant. It is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of stomach, liver or kidneys. It will cure sick headache, indigestion, constipation, and drive malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c. per bottle. Sold by J. J. Orr.

"Nonsense," remarked Synnek, "It isn't love that makes people marry. It's flattery, rank flattery. The man is pleased because the woman took a fancy to so inferior a being as he knows himself to be, and the woman's vanity is tickled for a precisely similar reason. In a word, each loves the other for showing good taste in choosing a mate.

I have been troubled with chronic catarrh for years. Ely's Cream Balm is the only remedy among the many that I have used that affords me relief.—E. W. Willard, druggist, Joliet, Ill.

My son has been afflicted with nasal catarrh since quite young. I was induced to try Ely's Cream Balm, and before he had used one bottle that disagreeable catarrhal smell had all left him. He appears as well as anyone. It is the best catarrh remedy in the market.

WHY IS THE W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY?

It is a seamless shoe, with no tacks or wax thread to hurt the feet; made of the best fine calf, stylish and easy, and because we make more shoes of this grade than any other manufacturer, it equals hand-sewed shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

$5.00 Genuine Hand-sewed, the finest calf shoe ever offered for $5.00; equals French imported shoes which cost from $8.00 to $12.00.

$4.00 Hand-Sewed Welt Shoe, fine calf, stylish, comfortable and durable. The best shoe ever offered at this price; same grade as custom-made shoes costing from $6.00 to $8.00.

$3.50 Police Shoe; Farmers, Railroad Men and Letter Carriers all wear them; fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, heavy three soles, extension edge. One pair will wear a year.

$2.50 fine calf; no better shoe ever offered at this price; one trial will convince those who want a shoe for comfort and service.

$2.25 and $2.00 Workingman's shoes are very strong and durable. These who have given them a trial will wear no other make.

Boys' $2.00 and $1.75 school shoes are worn by the boys everywhere; they sell on their merits, as the increasing sales show.

Ladies $3.00 Hand-sewed shoe, best Dongola, very stylish; equals French imported shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00.

Ladies' $2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 shoe for Misses are the best fine Dongola. Stylish and durable.

Caution.—See that W. L. Douglas' name and price are stamped on the bottom of each shoe.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE. Insist on local advertised dealers supplying you. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by

SOLD BY

HARRIS & HITESHU, Tecumseh.

- - - LADIES - -

In delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions or of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to my cure, together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The M. U. Pastilles have stood the test of 18 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $1.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr. H. H. Jackson 103 State Street, Chicago, Illinois

The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. The name and address will be given any lady asking for the same:

'DR JACKSON,

Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend your M. U. Pastilles to all ladies suffering with female diseases. Having myself been bedfast for ten months and could find no remedy until I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using six or two boxes I was well and sound, for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady." ully-ly

CURE THAT Cold AND STOP THAT Cough.

N. H. Downs' Elixir WILL DO IT.

Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

Warranted. Sold everywhere.

HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

If you are troubled with a "hacking cough," Downs' Elixir will give you relief at once. Warranted as recommended or money refunded.

Baxter's Mandrake Bitters cure indigestion, Heart Burn, Costiveness and all malarial diseases. Twenty-five cents per bottle.

Johnson: Been away on a vacation? Jackson: Yes; went down to Medocskeneasais in Maine. Lots of fishing and, that sort of thing, you know. "That's the kind! Any game?" "You bet! Poker every night in the week and all Sunday."

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno Orrs.

LAKE SUPERIOR TRANSIT CO

The Great Duluth Route.

Intended sailings of steamers from Detroit for Sault Ste Marie, Duluth and other Lake Superior Ports:—Mondays, 8. P. M.; Thursdays and Saturdays, 10:30 P M.; central time. For Cleveland, Erie and Buffalo, Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays; 5 P. M., central time, making railroad connections for all points East and South. Rail Connections at Duluth for St. Paul, Minneapolis, Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railway Points, Pacific Coast, etc. Baggage checked through to destination. For tickets and information, apply to J. T. WHITING, Gen'l Agent, Dock and Office, 33 West Atwater St., near Griswold, DETROIT MICH.

KING OF THE BLOOD

The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.

Cures all Humors, from a Common Pimple to the worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.

Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.

Its name is its best description as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.

It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.

It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the Surgeon's knife.

It cures DROPSY, general or partial.

It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.

It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.

It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons and establishes a sound constitution.

Many certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," in which each bottle is enclosed.

Price $1 per bottle containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses. Sold by dealers in medicine.

If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you. It will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors, BUFFALO N. Y

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.

It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.

The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.

All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.

It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood. By this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame; every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years.

This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates of cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.

Prices 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's. Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!

HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan Street, I am prepared to execute

General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds,

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY,

Satisfaction Guaranteed and Charges Reasonable.

A. J. WHITING.

FAT FOLKS REDUCED From 15 to 25 lbs. per month by harmless herbal remedies that do not injure the health or interfere with one's business or pleasure. It builds up and improves the general health, clears the skin and beautifies the complexion. No wrinkles or flabbiness follow this treatment. Endorsed by physicians and leading society ladies. PATIENTS TREATED BY MAIL. CONFIDENTIAL. Harmless. No Starving. Send 4 cents in stamps for particulars to DR. O. W. F. SNYDER, McVICKER'S THEATER, CHICAGO, ILL.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Village of Tecumseh, Mich.,
Council Room, June 20, 1892.

Regular session. Present, President Bills; Trustees Bresie, Shull, Wright, and the Recorder.

On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with until the next meeting.

The committee in charge of the test well reported that they had changed the contract for digging the test well to one dollar per foot.

The Recorder reported seventeen dollars license collected with treasurer's receipt for same.

The following bills were presented and referred to the finance committee: Chas. Carpenter, work on well $63.75; C. A. Stayton, supplies $19.28; Albert Hyde, labor, $28.00; Alem Kent, $1; W. Cassell, $1.25; H. E. Finch, $8.50; Richard Holdeway, 63c.; J. S. Campbell, $3.50; Chas. Moody, $11.63; E. Ames, $10.19; Chet. Bronson, $5.00; Lorenzo Young, $12.25; Geo. Snell, $20.50; Geo. Mize, $22.28.

The question of procuring a new system of Books for the Village accounts was on motion referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Wright, Bills and Burridge.

The finance committee reported favorably on all above bills and orders were directed to be drawn on the treasurer for the several amounts.

On motion the Council adjourned.

WALTER C. BURRIDGE, Recorder.

Village of Tecumseh, Mich.,
Council Rooms, July 4, 1892.

This being a legal holiday, and there being no quorum present, the meeting was not called to order.

WALTER C. BURRIDGE, Recorder.

Village of Tecumseh, Mich.,
Council Rooms, July 11, 1892.

Called session. Present, President Bills; Trustees Shull, Bresie, Smith, Wright, Bidwell and the Recorder.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

The committee in charge of the test well reported the well down three hundred and ninety-six feet without finding a proper water supply and referred the matter back to the council.

On motion the report was accepted and adopted.

The council then proceeded to an informal discussion of the question of a water supply, and on motion, work at present was ordered discontinued. On motion the present committee in charge of the well was discharged and the matter referred to the water board.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

The Street commissioner reported from June 6 to July 4, 21 days, 5 1-2 hours for team labor; hired team labor 41 days 8 1-2 hours; hand labor 80 days 3 1-2 hours. Poll tax collected $6. On motion the report was accepted and adopted and ordered placed on file.

NEW BUSINESS.

The following bills were presented and referred to the finance committee: Tecumseh Electric Co., lights for June, $155.00; T. R. Kyle services as Marsal $13.00; Chas. Carpenter services and pipe for well $82.85; Geo. Mize team labor $15.75; Geo. Snell team labor $14.50 Jas. O'Rilley team labor $12.50; Alex. Parks team labor $1.25; E. Ames $9.75; Chas. Moody labor $6.00; John Campbell labor $8.50; Wm. Grootenhouse labor $6.25; John Alexander labor $4.50; Dan'l Frost labor 90c; Albert Hyde labor $22.

On motion the matter of taking care of the fire engine was referred to the fire committee.

On motion the purchasing agent was instructed to procure three suitable lanterns for the use of the fire department.

The committee having reported favorably on all the above bills, on motion orders were directed to be drawn on the treasurer for the several amounts.

On motion the Council adjourned.

WALTER C. BURRIDGE, Recorder.

Lippincott's Magazine for August 1892.

The complete novel entitled "The Martlet Seal," by Mrs. Jeannette H. Walworth, depicts with readable interest the strength of an old family feud that draws round it like a loadstone sufficient of love, misunderstanding and strained friendship to make a striking tale. The novel is completely illustrated.

In the Journalist Series, John A. Cockerill talks of The Newspaper of the Future in a way that cannot fail to attract attention.

Edgar Allan Poe, whose well-known interest and place in this branch of Athletics insures his grasp of the subject, contributes to the Athletic Series, this month, a paper on Intercollegiate Foot-Ball.

Mrs. J. K. Wetherill deals a pointed paragraph or two about the need of A Professional Plaindealer. The department called 'As It Seems' discusses the popular sentiment wasted on prisoners to the forgetfulness of the honest poor and the distinction between a Mugwump and a Wobbler.

There are short (illustrated) stories by Lorimer Stoddard and Frederic M. Bird. The poetry of the number is contributed by Louise Chandler Moulton, Clinton Scollard, and Irene Putnam.

Prohibition County Convention.

The Prohibitionists of Lenawee county will meet in convention at the court house in the city of Adrian, on Wednesday, August 3rd, next at 10 o'clock a. m. to elect delegates to the state convention, which meets at Owosso on the 10th of the same month. Each township and ward will be entitled to six delegates. In cases where no delegates are present from any township or ward any Prohibitionist present from such precinct will be recognized as delegates to the number to which it is entitled. There will also be a meeting of the county committee at the same time for reorganization and the transaction of business. Towns that have not yet selected their member of the county committee should do so and the member should report at that meeting. A full attendance is desired.

C. QUICK, Co. Chairman.

Bicycle Parade

Over 100 bicyclists appeared on the streets last evening, in the regular parade of the Adrian ladies and gentlemen, augmented by wheelmen from Tecumseh, Blissfield, and other points. Fifteen bicyclists came over from Tecumseh, sixteen from Blissfield, and scattering members of silent steel clubs of Hudson, Ridgeway, Ann Arbor, etc, were here to enjoy the society of Adrian wheelmen.

About thirty-five took supper at the Lawrence, under the chaperonage of the Adrian gentlemen, and at 7 o'clock the procession formed, parading the principal streets of the city.

Over one hundred wheels were in line when they started, but owing to the lateness of the hour, a longspin was not indulged in. After a parade of the streets the visitors departed, some of them taking the trains home, and others using their wheels, while not a few had made the trip with their roadsters.

The Blissfield contingent arrived here at 5:30, and with the Adrian boys went out to meet the Tecumseh bowlers, who did not get here till 7 o'clock.—Adrian Times of Tuesday.

Every Democrat is interested in the National Ticket. To arm himself against the sophistries of the Republican party, every Democrat should read Frauds and Falsehoods of the Republican Party, the latest, the largest and most authentic campaign document issued. It shows the fallacy of protection, the weakness of Reciprocity, the financial mismanagement and wastful Expenditures of the Republican party. The comparison of the Mills and McKinley bills is an Eye-opener to Farmers, Mechanics and Laborers. Complete Biographies of Cleveland and Stevenson, a full report of the Convention, the party platform and the Exposition of Democratic Principles. Nearly 600 pages. Price only $1.50. Special terms to Democratic clubs. Big Pay to working agents. Canvassing book sent free for 10cents. Address: ROYAL PUBLISHING HOUSE, 263 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Lenawee Baptists on Temperance.

Rev. F. E. Arnold and Capt. A. P. Coddington of Tecumseh, prepared the following report on temperance which was adopted by the Lenawee Baptist association at the late meeting in Rollin which has a very clear ring:

"We deem the present saloon system one of the greatest hindrances to the securing of God's kingdom on earth; and that it is also the prolific mother of vice, degradation and misery in our land that it is an evil so great as to seriously threaten even our national life. With exceeding regret we recognize that despite all that hath been said and done in opposition, yet the most reliable statistics show that the amount of liquors consumed per capita in our land steadily increases from year to year. We are by this, as well as by its working in our several fields, compelled to recognize that the present method of licensing the evil is totally ineffective to repress or lessen it; that it does not even regulate, but instead fosters and protects the saloon with all its attendant crime and guilt. We therefore most earnestly beseech all lovers of temperance to unite on some more effective plan of opposition to this evil, and we do solemnly enjoin both pastors and laymen of our association to oppose by vote, by voice, by life, this so great a system of legalized iniquity."

The Great Chicago Fire.

What is said to be the best attraction in the World's Fair City at the present time is the Cyclorama of the great Chicago Fire, located upon Michigan Ave., near Madison St. No one should fail to see that masterpiece of Cyclorama painting, illustrating, as it does, the greatest conflagration of modern times.

This wonderful painting is about 50 feet high and 4000 feet long, and there were consumed in its production 2 1-2 tons of paint. Usually these paintings are executed in Europe and then exported here; not so with this one. The best artists of Europe—from London, Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris,—were employed to come here, at a cost of from $20 to $25 per day each, to paint this Cyclorama where it now hangs. It required about two years to produce this wonderful work. It represents the sum of a quarter of a million dollars as it stands to-day, and is the most expensive work of art in the world, the expense of producing it being three times the amount ever before expended on a production of this nature. The Chicago Fire burned up $1,000,000 worth of property every five minutes on an average, for 18 hours in succession. It burned over an average of two and one-half acres every minute for that period of time. This will give some idea of what the fire really was. Those who experienced that appalling catastrophe will never forget it. To those who did not see the fire the next best thing is to see this marvelous painting of it, which is an exact reproduction of the ruins and buildings of Chicago as they appeared on the morning of Monday, Oct. 9th, 1871. The business portion of the city is in ruins, and the great North Side is a sea of fire.

—ALMA LADIES' COLLEGE—

St. Thomas, Ontario. The leading Canadian College. Graduating courses in Literature, Music, Fine Art, Commercial Science, Elocution, 200 Students. Home comforts. Fine health record unsurpassed advantages, Moderate rates, 60 p p Illustd announcement.

Address Pres. Austin M. A.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U., will serve a supper at the home of Mrs. A. T. Codlington Friday, p. m., July, 29th. All are welcome.

What is the Worlds Woman's Christian Temperance Union? "An organization of women the world over; a federation of the women of every race and zone with the insignia of the white ribbon and the watch-ward of prayer in a warfare against a legalized liquor traffic."

There are twenty National Woman's Christian Temperance Union's in the world. The isles of the sea and every continent except South America are included in the direct work of the society. There is scarcely a language in which its tale is not told, nor one in which its monster petition to the governments of the world for the outlawing of the traffic in all intoxicants including opium has not been signed.

Death of Mrs. A. I. Burton.

The following notice was taken from a Cleveland, Ohio, paper, dated, July 6.

Mrs. Amelia Isabella Burton, widow of Rev. William M. Burton, who was at one time the rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in this city, and wto was at the time of his death, thirty-eight years ago, the rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church at Tecumseh, Mich, died last Tuesday at Nashville, Tenn She was eighty-five years of age. Mrs. Burton was a daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Joshua Soule, the senior bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. She was also a sister-in-law of Rev. Dr. Lewis Burton, this city. Mrs. Burton had many warm friends in this place, who will greive to hear of her death.

Teachers' Examination.

The next examination of teachers will be held at the court house, Adrian, Thursday and Friday, August 4th and 5th, 1892. Candidates are requested to bring pen, ink and legal cap paper and to be promptly on hand at 9 o'clock, Thursday morning.

C. F. FIELD,
County School Commissioner.

To Whom It May Concern.

The Commissioner of Patents having on June 13, 1892, affirmed the decision of the Board of Examiners-in-Chief of the Patent Office, which was in my favor and in which they hell that I was the inventor and entitled to a patent on the Friction Clutch used by the Upton Manufacturing Company and the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company for the past two seasons, and being the same one shown in their catalogue for '91 and '92, you are herely notified that I shall commence suit to recover one hundred dollars royalty against the owner of each and every engine manufactured by the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company I find this Clutch used on.

Yours Respectfully,
R. SHETTLER.

The Only Big 25c Show to Exhibit in this Vicinity this Year.

Through an arrangement entered into between the proprietors of the leading shows of the country, the Sells and Rentfrow's Enormous Railroad Shows, which will appear in Tecumseh, Thursday, July 28th, will be the only tented exhibition of any importance that will visit this section of the country this year. Already the circus-loving portion of this community is on tip toe of expectancy over the coming of the reliable Sells and Rentfrow aggregation; and it can be set down as a certainty that it will attract tremendous crowds. The proprietors of this well known establishment, who are the acknowledged leaders of the show business of America, are said to have outdone all previous efforts in this line, both in the novelty of the entertainment and the wonderful features exhibited. The securing of the largest elephant on earth, secured at a cost of over $25,000. The enormous outlay of cash is evidence that the managers of this great show are bound to exhibit to its patrons something new and worth the great name and reputation it already has. The street parade will be the grandest ever seen here. After the parade a grand free show will be given on the show grounds, which is said to be the best ever given. We confidently predict enormous crowds on Thursday, July 28th.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno. Orrs.

Little Girl: My papa has to get up awful early to get to the office to see if his clerks is there attendin' to business. Little Boy: My papa don't have to. He's one of the clerks.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cen Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs

Death of Mrs. Decker.

Experience M. Decker, aged 84 on the 8th day of March last, died Sunday, at 1:30, at her home in Adrian township. The grip was the cause of her demise.

Mrs. Decker was born in Manchester, Ontario county, N. Y.. Married Uri Decker, came to this county in 1833, settled in this township, joining farms with the Cass Baker farm, Mr. Baker's father being a brother of Mrs. Decker. Mr. and Mrs. Decker lived continuously on the same farm all these years. Mr. Decker died five years ago, and Mrs. Decker has lived on the old homestead with her son, Sidney S. Decker, since then.

Mrs. Decker was the mother of four daughters and four sons, namely: Mrs. George W. Fleming, city, Mrs. William Wood, of Rome, Mrs. Luther Wood, of Adrian township, Mrs. John Turner, of Adrian township; Messrs. Clark Decker, city, Joseph B. Decker, city, Edwin N. Decker, Ionia, S. S. Decker, living on the homestead.

Funeral at the Wolf Creek Universalist church, of which congregation she was a member for years, on Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, sun time.—Adrian Times.

The August Peterson.

The August "Peterson" is the finest number we have ever seen of this popular magazine. It opens with two very fine engravings, both being artistic gems. Gilberta S. Whittle's article, "Some Noted Washington Women," will attract much attention. It gives excellent photogravures of Mrs. Lieut. Mason, Miss Kate Deering, Miss Mattie Thompson, and various other society belles, together with a delightfully written biographical sketch of each lady. "A Thorough Misunderstanding," by Georgia Grant, is a first-class story. "A Country Wedding," by Dama B. Stevens, is not only a pretty description but gives many valuable suggestions. "Held Up at San Angelo," by Howard Seely, is one of the most exciting tales this popular author has written. "An Eighteenth Century Cabinet-Maker," by Meredith Jackson, gives an interesting account of the celebrated Chippendale, with fine specimens of his work. "Ivory-Work" describes the newest fad in embroidery, and the directions for doing it are rendered still clearer by good illustrations. "Dorothy's Devices," by Minna Irving, will be worth everything to girls who want to dress tastefully on limited means. "The Hermit of the Hacienda," by Will Lisenbee, deserves special mention among the stories, though they are all capital. "Uses for Odds and Ends," by Cornelia Redmond, shows a fertility of resource amounting to genius. These paragraphs will give an idea of "Peterson's" variety and excellence. Terms, $2.00 a year; $1.00 for 6 months. A sample number will be sent for five cents. Address Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A New Line to the Northwest.

Commencing Monday, May 23d, the elegant steamer "City of Marquette" will make regular trips between Frankfort and Kewaunee, Wis., in connection with trains of the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan R'y. Through Express leaving Toledo at 5:45 a. m. daily except Sunday, arrives at Frankfort 5.55 p. m., connecting with "Steamer "City of Marquette," leaving Frankfort 7:00 p. m., arriving at Kewaunee 1:30 a. m.

Holders of first-class tickets are furnished sleeping berths on Steamer free of extra charge and will be permitted to retain berths until morning.

First train leaves Kewaunee 8:55 a. m. for Green Bay, Winona, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis and all points in the West and North West.

W. H. BENNETT, G. P. A.
Toledo, Ohio.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno Orrs.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St. N. Y.

REAL ESTATE
—AND—
Newspaper Subscription Agency

For anything in either line apply to

VINCENT WOOD, TECUMSEH.

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.

OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.

A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.
OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

SUMMER HATS

STRAW HATS,
SOFT HATS,
STIFF HATS.

For Men and Boys—All Styles and Qualities.

Hot Weather Clothing An Endless Variety of Styles and Qualities.

Cassimere Suits in All the Latest Styles and Colors for Men, Boys, and Children.

THE LARGEST LINE AND LOWEST PRICES AT

STRONG & McNAIR'S.

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS

I will sell your choice of my extensive line of

Hanging Lamps

at cost. I can show you the best assortment of

HAVILAND CHINA,

plain and decorated patterns, in dinner and tea sets, also in fancy pieces. Decorated English porcelain in 12 different patterns, and in sets to suit. A fine English decorated chamber set at the very low price of $2.90 for 10 piece set; $4.90 for 12 piece set.

My stock of Fancy Groceries is complete. Our customers say we have have the best 50c tea in town. Come and get sample and see for yourself. Will not be undersold.

JAMES LOWRY.

We have never had such a fine array of harvest machines to show farmers as this season. Every one shows inventive skill, strength and symmetry derived from the touch of

WALTER A. WOOD.

The Wood machines, as made for 1892, are winning crowds of new friends. Examine the new chain-drive, and balance-reel, on the Wood harvester. Examine the new spring lift and the new axle extension on the Wood mowers. Examine the Wood hand-dump rakes, virtually self-dumping.

REASONS WHY

FARMERS SHOULD BUY

Walter A. Wood Harvest Machines

BECAUSE they are light of draft.
BECAUSE they are easily operated.
BECAUSE they are simple in construction.
BECAUSE with care they will last a life time.
BECAUSE they are THE WALTER A. WOOD.
BECAUSE they have a world-wide reputation.
BECAUSE great care is taken in their manufacture.
BECAUSE they do not require the aid of an expert.
BECAUSE they contain all the latest improvements.
BECAUSE they can be operated by man, woman or child.
BECAUSE they are made of the best and strongest materials.

M. E. CONKLIN, Agent.

Headquarters at D. L. Whitenack's Hardwa

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WANTED.—Two intelligent ladies and one gentleman. $15 per week salary. Position permanent. Address
L. L. KEMBERLING,
12 Williams St., Adrian, Mich.

FOR SALE.—A No. 1, double grip Westcott Drill Chuck, opens at ⅝. P. J. WELLING.

PAY YOUR TAXES—Will be at the HERALD office each Friday during the month of July to receive village taxes. T. R. KYLE, Marshal.

MONEY TO LOAN.—On long time. Apply by letter to Lock Box 15, Tecumseh, Mich

DRESSMAKING.—Mrs Waldron and daughter, Mrs. Harris, can be found at their home ready to wait upon the ladies in the line of dressmaking. Give them an opportunity to do your work. Residence two blocks north of Presbyterian Church.

HAIRDRESSING. Madame Grifin, hairdresser, of Detroit, is at Mrs. Gamble's.—Manufactures and has for sale all styles of hair goods. Prices very reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. 1w

MUSTANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, tf Tecumseh.

CLAYTON'S ODOMETER.—A Customer from Ontonagon, Mich., writes A. W. Slayton: "Have used your Odometer a year, am much pleased and want more of them." These machines are now in use in nineteen states. They tell how many miles you or others drive your horse. Address, A. W SLAYTON, Tecumseh, Mich. Agents Wanted.

TECUMSEH HERALD.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JULY 21, 1892.

Local and Miscellaneous

The big circus is coming on Thursday of next week.

Rev. J. O. Heck, of Rome, was in town last Monday.

Wheat harvest will be about closed in this section this week.

The Tecumseh Bi Club took a spin over to Adrian Monday evening.

Dr. White and C. S. Burroughs, of Clinton, were in town last Saturday.

Sells Circus is the best show on the road. It will be here next Thursday.

Sheriff Baldwin and Prosecuting Attorney Wood were in town Monday on business.

As harvesting is about over now, farmers will be able to catch up with their haying.

The largest tent show on the road will exhibit at Tecumseh next Thursday, July 28th.

William Sells, the greatest bareback rider, is coming here with Sells and Rentfrow's Shows.

Justice Burridge and his family were at Cedar Point Cottage, Devil's Lake, a portion of last week.

I. P. Keyser was home over Sunday. He is raising twenty acres of celery on his celery plantation this year.

Walter Heck, of South Bend, visited his parents over Sunday. Walter is prospering in his present location.

Surgeon-General Woodward is quite busy now preparing for the annual encampment which will take place in August.

Mrs. E. C. Baird, of Dayton, Ohio, arrived in town last week and will spend a month or so with her mother, Mrs. E. B. Wood.

There was an old fashioned crowd in town last Saturday evening. The stores were thronged until long after the late train went North.

The blue ribbon races of the Detroit Driving club are being held at Detroit this week. A number of Tecumseh horsemen are in attendance.

Sells and Rentfrow's Big Show will soon be with us. The small boy is saving his pennies, and will be impatient for circus day to come around.

Last week was a big harvest week in this vicinity. During the six days from Monday morning till Saturday night, the bulk of the wheat crop was cut.

The committee having in charge the Russian Relief fund have got a receipt from Clara Barton for $94.32, being the amount in full for Tecumseh's donation.

Rev. W. F. Crispin, of Akron, Ohio, will preach at the Universalist church next Sunday, both morning and evening, at the usual hours. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. M. A. Freeman respectfully requests all persons indebted to her to call and settle all accounts made prior to 1892, without delay. If not settled within thirty days, they will be put in process of legal collection.

Uncle George Sheeler of Cambridge, was in town a couple of days last week, calling on his numerous friends and he favored the HERALD sanctum with a little visit of course. He is enjoying good health now, for a man of his years, and bids fair to stay with us for some time yet.

A Freedom man fell down stairs the other day and struck the "home plate" with such force as to set off a box of matches in his hip pocket. The injured man was drenched in time to save him. Let's have no laughing—a box of combusted matches in a hip pocket ought not to be made light of.—Adrian Press.

It is now eight years since the little Courier was launched on the journalistic pool of Lenawee. It has been propelled by hand power and met many obstructions but is still considered 'sea worthy' and carries regularly a full cargo. During its ninth annual voyage, which commences this week, the Captain expects to put in steam power and change some of the rigging to facilitate more business. How many of the old passengers will send in $1.25 for the ninth year's voyage.—Addison Courier.

Mrs. N. M. Sutton is spending a few days in Detroit.

Miss Jennie Root is visiting friends at Cleveland, Ohio, this week.

The Democratic State Convention will be held at Grand Rapids, Aug. 17.

Three families of Italians, bears and monkeys, are canvassing our town.

Mrs. Dr. Frost and her two children are visiting friends in Grand Rapids.

Remember the Catholic Picnic at Devils Lake, next Wednesday, July 27.

Miss Maud Eccles has gone to Deadwood, S. D., for an extended visit with relates there.

Justice Burridge and family returned to their Cedar Point cottage to-day for a week's stay.

The Lenawee county Prohibs will hold their county convention on Wednesday, Aug. 3d.

Prof. McElroy, of Adrian College, filled the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday most acceptably.

Rev. W. H. Babbitt is taking his vacation in the mountains of Colorado. He will be gone several weeks.

Miss Viva Howell has gone to Washington, D. C. to make her sister, Mrs. C. E. Triplet, a few weeks' visit.

Miss Ida Chase leaves to-day to spend three weeks with friends at Grand Rapids, Petoskey and Mackinaw.

The foundation walls of Thos. Elliott's new house are completed and the carpenters have begun work on the frame.

Miss Mamie Stevens, of Detroit, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Steinhoff for a couple of weeks, has returned home.

Mrs. Tilton has a few more white lily bulbs, which she will dispose of this week at ten cents a bulb. The supply will soon be exhausted.

Miss Bertha Taylor, of Franklin, has so far recovered her health as to be able to leave the hospital. She is spending a few days with friends at Adrian.

Jos. Collins and wife, of Raisin Center, have been the guests of Horace Eaton's family for the past two days. Mr. Collins favored the HERALD with a friendly call yesterday.

The following delegates represented Tecumseh at the Republican convention last week: John D. Shull, Dr. Geo. Howell, Lemon Barnes, H. C. Conkling H. W. Stevens, F. O. Tefft.

Anderson & Co., of Tecumseh, whose ad appears in another column are supplying many of our people with dry goods. Good goods and low prices always win.—Addison Courier.

John J. Orr is now selling a Sarsaparilla and Red Clover Compound of his own making which is said, by those who have tried it, to be a superior article. His anti-constipation pills are gaining a large sale.

The following officers were installed at the Odd Fellows lodge last Tuesday evening:

N. G.—Wm. Gray.
V. G.—Jno. Honley.
Secy.—R. Holdway.
Treas.—C. E. Williamson.
Rep. to Grand Lodge—C. E. Williamson.

Alex. Easlick's perpetual calendar gets there every time. He sent a copy of the calendar, with a clipping showing the proper day for dedicating the Columbian Exposition, to President Harrison, An investigation followed and the day for the formal opening at Chicago has been fixed for October 21st.

The School Board have the new announcements for '92-93 now ready for distribution. The catalogues were printed at the HERALD Job Rooms, and it is the neatest pamphlet job ever turned out of this office. Persons desiring a copy of the same, can obtain one by addressing Dr. L. G. North, Director.

We have received a copy of the announcement of the University School of Music at Ann Arbor, for 1892-3. This school has a semi-official connection with the University, giving it advantages which it could not otherwise enjoy. From present indications it is destined to become one of the best musical schools in the West.

There was a law suit before his honor J. W. Wightman, last Saturday, wherein the People were complainants and Alonzo Ballou, defendant. The charge was carrying concealed weapons, and the trial was by jury. Assistant Prosecutor Westerman appeared for the People and W. C. Burridge for the Defendant. The trial lasted all the afternoon and resulted in a disagreement, the jury standing three to three.

The death of Mrs. Irving Dewey that occurred on Thursday, June 30th, was extremely sad. She was not yet twenty-one years old, and left a little son but a few hours old. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Alderdyce, of Cambridge. The parents and husband are almost heart-broken at their loss. The funeral occurred at the residence at the Junction, on Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. H. Fleming officiating.—Brooklyn Exponent.

The following Tecumseh wheelmen went over to Adrian Monday afternoon. They had a fine spin and were treated to a fine supper at the Lawrence on their arrival. The company consisted of fourteen gentleman and one lady, Miss Edith Ingersoll. The gentlemen were C. F. Patterson, E. F. Kirchgessner, J. N. Satterthwaite, Will Wescott, Geo. Field, Peter Ridgeley, Bert Marks, Harry Spaulding, Fred McNair, Frank Snedicor, Percy Fitzsimmons and Will Ingersoll.

Miss May Henderson, of Nebraska, is visiting at John Fisher's.

D. L. Whitenack & Co. have a new ad. this week. Don't skip it.

Miss Hattie Whittier was visiting friends at Saline last week.

Chas. Burger and Richard Weisinger, of Adrian, were in town Friday.

W. E. Hill, of Buffalo, N. Y., is the guest of L. L. Bates this week.

John Flick and wife, of Bedford, O., are visiting at N. C. Arnold's.

Will Hoy, of Detroit, has taken a position in James Lowry's store as clerk.

Fred Burrell is spending his vacation in Detroit with his uncle, W. F. Clark.

Miss Mamie Haight has taken Miss Dora Cairns place as assistant in the postoffice.

Mrs. F. B. Wood, of Adrian, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hialey, last week.

Invitations have been sent to about one hundred and fifty bands to attend the big reunion.

Hon. J. D. Shull and Dr. Geo. Howell are attending the Republican State convention at Saginaw.

Dr. and Mrs. G. D. Perry have gone to Boston to enjoy a few weeks' visit with their daughter, Mrs. Norris.

The Misses Frazer, of Cincinnati have been the guests of Miss Elida James for the past ten days.

Miss Grace Culbertson, of Covington, Ky., is the guest of Misses Edith and Agnes Woodward for a few days.

Co. C. will hold a competitive examination on the evening of July 26th to fill a vacancy in the position of corporal.

It is expected that the Rev. H. B. Steele, D. D., will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian church next Sunday

Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Lester, of Benton Harbor, and S. L. Lester and wife, of Detroit, are the guests of L. G. Lester's family this week.

Misses Mate and Agnes Baker, of Detroit, who have been visiting Mrs. Ed. Rogers for the past week, returned to their home Wednesday.

The celery farms are all crowded with work now. The crop is likely to be a large one, although the marketing will begin a little later than usual.

Heesen Bros. have their new boiler-house about completed and the boiler is in position. The engine will be set and the shafting put in place next week.

The Lenawee County Odd Fellows' Picnic association has decided to hold its annual basket picnic in Mulzer's grove, in the city of Adrian, on Aug. 17.

Miss Bertha Temple, a sister of John S. Temple's, died recently at St. Johns. She has frequently visited Tecumseh and had many friends here who will be grieved to hear of her death.

Anderson & Co. booked exactly 500 mail orders during the month of June. This branch of their business is having a steady and healthy growth and already amounts to a nice sum annually.

Harris & Hiteshu have a new double card this week, announcing their mid-summer clearing sale which will begin next Saturday. This will be a splendid opportunity for securing bargains.

Seventeen Bands have accepted the invitation to participate in the band-reunion. Almost every mail adds one more. Our citizens are making liberal calculations on a fine musical treat.

The Tecumseh Table Co. have been getting up a lot of new designs, about twenty in number, which gives them an elegant lot of styles. They are now at work on a large standing order for a Grand Rapids firm.

Mac G. Fritz has a large stock of picture frames on hand. He has made a business arrangement with Teeple, the artist, by which persons can procure picture frames of any style at Teeple's gallery. This will be a good arrangement for both of them.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their regular monthly sewing society and tea-meeting at Mrs. A. P. Coddington's on Friday afternoon, July 29th. Business meeting and devotional and literary exercises, from 2:30 till 3:30. Supper from 5 to 6. Everybody invited.

Work is progressing rapidly at the new planing mill. The boiler and engine are in position and the shafting and machinery are now being placed. Some of the machines are now ready for work, and the first of August will likely see the shop in full running order.

A relay run with the bicycles will take place from here to Ann Arbor about August 1st, the Adrian boys to take the message half the distance, divided into three mile stretches, and the Ann Arbor boys to follow it up on the same principle. This will be the first race of the kind by purely amateur talent.—Adrian Times.

J. H. Smith attended the big banquet given recently by the furniture manufacturers of Grand Rapids to the furniture dealers of the United States. We have seen a copy of the menu used on the occasion. If the banquet itself compared with the printed menu, it must have been a pretty tony lay out.

A grand Catholic picnic will be held at Lake View Landing, Devil's Lake, on Wednesday next, July 27th, under the auspices of the Sacred Heart Church of Hudson. A basket dinner will be given by the ladies of the church; there will be a yacht race, a balloon ascension and athletic games. A band of music will be in attendance and numerous other enjoyable features. Ten cents admission to the grounds.

—$60.00 IN CASH PRIZES.—Send ten cents for the June number of the "Literary Century" giving full particulars. Address THE LITERARY CENTURY, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention.
GEO. MATTESON

—I have a very complete stock of Hay Tools, Rakes, Tedders, Racks, Carriers, Forks, Rope, Pulleys, etc., and prices right.
C. A. SLAYTON.

—You will make no mistake in using Heck's Peacemaker Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands.
HECK & SON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call at C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—90,000 Star-A-1, shingle for sale at $3.15 per M.
O. P. BILLS.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—You will need to work your corn well this year and should have the best cultivator. You can find them at
C. A. SLAYTONS.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch. Give me a call.
GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds.
CITY BAKERY.

—When looking for a Hay Rack see the "Avery." It is complete as a Hay or stock Rack having a bridge to load stock or heavy articles. It makes a complete double wagon box with matched bottom and all changes are easily made.
SLAYTON & AVERY.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains. NEW LAUNDRY.

—Tintypes taken at Teeple's Gallery.

—Call and see the New Styles in Oak Chamber Suits at Stebbins'.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices.
CITY BAKERY

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice.
WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Life size Crayon Portraits given away with every dozen Cabinets,
AT TEEPLES' GALLERY.

—Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town. CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—$3.00 gets a life size Crayon portrait and one dozen fine enamel finish cabinet photos, at Teeple's Gallery.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial.
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—I want the farmers to remember I am still in the Mower and Binder trade and still have the agency for the "McCormick" line. The number of Machines sold is a good indication of how the farmers like them. In 1891 the McCormick Co. sold 121,780 machines. Come in and see the machines for yourself.
C. A. SLAYTON.

—Prof. C. S. Morrison, of Golconda, Ill., has been chosen Musical Director in the Fayette Normal University. He received his musical education at the Boston Conservatory, is an author of some note and vice-president of State Musical Association of Illinois. He is an experienced instructor, a brilliant pianist, and teaches both band and stringed instruments. He writes that he expects to make the Musical College of the F. N. U. one of the best in the State.

BARGAINS, BARGAINS, BARGAINS.

Mid-Summer Clearing Sale

Commencing Saturday, July 23, and continuing Two Weeks, at

HARRIS & HITESHU'S.

The people of Tecumseh and vicinity will receive a GRAND BENEFIT by calling at once.

Below we quote you a few of the Many Bargains:

150 pairs Ladies' Walking Shoes	20 per cent off
200 pairs Shoes to Close, worth 3.00 to 3.50, go at	$2.50
White Dress Goods and Apron Goods, worth 20, 25, 30 and 35c, at	17c

All Summer Underwear at Manufacturers' Cost

Outing Flannels, worth 12 and 15c, go at	8c
Light Prints at	4c
200 Ladies' Night Robes, worth $1.25, go at	79c

All Ladies' & Gents' Furnishings at Great Bargains

Call at Once, No Trouble to Show Goods.

Respectfully,

Harris & Hiteshu.

Warm Weather Has Come

I Have Added to my Stock a Large Invoice of

Ladies' Hand-Sewed Shoes,

Ladies' Walking Shoes.

Men's and Boys' Fine Shoes,

Mens' Working Shoes,

Misses' and Children's Shoes:

In Endless Variety and Suited for Warm Weather Wear.

Summer Coats and Vests And Summer Outing Shirts. A Large and very Handsome Assortment. Come to headquarters to get your Warm-Weather Clothing.

Yours for Trade,

Alva Spayde.

Ask at Our Store for a New BISSELL BOOKLET New Ideas Put in a Bright, Brief Way

Fly Nets,
Lap Dusters,
Croquet,
Tennis,
Freezers,
Refrigerators.

Screen Doors and Windows,
Bicycles,
Guns,
Rifles,
and Ammunition.

Satterthwaite Bros.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WIGHTMAN, Attorney at Law Successor to F. B. Wood, Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD. ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Fred'k B. Wood. John E. Bird,
Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLERENT E. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.

WEAVER & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Practice in all the Courts.
Masonic Temple. ADRIAN, MICH.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—Being now located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to calls in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. G. W. GOODRICH, V. S.

C. C. SLAIGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON, A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College, Residence, 1½ miles east of Pennington's Corners. All calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY,
J. H. EMERY, Proprietor,
Adrian, Michigan.
This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

RICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL.
Late The Madison.
Cor. of Jefferson Avenue and Randolph street, Detroit, Mich.
J. D. RICE, Prop. R. C. SPRAGUE, Clerk.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Three lines of street cars pass the door.
RATES—Meals 25c. Per day, $1.25 and $1.50
Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 141 O. O. F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. E. Anderson's store, Chicago street.
WM. GRAY, N. G.
R. HOLDWAY, Cor Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV J. DEHAAN, Pastor.

at 10:30; Sunday School at 12 o'clock; Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome.
Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Young People's Meeting. Come one, come all and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—

Special attention given to ladies' and childrens' hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.

—THREE CHAIRS—

Landgraf building, Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN
HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN
PAINTING
AND PAPER HANGING
Call on THEO. P WOOD, 77 E. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first-class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of
Railroad Street Meat Market!
Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.
GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN
Drugs, : Paints : Oils
AND VARNISHES.
N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded. At the Old Corner store, RIDGEWAY, JOAN. nov5

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY
MANUFACTURER OF
And Dealer in
Carriages, Buggies,
SURRIES, SPRING WAGONS.
ROADCARTS
SULKIES, CUTTERS, ETC.
Pearl Street,
TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER,

SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.

LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth. Crowns, Filling and Building-Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

B. F STEINHOFF'S
Dental Rooms.

OVERBAKER & HALL'S.

GAS FOR EXTRACTING.
LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co.'s Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.

EXAMINATION FREE!
Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.
Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.
Remember, office over Avery & Co.'s.
W. D. REED, D. D. S.
He will at Onsted every Wednesday.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN, OR WOMAN,

of intelligence and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight, but who has Lost the Most Precious Possession on Earth, viz., GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT require a SECOND TELLING to be induced to become a purchaser

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC
BELTS & APPLIANCES.

Do you know why? Because it is plain to be seen that the TRUTH ONCE TOLD is enough. The surprising promptness with which all classes of people respond to our announcements, and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods wherever introduced, conclusively prove that true merit is always recognized and the quality of merit takes care of itself. Scriptorially our statement is the Button—the Public Press it, and

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES
"Do the Rest."

The extent of Pleasure on the button and the success of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" is most satisfactorily shown in the marvelous growth of our business the past 60 days.

Enlarged and increasing demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming in from all parts of the country with profuse acknowledgements that "so much comfort for $1.00 the price is like buying Gold Dollars for ten cents."

The Delicate Organism of Woman subjects her to many peculiar ailments and unfortunate injury. The extreme sensitiveness of her Nervous system, very frequently requires artificial Stimulus. The Gregg Electric Belt and other Appliances supply this as nothing else can.

The Rugged Constitution of Man, when once broken, becomes pitiable in the extreme, from which there is absolutely no escape without assistance. The Gregg Electric Belts and Appliances in cases of this kind have honestly won the title of King of Remedies.

Rheumatism is conquered, sufferers from Obesity are speedily relieved, Dropsy quickly yields, spinal difficulties and Paralysis disappear, and many other diseases of Men and Women are permanently cured by the use of the Gregg Electric Belts, fully described in complete catalogue for 6c. or elaborate circular free. We guarantee to forfeit twice the price of any of Dr. Gregg's goods found not to be genuine. We make an elegant little 24 Electric Belt, which is selling very rapidly and will take in exchange for any higher power belt except $5 belt and credit $3 on the price of same. Retail price of the Electric Foot warmers are $5 a pair, worth $10. Address

THE GREGG ELECTRIC CURE CO,
501 Interocean Building, Chicago, Ill.
and mention this paper. J 14-tf.

A Perfect Success. VII

The Rev. A. Antoine, of Refugio, Tex., writes: As far as I am able to judge, I think Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic is a perfect success, for any one who suffered from a most painful nervousness as I did. I feel now like myself again after taking the Tonic.

ST. VINCENT'S HOSPITAL, Toledo, O., June 9, 1890.
We used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for epileptic fits in the case of a Mrs. Gorman, and it stopped the fits from the time she commenced taking it. We wish you an extensive sale for this beneficent remedy.
SISTER BRADY, Secretary.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 8, 1890.
I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic in Mrs. Sullivan's case, and it gave entire satisfaction, and she has no end of praise for it, and never forgets to recommend it to the sick and suffering. I have heard others say they used it with the same good results. THOS. KEATING.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5. Large size $1.75, or the 6 for $9.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Murdered his Wife and Son.

Rush Bartlett fatally wounded his wife and 5-year-old son and then shot himself at Bay City. He will recover. Bartlett had not been living at home for some time because of family troubles. He appeared at the house about noon and shot his wife in the abdomen. The murderer then fired on his oldest son, but the boy escaped unhurt. His 8-year-old boy then received two bullets in the abdomen. Another shot from the revolver gave Bartlett a serious wound in the neck.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by sixty-five observers in different parts of the state for the week ended July 9 indicated that cholera morbus, inflammation of the bowels, diphtheria, pneumonia and measles increased, and typhoid fever, dysentery and cholera infantum decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at twenty-five places, scarlet fever at thirty-one, typhoid fever at eleven and measles at seven places.

Confessed on Her Deathbed.

Mme. Wright, aged 70 years, died in Detroit. Living with her was a child aged 8 years. She came from Chicago two years ago, and from what she told Commissioner Martin and her neighbors on her deathbed it seems that the child was stolen. The story goes that the child was heir to wealth and was given to Mrs. Wright by relatives in order that they might secure the property. This is the old woman's story.

Made Fast Time.

The relay race of the Michigan bicyclists which was run between Kalamazoo and Detroit was a complete success. The schedule time for the 155 miles was 12 hours and 15 minutes, but the riders cut it down 1 hour and 27 minutes. The start was made at Kalamazoo at 6 o'clock in the morning and the journey was divided into twelve relays.

A Village in Ashes.

The greater portion of Rockland, Ontonagon county, was destroyed by fire. Stannard's general store, Mueller's jewelry store, Chynoweth's meat market and hotel, the Catholic church, post office and thirty dwellings were consumed. There was very little insurance, as the town had no fire protection. The loss amounts to over $50,000.

A Domestic Tragedy.

William Helms, an old resident of Fulton, who had been insane for several weeks, cut and mutilated his wife in a horrible manner with a knife and hammer. His daughter interfered, when Helms cut his own throat, dying instantly. Mrs. Helms could not live.

Short But Newsy Items.

Muskegon dog fanciers expect to hold a bench show in that city this fall.

Harry Fitzgerald's 14-year-old daughter started a fire with kerosene oil at Lansing and was fatally burned.

The Lansing common council has refused the request of the saloonkeepers to keep open after 10 o'clock p. m.

Charles Chopin, a lumber inspector at Waters, tried a swing that had been put up for picnickers. It broke, letting Chopin fall, and giving him injuries from which he died.

A man named Northrup, working for Gen. Hart on the drive on Manistee river, was drowned in the river near Walton by falling from the logs.

Dr. F. H. Knickerbocker has been appointed pension examining surgeon at St. Ignace, and Drs. C. T. Southworth and P. S. Root at Monroe.

William Harrington, a 13-year-old youth, employed in the shipyard at Wyandotte, went bathing in the slip, was taken with a cramp and immediately sank to the bottom and was drowned.

Clare will have a female baseball game.

Mrs. Dell Smith, of Williamston, choked to death. A piece of meat lodged in her throat.

Andrew Mulberry, of Jackson, paid a fine of $30 for stealing twenty-five bushels of wheat.

Two little girls, aged 11 and 13, were under arrest at Jackson for burglary. They secured $20 worth of household goods.

H. D. Seeley, one of the pioneers of Elmwood township, and a prominent farmer, had twenty-five sheep killed by dogs in one night.

Mrs. Pauldukuhn, an aged German widow, attempted suicide at Amasa.

Lightning struck and exploded some barrels of oil in the sawmill of J. M. Crandall, near Mayfield, entirely destroying the mill.

Mining Superintendent John B. Quick has been discharged from the Tamarack mine at Calumet for accepting bribes from employes.

Rev. H. G. Birchby, of Smithfield, N. Y., has accepted the call of Hope church, Second Reformed, at Holland, and will take charge October 1.

Lansing capitalists have raised $50,000 and will manufacture Maud S. pumps and windmills. Orlando F. Barnes is president of the company.

A Jackson colored woman who drew pension money amounting to $3,178 took $17 in cash and left the remainder with the pension agent.

Albert Johnson, a Swede laborer at Marquette and a prominent officer in the local union, committed suicide by hanging. The act was ascribed to a sudden insane impulse.

Mrs. Ruth T. Walker, of Alpena, is one of six persons who are heirs to $2,000,000 left by her brother, Thomas Bean, in Texas. The rest of the heirs live in Maine.

Near Howell several farmers were engaged in raising a barn when one of the timbers fell, striking Alonzo M. Cheney on the head and killing him instantly.

The quality of Michigan wool this year is below the average, and fine is selling at from twenty-one to twenty-three cents, with coarse ranging from twenty to thirty cents for extra good lots. The total clip will exceed 10,000,000 pounds.

GATHERING OF BAPTISTS.

Thousands of Delegates in Attendance on the Meeting at Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., July 15.—Incoming trains add to the host of people who had come to attend the first annual convention of the Baptist Young People's Union of America. When the convention was called to order not all of the expected delegates—over 5,000—had arrived, but to-day will probably see the whole number present. The first session held Thursday evening was devoted to welcoming addresses and responses. Rev. Frank L. Wilkins, of Chicago, the general secretary, read the annual report of the board of managers. It reviewed the work of the board and showed the union's great progress. There are in all 3,500 local unions in this country.

The following national officers were elected, and the afternoon session closed with state and provincial rallies: President, John H. Chapman, of Chicago; vice presidents, Rev. J. B. Cranfill, of Dallas, Tex., Thomas Urquhart, of Toronto, Ont., Frank Harvey Field, of New York city; recording secretary, R. F. Y. Pierce, of New Jersey; treasurer, J. O. Staples, of Chicago.

DETROIT, Mich., July 16.—Rev. Everett D. Burr, of Boston, who is the possessor of a rich baritone voice, led the half hour song service which opened the convention of the Young People's Baptist union yesterday morning. Then came the salute of flags, one of the most inspiring spectacles of the session. Each state had a flag and each flag bore a motto. The banners were carried by little misses of Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., July 18.—The visitors and delegates to the national convention of the Baptist Young People's union of America opened the last day of their stay in this city with an early morning prayer meeting led by C. J. Spenceley, of Boston. Most of the pulpits were filled Sunday morning by distinguished pastors of the Baptist denomination in attendance upon the convention, and the delegates and visitors divided themselves among the different churches. At 2 o'clock a praise meeting was held, at the conclusion of which a discussion was held on "The New Century of Missions."

Resolutions were adopted condemning the liquor traffic for the want, degradation and vice which results from it, declaring that it enters the domain of the civil government and seeks to bestow even the chief magistracy at auction to whoever will bid the highest subserviency to it, and calling upon all Christians to use their influence and energies to bring about its speedy extermination.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEES.

Candidates Who Will Strive to Secure Seats in the Lower House.

PARAGOULD, Ark., July 15. — The democrats of the First district yesterday nominated P. D. McCullock for congress.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 15.—The republican convention of the First district yesterday nominated Arthur P. Twineham, of Gibson county, for congress.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 15.—The republicans of the First congressional district yesterday nominated Capt. B. B. Dovener, of Wheeling, for congress.

THOMSON, Ga., July 15.—The democratic convention of the Tenth district yesterday nominated John C. Black for congress.

JOLIET, Ill., July 15.—The prohibition congressional convention for the Eighth district yesterday nominated Norman Kilburn, of Ottawa, for congressman.

OTTUMWA, Ia., July 15.—John F. Lacey, of Oskaloosa, was nominated for congress by the republicans of the Sixth district yesterday.

GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—The republican convention yesterday nominated Dennis Flynn, of Guthrie, for congress.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 16.—H. C. Snodgrass has been renominated by acclamation for congress by the democrats of the Third district.

Dilke Elected.

LONDON, July 16.—Sir Charles Dilke has been elected in the Forest of Dean division of Gloucestershire, receiving 5,360 votes to 2,942 for the tory candidate, Mr. Wemyss. This means the resumption of a brilliant parliamentary career which was suddenly cut off less than ten years ago by the scandal in which Sir Charles became involved with the wife of Donald Crawford.

Cholera Quickly Fatal.

LONDON, July 18.—The epidemic of cholera is not of so highly infectious a character as former outbreaks. Very few persons are attacked in proportion to the population but the disease is quickly fatal. The disease is raging with extreme virulence among the workingmen of Tsaritzin, where many of them have died twenty-four hours after they were attacked.

Effect of Pork Inspection.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—It is stated by the department of agriculture that the inspection of meats, and especially pork, by the officers of that department under the act of March 3, 1891, has had the effect of adding at least one cent a pound to the value of hogs marketed since the withdrawal of foreign prohibition, which resulted from the enforcement of the act.

Hop Bitters Company Dissolved.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 16.—An order was filed in the county clerk's office Thursday dissolving the Hop Bitters Manufacturing Company. Asa T. Soule made his fortune out of the medicine, drawing a salary, as president, of $15,000 a year. The assets were not more than $2,000 and the liabilities about $40,000.

They Need Aid.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 16.—It is reported that, owing to the floods, hundreds of people are starving and will speedily perish in Sumter and Marengo counties, this state, unless aid is soon given.

Linoleum Factory Burned.

CLEVELAND, O., July 18.—The factory of the Western Linoleum Company at Akron, O., burned Sunday. Loss, $100,000, fully insured. The cause of the fire is unknown.

WAR IN IDAHO.

Government Troops Sent to the Cœur d'Alene Mines.

Strikers and Non-Union Men Fight—Many Persons Killed and Several Wounded—Mills Blown Up and Railway Bridges Destroyed.

USING DYNAMITE.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 16.—A telephone from Wardner says that Gen. Carlin has arrested 100 union strikers at Wardner and placed them under guard. The arrests have caused intense excitement and violence is liable to break out at any moment. The military arrested Jack Wallace at Cataldo. He is suspected of being the ringleader in the Mission massacre, and runs a low resort in that country. The troops are deploying from Cataldo and it is thought the hills will be scoured for other suspects. Gen. Carlin now has 1,000 troops under his command and has called on all members of the Miners' union to come in and surrender. Citizens are jubilant over the action of the authorities and as some tough striker would be pointed out they would cry "Good! good!" and gave every token of pleasure at the downfall of the regime of the mob. The universal sentiment is favorable to martial law and the preservation of order.

WALLACE, Idaho, July 16.—Two railroad bridges near Mullan were blown up Thursday night and with them several telegraph poles. The strikers also cut down a number of poles, thus shutting off communication by that route for a time. The Gem and Granite mines are all right. The rumor that the Granite mine had been blown up probably started from the report of the explosion when the bridges were destroyed. The military investment of all the towns is complete.

WALLACE, Idaho, July 18.—The arrest of miners continues and several hundred are now huddled in the schoolhouses, empty warehouses and baseball stockade. They are closely guarded and cannot hope to escape. The troops have not captured any of the rifles or ammunition of the strikers which are hid in the surrounding hills. A number of the leading spirits in the insurrection are still at large. Among these are Breen and Dallas, who came here from Butte to direct the campaign. Other leaders still at large are Pettibone, Glover, Tobin and Sweeney. It is claimed at Cataldo that five bodies and a number of wounded men were picked up in Fourth of July canyon. Few of the fleeing strikers are coming this way. Most of them are passing over Bitter Root mountain into Montana, where the union is strong and where they can find aid and shelter. Two have been arrested here and booked on a charge of murder at the police station. This charge will be preferred against every fugitive who is caught.

It is probable the entire body of miners under arrest will be tried in the United States district court for contempt, though some of the prisoners will have to answer to the charge of murder. A detachment of troops went to Murray Sunday and brought Frank Reed, the murderer of R. W. Stevens, to Wallace for safe keeping, as threats of lynching were heard on all hands, and a well-organized mob had planned to attack the jail.

DEATH OF NEWTON BOOTH.

California's Ex-Governor Expires Suddenly at His Home at Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 15.—Ex-Gov. Newton Booth died suddenly Thursday evening.

[Newton Booth was elected governor of California in 1871, defeating the democratic candidate, Gov. Haight, by a large majority. In 1873 Gov. Booth and Senator Cassidy led a revolt against the railroad monopoly influence which then dominated both political parties in the state and succeeded in electing a large number of anti-monopoly members to the legislature. The result was that Gov. Booth was elected to the United States senate as an independent to serve for six years from March, 1875. Previous to his election there had been riots due to the presence of Chinese, and Gov. Booth labored to secure their exclusion from the country. In 1875, when Gov. Booth retired from the office of chief executive of the state, the independent party which he had formed and led nominated for his place Gen. John Bidwell, now the prohibition candidate for president. Bidwell secured 29,732 votes, but the democratic candidate, William Irwin, was elected. In 1881 Senator Booth was succeeded in congress by Senator John F. Miller.]

Allerton and Nancy Hanks Matched.

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., July 15.—The great 5-year-old race of last year between Allerton and Nancy Hanks is to be repeated this season on the kite-shaped track at this place. The race will take place September 1, the winner to take the whole purse of $10,000. The Thursday preceding the Allerton-Axtell race for a like purse will be held. Allerton is showing up well. He was sent a mile Tuesday in 2:14, finishing the last half strong in 1:04.

Immigration Statistics.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—During June last the total number of immigrants arriving at ports of the United States from the principal foreign countries was 73,120, against 68,317 in June, 1891. Six months ended June 30, 1892, 333,961; same period in 1891, 325,307. Twelve months ended June 30, 1892, 619,320; same period for 1891, 535,496.

The Record Smashed.

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—Mrs. John Harkins, wife of a mechanic in this city, surpassed all previous records yesterday by giving birth to four girl babies within a few hours.

Lived Over a Century.

ADRIAN, Mich., July 16.—George Gazelie (colored) died at the home of his son in this city yesterday, at the age of 116 years. He was born a slave in 1776.

Four Perish by Fire.

BERLIN, July 18.—Fire in the Reinickendorf quarter Sunday destroyed six factories. Three workmen and a fireman perished in the flames.

Three Were Burned to Death.

BERLIN, July 16.—Frau Scheve and her two children were burned to death in this city as the result of a lamp exploding in their apartment.

DR. FAY'S NEW TREATMENT FOR CONSUMPTION

Has been tested ten years on thousands of patients in the largest hospitals of America and Europe, and today is pronounced by the greatest medical authority to be the latest, safest and surest cure for Consumption and Lung Diseases yet known to the medical profession of the highest standing. Why do they say this? Because it cures more patients suffering with diseased Lungs than any other medicine or remedy yet discovered.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

READ WHAT IS SAID OF IT BY LEADING DRUGGISTS IN SOUTHERN MICHIGAN.

Prospective Housemaid: The boss an' the wages suits me well enough. Now, will yez please let me see the husband's portrhait so't I c'n see what kind of a lookin' man he is.

IT SHOULD BE IN EVERY HOUSE.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Shamokin, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of la grippe, when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at J. J. Orr's drug store. Large bottles, 50c. and $1.00.

Servant (delivering message): Mr. Triplett sends his compliments to Mr. Gazzam, with the request that he shoot his dog, which is a nuisance in the neighborhood. Gazzam: Give Mr. Gazzam's compliments to Mr. Triplett, and ask him to kindly poison his daughter or burn up her piano.

The greatest worm destroyer on earth is Dullam's Great German Worm Lozenge; only 25 cents per box. For sale by John J. Orr.

JOLLY TAR
PLUG CHEWING TOBACCO
CATCHES THEM ALL

READ THE FOLLOWING.

"I CHEW JOLLY TAR because it gives me more good, solid Tobacco for the money than I can get in any other brand."
The Carpenter.

"JOLLY TAR suits me and I mean to stick to it. It is the largest and best piece of Tobacco I have ever been able to find."
The Bricklayer.

"I KNOW a good thing when I see it. JOLLY TAR fills the bill. It gives both quantity and quality."
The Blacksmith.

"WHEN I chew I want the best. I have tied to JOLLY TAR and could not be induced to change."
The Engineer.

"I AM of the same opinion as Bill. JOLLY TAR is king of them all."
The Fireman.

"WE fellows want the most for our money always. JOLLY TAR gives it to us in good Chewing Tobacco. It is our stand-by."
The Printer.

AND THUS THEY ALL SAY. JOLLY TAR IS A GENERAL FAVORITE.

JNO. FINZER & BROS.
LOUISVILLE, KY.

15 CENTS PER BOX, GUARANTEED.

HYA HEADACHE POWDERS

FOR SALE BY JOHN J. ORR

FARMERS AND THRESHERMEN
Catalogue Free. All the Latest Improvements. Cushioned Cranks. Steel Tube, Return Flue Boiler. ¼ Fuel Saved by Traction. Plug on Side.

3,000 IN USE and never an explosion.

BUY THE NEW HUBER ENGINES.
ALL SIZES THRESHERS.

VICTOR HULLERS.
New Imperial Stackers.
G. C. POCKLINGTON,
Agent for southeastern Michigan.
State headquarters, R. Shettler,
Lansing, Mich

GRANDMA says it is 20 years since she made such good bread as this. She says

GILLETT'S MAGIC YEAST

is like the yeast she used to make herself, and she hopes she will never have to do without it again; and we all hope so, too.

Call for it at your Grocer's.
It is always good and always ready.

STRENGTH AND VIGOR FOR YOUTH AND OLD AGE

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S

STRENGTHENING CORDIAL AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

An antidote for Loss of Appetite, Loss of Spirits and Weakness; pleasant to the taste and a favorite tonic with the ladies. Price $1 per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

PREPARED BY
The Dr. J. H. McLean Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo

THE CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN"

has attained a standard of excellence which admits of no superior.

It contains every improvement that inventive genius, skill and money can produce.

WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

These excellent Organs are celebrated for their volume, quality of tone, quick response, variety of combination, artistic design, beauty in finish, perfect construction, making them the most attractive, ornamental and desirable organs in the world for Homes, Schools, Churches, Lodges and Societies.

Catalogues on application, FREE.

Chicago Cottage Organ Co.
223 WABASH AVE.,
CHICAGO, ILL.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS ... IS A ... HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS ONE OF OUR NEW

SEAMSTRESS SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS

National Sewing Machine Co.
SUCCESSORS TO
JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.
Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

SPRAGUE & SON, Solicitors of Patents in United States and foreign countries solicited. Inventor's pamphlet free. 37 CONGRESS ST., DET. Mich. Established 1864

PATENTS

SAVED BY AN APE.

A Yankee's Remarkable Adventure in Central America.

Why I stopped in Panama on my return from my trip to South America is a mystery. The quaint Spanish fashion of the old city interested me, and I found it difficult to tear myself away. When I was ready to leave my brief sojourn in the country had inspired me with so much confidence that I eagerly embraced the suggestion of my landlord to cross the isthmus on horseback.

"Take it leisurely," he said; "follow the old road. It touches various points along the canal. You can make the journey in a couple of days and you will not mind spending a night in one of De Lesseps' villages."

Now the canal was a pet hobby of mine. I was anxious to see how it was progressing. Besides, I had a friend who was one of the contractors, and I wanted to pay him a visit.

The next morning I mounted a gentle mustang, furnished by my host, and set out for Aspinwall, the Altantic port, where I intended to take the steamer. As I wished to reach the camp of my friend Jackson by midday, I rode rapidly during the morning.

At one place the road ran along in sight of the canal for half a mile. Here I saw a scene not to be matched anywhere on earth. Enormous machines were at work excavating thousands of tons of dirt, and countless wagons were employed removing the loose earth. Myriads of workmen swarmed everywhere, jabbering to each other in all the tongues of the known world. Among them were men from all the countries of the world—Americans, Africans, Chinamen, West Indians and Malays. The fierce looks cast upon me by these fellows alarmed me; but I pretended to be a calm spectator of the animated scene. One of the contractors was about, and from him I learned that I would find Jackson about five miles further on.

"Are you armed?" asked the contractor.

I told him that I had a revolver.

"You will probably need it before you reach Aspinwall," said he. "You are passing through thirty thousand of the worst cut-throats that were ever collected together."

After hearing that I had a great mind to return to Panama, but the dread of being laughed at made me decide to push on. Assuming a determined, businesslike look, I put spurs to my mustang and ambled through the motley gang of laborers until I had the satisfaction of leaving them behind me. Fortunately I encountered no obstacle, and Jackson's camp was made just in time for dinner.

Here I was safe. Jackson was a big fellow, whose men were nearly all Americans. He was delighted to see me and gave me a capital dinner. During the two hours that I spent with him I filled him full of news and he, on the other hand, told me a lot of wonderful things about the canal. He made no secret of his conviction that the enterprise would drag along for years, but, as he was making bushels of money, the delay played into his hands. As I declined to stay all night with him, Jackson gave me some directions about my route, and at my departure confided to me a package containing ten thousand dollars, asking me to deposit it for him in one of the banks at Aspinwall. I suggested that there was danger in carrying such a sum of money through the country, but the stalwart fellow laughed at my fears. He said that I would make the hacienda of Don Francisco Mendez at nightfall, where I would be royally entertained. By daylight he thought I could take care of myself.

While this was going on I saw two brutal looking Mexicans at a short distance watching us intently and conferring together in low tones.

"I don't like the looks of those rascals," I said.

"Hello, there! Pedro, and you, Juan," shouted Jackson. "Get to work, you lazy beggars!"

The Mexicans growled, and sullenly retired.

"They are two of the worst men in camp," said Jackson, "but they are not likely to bother you."

I had my doubts; but the prospect of staying all night with Mendez somewhat reassured me, and I started off in very good spirits. My road took me through a scene of bewildering beauty. The tropical foliage round me glittered with all the hues of the rainbow. Unknown flowers of gorgeous magnificence and overpowering fragrance brightened the roadside.

Suddenly I came upon a pond of clear water in an open space. Hot, dusty and travel-worn, I could not resist the temptation. Without counting the consequences I fastened the mustang to a sapling and undressed in a hurry, placing my revolver under my clothes on the edge of the water. Then I plunged in and enjoyed a refreshing swim.

One thing annoyed me. All along the way I met with monkeys everywhere. They were of all sizes, and the interest they took in my movements amused me not a little. Sometimes they chattered at me indignantly and shook their fists almost in my face. At a wave of my hand, however, they fled in precipitate terror.

As soon as I entered the lake the monkeys took fresh courage. They scrambled about in droves and abused me to their hearts' content. Among them was one of a species that I had not seen before. He was a ferocious looking monster, fully five feet high and as muscular as a bear. Before I realized the situation this great long-legged fellow swooped down on my clothes, and started with them for the woods. For a moment I was absolutely paralyzed. It was no joke to ride to Aspinwall in a decent rig, but I had no fancy for the role of Lady Godiva.

There was no time to lose. The monkey had left my revolver, and as soon as I could seize it I fired. He gave a howl of rage and dropped everything but my coat. I hastily jumped into my recovered garments and gave chase. It was useless. The thief scurried up into the top of a tall cocoanut tree, and in a twinkling of an eye put on my coat, buttoning it round him, and then proceeded to hurl cocoanuts at me with such precision that I was glad to quickly leap into the saddle and ride off.

But my troubles had just begun. I had reconciled myself to the loss of my coat, as Jackson's money was in an inside pocket of my waist, but the monkey showed a disposition to follow me. After firing at him several times I gave it up. His tough hide seemed bullet proof, and there was no chance to kill him unless I shot him in the eye.

The declining sun warned me that it was time to seek shelter for the night, and I knew that in these tropical solitudes there was no twilight. I saw no cultivated fields, no houses, no signs of the hacienda of Don Francisco Mendez.

The situation was growing serious. Occasionally a stone weighing a pound or two was hurled at me from some leafy covert, and then the gigantic monkey would give a horrible laugh and scamper away. He was a funny-looking chap in my blue flannel coat, but I was too angry to enjoy the comic aspect of the matter. It struck me that if the brute caught me in the dark he would make an end of me in no time. It was both horrible and humiliating, such a death in the tangled forests of this savage land.

Just then I saw a short distance off, in a clearing, a square stone hut. Here was shelter and protection. I was not disappointed much to find it uninhabited. It was strongly built, with no windows, and one entrance, from which the door had long since rotted away. A stepladder led to the loft. Ascending, I found a small apartment dimly lighted by round holes in the wall, which had evidently been used by sharpshooters at some revolutionary period in the history of the country. My mind was made up in an instant. I went back to my mustang and picketed him about one hundred and sixty yards from the hut in the bushes. Then I returned to my fortress just as darkness closed in upon me, and sought refuge in the loft, pulling up the ladder after me. I was safe here, even from the monkeys, and I lay down feeling a sense of perfect security.

It must have been late in the night when I heard something moving in the room under me. Looking through the opening in the floor I could see nothing. I struck a match, and by the flickering flame recognized the monkey. The wretch still wore my coat, and in the dim, uncertain light his appearance was more repulsive than ever.

I lay down again knowing that the beast could not get into the loft, and commenced planning for his destruction in the morning. I was satisfied that the animal belonged to a species of mountain apes, of great strength and terrible ferocity. Their cunning, I heard, was almost human, and they did not scruple to attack men and rend them limb from limb. I concluded, when the morning light appeared, to draw the brute's attention and shoot him in one of his eyes. Having settled on this plan, I was about dropping into a doze, when I heard voices outside the hut. I listened with alert ears.

"If, as you say, Pedro, this American is inside, we should ambush him and shoot him when he comes out in the morning."

"Now, by all the saints, Juan," was the reply of Pedro, "you are a cowardly fool. The Englishman, like all his countrymen, has his eyes open, and may get the drop on us."

"Wonder what they'll do with the monkey?" I said to myself with a chuckle.

"I hear the American moving," said Pedro.

It was the monkey. The monster was walking in the circle all the time, and the dead leaves that had drifted into the hut rustled under his feet. There was another whispered consultation, and the Mexicans rushed into the room below. The outlaws saw a dark form and charged with their long, murderous knives.

I heard two dull thuds, and knew that Pedro and Juan had been dashed headlong against the walls.

"Mother of Moses!" gasped Juan. "Knife him!"

The robbers made another rush.

"Ah! ah!" yelled Pedro. "Where are you, Juan? This hog of an American has me by the throat, and I have lost my knife."

"He is a demon!" groaned Juan. "He is pounding my head against the wall!"

A volley of yells followed and then a chorus of groans. Through it all I heard an ominous dull thud. At length silence prevailed, and I knew that all was over.

My last match was gone, but to my great delight it was almost morning. With the first rays of daylight I peered through the hole in the floor. It was a ghastly sight that met my gaze. The two Mexicans lay on the floor quite dead. Their heads had been smashed to jelly against the walls and their throats bore dark blue marks.

Sitting in the corner was the monkey. He was bleeding profusely and was evidently seriously hurt. At first I thought I would spare him. He saved my life and I was grateful. But when I fixed the ladder and descended the untamable beast prepared for a spring, and there was such evident malice in his eyes that I aimed at his eye and fired. One shot did the work. He rolled over dead.

It was no place for me after such an adventure, and I at once went in search of my mustang. To my great joy he was all right, and I was soon in the saddle and on my way to Aspinwall.

Depositing Jackson's money in the bank when I arrived, I immediately boarded the steamer. I knew that it would not be prudent to speak of the two Mexicans, and I had a suspicion that a statement of the part the monkey had borne in the tragedy would be regarded by the authorities as a cock-and-bull story. So I wisely kept my mouth shut until I was again among friends.

Of course, I have never wasted any regret on Pedro and Juan, but I still hold my horrible friend, the monkey, in great esteem.—N. Y. Dispatch.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Work of the Lawmakers at the National Capital.

A Daily Summary of the Proceedings in the Senate and House — Bills Passed and New Measures Introduced.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The sundry civil appropriation bill and the amendment to close the fair on Sunday were discussed in the senate yesterday. A resolution was adopted favoring arbitration in labor troubles and to provide for a labor commission.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The world's fair bill appropriating $5,000,000, with the Sunday closing amendment and the amendment prohibiting the sale of liquor attached, was passed in the senate yesterday by a vote of 51 to 14.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The sundry civil appropriation bill was passed in the senate yesterday. The bill appropriates $5,000,000 for the World's Columbian exposition with a Sunday closing restriction, but the amendment against the sale of intoxicants was rejected. A bill was introduced to authorize retaliation for certain unjust discrimination by the dominion of Canada against the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—In the senate yesterday the conference reports on the legislative, the navy, the army and the fortification appropriation bills were agreed to.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The last of the appropriation bills—that to supply the deficiencies for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1892—occupied about one-half of Saturday's session of the senate. All the amendments reported by the committee on appropriations were acted upon and the bill was then opened to general amendments. Only a few such, however, were offered up to the hour when, by general consent, the bill went over till to-day.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—In the house yesterday the conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation bill was agreed to.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—In the house yesterday a resolution that the Stewart silver bill be taken up was defeated by a vote of 136 yeas to 154 nays.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The conference reports on the diplomatic and naval appropriation bills were agreed to in the house yesterday.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—In the house yesterday all the senate amendments to the sundry civil appropriation bill were non-concurred in except the one relative to the world's fair, action upon which was set for the 19th. A resolution was passed extending the temporary appropriations for the government until July 30.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—In the house on Saturday the world's fair appropriation was the subject of debate during the entire session.

A WIND-SWEPT CITY.

Hamilton, O., Suffers from the Effects of a Tornado.

HAMILTON, O., July 16.—At 3:40 p. m. Friday a terrific windstorm swept over the northern portion of this city, causing great destruction. It approached from the west, and first struck the pulp-mill of the Louis Snider's Sons Company on North Second street. The entire west end of the building was blown in. The bricks and timbers fell on five men who were working in the pulp-room. The roof was torn to pieces and carried some disance. Two of the five men received fatal injuries and the others were seriously hurt. Smokestacks were blown down at the Niles tool works, Gordon pump works and Black and Clauson's shops. Snider company's loss will reach several thousands. Much small damage was done to houses throughout the city.

SWEPT AN OHIO TOWN.

A Tornado Demolishes Twenty Dwellings and Seriously Injures Many Persons.

SPRINGFIELD, O., July 15.—The most destructive tornado which ever visited this section of the country struck the southeastern portion of this city, the residence portion, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock and completely demolished about twenty residences and partially ruined over a hundred more. But two persons are possibly fatally injured but the loss in property is appalling. A conservative estimate places the loss at between $100,000 and $200,000.

Crops Destroyed.

BOONE, Ia., July 16.—A terrific wind and rainstorm passed over this region Thursday night, doing a great amount of damage. The wind blew a perfect hurricane, while the water fell in torrents at the time. The storm lasted over an hour, flooding everything and raising all the water courses. In this city trees are uprooted in all parts of town. From the country comes news of damage to crops, wheat and oats being badly lodged and corn leveled. Many fields of oats are completely destroyed and corn on low lands washed out.

Jumped Over Niagara Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., July 15.—Noble Kennedy, of Buffalo, aged about 19, committed suicide by jumping over the American falls at Niagara Falls yesterday. He left a card saying disappointment in love was the cause.

Killed by Lightning.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 16.—Three persons, names unknown, were killed by lightning during a hailstorm in Lac qui Parle county Thursday, and Paul Hunzicker was killed in the same manner near Cottonwood.

Lost a Valuable Package.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 16.—A package containing $60,000, intrusted to the care of the Adams Express Company, was lost in the transit somewhere between New York and this city.

Carter Is Chosen.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, has been elected chairman of the republican national committee.

GET THE BEST

Is a good motto to follow in buying a medicine as well as everything else! By the universal satisfaction it has given, and by the many remarkable cures it has accomplished Dr. Fay's New Treatment for Consumption has proven itself unequalled for Consumption and all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest. Do not experiment with any unheard of or untried article which you are told is "as good as Dr Fay's," for its equal does not exist, but be sure to get only Dr. Fay's New Treatment for Consumption. Sold by all druggists, 50c., $1.00 and $3.00 Prepared only by Dr. O J Fay & Co, Chemists, Carleton, Mich.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

"Father," said a 6-year-old, "where is Atoms?" "Atoms, my boy? What do you mean?" "Why, the place where everything gets blown to."

MARRIED.

MISS Hannah Roe and Samuel Doe were married in a neighboring village last week. Among the wedding presents was a bottle of Parmelees Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure from a thoughtful friend who had given it a thorough trial and knew its great worth for the cure of dyspeptic attacks, and who knew how necessary it was for domestic happiness that such complaints should be prevented. You can buy a bottle of this valuable and effective remedy of your druggist.

PARMELEES' CONDITION POWDERS will do your stock good. Full pound 25 cents. Sold by dealers.

IS YOUR APPETITE GOOD?

Or are you weak and debilitated? Try Parmelee's Mandrake and Dandelion Bitters. Only 25 cents a boottle.

THE SUN IN JULY

is very trying to the complexion of many ladies. Freckles, pimples, tan and sunburn are removed and the complexion freshened by the use of Hamilton's Oriental Balm. Absolutely harmless to the skin. 50 cents.

AT THIS SEASON OF THE YEAR

Look out for Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and all forms of bowel difficulty. You should have a sure remedy in the house ready for instant use. Parmelee's Essence of Jamaica Ginger will give immediate relief. Perfectly safe for children. Contains no opium or paregoric. Sold by dealers.

THE EXTREME HEAT OF SUMMER

Frequently brings to the surface evidence of impure blood unsuspected before. Parmelee's Sarsaparilla is the Great Blood Purifier and builds up weakened constitutions. It is only 50 cents for a large bottle and is well worth your trial.

IF YOU SUFFER FROM PILES

It is your own fault. Parmelee's Pile Suppositories will positively cure if used according to directions. Your druggist is authorized to guarantee them. Physicians use them largely in their practice. Hundreds of testimonials. Only 50 cents a box. Sold by dealers or by mail postpaid. Parmelee Medical Co., Dansville, N. Y.

Frenchman: The lady to whom you introduced me is charming. Is she well connected? Chicagoan: Well, I should say so. She's the wife of several of our first citizens.

A misstep will often make a cripple for life. A bottle of Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment at hand, will not prevent the misstep, but used immediately it will save being a cripple.

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

ACHE

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

REMARKABLE FACTS.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch, of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Linburger, druggist at San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guarnteed by Baker & Hall. Book of wonderful testimonials free.

If the telephone girl has a soft voice it is next to impossible for the man at the other end of the wire to believe that she isn't pretty.

Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

Jeannette: Does Miss Boardman get her lovely complexion from her father or her mother?" Gladys (sweetly) From her father. He's in the drug business.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L. S. & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15. 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 115. Mail.	No. 117. Express.	No. 139 Acc'om.
Jackson.....Lv	6 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M
Napoleon.....	6 30 "	2 26 "	1 15 "
Norvell.....	6 37 "	2 34 "	1 27 "
Manchester.....	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 55 "
Clinton.....	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 35 "
Tecumseh.....	7 15 "	3 15 "	3 15 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 52 "	4 90 "
Detroit.....	10 10 "	6 30 "	.....
Toledo.....	9 15 "	4 40 "	10 25 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 8:00 p. m

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 116. Mail.	No. 118. Express.	No. 148. Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 25 A.M.	6 00 P.M.	.....
Toledo.....	9 56 "	7 50 "	.....
Adrian.....	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M
Tecumseh.....	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton.....	11 21 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester.....	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell.....	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon.....	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 00 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 28 "	10 36 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.

A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati Jackson & Mackinaw Ry.

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT MAY. 30, 1892.

EAST. No 29 Pass	No. 23 Pass	No. 21 Pass	Central Time. STATIONS.	WEST. No. 22 Pass	No. 24 Pass
		A.M. 10 30	L.....Allegan.....A	P.M. 1 00
		11 15	Monteith.....	12 35
	A.M. 11 55		Yorkville.....	11 55	A.M.
	5 45	12 23	Battle Creek.....	11 28	1 25
	6 27	12 54	Marshall.....	10 59	12 33
	7 03	1 22	Homer.....	10 32	11 48
A.M.	7 45	1 58	Hanover.....	10 02	11 03
4 50	8 40	2 27	Addison.....	9 30	10 15
5 06	8 51	2 34	Devils Lake.....	9 24	9 54
	9 17	3 05	Tipton.....	8 58	9 14
5 38	9 50	3 14	Tecumseh.....	9 44	8 53
	8 35	3 27	Ridgeway.....	8 35	8 40
5 51	10 07	3 28	Britton.....	7 20	6 30
6 12	10 35	3 50	Dundee.....	8 10	8 00
7 00	12 10	4 45	A.....Toledo.....L	8 31	8 31
P.M.		P.M.		A.M.	P.M.

Train No. 29 Sunday only. Train No. 22 Daily Trains Nos. 23, 21 and 24 except Sunday. Close connections are made at Allegan with the C. & W. M.; Monteith, G. R. R. & I.; Battle Creek, C. & G. T.; Marshall M., C. R. R.; Britton with the Wabash for Detroit, and at Toledo with all roads diverging.

T. C. M. SCHINDLE, RGen'l Pass. Agt.
T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO

TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as Follows:

WEST BOUND.

†No. 51 –Local Mail and Express.....10:25 a m
*No. 53 –Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex. 3:30 p m
*No. 27 –Butler Accommodation..... 6:00 p m
*No. 55 –Pacific Express.....11:40 p m

EAST BOUND.

*No. 56 –Atlantic Express..... 5:50 a m
†No. 26 –Detroit Accommodation..... 4:45 p m
*No. 52 –St. Louis & Boston Express..... 7:45 a m
*No. 54 –N. Y. Limited..... 9:46 p m

*Daily, †Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information, apply to

CHAS. M. HAYS, Gen. Manager.
WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian
F. CHANDLER, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt Agent,

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890
Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North.

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
3 25	A. M.		P. M.	P. M.
	00	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	11 15	1 10
	47	.....Dundee.....	10 18	12 20
	08	.....Milan.....	9 58	12 04
	20	.....Urania.....	9 45	11 52
	27	.....Pittsfield.....	9 34	11 42
5 07	6 40	.....Ann Arbor.....	9 22	11 30
5 30	7 58	.....Leland.....	9 07	11 15
5 47	7 06	.....Whitmore Lake.....	8 55	11 02
6 28	8 00	.....Howell.....	8 17	10 25
7 15	8 40	.....Durand.....	7 10	9 32
			55	7 45
8 00	10 20	.....Owosso.....	6 35	9 05
9 07	11 30	.....Ithaca.....	5 32	7 50
10 15	1 25	.....Mt. Pleasant.....	4 35	6 45
.....	3 35	.....Cadillac.....	10 30	.....
.....	5 20	.....Copemish.....	9 05	.....
.....	6 35	Ar.....Frankfort.....Lv	7 50	.....
	P. M.		A. M.	P. M.

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager.
A. J. PAISLEY, General Pass. and Ticket Agent.

Clinton Column.

CLINTON, MICH., JULY 21, 1892.

D. H. Silvers, of Chicago, was here Monday.

Mrs. Carrie Woodward spent Monday in Adrian.

J. Ward Stone went to Tecumseh Wednesday.

John Eddy and family are visiting at Crowell Eddy's.

Mrs. Elwin Glimpse is seriously ill with heart trouble.

E. R. Smith and C. S. Burroughs went to Adrian Wednesday.

E. VanDeMark spent last Thursday and Friday in Detroit.

B. G. Woodward went to Detroit Monday to attend the races.

Rev. Reeves and wife returned from Grand Rapids last Friday.

Mrs. J. L. Tuttle and daughter Ella are visiting friends in Flint.

Mrs. McMaster and daughter spent Sunday and Monday at Norvell.

Mrs. Swift, of Adrian, was the guest of Mrs. George Freese Saturday.

George Sisson and wife, of Deerfield, visited at Mrs. Lydia Smith's last week.

W. V. Fisk arrived here Monday from Newton, Ia. He will remain several weeks.

Mrs. Mary Robinson, of Detroit, has been visiting friends here for a few days.

L. K. Davis left here Monday night for a few days' visit with friends in Saginaw.

Miss Lue Brown came Monday from Saginaw for a few weeks' visit with friends here.

Mrs. Sinclair returned Tuesday from a three weeks' visit with her son Olry at Ishpeming.

Mrs. Daniel O'Reilly and children returned to Lansing Monday after a two weeks' visit here.

Mrs. E. R. Smith went to Saline Saturday. She returned Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. L. W. Kimball and daughter.

Mrs. Hixson has improved the outward appearance and inward convenience of her house by building quite an addition.

Henry Fox was so overrun with orders for laundry work last week that he was obliged to get an extra polisher of Mrs Wadsworth Friday.

Miss Mary Bruce, of Seattle, Wash., and Miss Augusta Bruce, of Columbus, Ga., arrived here last Saturday. They will remain a few weeks.

Mrs. Henry Brewster and daughter Lizzie have been at Wampler's Lake for two or three weeks. Mrs. Brewster is much improved in health.

The "expert dairyman" engaged by J. T. Clark last week did not prove as expert as he claimed to be and only remained a day and a half.

We understand that Prof. Daniels has rented the house at present occupied by Albert Kishpaugh. Probably going to board himself next year.

L. W. Kimball, C. D. Kezer, Dr. White, Chas. Thompson, John Amspoker and wife and several others spent Sunday at Wampler's Lake.

Miss Mary Bruce left Thursday morning for Perrysburg, O. She will remain there until Monday, when she will leave for Ness City, Kansas, to spend a few weeks before returning to Seattle.

The Maccabees have elected Dr. Blanchford as delegate to Detroit at the K. O. T. M. meeting in August. Mrs. George Hart will represent the lady Maccabees at the same time and place.

F. D. Lancaster purchased a two-year-old Wilkes colt of George Rowland at Albion last week. Mr. and Mrs. Rowland drove through to bring the colt, arriving Tuesday evening. The colt is one to be proud of.

Miss Maggie Ebbitt had the ends of two fingers on her left hand taken off last week. She was attempting to clean her loom while in motion. The fingers are healing nicely and she will soon be able to resume work.

About 9:30 Sunday evening the alarm of fire was heard and at the same time a bright light was seen in the east part of town. It proved to be nothing, however, but a large pile of brush, doubtless set on fire by some mischief-loving youngsters.

The hole in the ground on Ed Smith's property, so patiently and unsuccessfully worked for months until a depth of about 500 feet, was abandoned last week and drilling commenced in a new place. Water was found in plenty at a depth of 80 feet. The men are now at work on Mr. Smith's lot on Tecumseh street.

A Pure Baking Powder.

A baking powder that can be depended upon to be free from lime and alum is a disideratum in these days of adulterated food. So far as can be judged from the official reports, the "Royal" seems to be the only one yet found by chemical analyses to be entirely without one or the other of these substances, and absolutely pure. This, it is shown, results from the exclusive use by its manufacturers of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent processes which totally remove the tartrate of lime and other impurities. The cost of this chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and it is used in no baking powder except the "Royal," the manufactures of which control the patents under which it is refined.

Dr. Edward G. Love, formerly analytical chemist for the U. S. Government who made the analyses for the New York State Board of Health in their investigation of baking powders, and whose intimate knowledge of the ingredients of all those sold in this market enables him to speak authoritatively, says of the purity, wholesomeness, and superior quality of the "Royal:"

"I find the Royal Baking Powder composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, other injurious substance."

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

MINOR NEWS ITEMS.

For the Week Ending July 18.

Burlington (Ia.) police have raided and closed up the saloons.

Emma Snow, waiter in a Denver hotel, has fallen heir to $400,000.

At Spencer, Ky., lightning struck and killed James Wills and Annie and Mary Connor.

The wool crop of Montana will aggregate from 12,000,000 to 15,000,000 pounds this year.

Francis P. Loomis, lieutenant governor of Connecticut in 1878-9, died at his home in Hartford.

Peter Daniels (colored) was hanged Friday at Atlanta, Ga., for the murder of Silvia Tyle, his mistress.

Julieh Moseley (colored) was lynched by a mob at Hulley, Ark., for assaulting his 7-year-old stepdaughter.

At Kokomo, Ind., John G. Coombs died, and Mrs. Coombs, while taking a last look at the remains, fell dead.

The four young sons of Christopher A. Ball were drowned in the river near Princess Anne, Md., while bathing.

John Johnson, a farmer living near Hartford, Mich., committed suicide because he had trouble with his family.

John W. Babcock, ex-mayor of Meadville, Pa., dropped dead in the Commercial hotel at that place, aged 52 years.

Thomas Herman, a mechanic of Racine, Wis., quarreled with his wife and went into his cellar and hanged himself.

The Michigan democratic state convention for the nomination of a state ticket will meet at Grand Rapids August 17.

Cal Parks (colored) was hanged at Caldwell, Tex., for murdering Mrs. Jessie McDonough and her 7-year-old stepson.

Gen James A. Cunningham, superintendent of the United States soldiers' home at Chelsea, Mass., died at the age of 62 years.

John C. Quincy, a lawyer, shot his wife and himself fatally at Grand Rapids, Mich. He was thought to have been insane.

All except eighteen of the British elections have now been held, and Gladstone is sure of a majority of forty for home rule.

The Cunarder steamer Aurania beat the Alaska, of the Guion line, in a race from Queenstown to New York, 2 hours and 15 minutes.

The funeral of Cyrus W. Field took place at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., and the remains were taken to Stockbridge, Mass., for burial.

It has been decided to celebrate at San Diego, Cal., on September 28 next the 350th anniversary of the discovery of San Diego bay.

Charles Blackman was hanged at Greensboro, N. C. The execution was private. Blackman murdered his wife early in the spring.

A waterspout near Four Mile Creek, Kan., did a great deal of damage to property, and many horses, cattle and hogs were drowned.

Rev. H. D. B. Mulford, of Syracuse, N. Y., who was elected as president of Hope college at Holland, Mich., a short time ago, has declined.

Eleven cars were demolished in the wreck of a meat train Friday on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road near Fayette, Ia., caused by a broken truck.

Two trainmen were probably fatally injured and twenty-seven loaded freight cars smashed in a collision on the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton road near Connersville, Ind.

The steamer Enchantress from Santos and Pernambuco arrived in New York Sunday, having a case of yellow fever on board. Four of the officers died on the voyage. She was held in quarantine.

Charles Koehler, aged 6, shot and fatally wounded his brother Chris, aged 13, near Vanda, Ia. The younger boy found an old gun and, not knowing it was loaded, pointed it at his brother and pulled the trigger.

ALL FOUND.

Victims of the Frankie Folsom Disaster Recovered—The Death List Numbers Twelve.

PEORIA, Ill., July 16.—A boy skirmishing along the shore succeeded in accomplishing something the divers at the wreck of the Frankie Folsom, who put in all the night at work, could not do, in the finding of the body of Mrs. George, the wife of the Duluth telegraph operator. Mrs. Beebe's remains were discovered floating in the water at the foot of Haywood street. Thursday night the body of Grant Hepler, the Eureka dentist, was found floating near the wreck by a man named Henry Kline, and was identified by the clothing and some letters found on it. With the finding of the bodies of Grant Hepler and Mrs. Beebe a total of twelve persons are known to have perished in the wreck.

Lockout at Superior.

SUPERIOR, Wis., July 18.—Saturday afternoon the roller mills of the West Superior Iron & Steel Company were shut down. The men who were supposed to be in any way connected with the Amalgamated association or who had taken part in the recent demand for the adoption of the scale were discharged. About 200 are affected.

Burged Prisoners to Death.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 18.—It is alleged that Senor Candellero Herez, judge of Lialtenang, in the state of Zacatetas, recently burned two suspected criminals to death while trying to obtain a confession from them through torture. The government has ordered an investigation of the horrible affair.

Wild Horses Return to Colorado.

KIT CARSON, Col., July 18.—A band of 300 wild horses, the first seen in the state for fifteen years, ran by here Sunday. Twenty-five were captured. It is not known where they came from.

Death of Franz Vetta, the Singer.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., July 18. — Franz Vetta, a noted singer, died here Sunday. His real name is Louis Neumayer. He died of phthisis.

Proved.

She—How do you know that Jennie wears no artificial hair?

He—I was tobogganing with her yesterday.—Munsey's Weekly.

Mr. Chappie's Misadventure.

LOOK OUT! HERE HE COMES.

LET 'ER GO.

BANG!

—Harper's Bazar.

A Friend in Need.

Tramp (brandishing club)—Hand out yer money an' vallybles, quick!

Citizen (producing revolver)—This is about the most valuable thing I have just now.—Munsey's Weekly.

An Unexpected Lockout.

Confident Traveler—Say, dame, jist git me suthin' to eat an' git it quick. See?

(As she pulls the shutter)—"Thet hole thim burglars cut in thet shutter comes in right handy.

"Jamesie, I've bolted the shutter on the inside; you just run down for the constable and tell him he needn't put no chair in this feller's cell, neither."—Life.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED, AND "THE BIG 5."

TWO GRAND TRAINS DAILY BETWEEN THE WORLD'S FAIR CITY AND THE FOOTHILLS.

One Night Out, or One Day Out. Take Your Choice, Business Demands it, and the People Must Have it.

The popularity of "The Great Rock Island Route" as a Colorado line—it having long time since taken first place as the people's favorite between the Lakes and the Mountains—has compelled the management to increase its present splendid service by the addition of a train that is one night on the road from Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs or Pueblo. This train will be known as the "Rocky Mountain Limited," and will be put in service May first. Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m., arriving at above cities in the afternoon of the next day, earlier than any of its competitors. Special equipment has been built for this train, with the view of making it a LIMITED in every sense of the word, and best of all, there will be no extra charge. The route of this exceedingly fast train is by the Rock Island Short Line, and a few of the large cities through it which passes, are Davenport, Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Beatrice, Fairbury, Belleville, Phillipsburg, Smith Center, Colby and Goodland. This makes it a most desirable route, and particularly interesting to the traveler. Another point: The popularity of our dining-car service is still on the increase, and no money spared to make this service what our patrons always say, "the best."

"Our Big 5" will continue as usual, leaving Chicago at 10 p. m. and arriving at Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning, being but one day out, and this fast and popular train goes through Omaha.

Our No. 11 will leave as heretofore at 6 p. m., arrive at Kansas city at 9:00 a. m., and will reach Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning.

Our Colorado service is made perfect by this new "Rocky Mountain Limited and the "Big 5," and gives to the traveling public TWO FLYERS DAILY.

Manitou passengers should consult the map and time tables of our line, to fully appreciate the advantages in time saved by taking this route, when on their summer vacation.

JOHN SEBASTIAN,
G. T. & P. A., Chicago.

The Worlds Columbian Exposition.

An elegant Bird's-eye-view of the Exposition Grounds and Buildings, in eight colors, size 35x45 inches, price, $1.00. The same Engraving, size 26x36 inches, price, 75 cents. The same Engraving, size 20x26 inches, price, 50 cts. A Photo-Gravure, Bird's-eye-view, 12x18 inches, price, 25 cents. A map of Chicago, price 25 cents. A pocket map of the U. S., or of any State, price 25 cents. Any of the above mailed to any address, postage prepaid on receipt of the price named. Any other World's Fair publication mailed on receipt of the advertised price.

BOND & Co., 576 Rookery, Chicago.

People's Party Convention.

The People's Party of Lenawee county will hold a mass convention, at the court house in Adrian, on Saturday, July 30th, 1892, at 10 o'clock, a. m. for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention, at Jackson, on August 2d, 1892. Also, delegates to the congressional convention, and transact any other business that may properly come before the convention. A cordial invitation is extended to all who endorse and will support the platform adopted at Omaha, July 4th, 1892.

B. E. NILES, Chairman.
E. B. CANTLEBERRY, Secretary.

For The Campaign.

The twice-a-week St. Louis Republic will be mailed each Tuesday and Friday, from now until November 30th, 1892, for only forty cents. It is a great semi-weekly paper, and will be indispensable during the Campaign. An extra copy will be sent free to November, 30th, to the sender of each club of five, with Two Dollars. Send for a package of sample copies and raise a club. Address The Republic, St. Louis, Mo.

An Acknowledgement.

Mr. John F. Hicks has recently placed some lightning rods on the new Friends Church, which for excellent material, neatness of appearance and good workmanship are in every way satisfactory. Years of experience and a special study of lightning protection places Mr. Hicks in a position to do work fully abreast of the times.

THOS. G. MEAD.
AARON C. TAYLOR.
J. N. SATTERTHWAITE.
Building Com.

DO YOU KNOW That the way to "get a start" in life, and secure a good paying business is to make preparation and seize the the opportunity when it comes? Don't wait?

LEARN SHORTHAND AT HOME

BEST SYSTEM, BEST METHOD. "Up with the times, Terms moderate, and within the reach of all, Lessons concise, complete, and practical. Circulars free.

C. A. SHARP, Stenographer,
ADRIAN, MICH.

Why Suffer?

When you can be Cured.

Thousands are suffering with Torpid Liver—the symptoms are Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator is a reliable remedy for Liver Disorders. It cures thousands every year; why not try Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator? Your Druggist will supply you.

Tecumseh Price Current.

CORRECTED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING

PROVISION MARKET.	Wholesale.	Retail.
Apples green, per bushel	$1 00	$1 20
Apples dried, per pound	5	8
Beeswax	14	16
Butter	11	14
Eggs, per doz	13	15
Honey, per lb	16	18
Lard, per lb	9	12
Onions, per bushel	1 00	1 20
Potatoes, per bushel	25	40
Beans, per bushel	2 00	2 30
Wool, unwashed	14
Wool, fleeced washed	23
Wool, tub washed	25
Salt, coarse rock, per bbl	1 50
Salt, common, per bbl	90	1 00
Tallow, per lb	3½
Cheese, per lb	9	14
MEAT MARKET.
Pickled Pork	8	10
Bacon	10	12½
Smoked Ham	12	16
Smoked Shoulders	7	9
Beef, by the side	4½	5
Fat Hogs, per 100 lbs	3 50 to 3 75
Dressed Hogs, per 100 lbs	4 25
Veal, dressed, per lb	5
Mutton, dressed, per lb	6	8
Chickens, live, per lb	6	7
Turkeys, live, per lb	7	08
Geese, live, per lb	5	8
Ducks, live, per lb	6
Hides, green	4
Hides, dry	5
Sheep Pelts	25 to 1 75

GRAIN, SEEDS AND HAY.
Wheat—White	$ 75
" Red	75
Corn, shelled	56
Oats	30
No. 1 Clover seed	4 25
No. 2 " "	4 00
Choice " "	4 50
Timothy Seed	1 65
Hay, timothy, per ton	8 00 to 9 00
Hay, clover, per ton	7 00
Flour, per sack	1 38
Bran, per 100 lbs	1 00 to 1 25
Middlings, per 100 lbs	90
Corn meal, per 100 lbs	1 50
Chop, per 100 lbs	1 50

FORECLOSURE SALE.

Default of payment having been made of a mortgage, made and executed by Samuel W. Temple and Hettie A. Temple, his wife, to Sarah Edwards and Phebe U. Hunt, dated the twenty-fourth day of May, A. D. 1884, and recorded in the office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 106 of mortgages, on Page 152, upon which mortgage there remains due and unpaid at the date of this notice of the principal and accrued interest the sum of Twenty-five Hundred dollars and twenty-four cents ($2,500.24), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken to collect the same or any part thereof.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power and provisions in said mortgage contained and of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon and costs of this foreclosure and sale including also an attorney's fee provided by law, I, the undersigned, Phebe U. Cairns, as one of the two mortgagees of said mortgage, and also as the administratrix of the estate of said Sarah Edwards, now deceased, shall, on the 17th day of October, A. D., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Adrian, in the county of Lenawee and State of Michigan, (that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for said County of Lenawee) all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh, in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to wit: Bounded by commencing at the intersection of the North line of Shawnee street with the East line of Pearl street extended North, running thence North on the said East line of said extension of Pearl street twelve rods; thence East parallel with Shawnee street ten rods to the A. Stearns lot; thence South on the west line of Stearns lot twelve rods to Shawnee street; thence west on North line of Shawnee street ten rods to place of commencement.

Dated July 21st, 1892.

PHEBE U. CAIRNS,
(formerly Phebe U. Hunt)
Mortgagee.
PHEBE U. CAIRNS,
Administratrix of the estate of Sarah Edwards, deceased.
CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for said mortgagee and for said administratrix.

ESTATE OF FLETCHER MINORS.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Tuesday, the 19th day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of William Fletcher and Anna May Fletcher, minors.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Mary C. Larkin, alleging among other things that the parents of said minors are dead; that she is an aunt and one of the next of kin of said minors; that said minors are under fourteen years of age and that it is necessary a guardian should be appointed for said minors, and praying that she, or some other suitable person, may be appointed guardian of said minors in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 15th day of August next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the next of kin of said minors, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendancy of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
(A True Copy.)
A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN THE MATTER of the Estate of William Wright, deceased.

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the store of C. E. Williamson in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 23d day of August, 1892, and on the 9th day of January, 1893, at one o'clock in the afternoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 9th day of July, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said probate court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated July 21, 1892.

C. E. WILLIAMSON,
H. R. EATON,
Commissioners.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of John N. Gordon, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas. Burridge, in Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 27th day of August, and on the 24th day of Dec., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 24th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment.

Dated July 21, 1892.

FRANCIS C. RECTOR,
HORATIO KEYSER,
Commissioners.

Ripans Tabules: standard remedy.
Ripans Tabules cure headache.
Ripans Tabules cure colic.
Ripans Tabules prolong life.
Ripans Tabules: for torpid liver.

Commercial Savings Bank,

Of Adrian, Mich.

CAPITAL, $75 000
SURPLUS, 10 000

W. J. COCKER, President.
S. HOWELL, Vice-Pres. and Cash'r.
E. N. SMITH, Asst. Cash.

DIRECTORS:
W. J. Cocker, S. Howell, C. Bowerfind, S. Gale, C. R. Miller, E. C. Sword, D. Metcalf, A. P. Stephenson, A. Bennett.

Accounts of Individuals & Corporations Solicited. THREE PER CENT. allowed on Savings Deposits, compounded every six months.

THE ELDREDGE
"B"

A strictly high-grade family sewing machine, possessing all modern improvements.

GUARANTEED EQUAL to the BEST

Prices very reasonable. Obtain them and make comparisons.

ELDREDGE MANUFACTURING CO.

BELVIDERE, ILL.

ANTI CONSTIPATION PILLS GIVE CONSOLATION TO ALL CONSTIPATED. PRICE 25 CENTS. PLEASANT AND EFFECTUAL AND CONTAIN NO MERCURY

—FOR—

CONSTIPATION
SICK HEADACHE,
Bilious Attacks & Liver Complaints

DOSE.—One to two Pellets each night until the bowels are regular and natural in their operation.

FOR SALE BY
JNO. J. ORR, Tecumseh.

ALSO FOR SALE BY

Jno. Kane	Central
T. J. Tewksbury	Riga.
Wm. Babcock	Britton.
W. P. Cotton	Macon.
Jno. Conlin	Tipton.
Floyd Florence	Holloway.

USE ONLY
Red Crown Gasoline
In your gasoline stoves
ORIENT or KEYSTONE WATER WHITE KEROSENE OIL
In your lamps.
MANUFACTURED BY
The Standard Oil Co.,
CLEVELAND, OHIO.

For Sale in Tecumseh by the following named dealers.

James Lowry,	Satterthwaite Bros.
J. J. Orr,	C. A. Wright & Co.
Anderson Bros.	W. J. Arnold.
McClure Grocery Co.,	and Jas. Potter.

Quality of the Highest Standard.

Use nothing in your Gasoline stoves but
RED CROWN GASOLINE.

Use nothing in your Lamps but
ORIENT OR KEYSTONE
Water White Kerosene Oil.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Birdsey J. Bidwell, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the bank of Lilley, Bidwell & Co., in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 1st day of December, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 22d day of June, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 30th, 1892.

LUCIUS LILLEY,
LESTER P. TRIBOU,
Commissioners.

FAYETTE is a beautiful village, populated by cultured and hospitable people. She expects much from the University and her expectations are being realized. Its attendance has been increasing from 25 to 50 per cent per year. The aim is not to make the school the most popular but the best. Work is a prominent feature. Commercial, Scientific, Musical, Short-hand, Type-writing, Elocutionary, Penmanship and Fine Art Departments in addition to regular college classes. The teachers are specialists. The success of its students gives it high standing. Only earnest workers are wanted. $27 00 pays tuition, board and room rent for ten weeks. Write for catalogue to the president of the UNIVERSITY.

J. E. DODDS, Fayette, O.

nercigl
s Bank,
an, Mich.
$75 000
10 000
ident.
e-Pres. and Cash'r.
N. SMITH, Asst. Cash'r.
OTORS:
, C. Bowerind, S. Gale
ord, D. Metcalf, A. t.
& Corporations Solicit allowed on Savings Dep
y six months.
HE REDGE
B" grade family sewing
essing all modern ovements.
EQUAL to the BEST onable. Obtain them comparisons.
NUFACTURING CO.
DERE, ILL.
IPATION PILLS
OLATION TO ALL
STIPATED.
PRICE 25 CENTS
IAL AND CONTAIN NO MERCURY
FOR IPATION HEADACHE,
Liver Complaints
SALE BY R, Tecumseh.
FOR SALE BY Cosad.
Rhinaway.
Bolton.
Macon.
Tipton.
Holloway.
E ONLY
n Gasoline gasoline stoves
EYSTONE WATER
EROSENE OIL
our lamps.
FACTURED BY
dard Oil Co.,
ELAND, OHIO.
seh by the following name
Satterthwaite Bros.
C. A. Wright & Co.
W. J. Arnold.
Co., and Jas. Potter.
e Highest Standard.
our Gasoline stoves but
WN GASOLINE.
in your Lamps but
OR KEYSTONE
ite Kerosene Oil.
IONERS' NOTICE.
he estate of Birdsey J. Bissell, having been appointed by the d County Commissioners to d adjust all claims and des against the estate of said deve notice that we will meet the ank of Lilley, Ritsell & Co.,
umseh, Lenawee county, Mich.,
of August, 1892, and on the r, 1892, at ten o'clock in the said days.
onths from the 23d day of re allowed by said Probate
tors of said estate to present
r examination and allowance
1892.
LUCIUS LILLEY,
LESTER P. TRIBOU,
Commissioners.
beautiful village, populated cultured and hospitable peo-
She expects much from the expectations are being real-ace has been increasing from er year. The aim is not to NORMAL ment features yet there are ntine, Musical, Short-hand cutionary, Penmanship and nents in addition to regular co eachers are specialists. The ents gives it high standing ters are wanted. $27 00 pays d room rent for ten weeks n to the UNIVERSITY
yette, O.

The Tecumseh Herald.

VOL. XLIII—NO. 10. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 28, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2194

Gent's Day!

Saturday, July 30,

AT Anderson & Co.

Special Sale { Shirts, Ties and Suspenders.

Wm. McCowen

Furniture
•
Wall Paper
•
Trunks
•
Undertaking

THE FINEST and Largest Line of Bedroom Suits ever shown in Tecumseh.

USE

PARAGON 74°
Deodorized
Stove
Gasoline!

IT IS THE BEST; ASK YOUR DEALER FOR IT

The Tecumseh Herald,

A TRIAL TRIP
50 CTS.
FOR FIVE
MOS.

SUBSCRIBE NOW.

Neighborhood News.

BRITTON BUDGET.

Hot, hotter, hottest.

Miss Madge Rice returned to her home at Clio Tuesday.

E. W. Leonardson took a spin over to Blissfield on his bicycle Sunday.

Mrs. Florence Lowe had three cattle killed by a Wabash train Monday.

Jno. Gibson attended the races at Detroit two or three days last week.

The Wabash section men have commenced work again at $1.20 per day.

Miss Martha Ackley is spending a few weeks visiting at Toledo and Monroe.

Mrs. Thos. Scott visited her daughter, Mrs. Peter Swick, at Milan last week.

Ice cream for the benefit of the Library Association Saturday evening. Don't forget.

Henry Knowles, of Dundee, will do the carpenter work on James Dubois's new residence.

As hard a wind and rain storm as we have had in this section occurred last Sunday afternoon.

The Christian Sunday School will give a lemon social at the church parlors Tuesday, August 2.

Chas. Martin has removed from his quarters in the Daykin block across the street into the Meier store.

The way some people work out their road tax is a corker, of which there is to be seen a sample between our village and Ridgeway.

L. C. Hoaglaud was out buying spring and summer chickens last week. Call on him and get his figures before selling elsewhere.

For a time the Christian Endeavor meetings will be held in connection with the Sunday evening services at the church.

Miss Marion Lowe, who has been dangerously ill for the past few days, is at present writing (Tuesday morning) slowly improving.

Three cheers for the Britton base ball club went up from about 50 throats last Saturday afternoon as the game between the so-called Clinton crack nine and the Britton hayseed nine was declared finished, with a score of 9 to 12 in favor of the latter club. It was the first game our boys had played for over a year, and without the least practice it was a remarkable victory. Taking it all around it was a very peaceable and quiet game. But the fellow who always looked out for the high ones and took the low ones, couldn't quite twirl them to knock our boys out. The next game will be held at Clinton August 6.

Last Tuesday morning, when Mrs. Washington Underwood went to get her mother, Mrs. Craft, and take her to her home for a few days, she found all the doors but the back door locked. This one stood a little ajar and entering she discovered her mother lying in the center of the floor dead, with her feet on a couch, where seemingly she had fallen from an attack of hemorrhage of the lungs. The funeral was held from the home of David Adams at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, Rev. James Wright officiating. We extend to the afflicted family our heartfelt sympathy in their loss of a dear mother.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

Leila Sutton spent Saturday at Rea with friends.

Mrs. Wm. Barrett is failing very fast at present writing.

Hollie Perrin, of Tecumseh, filled the pulpit Sunday morning.

Linnie Corvell called on relatives in the village Tuesday afternoon.

Dan Bailey had a valuable cow killed by lightning during the storm Sunday.

Prof. H. C. Wilson and wife are enjoying the present week at his old home.

Rob Hicks, of Tecumseh, was the guest of Minnie Barrett Friday of last week.

The storm Sunday afternoon destroyed several shade trees about the village.

Mrs. R. H. Nelson, son and daughter, went to Quincy Wednesday for a few days' visit.

James Pocklington, wife and children spent Saturday and Sunday with Ypsilanti relatives.

A. R. Arner has a position as brakeman on one of the passenger trains of the C. J. & M.

Eugene Pilbeam, after a two weeks' stay among friends, left for Harvey Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Florence Lowe had three head of cattle killed by the cars Sunday night on the Wabash.

Remember the L. C. S. will be held at the home of Mrs. Hall, on South street, to-morrow evening.

Mrs. Mary Van Riper, of St. Louis, Mich., and Miss Alvina Case, of Manchester, visited Mrs. John Arner and family Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

A. E. Putnam, of Milan, called on his aunt, Mrs. Joan Arner, Tuesday. He came upon his Hickory safety. It is the finest wheel that has been in the village yet. It is the center of attraction wherever he goes, and those who have tried it pronounce it the best wheel they ever rode. Those who think of buying a wheel would do well to call on Mr. Putnam, as he is agent for the Hickory.

Ripans Tabules cure constipation.

Ripans Tabules: pleasant laxative.

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

Sultry as well as dusty.

Mrs. Byron Hunt is very sick.

Fred Spafford has been sick for several days.

Miss Cora English, of Jackson, was a visitor at A. D. English's, last week.

Edward Gage, of Tecumseh, the guest of his brother, A. K. Gage this week.

W. G. Dieterle and family of Ann Arbor, are visiting at Mrs. Dieterle's father's, J. G. Keck's.

Spafard and Wurster started out last Thursday, with their threshing outfit to thresh wheat from the field.

Mrs. S. W. Clarkson and children of Ann Arbor, are enjoying their summer vacation at Fair View Farm, the residence of her father, L. D. Watkins.

Mr. D. W. Palmer and wife of Bridgewater, passed through town on their return from a visit of several days at Brooklyn and Clark's Lake last Friday.

Miss Rose Rezean, of Elgin, Ill., spent last week at Douglas Baldwin's, on her way home from the International Christian Endeavor Convention held in New York City.

The funeral of John Egan, who had been ailing for a long time, was held at St. Mary's church in this village on Saturday morning, July 23d. Interment at the Catholic cemetery in Cambridge.

During the severe storm that occurred on Sunday afternoon, the of barn Mrs. J. P. Lapham was struck by lightning. It contained this year's grain and hay, farming implements and three horses. The horses only were saved. In spite of the efforts of a crowd of people who collected anxious to save the buildings from the hungry flames, all the fine additional farm buildings, the granary, hog house etc., were burned and the house narrowly escaped. A strong wind was blowing and several times, sparks set fire to neighboring fences but were soon extinguished. Pieces of shingles were found over half a mile away.

FRANKLIN FACTS.

Irene Allen is home from Hillsdale College.

Lon Billington has begun work on Mrs. A. B. Wisner's new house.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lambkin is dead of brain fever.

Mr. Hunt has been repairing his farm buildings and repainting his house.

Aunt Ann Allen has been ailing for some time with severe cough, catarrh, and threatened malarial fever.

Mrs. McCook is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Marshall. Bertha O'Haro of Coldwater, a niece of Mrs. Marshall's, is also her guest.

In passing the old Jim Updyke farm the other day we counted six consecutive telegraph poles that had been struck by lightning.

The carpenters finished their work last week on E. Simmons' barn, that was so badly wrecked in the storm of June 18. It has taken several weeks to make good the work of probably a few seconds.

The Franklin literary society has in contemplation a picnic, to take place some time in August in Simmons's grove. A play has been selected and the characters cast. Recitations, music and other good things will also be on the program. A most enjoyable time for all may be anticipated.

A telegram last week announced the killing of Ada Roberts at her aunt's in Palmyra, N. Y. We are informed that the unfortunate young lady went to the barn to feed the horse before going out with her aunt. In descending from the hay loft she dropped the pitchfork, fell on it and one of the tines pierced her heart. Her remains were brought to Tecumseh the 25th for interment.

MACON MUSIC.

Miss Lily Davis, of Milan, is visiting friends in the village.

The whistle of the threshing machine is heard in every direction.

Mrs. J. L. Jackson and daughter Minta went to Adrian Monday.

Rev. Boynton, of Hillsdale, will preach in the Baptist church to-morrow evening.

Chas. Dickerson moved his household goods to Willis last Friday, where he has engaged in the grocery business.

What a pity there are not seven working days in a week, as it is so necessary for some to work on the seventh day.

Dr. Hendershot will make some repairs on his house here and will move onto the farm early this fall. All right, Doctor.

Robert Hendershot's little boy was kicked by a horse last Thursday, making an ugly wound on the head. This is the second time he has been kicked on the head.

There will be no services at the M. E. church for the next two Sundays, as Mr. Stalker is to have a vacation while the church is in the hands of the painters. Sunday School will be held in the Baptist church at the usual hour.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. Orr.

Buy Dallman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

LAKE RIDGE LACONICS.

John Sharman lost two hogs from sunstroke Sunday.

Threshing machines have started on their fall campaign. Wheat is yielding from 5 to 15 bushels per acre, about one fourth screenings, the balance weighing about 55 pounds. News scarce.

Wheat is harvested, having nearly done, in fine condition and a good crop; oats will be light; corn nearly a failure unless we have a late fall; potatoes poor; fruit nix, except berries and grapes; garden "sass" scarce.

A severe thunder storm visited this section between four and five p. m. Sunday, accompanied by hail and wind. Lightning struck a walnut tree on J. W. Osborn's farm, tearing it to slivers, and burning it up; struck an oak tree in Dan Bailey's pasture lot, killing his best cow; struck a shock of wheat on A. Easlick's flats, burning it up; struck a telegraph pole near Geo. Sisson's, disconnecting the wire; struck a rafter near the chimney on Geo. Kempf's house, tearing the chimney down, shivering the rafter and knocking off a lot of plaster.

NORTH-EAST FRANKLIN.

Miss Edith Taylor spent a week in Hillsdale with her aunt, Mrs. H. W. Wardo.

Remember the Ice cream at G. W. Allen's Saturday evening, August 6.

S. N. Munger, Herbert and baby Max were all sick last week, but are now in usual health.

The Misses Dunn, who have been visiting their uncle, Wm. Dunn, returned to their home in Saline last week.

Mrs. Oliver Mull has taken Frank Marshall's huckleberry marsh for the season, she agreeing to pick the berries for half.

The Storm at Toledo.

The storm of Sunday was the severest that has been experienced in that section of the country in years, and but for its short duration, the damage to life and property might have been very great.

Speaking of the storm, Observer Hanner, of the weather bureau, said to a Bee reporter: "It was the highest velocity of wind registered at this station in 20 years. It came from the southwest and struck Toledo at 5:30. The storm center passed over the lake region, striking Toledo, Sandusky and Cleveland in all its fury. In fact all lake stations came in for a share of it, but the stations mentioned were in the center of it all. At 6:30 the register shows that the wind was blowing 25 miles per hour, which is usually considered rather high wind. The velocity rapidly increased, and in 15 minutes was blowing at a rate of 60 miles an hour. This is a terrific velocity, and bordering on hurricane rates.

"There is but two incidents recorded in 22 years that the wind blew so hard at this station.

"The 50-mile velocity continued a little over seven minutes when it decreased as rapidly as it increased. If the wind had kept up this rate 20 minutes longer it would have left a path through Toledo that would not have been covered up in a day.

"The reports this morning show that the storm struck Cleveland between 7 and 8 last evening, and that they had 60-mile wind and one and 28-hundredths inch of rain. Sandusky reports 55 miles per hour, and Buffalo 46 miles per hour.

"Judging by the time the storm reached Sandusky and Cleveland it was moving over the country at the rate of 80 miles an hour. We had 55 hundredths of an inch of rain."

"How hot was it yesterday?"

"The temperature yesterday was 96 degrees in the shade, and the records prove it to be one of the hottest days in 22 years. With three exceptions it was the highest temperature registered in 22 years. The exceptions were July, 1872, 97 degrees; July 7, 1874, 97 degrees July 17, 1887, 99 degrees.

"I see no break in this hot weather, and indications point to more thunder storms."

LIFTED A ROOF.

The storm while it lasted was monarch of all it surveyed, but fortunately, its reign was of short duration. About the only serious loss as a result of the blow, was entailed by Dewey, Rogers & Co., wholesale boot and shoe dealers on St. Clair street. The wind tore off about half of the tin roof over the store and the rain thoroughly drenched about $60,000 worth of goods. Timmers were at work Saturday putting a new roof on the building, and had the job about half completed. That torn off by the wind was the old part.

WOMAN'S HEALTH AND LIFE

depend more regularity than on any or all causes combined. An actual or living death is the result of derangement of functions which make woman what she is; immediate relief is the only safeguard against wreck and ruin. In all cases of stoppage, delayed, painful or other irregularities Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. Sold by Jno. J. Orr.

I used three bottles of Mother's friend and when I was sick I never went to bed at all. Anything for me at all in the house with comfort my path will be all I can in recommending it to expectant mothers. You can't feel too much. Mrs. B. F. Wagoner, Marion Co., Sept. 1890. Sold by Jno. Orr.

Buy Dallman's Great German 25 cent Liver Pills (100 in each package) at Jno. Orrs.

Buy Dallman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

LAST SUNDAY'S STORM.

We condense from the Times a few particulars about the severe thunder storm which swept over the County last Sabbath afternoon.

One of the worst storms that has struck Lenawee county in years passed over Sunday afternoon, striking in about four o'clock.

All though the county orchards were demolished, valuable shade trees blown down and barns unroofed.

Down south of the city, in Madison and Fairfield, there was general havoc. The barn of Darius Cross, at Mudge's Corners, was unroofed, and trees were snapped off like pipe stems.

The rain followed the wind in great sheets; everywhere fields were flooded. The storm has undoubtedly caused hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of damage to the farmers.

In the city it raged as bad as at any other point. Hail came in small quantities and cut the leaves from the trees. Shade about the city has suffered from the wind extensively.

In every direction the soft maples have been blown about and heavy limbs scattered promiscuously. Up on Beecher street, full length, hay stacks and wheat shocks were scattered for blocks, pedestrians were compelled to seek shelter, and Mr. Charlie Bond, who was returning from the slaughter house, was compelled to stand still with his horse and buggy, face the storm, and take it. The roof of his building was blown off.

At Lawrence villa the wind played immense destruction with the trees. Mr. Lawrence estimates the loss to property there at $500.

The wind got under the tin roof on the Lawrence hotel and caused about $50 worth of damage. A building belonging to Mr. Kœhn, on Buttler street, twisted off its foundation and was set over several feet. An electric lamp on the corner of Broad and Chestnut streets was either struck by lightning or swung by the wind and smashed, the wire being twisted badly.

A tree on Scott street and College avenue fell on the trolly wire of the electric street railway, tearing it loose from the poles and causing considerable damage.

On Broad and Toledo the trees around the residence of Mrs. Barnum were twisted off in several places, and in Dr. Baker's yard one maple was wrenched loose and carried up into the air several feet.

On State and Union streets a tree fell, smashing the electric light rigging. The awnings of Messrs Gaylord, Hoch Bros., John Fulton, and Clark, Mason & Co., were splinjered.

All over the city huge limbs blocked the sidewalks, and fell across the streets. The damage cannot be estimated.

AT DEVIL'S LAKE.

The fearful storm struck in at this popular resort just after the three steamers, Manitou, Flora and G. A. R., had started for the north end to catch the excursion train east. They were loaded with men, women and children, and encountered the worst sort of a fresh water experience. The wind blew a gale just as they had cleared the channel through the bar, and their only alternative was to head up into the wind, and use all the power they had to keep off the lee shore. Everybody was drenched to the skin, and white summer dresses stuck closer than a brother, showing the summer girl in a light that she little dreamed of when she started out in the morning, and dampening the ardor of every excursionist on the route. There was work for the pilots, but they weathered the storm nicely.

AT HUDSON.

In this village houses and barns innumerable were toprled over and deroofed, and the streets were rendered impassable by wrecked shade trees. The mammoth steeple on the First Congregational church was blown over, and in falling struck the residence of Dr. Joseph Perkins and partly destroyed it. The Mackinaw excursion train ran into a tie that was lying across the track, just north of Hudson, and was derailed. No one was hurt.

AT CLINTON.

The storm reached Clinton, and lightning struck the barn of Mrs. Lapham, burning it and the surrounding outbuildings to the ground. It was with difficulty that the residence was saved. In the barn was the garnered grain from twenty acres of wheat, and about six tons of hay. Mrs. Lapham's husband died about one year ago, and the loss is a double affliction.

THE TRUE LAXATIVE PRINCIPLE

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Sunday Excursions.

Commencing Sunday, June 5th, '92, the C. J. & M. Ry. will run a special low rate excursion to Devils Lake and return. Trains leave Tecumseh 8:44 a. m. standard time; returning arrives at Tecumseh 5:38 p. m. Fare 40 cents for the round trip.

T. C. M. SCHINDLER, G. P. A.
B. J. SLATER, Agent.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance.....$1 10
If paid after 30 days.....1 25
If paid after three months.....1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance.....$1 25
If paid after 30 days.....1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.

Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.

Rates on general advertising on term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JULY 28, 1892.

The Washington Post says: "The Pinkerton party will hardly place a ticket in the field this year." No; that party's ticket is already in the field. It was selected at Minneapolis. The voters will put the Pinkertonian party's ticket "in the soup" this year.

Governor Peck of Wisconsin, was once a humble printer living on a back street. He now lives handsomely in the house in which Ole Bull, the famous violinist, met and won Miss Thorp, and which was afterward his home for many years. He keeps the most stylish turnout in town, admires fine horses, is a good story-teller, and is generally liked.

Mayor Pingree made a gallant fight for the nomination at Saginaw last week, but the machine and railroads were against him and Rich walked off with the prize. The same influences, that nominated James M. Turner two years ago, put John T. Rich on the track last week. And Mr. Rich is likely to enjoy the same experience that Mr. Turner did in 1890.

The Muskegon News says: While protectionists are bearing down working men's wages in Pennsylvania they are energetically forcing up the price of binding twine to the farmers in Iowa. The farmers out there make vigorous protest against the advance of two cents a pound on twine. Have they no gratitude? Are they not blessed with a high protective tax on wheat?

The Evening Journal says: The attempted murder of Mr. Frick, manager of the Homestead works, should not, and does not, affect the merits of the conflict between him and his workmen. It was the act of one of those irresponsible madmen who abuse the hospitality of this country by carrying on and carrying out those murderous schemes they dare not or cannot execute upon the czar and governors from whom they flee.

The attempt to assassinate Mr. H. Frick at Homestead on Friday was a foul disgrace to the age and should be visited with swift and certain punishment. Nothing could be more certain to turn public sympathy against the strikers than such a wanton attempt at murder. It appears however that it was the act of a coward on his own responsibility, and the strikers as a body cannot be held responsible for it.

When Whitelaw Reid was building his new house at Ophir farm he inserted an advertisement in the Tribune for Stone-masons, who were to be paid $3 per day. This an eastern paper says is another illustration of Whitelaw's love for the laboring man. When he was offering to pay $3 per day the regular wages of stonemasons were $4.50 per day. "Protection to American labor," you know, is the Republican battle cry.

Says the Chicago Inter-Ocean: "Without Mr. Carnegie there would have been no nomes that make Homestead." Without the workingmen of Homestead, who have have earned a hundred times over what they have received, where would have been Mr. Carnegie's steel and iron mills—his $40,000,000? That argument is a two-edged sword, and one edge is a deal sharper than the other.

The following view of the Homestead riots, taken from an exchange, is a very sensible one. It would seem that by the time the Pinkertons are paid, the account with the state soldiery settled, all damages included, and the losses to employers through idle factories computed—a great sum will be presented as the price of enabling the Carnegie firm to take a slice off the wages of a small number of men in their employ. A fraction of the sum involved would have doubled the wage in question.

Chicago has the laugh on New York sure, or rather on New York's editorial clown. Elder Col. Shepard said, of the recent convention of Christian Endeavorers in that city;

Think of 20,000 strangers in the city attending a single convention and yet New York does not show that it is crowded. To which metropolitan marvel the Chicago Mail replies: Twenty thousand isn't a corporal's guard in metropolitan cities such as Chicago. Twice that number of people arrive in Chicago from New York, St. Louis, Toledo, and suburban towns every day in the week and their presence is unnoticed. One hundred thousand strangers were in Chicago convention week and a Chicagoan wouldn't have known it, had he not read it in the papers.

ABOUT WAGES.

Wage Reductions in Iron Mills—Statistics That it May Be Well to Keep.

The following from the Iron Age of June 23, 1892, will give some idea of the enormity of the wage reductions proposed by the iron and steel manufacturers and presented in the form of an ultimatum to the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers:

The price for bar rolling and heating, 2,240 pounds to the ton, has been cut down from 70 to 50 cents on a 2 cent card; for boiling, from $5.50 to $4.50; for rolling common iron on plate mills from 72 to 50 cents. Put in tabular form some of the reductions appear as follows:

	Shingling 2,240 pounds.
Heating Slabs and Shingling—Card Rates.	Old Rate.	New Rate.
2c bar iron (rehammered)	$ 75	$ 50
3c bar iron (rehammered)	91	65
2c bar iron (charcoal)	82½	62½
3c bar iron (charcoal)	1.01	82½
	Heating 2,240 pounds.
2c bar iron	75	50
3c bar iron	1.00	70
Guide, 10-inch, Hoop and Cotton-Tie Scale—Sizes.
7-32 rounds and squares	7.63	5.70
9-32 rounds and squares	5.15	3.15
5-16 half round	9.50	4.32
⅜ and ½ oval	3.50	3.20
Nut Iron
27-64x⅝x1-16	12.50	6.63
27-64x9-64	10.00	4.80
15-32x¼	4.70	3.60
19-32x⅜	4.25	3.10
Channel Iron.
2-inch and upward, base	2.90	2.18
⅜x5-16 and lighter	7.70	3.50
⅜x5-16 and lighter	9.50	4.30
T Iron
1½ and upward	3.20	2.40
1¼	4.70	3.50
Clip and Wagon Strap.
⅜	3.20	2.30
7-16	4.10	2.85
5-16	7.09	3.40
Ten-Inch Mill
⅜ oval	3.50	2.47
⅜x3-16 and heavier	3.20	2.13

It is no wonder that 5,000 men are now out at the "Old Homestead" works of Carnegie, Phipps & Co. and that many more thousands are on a strike in other iron mills. Reductions have been numerous during the last few years in this "protected" industry, but never before has the situation been as precarious as now, when wages are reduced from 25 to 40 per cent. and the life of the Amalgamated Association of Iron Workers is threatened. The iron workers may make a determined fight for a few months, but they cannot hold out against the tariff-fostered millionaires, who need never again think of their mills or of the men starving there, but can spend their time in their European castles and parks. The republican administration here is now attempting to have this untoward event settled in some way until after election. It is possible that the barbed wire fence, the hot water hose and the numerous other equipments of these modern "protected castles" may be laid away until after election. Of course the workingmen will all feel grateful and vote for a president that can accomplish such results for them.

WINDOW GLASS.

The Market Depressed by Over Supply, and According to McKinley Logic Needs More Protection.

The Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter says the trade in window glass this season has been disappointing, "both as regards volume of business and the returns in the way of profits to manufacturers and jobbers." It thinks the market has been depressed because of over supply, and that the "cast iron agreement to maintain prices," "has not had the desired effect, since American glass is selling to-day at as low if not lower figures than ever before."

What this industry needs is sufficient protection—that is, as we are informed by the Minneapolis platform and by Maj. McKinley at the ratification meeting at the Carnegie music hall, just enough protection to cover the difference in wages paid here and abroad. For the year ended June 30, 1891, we imported $1,512,402 worth of window glass, on which the duty averaged 92.93 per cent., or over $1,400,000. The total wage cost of making this amount of glass here is about $1,000,000. If this duty covers the labor cost of producing glass here and in Europe the glass makers there must pay the producers a considerable sum for the privilege of making glass. As a box of glass imported at an invoice value of $2.14 pays a duty of $2.00 at our custom house, the foreigner who, according to McKinley and other equally reliable authorities, pays this tax, has just 14 cents left out of which to pay wages, interest, insurance and all other expenses,—making big profits out of what is left over.

The Oil, Paint and Drug Reporter has probably made a slight mistake in regard to the cause of the weakness of the window glass trust and its inability to sustain prices. As our imports are between 25 and 30 per cent. of our total consumption it is certain that the price of American glass is as high as our 93 per cent. tariff will permit and that the price of window glass here is kept equal to the price abroad, after adding the duty. A question suggests itself here which, though puzzling to ordinary minds, could be easily disposed of by Major McKinley—that is, who pays the increased cost, due to the tariff, on the 70 per cent. of our window glass produced at home? This increased cost to the consumer amounts to about $2 per box, though the total cost of producing a box is only about $1.70. Doubtless the foreigner pays this extra cost in some way, though how he can afford to do so, and just at what point between the American producer and consumer he steps in and voluntarily pays this duty, it is not easy for the untutored mind to understand.

PROTECTION VS. CHEAPNESS.

Some Extracts From the Sayings of Prominent Protectionists.

The protectionist is never so happy as when standing in the road of progress and science. The one thing which more than all others characterizes this century and makes it the most important in the history of mankind is the great progress that it has made in cheapening all kinds of products. The sole object of all inventions, machines and methods is to cheapen the cost of production. No one would be so foolish as to invent a machine for the purpose of increasing the cost of producing any article. The greater the saving that can be made in producing an article, the more value will be attached to the invention. It is for this same purpose—to put cheaper products in the hands of the consumer—that railroads have been run all over the civilized world, that canals have been dug to shorten routes of transportation; that telephones and telegraphs are made to connect all commercial cities and countries, and that banks of exchange have been established in all parts of the world. In view of this fact, recognized by all economists and scientists, how silly sounds the following twaddle on cheapness from our leading protectionists statemen:

"I cannot find myself in full sympathy with this demand for cheaper coats, which seems to me necessarily to involve a cheaper man and woman under the coats."—Benjamin Harrison, in an address at Chicago in 1888.

"Cheap!" I never liked the word. 'Cheap' and 'nasty' go together. This whole system of cheap things is a badge of poverty, for cheap merchandise means cheap men, and cheap men mean a cheap country, and that is not the kind our fathers builded. Furthermore, it is not the kind their sons mean to maintain."—William McKinley, October 14, 1890.

Hon. Warner Miller says all rich men in New York are free traders, because they want their money to go as far as possible. Cheap prices. "They know their free trade will give them cheaper prices and therefore are in favor of it. But the working people of America, and I include all you business men in that phrase, do not want cheap prices. You want high prices. You have no sympathy with the ideas of these rich men with fixed incomes and you vote in favor of protection for American industries."—Speech at the Business Mens Republican association, March 15, 1889.

"The attainment of cheapness of commodities is not the best purpose of the protective system."—The Manufacturer, organ of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' club, October 16, 1890.

"... the fetich of the Englishman. Let us then have done with this cheapness and with its advocacy."—Harry Carey Baird, in Philadelphia, October 16, 1890.

"The cry for cheapness is un-American."—Henry Cabot Lodge, October 13, 1890.

New Use for the World's Fair.

The Single Tax club of Chicago has sent a letter to George R. Davis, director general of the world's fair requesting that "on foreign exhibits of dutiable goods at the world's fair the selling price in the country from which the goods are exported, the transportation charges from point of origin to Chicago and the selling price in Chicago be stated separately, so that visitors may be enlightened in reference to the influence of our present system of tariff taxation and find out who pays the duty." The director general will undoubtedly comply with this request, as he on June 29 notified the secretary of state that placards giving foreign and American prices would be permitted on foreign exhibits.

Republicans will welcome this opportunity to demonstrate the "act that the tariff tax is paid by foreigners. If these placards will show that a box of window glass that sells for $2.60 in Europe sells for $2.50 here after paying 92½ per cent. duty, and that woolen cloths that sell for 50 cents per yard in England sell for no more here, after paying 62½ cents duty, then McKinley will hold some trump cards and his claim will be substantiated. If, however, they should show that duties are added to the foreign cost before Americans can possess foreign-made goods, then the democrats would come to the front and McKinley would have to take a back seat. It is a pity that the fair does not occur before the presidential election.

A Fervid Statement of Hard Fact.

The characterization of republican protection as a fraud is not an explosion of partisan wrath, but the fervid statement of an incontrovertible fact. The principal pretext upon which it is defended fully justifies the characterization. The country is asked to submit to the extortion for the reason that it increases the wages of American labor. That is the staple plea because it is presumed to be the most catching and appeals directly to the workingman's vote. The history of nearly every branch of protected labor since the passage of the McKinley bill gives the lie to that claim. There never was a time when American labor was so agitated by the wrongs inflicted upon it as it is to-day. There never was a time when dissatisfaction with the rate of wages was so great, when strikes and lockouts were so frequent, when measures for self-defense against the avarice and injustice of employers were so common as they are at the present time. The workingman knows now if he did not know in 1888 that republican protection is a fraud; that it harms instead of helping him; that it promotes the aggrandizement of the few through the imporerishment of the many, and that democracy offers him the only hope of delivery from his bondage.—Brooklyn Eagle, July 4, 1892.

"Rising Wages and Falling Prices."

The American Economist, the leading high tariff organ, of April 15, 1892, gives the following lucid explanation of how manufacturers can exist in the face of "rising wages and falling prices":

"The condition which exists all around us—that of rising wages and falling profits—is not an anomalous one, but is the natural and logical result of the home competition started into being by the protective tariff, which guards alike the interests of manufacturer, laborer and consumer—of the first, by increasing his total earnings; of the second, by raising the wages received for his work, and of the last, by reducing the prices of the article he buys." Such logical deductions as this ought to please the most fastidious manufacturer. Carnegie's 4,000 men can improve their time thinking about it while they are standing idle just out of the reach of the hot-water hose attached to their "Old Homestead" works.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

A POSITIVE FACT.

The doctor who presents a big bill may not take his own prescriptions, but he knows how to heel himself.

Ladies do not delay your valuable time by waiting and suffering, but secure a bottle of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and be cured of your monthly trouble either in old or young. It is the very best preparation I ever prescribed in my extensive practice. It has given the best results in the greatest number of cases of female troubles of any medicine that I ever used. I do not make a practice of using or recommending patent medicines, but this remedy is prepared by a very competent physician and chemist of my acquaintance and I can cheerfully and conscienciously recommend it as the the best.

A. C. FRUTH, M. D., Specialist of Diseases of Women, 89 East Madison St. Chicago, Ill. For sale by John J. Orr.

The Michigan delegation was a potent force at the Chicago Convention. Their action stands out in striking contrast with the puerile course of the Michigan delegation at Minneapolis.

Corydon (at the picnic): Let me get you a glass of lemonade, dearest, Phyllis (blushing): Lemons do not agree with me. Corydon, (rightly: Oh, there isn't enough of lemon in this to do you any harm.

A CONTRACTOR'S ADVICE.

Dullam's German Medicine Co.:—Gentlemen: I take great pleasure in testifying in behalf of Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure. I can safely say that I never took such medicine as that to cleanse the liver, stomach and kidneys. I was suffering for years with biliousness, indigestion and loss of appetite and sleep. One bottle did for me more good than six months' other treatment, and I feel it my duty to testify in its behalf, so others may try it and get cured. Yours Truly, Warren E. Russell, Contractor and builder, Flint, Mich.—For sale by John J. Orr.

Applied Culture.—"I tell you that man Hobson is a man of culture," said Darley. "He makes his stenographer put 'R. S. V. P.' down at the bottom of all the letters he sends out with hog and lard quotations."

THE SKILL AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential to the production of the most perfect and popular laxative remedy known, have enabled the California Fig Syrup Co. to achieve a great success in the revelation of its remedy. Syrup of Figs, as it is conceded to be the universal laxative. For sale by all druggists.

Servant (delivering messages): Mr. Triplett sends his compliments to Mr. Gazzam, with the request that he shoot his dog, which is a nuisance in the neighborhood. Gazzam: Give Mr. Gazzam's compliments to Mr. Triplett, and ask him to kindly poison his daughter or burn up her piano.

VERY MUCH SURPRISED.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle Signed A. B. Snell.

Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1891. For sale by John J. Orr.

MILES' NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest. 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

Coughing leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

They go together—cleanliness and Pearline. If you want the former, use the latter. With anything else, you will get discouraged. Pearline washes everything without harm and with little work. Clothes cry for it—housework is hastened by it—dirt dreads it. It costs little to try it—it costs a good deal to do without it.

Beware of imitations. 214 JAMES PYLE, N.Y.

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER

DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S.,

Brick Office on Shawnee St. TECUMSEH, MICH.

Threshers Attention!

We have 20 of our

CELEBRATED ALL-FOUR WHEEL DRIVEN

TRACTION ENGINES

That we will dispose of direct to threshers, thus saving them the agent's commission. The best and strongest Traction Engine made. We also manufacture Engines, Boilers, saw and Picket Mills, and the FAMOUS LION S. PUMP AND WIND MILLS.

Send for Catalogue and Price Lists.

The Lansing Iron and Engine Works.

LANSING, MICH.

ELY'S CREAM BALM FOR CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

THE NEW MODEL HALL TYPEWRITER,

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Characters.

Remodeled and Improved.

GOOD MANIFOLDER.

The Best Standard Typewriter in the World.

Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interchangeable type in all languages, Easiest to learn and rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIEND.

Everybody should have their writing done on this Typewriter. It always insures the most prompt attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159. N. TYPEWRITER CO.,

611 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

THE Spaulding BUSINESS COLLEGE

And SHORTHAND SCHOOL TOLEDO, O.

Prepares its pupils for business and then assists them to positions.

136 Students placed with Banks, Wholesale Houses and Railroad Cos. since Sept. '90.

Write for full information.

A. H. SPAULDING, Pres.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Monday, the 20th day of June, in the year one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard R. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Hugh Harbeson, Emily May Harbeson and William J. Harbeson, minors.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of W. J. Harbeson, an adult of said minors, praying that Charles Burridge, of Tecumseh, may be appointed guardian of said minors.

It is Ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the next of kin of said minors, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court then to be holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is Further Ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in The Tecumseh Herald, a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD R. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy).

A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee—ss

At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office in the city of Adrian, on Friday, the 17th day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard R. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of John Richard, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Alexander Richard, a son of said deceased, praying that administration of said estate may be granted to him, petitioner, or to some other suitable person:

It is ordered, That Monday, the 18th day of July, next, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs-at-law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court then to be holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in The Tecumseh Herald, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

(A True Copy.)

RICHARD R. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

A. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

In the matter of the estate of Lewis V. Miller, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Probate Court of said County, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas Burridge, in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan on the 6th day of August, 1892, and and on the 7th day of December 1892, at 9 o'clock in the fore noon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 7th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 15th, 1892.

MINOR DAVIDSON,
MICHAEL SMELTZER,
Commissioners

DRS. CATLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default of Payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Edward Rowland and Elizabeth Rowland, his wife, to Albert Hyde, Sr., bearing date the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1881, and recorded in the office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber [illegible] of mortgages, on page [illegible] of which mortgage there remains due at the date of this notice, of principal and interest, the sum of Eight Hundred and Seventy-six dollars (876.62) and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken for the collection of the same.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the foreclosure and sale of mortgaged premises, and the collection of the moneys above named, and interest thereon at 8 per cent. per annum, and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fee provided by law, I shall, on the first day of August, A. D. 1892, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house in the city of Adrian, County of Lenawee, Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point in the South line of Logan street, seventy feet west from the intersection of that line with the East line of Evans street in said Village, thence running South parallel with and seventy feet distant from the East line of Evans street to an alley described in a deed given to Benjamin Farley by Michael A. Patterson and George Stafford; thence East along the North line of said alley seventy feet; thence North to the South line of Logan street aforesaid; thence West on said South line of Logan street aforesaid seventy feet to place of beginning—being the same land conveyed by John H. Mills to said Edward Rowland by deed bearing date December 29, 1876, and comprising dwelling house and premises and blacksmith shop and premises thereon.

Dated May 5th, 1892.

ALBERT HYDE,
Mortgagee.

CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for Mortgagee. may5

MORTGAGE SALE.

DEFAULT of payment having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage bearing date March 10th, 1880, executed and delivered by Seth C. Randall to Emma Drake, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1889 in Liber [illegible] of mortgages, on pages 614 and 615 and upon which mortgage there remains due at the date hereof the sum of three hundred ninety-nine dollars and sixty cents (399,60), and no proceedings at law or in equity having been taken to collect the same or any part thereof:

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained (which has become operative by reason of said default and by the Statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon, and costs of this foreclosure and sale including an attorney fee as provided by law), I shall on the 11th day of July, A. D. 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house, in the City of Adrian, County of Lenawee Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee is holden), all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, known and described as follows, viz: The northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-three (23), town six (6) south of range five (5) east.

Dated April 11, 1892.

EMMA DRAKE,
Mortgagee.

WOOD & TIRD
Attorneys for Mortgagee. apr14

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of John Gordon, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas Burridge, in Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 27th day of August, and on the 27th day of Dec., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 27th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment.

Dated, July 21, 1892.

FRANCIS C. RECTOR,
HORATIO KEYSER,
Commissioners.

STARTLING FACTS.

The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks, and the following suggests the best remedy: Alphonso Hempling, of Butler, Pa., swears that when his son was speechless from St. Vitus dance Dr. Miles' great Restorative Nervine cured him. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaiso, and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained 20 pounds from taking it. Mrs. H. A. Gardener, of Vistula, Ind. was cured of 40 to 50 convulsions a day, and much headache, dizziness, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. Trial bottles, and fine book of marvelous cures, free at Baker & Hall's who recommends and guarantees this unequaled remedy.

Every Month
many women suffer from Excessive or Scanty Menstruation, they don't know what to consult in to get proper advice. Don't confide in anybody, but try
Bradfield's
Female Regulator.
a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE, SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR
MENSTRUATION.
Book to "WOMAN" mailed free.
BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S
DUSKY
DIAMOND
TAR SOAP
Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing.
Cures
Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc.
Removes and Prevents Dandruff.
AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP.
Best for General Household Use.

ARE YOU SICK?
I will mail 12 days' trial treatment of the famous Australian Electro Pills for only 10 cents (cost over $1.00) worth liquid remedies for Catarrh, Liver, Kidney or Stomach Trouble, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Constipation, La Grippe and the Nervous System. Full treatment by mail, $1.00. Write symptoms. Special terms to live agents. Mention this paper. Address
Dr. E. J. Worst, Ashland, Ohio.

WANTED SALESMAN
Good pay. Steady employment. Big advantage over rival concerns; stock guaranteed; no experience needed. Write if you want a good position. address
THE GUARANTEE NURSERY CO
GENEVA, N. Y. Lock Box 150.

Dr. Hoxsie's
Certain Croup Cure,
Is a PREVENTIVE as well a CURE for Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, and Influenza. Contains no opium. Causes no nausea.
Price 50 cents.
Address A. P. HOXSIE, Buffalo, N. Y.

DEAFNESS & HEAD NOISES CURED by Dr. Nicholson's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfortable. Successful when all remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, No. 853 Broadway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

PARKER'S
HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists

CONSUMPTIVE
Use Piso's Cure. Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough. Strengthens the weak lungs, prevents Consumption. Sold everywhere. 25c.

CORNS
HINDERCORNS. The only sure cure for Corns. 15c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

A Family Affair
Health for the Baby,
Pleasure for the Parents,
New Life for the Old Folks.

Hires' Root Beer
THE GREAT TEMPERANCE DRINK
Is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening effervescent beverage.
Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.
OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

SINGLE TAX DEPARTMENT.

Special Assessment for Public Improvements.

SOL. P. CLARK.

It was not until the country began to grow wealthy after the war and the demand arose for costly public improvements that the question as to the method of assessing the cost was much mooted or considered. Since then the controversy has been made between the general tax and that of the "special assessment." Land owners oppose the special assessment system because they desire to reap the benefits and cast the burdens upon the people. In the Arkansas convention of 1874, which gave us our present constitution, we had some men of great foresight, and they stifled this controversy afar off, grappled with it, and settled it. They limited all taxation by the states, counties or municipalities, and limited the power of the legislature to confer any power of taxation upon cities and towns except to the extent in each year of five mills on the dollar for general purposes and five mills to pay indebtedness existing at the time of adoption of the constitution, with the following exception:

"Nothing in this constitution shall be so construed as to prohibit the general assembly from authorizing assessments on real property for local improvements in towns and cities under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, to be based upon the consent of a majority in value of the property holders owning property adjoining the locality to be affected, but such assessments shall be ad valorem and uniform."

In 1881, after bitter opposition by large capitalists and land owners, the general assembly enacted a law to carry this constitutional provision into effect. By this act, with several amendments, any ten owners of real property in any city of the first class may petition the council to take steps for the making of such local improvements. The council shall then by ordinance lay off the city, or so much as is mentioned in the petition, into one or more improvement districts by number, designating the boundaries. If, within three months after the publication of this ordinance as prescribed in the act, a majority in value of the owners of real property in the district petition the council to make such improvements, designating the nature of the improvements and the cost thereof, the council shall at once appoint three persons, owners of real property in the district, who shall compose a board of improvement commissioners for the district. On report of these commissioners as to the plan of the improvements and the cost, the council shall, by ordinance, assess such cost upon the real property in said district, assessing each parcel according to its value, as shown by the last county assessment, and subsequent assessments shall be in accordance with the periodical assessments of real estate of said city or town as made from time to time.

If the estimated cost shall exceed one per cent. of the estimated value of the property, then it shall be provided by ordinance that the assessment shall be paid in successive annual installments, so that no assessment in any one year shall exceed one per centum of the assessed value of the property for such particular improvement. Authority is then given the board to borrow money upon the pledge of future uncollected assessments, and such annual assessments are continued until the improvements are paid for. Not many improvements under the law were made on account of the opposition to it, until, in 1883, the supreme court decided the law to be constitutional, when opposition ceased, and since then all the improvements of the kind in the cities of the first class are constructed under it. And it must be admitted that the effect has been, while an enormous lug upon the property holder, and notwithstanding some defects in the law, to give a great impetus to the growth and appearance of the cities. Already Little Rock has a magnificent system of sewerage, which will soon extend to the whole city, and her principal streets are embellished and ornamented with pavements and sidewalks, built in the first order of workmanship, and still the work goes on.

The same may be said of the other cities, but not, perhaps, in the same degree. I am of the impression that in the smaller cities and towns such improvements are still made by general taxation. To all appearance, therefore, this law has been and is a large element in the rapid growth and progress of the state.

Now, while this system must be regarded as a partial recognition of the principles involved in the single tax movement, it does not come up to them. It will be seen that the "real property" mentioned, and upon which the tax is levied, includes the improvements on the land as well as the land itself, and the board is not at liberty to make a special appraisement of the value of the property, but must take it from the county assessments made for the purpose of general taxation, in which all improved property is assessed, land and improvements together, in a joint sum. We hold this not to be a just system of taxation. The taxation should assign as near as can be the burden to the benefited. The benefits from such public improvement accrue to the land or lots, and not to any improvements thereon. These can not be increased in value, for with or without public improvements they can never be worth more than it will cost to put them there. The owner of a vacant lot or tract of land of equal value is just as much benefited as the one with improvements, and should pay as much.

These assessments should always be upon the value of the land or lots, leaving out the improvements. But there is a long step in the right direction in leaving out of the assessment all personal property or products of human industry, except such improvements upon the land; for under the law that portion of the taxes levied upon such improvements can be shifted upon non-property holders, or such as have only their labor to live upon, which is a great relief to these classes. And there is another crying evil not due to the law, but which it does not provide against, and that is in all assessments of improved lots or lands and the improvements jointly, the value of the lot in the estimate is put higher and in most cases double what it would be if vacant, and double the value of vacant lots of equal value. This is on account of the sentiment which seems to prevail everywhere that the improved lot is worth more because it brings its owner an income. But this is absolutely false, as I have shown, and we single taxers have a thousand times demonstrated, and this works a great injustice, extending to all the industrial classes. "A" owns a lot on main street, Little Rock. "B" an adjoining lot of equal value, each worth, independent of improvements, $2,000. The assessor comes along and he assesses "B's" property at $5,000 and "A's" vacant lot at $2,000. If complaint is made the assessor explains: "Your improvements you say cost $2,000, I have put the lot at $3,000, $1,000 more than 'B's' lot, because yours brings you a revenue and 'B's' vacant lot, so far as yielding any profit, is a dead expense to him." Assessments are nowhere made up to the full value of the property, but the undervaluation of vacant lots is universally greater than that of improved lands independent of the improvements. In fact, going outside of cities, vacant lands are assessed at almost a nominal value, while the whole taxation to support government is saddled upon improved lands. The enormous injustice of this system may be conceived when we consider that more than one-half of the lands of the state are owned and being bought up by speculators, domestic and foreign, to be held vacant on speculation.

Single Tax in the Dominion.

Ex-mayor Frank McDougall, of Ottawa, has taken the initiative in pushing the idea of the single tax for municipal purposes in Ottawa. The first step is to be a discussion of the evils of the present system at the next meeting of the board of trade, when the single tax will be proposed as a remedy. Ottawa is the capital of the Dominion, and land-grabbing there has been carried to an extreme. The result is high taxes on improvements and large areas of vacant land in those parts of the city where the eligible building sites are to be found. It is this result that has forced the business men of the city to consider the situation. Mr. McDougall has studied economic and social science, and though he does not now accept the single tax absolutely, he is thoroughly convinced that direct taxes should fall upon land values and not upon labor products. It is expected that the discussion will be a lively one, and that the board of trade will endorse the single tax for municipal purposes.

Hon. A. R. McClelan, a senator of the Dominion from the Province of New Brunswick, has been called upon by the government of his province to take the chairmanship of the royal commission to investigate the subject of municipal taxation. Senator McClelan's attention has been called to the single tax, and he expresses his readiness to bring it up for the consideration of his commission.

At the close of the single tax lecture in Ottawa, reported in this column last week, the customary privilege of asking questions was extended to the audience, and Mr. A. C. Campbell undertook the task of furnishing the answers. The Toronto Grip reports the result as follows:

His replies, it need scarcely be said, were in all cases prompt and satisfactory. In one particular instance he was keenly witty. A young gentleman rose and propounded a case as follows: "I buy a picture from an artist for $100; in, say, five years I sell the picture for $5,000, and you agree that I am entitled to the profit on the transaction. Now, at the time that I bought the picture a friend of mine bought a piece of land for $100, and at the time I sold the work of art he sold his land, also for $5,000. You deny his right to this profit. Upon what rule of justice do you make such a distinction?"

"We make no distinction," responded Mr. Campbell. "As single taxers, we are pre-eminently encouragers of commerce. If an artist makes a picture and sells it for $100—that is a straight transaction. As purchaser you are the owner of it, and if you dispose of it at an advance, that is also a square business, and you are entitled to any profit you may make. The same principle holds good in the other proposed case. If a man makes a piece of land and sells it—" But here the audience caught on and the roar of laughter obviated any further extension of the parallel.

The Owners of New York.

Most of the large estates in this city, such as the Trinity Church, Columbia College, Sailors' Snug Harbor, the Astor, Rhinelander and Goelet estates, have their own peculiar forms of conveyances and leases. Some estates strictly adhere to the policy of steadily acquiring but never selling any property. It is a very rare occurrence for any of the large estates named to part with a piece of property. It has not been the policy of the large land owners to improve their own land. They merely give leases, generally for twenty-one years, with privileges of renewal at certain stated rates, and in most cases stipulate what kind of a building shall be erected. If the property is situated in a business district, a shrewd land owner will insist that a building shall be put up of sufficient size, style, and durability to make the locality desirable and enhance the value of the land. Nearly all of the old land leases of property in the lower part of the city were made out with a view of preserving uniformity in size and style with regard to the business blocks. A veteran real estate lawyer informed a Times reporter that a far greater proportion of the buildings in this city stood on leased ground than was generally supposed.—N. Y. Times.

THE FALL ELECTIONS.

The Political Calendar for the Year 1892.

Besides Balloting for Presidential Electors, Congressmen, Legislators and State Officers Are to Be Chosen This Fall.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

The elections of 1892 include those in all the states for 444 presidential electors, which will be held on Tuesday, November 8. All will be chosen by the several states at large, except in Michigan, where one will be chosen in a district embracing the west half of the state, one in a district embracing the east half of the state, and ten by congressional districts. There are also to be elected the national house of representatives (two members have already been chosen in Oregon) and state legislatures, the latter of which will choose twenty-six United States senators (one senator having already been elected in Rhode Island by the legislature chosen this year). The other elections of the year are thus grouped:

Alabama will elect governor and state officers August 1 and nine representatives in congress November 8.

Arkansas will elect governor and state officers September 5 and six representatives in congress November 8.

Colorado will elect governor, state officers and two representatives in congress November 8.

Connecticut will elect governor, state officers, four representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Hawley (rep.), November 8.

Florida will elect governor, state officers and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Pasco (dem.), October 4, and two representatives in congress November 8.

Georgia will elect governor and state officers October 5 and eleven representatives in congress November 8.

Idaho will elect governor and state officers, a representative in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Shoup (rep.), November 8.

Illinois will elect governor and state officers, and twenty-two representatives in congress November 8.

Indiana will elect governor and state officers, thirteen representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Turpie (dem.), November 8.

Kansas will elect governor, state officers and eight representatives in congress November 8.

Maine will elect governor, four representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Hale (rep.), September 12.

Massachusetts will elect governor, state officers, thirteen representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Dawes (rep.), November 8.

Michigan will elect a governor and state officers, twelve representatives in congress, and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Stockbridge (rep.), November 8.

Minnesota will elect governor and state officers, seven representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Davis (rep.), November 8.

Missouri will elect governor and state officers, fifteen representatives in congress, and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Cockrell (dem.), November 8.

Montana will elect governor and state officers, a representative in congress, and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Sanders (rep.), November 8.

Nebraska will elect governor and state officers, six representatives in congress, and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Paddock (rep.), November 8.

New Hampshire will elect governor and two representatives in congress November 8.

New Jersey will elect governor and state officers, eight representatives in congress, and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Blodgett (dem.), November 8.

North Carolina will elect governor and state officers and nine representatives in congress November 8.

North Dakota will elect governor and state officers, a representative in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Casey (rep.), November 8.

South Carolina will elect governor and state officers and seven representatives in congress November 8.

South Dakota will elect governor and state officers, and two representatives in congress November 8.

Tennessee will elect governor and state officers, ten representatives in congress, and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Bate (dem.), November 8.

Texas will elect governor, and state officers, and thirteen representatives in congress November 8.

Vermont will elect governor and state officers, two representatives in congress, and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Proctor (rep.), September 6.

Washington will elect governor and state officers, two representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Allen (rep.), November 8.

West Virginia will elect governor and state officers, four representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Faulkner (dem.), November 8.

Wisconsin will elect governor and state officers, ten representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Sawyer (rep.), November 8.

Wyoming will elect governor and state officers, a representative in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Warren (rep.), November 8.

California will elect seven representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Felton (rep.), November 8.

Delaware will elect a representative in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Gray (dem.), November 8.

Iowa will elect secretary of state and eleven representatives in congress November 8.

Kentucky will elect eleven representatives in congress November 8.

Louisiana will elect six representatives in congress November 8.

Maryland will elect six representatives in congress November 8.

Mississippi will elect seven representatives in congress November 8.

Nevada will elect supreme court judge, a representative in congress, and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Stewart (rep.), November 8.

New York will elect chief justice of the court of appeals, thirty-four representatives in congress, and the assembly of 128 members to take part in the election of a United States senator, vice Hiscock (rep.), November 8.

Ohio will elect secretary of state and twenty-one representatives in congress November 8.

Pennsylvania will elect thirty representatives in congress and a legislature to choose a United States senator, vice Quay (rep.), November 8.

Rhode Island will elect two representatives in congress November 8.

Virginia will elect ten representatives in congress November 8. The legislature will elect United States senator, vice Hunton, appointed pro tem.

His Trip Postponed.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., July 23.—C. McDowell, of Council Bluffs, started a few days ago for Alaska. En route he stopped off in this city. Thursday night he went to sleep in a garden across the river and when he woke up in the morning he was minus $1,400 that he had been carrying sewed inside the waistband of his trousers. He will not go to Alaska now.

Baird Brothers Exonerated.

CINCINNATI, O., July 23.—The coroner's verdict in the Licking bridge disaster, by which twenty-five men were killed, exonerates the Baird Brothers, contractors. The jury finds that the accident was caused by the spreading of the false work, and was unavoidable.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $15 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand, romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by traveling between Detroit and Cleveland via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $5.00. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making close connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlets. Address A. A. Schantz, G. P. A. Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

GUARANTEED CURE.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition: If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold, or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at J. J. Orr's Drug Store. Large size 50c and $1.00.

"Nonsense," remarked Synnek, "it isn't love that makes people happy. It's flattery, rank flattery. The man is pleased because the woman took a fancy to so inferior a being as he knows himself to be, and the woman's vanity is tickled for a precisely similar reason. In a word, each loves the other for showing good taste in choosing a mate.

I have been troubled with chronic catarrh for years. Ely's Cream Balm is the only remedy among the many that I have used that affords me relief.—E. W. Willard, druggist, Joliet, Ill.

My son has been afflicted with nasal catarrh since quite young. I was induced to try Ely's Cream Balm, and before he had used one bottle that disagreeable catarrhal smell had all left him. He appears as well as anyone. It is the best catarrh remedy in the market.

IT IS A DUTY you owe yourself and family to get the best value for your money. Economize in your footwear by purchasing W. L. Douglas Shoes, which represent the best value for prices asked, as thousands will testify.
TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN.
THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY.
A genuine sewed shoe, that will not rip, fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, flexible, more comfortable, stylish and durable than any other shoe ever sold at the price. Equals custom made shoes costing from $4 to $5.
$4 and $5 Hand-sewed, fine calf shoes. The most stylish, easy and durable shoes ever sold at the price. They equal fine imported shoes costing from $6 to $12.
$3.50 Police Shoe, worn by farmers and all others who want a good heavy calf, three soled, extension edge shoe, easy to walk in, and will keep the feet dry and warm.
$2.50 Fine Calf, $2.25 and $2.00 Workingmen's Shoes will give more wear for the money than any other make. They are made for service. The increasing sales show that workingmen have found this out.
Boys' $2.00 and Youths' $1.75 School Shoes are worn by the boys everywhere. The most serviceable shoes sold at the prices.
Ladies' $3.00 Hand-sewed, $2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 Shoes for Misses are made of the best Dongola or fine Calf, as desired. They are very stylish, comfortable and durable. The $3.00 shoe equals custom made shoes costing from $5.00 to $6.00. Ladies who wish to economize in their footwear are finding this out.
Caution.—W. L. Douglas' name and the price is stamped on the bottom of each shoe; look for it when you buy. Beware of dealers attempting to substitute other makes for them. Such substitutions are fraudulent and subject to prosecution by law for obtaining money under false pretences.
W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by
HARRIS & NITESHU, Tecumseh.

LADIES
In delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to a cure together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The Mrs. M. Pastille has stood the test of 15 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $2.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr. H. H. Jackson, 163 State Street, Chicago, Illinois.
The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. Name and address will be given any lady asking for the same.
"DR JACKSON,
Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend Your Mrs. M. Pastille to all ladies suffering with female diseases. Having myself been a sufferer for two months and could find no remedy to cure, I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using about two boxes I was well and sound for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady." Yours truly

CURE THAT
Cold
AND STOP THAT
Cough.
N. H. Downs' Elixir
WILL DO IT.
Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.
Warranted. Sold everywhere.
HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

If you are troubled with a "hacking cough," Downs' Elixir will give you relief at once. Warranted as recommended or money refunded.

Baxter's Mandrake Bitters cure indigestion, Heart Burn, Costiveness and all malarial diseases. Twenty-five cents per bottle.

Johnson: Been away on a vacation? Jackson: Yes; went down to Medocsk-konecasis in Maine. Lots of fishing and that sort of thing, you know. "That's the kind! Any game?" "You bet! Poker every night in the week and all Sunday."

Ripans Tabules cure colic.
Ripans Tabules prolong life.
Ripans Tabules: for torpid liver.

LAKE SUPERIOR TRANSIT CO
The Great Duluth Route.
Intended sailings of steamers from Detroit for Sault Ste Marie, Duluth and other Lake Superior Ports:—Mondays, 8 P. M.; Thursdays and Saturdays, 10:30 P. M.; central time. For Cleveland Erie and Buffalo, Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays; 5 P. M., central time, making railroad connections for all points East and South. Rail Connections at Duluth for St. Paul, Minneapolis, Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railway Points, Pacific Coast, etc. Baggage checked through to destination. For tickets and information, apply to J. T. WHITING, Gen'l Agent. Dock and Office, 33 West Atwater St., near Griswold, DETROIT MICH.

KING OF THE BLOOD
The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.
Cures all Humors, from a Common Pimple to the worst Scrofula.
It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.
Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.
Its name is its best description as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.
It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.
It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.
It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the Surgeon's knife.
It cures DROPSY, general or partial.
It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.
It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.
It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons and establishes a sound constitution.
Many certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," in which each bottle is enclosed.
Price $1 per bottle containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses, Cheaper than water medicine.
If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.
D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors,
BUFFALO N. Y.

D. RANSOM'S MAGNETIC OINTMENT.

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.
It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.
The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.
All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.
It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood, by this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame, every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years,
This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates of cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.
Price 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.
D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's
Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!
HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan Street, I am prepared to execute
General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds.
HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.
Satisfaction Guaranteed and Charges Reasonable.
A. J. WHITING.

FAT FOLKS REDUCED

Mrs. Alice Maple, of Oregon, Mo., says: "My weight was 330 lbs., now it is 168 lbs., a reduction of 162 lbs., and I feel so much better that I would not take $1,000 and be put back where I was. I am both surprised and proud of the change. I recommend your treatment to all sufferers from obesity. Will answer all inquiries if stamp is inclosed for reply."
PATIENTS TREATED BY MAIL. CONFIDENTIAL.
Harmless, and with no starving, inconvenience, or bad effects. For particulars address, with 6 cents in stamps,
DR. O. W. F. SNYDER, McVICKER'S THEATER, CHICAGO, ILL.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent).

WASHINGTON, July 22, 1892.

The date upon which Congress will adjourn is dependent upon the appropriation for the World's Fair, as it is now considered certain that the Senate will not consent to adjourn until the House agrees to that appropriation. The republican managers were quick to to see the political capital to be made out of the fact that it was entirely democratic votes which defeated the appropriation in the House, and they are making the most of it, and the longer the House holds out, the more they will make out of it. Messages from prominent democrats in all sections of the country are pouring in upon democratic Representatives urging them to recede from their unpopular position, and it is said that Mr. Cleveland has also sent a strong letter to one of his close friends in the House saying that it will endanger the party success if the House succeeds in preventing this appropriation.

The democrats who opposed the appropriation, under the leadership of Holman, of Indiana and Sayers, of Texas, are still apparantly firm, and as Holman and Sayers are the House conefrees on the bill, there is little hope that the conference will reach an agreement except under direct instructions of the House, but it is believed that by the time Mr. Holman reports to the House that the conference cannot agree that the friends of the appropriation will be strong enough to pass a motion in the House instructing their conferees to recede, although it is certain that such action will be very much against the wishes of a large number of democrats who agree with Mr. Holman and Mr. Sayers that Congress has no constitutional right to loan or appropriate money for the exposition, although many of these same members saw no constitutional objection to Congress assuming jurisdiction over the fair to the extent of ordering it to be closed on Sunday, the House having by a vote of 147 to 61 adopted the Senate amendment providing for the closing of the exposition on Sunday. The consistency of those who voted for the Sunday closing and against the appropriation is not apparent to ordinary observers.

It is refreshing to learn that Mr. George Shiras Jr., of Pennsylvania, who has been nominated to the vacancy on the Supreme Court, has never held a public office, and also that he has never been active in politics. He is very highly spoken of by Pennsylvanians, and from all accounts he will make a judge, even if it be true, as reported, that President Harrison did appoint him for the purpose of snubbing Senators Quay and Cameron.

The Statistics in the preliminary report of the Senate committee which has been investigating the effect of tariff laws upon the prices of everything, including wages and living, in this country and Great Britain will fill "a long felt want" if they are reliable, and the four republicans and two democrats who make up the committee say they are. Taken as a whole these figures indicate that on a general average the cost of the living of a family in ordinary circumstances has since 1889 been very slightly decreasing in this country and increasing in Great Britain, and that wages in this country average 77 per cent higher than in Great Britain. These statistics will be carefully studied, and if they be inaccurate it will doubtless be soon discovered.

"It is a crying shame," said a well known labor leader, at present employed in the Government Printing Office, "that the lobby controlled by ex-Senator Mahone, of Virginia, aided and abetted by Senators Cameron, of Pennsylvania; Vest of Missouri; Butler, of South Carolina, and Blackburn of Kentucky, should have repeated their success of two years ago in getting postponed the purchase of a site for a new Government Printing Office, for no better reason than that Mahone wishes to force Congress to buy his land. A majority of the 3,000 men and women who daily risk their lives in the old and shaky building now used are members of labor organizations and it is among thepossibilities that this lobby may find itself confronted by the agents of organized labor when it next tries the postponement dodge."

Allan Rutherford, a Washington claim agent has got into a scrape that may give him a good deal of trouble if it does not put him in a stripped suit before it is ended, by sending a circular to the beneficiaries of the bill recently passed for the relief of the hospital corps, demanding $10 from each of them for having had the bill passed. He may be prosecuted for fraudulent use of the mails and for obtaining money under false pretenses.

—ALMA LADIES' COLLEGE—

St. Thomas, Ontario. The leading Canadian College, Graduating courses n Literature, Music, Fine Art, Commercial Science, Elocution, 200 Students Home comforts, Fine health record unsurpassed advantages, Moderate rates, 60 p p Illustr. announcement.

Address Pres. Austin M. A.

THE DETROIT EXPOSITION.

Notes on Preparations for the Great Industrial and Agricultural Fair.

The interest taken by amateurs in the athletic events and bicycle contests at the Detroit International Fair and Exposition has induced the directors of the association to set apart two days, instead of one, for these contests. Wednesday, August 24, will be Wheelmen's day, when there will be a grand parade and ten bicycle races. The prizes offered aggregate $1,000 and some of the foremost wheelmen in the country have signified their purpose to participate. Saturday, August 27, will be Athletic Day. Officers of the Central Association A. A. U., who will award the $1,000 in premiums offered, promise the best series of athletic contests ever seen in this country.

Mr James E. Davis has resigned his position as secretary, and Mr. T. F. B. Sotham has been chosen to the position, in addition to that of general manager. Mr. Sotham has been very fortunate in securing some of the most competent men in the country to act as judges of stock, men who could not be induced by a money consideration to undertake the duties of these positions but who consent to serve on account of the unexampled premiums offered and the high character of the entries.

Last year's electrical exhibit, which was a very popular feature, will be much surpassed by this year's display. The Commercial Electrical Company, of Detroit, will have a large show of electrical machinery and appliances, and exhibits have also been secured from Chicago, New York and Philadelphia.

The latest addition to novelties in the way of races is the acquisition of a pair of moose which make a mile to harness in less than 3:40.

There is no other fair or exposition in the country that has anything like such accommodations for business as those arranged for this year's Detroit exposition. At most fairs, no matter how far the site may be from the freight depots, one mst go there to obtain rates for shipment. At the Detroit exposition there is an agent with an office adjoining the freight platform, where all inquiries and arrangements can be made. Here the lowest rates can be obtained and freight can be billed to any part of the United States or Canada, a facility which every exhibitor will appreciate who desires to sell his exhibits or ship to some other fair before returning to the original place of shipment. The facilities for sending goods by express are superior even to those for shipping freight. The American, United States, Pacific, National and Canadian express companies all have offices on the grounds, where they will either receive or deliver packages. All express matter so marked in shipping will be sent direct to these offices. Transportation facilities are further improved by the establishment on the grounds of ticket offices for all the leading railway and steamboat lines, where tickets can be purchased to all points and at low rates.

In the main building there will be a branch postoffice, where mail will be received and dispatched several times daily.

Another business accommodation which was first established at the Detroit exposition is that of banking. One or more of the city banks will open branch offices in the main building, where accounts may be opened, checks cashed, drafts purchased, and in fact any kind of banking business transacted.

A telegraph office and telephone station complete the equipment for general business, and with these combined facilities the visitor may conduct all his affairs on the exposition grounds.

The arrangements for the health, comfort and safety of visitors are unsurpassed. They include ample restaurants and lunch rooms, a barber shop, wash rooms and parcel rooms and a fully equipped hospital with ambulance ready for instant call and competent physicians always in attendance. Added to all these there is a free bureau of information at the main office, where all inquiries will be cheerfully answered and directions given to places where board and lodgings can be obtained at reasonable rates.

County Convention Date Changed.

In order to secure the services of Malone and West, Prohibition speaker and singer, at our coming convention the date of meeting has been changed from Wednesday, August 3d, to Thursday, August 4th, at 10 o'clock a. m., at Deans opera house, with mass meeting in the evening. Now let every Prohibitionist prepare to come and bring his neighbors, and let us make this convention a grand ratification of the nomination of Bidwell & Cranfill. Come one, come all.

C. QUICK,
Chairman County Committee.

The World's Columbian Exposition.

Send 50 cents to Bond & Co., 576 Rookery, Chicago, and you will receive, post paid, a four hundred page Advance Guide to the exposition, with elegant Engravings of the Grounds and Buildings, Portraits of its leading spirits, and a Map of the City of Chicago; all of the Rules governing the Exposition and Exhibitors, and all information which can be given out in advance of its opening. Also, other Engravings and printed information will be sent you as published. It will be a very valuable Book and every person should secure a copy.

The University School of Music.

The enthusiasm inspired by the magnificent series of concerts given during the past three years by the University Choral Union has had one result of practical significance. This is the establishment of the University School of Music. A glance at the announcement of the School of Music reveals the fact that the same high standard set by the Choral Union will prevail, and that the reputation which the University has gained by reason of its work in the production of standard compositions rarely attempted outside of our greatest musical centers, will be extended by reason of the School of Music. The School aims to supplement the work of the Choral Union by furnishing first-class instruction in all branches of music at a reasonable cost, and especially by reason of the fact that the courses are so planned as to stimulate the acquisition of scholarly musicianship rather than technical attainments alone. To this end the musical work will be supplemented by the service of lectures by prominent members of the University faculties, on topics of importance to musical students. The Board of Directors includes many of the leading professors and prominent business men. The financial success of the School is assured by an adequate guarantee fund, and doubly so by the policy of the School, which is entirely different in important particulars from that pursued by most musical institutions. The year will correspond with the University calendar year. There will be no distinction in the fees between primary and advanced work. Diplomas will be given only to those whose attainments entitle them to a position in the ranks of professional musicians. Teachers will be paid yearly salaries, and will be assigned pupils by the Musical Director, according to his judgment of the needs of the pupils. The Directors are confident that they have secured a faculty heartily in sympathy with the artistic aim of the School, and intend developing the School, to employ none but musicians of the highest attainments. Certainly no enterprise in Ann Arbor has been started with such prospects of success, and students and citizens alike are looking forward to the opening of the School with high expectation. The School is not a component part of the University, but is under the direction of the University Musical Society and the personal supervision of Professor Stanley.—Detroit Tribune.

The North American Review for August.

That the North American Review stands alone in this country in the eminence of its writers, and that the topics treated in its pages are chosen with a rare judgment as to the inquiry of the public mind, are facts that are manifest in the August number of that publication. The Duke of Argyll, in his article "English Elections and Home Rule," presents with clearness one of the features in the argument of the opposition to the theory of Home Rule for Ireland. With an intimate knowledge of our political history, he charges that Irish Home Rule involves the principles that led to our Civil War. Jules Claretie, distinguished as a litterateur and conspicuous as the director of the Theatre Francais, writes on "The Shudder in Literature," a most wholesome but quaint article on the weird subject. Major J. W. Powell, of the United States Geological Survey, accounts for our sudden inundations in "Our Recent Floods." In "Abraham Lincoln as a Strategist" (the second article), Archibald Forbes, the noted war correspondent, demonstrates the wide reach of the President's practical genius. There has been of discussion of society in America and England, and Gail Hamilton in the "Point of View" replies to a labored and intemperate article in Blackwood's Magazine attacking American women. For the first an adequate life of Thomas Paine has been writen, by Moncure D. Conway, and in The Review the sympathetic pen of Robert G. Ingersoll takes occasion to review the career of the thinker, patriot, and lover of his fellow men. An article of rare interest, curious and authoritative, is a description of the private life of the Pope by Giovanni Amadi, under the title of "The Pope at Home." "Business in Presdiential Years" is a subject of timely interest, and is discussed by Mr. F. B. Thurber. The controversy over the state of London society, weich has attracted much attention, is brought to a close by an article from Lady Frances Balfour. Ex-Speaker Reed challenges a comparison between the present House, overwhelmingly Democrat, and the former one, overwhelmingly Republican, in "Two Congresses Contrasted." Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, calls attention to the dangerous ascendency of party methods in the selection of Presidential electors, in his article "Party Convention." Among other papers are "Art Students in Italy," a word of advice from Ex-Governor J. Schuyler Crosby, "The Deaconess Movement," by the Nun of Kenmare; "Farm Organizations," by Newton Bunnell, and "A Time to Be Out of Doors," by Woods Hutchinson, M. D., a plea for sunlight in the house.

Democratic County Convention.

The Democrats of Lenawee county will meet in convention at the court house in the city of Adrian, on Thursday, August 11th, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention to be held in Grand Rapids on August 17, and to the congressional and senatorial conventions to be hereafter called, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. The township of Hudson is entitled to twelve delegates, the other townships and wards to six each. By order of county committee.

L. W. HOCH, Chairman.
CHAS. DRIGGS, Secretary.

Ripans Tabules cure dizziness.
Ripans Tabules: one gives relief.

The Arena for August.

The Bacon-Shakespeare controversy which opened in the July Arena is attracting general interest among lovers of Shakespearean literature. The August Arena contains an argument in favor of Lord Bacon. During this discussion the most eminent Shakespearean scholars will be heard pro and con. Among the other contributions of interest in the August Arena is a political symposium, to which Gail Hamilton, U. S. Senator James H. Kyle, Congressmen Geo. Fred Williams and Wm. T. Ellis contribute. Other leading papers are contributed by Mary A. Livermore, Twenty-five years on the Platform; Frances E. Willard, The Coming Brotherhood; Mrs. General Lew Wallace, The Chain of the Last Slave; Mrs. Frances E. Russell, A Historical sketch of Dress Reform in the U. S.; Mrs. B. F. Underwood, A woman's Case (a story); Helen H. Gardener, The Danger of an Irresponsible Educated Class in a Republic; and Louise Chandler Moulton, A Rare Letter by Mrs. Browning. Mr. Flower contributes a discriminating paper, entitled "An Idealistic Dreamer who Sings in the Minor Key." A symposium on Woman's Clubs is the most important discussion of this most interesting subject that has ever appeared in print. Among the contributors are May Wright Sewall, president of the Woman's Council of America, Kate Gannett Wells, Hester M. Poole, Mary E. Mumford, Annah Robison Watson, Katherine Nobles, Ellen M. Mitchell, Dr. Julia Holmes Smith, Mary E. Boyce Louise Chandler Moulton, and Mary A. Livermore. As will be seen this issue is a woman's number, as was the August Arena for 1891. Full page portraits of Mrs. Livermore and May Wright Sewall, and a page containing four portraits of contributors to the Woman's Club symposium are features of this number.

The Atlantic for August.

Mr. Edmund Clarence Stedman's poem entitled "Ariel." In memory of Percy Bysshe Shelley: born on the 4th of August, 1792, occupies the first three pages of the August number of the Atlantic Monthly; Mr. Stedman has done honor to himself as well as to Shelley in this beautiful poem, so abounding in musical cadences, and has performed his difficult task well.

The Editor of The Atlantic, having observed the interest with which Miss Larcom's A New England Girlhood was received, asked Dr. Edward Everett Hale if he would bring together some of his memories of the same period in a series of papers on a New England boyhood, with special reference to the conditions of life in Boston in the early part of the second quarter of this century. The first article of this series is presented to the reader in this number of the magazine. The paper is delightfully reminiscent, and will be widely read. The two chapters here given are entitled, "'T is Seventy Years Since" and "School Life." Another minister, the Rev. Wm. Elliot Griffis, has an interesting paper on "Townsend Harris, First American Minister in Japan." Mr. Crawford's striking serial, "Don Orsino," is continued, and Ellen Olney Kirk gives us the second part of her clever story, "A Florentine Episode." William Cranston Lawton's account of and translations from "The Persians" of Aeschylos, Professor W. J. Stillman's critical paper on "The Revival of Art," with Miss Vida D. Scudder's second paper on "The Prometheus Unbound of Shelly," furnish the more weighty matter of the number. A Swiss travel-sketch, by an anonymous writer, a paper by Bradford Torrey, and various reviews of new books English and foreign, complete a very valuable number of the ever-valuable Atlantic.

Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.

A New Line to the Northwest.

Commencing Monday, May 23d, the elegant steamer "City of Marquette" will make regular trips between Frankfort and Kewaunee, Wis., in connection with trains of the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan R'y. Through Express leaving Toledo at 5:45 a. m. daily except Sunday, arrives at Frankfort 5.55 p. m., connecting with "Steamer "City of Marquette," leaving Frankfort 7:00 p. m., arriving at Kewaunee 1:30 a. m.

Holders of first-class tickets are furnished sleeping berths on Steamer free of extra charge and will be permitted to retain berths until morning.

First train leaves Kewaunee 8:55 a. m. for Green Bay, Winona, LaCrosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis and all points in the West and North West.

W. H. BENNETT, G. P. A.
Toledo, Ohio.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno Orrs.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tarter baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St. N. Y.

REAL ESTATE

AND

Newspaper Subscription Agency

For anything in either line apply to

VINCENT WOOD, TECUMSEH.

SUMMER HATS

STRAW HATS,
SOFT HATS,
STIFF HATS.

For Men and Boys—All Styles and Qualities.

Hot Weather Clothing An Endless Variety of Styles and Qualities

Cassimere Suits in All the Latest Styles and Colors for Men, Boys, and Children.

THE LARGEST LINE AND LOWEST PRICES AT

STRONG & McNAIR'S.

FOR THE NEXT 30 DAYS

I will sell your choice of my extensive line of

Hanging Lamps

at cost. I can show you the best assortment of

HAVILAND CHINA,

plain and decorated patterns, in dinner and tea sets, also in fancy pieces. Decorated English porcelain in 12 different patterns, and in sets to suit. A fine English decorated chamber set at the very low price of $2.90 for 10 piece set; $4.90 for 12 piece set.

My stock of Fancy Groceries is complete. Our customers say we have have the best 50c tea in town. Come and get sample and see for yourself. Will not be undersold.

JAMES LOWRY.

THE AMERICAN INDUSTRIAL

EXHIBITION OF THE 19th CENTURY.

Opens Tuesday, Aug. 23.

Closes Friday, Sept. 2.

4th ANNU'L CONGRESS OF THE PEOPLE.

½ FARE ON ALL RAILWAY and STEAMBOAT LINES.

PREMIUM LIST and FULL INFORMATION CHEERFULLY FURNISHED.

D. M. FERRY, President. { DETROIT, MICH. } T. F. B. SOTHAM, Secretary.

People's Party Convention.

The People's Party of Lenawee county will hold a mass convention, at the court house in Adrian, on Saturday, July 30th, 1892, at 10 o'clock, a. m. for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention, at Jackson, on August 2d, 1892. Also, delegates to the congressional convention, and transact any other business that may properly come before the convention. A cordial invitation is extended to all who endorse and will support the platform adopted at Omaha, July 4th, 1892.

B. E. NILES, Chairman.
E. B. CANTLEBERRY, Secretary.

For The Campaign.

The twice-a-week St., Louis Republic will be mailed each Tuesday and Friday, from now untill November 30th, 1892, for only forty cents. It is a great semi-weekly paper, and will be indispensable during the Campaign. An extra copy will be sent free to November, 30th, to the sender of each club of five, with Two Dollars. Send for a package of sample copies and raise a club. Address The Republic, St., Louis, Mo.

To Whom It May Concern.

The Commissioner of Patents having on June 13, 1892, affirmed the decision of the Board of Examiners-in-Chief of the Patent Office, which was in my favor and in which they held that I was the inventor and entitled to a patent on the Friction Clutch used by the Upson Manufacturing Company and the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company for the past two seasons, and being the same one shown in their catalogue for '91 and '92, you are hereby notified that I shall commence suit to recover one hundred dollars royalty against the owner of each and every engine manufactured by the Port Huron Engine and Thresher Company I find this Clutch used on.

Yours Respectfully,
R. SHETTLER.

Teachers' Examination.

The next examination of teachers will be held at the court house, Adrian, Thursday and Friday, August 4th and 5th, 1892. Candidates are requested to bring pen, ink and legal cap paper and to be promptly on hand at 9 o'clock, Thursday morning.

C. F. FIELD,
County School Commissioner.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

LOST OR STRAYED.—From my premises in Tecumseh last Saturday a black pig, eight weeks old. The finder is requested to notify me or leave word at the Herald office. Jno. O'Haro.

WANTED.—Two intelligent ladies and one gentleman. $15 per week salary. Position permanent. Address
L. L. KEMBERLING,
12 Williams St., Adrian, Mich.

FOR SALE.—A No. 1, double grip Westcott Drill Chuck, opens at 5/8. P. J. WELLING.

PAY YOUR TAXES.—Will be at the HERALD office each Friday during the month of July to collect village taxes. T. R. KYLE, Marshal.

MONEY TO LOAN.—On long time. Apply by letter to Lock Box 13, Tecumseh, Mich.

DRESSMAKING.—Mrs. Waldron and daughter, Mrs. Harris, can be found at their home over Mrs. Gamble's, ready to wait upon the ladies in the line of dressmaking. Give them an opportunity to do your work. Residence two blocks north of Presbyterian Church.

HAIRDRESSING. Madame Grime, hairdresser, of Detroit, is at Mrs. Gamble's.—Manufactures and has for sale all styles of hair goods. Prices very reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. 1w

MUSTANG FOR SALE.—For particulars call on or address E. J. HOLLISTER, tf Tecumseh.

CLAYTON'S ODOMETER.—A Customer from Ontonagon, Mich., writes A. W. Slayton: "Have used your Odometer a year, am much pleased and want more of them." These machines are now in use in nineteen states. They tell how many miles you or others drive your horse. Address, A. W. SLAYTON, Tecumseh, Mich. Agents Wanted.

TECUMSEH HERALD.

TECUMSEH, MICH., JULY 28, 1892.

Local and Miscellaneous

Hot, hotter, hottest.

This is a spell of weather surely.

This is excellent weather for corn, anyhow.

The mercury has gone up out of sight in these parts.

Libbie Kirchgessner was at Clinton last Sunday.

Geo. D. Kies, of Elkhart, was in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Green, of Clinton, is visiting friends in the village this week.

Stella Rossman, of Grand Ledge, is visiting her parents in this village.

Mina Olmsted is spending two or three weeks with Mrs. Ira Pennock.

D. A. Tremaine and wife, of Vienna, N. Y., are visiting at M. J. Tremaine's.

Rev. W. Q. Burnett and son, Walter, are taking a month's sojourn at Petoskey.

Minnie Morrison returned from Ypsilanti Saturday, where she has been attending school.

Marvin Hayden, who is at present stationed at Grand Rapids, is visiting his parents in our village.

The Lakes seem to be quite well patronized by Tecumseh people. It is quite a retreat during the heated term.

Mrs. Burnham and daughter, of Detroit, who have been visiting at Wm. McCowen's, returned home Saturday.

Geo. Hampton, of Onsted, a former resident of this village, was in town Monday. He reports business good at Onsted.

The hay crop is the largest for many years, but wheat is light. Corn is behind and other crops—such as fruits and apples, will be far below the average.

Rev. W. F. Crispin, of Akron, Ohio, will occupy the Universalist pulpit of this village next Sunday, morning and evening. Morning subject, "How to make Life Happy;" evening theme, "Where's the Danger?"

The Lake Shore road seems to be on their mettle in regard to railroad traffic, as there have been on an average of two extra freights a day, and they were loaded principally with coal; so however hot it may be we have to prepare for winter, and it seems right early.

The Lenawee county Odd Fellows' picnic association hold their annual basket picnic in Mulzer's grove, August 17th. The Seneca pioneer picnic also comes on the 17th, as does the great Prohibition rally at Britton. The 17th promises to be a big day in Lenawee.

The Y. M. B. A. reorganized Monday night, with Prof. Skinner as musical director, Ed. Gray as leader and president and Claud Hubbard as secretary and treasurer. Success to the renewed efforts of the young men, and may they have the hearty co-operation of the public.

A young man from down in Ohio, who was visiting Devil's lake Sunday, on the regular Sunday excursion, went in bathing off the bath house dock at Beardsell's landing. He jumped into the water, his left foot striking some sharp object, and a fearful gash was cut the width of his foot, and fully half an inch deep. A surgeon was handy and sewed up the wound.

Addie Roberts, aged about 18, who went to live with her aunt near Elmira, N. Y., fell down the barn stairway at her aunt's home, Saturday. She had a short-handled pitchfork in her hands at the time, and it struck in such a manner that one tine pierced her neck, the middle one went through her breast, and the fatal stab was made by the third one, which penetrated the young girl's heart, killing her instantly. The remains were brought here Monday morning on the fast Lake Shore train from the east, to Franklin township, her old home, for interment. Her mother is dead, and her father is an inmate of the Kalamazoo insane asylum. Loving friends and near relatives looked after the remains.

This is splendid ice cream weather.

W. J. Arnold is repainting his store front.

The Lake Shore pay car went up the road yesterday morning.

Rev. F. Adkins filled the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday morning.

Next Saturday will be Gent's day at Anderson & Co's tripple store.

Edith Steinhoff, of Simcoe, Ontario, is visiting friends in town for a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. O. Q. Jones were at Brooklyn, Mich., a day or two last week.

People who have tried it say that the weather is more comfortable at the lakes now than in the village.

Mrs. W. H. Burrel and Mrs. G. H. Church visited with Mrs. William Ransom at Ridgeway, Thursday P. M.

The Fayette Normal offers some free scholarships in its advertisement this week. See "ad" in another column.

Nettie Southworth is spending two weeks with friends in Chicago. She will return home by way of the lakes.

County Treasurer Wiggins and family drove over to Tecumseh last Sunday. He drives one of the best teams in Lenawee.

Geo. Matteson finished last week a large job of painting on the new wash house, erected by the Prairie Side Celery Co.

The Baptist church of this village have extended a unanimous call to Rev. H. J. Smith of St. Clair, to become their pastor.

Mac G. Fritz left here Saturday to assume his new situation at Tipton, Ind. May success attend him in his new location.

The W. C. T. U. will meet for the month of August with Mrs. Tilton, cor. Pearl and Chicago streets. First Friday mother's meeting.

Geo. Griswold has purchased the Rufus Adams house on Shawnee street for the sum of $1300. We presume that he ntends to move his family into the village.

The hot spell of the last few days has seldom been equalled in this latitude. The thermometer registered 98 degrees at noon Sunday and 96 degrees at two o'clock Monday afternoon.

The hot wave has extended generally all over the Northern states. Many cases of sunstroke are reported from all large cities and a very large percentage of deaths among children.

We have been cleaning house at the HERALD Office during the past week and it is by no means a desirable job. One room has been completed and we shall take another one next week.

Miss Mae Morrison has just signed a contract for the position of principal at the Harlem Grammar School at Chicago. Tecumseh talent seems to be appreciated in the educational world.

The Union Gospel Temperance meeting will be held in the Baptist church on Sabbeth evening at 7:30 o'clock. A fine program is being prepared by Mrs. Mary C. Wood and Mrs. Jas. Heck.

The Farmers' Social Club will hold their annual picnic in Putnam's grove, Sand lake, Saturday, Aug. 6. Let us have a full attendance of the members of the club and their friends. Come early and stay late. Mrs. A. P. CODDINGTON, Sec.

The Prohibitionists of the town of Tecumseh will meet at Council Building on Thursday evening, July 28, to elect delegates to county convention and transact such other business as may come before it. By order of committee.

Near Morenci Wednesday the boiler of the threshing outfit of Alphonso Whaley exploded, badly scalding Frank, the son of the proprietor. It is thought the injuries may prove fatal. The boiler was a new one and the cause of the explosion was unknown.

The Democratic county convention will be held at the court house, Thursday, August 11th, to select delegates to the state, congressional and senatorial conventions. The state convention meets at Grand Rapids, August 17th, and the others will be called later.

Misses Lillian Welliver, Grace Gillespie, Edna Bryan, Angie Nyland, Gertrude Hialey, Clara Farley, Bertha Smeltzer, Mary Eaton, Jennie Russell, Susie VanTyne, Mrs Bryan, of Hanover, and Miss Larnard, of Toledo, are occupying DeWolfe's cottage at Sand Lake, this week.

The sample of water, sent to Prof. Kedsie for analysis, by the Board of Water Commissioners, proved to be excellent in quality, as was expected. In his report Prof. Kedsie says: "Like all the soil waters of the Southern part of the State, this water is hard from the presence of salts of lime and magnesia, but in all other respects it is water of excellent quality for domestic and potable use."

Prof. E. A. Wilson, of Paw Paw, formerly of Tecumseh, received the nomination for member of the state board of education at the Republican Convention. Prof. Wilson was born and reared at Ridgeway in this county, graduated at the Tecumseh High School and afterwards at the State Normal, was Superintendent of our schools for two years and has had much experience in conducting teachers' institutes. He served one term as County School Commissioner of this county. Prof. Wilson's numerous friends in old Lenawee will heartily congratulate him upon his good fortune. The nomination is an excellent one and ought to prove a strong one at the polls.

Local news is very scarce this week.

Geo. Chaplin has received a pension.

Dr. White, of Clinton, was in town on business Tuesday.

John Primrose, of Chicago, is visiting friends in this village.

Jeff Kennedy, of Hanover, is visiting his brother Arthur this week.

M. M. Harmon and wife, of Kalamazoo, are guests of Chas. Eldridge's family this week.

The telephone office has again been changed, and hereafter its place will be at Kirchgessner's jewelry store.

The next meeting of the Womans' Relief Corps occurs Monday evening, Aug. 1st. A full attendance is desired.

Rev. F. W. Wilber, of Mt. Vernon, O. will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday next, morning and evening.

Will Horton has taken a clerkship in Avery & Co's store. This will be a good arrangement for all parties concerned.

Frankie Adkins, son of Rev. Adkins, who has been sick for the past two weeks with brain fever, is not expected to live.

Will McCowen, of Seymour, Ind., arrived in town yesterday and will spend two or three weeks with his father's family here.

At three p. m. Tuesday, the mercury marked 97 degrees and at three p. m. yesterday, 96 degrees by Geo. Merritt's thermometer.

Wheat threshing began in this vicinity last Monday. Reports thus far indicate that the yield will be below the average but of fair grade.

Geo. Matteson completed yesterday a fine job of painting and kalsomining in the Herald office. He knows how to put on kalsomine, so it will not rub off.

Go to the New Harness Shop on R. R. street, two doors south of Marsh's meat market, for fine harness. Repairing done at reasonable rates. Wm. Van-Antwerp, Proprietor.

The ladies of the W. F. M. S. will serve tea in the parlor's of the M. E. Church, Wednesday, August 3d, from six to seven o'clock to which all are invited. Supper 10 cents.

The clerk of the weather seems to be in league with John Hicks. The frequent damage to buildings lately by lightning has given an impetus to his business, and he is having his hands full now.

Mrs. J. F. Hicks will start next week for an extended visit with friends at Colorado Springs and other points in that state. She will take advantage of the reduced rates for the Knights Templar excursion.

If all the ladies who wish to attend the W. C. T. U. social at A. P. Coddington's, on Friday of this week, will meet at Mrs. Jackson's promptly at 2 and 3 p. m., conveyances will be provided to carry them there.

John Hicks maintains that this is good corn weather. Yesterday he brought into our office a stalk of corn raised on his village lot, that measures nine feet six inches in length. It is the Ohio dent variety and he has a large field of the same corn.

Operations on the Water Works were again begun last week Thursday, just east of the handle factory. They drove a well and struck a good flow of water at a depth of seventeen feet. Enough was found so that they have begun work on the large well which is to be about 20 feet deep and 22 feet across.

The Board of Water Commissioners are getting down to active work. Engineer Parker has completed his plans and specifications and the advertising for bids has been sent out. As soon as the contracts are let to responsible parties the active work of construction will begin.

Rev. R. Wooden, of Onsted, was here Monday and made us a pleasant visit. He reports the storm as pretty heavy in his neighborhood. It blew over a sheep shed on his premises, and blew a great limb off a chestnut tree that stood in his yard—a tree he had planted himself over 42 years ago—and of which he was very proud.—Messenger.

The HERALD Job rooms have just issued a pamphlet for the Water Board, containing blank contract, bond and all the specifications in detail for the construction of the water works. The care and elaborateness with which these specifications are drafted show that Engineer Parker is thoroughly posted in his business.

The thunder shower that passed over this section last Sunday afternoon was the severest storm of the season thus far. A number of shade trees were struck by lightning or blown over, and some fruit trees were destroyed, but no other damage was done as far as known. The brunt of the storm seems to have passed over the south and west portions of the county.

The Montcalm County Herald says: Rev. W. C. Burns left Monday for a four weeks vacation. He went to Chicago and from there will accompany Mr. G. Wharton James on a trip to the Grand Canon of Colorado. We congratulate Mr. Burns on his prospects for a delightful outing, and we are sure his many friends in the city join us in wishing him all the pleasure he can possibly extract from his trip. They will visit points of interest in Arizona, New Mexico and California and spend ten days in the Grand Canon.

—$60.00 IN CASH PRIZES.—Send ten cents for the June number of the "Literary Century" giving full particulars. Address THE LITERARY CENTURY, Ann Arbor, Mich.

—Paper hanging and wall decorating neatly executed in the highest style of the art. Orders left at Wm. McCowen's furniture store will receive prompt attention.
GEO. MATTESON

—I have a very complete stock of Hay Tools, Rakes, Tedders, Racks, Carriers, Forks, Rope, Pulleys, etc., and prices right.
C. A. SLAYTON.

—You will make no mistake in using Heck's Peacemaker Family Favorite flour. Every sack warranted in quality and weight. Also fine Graham and bolted meal made by a new process of milling. Ask your Grocer for these Brands.
HECK & SON.

For a full line of Agricultural tools, call at
C. L. ALBAUGH'S.

—90,000 Star A-1, shingle for sale at $3.25 per M.
O. P. BILLS.

—Call at C. L. Albaugh's and see the new Deering Binder and Mower, before you buy one.

—You will need to work your corn well this year and should have the best cultivator. You can find them at
C. A. SLAYTONS.

—Paper hanging in all its branches, neatly and cheaply done by
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—In all well regulated families painting and papering go hand in hand with house cleaning. I am prepared to execute all kinds of work in this line with neatness and despatch. Give me a call.
GEO. MATTESON.

—You want the best. Try our Ice Cream and Soft drinks of all kinds.
CITY BAKERY.

—When looking for a Hay Rack see the "Avery." It is complete as a Hay or stock Rack having a bridge to load stock or heavy articles. It makes a complete double wagon box with matched bottom and all changes are easily made.
SLAYTON & AVERY.

—Before you buy a cultivator, stop at C. L. Albaugh's and see the Kraus Pivot Axle Sulky Cultivator. It is the boss.

—Now is the season to laundry Lace Curtains.
NEW LAUNDRY.

—Tintypes taken at Teeple's Gallery.

—Call and see the New Styles in Oak Chamber Suits at Stebbins'.

—We make to order all kinds of Creams, Sherbets and Ices.
CITY BAKERY

—We have set aside Wednesday's and Saturday's as the days for grinding feed. Farmers please take notice.
WM. C. HECK & SON.

—Nobby things in children's caps at
HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—Life size Crayon Portraits given away with every dozen Cabinets.
AT TEEPLES' GALLERY.

—Try a package of fresh roasted peanuts or one of pop corn, popped in our new combined roaster and popper. The best in town.
CITY BAKERY.

—Housecleaning time is at hand and now is the season to give the interior of your house a dress of fresh paint. For the best work in that line call on
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The latest thing in spring and summer hats at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—For painting, glazing or paper hanging in the highest style of the art and at reasonable prices, call on
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—$3.00 gets a life size Crayon portrait and one dozen fine enamel finish cabinet photos, at Teeple's Gallery.

—Fresh ground bone for chickens at Dickinson's & Service's meat market. Ground bone is one of the best things that can be fed to laying hens.

—Our long experience in paper hanging enables us to satisfy the most fastidious customers. Give us a trial.
BLESSING BROTHERS.

—The best plow shoe for the least money can be found at HARRIS & HITESHUE'S.

—I want the farmers to remember I am still in the Mower and Binder trade and still have the agency for the "McCormick" line. The number of Machines sold is a good indication of how the farmers like them. In 1891 the McCormick Co. sold 121,780 machines. Come in and see the machines for yourself.
C. A. SLAYTON.

—Prof. C. S. Morrison, of Golconda, Ill., has been chosen Musical Director in the Fayette Normal University. He received his musical education at the Boston Conservatory, is an author of some note and vice-president of State Musical Association of Illinois. He is an experienced instructor, a brilliant pianist, and teaches both band and stringed instruments. He writes that he expects to make the Musical College of the F. N. U. one of the best in the State.

BARGAINS, BARGAINS, BARGAINS.

Mid-Summer Clearing Sale

Commencing Saturday, July 23, and continuing Two Weeks, at

HARRIS & HITESHU'S.

The people of Tecumseh and vicinity will receive a GRAND BENEFIT by calling at once.

Below we quote you a few of the Many Bargains:

150 pairs Ladies' Walking Shoes - - - - 20 per cent off

200 pairs Shoes to Close, worth 3.00 to 3.50, go at - - $2.50

White Dress Goods and Apron Goods, worth 20, 25, 30 and 35c, at 17c

All Summer Underwear at Manufacturers' Cost

Outing Flannels, worth 12 and 15c, go at - - - 8c

Light Prints at - - - - - - 4c

200 Ladies' Night Robes, worth $1.25, go at - - - 79c

All Ladies' & Gents' Furnishings at Great Bargains

Call at Once, No Trouble to Show Goods.

Respectfully,

Harris & Hiteshu.

Warm Weather Has Come

I Have Added to my Stock a Large Invoice of

Ladies' Hand-Sewed Shoes,

Mens' Working Shoes,

Ladies' Walking Shoes.

Men's and Boys' Fine Shoes,

Misses' and Children's Shoes:

In Endless Variety and Suited for Warm Weather Wear.

Summer Coats and Vests And Summer Outing Shirts. A Large and very Handsome Assortment. Come to headquarters to get your Warm-Weather Clothing.

Yours for Trade,

Alva Spayde.

Ask at Our Store for a New BISSELL BOOKLET New Ideas Put in a Bright, Brief Way

Fly Nets,
Lap Dusters,
Croquet,
Tennis,
Freezers,
Refrigerators.

Screen Doors and Windows,
Bicycles,
Guns,
Rifles,
and Ammunition.

Satterthwaite Bros.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS.

J. W. WHITMAN, Attorney at Law. Successor to F. B. Wood. Office over Anderson's dry goods store, Tecumseh, Mich.

WOOD, & BIRD, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Fred K. Wood. John E. Bird,
Office over post office, Adrian, Mich.

CLEMENT E. WEAVER. CHARLES M. WEAVER.

WEAVER & WEAVER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
Practice in all the Courts.
Masonic Temple. ADRIAN, Mich.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FARMERS, HORSEMEN—If you are located in Clinton, I am prepared to attend to call in my profession day or night. Calls by telegram delivered promptly. I use the best and most approved remedies in all acute diseases. C. W. GODFREY, V. S.

C. S. SLAIGHT, VETERINARY SURGEON. A graduate of Chicago Veterinary College. Residence, 1½ miles east of Pennington's Corners. All calls promptly attended to.

HOTELS.

HOTEL EMERY, J. H. EMERY, Proprietor, Adrian, Michigan.
This hotel has lately been refitted and refurnished throughout, and everything about the house is neat, new and tidy. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. Rates $2.00 per day.

BURNETT HOUSE—Toledo, Ohio. This house has lately been enlarged and refitted, with elevator and other modern improvements, and is a favorite resort for the traveling public. Rates reasonable and graded according to rooms occupied.

PICE'S TEMPERANCE HOTEL, [illegible] Corner of [illegible] Avenue and [illegible] street, Detroit, Mich.
JAS. RICE, Prop'r. L. C. SPRAGUE, Clerk.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.
Three lines of street cars pass the door.
RATES—Meals 25c. Per day, $1.00 and $1.50. Rooms, without board, 50c, 75c, and $1.

Tecumseh Lodge No. 141 I. O. O. F.

REGULAR meetings every Tuesday evening at their Lodge Room over H. I. Anderson's store, Chicago street. WM. GRAYNOR, Sec.
R. HOLDWAY, Cor. Secretary.

Presbyterian Church at Raisin.

REV. J. DeHAAN, Pastor.
SUNDAY SERVICES—Preaching in the forenoon at 10:30; Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Preaching in the evening at 7:30. Seats free and all will find a hearty welcome.
Wednesday night at 7 o'clock, Young People's Meeting. Come one, come all, and bring your friends with you.

FRANK SNEDECOR,

—FASHIONABLE BARBER—
Special attention given to ladies' and children's hair cutting, crimping and shampooing.
—THREE CHAIRS—
Landgraf building, Tecumseh, Michigan.

FOR GOOD WORK IN
HOUSE, CARRIAGE AND SIGN
PAINTING
AND PAPER HANGING
Call on THEO. P. WOOD, 78 E. Chicago street, Tecumseh, Mich. All work guaranteed first class or no pay. All kinds of repairs made neatly and promptly.

W. W. MARSH,

Proprietor of
Railroad Street Meat Market!
Fresh and Salt Meats constantly on hand.
GIVE ME A CALL.

F. J. TEMPLE,

DEALER IN
Drugs, : Paints : Oils
AND VARNISHES.
N. B.—Prescriptions carefully compounded.
At the Old Corner Store, BROADWAY.

LENAWEE CARRIAGE FACTORY

J. R. HIALEY
MANUFACTURER OF
AND Dealer in
Carriages, Buggies,
SURRIES, SPRING WAGONS.
ROAD CARTS
SULKIES, CUTTERS, ETC
Pearl Street.
TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

DR. B. F. SNYDER,

SURGEON DENTIST.

Tecumseh, Mich.
LATEST improvements in Artificial Teeth. Crowns, Filling and Building Up Teeth a Specialty. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of vitalized Air, Gas, Chloroform or Ether. All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

B. F. STEINHOFF'S
Dental Rooms.

OVER BAKER & HALL'S.
GAS FOR EXTRACTING.
LOWEST PRICES for THE BEST WORK

New Dental Parlors.

Having located in Tecumseh, over Avery & Co's Grocery, I shall be pleased to have all who will, call and see me.
EXAMINATION FREE!
Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty. Gold, Silver, Aluminum and Rubber Plates to Suit the Patient.
Gas or Vitalized Air administered for painless extracting.
Remember, office over Avery & Co's.
W. D. RE. D. D. D. S.
Will be at Onsted every Wednesday.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced; pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c. and $1 bottles by all [illegible]. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

HERE is a GOOD THING for YOU

A MAN, OR WOMAN,

[illegible] and quick-witted enough to know a "GOOD THING" at sight, but who has Lost Vital Energy, Possession of [illegible] GOOD HEALTH, WILL NOT receive a SECOND TELLING [illegible] to [illegible]

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC
BELTS & APPLIANCES.

Do you know why [illegible] it is going to be sold? The TRUTH ONCE TOLD [illegible] enough. The [illegible] Prompt[illegible] with which [illegible] people respond to our announcements and the rapidly increasing demand for Dr. Gregg's Goods [illegible] conclusively prove that true merit [illegible] always recognized and the quality of [illegible] takes care of itself. [illegible] our statement to the Buffalo—the Public Press it, and

DR. GREGG'S ELECTRIC SPECIALTIES
"Do the Rest."

The [illegible] to Press room the button and the [illegible] of Dr. Gregg's Goods in "Doing the Rest" [illegible] absolutely shown in the marvelous [illegible] with which business is [illegible] these past months.

[illegible] and [illegible] demands for The Gregg Electric "Foot Warmer" are coming [illegible] parts of the country with profits to [illegible] [illegible] that we must [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Gillett's

MAGIC YEAST

Quickest

Best

The ONLY YEAST making Bread which Prevents and Cures Dyspepsia

STRENGTH AND VIGOR FOR YOUTH AND AGE

DR. J. H. McLEAN'S STRENGTHENING CORDIAL AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

An antidote for Loss of Appetite, Loss of Spirits and Weakness; pleasant to the taste and a favorite tonic with the ladies. Price $1 per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

PREPARED BY

The Dr. J. H. McLean Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo

THE "CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN"

Has attained a standard of excellence which admits of no superior.

It contains every improvement that inventive genius, skill and money can produce.

ORGANS OF INTRINSIC VALUE AND WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

These excellent Organs are celebrated for their volume, quality of tone, quick response, variety of combination, artistic design, beauty in finish, perfect construction, making them the most attractive, ornamental and desirable organs in the world for Homes, Schools, Churches, Lodges and Societies.

Catalogues on application, FREE.

Chicago Cottage Organ Co.

223 WABASH AVE.,

CHICAGO, ILL.

A GOOD SEAMSTRESS ... IS A ... HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY AND A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY IS ONE OF OUR NEW

SEAMSTRESS SEWING MACHINES.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS ADDRESS

National Sewing Machine Co.

SUCCESSORS TO JUNE MANUFACTURING CO.

BELVIDERE, ILL.

Manufacturers of Fine Family Sewing Machines.

THOS. S. SPRAGUE & SON, Attorneys and Solicitors of Patents, United States and foreign. Correspondence solicited. Invention Pamphlet free. 37 WEST CONGRESS ST., DETROIT, Mich. Established 1856. PATENTS

FIRST TO GREET COLUMBUS.

When the feast is spread in our country's name,
When the nations are gathered from far and near,
When east and west send up the same
Glad shout, and call to the lands: "Good cheer!"
When north and south shall give their bloom,
The fairest and best of the century born,
Oh, then for the king of the feast make room!
Make room, we pray, for the scarlet thorn!

Not the goldenrod from the hillsides blest,
Not the pale arbutus from pastures rare,
Nor the waving wheat from the mighty west,
Nor the proud magnolia tall and fair
Shall Columbia unto the banquet bring.
They, willing of heart, shall stand and wait;
For the thorn, with his scarlet crown, is king.
Make room for him at the splendid fete!

Do we not remember the olden tale?
And that terrible day of dark despair,
When Columbus, under the lowering sail,
Sent out to the hidden lands his prayer?
And was it not he of the scarlet bough
Who first went forth from shore to greet
That lone grand soul, at the vessel's prow,
Defying fate with his tiny fleet?

Grim treachery threatened, above, below,
And death stood close at the captain's side,
When he saw—oh, joy!—in the sunset glow,
The thorn-tree's branch o'er the waters glide.
"Land! Land ahead!" was the joyful shout;
The vesper hymn o'er the ocean swept;
The mutinous sailors faced about;
Together they fell on their knees and wept.

At dawn they landed with pennons white;
They kissed the sod of San Salvador;
But dearer than gems on his doublet bright
Were the scarlet berries their leader bore;
Thorny and sharp, like his future crown,
Blood-red, like the wounds in his great heart made,
Yet an emblem true of his proud renown
Whose glorious colors shall never fade.

—Emma Huntington Nason, in St. Nicholas.

THE CASTAWAYS.

Eight Shipwrecked Mariners and Their Unvarnished Tale.

On a December morning, in the year 1883, a mail steamer, homeward bound from a New Zealand port, was approaching the meridian of the Horn, but on a parallel more southerly than it is now the custom of steamships to take in rounding that stormy, ice-girt, desolate and most inhospitable of all headlands.

December in those distant regions is mid-summer, and the weather of that morning was as fair and still as a breezeless April day in this country, but the swell of th vast tract of ocean ran ceaselessly—reminiscent respirations of a giantess whose conflict with the heavens is eternal, and whose breathing pauses are very few and far between, indeed. Over this long, dark blue, westerly swell the great metal fabric went sweeping in long, floating, launching courtesies, whitening the water astern of her with a mile of wake.

The chief officer was on the bridge; the first breakfast bell had rung and the captain, smart as a naval officer in buttons and lace trimmings, quitted the chart room and joined the mate to take a look around before going below. This skipper was a man of eagle sight, and instantly on directing his eyes over the ship's bow he exclaimed:

"What is that black object yonder?"

The chief mate peered and the captain leveled a telescope.

"A ship's boat," said he, "and seemingly full of people."

The boat, when sighted, was some three or four miles distant, and the speed of the steamship was about thirteen knots. In a few minutes the alarm in the engine room rang its reverberatory warning, sending a little thrill of wonder throughout the ship so rarely is that telegraph handled on the high seas.

"I count eight men, sir," cried the chief mate, with a binocular glass at his eye.

Again the engine-room alarm rang out; the pulsing that for days had been ceaselessly throbbing through the long fabric languished, and in a few minutes to another summons of the metal tongue below ceased, and the great steamship floated along to her own impetus slowly till the boat was within the toss of a biscuit off the bow, with the passengers crowding to the side, and sailors and waiters and steerage folk blackening the rail forward.

The occupants of the boat consisted of eight wild, hairy, veritable scarecrows of men, dressed in divers fashions—Scotch caps, yellow sou'westers, sea boots, toil-worn monkey jackets, and the like.

"Boat ahoy!" hailed the captain, as she slowly washed alongside. "What is wrong with you?"

A fellow standing up in the stern sheets cried back in a strong Yankee accent:

"For God's sake, sir, take us aboard! Our water's almost given out, and there's nothing left to eat."

"Look out for the end of a line," bawled the captain. "Are you strong enough to get aboard without help?"

"Aye, sir, we'll manage it."

A rope was thrown, and one after another the fellows came swinging and scraping and scrambling up the clean side of the steamship. The passengers crowded around and gazed at them with curiosity and pity. Their sympathetic eyes seemed to find famine painfully expressed in the leathern countenances that stared back through mats of hair.

"We must let your boat go," said the captain.

"Can't help it, sir; thankful enough to be here, I reckon," answered the fellow who had called from the stern sheets and who acted as spokesman.

"Anything belonging to you to come out?"

"Nothing, by the eternal. Let her go, sir. If sailors' sea blessings can freight a craft she ain't going to float long."

The boat was sent adrift, the engine bell rang out, once more the great mail steamer was thrashing over the long, tall heave of Cape Horn swell.

"How came you into this mess?" inquired the captain.

The man who had spoken before made answer:

"We're all that's left of the crew of the Boston bark George Washington. She was a whaler, one hundred and eighty-four days out. It were four days ago. I was the first to smell fire, some while arter two o'clock, in the middle watch."

"It wanted ten minutes to six bells," exclaimed a man, and a general, emphatic, hairy nod followed the interruption.

"I was the first to smell fire," continued the other, "call it what hour ye like. I gave the alarm and all hands turned to with hoses and buckets. But there was a deal of oil in the hold, and the ship's planks was thick with grease besides, and that gave us no chance. By ten o'clock in the morning the flames had bursted through and was shooting up mast high, and then we calculated it was time to look to the boats."

The others stood listening with hard, solid, leathery faces, generally gazing with steadfast eyes at the speaker, but sometimes glancing askant at the captain and the crowd of others which stood around.

"There was a tarnation ugly sea running," the man went on, "and, the wheel being deserted, the ship had fallen off and lay in the trough, and the lowering of the stern boats, whalemen though they was who had the handling of 'em, cost our company of twenty-eight souls the loss of all hands, saving them as stand afore ye."

"A bad job! A measly, cruel, bad job!" here broke in a long-jawed man, whose brow and eyes were almost concealed by a quantity of coarse red hair.

"Well, us eight men got away in the boat," proceeded the spokesman, "bringing along with us nothin' but a small bag of bread and about six gallons of fresh water. We've been washing about since Tuesday, and now, the Lord be praised, here we be, with a chance of getting something to eat, and, what's more pleasureable still to our feelings, the opportunity of comfortably turning in."

A murmur of pity ran among the passengers, several of whom were ladies, and there was more than one somewhat loud whisper to the effect that the captain ought really to send the poor creatures forward at once to get some breakfast instead of holding them starving and dry with thirst to talk. The eagle-eyed skipper, however, asked several questions before dismissing them.

"Since, then, by their own confession, the fire gave them plenty time to escape from the bark, how was it they had left her so ill-provisioned as they represented?"

This was most satisfactorily accounted for. Other inquiries of a like nature were responded to with alacrity and intelligence. Every sentence that one or another of them let fall was corroborated by the rest. Their tale of suffering, indeed, in the open boat was almost harrowing, and the captain, with the first note of sympathy that his voice had taken, ordered them to go forward, adding that after a good hot meal had been served them they might turn in and sleep for the rest of the day wherever they could make a bed.

At the breakfast in the saloon nothing was talked about but the American whaler that had been consumed by fire, the dreadful drowning of some two-thirds of her crew and the miraculous deliverance of the survivors from the inexpressible perils and horrors of an open boat in the solitude of the stormiest part of ocean the wide world over. A benevolent gentleman proposed a subscription. Before the luncheon bell was rung a sum of thirty pounds sterling had been collected. The incident was a break in the monotony, and when the eight men reappeared on deck during the afternoon they were promptly approached by the passengers, who obliged them to recite again and yet again their melancholy story of maritime disaster.

On the morning of the third day following the date of this rescue a ship was sighted almost directly in a line with the vessel's course. As she was neared she was seen to be rigged with stump or Cape Horn topgallant masts; she was also under very easy canvas, which gave her a very short-handed look in that quiet sea. Great wooden davits overhung her sides, from which dangled a number of boats. She presented a very grimy, worn aspect, and had manifestly kept the sea for months. It was observed by the chief officer, standing on the bridge of the steamer, that the eight rescued men, who were looking at the sail ahead, along with some of the crew and steerage passengers, disclosed several symptoms of uneasiness and even of agitation. Suddenly the stripes and stars, with the stars inverted, were run aloft to the peak end—a signal of distress. The engines were slowed and the steamer's head put so as to pass the vessel within easy hailing distance. A man aboard the bark stood in the mizzen rigging.

"Steamer ahoy!" he roared.

"Hello!"

"I have lost a boat and eight of my men. Have you seen anything of her?"

The captain, who had gained the bridge, lifted his hand.

"Bark ahoy!" he cried. "What bark is that?"

"The George Washington, whaler, of Boston, one hundred and eighty-four days out."

The captain of the steamship concealed a sour grin.

"How came you to lose your boat and the men?"

"They stole her one middle watch and sneaked away from the ship."

The captain of the steamship laughed.

"We have your men safe here," he shouted; "glad to learn that you are not burned down to the water's edge, and that the rest of your crew look brisk, considering that they are drowned men. Send a boat and you shall have your sailors."—W. Clark Russell, in Wit and Wisdom.

—Mrs. Foster—"My dear, will your business permit you to go away with me this summer?" Mr. Foster—"Eh—no. The truth is, I'm afraid my business will compel you to stay at home with me instead."—N. Y. Herald.

—"Mawson has got a position as bookkeeper now." "Well, he's efficient in that line. He's had my copy of 'The Caxtons' for four years now."—N. Y. Truth.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Must Pay Their Own Bills.

Owing to the fact that there is no appropriation from which the transportation expenses of the Michigan state troops to Chicago can be taken in order that they may participate in the world's fair dedication ceremonies, Adjutant General Farrar has notified the various commanding officers that such companies as may decide to go without expense to the state will form Gov. Winans' escort. The exposition managers are pledged to provide subsistence and quarters without expense to the troops for the four days' stay in Chicago.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by seventy-four observers in different parts of the state for the week ended July 16 indicated that cholera infantum, inflammation of the brain, diphtheria, measles, typhoid fever, puerperal fever and whooping cough increased, and scarlet fever, croup and rheumatism decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at twenty-five places, scarlet fever at thirty-four, typhoid fever at seventeen and measles at thirteen places.

Earnings of Michigan Roads.

The earnings statement of the Michigan railroads for the month of April, 1892, has been issued by Commissioner Whitman. The total earnings for the month were $8,077,273, an increase of $874,774 over the corresponding month of 1891. The earnings from January 1 to May 1, 1892, were $32,193,031, as compared with $27,805,828 for the same period last year. The per cent. of increase was 15.8.

Short In His Accounts.

A sensation was caused at a meeting of the Detroit city council when the comptroller's report was read, showing ex-City Treasurer Tuite to be short in his accounts. The defalcation was placed at $21,865. His term of office expired the last day of June. The report of his shortage caused much surprise among his friends, as he was very popular and highly esteemed.

Will Be Placed on the Market.

The agricultural land grant board has decided upon September 15 as the date of restoring to market the 115,000 acres of valuable agricultural college land which was withdrawn in March 1891. Lists of these lands are being prepared by counties and can soon be obtained by applying to the commissioner of the state land office.

Held Up a Mail Carrier.

Frank Farceir, a mail carrier between Chassel and Jacobsville, was held up by two footpads while on his way to the latter place. Farceir was shot through the hand, but pulled his own revolver and the would-be robbers fled. Farceir is a half-breed who has been in the service for several years.

Short But Newsy Items.

Kalamazoo saloons will not be permitted to open until 7 a. m.

William Roberts and Thomas McInerny, Chicago boys, were killed by the cars at Jackson.

Mrs. G. Albers, aged 58, died in Holland. She was the widow of a veteran who marched with Napoleon to Moscow.

The Spring Lake Basket Company's building was partially destroyed by fire. Loss, $500; insured.

While boating Thursday on Portage lake Martin Casey, a molder at Hancock, fell overboard. Frank Thompson, a fellow laborer, went to his assistance and both were drowned.

William Caughell, a marine engineer at Muskegon, will leave August 1 in a thirteen-foot towboat for Chicago. The distance is 108 miles. Caughell will row the entire distance.

B. H. Jonkers, a prominent farmer living near Holland, hanged himself. He leaves a widow and six children in poor circumstances.

Gov. Winans' Russian relief committee has reported, showing that in addition to a large amount of provisions it received $3,000 in cash, and has disbursed all but $92 of it.

John Moden, a married man with a family, was drowned near his home in Grand Rapids by being taken with the cramps while bathing.

Marshall's post office does a business of $10,000 per year, and a petition for letter carriers will be sent to the department in Washington.

W. W. Saunders, of Newaygo, died from injuries received June 29 during a quarrel with Fred C. Taylor. His spine was injured. Taylor was in jail.

The Jackson commercial travelers and business men have banded themselves together in a social organization to be known as the Jackson club and will build a club house.

Charles A. Mills, 37 years old, son of Hon. C. B. Mills, fell into a well at his farm in Mayville and was drowned. He leaves a widow and five children.

At Moreland, a young wife and mother, Mrs. Albertus Reed, shot herself in the breast because the neighbors talked about her. The wound may prove fatal.

Joseph M. Hemsteger, aged 37, a reporter and solicitor for the Daily Press at Ishpeming, committed suicide by taking a dose of arsenic. His parents live at Piqua, O.

The Jackson police made up a purse of $20 for a poor widow who had been robbed of her pocketbook and had not money to buy bread for her four little children.

Mrs. George Albers, a pioneer of Holland, aged 83 years, died recently. She was the widow of one of Napoleon's old guard and was well known in the town.

The three-masted schooner Cheney Ames, of Chicago, Capt. P. Myers, struck the south pier in entering the harbor at Muskegon, tore a hole in her side and sank. She was valued at $9,500.

The joint boards of the three Michigan insane asylums, in session at Kalamazoo decided to continue the present cottage system. The rate of maintenance was fixed at forty-eight cents

FROM HON. M. J. SMITH, GRADUATE OF MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY.

CARLETON, Mich., Aug. 25, 1890.

To whom it may concern: "After an acquaintance with Dr. O. J. Fay extending over a period of eighteen years, I can cheerfully testify to his sincerity of purpose, integrity and high social and professional standing in this, the county of his residence. Having used the New Treatment for Consumption in my family for coughs and colds, I find that it possesses more real merit than any other medicines we have used for these complaints, and heartily recommend its use as a family medicine.

J. SMITH, Attorney at Law.

Regular sizes for sale and sample bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store.

Waiter (seeing dissatisfaction on guest's face): Wasn't the fowl cooked to suit you, sir? Guest: Yes, all but the bill; just take that back and tell them to boil it down a little.

MARRIED.

Miss Hannah Roe and Samuel Doe were married in a neighboring village last week. Among the wedding presents was a bottle of Parmelees Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure from a thoughtful friend who had given it a thorough trial and knew its great worth for the cure of dyspeptic attacks, and who knew how necessary it was for domestic happiness that such complaints should be prevented. You can buy a bottle of this valuable and effective remedy of your druggist.

PARMELEES' CONDITION POWDERS will do your stock good. Full [illegible] 25 cents. Sold by dealers.

IS YOUR APPETITE GOOD?

Or are you weak and debilitated? Try Parmelee's Mandrake and Dandelion Bitters. Only 25 cents a boottle.

THE SUN IN JULY

is very trying to the complexion of many ladies. Freckles, pimples, tan and sunburn are removed and the complexion freshened by the use of Hamilton's Oriental Balm. Absolutely harmless to the skin. 50 cents.

AT THIS SEASON OF THE YEAR

Look out for Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, and all forms of bowel difficulty. You should have a sure remedy in the house ready for instant use. Parmelee's Essence of Jamaica Ginger will give immediate relief. Perfectly safe for children. Contains no laudanum or paregoric. Sold by dealers.

THE EXTREME HEAT OF SUMMER

Frequently brings to the surface evidence of impure blood unsuspected before. Parmelee's Sarsaparilla is the Great Blood Purifier and builds up weakened constitutions. It is only 50 cents for a large bottle and is well worth your trial.

IF YOU SUFFER FROM PILES

It is your own fault. Parmelee's Pile Suppositories will positively cure if used according to directions. Your druggist is authorized to guarantee them. Physicians use them largely in their practice. Hundreds of testimonials. Only 50 cents a box. Sold by dealers or by mail postpaid. Parmelee Medical Co., Dansville, N. Y.

George: You didn't say anything to your father about being a sister to me, did you? Ethel: No. Why? George: By the way he got onto my neck I didn't know but he took me for a prodigal son.

A miss can kill often make a cripple for life. A bottle of Henry & Johnson's Arnica and Oil Liniment at hand will not prevent the misstep, but used immediately it will save being a cripple.

AT BEDTIME I TAKE A PLEASANT HERB DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package. Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

ACHE

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE

HUSBAND'S MISTAKE.

Husbands too often permit wives and parents their children, to suffer from headache, dizziness, neuralgia, sleeplessness, fits, nervousness, when by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine such serious results could easily be prevented. Druggists everywhere say it gives universal satisfaction, and has an immense sale. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Snow & Co., of Syracuse, N. Y.; J. C. Wolf, Hillsdale, Mich.; and hundreds of others say "it is the greatest seller they ever knew." It contains no opiates. Trial bottle and fine book on Nervous Diseases, free at Baker & Hall's.

Advice to a young Parisian by an old hand: "When you marry choose a young lady who is pretty enough to be taken without a dowry and rich enough to be taken without looking at her features."

Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

L. S. & M. S. RAILROAD.

Jackson Branch. In Effect May 15. 1892.

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.

STATIONS.	No. 115. Mail.	No. 117. Express.	No. 149 Accom.
Jackson.....Lv	6 10 A.M.	2 05 P.M.	12 40 P.M
Napoleon.....	6 30 "	2 26 "	1 15 "
Norvell.....	6 37 "	2 34 "	1 27 "
Manchester.....	6 50 "	2 50 "	1 55 "
Clinton.....	7 05 "	3 05 "	2 30 "
Tecumseh.....	7 15 "	3 15 "	3 15 "
Adrian.....Ar	8 05 "	3 52 "	4 90 "
Detroit.....	10 10 "	6 30 "	.....
Toledo.....	9 15 "	4 40 "	10 25 "

Train No. 115 arrives in Chicago at 3:00 p. m

TRAINS GOING NORTH.

STATIONS.	No. 116. Mail.	No. 118. Express.	No. 148. Accom
Detroit.....Lv	7 25 A.M.	6 00 P.M.	.....
Toledo.....	9 58 "	7 50 "	.....
Adrian.....	10 32 "	8 52 "	4 45 A.M
Tecumseh.....	11 11 "	9 24 "	6 05 "
Clinton.....	11 23 "	9 33 "	7 05 "
Manchester.....	11 40 "	9 48 "	7 35 "
Norvell.....	11 56 "	10 05 "	8 15 "
Napoleon.....	12 04 P.M.	10 11 "	9 00 "
Jackson.....Ar	12 28 "	10 39 "	10 00 "

Trains run on New Standard of 90th Meridian Time

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Coupon tickets can now be procured at this station over best routes to all principal cities in the United States.

The Lake Shore via Cleveland, in connection with the Erie and P. & L. E. R. Rs, form the quickest and most direct route to Pittsburgh.

N. S. SATTERTHWAITE, TICKET AGENT.

A. J. SMITH, G. P. A., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cincinnati Jackson & Mackinaw Ry

MICHIGAN DIVISION.

Passenger Time Table.

IN EFFECT MAY. 30, 1892.

EAST. No. 22 Pass	No. 23 Pass	No. 21 Pass	Central Time. STATIONS.	WEST. No. 22 Pass	No. 24 Pass
	A. M.				P. M.
	10 50		L. Allegan....A	1 00
	12 15		Monteith.....	12 25
	11 55		Yorkville.....	11 55	A. M.
	8 45	12 22	Battle Creek.....	11 28	1 25
	8 27	12 54	Marshall.....	10 59	12 38
	8 03	1 22	Homer.....	10 32	11 48
A. M.	7 45	1 43	Hanover.....	10 02	11 03
4 50	8 40	"	Addison.....	9 30	10 18
5 02	8 54	"	Devils Lake..Ar	9 21	9 54
	8 27	"	Tipton.....	8 58	9 14
5 28	8 20	"	Tecumseh.....	8 41	8 53
	8 20	"	Ridgeway.....	8 35	8 40
5 52	7 57	"	Britton.....	7 20	6 30
6 22	7 35	"	Dundee.....	8 10	8 00
7 00	7 10	"	Ar. Toledo. L	8 31	8 31
P. M.				A. M.	P. M.

Train No. 21 Sunday only. Train No. 22 Daily. Trains Nos. 22, 23 and 24 except Sunday. Close connections are made at Allegan with the C. & W. M. R. R., at Battle Creek, C. & G. T. R. R., at Marshall, M. C. R. R., at Britton with the Wabash for Detroit, and at Toledo with all roads diverging.

T. C. M. SCHINDLE, RGen'l Pass. Agt.
T. B. DRAKE, Gen'l Manager.

THE WABASH RAILROAD CO

TIME TABLE

TRAINS CARRYING PASSENGERS LEAVE

ADRIAN, as Follows:

WEST BOUND.

†No. 51	—Local Mail and Express.....10:25 a m
*No. 53	—Chicago & St. Louis Limited Ex. 3:30 p m
*No. 27	—Butler Accommodation..... 6:00 p m
*No. 55	—Pacific Express.....11:40 p m
EAST BOUND.
*No. 56	—Atlantic Express..... 5:50 a m
*No. 26	—Detroit Accommodation..... 4:45 p m
*No. 52	—St. Louis & Boston Express..... 7:45 a m
*No. 54	—N. Y. Limited..... 9:46 p m

*Daily, †Daily except Sunday.

For rates, tickets, time tables, and all desired information, apply to

CHAS. A. HAYS, Gen. Manager.
WM. F. BRADLEY, Agent, Adrian
F. CHANDLER, Gen'l Pass. and Tkt Agent.

TOLEDO, ANN ARBOR AND NORTH MICHIGAN RAILWAY.

TIME SCHEDULE.

Taking effect October 25th, 1890.

Trains run by Standard Time.

Going North.

Cadillac Express	Cadillac Mail	STATIONS.	Cadillac Mail	Cadillac Express
8 25 A. M.			P. M.	P. M.
	06	Lv.....Toledo.....Ar	11 15	1 10
	47	Dundee.....	10 18	12 20
	08	Milan.....	9 48	12 04
	26	Ypsilanti.....	9 45	11 48
	47	Pittsfield.....	9 34	11 42
5 07	6 50	Ann Arbor.....	9 22	11 30
5 30	7 55	Leland.....	9 07	11 18
5 47	7 06	Whitmore Lake.....	8 55	10 52
6 28	8	Howell.....	8 17	10 [illegible]
7 15	8 4	Durand.....	7 10	9 [illegible]
		.....	55	7 4.
8 00	10 20	Owosso.....	6 35	9 05
9 07	11 30	Ithaca.....	5 32	7 50
10 15	1 25	Mt. Pleasant.....	4 35	6 45
	3 35	Cadillac.....	10 30
	5 20	Copemish.....	9
	6 35	Ar.....Traverse.....Lv	7
	P. M.		A. M.	P. M.

Going South.

H. W. ASHLEY, General Manager.
A. J. PAISLEY, General Pass. and Ticket Agent.

Clinton Column.

CLINTON, MICH., JULY 25, 1892.

May Fuller is very sick.

Miss Belle Corey is quite sick.

Mrs. Elwin Glimpse is still very sick.

Ed VanDeMark went to Adrian Tuesday.

George Kies is home for a short vacation.

E. A. Clark went to Chicago Tuesday night.

Elbert Bradner of Angola, is visiting at J. W. Bradner's.

Miss Anna McMaster returned to Flint last Monday.

Mamie Bradner was home from Manchester over Sunday.

Misses Dora and Mardo Ingalls, of Caro, are visiting friends here.

Henry Eddy and family, of Vinton, Iowa, are visiting at Crowell Eddy's.

Mrs. Lathrop, who is living with her niece, Mrs. Will Kaiser, is very sick.

E. R. Smith left for New York last Monday, to be absent about a week.

The regular meeting of the Eastern Star Chapter will be held August 3d.

Addie Silvers of Chicago, came Tuesday, she is the guest of Carrie Fisher.

Rev. H. R. Williams and Neil arrived home Wednesday noon from Connecticut.

Mrs. Lina Mills Murrah is here from Texas, making her father a few weeks' visit.

Carl Corey is expected from Paw Paw the last of the week for a two weeks visit.

Carl Burton left here the first of the week for a trip to the seashore for his health.

Mrs. J. S. Kies and Mrs. L. F. Field and children are at their Sand Lake cottage.

Fred Davis and wife started last Monday for a few weeks' visit with friends in the east.

Mrs. Hunter returned from Jackson Tuesday where she had been spending a few days.

W. W. Demuth who has been sick so long is just alive. His death is looked for at any time.

The M. E. church was thoroughly cleaned by several ladies of the society last Wednesday.

The regular meeting of Clinton Lodge No. 175, F. and A. M. will be held Saturday evening, Aug. 6th.

Miss Ida Napier who has been at the Edrose House since it was opened will return to Detroit Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Ward Stone and their son and his family, from Muskegon, have been spending a week or two at Evans Lake.

Mrs. Frank Ice and daughter, of Summit, Ind., arrived last Saturday for a visit of two or three weeks with their many friends here.

Rev. A. W. Stalker and little son went to AnnArbor Monday Mr. and Mrs. Stalker expect to go on in a few days, to Lakeview Ohio, for to remain about two weeks.

Frank Lohnson, Allen Bartlett, Chas. Nase, A. J. Kishpaugh and A. F. Kishpaugh and wives and Miss Nellie Kishpaugh spent Saturday and Sunday at Wampler's Lake.

The woolen mill company run out of oil Monday afternoon and was obliged to shut down. A new supply came Monday night, however, and work was resumed Tuesday at 9 a. m.

Chas Nase is building a toboggan slide for Jas. Moore at Wampler's Lake. The tower is 32 feet in height and the slide 142 feet in length. Mr. Moore has offered a prize of $1.00 to the first man of 250 pounds who will make the descent.

The K. O. T. M., went in a body to the meeting of the L. O. T. M. Tuesday evening, taking several gallons of ice cream with them. The Ladies were very much surprised but soon recovered their composure, welcomed the knights heartily, and a pleasant social was enjoyed. The ladies expressed their appreciation of the compliment paid them.

Andrew McDermott's team stood at the woolen mill Tuesday forenoon when the mill whistle blew, frightening the team so that they ran. They went straight up Church street to Tecumseh street and south until they reached the Congregational church, when they turned and went home. The event was so unexpected in view of the previous good character of the horses for docility that quite a sensation was created.

A Pure Baking Powder.

A baking powder that can be depended upon to be free from lime and alum is a disideratum in these days of adulterated food. So far as can be judged from the official reports, the "Royal" seems to be the only one yet found by chemical analyses to be entirely without one or the other of these substances, absolutely pure. This, it is shown results from the exclusive use by its manufacturers of cream of tartar specially refined and prepared by patent processes which totally remove the tartrate of lime and other impurities. The cost of this chemically pure cream of tartar is much greater than any other, and it is used in no baking powder except the "Royal," the manufacturers of which control the patents under which it is refined.

Dr. Edward G. Love, formerly analytical chemist for the U. S. Government who made the analyses for the New York State Board of Health in their investigation of baking powders, and whose intimate knowledge of the ingredients of all those sold in this market enables him to speak authoritatively, says of the purity, wholesomeness, and superior quality of the "Royal:"

"I find the Royal Baking Powder composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, other injurious substances."

Corydon (at the picnic). Let me get you a glass of lemonade, dearest. Phyllis (blushing): Lemons do not agree with me. Corydon, brightly: Oh, there is not enough of lemon in this to do you any harm.

FRICK SHOT DOWN.

Andrew Berkman Tries to Kill Mr. Carnegie's Manager.

He Attacks His Victim in His Private Office, Inflicting Many Wounds—None of Them Will Prove Fatal—Under Arrest.

DEED OF AN ASSASSIN.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 23.—A desperate attempt was made Saturday afternoon to kill Henry C. Frick, the chairman of the Carnegie Steel company, limited, and the sole manager of the great Carnegie steel mills in Homestead and elsewhere. He was shot twice in the neck. The murderous hand was thrown up when the third shot was fired, and the bullet imbedded itself in the wall over Mr. Frick's head. Berkman, the would-be assassin, then attacked him with a knife and stabbed him four times before he was overpowered. He was just on the point of being shot down for his deed when Mr. Frick, who retained consciousness notwithstanding his fearful wounds, interceded for him and saved his life. Later the man tried to destroy himself by chewing a fulminate of mercury cap, such as Anarchist Lingg used to kill himself in the prison in Chicago while he was awaiting the execution of the death sentence. He was seized before he had succeeded in biting into the cap and his plan of suicide was fruitless.

In five minutes after the shooting a half dozen surgeons, including Drs. Litchfield, McClelland, Murphy and Joseph and John Dickson, were at hand. Mr. Frick was told to lie down on a lounge, and, after his clothing had been removed, the wounds were washed and the bleeding stopped.

During all this time the wounded man was calm, had a perfect command of his faculties, and apparently was less excited than any other person in the room. From time to time he made suggestions as to how badly he was hurt, and a half hour after the shooting dictated a message to Andrew Carnegie about the assault in which he told him that he thought he would be all right.

Mr. Frick rested easily all through Sunday. His temperature is 98, and he seems to be quite cheerful and confident of his recovery. Another cut was discovered which was missed in the examination made Saturday. It is in his left leg just below the calf, and almost severed the tendons. Mr. Frick complained of pain in the leg, but his attendants imagined that it was of the other wounds he spoke. It was carefully dressed and relief followed. Dr. Litchfield, who is in constant attendance at the house, says that Mr. Frick is doing nicely, and unless something now unlooked for occurs the patient will be up and about in a few days.

The news of the attempted assassination spread like wildfire, and in five minutes after the shooting Fifth avenue from Market to Wood street was black with people. When the fellow was brought out of the building by the police officers to be taken to the Central station cries greeted the officers of "Shoot him!" and "Let him have what he gave Frick!" A better element helped keep the assassin from mob violence. A large crowd followed the patrol wagon containing the prisoner to the Central police station, and when the lockup was reached the police were compelled to shut the gates to keep out the people. The prisoner was pale and so much exhausted from his excitement that he could not answer the usual questions for several minutes. He was taken back into the cell department and Inspector McKelvey put him into a cell.

When the prisoner recovered sufficiently to speak Inspector McKelvey questioned the prisoner. He said his name was Andrew Berkman, and his age 26 years. He lived in New York and was a compositor, but he would not state where he was employed. He came to Pittsburgh Thursday for the express purpose of killing Mr. Frick, whom he considered an enemy of the people.

It is the general belief that Berkman is a rabid anarchist. Police officials are inclined to the belief, however, that Berkman is neither a crank nor crazy man, but that he had come here with the knowledge and perhaps the instigation of men who are interested in the success of the strike. It was stated on excellent authority that Superintendent of Police E. O'Mara had communicated with Inspector Byrnes, of New York, and asked him to investigate the doings of Hugh O'Donnell in the metropolis and ascertain whether while there he had had any interviews with anarchists. Superintendent O'Mara, when asked whether this was true, refused either to confirm or deny it.

A CLOSE CALL.

William K. Vanderbilt's Yacht Run Down by a Steamer.

BOSTON, July 25.—The steamer H. F. Dimock, of the Metropolitan Steamship Company, arrived here from New York last evening, having on board the occupants of W. K. Vanderbilt's yacht Alva, which the steamer ran down yesterday morning in a fog in Vineyard sound, and the occupants of which narrowly escaped drowning. The Alva was one of the finest private pleasure steamers afloat and cost her owners nearly $500,000. The sunken vessel rests on a sandy bottom and divers will be dispatched at once to see what can be done toward raising her.

Escaped from Prison to Drown.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Two prisoners, one a white man and the other a negro, escaped from Blackwell's island Thursday. They jumped into the East river, intending to swim to the Long Island City side. The negro was drowned, but the white man reached the shore in safety.

Chicago's Population.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Chicago has a population of 1,428,318. These are the figures sent to the board of education by Superintendent Frankland. Subject to a slight revision he says they will be found absolutely correct.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Must Pay Their Own Bills.

Owing to the fact that there is no appropriation from which the transportation expenses of the Michigan state troops to Chicago can be taken in order that they may participate in the world's fair dedication ceremonies, Adjutant General Farrar has notified the various commanding officers that such companies as may decide to go without expense to the state will form Gov. Winans' escort. The exposition managers are pledged to provide subsistence and quarters without expense to the troops for the four days' stay in Chicago.

Health in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health by seventy-four observers in different parts of the state for the week ended July 16 indicated that cholera infantum, inflammation of the brain, diphtheria, measles, typhoid fever, puerperal fever and whooping cough increased, and scarlet fever, croup and rheumatism decreased in area of prevalence. Diphtheria was reported at twenty-five places, scarlet fever at thirty-four, typhoid fever at seventeen and measles at thirteen places.

Earnings of Michigan Roads.

The earnings statement of the Michigan railroads for the month of April, 1892, has been issued by Commissioner Whitman. The total earnings for the month were $8,077,273, an increase of $874,774 over the corresponding month of 1891. The earnings from January 1 to May 1, 1892, were $32,193,031, as compared with $27,805,828 for the same period last year. The per cent. of increase was 15.8.

Short in His Accounts.

A sensation was caused at a meeting of the Detroit city council when the comptroller's report was read, showing ex-City Treasurer Tuite to be short in his accounts. The defalcation was placed at $21,805. His term of office expired the last day of June. The report of his shortage caused much surprise among his friends, as he was very popular and highly esteemed.

Will Be Placed on the Market.

The agricultural land grant board has decided upon September 15 as the date of restoring to market the 115,000 acres of valuable agricultural college land which was withdrawn in March 1891. Lists of these lands are being prepared by counties and can soon be obtained by applying to the commissioner of the state land office.

Held Up a Mail Carrier.

Frank Farceir, a mail carrier between Chassel and Jacobsville, was held up by two footpads while on his way to the latter place. Farceir was shot through the hand, but pulled his own revolver and the would-be robbers fled. Farceir is a half-breed who has been in the service for several years.

Short But Newsy Items.

Kalamazoo saloons will not be permitted to open until 7 a. m.

William Roberts and Thomas McInerny, Chicago boys, were killed by the cars at Jackson.

Mrs. G. Albers, aged 88, died in Holland. She was the widow of a veteran who marched with Napoleon to Moscow.

The Spring Lake Basket Company's building was partially destroyed by fire. Loss, $500; insured.

While boating Thursday on Portage lake Martin Casey, a molder at Hancock, fell overboard. Frank Thompson, a fellow laborer, went to his assistance and both were drowned.

William Caughell, a marine engineer at Muskegon, will leave August 1 in a thirteen-foot rowboat for Chicago. The distance is 108 miles. Caughell will row the entire distance.

B. H. Jonkers, a prominent farmer living near Holland, hanged himself. He leaves a widow and six children in poor circumstances.

Gov. Winans' Russian relief committee has reported, showing that in addition to a large amount of provisions it received $3,900 in cash, and has disbursed all but $92 of it.

John Moden, a married man with a family, was drowned near his home in Grand Rapids by being taken with the cramps while bathing.

Marshall's post office does a business of $10,000 per year, and a petition for letter carriers will be sent to the department in Washington.

W. W. Saunders, of Newaygo, died from injuries received June 29 during a quarrel with Fred C. Taylor. His spine was injured. Taylor was in jail.

The Jackson commercial travelers and business men have banded themselves together in a social organization to be known as the Jackson club and will build a club house.

Charles A. Mills, 37 years old, son of Hon. C. B. Mills, fell into a well at his farm in Mayville and was drowned. He leaves a widow and five children.

At Moreland, a young wife and mother, Mrs. Albertus Reed, shot herself in the breast because the neighbors talked about her. The wound may prove fatal.

Joseph M. Hemsteger, aged 37, a reporter and solicitor for the Daily Press at Ishpeming, committed suicide by taking a dose of arsenic. His parents live at Piqua, O.

The Jackson police made up a purse of $20 for a poor widow who had been robbed of her pocketbook and had not money to buy bread for her four little children.

Mrs. George Albers, a pioneer of Holland, aged 83 years, died recently. She was the widow of one of Napoleon's old guard and was well known in the town.

The three-masted schooner Chelsey Ames, of Chicago, Capt. P. Myers, struck the south pier in entering the harbor at Muskegon, tore a hole in her side and sank. She was valued at $9,500.

The joint boards of the three Michigan insane asylums, in session at Kalamazoo, decided to continue the present cottage system. The rate of maintenance was fixed at forty-eight cents

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED, AND "THE BIG 5."

TWO GRAND TRAINS DAILY BETWEEN THE WORLD'S FAIR CITY AND THE FOOTHILLS.

One Night Out, or One Day Out. Take Your Choice, Business Demands it, and the People Must Have it.

The popularity of "The Great Rock Island Route" as a Colorado line—it having long time since taken first place as the people's favorite between the Lakes and the Mountains—has compelled the management to increase its present splendid service by the addition of a train that is one night on the road from Chicago to Denver, Colorado Springs or Pueblo. This train will be known as the "Rocky Mountain Limited," and will be put in service May first. Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m., arriving at above cities in the afternoon of the next day, earlier than any of its competitors. Especial equipment has been built for this train, with the view of making it a limited in every sense of the word, and best of all, there will be no extra charge. The route of this exceedingly fast train is by the Rock Island Short Line, and a few of the large cities through it which passes, are Davenport, Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Lincoln, Beatrice, Fairbury, Belleville, Phillipsburg, Smith Center, Colby and Goodland. This makes it a most desirable route, and particularly interesting to the traveler. Another point: The popularity of our dining-car service is still on the increase, and no money spared to make this service what our patrons always say, "the best."

"Our Big 5" will continue as usual, leaving Chicago at 10 p. m. and arriving at Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning, being but one day out, and this fast and popular train goes through Omaha.

Our No. 11 will leave as heretofore at 6 p. m., arrive at Kansas city at 9:00 a. m., and will reach Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo the second morning.

Our Colorado service is made perfect by this new "ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIMITED and the "BIG 5." and gives to the traveling public TWO FLYERS DAILY.

Manitou passengers should consult the map and time tables of our line, to fully appreciate the advantages in time saved by taking this route, when on their summer vacation.

JOHN SEBASTIAN,
G. T. & P. A., Chicago.

The state teachers' institute for Lenawee county will be held at Adrian, commencing at 10 a. m., Monday, Aug. 15, and closing at 4 p. m., Friday Aug. 26. The daily sessions of the institute for this year will, as heretofore, be devoted exclusively to topics of special interest to teachers, and who have made a special study of institute work. The evening lectures will be of a popular character.

The county Granges of Lenawee and Hillsdale will hold a union meeting next Thursday and Friday, Aug. 4th and 5th. The Thursday's session will be held at Rollin Grange hall and that of Friday at Beardsell's Grove, Devils Lake. A splendid program has been arranged for the entire meeting, comprising addresses, recitations, music, etc. Picnic dinners on both days. Patrons from this section of the county can go west on the Mackinaw train and arrive on the grounds in season for the forenoon program. Every grange in Northern Lenawee should be well represented.

The Worlds Columbian Exposition.

An elegant Bird's-eye-view of the Exposition Grounds and Buildings, in eight colors, size 35x45 inches, price, $1.00. The same Engraving, size 26x36 inches, price, 75 cents. The same Engraving, size 20x26 inches, price, 50 cts. A Photo-Gravure, Bird's-eye-view, 12x18 inches, price, 25 cents. A map of Chicago, price 25 cents. A pocket map of the U. S., or of any State, price 25 cents. Any of the above mailed to any address, postage prepaid on receipt of the price named. Any other World's Fair publication mailed on receipt of the advertised price.

BOND & Co., 576 Rookery, Chicago.

Prohibition Caucus.

The Prohibitionists of Macon will meet at the residence of Richard Clarkson on Monday, August 1st, at 7 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention at Adrian, August 4th; and for such other business as may come before the meeting. J. W. BAKER, Tp., Chmn.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to the taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Try it.

Why Suffer?

When you can be Cured

Thousands are suffering with Torpid Liver—the symptoms are Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator is a reliable remedy for Liver Disorders. It cures thousands every year; why not try Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator? Your druggist will supply you.

TRADE G A L E MARK. Buy ONLY "GALE" REPAIRS for Gale Plows and other goods. This trade mark will be on the shoes. Look for it. None are genuine which omit it. They last longer, work easier and are made from the original patterns, which insures a perfect fit. GALE MFG. CO., Albion, Mich.

Ripans Tabules: standard remedy.
Ripans Tabules: cures headache.
Ripans Tabules: a family remedy.

Tecumseh Price Current.

CORRECTED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING

PROVISION MARKET.	Wholesale.	Retail.
Apples green, per bushel	$1 00	$1 20
Apples dried, per pound	5	8
Beeswax	14	16
Butter	11	14
Eggs, per doz	13	15
Honey, per lb	16	18
Lard, per lb	9	12
Onions, per bushel	1 00	1 20
Potatoes, per bushel	25	40
Beans, per bushel	2 00	2 30
Wool, unwashed	14
Wool, fleeced washed	23
Wool, tub washed	25
Salt, coarse rock, per bbl	1 50
Salt, common, per bbl	90	1 00
Tallow, per lb	3½	4
Cheese, per lb	9	14
MEAT MARKET.
Pickled Pork	6	10
Bacon	10	12½
Smoked Ham	12	16
Smoked Shoulders	7	9
Beef, by the side	4½	8
Fat Hogs, per 100 lbs	3 50 to 3 75
Dressed Hogs, per 100 lbs	4 25
Veal, dressed, per lb	5
Mutton, dressed, per lb	6	8
Chickens, live, per lb	6	7
Turkeys, live, per lb	7	08
Geese, live, per lb	5	8
Ducks, live, per lb	6
Hides, green	4
Hides, dry	5	6
Sheep Pelts	25 to 1 75
GRAIN, SEEDS AND HAY.
Wheat—White		$ 75
" Red		75
Corn, shelled		56
Oats		30
No. 1 Clover seed		4 25
No. 2 " "		4 00
Choice " "		4 50
Timothy Seed		1 65
Hay, timothy, per ton		8 00 to 9 00
Hay, clover, per ton		7 00
Flour, per sack		1 38
Bran, per 100 lbs		1 00 to 1 25
Middlings, per 100 lbs		90
Corn meal, per 100 lbs		1 50
Chop, per 100 lbs		1 50

FORECLOSURE SALE.

Default of payment having been made of a mortgage, made and executed by Samuel W. Temple and Hettie A. Temple, his wife, to Sarah Edwards and Phebe U. Hunt, dated the twenty-fourth day of May, A. D. 1882, and recorded in the office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 106 of mortgages, on Page 152, upon which mortgage there remains due and unpaid at the date of this notice of the principal and accrued interest the sum of Twenty-five Hundred dollars and twenty-four cents ($2,560.24), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken to collect the same or any part thereof.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power and provisions in said mortgage contained and of the statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon and costs of this foreclosure and sale including also an attorney's fee provided by law, I, the undersigned, Phebe U. Cairns, as one of the two mortgagees of said mortgage, and also as the administratrix of the estate of said Sarah Edwards, now deceased, shall, on the 17th day of October, A. D., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Adrian, in the county of Lenawee and State of Michigan, (that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for said County of Lenawee), all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh, in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to wit: Bounded by commencing at the intersection of the North line of Shawnee street with the East line of Pearl street extended North, running thence North on the said East line of said extension of Pearl street twelve rods; thence East parallel with Shawnee street ten rods to the A. Stearns lot; thence South on the west line of Stearns lot twelve rods to Shawnee street; thence west on North line of Shawnee street ten rods to place of commencement.

Dated July 21st, 1892.

PHEBE U. CAIRNS,
(formerly Phebe U. Hunt)
Mortgagee.
PHEBE U. CAIRNS,
Administratrix of the estate of Sarah Edwards, deceased.
CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for said mortgagee and for said administratrix.

ESTATE OF FLETCHER MINORS.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, on Tuesday, the 19th day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of William Fletcher and Anna May Fletcher, minors.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified of Mary C. Larkin, alleging among other things that the parents of said minors are dead; that she is an aunt and one of the next of kin of said minors; that said minors are under fourteen years of age and that it is necessary a guardian should be appointed for said minors, and praying that she, or some other suitable person, may be appointed guardian of said minors in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 15th day of August next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the next of kin of said minors, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendancy of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.
(A True Copy.)
J. E. BARAGAR, Probate Register

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN THE MATTER of the Estate of William Wright, deceased.

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Charles Burridge in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Mich., on the 30th day of August, 1892, and on the 30th day of January, 1893, at one o'clock in the afternoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 30th day of July, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said probate court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated July 21st, 1892.

D. W. LOREE,
ROBT HOUSEMAN,
Commissioners.

Scholarship Free!

The above cut represents a few of the different departments or courses of study in the Fayette Normal University. The person who first sends to us the name of the department or course of study represented by each cut will receive FREE a scholarship in the SCHOLARSHIP L. F. N. U. The next two sending correct meanings of each cut will each receive a ten weeks scholarship; and the next twenty will each receive a copy of "Out Hours" (a government book of one hundred pages.) Address the president, J. E. PODRY, Fayette, O.

Commercial Savings Bank,

Of Adrian, Mich.

CAPITAL, $75 000
SURPLUS, 10 000

W. J. COCKER, President.
S. HOWELL, Vice-Pres. and Cash't.
E. N. SMITH, Ass. Cash't.

DIRECTORS:
W. J. Cocker, S. Howell, C. Bowerfind, F. Dettin, C. R. Miller, E. C. Sword, D. Metzger, A. M. Stephenson, A. Bennett.

Accounts of Individuals & Corporations Solicited. THREE PER CENT. allowed on Savings Deposits, compounded every six months.

THE ELDREDGE "B"

A strictly high-grade family sewing machine, possessing all modern improvements.

GUARANTEED EQUAL to the BEST

Prices very reasonable. Obtain them and make comparisons.

ELDREDGE MANUFACTURING CO.
BELVIDERE, ILL.

ANTI CONSTIPATION PILLS. CONSOLATION TO ALL CONSTIPATED. PRICE 25 CENTS. PLEASANT AND EFFECTUAL AND CONTAIN NO MERCURY

—) FOR (—
CONSTIPATION
SICK HEADACHE,
Bilious Attacks & Liver Complaint

Dose—One to two pills each night until bowels are regular and natural in their operation.

FOR SALE BY
JNO. J. ORR, Tecumseh.
ALSO FOR SALE BY
Jas. Kane, Raisinville
J. J. Tester, Raisinville
Wm. Bair, Petersburg
W. P. Cain's, Macon
Jno. Conlin, Tipton
Floyd Florence, Rollin

USE ONLY
Red Crown Gasoline
In your gasoline stoves
ORIENT or KEYSTONE WATER WHITE KEROSENE OIL
In your lamps.
MANUFACTURED BY
The Standard Oil Co.
CLEVELAND, OHIO.

For Sale in Tecumseh by the following named dealers.

James Lowry, Satterthwaite Bros.
J. J. Orr, C. A. Wright & Co.
Anderson Bros. W. J. Arnold.
McClure Grocery Co., and Jas. Potter.

Quality of the Highest Standard.

Use nothing in your Gasoline stoves but
RED CROWN GASOLINE.
Use nothing in your Lamps but
ORIENT OR KEYSTONE.
Water White Kerosene Oil.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Birdsey J. Bidwell, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the bank of Lilley, Bidwell & Co., in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 1st day of August, 1892, and on the 22d day of December, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 22d day of June, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 30th, 1892.

LUCIUS LILLEY,
LESTER P. TRIBE,
Commissioners.

DO YOU KNOW That the way to "get a start" in life and secure a good paying business is to make preparation and seize the the opportunity when it comes? Don't wait?

LEARN SHORTHAND AT HOME

BEST SYSTEM. BEST METHOD. "Up with the times. Terms moderate, and within the reach of all. Lessons concise, complete, and practical. Circulars free.

C. A. SHARP, Stenographer,
ADRIAN, MICH.

The Tecumseh Herald.

VOL. XLIII.--NO. 11. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4, 1892. WHOLE NO. 2195

Gent's Day!

Saturday, August 6,

AT Anderson & Co.

Special Sale { Shirts, Ties and Suspenders.

Wm. McCowen

Furniture

Wall Paper

Trunks

Undertaking

An Elegant Line of Swing Rockers.

USE

PARAGON 74°

Deodorized

Stove

Gasoline !

IT IS THE BEST; ASK YOUR DEALER FOR IT

The Tecumseh Herald,

A

TRIAL TRIP

50CTS.

FOR FIVE

MOS.

SUBSCRIBE NOW.

Neighborhood News.

RIDGEWAY RAMBLES.

Mrs. S. H. Linn visited relatives in Dundee last week.

Little Carrie Webster, of Toledo, is visiting at Agent Sutton's.

Flota Smith spent Sunday with her cousin, Gertie Kniffin, at Britton.

Lafe Rappleye was on the sick list a part of last week from the effects of the heat.

Celia Brewster, of Clinton, spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Clack.

A. C. Arner went to Milan Monday to accept a position as clerk in A. E. Putnam's store.

Emory Stowell and wife, of Dundee, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. E. W. Rappleye.

The Wetherton sisters, of Vienna, are enjoying country life at the home of Emma Miller.

Dispatcher Stearns, of Toledo, was in the village Sunday, the guest of Agent Sutton and family.

Prof. E. A. Wilson returned from a visit with relatives at Mt. Pleasant on Thursday of last week.

Ida Rector, of Clinton, spent Friday night at the home of Mrs. Lydia Hall, with Florence Raymond.

Leila Sutton and Gertie Snedicor spent Thursday in Toledo as the guest of G. W. Ketcham's people on 20th St.

Gertie Snedicor, Leila Sutton and J. D. Arner visited friends at Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and Milan Tuesday and Wednesday.

The attendance was quite large at the L. C. S. held at the home of Mrs. Hall Friday evening and a pleasant time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Susan Clark and Mrs. Frank Clarkson and son Dwight returned Saturday from a few days stay with relatives at Raisinville.

Rev. C. Lester and wife, of Benton Harbor, and Spencer Lester and wife, of Detroit, spent Saturday with their cousin, Emma Miller.

The Free Methodists will begin a series of camp meetings on Wednesday of next week, Aug. 10, in C. L. Lowe's grove, southeast of the village.

The Prohibitionists will hold a meeting in C. L. Lowe's grove August 17. Speaking and singing will be furnished by some of the best talent in their party.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give an ice cream lawn social at the home of Mrs. John Arner. A cordial invitation is extended to all. The usual prices will prevail.

BRITTON BUDGET.

Some of boys attended the Maccabee picnic at Devil's Lake Wednesday.

Our Hayseed Nine will play ball either at Adrian or Clinton Saturday.

Mrs. W. Lenardson and son Earl visited Ohio friends the first of the week.

Dr. Hendershot expects to remove to his farm in Macon some time this month.

The Jennie Smith estate, consisting of a farm and village property, is to be re-sold.

About 10 couples of our young folks spent Saturday at Sand and Wampler's Lakes.

M. D. Britton came heme from Battle Creek last Saturday for a few weeks' vacation.

O. C. Craft and wife, of Manton, Mich., are visiting at Cornelius Hoagland's for a few days.

There was some sport for one of our pathmasters over on North Main street one day last week.

The Britton Quartette, composed of Messrs. Dubois, Kniffin, Gripton and Dubois, were called to sing at the Macon church palette social at Mark Pennington's last week Wednesday.

TIPTON TOPICS.

Vern and Amy Roberts returned to Chicago last Wednesday.

B. F. Lambkin is slowly failing from consumption of the throat.

Mr. Noble Green, of Clinton county, was in town a few days this week.

Miss Lillie Beebe came home from Nebraska last week Thursday.

Alonzo Haight and wife, from Columbus, Neb., are visiting at P. F. Beebe's.

Hampton has sold his stock of general merchandise to Ernest, German and will build a new store on the opposite corner.

A large crowd gathered at the Congregational church last Sabbath to listen to the funeral service conducted by Rev. Patchen for Addie Roberts.

An ice cream social will be given next Wednesday night for the benefit of the Band. A musical program will be carried out by our best talent. Everybody come and give the boys a little encouragement.

On Saturday occurred the death of Aunt Freelove Whelan, one of the oldest settlers of our town. She came to this place with her husband, John Whelan, in an early day, and has lived here ever since. She leaves five sons and one daughter, all living near the old home, to mourn her death.

When Nature

Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

Misses Alta and Lottie Perry are visiting friends at Owosso.

Gerald Dealey had a horse choke to death by its halter last Thursday.

Ira Glover and family, of Sylvan, spent Sunday with Manchester friends.

A miniature voter arrived at the home of B. F. Mattison one day last week.

Wallace North and family, of White Pigeon, are rusticating at Wait Peck's, in Sharon.

The Methodist and Universalist Sunday Schools will picnic at Wampler's Lake Friday.

Louis and Ralph Freeman, from Chelsea, were in town calling on acquaintances Sunday.

Miss Anna Clark, of Ypsilanti, was called here Saturday on account of her mother's death.

Earl Chase, Fred Burtless, Homer Palmer and Hiram Logan camped at Wampler's Lake last week.

Mrs. Harlow Stringham and little daughter, of Jackson, are the guests of her mother, Mrs. Wisner, and other relatives.

Joseph Lowry, a wealthy and respected citizen of Bridgewater, died on Friday last. Funeral Sunday afternoon, July 31st.

Mrs. Clara Parmentier, of Elkhart, Ind., returned to her home last Saturday, after a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Fellows.

Mrs. Thomas Clark, whose residence was on the town line between Manchester and Bridgewater, died Saturday, July 30. Funeral Monday, Rev. Boynton, of Hillsdale, officiating.

ONSTED ODDS.

Oat harvesting is in progress.

The addition to Dr. Ross' house is completed.

John Secor is building an addition to his house.

Phil. Desermia, of Rome Center, was in town Monday.

Robert Rogers, of Springville, was in town Monday afternoon.

Somewhat cooler weather, which makes it pleasanter working.

Mrs. Sarah Tayer, of Fayette, Ohio, visited friends here last week.

The Knight Templars of this vicinity start for Denver the last of the week.

There is talk of organizing a tent or hive of the lady Maccabees here soon.

Threshing is being done around here but the yield of wheat is not very good.

W. P. Wemple has taken his wife to Ann Arbor for medical treatment for internal cancer.

Rayment & Munger have rented the meat market of Mr. Hines and will carry on the meat business here.

Surveyors are working in this vicinity at present, getting matter for the County atlas that will be printed in the near future.

We have heard that Jacob Maxwell has rented his farm to Earnest McGee for one year and the latter gentleman will move on soon.

Last Saturday a number of Onsted citizens took in the races at Adrian, the attraction being the race between the horses of Frank Kinney and Dr. Ross, both of this place. Dr. Ross' horse was the winner.

MACON MUSIC.

Chas. Allen will teach in District No. 5. Success to you, Charlie.

Miss Celia Brewster, of Clinton, visited Grace Sage a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller and Mrs. J. L. Jackson spent Sunday in Milan.

Dr. Howell and wife, of Tecumseh, are shaking hands with Macon friends.

Herbert Davis, of Milan, called on a few of his choicest friends here last Sunday.

Miss Edith Smith, who has been clerking in a postoffice at Grand Ledge for over a year, returned home last Monday.

The young people of the M. E. church will give a handkerchief social on Isaac Ganoung's lawn Tuesday evening, Aug. 16. A fine program is being prepared and will appear in the paper next week.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

For sale by J. J. Orr.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cent Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

Woman's Health and Life

depend more regularity than on any or all causes combined. An actual or living death is the result of derangement of functions which make woman what she is; immediate relief is the only safeguard against wreck and ruin. In In all cases of stoppage, delayed, painful or other irregularities Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. Sold by Jno. J. Orr.

I used three bottles of "Mother's friend and when I was sick I never went to bed until 12:30, and my boy was born at 3 at a. m. with scarcely any pain I will do all I can in recommending it to expectant mothers. Your thankful friend. Mrs. B. F. Wathereus. Marion, O., Sept. 1890. Sold by Jno. Orr.

FRANKLIN FACTS.

Aunt Ann Allen is slightly better.

Aunt Emily Whelan is in poor health.

Mrs. Ona Whelan is very seriously sick.

Miss Fowler, of Tecumseh, is visiting at James Allen's.

Frank Billington is at work on Warnie Hampton's new barn.

Martin Whelan is painting his house. Frank Jenkins has the job.

Frank Lambkin has been worse since the death of his little daughter.

The mercury at Tipton registered 104 degrees in the shade last week.

Mrs. Fisk Beebe has been alarmingly ill but is reported as very much better.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Paine, is very sick with typhoid fever.

Lillie Beebe has returned home from Neb., where she has been visiting with relatives.

Miss Bertha Taylor is so much improved that she is expected home in a few weeks.

News comes from Neb., that Wm. E. Wisner is very sick; grave doubts of his recovery are entertained.

A letter from Milford, Oakland Co., reports Mrs. J. H. Davis as having been very dangerously sick, but is now on the gain.

We learn that Hollis Taylor goes to Chicago this week, and afterward to Iowa, which will be the field of his labors for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Haight, of Neb., are guests of Mrs. Haight's brother, Fisk Beebe. Mrs. Haight's many old friends have found that time has touched Orrie very gently.

A large concourse of relatives and friends assembled at Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wisner's last Monday morning to witness the last sad rites of the funeral services of Aunt Freelove Whelan who died last Saturday about noon. An obituary will appear hereafter.

NORTH-EAST FRANKLIN.

Ella Munger is visiting her annt, Mrs. George Knapp.

Clark Payne's little boy, Alva, is very sick with typhoid fever.

Miss Nettie Fowler, of Tecumseh, is visiting at James Allen's this week.

Aunt Freelove Whelan died last Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Wisner.

On returning to their home in Saline the Misses Dunn found their mother very ill with bronchial trouble. She is greatly improved at present, however.

Farmers' Picnic.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the farmers' picnic association held Saturday, July 30, at Devil's lake, it was decided to hold the annual picnic for 1892, at Beardsell's grove, Devil's lake, on Thursday, August 25th.

The following committees were appointed.

Programme—W. P. Hathaway, Addison; Isaac Gibbs, Waldron, David Mercer, Addison.

Music—David Pontins, Clayton; C. A. Blackmer, Onsted; F. H. Smith, Addison.

Speakers—W. H. Wiggins, Adrian; J. B. Patterson, Pittsford; G. E. Wheeler, Wheatland.

Printing—J. S. Phelps, Medina; D. B. Pierce, North Adams; C. F. Morse, Medina.

Ex Com.—S. C. Lombard, Addison; Wm., McDowell, Palmyra; Charles Clinkensmith, Pittsford.

Steps have been taken to induce the officers to change the date, as it now conflicts with our band reunion. The date of the picnic could be changed now without any injury to the meeting.

A Bad Scorch at Morenci.

S. A. Scofield & Son's furniture and undertaking establishment, caught fire at 4 Tuesday morning, in the basement in the rear of the building.

The horses and hearses were taken out before the alarm was given. Both of the engines were brought to bear upon the fire, keeping it in check, and not allowing it to spread, but the entire stock, valued at about $10,000, is almost ruined by fire, smoke and water.

How the fire originated is a mystery, unless it was from spontaneous combustion.

The insurance is $4,500 on the stock and $3,000 on the building.

The firm procured new quarters, and are again doing business.

Mrs. Scofield, wife of the senior member of the firm, is very low, and it is feared the shock may affect her for the worse.

The True Laxative Principle

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Democratic Caucus.

The Democrats of Tecumseh are requested to meet in caucus on Monday evening, Aug 8th, at the Council Rooms, to elect six delegates to attend the County Convention on August 11th, and transact such other business as may come before the meeting.

By Order of Com.

The Ladies' Home Journal.

Henry Ward Beecher's premonitions, his last day on earth and his death are the subjects of Mrs. Beecher's concluding paper on "Mr. Beecher As I Knew Him" in the August Ladies' Home Journal. The wife of New York's famous lawyer, Mr. William Maxwell Evarts, is the subject of a delightful sketch, with portrait, by Lillian Wright, and Kate Upson Clark gives a pleasant addition to the series of "Literary Women in Their Homes," by an attractive description and portrait of Miss Mary Wilkins, whose clever stories of New England life have made her so great a favorite. A new serial story, "A Live Ember," by Julia Magruder, beautifully illustrated by Wilson de Meza, opens attractively, and Belle C. Greene has a clever short story called "A Child of Earth," which is also illustrated by Mr. de Meza. Ethel Ingalls gives an interesting paper on "Life At a Convent School," and Ella Higginson writes of "How We Entertained an Editor." Dr. Talmage, in "Across a Crystal Path," tells of crossing the ocean on his present trip to Europe, and Palmer Cox takes "The Brownies" down the Mississippi. Junius Henri Browne discusses the question "Are Women All Alike?" and Clifford Howard writes of "How Time is Regulated." The poems are by May Lennox, Mary Ainge de Veré, S. K. Bourne and C. H. Crandall. Mrs. Mallon writes on "The Complexion and Its Care" and of "Seashore and Mountain Frocks", and Miss Hooper upon "New Designs in Cotton Dresses." Margaret Bottome, Marie Parloa, Mrs. Lyman Abbott, Maude Haywood, Ruth Ashmore and Foster Coates crowd their departments with good things, and Robert J. Burdette discourses upon the souvenirs of travel. This midsummer number of the Journal is more than usually attractive, and worth many times its modest price of ten cents. The Ladies' Home Journal is published by the Curtis Publishing Co., of Philadelphia, for ten cents a number and one dollar per year.

The Forum for August.

With the number for August The Forum finishes its thirteenth volume. Among the leading topics of this number are: "Shall the Southern Question be Revived?" under which are grouped two articles—"The Unparalleled Industrial Progress of the South," by Richard H. Edmonds, the late editor of the Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore, the leading industrial paper of the South; and "The Disastrous Effects of a Force Bill," by Hoke Smith, Chairman of the School Board of Atlanta, Ga., and chief owner of the Atlanta Journal. Other articles of a political kind are: "The Folly of the Free-Coinage Agitation," and "The Necessity of the Repeal of Sherman Silver Act of 1890," by Louis Windmuller, a widely-known merchant of New York; "The Advantage of the Repeal of the Tax on State Banks," by David M. Stone, editor of the New York Journal of Commerce—an article in the line of the Democratic financial plank and of the bill recently introduced in the House of Representatives; and "Municipal Government: a Corporate, Not a Political Problem" by Mr. Frank Morison, of Boston (the first of a series of discussions of Municipal Government, which will contain the results of much original investigation). In this number is begun a series of articles on the scope and present opportunity of the learned professions, the first article being on "Literature as a Career," by Walter Besant. Mr. Richard H. Dana writes "An American View of the Irish Question," parallel between Great Britain's treatment of the American colonies and her treatment to Ireland.

There are two "studies in practical religion"—one a description of the singularly successful industrial establishment of the Messrs. Harmel, in France, which may fairly be called "An Example of Organized Thrift," the motive of which is largely religous, and "The Divergence of the Preachers and the Labor Leaders"—the results of an inquiry made by the secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Association, Rev. John P. Coyle, showing the alienation of the workingmen from the churches, and why. Mr. R. L. Garner, who has gone to Africa to continue his investigations into the origin of speech by studying the language of native tribes and wild apes, writes a summary of the scientific results that he has obtained by the study of language with the help of the phonograph. Prof. Wm. James, of Harvard, the eminent psychologist, sums up the scientific value of the work of the Society for Psychical Research—its study of dreams, hallucinations, mesmerism, apparitions, and the like; and there is an instructive explanation of the great "Western Traffic Association" by Mr. Aldace F. Walker, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the Association. This number contains a prospectus of Vol. XIV.

Lenawee Horticulturalists.

Lenawee County Horticultural Society will meet at Water Works Park on McKenzie St., to hold their midsummer meeting at 10 a. m., on Wed., Aug. 10. Should the weather be bad the meeting will be called at Mrs. Trine's, across the way on McKinzie St. Both old and young will assist. Come, and bring your basket.

E. W. Allis, Secretary.

Buy Dullman's Great German 25 cen Cough Cure at Jno. Orrs.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

Office in the HERALD Building, one door East of the Opera House, on Chicago street.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

IN LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance.....$1 10
If paid after 30 days.....1 25
If paid after three months.....1 50

BEYOND LENAWEE COUNTY.

One year, cash in advance.....$1 25
If paid after 30 days.....1 50

ADVERTISING RATES.

Business locals, five cents a line for each insertion.

Special notices, fifty cents an inch for each insertion.

Rates on general advertising on term contracts made known at the counting room.

Entered at the postoffice at Tecumseh, Michigan as second class matter.

TECUMSEH, MICH., AUG. 4, 1892.

Chairman Harrity, of the Democratic National Committee, has appointed his campaign committee. It is both a business and fighting committee and will make the campaign hot from now until election day.

The serious illness of Gladstone is a bad blow to the Liberal cause in England. It is very doubtful whether any other leader could hold the party together. In the event of his death the Liberal victory might prove to be a barren one.

Mr. Cleveland does all his correspondence between 10 o'clock at night and 2 o'clock in the morning. It is his only way to escape from the interruption of fishermen who call to tell him how the menhaden schools are driving and how the blue fish are jumping.

Gov. Winans has called an extra session of the legislature to pass a new apportionment bill. The date is Friday, Aug. 5. It will be a good time to pass a fair, equitable bill, as the Senate and House are so evenly divided politically that neither party can gain any unfair advantage.

The filibustering over the World's Fair appropriation bill still continues and the prospects for an early agreement are not very favorable. It is reasonable to suppose, however, that the filibusters will in time wear themselves out and permit the bill to pass, as public sentiment clearly demands it.

Senator Carlisle made one of his masterly speeches last Friday on the workings of the McKinley tariff act. As a mental and argumentative effort his speech was one of the strongest he ever delivered. Two million copies will be printed and it will be the chief Democratic document on the tariff question during the campaign.

The Supreme Court decision annulling the apportionment acts of 1885 and 1891 commends itself to all fair-minded men. The gerrymander business has been badly overdone of late years and it was well to call a halt. It is amusing, however, to see the party organs sputter about it, as both parties were caught in the same boat, the acts of '85 and '91 both being declared void.

The Chicago Times thus states the situation in a nut-shell: "There is a clean-cut issue before the electors of the United States. The Republican party pronounces for protection, as it is called, and points to the McKinley law as its illustration of the meaning of protection. The Democratic party denounces protection as robbery and demands a tariff for revenue only.

The Michigan Supreme Court is justly regarded as one of the strongest judicial tribunals in the country. It is gratifying to know that in the two most important decisions of a political character ever rendered by the Court, the judges were not divided on partisan lines. Their verdict in these two instances carries the conviction that always follows a unanimous legal decision.

The McKinley tax on carpets and carpeting of all kinds is 45 cents a yard and 30 per cent. ad valorem. Under these circumstances it is no wonder that the large carpet and upholstery dealers of the country have begun a movement to re-establish a combine. First McKinley, then a trust is the natural order. It is cause and effect. If it goes on much longer it will have to be stated in all the text books as a fact of political economy.

The political drift in the Northwest is very clearly shown in the nomination of Knute Nelson for governor by the Minnesota Republicans. Nelson was a member of the fifteth Congress, and, though a Republican, made a red-hot tariff reform speech and voted for the Mills bill on its final passage. When the Republicans of Minnesota are compelled to nominate a free trader for governor, to save themselves from annihilation, it shows which way the wind is blowing.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills 40 in each package, at Jno. Orrs.

SINGLE TAX DEPARTMENT.

The Christianity of the Single Tax.

EDWARD G. RHOADS.

[CONTINUED FROM LAST ISSUE.]

This is one great obstacle to accepting the remedies proposed by socialists. We acknowledge that if we could take a large slice of the income of the Astor estates and give it to the poverty-stricken in the tenement houses in New York city, it might be a mutual benefit; but suppose the Astors to have carried on business honestly, what right have we to take their wealth from them? To favor robbery of the rich to give to the poor would not indicate an advance in economic science, but a reversion to the political economy of Robin Hood. "Thou shalt not steal" blocks the way to all such schemes, in the minds of moral men, whose eyes are not blinded by their sympathies, prejudices or passions.

To some minds, who have seen honest toil go unrequited, who have had glimpses of the depth of misery to be found in the masses of humanity which crowd great cities, who have had feelings akin to those which Henry George thus describes as his own: "When I first realized the squalid misery of a great city, it appalled and tormented me, and would not let me rest, for thinking what caused it and how it could be cured;" to men who have felt this, but have seen no remedy except in some form of socialism, and who can not bind themselves to the injustice of socialism, to such men the doctrine of Henry George has come as a revelation. For there is pointed out a cause of poverty which consists in a definite social injustice, and a remedy, which, to those who fully grasp its meaning, is not a violation but a natural corollary of the commandment: "Thou shalt not steal."

For the law of poverty right is what gives significance to this commandment, and it is evident that the fact of production by individual agency is the basis of individual rights in property. A natural right to anything which has not been produced by individual agency can not, therefore, inhere in individuals.

It is evident that natural opportunities (land) are not produced by individual labor, nor is the value which attaches to land by virtue of the growth of a community the product of individual labor. The theory of private property in land is, therefore, without foundation in natural justice. According to the Scripture account, there was a definite means provided for man to make a living. He was created with certain powers which constituted ability to labor. He would have been helpless had he received nothing more. The earth was given him to labor on. His labor applied to its natural conditions, produced for man his daily bread. There has never yet been any other way discovered to produce daily bread, though it may be obtained by begging or stealing. Just as man in the infancy of the world, must have died or become dependent on his fellows, if deprived either of his power to labor or his right to the use of land to labor upon, so he must be under the same circumstances in the present day.

The Creator has made no less provision for every child who comes into the world to-day than he made for Adam. The right to his own labor and to the use of land are birthrights of every one; take away either in part or whole and the individual becomes partially dependent or entire helpless to make a living. Yet that is what our present social system, by permitting property in land, is doing. Men are struggling not for ability to labor, but for a chance to work. Capital is doing otherwise. Land speculators are obtaining wealth without producing it. I know there are some minds to whom abstract statements do not appeal, who must have something concrete; but even to such is there not enough in this brief statement to make a prima facie case, which is worth investigating in view of the terrible concreteness of the problem? If this be a true solution of the poverty question, we have in the single tax (which would transfer the value of land from the pockets of individuals to the coffers of the state, thence to be returned to the people in the benefits of government) a measure which, whatever else it may be, is fundamentally right.

Yet I have heard it honestly objected to the single tax, that it is a violation of the command, "Thou shalt not steal." Truly it seems to me that the law of property is what needs to be taught in the world, for the spirit of theft is abroad. Prof. Ely asks, "What is the essence of theft?" and replies, "Is it not trying to get something for nothing?" If this be true, how much of the nature of theft is there in the business transactions of the present day? Some years ago there lived in Chester county, Pa., an old Friend, remarkable for his integrity and a devout Christian. It is related that he once bargained for a yoke of oxen with a business acquaintance, who named a price which our Friend thought too high, and offered a less sum, which he said he thought was all the oxen were worth. His offer was accepted and he took the oxen home and butchered them, and soon after sent to the seller the difference between the amount asked and the amount paid, saying that he found he had been mistaken, and the price first named was not too high.

Another farmer living near the same locality had a barren piece of land on which some prospectors thought they found valuable ore, and offered him a large price for it. His unsophisticated conscience, however, would not let him take what he felt that he had in no wise promoted. Such instances may not be a safe guide to business morality now, but I can not help thinking if more professed Christians had as keen an instinct of the correct basis of property right as these two, there would be more who would see the beauty of the single tax.

The Christian churches ought to furnish a full contingent of single taxers, for the inheritance of Christianity is full of the love of justice. Nowhere in the history of ancient legislation was the Jeffersonian principle, "The land belongs in usufruct to the living," received stronger indorsement than in the commandment of the Jewish law, which said: "The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is Mine, for ye are strangers and sojourners with Me."

Christianity was, at its rise, a movement for freedom of the individual. It deals mainly with the problem of individual life, which, as Henry George says, "lies behind the problem of social life," and is "higher and deeper still." And single tax men should be Christians, for even in the present day the Christian church upholds the standard of duty, around which, as the patient Mazzini said, "rather than around the standard of self-interest men must rally to win the rights of man." If there is one thing more important than to teach men what is right, it is to persuade them to do right in so far as they know it.

And among single tax men are there not more Christians than would call themselves such? For by their fruits we know them. When I see a man who laughs at religion devote himself to the cause of humanity, I think that that man is only tired of Christians; he still believes in Christ. And when I hear such a one say that whether the single tax meets with success in his time matters not, for the future is ours, I can not but believe that that man feels stirring within himself "the power of and endless life."

How the Single Tax Works.

A real estate and land speculation firm in Toronto, Ont., holds a tract of vacant land in the suburbs which they rent for market gardens. In conversation with a member of said firm the single tax came up for discussion. "That would never suit us," he said. "Every week these market gardeners come in and pay us a good fat rent. If the tax on the land was too high we could not hold it, and all that would be spoiled."

Some time afterwards the subject was again introduced, when the gentleman was asked if he was aware that the single tax was actually in force to a limited extent in Manitoba, where all improvements on farm and garden property are exempt from taxation, and that the result is that vacant land has to bear a fair share of the burden. "Yes," he answered, with a growl of dissatisfaction, "I should think I was. We have a farm up there, and every quarter get such a thundering big tax bill that we would sell it for almost nothing for any one who wants to farm it."

Under the single tax the "good fat rent" has been changed into "a thundering big tax bill," and the user of the land could step in on favorable terms.

Grove City is a village about twelve miles from Columbus, O., on the Midland railroad. For the past two years speculators in land in that village have been making strenuous efforts to induce workingmen of Columbus to buy lots and build homes out there, and, as they put it, to "get out of paying rent." They have succeeded fairly well, and have run trains morning and evening for the accommodation of workingmen. A gentleman from there was asked how the boom flourished, and he thought that those mostly interested had done better than they pretended. As an evidence he gave the following account of an investment he had made for his son: "There is a piece of land out there of six acres that a year ago went begging for a buyer at $700. Nobody seemed to want it. But my son finally bought it and rented it out. The other day he was offered $1,200 for it. Don't you think that is doing well enough?"

"Yes," was the reply. "Did he take it?"

"No, he didn't, because he has it rented for $150 a year to a good tenant, and that is 10 per cent. on $1,500."

And so the poor renter pays the piper. The workingmen of Columbus leave home early and get home late, and put up with a thousand and one other inconveniences, never seeing their family in daylight for a great portion of the year. By so doing they have increased the value of the speculators' land and the working renter pays for it all.

Is This True?

Market men doing business at Central Market, a one-story shed, bounded by Broadway, Seventh avenue and Forty-eight street, in the city of New York, tell this story: The ground comprises between six and seven city lots, and the space is divided into stalls and rented to butchers, green grocers, etc. When Broadway was widened many years ago, the city condemned a strip fifty feet wide, for which a sum was paid to the owner in excess of the original cost to him of the entire tract. Within the past twenty years the population of the vicinity has been increased by fully 100,000. The net rentals of the market equal $20,000, or 4 per cent. on $500,000. Indeed, the owner refused an offer of $450,000 from parties who contemplated building a fine hotel. The assessors considered the property as unimproved, and, therefore, value it for taxation at less than $150,000.

THE Commercial, of Pensacola, Florida, has this short but clear paragraph in advocacy of the single tax:

A tax on land values would benefit the farmers. All land would not pay tax. Land having rental or monopoly value only would pay a tax, and this only as much as it was worth. The rental value of land in the heart of a city is worth thousands of dollars per foot, and never, even in the outskirts, goes below one hundred dollars per acre. As you go out from the centers of population and business the land value decreases, so that the domain of no rental value and no tax comes closer and closer to the great centers of population as they now exist. Better than all this, tax on the value of land will stay just where it is put, and can not be shifted from one person to another like a license or personal property tax until at last it all falls upon the shoulders of the laboring men, who are of others least able to bear the burden.

—Young Wife—"George, dear, I want some money." George—"Why, I gave you a check yesterday." Young Wife—"Yes, but the doctor said I was to have plenty of change."—Pick Me Up.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

☞ Sold by druggists, 75c.

Mrs. Backup: Why didn't you scream when George embraced you? Maud: The mean thing! threatened to have me arrested for receiving stolen kisses.

WORTH HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS.

My wife used only two bottles of Mother's Friend before her third confinement. Says she would not be without it for hundreds of dollars. Had not half as much trouble as before.—Dock Miles, Lincoln Parish, La. Sold by Jno. J. Orr.

Woman has been compelled to suffer not only her own ills, but those arising from a want of knowledge on the part of those with whom she stands connected. In the mansions of the rich and novels of the poor woman has been alike the patient victim of ills unknown to man. But now the hour of her redemption has come. Bradfield's Female Regulator cures all diseases peculiar to her sex. Sold by Jno. J. Orr.

There are too many young Americans looking for jobs. They had better go to work.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS.

Over twelve years I was afflicted with a very serious female difficulty and for the last sixteen months was under treatment of three of the very best physicians that money could employ. Under their skillful treatment I gradually grew worse until they decided they could render me no permanent help. One of my friends persuaded me to try a bottle of Dullam's Great German Uterine Tonic, and after taking three bottles can say I am in better health than I have been for twenty years and am now sixty years old, but feel as young as at thirty.

June 2, 1890. MRS. S. E. CARPENTER, Lapeer, Mich.

For sale by Jno. Orr.

A boy is never of any use until he has discovered that he is not a success as a whistler.

DON'T GET IMPOSED UPON.

Is a good motto to follow in buying a medicine as well as in everything else. By the universal satisfaction it has given and by the many remarkable cures it has accomplished, Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure has proven itself unequalled for building up and cleansing your system and for all diseases arising from impure blood. Do not experiment with an unheard of or untried article when you are told is as good, but be sure and get Dullam's. All druggists keep it.

For sale by Jno. Orr.

Dead Beat (humbly, to swell, old-time friend of his): Lend me five bob. Swell (handing it over): Now, old man, for goodness sake don't go and spend it in drink. Dead Beat (haughtily, pocketing the two half-crowns): What right have you, sir, dictate to me how I should spend my own money?

VERY MUCH SURPRISED.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle Signed A. B. Snell.

Hamilton, Mich., April 11, 1891. For sale by John J. Orr.

Riggs—"How long has your wife kept servants?" Jiggs—"Two weeks, sometimes."

MILES NERVE & LIVER PILLS

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples Free, at Baker & Hall's.

Coughing leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Down in the mouth—the woman who doesn't use Pearline. Her work brings weariness and complaint—Pearline brings cleanliness with ease and comfort. It makes light of washing and cleaning. It saves wear and tear to your clothes, your muscles, your cash, and your temper. Ask some of the millions who use it. Pearline can do no harm to the finest fabric—it can do no harm to try it. Beware of imitations. 288 JAMES PYLE, N. Y.

ALL KINDS OF ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER

DOORS, SASH & BLINDS

Constantly on hand; CAR LOTS A SPECIALTY. Custom Work promptly attended to at the

TEMPLE MFG. CO'S.,

Brick Office on Shawnee St. TECUMSEH, MICH.

Threshers Attention!

We have 30 other

CELEBRATED ALL-FOUR WHEEL DRIVE

TRACTION ENGINES

That we will dispose of direct to threshers, thereby saving them the agent's commission. The best and most powerful traction Engine made. We also manufacture Engine Boilers, Saw and Picket Mills, and the Famous Ruth's Steel Reversible Feed Wheel Pump and Wind Mills.

Send for Catalogue and Price List.

The Lansing Iron and Engine Works,

LANSING, MICH.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

THE CURE FOR CATARRH COLD IN HEAD HAY FEVER ELY'S CREAM BALM

The New Model Hall Typewriter,

A Perfect Machine Writing 82 Characters.

Remodeled and Improved.

GOOD MANIFOLDER.

The Best Standard Typewriter in the World. Inexpensive, Portable, No Ink Ribbon, Interchangeable type in all languages. Easiest to learn and rapid as any.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE.

WARRANTED AS REPRESENTED.

THIS MACHINE IS EVERYBODY'S FRIEND. Everybody should have their writing done on the Typewriter. It always insures the most prompt attention. Address

P. O. Box 5159.

N. TYPEWRITER CO.,

611 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

THE Steadman BUSINESS COLLEGE

And SHORTHAND SCHOOL, TOLEDO, O.

Prepares its pupils for business and then assists them to positions.

136 Students placed with Banks, Wholesale Houses and Railroad Cos. since Sept. '90.

Write for full information.

A. H. STEADMAN, Pres.

FORECLOSURE SALE.

Default of payment having been made of a mortgage, made and executed by Samuel W. Temple and Hettie A. Temple, his wife, to Sarah Edwards and Phebe U. Hunt, dated the twenty-fourth day of May, A. D. 1887, and recorded in the office of Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan, in Liber 109 of mortgages, on Page 152, upon which mortgage there remains due and unpaid at the date of this notice of the principal and accrued interest the sum of Twenty-five Hundred dollars and twenty-four cents ($2,500 24), and no proceedings at law or in equity have been taken to collect the same or any part thereof.

Notice is therefore hereby given that by virtue of the power and provisions in said mortgage contained and of the statutes of the state of Michigan in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the moneys above mentioned and interest thereon and costs of this foreclosure and sale including also an attorney's fee provided by law, I, the undersigned, Phebe U. Cairns, as one of the two mortgagees of said mortgage, and also as the administratrix of the estate of said Sarah Edwards, now deceased, shall, on the 17th day of October, A. D., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Adrian, in the county of Lenawee and State of Michigan, that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for said County of Lenawee, all that parcel of land situate in the Village of Tecumseh, in the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to wit: Bounded by commencing at the intersection of the North line of Shawnee street with the East line of Pearl street extended North, running thence North on the said East line of said extension of Pearl street twelve rods; thence East parallel with Shawnee street ten rods to the A. Stearns lot; thence South on the west line of Stearns lot twelve rods to Shawnee street; thence west on North line of Shawnee street ten rods to place of commencement.

Dated July 21st, 1892.

PHEBE U. CAIRNS,
(formerly Phebe U. Hunt)
Mortgagee.

PHEBE U. CAIRNS,
Administratrix of the estate of Sarah Edwards, deceased.

CHARLES BURRIDGE,
Attorney for said mortgagee and for said administratrix.

ESTATE OF FLETCHER MINORS.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee, ss.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Lenawee, holden at the Probate office, in the city of Adrian, on Tuesday, the 19th day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Present, Richard B. Robbins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of William Fletcher and Anna May Fletcher, minors.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Mary C. Larkin, alleging among other things that the parents of said minors are dead; that she is an aunt and one of the next of kin of said minors; that said minors are under fourteen years of age; and that it is necessary a guardian should be appointed for said minors, and praying that she, or some other suitable person, may be appointed guardian of said minors in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided.

It is ordered, That Monday, the 15th day of August next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition; and that the next of kin of said minors, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate office, in the City of Adrian, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the TECUMSEH HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county of Lenawee, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

RICHARD B. ROBBINS, Judge of Probate.

(A True Copy.)

A. E. BARNARD, Probate Register

DRS. CATLIN & TEFFT,

Office in Landgraf Block, up Stairs.

DR. TEFFT—Office Hours, 8-10 A. M., 1-2 P. M., 6:30-8:30 P. M.

DR. CATLIN—Office Hours, 7-8 A. M., 1-3 P. M., 6-7:30 P. M.

Dr. Catlin will retain his former office at his house.

Buy Dullam's Great German 15 cent Liver Pills, 40 in each package, at Jno. Orr's

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN THE MATTER of the Estate of William Wright, deceased.

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Charles Burridge in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Mich., on the 30th day of August, 1892, and on the 9th day of January, 1893, at one o'clock in the afternoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 9th day of July, A. D. 1892, are allowed by said probate court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated July 21, 1892.

D. W. LORBE,
ROBT. HOUSEMAN,
Commissioners.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of Birdsey J. Bidwell, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said County Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the bank of Lilley, Bidwell & Co., in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 1st day of August, 1892, and on the 22d day of December, 1892, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

And that six months from the 22d day of June, A. D., 1892, are allowed by said Probate Court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated June 30th, 1892.

LUCIUS LILLEY,
LESTER P. TRIBOU,
Commissioners.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

IN the matter of the estate of John N. Gordon, deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the Judge of Probate for the County of Lenawee, Michigan, commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the office of Chas. Burridge, in Tecumseh, Lenawee county, Michigan, on the 27th day of August, and on the 24th day of Dec., 1892, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days. And that six months from the 24th day of June, A. D. 1892, are allowed by the said Probate Court to the creditors of said estate to present their said claims for examination and adjustment.

Dated, July 21, 1892.

FRANCIS C. RECTOR,
HORATIO KEYSER,
Commissioners.

ANTI CONSTIPATION PILLS CONSOLATION TO ALL CONSTIPATED. PRICE 25 CENTS. PLEASANT AND EFFECTUAL AND CONTAIN NO MERCURY

FOR CONSTIPATION, SICK HEADACHE, Bilious Attacks & Liver Complaints.

DOSE.—One to two Pellets each night until the bowels are regular and natural in their operation.

FOR SALE BY

JNO. J. ORR, Tecumseh.

ALSO FOR SALE BY

JNO. KANE.....Onsted.
F. J. TEMPLE.....Ridgeway.
NEIL BABCOCK.....Britton.
W. P. COTTON.....Macon.
JNO. CONLIN.....Tipton.
FLOYD FLORENCE.....Holloway.

DO YOU KNOW That the way to "get a start" in life, and secure a good paying business is to make preparation and seize the opportunity when it comes? Don't wait?

LE AN SHORTHAND AT HOME

BEST SYSTEM, BEST METHOD. "Up with the times. Terms moderate, and within the reach of all. Lessons concise, complete, and practical. Circulars free.

C. A. SHARP, Stenographer,
ADRIAN, MICH.

An National Event.

The holding of the World's Fair in an y scarcely fifty years old will be a ent, but whether it will really benefit is nation As much as the discovery of e Restorative Nervine by Dr. Frank-Miles is doubtful. This is just at the American people need to cure ir excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, adache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neugia, nervous debility, dulness, con-ion of mind, etc. It acts like a rm. Trial bottles and fine book on ervous and heart Diseases, with un-al testimonials, free at Baker and
's. It is warranted to contain no n, morphine or dangerous drugs.

Every Month

ny women suffer from Excessive or ent Menstruation; they don't know ho to confide in to get proper advice.
Don't confide in anybody but try

Bradfield's
Female Regulator.

a Specific for PAINFUL, PROFUSE,
SCANTY, SUPPRESSED and IRREGULAR
MENSTRUATION.
Book to "WOMAN" mailed free.
BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
Sold by all Druggists.

KIRK'S
DUSKY
DIAMOND
AR SOAP

aithful, Agreeable, Cleansing.
Cures
pped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Etc.
Removes and Prevents Dandruff.
ERICAN FAMILY SOAP.
st for General Household Use.

YOUNG UNEDUCATED PARROTS.
Birds. $6.00 each. WARRANTED TALKERS.
Big Bird Bazaar, Cleveland, Ohio.

SOMETHING NEW.

ebrated Clauss Bread, Cake and Paring Knife
tures want canvassers in every locality ll these knives. Best thing in the market.
agents clear from $10 to $15 per day. Send r sample set. THE CLAUSS SHEAR CO.
& 10th Sts., Kansas City, Mo., Fremont, O.,
, Mass., 100 Chambers St., New York, N.Y.

GREAT PREVENTIVE.
DR. HOXSIE'S
RTAIN CROUP CURE
directly on the mucous membranes of the hence diphtheria does not occur when this ated remedy is used. 50c per bottle.
by prominent druggists over the state.

LADELPHIA CROWN CARAMELS
FRESH, PURE, DELICIOUS. of rich cream and purest materials. If your doesn't keep them send 50 cents to the makers and get, postpaid, a Handsome box of the best Caramels, either Chocoanilla, Walnut, Maple, or Assorted.
Address
. PARKER & CO., Manufacturing Confectioners,
OXFORD, PA.

PARKER'S
HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair.
Promotes a luxuriant growth.
Never Fails to Restore Gray
Hair to its Youthful Color.
Cures scalp diseases & hair falling.
50c, and $1.00 at Druggists

CONSUMPTIVE
er's Ginger Tonic. It cures the worst Cough, ss, Debility, Indigestion, Pain, Take in time. 50 cts.
ERCORNS. The only sure cure for Corns.
ts. 15c. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

Buy ONLY "GALE" REPAIRS
for Gale Plows and other goods.
This trade-mark will tell the story.
Look for it. None are genuine without it. They last longer, work better, and are made from the original patterns, which insures a perfect fit.
GALE MFG. CO., Albion, Mich.

o you Know?

more ills result from an ealthy Liver than any cause—Indigestion, Consti-
n, Headache, Biliousness,
Malaria usually attend it.
anford's Liver Invigorator
egetable specific for Liver ders and their accompany-vils. It cures thousands ot be one of them? Take anford's Liver Invigorator.
Druggist will supply you.

ATENTS
and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Pat-ness conducted for MODERATE FEES.
E IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE can secure patent in less time than those om Washington.
model, drawing or photo., with descrip-
e advise, if patentable or not, free of
Our fee not due till patent is secured.
PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with ces in the U. S. and foreign countries
Address,
A. SNOW & CO.
PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

s Tabules cure constipation.
s Tabules: pleasant laxative.
s Tabules: a family remedy.

LABOR AND THE TARIFF.

A Reduction of Revenue Does Not Mean Less Wages.

England Holds Her Commercial Supremacy by Her Commercial Freedom—Give Our Factories Free Material and We Can Control the World's Trade.

Protection is a double injury to our industrial classes because: (1) It increases prices, and consequently the cost of living, while (2) it reduces the demand for labor and the rate of wages.

(1) It increases prices and consequently the cost of living because you add a tariff and the price goes up; take it off, and the price goes down.

(2) Protection reduces the demand for labor, and the rate of wages, because: (1) High protective prices reduce consumption, reduced consumption reduces the demand for labor and the rate of wages. (2) Cheap labor can never successfully compete with skilled labor. (3) American labor is the best.

(1) High protective prices reduce consumption and injure labor.

To illustrate: The Bell telephones cost the manufacturer about $2 apiece; they are rented out from $40 to $120 a year (say an average of $60 net after deducting expenses); but the men engaged in manufacturing telephones get no increase of wages on account of this enormous profit; they get the market price of wages and no more. All this immense profit goes to the capitalist.

True, in this case the monopoly is given by a patent, but the effect is the same whether the monopoly is given by a patent or by the tariff and trusts.

On the other hand, take the Diamond Match Company. They will sell you 100 matches for a cent, less than one-quarter of the price a few years ago, and yet the match company employs thousands of men, women and children, paying them regular wages.

Labor receives the same price for its work, whether they are manufacturing telephones at a cost of $2 that are rented out for $60 a year or manufacturing matches at 100 matches for a cent.

Suppose the Bell Telephone Company, instead of charging $60 a year, as they do now, should sell the telephones at $2.50 apiece, the result would be a thousand telephones in use then where there is one now. This would give employment to a thousand men where only one gets employment to-day.

On the other hand, suppose the Diamond Match Company should increase matches to a cent apiece (assuming that they could be protected by legislation in so doing), there would be not more than one match used then where there are 100 used now.

The result would be that 99 per cent. of all the people employed in the match industry would be thrown out of employment, while the fierce competition for the small amount of work remaining to be done would reduce the wages to starvation prices.

Of course I have cited extreme cases for the purpose of making the illustration forcible, but the result would be the same if we examine the experience in any industry. Take, for example, iron, one of the most extensive and staple products. We, find, by the United States census of 1890, that the product of American iron ore in 1880 was 7,120,362 tons, and the average wages paid during that year was $308.40, and the ore was sold at the average price of $3.25 per ton. In 1889 the product of American iron ore amounted to 14,518,041 tons; the average wages during that year were $409.95, and the ore was sold at the average price of $2.30 per ton.

It will be seen from this that while in 1880 the price of iron ore was $3.25, and that price dropped in 1889 to $2.30 per ton (nearly one-third), yet the price of wages advanced from $308.40 in 1880 to $409.95 in 1889, or nearly one-third. In other words, while the price of ore dropped one-third, the rate of wages advanced one-third. If the theory of the protectionists is true that an increase of price means an increase in wages, and a reduction in price means a reduction in wages, why when the price fell one-third did the wages advance one-third?

Wages depend upon the consumption, not the price of the product. It appears from the above figures that the consumption of iron ore doubled, and the wages advanced one-third, although the price fell one-third. The low price caused an increased consumption, the increased consumption created a demand for labor, and the increased demand advanced wages.

The sugar industry shows the same result. The McKinley tariff bill with all its faults has one excellent provision: it removed the tariff from raw sugar. Everybody knows that as soon as the tariff was removed the price of sugar dropped the amount of the tariff, but were the wages of the men engaged in the manufacture of sugar reduced? Not a cent. On the contrary, the reduced price increased the consumption enormously, necessitating an increase in the quantity manufactured, and the employment of additional labor. Besides, this reduction in the price of sugar not only maintained the rate and increased the volume of wages, but saved $50,000,000 a year to the people.

Our manufacturers can prosper either by great production and small profits, or restricted production and large profits. They have chosen the latter course; protected by an immense tariff they have organized themselves into trusts, restricted their product and maintained their prices far beyond the natural market.

This decreases the demand for labor, reduces the price of wages and increases the cost of living. Let us by reducing the tariff compel the manufacturers to adopt the policy of great production and small profits; this would increase wages and reduce the cost of living.

(2) Cheap labor can never successfully compete with skilled labor. This brings us to the often repeated statements of the protectionists that if we reduce our tariff "we will be ruined by the pauper labor of Europe."

What is meant by the "pauper labor of Europe?" Surely the industrial millions of Europe are not paupers. If this is an epitaph used to attract attention in a forcible manner to the rate of wages paid in Europe, let us examine the wages paid there.

Europe is composed of many separate nations, each living under different laws, conditions and commercial policies. The relative amounts paid for the same kind of labor in the various nations of Europe are as follows: Russia, $3.60; Austria, Italy, Spain and Portugal, $3.76; Germany, $3.84; France, $5.00; England, $7.74, while India (which is a fair type of Asiatic nations) pays only 70 cents. It will be seen from this that Russia pays the lowest wages in Europe and England the highest, and that Asiatic nations pay less than 20 per cent. of Russian wages and less than 10 per cent. of English wages. Why not amend this oft-repeated expression by saying the "pauper labor of Asia?"

Why don't the cheap labor of Asia ruin England? Why has not England erected an immense tariff wall against "the pauper labor of Asia?" That she has not done so is well known, and it is well known that she is not ruined; on the contrary, England is enormously in advance of Asia and is accumulating wealth almost immeasurably faster.

As we have already seen the different political subdivisions of Europe pay different wages. England pays the highest wages, France pays about 65 per cent. of English wages, while the other nations of Europe pay less than half of English wages.

England is absolutely free trade; all the other nations of Europe mentioned are protected.

If protection protects, then England pays the lowest wages, and the protected countries in Europe the highest, but the facts are reverse. England pays the highest wages and the protected countries the lowest; the trade between them is enormous. Why is not England ruined by the pauper labor of her neighbors? Spain, Russia, Austria, Germany and Italy can take their clothing, carpets, cloths, iron, boots, shoes, hats, machinery, in fact, substantially all the products of industry (except liquor and tobacco), ship them to London, and have them entered absolutely free of duty; they pay less than half of English wages. Why is not England ruined by their "pauper labor?"

France pays only 65 per cent. of the English wages; divided from England by a narrow channel, she can ship the products of her labor there, and sell it, absolutely free of duty. Why is not England "ruined by the pauper labor of France?"

Why is it that England, an absolutely free trade country, pays the highest wages of any country in Europe, and very much higher? In fact she pays the highest wages of any nation on earth, except the United States.

There is absolute free trade between Asia and England. Why is it that England takes their raw material, carries it to England, manufactures it into fabrics, returns it to Asia, and the Asiatics pay for the entire labor of the English workmen, and those workmen get ten times the wages of the Asiatics?

If you ask a protectionist what particular labor in Europe he refers to, his reply is, "the pauper labor of England."

We have seen that England pays more wages than any other nation on earth, except this country; why should he call that "pauper labor," and why should he be afraid of the country that pays the highest wages?

But the protectionists say we have prospered under a protective tariff. It would be better to say we have prospered notwithstanding our protective tariff. Besides, we have protection only in regard to our external policy. The founders of our government wisely provided that absolute free trade should exist between the several states of the union, and while many of the states have, from a mistaken notion that protection protects, tried to establish what they are pleased to call a protective policy for the state discriminating against the products of other states, yet the federal courts holding that our constitution means absolute free trade between the states, have prohibited each state from in any way interfering with such free and unrestricted trade.

But we are told this free trade is between ourselves; we keep the foreigner out, and maintain uniform rates of wages here. That is an error; the wages paid in the different states are very different. Take for example in that much protected industry iron, and we find unskilled daily wages in blast furnaces to vary in the different states as follows: Virginia pays 82 cents, Alabama 98 cents, Pennsylvania $1.29, while skilled labor in the manufacture of iron receives daily wages in the different states as follows:

Alabama, $2.25; Massachusetts, $2.70; Pennsylvania, $3.05; Ohio, $3.87; Kentucky, $4.62.

What has been said of the wages paid in iron industries is substantially true in regard to the other industries of the different states; they pay from 10 to 100 per cent. difference in wages for the same kind of labor.

If free trade produces uniform wages, why does this immense difference exist between the wages paid in the different states of our union?

But, notwithstanding all these discrepancies in wages, each state prospers. Our country is nearly as large territorially as Europe; our people are the greatest producers and the greatest consumers on earth; each state has developed those industries that it can develop to the best advantage, and, by the interchange of their several products, all have prospered.

Thus it appears that free trade between England and Asia does not equalize wages; free trade between England and the continent of Europe does not equalize wages; free trade between the several states of the union does not equalize wages.

Rates of wages depend upon the capacity of the wage earner, and the conditions under which he labors, and until all men are equally endowed, and all conditions the same, the rate of wages must be different. The great differences in the wages paid in the different states of our union arise from many causes, among which are advantages of location, volume of business, scarcity of labor, cost of living, character of the machinery used, size of the factories, etc. In fact our country is comparatively new and the different styles of development of the different states is an important factor.

But you will ask: "How can England pay such large wages and maintain her commercial supremacy; why isn't she ruined by the other nations of Europe with their cheap labor?"

There are three principal causes: Her intelligent labor, superior machinery and commercial policy. The industrial classes of civilized nations are not now employed for main strength and stupidity; they are paid for intelligence, skill and energy.

To illustrate, the New York Central pays Mr. Chauncey M. Depew fifty thousand dollars a year, and its brakemen fifty dollars a month; that railroad is not a philanthropist, it is simply paying the market value of services. Skill is always paid for; a carpenter gets more than a common laborer, a bricklayer more than a hodcarrier.

To apply these principles to conditions: In India the climate is warm, the wants of the people are few and easily supplied. They are lazy, ignorant and unskillful, and are dominated by the superior intelligence and better paid industrial classes of England.

England has more skilled labor and better machinery than other European countries. On the continent of Europe from twenty to forty per cent. of manufactured products are made by hand, while in England it is less than five per cent. Hand labor cannot compete with machinery in the hands of skilled operators, while the superior quality of British machinery is another important factor in her favor.

But England does not stop with her superior labor and machinery. She scours the seas for raw material, admits it to her factories free of duty, returns it manufactured with the profits added, while the protected countries place the tariff like a wall between the material and the factory, injuring both their manufacture and their commerce. Everybody sends their goods to England; English labor unloads, stores, manufactures, reloads and carries them to their destination; i. e., her labor handles other people's goods. Then everybody sells and buys their goods there, making her the market of the world. This gives her an advantage in disposing of her own product, increasing and cheapening her facilities for doing business, and this increase of business increases labor and the price of labor.

This shows that industrial intelligence, superior machinery, and commercial freedom pay the highest wages and dominate the commercial world. So long as England is the only nation having the union of these three, so long will she continue her commercial supremacy, but when any other great nation unites the three, and has superior labor, England's supremacy will cease; and that brings us to the third proposition.

(3) American labor is the best, or, to quote, "the industrial classes of America are twenty-five years in advance of those of England in all the requirements of success, intelligence, skill and energy." American machinery is superior to the British article, and a greater percentage of manufactured products are made by machinery in this country than in England. England defeats us in the markets of the world solely by her commercial policy. We cannot buy the raw material abroad, pay the high tariff demanded by our government before we can bring it to our factories, and then compete in the open market with the English manufacturer who is allowed his raw material free. Give us commercial freedom and we will not only supply our own people, we will not only supply the new world, but we will cross both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, and wrench from England her commercial supremacy.

It is said we have a condition built upon the faith of a protective tariff which a sudden and radical change might injure. There need be no difficulty; raw material should be admitted free at once, and the tariff on manufactured articles reduced gradually to a revenue basis.

GEORGE WILLIAM MOORE.

THE DIFFERENCE.

Public Property No Longer. Private Plunder.

An examination of the bills for the several state offices for a series of years under republican control compared with the bills for the same items in the same offices under the present democratic administration, leads any fair mind irresistibly to the conclusion that the stationery, postage, pens, pencils, combs, brushes, brooms, mops, soap and other articles purchased by the state for office equipment were common plunder. From fifty to a hundred families, whose members were in the state employ, must have drawn their home supplies from the state purchases during the republican administrations.

Some of their jealous, taxpaying neighbors in Lansing have often declared this to be a notorious fact. The conclusion drawn is irresistible, for the reason that the present administration is actually doing more work in every state office, an increase incident to the natural growth of business and the clearing up of the arrears of work left by the republicans. At the same time, the items for expenses of supplies of the above character average but a fraction of the expense incurred by the republicans. Such a difference can be accounted for to some extent by the prudence employed by the present administration in the purchase of general supplies. But even a democrat cannot reduce the price of postage stamps. He can only reduce the expense for postage by an honest use of the state's supply. In many cases this has resulted in cutting down the republican expense for postage more than half.

SPEND YOUR VACATION ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $15 from Detroit or $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a delightful romantic spot; its climate is most invigorating. Save your money by traveling between Detroit and Cleveland via the D. & C. Line. Fare, $5.25. This division is equipped with two new steamers, "City of Detroit" and "City of Cleveland," now famous as the largest and most magnificent on fresh water. Leave every night, arriving the following morning at destination, making close connection with all morning trains. Palace steamers, four trips per week between Detroit, Mackinac, Petoskey, the "Soo" and Marquette. Send for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. Schantz, G. P. A. Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co., Detroit, Mich.

PRONOUNCED HOPELESS, YET SAVED.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at J. J. Orr's drug store. Large size 50¢. and $1.00.

A bicyclist taking a header presents a combination of wheel and woe.

We have sold Ely's Cream Balm about three years, and have recommended its use in more than a hundred special cases of catarrh. The unanimous answer to our inquiries is, "It's the best remedy that I have ever used." Our experience is, that where parties continued its use, it never failed to cure.—J. H. Montgomery & Co., druggists, Decorah, Iowa.

When I began using Ely's Cream Balm my catarrh was so bad that I had headache the whole time and discharged a large amount of filthy matter. That has almost entirely disappeared and I have not had headache since.—J. H. Sommers, Stephney, Conn.

IT IS A DUTY you owe yourself and family to get the best value for your money. Economize in your footwear by purchasing W. L. Douglas Shoes, which represent the best value for prices asked, as thousands will testify.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3 SHOE FOR GENTLEMEN,
THE BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD FOR THE MONEY.

A genuine sewed shoe, that will not rip, fine calf, seamless, smooth inside, flexible, more comfortable, stylish and durable than any other shoe ever sold at the price. Equals custom made shoes costing from $4 to $5.

$4 and $3 Hand-sewed, fine calf shoes. The most stylish, easy and durable shoes ever sold at the price. They equal fine imported shoes costing from $6 to $12.

$3.50 Police Shoe, worn by farmers and all others who want a good heavy calf, three soled, extension edge shoe, easy to walk in, and will keep the feet dry and warm.

$2.50 Fine Calf, $2.25 and $2.00 Workingmen's Shoes will give more wear for the money than any other make. They are made for service. The increasing sales show that workingmen have found this out.

Boys' $2.00 and Youths' $1.75 School Shoes are worn by the boys everywhere. The most serviceable shoes sold at the prices.

Ladies' $3.00 Hand-sewed, $2.50, $2.00 and $1.75 Shoes for Misses are made of the best Dongola or fine Calf, as desired. They are very stylish, comfortable and durable. The $3.00 shoe equals custom made shoes costing from $4.00 to $5.00. Ladies who wish to economize in their footwear are finding this out.

Caution.—W. L. Douglas' name and the price is stamped on the bottom of each shoe; look for it when you buy. Beware of dealers attempting to substitute other makes for them. Such substitutions are fraudulent and subject to prosecution by law for obtaining money under false pretences.

W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Sold by

HARRIS & HITESHU, Tecumseh.

- - - LADIES - -

In delicate health, the result of irregularity in the natural functions or of any of the ills peculiar to your sex, if you will write me, I will send you full information in regard to my cure, together with a few samples of the genuine testimonials I have received from thousands of thankful women. The M. U. Pastilles have stood the test of 18 years in a very extensive medical practice and have never failed to give beneficial results. Sample 12 cents; full box $1.00. Do not fail to learn more of them at once. Dr. H. H. Jackson 103 State Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The following letter is but a sample of the many which are constantly being received by me. The name and address will be given any lady asking for the same:

DR. JACKSON,

Dear Sir:—I gladly recommend your M. U. Pastilles to all ladies suffering with female diseases. Having myself been bedfast for ten months and could find no remedy until I began to use your Pastilles, when I soon began to recover, and after using about two boxes I was well and sound for which I thank God. I have since directed very many ladies to the use of your Pastilles with wonderful success. The use of them should be known to every suffering lady." ul16-15

CURE THAT
Cold
AND STOP THAT
Cough.
N. H. Downs' Elixir
WILL DO IT.

Price, 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.
Warranted. Sold everywhere.
HENRY, JOHNSON & LORD, Props., Burlington, Vt.

The motto of the proprietors of Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters is, "the greatest good to the greatest number," and so sell a large bottle of a valuable remedy for the small price of 25 cents, and warrant every bottle to give satisfaction or money refunded.

She: I suppose your father will be very angry when I speak to him. He: Not necessarily, if you answer his questions satisfactorily. She: Goodness! What will he ask me? He: What means you have to support a husband.

Arnica & Oil Liniment is very healing and soothing, and does wonders when applied to old sores.

Ripans Tabules cure colic.
Ripans Tabules prolong life.

LAKE SUPERIOR TRANSIT CO.

The Great Duluth Route.

Intended sailings of steamers from Detroit for Sault Ste Marie, Duluth and other Lake Superior Ports:—Mondays, 8. P. M.; Thursdays and Saturdays, 10 30 P. M.; central time. For Cleveland Erie and Buffalo, Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays; 5 P. M., central time, making railroad connections for all points East and South. Rail Connections at Duluth for St. Paul, Minneapolis, Northern Pacific and Great Northern Railway Points, Pacific Coast, etc. Baggage checked through to destination. For tickets and information, apply to J. T. WHITING, Gen'l Agent. Dock and Office, 33 West Atwater St., near Griswold, DETROIT MICH.

KING OF THE BLOOD

The Most Thorough Purifier of the Blood Yet Discovered.
Cures all Humors, from a Cold to the worst Scrofula.

It purifies the Blood.
It invigorates the Liver.
It regulates the Bowels.
It strengthens the stomach.
It gives vivacity in place of lassitude; cheerfulness in place of gloom, and robust vigor in place of debility.

Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Disordered Liver, Constipation, Nervous Affections, General Debility, in short all the numerous diseases and discomforts caused by impure blood are speedily conquered by this powerful corrector, the chief and sovereign of all ancient or modern medical discoveries—KING OF THE BLOOD.

Its name is its best description as it is a royal dispenser of the blessings of health and vanquishes the foes that lurk in the blood.

It banishes PIMPLES, SALT RHEUM, SCALY ERUPTIONS, ULCERS, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES and all SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

It checks CONSUMPTION in its early stages. It has frequently cured it when advanced.

It disperses TUMORS and CANCERS without the Surgeon's knife.

It cures DROPSY, general or partial.

It cures FEMALE WEAKNESS and DISEASE.

It reduces in a safe and effectual manner all swellings, external or internal.

It eradicates the effects of Venerial Disease and Mineral Poisons and establishes a sound constitution.

Many certificates, much further information and full directions for using, will be found in the pamphlet, "Treatise on Diseases of the Blood," in which each bottle is enclosed.

Price $1 per bottle containing 12 ounces, or 50 doses. Sold by druggists per medicine.

If your druggist does not happen to have it on hand, request him to order a supply of it for you. It will be cheaper than for you to order direct of us, and less trouble.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Proprietors, BUFFALO N. Y.

D'ARCY TRASK'S MAGNETIC OINTMENT.

The Great Healer of all Inflamed Injuries and Disorders.

It is constantly effecting the most wonderful cures, while the unparalleled demand with which it meets, stamps it at once as the greatest medicine of the age for outward application.

The most incredulous are convinced, and the most skeptical are compelled to believe in the power of this great remedy.

WHAT IT CURES.

All Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Burns, Sore Throat, Lameness, Rheumatism, Piles, Inflammation of Lungs and Bowels, Bronchitis, Croup, Salt Rheum, Chilblains, Affection of the Spine, Erysipelas, Nervous Irritation, and all disorders attendant with Inflammation.

It never fails to restore the natural functions of the skin and equalize the circulation of the blood. By this means a controlling power is gained over the most malignant forms of disease. It penetrates to every portion of the human frame; every bone, muscle, vein, nerve and ligament is searched out and made sensible to its soothing and healing influence. Hence it copes readily with internal as well as external diseases.

Over 40 Years.

This Ointment has been used by the people throughout the United States, and our confidence in its qualities is such that as we have no space here to insert any of the numerous certificates and cures which we have from all parts of the country, we simply ask those readers of this notice who have ever used this Ointment, to frankly state their experience with it to inquiring friends. If but one in a hundred would do this we should be perfectly satisfied with the result. Full directions for use will be found on pamphlet around each bottle.

Prices 25 and 40 cents per bottle. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO., Prop's Buffalo, New York.

BLACKSMITHING!

HAVING rented the old Rowland shop on Logan Street, I am prepared to execute

General Blacksmithing Work of all Kinds.

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

Satisfaction Guaranteed and Charges Reasonable.

A. J. WHITING.

FAT FOLKS REDUCED

From Mrs. N. J. HAYLEY, of Belleville, Kan.: "When I began your treatment 3 mos. ago I was so exhausted by sickness that I could not do any work. The accompanying figures show the result of 3 months' treatment. I now feel like a new being. Ills and pains are all gone. My friends are surprised. Will cheerfully reply to inquiries with stamp inclosed."

	Before.	After.	Less.
Weight	245 lbs	195 lbs	50 lbs
Bust	48 in.	37 in.	11 in.
Waist	40 in.	29 in.	11 in.
Hips	57 in.	48 in.	9 in.

PATIENTS TREATED BY MAIL. CONFIDENTIAL. Harmless. No Starving. Send 6 cents in stamps for particulars to DR. O. W. F. SNYDER, McVICKER'S THEATER, CHICAGO, ILL.

TECUMSEH HERALD

Issued Every Thursday Morning.

BY S. C. STACY.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent).

WASHINGTON, July 29, 1892.

The House by a vote of 118 to 107 decided in favor of the World's Fair appropriation, but the opponents of the appropriation declined to give in and moved for a reconsideration, and then began fillibustering to prevent a vote being taken on that motion. It is claimed that about fifty members of the House have agreed to keep up the fillibustering until a majority of the entire House shall vote for the appropriation or the Senate shall agree to adjourn without its being passed. A majority of the entire House will not vote for the appropriation, because many of them are away and will not return for that purpose, and the Senate will not agree to adjourn until this appropriation is agreed to by the House. The fillibusters are bluffing very bravely, but it is not believed that they will have the backbone to actually carry out their threats, and the prediction is made that before this letter is in print they will have weakened, and the appropriation have been made.

There is no discount upon the "pull" the national banks have in the House. When a resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for a statement of the amount of taxes paid by them to National, State and territorial governments and for other information, which had been referred to the Ways and Means committee, but not reported back to the House, was called up as a privileged matter it was promptly laid on the table by a vote of 161 to 53.

The Senate has passed a resolution authorizing the committee on Territories to visit New Mexico, Arizona, Utah and Oklahoma during the recess, to personally investigate their condition.

